Omitted (Table 3)

SEC. 205. (a) The Postmaster General shall transmit to the Congress, on or before January 15, 1956, a comprehensive report of operations under this title. Such report shall include, among other matters, the following—

(1) information, in summary and in detail, with respect to actions by the Postmaster General taken under section 201, with specific reference to the definitions of positions, the designations of the respective salary levels to which such positions are assigned, and the reasons for such actions;

(2) a statement showing the number of employees determined to be in each key position under section 203, and the occupational titles of such employees immediately prior to the conversion of such employees under section 304 (b);

(3) a statement with respect to the operation of the appeals system prescribed by section 202, including the number of such appeals by employees, a general discussion of the reasons for such appeals, the actions taken thereon and the reasons therefor; and

(4) such other information and evidence as is necessary to enable the Committees on Post Office and Civil Service of the Senate and the House of Representatives to carry out the responsibility for supervision and review of the administration of this title, in accordance with section 136 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 (Public Law 601, Seventy-ninth Congress).

(b) The report submitted by the Postmaster General under subsection (a) of this section shall be delivered to the President of the Senate and to the Speaker of the House of Representatives on the same day, and shall be referred to the Committees on Post Office and Civil Service of both Houses. The report shall be printed as a House Document.

SEC. 302. (a) There is established a basic salary schedule which shall be known as the Rural Carrier Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be "RCS", for carriers in the rural delivery service, which is based in part on fixed compensation per annum and in part on specified rates per mile per annum. Basic salary shall be paid to rural carriers in accordance with this schedule.

RURAL CARRIER SCHEDULE

	For annum rates and steps

(b) A rural carrier serving one triweekly route shall be paid on the basis of a route one-half the length of the route served by him. A rural carrier serving two triweekly routes shall be paid on the basis of a route one-half the combined length of the two routes.

(c) The Postmaster General may pay such additional compensation as he may determine to be fair and reasonable in each individual case to rural carriers serving heavily patronized routes not exceeding sixty-one miles in length. He may not pay additional compensation to a carrier serving such a route in an amount which would exceed $4,700, when added to the basic salary for the maximum step in the Rural Carrier Schedule for his route. In case any such heavily patronized route is extended in length, the rural carrier assigned to such route at the time of such extension shall not be reduced in pay.

(d) The Postmaster General may pay additional compensation to rural carriers who are required to carry pouch mail to intermediate post offices, or for intersecting loop routes, in all cases where it appears that the carriage of such pouches increases the expense of the equipment required by the carrier or materially increases the amount of labor performed by him. Such compensation shall not exceed the sum of $12 per annum for each mile such carrier is required to carry such pouches.

(e) In addition to the other compensation, rural carriers shall be paid the authorized fee for making special delivery of mail. Such fee shall not be paid when (1) no special delivery service is rendered, (2) delivery is made into a rural mail box, or (3) delivery is made to the addressee or his representative on the rural carrier's route.

SEC. 303. (a) There is established a basic salary schedule which shall be known as the Fourth-Class Office Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be "FOS", for postmasters in post offices of the fourth class which is based on the gross postal receipts as contained in returns of the post office for the calendar year immediately preceding. Basic salary shall be paid to postmasters in post offices of the fourth class in accordance with this schedule, and basic salary so paid, together with other forms of compensation provided by this Act, shall replace all existing forms of compensation for such postmasters.

(b) The basic salary of postmasters in fourth-class post offices shall be re-adjusted for changes in gross receipts at the start of the first pay period after the beginning of each fiscal year. In adjusting a postmaster's basic salary under this section the basic salary shall be fixed at the lowest step which is higher than the basic salary received by the postmaster at the end of the preceding fiscal year. If there is no such step the basic salary shall be fixed at the highest step for the adjusted gross receipts of the office. Each increase in basic salary because of change in gross receipts shall be deemed the equivalent of a step-increase under section 401 of this Act and the waiting period, for purposes of advancement to the next step, shall begin on the date of adjustment.

(c) The basic salaries of postmasters at newly established offices of the fourth class shall be fixed at the lowest salary rate. Whenever unusual conditions prevail at any post office of the fourth class the Postmaster General may advance such office to the appropriate category or class indicated by the receipts of the preceding quarter. Any fourth-class office advanced to the appropriate category or class pursuant to this subsection shall not be reduced in category or class until the start of the first pay period after July 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which it was so advanced, at which time it shall be assigned to the category or class indicated by the receipts for the preceding calendar year.

(d) Persons who perform the duties of postmaster at post offices of the fourth class where there is a vacancy or during the absence of the postmaster on sick or annual leave, or leave without pay, shall be paid the same basic salary to which they would have been entitled if regularly appointed as such postmaster.

(e) The Postmaster General may allow to postmasters in fourth-class post offices additional compensation for separating services and for unusual conditions during a portion of the year, in lieu of an allowance for clerical services for this purpose.

(f) At seasonal post offices of the fourth class, the Postmaster General may authorize the payment of the basic salary prorated over the pay periods such office is open for business during the fiscal year.

(g) Where the gross postal receipts of a post office of the third class for each of two consecutive calendar years are less than $1,500, or where in any calendar year the gross postal receipts are less than $1,400, such post office shall be relegated to the fourth class and the basic salary of the postmaster shall be fixed in the manner provided in subsection (b) of this section.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 304, 60 Stat. 121----- T. 39, § 3541

Sec. 304. (a) Each employee whose basic salary is paid under the Act of July 6, 1945 (59 Stat. 435), as amended, or under the Classification Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 954), as amended, and who on or prior to the effective date of this section has earned but has not been credited with a higher automatic salary grade increase under the Act of July 6, 1945, or a higher within-grade step-increase under the Classification Act of 1949 for his position, or whose basic salary would have been increased on July 1, 1955, by reason of changed postal receipts, shall be given credit for such increase before his basic salary is adjusted under subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The basic salary of each employee in effect immediately prior to the effective date of the Postal Field Service Schedule, the Rural Carrier Schedule, and the Fourth-Class Office Schedule, shall be adjusted as of such adjusted date to the basic salary in the schedules in the following manner:

(1) If the basic salary of the employee is equal to any step established for his position in the appropriate schedule, such step shall be established as the employee's new basic salary.

(2) If the basic salary of the employee is less than the entrance step established for his position in the appropriate schedule, such entrance step shall be established as the employee's new basic salary.

(3) If the basic salary of the employee falls between any two steps established for his position in the appropriate schedule, the higher step shall be established as the employee's new basic salary.

(4) If the basic salary of the employee is greater than the highest step established for his position in the appropriate schedule, such basic salary shall be established as the new basic salary of the employee.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 305, 69 Stat. 121----- Omitted (Table 3)

Sec. 305. (a) When the basic salary of an employee, except an employee whose basic salary immediately prior to the effective date of the Postal Field Service Schedule was fixed by the Classification Act of 1949, is established under section 304 of this Act, each longevity step-increase which such employee has earned prior to the effective date of his schedule shall become a part of his basic compensation and shall constitute a longevity step-increase under section 404 of this Act.

(b) In the case of an employee whose compensation immediately prior to the effective date of the Postal Field Service Schedule was fixed by the Classification Act of 1949, all creditable service under section 404 shall be counted in order to determine such employee's eligibility for longevity step-increases under such section.

Sec. 401. (a) Except as to a substitute employee in the Postal Transportation Service whose position is allocated to salary level PFS-5 as a distribution clerk in a railway or highway post office, each employee whose position is allocated to the Rural Carrier Schedule, the Fourth-Class Office Schedule, or salary level PFS-9 or a lower salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule, who has not reached the highest step for his position, shall be advanced successively to the next higher step for his position at the beginning of the first pay period following the completion of each fifty-two calendar weeks of satisfactory service, if no equivalent increase in basic salary from any cause was received during such period of fifty-two calendar weeks. The benefit of successive step-increases shall be preserved, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, for employees whose continuous service is interrupted by service in the Armed Forces.

(b) Each employee whose position is allocated to salary level PFS-10 or a higher salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule shall be advanced to and including step four of his salary level in the manner provided in subsection (a) of this section. Advancement of such employee to steps higher than step four, exclusive of longevity step-increases, shall be granted by the Postmaster General on the basis of superior performance under regulations issued by him, but no such employee is eligible for more than one step-increase within the time period specified in subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Each substitute employee in the Postal Transportation Service, whose position is allocated to salary level PFS-5 as a distribution clerk in a railway or highway post office, shall be advanced in the manner prescribed for other employees under subsection (a) of this section, but such substitute shall not be advanced beyond step four of salary level PFS-5.

SEC. 402. Each employee in the postal field service is eligible to earn step-increases in accordance with this Act. Except for temporary rural carriers serving in the absence of regular rural carriers on leave without pay or on military leave, credit shall not be allowed for time on the rolls under a temporary appointment for one year or less unless such time on the rolls is continuous to the date of appointment to a position of unlimited duration.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 403, 69 Stat.

122, 123

SEC. 403. In order to retain to the maximum possible extent promotion credits earned by employees under the Act of July 6, 1945, as amended, and in order to prevent the advancement by step-increases of junior employees ahead of senior employees, employees whose basic salaries are adjusted on the effective date of the schedules in this Act shall establish credit toward advancement by step increases under section 401 in the following manner:

(1) Each employee in the automatic grades who had not reached the maximum grade for his position under the provisions of the Act of July 6, 1945, as amended, shall retain the anniversary date established for his next automatic promotion under such Act unless the amount of increase in basic salary which he receives upon adjustment to the appropriate schedule is equal to or greater than the difference between the salary for his automatic grade and the next higher automatic grade for his position under such Act.

(2) Employees in the automatic grades who do not retain their anniversary dates under paragraph (1), above, employees who had reached the maximum grades for their positions, and employees who occupied positions for which single rates were established under the Act of July 6, 1945, as amended, shall begin the waiting period for advancement to the next step for their positions on the date of adjustment to the schedules in this Act.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 404, 69 Stat.

T. 39, § 3558

123, 124

SEC. 404. (a) There are established for each employee longevity steps A, B, and C. For each promotion to a longevity step—

(1) each postmaster at a post office of the fourth class shall receive an amount equal to 5 per centum of his basic salary, or $100 per annum, whichever is the lesser, and

(2) each employee (other than a postmaster at a post office of the fourth class) shall receive $100 per annum.

In computing the percentage increase under this subsection the amount of the increase shall be rounded to the nearest dollar. A half dollar or one-half cent shall be rounded to the next highest dollar or cent, respectively.

(b) Each employee shall be assigned to—

(1) longevity step A at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of thirteen years of service;

(2) longevity step B at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of eighteen years of service; and

(3) longevity step C at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of twenty-five years of service.

(c) (1) There shall be credited, for the purposes of subsection (b)—

(A) all time on the rolls, except time on the rolls as a substitute rural carrier, in the postal field service or in the Post Office Department;

(B) all time on the rolls in the custodial service of the Department of the Treasury continuous to the date of the transfer of the employee to the custodial service of the Post Office Department in accordance with Executive Order Numbered 6166, dated June 10, 1933;

(C) all time on the rolls as a special-delivery messenger at a first-class post office; and

(D) all time on the rolls as a clerk in a third-class post office for which payment is made from authorized allowances.

(2) In determining longevity credit for the purposes of subsection (b) in the case of an employee whose continuous service in the postal field service or in the departmental service of the Post Office Department shall have been interrupted by service with the Armed Forces or to comply with a transfer during war or national emergency as defined by the United States Civil Service Commission, all time engaged in such service with the Armed Forces or on such transfer shall be credited pro rata for each week of such service. All service specified in this subsection, whether continuous or intermittent, shall be credited on the basis of one week for each whole week the employee has been on the rolls, except that credit shall not be allowed for time on the rolls under a temporary appointment for one year or less unless such time on the rolls is continuous to the date of appointment to a position of unlimited duration.

(d) Employees on the rolls on the effective date of this section who are entitled to promotion credit for longevity purposes under section 2 of the Act approved May 3, 1950 (64 Stat. 102; 39 U. S. C. 889), shall retain all rights and benefits established or continued under such section to the same extent as though such section had remained in effect.

(e) Increases under this section shall not be deemed equivalent increases within the meaning of section 401.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 501, 69 Stat. 124..... T. 39, § 3551

SEC. 501. The Postmaster General may appoint any person who has been employed in a civilian capacity in any branch of the Government to any position in a regional or district office or to any professional or scientific position and may place such person in any step in the salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule which is less than one full step above the highest basic salary which such person received from the United States.

SEC. 502. (a) Any employee who is promoted or transferred to a position in a higher salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule shall be paid basic salary at the lowest step of such higher salary level which exceeds his existing basic salary by not less than the amount of difference between the entrance step of the salary level from which promoted and the entrance step of the salary level immediately above the salary level from which promoted. If there is no step in the salary level to which the employee is promoted which exceeds his existing basic salary by at least the amount of such difference, such employee shall be paid (1) the maximum step of the salary level to which promoted or (2) his existing basic salary, whichever is higher.

(b) Regular clerks and carriers in first- and second-class post offices are not eligible for promotion to positions of higher salary levels in their respective offices unless they are in the maximum steps of their respective salary levels. If for any reason such clerks and carriers in such maximum steps are not available those clerks and carriers in the lower steps in such offices shall be eligible for such promotion.

SEC. 503. Each temporary employee who is hired for a continuous period of one year or less for a position under the Postal Field Service Schedule shall be paid a basic salary at the entrance step for the salary level of the position to which he is appointed.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 504, 69 Stat. 124..... T. 39, § 3555

SEC. 504. (a) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to reduce the per annum or hourly basic compensation of any employee on the rolls on the effective date of the Postal Field Service Schedule, the Rural Carrier Schedule, or Fourth-Class Office Schedule, to an amount less than his basic compensation immediately prior to adjustment to such schedules.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "basic compensation" includes basic compensation under the Classification Act of 1949.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 601, 69 Stat. 125----- T. 39, §§ 3333, 3541

SEC. 601. (a) Employees in the postal field service shall be paid compensation in twenty-six installments. Each such installment shall be the compensation for a pay period of two weeks.

(b) As basic compensation for a full pay period, an employee, other than an hourly rate employee, shall be paid an amount equal to one twenty-sixth of his annual basic compensation. As basic compensation for a portion of a pay period, such employee shall be paid basic compensation computed in accordance with subsection (d) of this section for the number of days and hours of service for which he has credit.

(c) As basic compensation for the pay period, an hourly rate employee shall be paid an amount equal to the product of his hourly rate of basic compensation and the number of hours of service for which he has credit.

(d) For purposes of computing rates of compensation other than annual rates the following rules shall govern:

(1) To compute an hourly rate of basic compensation for employees other than substitute employees, the annual rate of basic compensation shall be divided by 2,080.

(2) To compute an hourly rate of basic compensation for substitute employees, the annual rate of basic compensation shall be divided by 2,016.

(3) To compute the daily rate of compensation for postmasters, postal inspectors, and rural carriers, the annual rate of compensation shall be divided by 312.

(4) To compute the daily rate of basic compensation for annual rate employees other than postmasters, postal inspectors, and rural carriers, the hourly rate of basic compensation shall be multiplied by the number of daily hours of service required.

(e) Except for lump-sum payments for accumulated leave upon the termination of employment, an annual rate employee shall not be paid more than one twenty-sixth of his basic compensation as basic compensation for a pay period.

(f) All rates shall be computed to the nearest cent, counting one-half cent and over as a whole cent.

(g) When a pay period for employees to whom this Act applies begins in one fiscal year and ends in another, the gross amount of the earnings of such employees for such pay period may be regarded as a charge against the appropriation or allotment current at the end of such pay period.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 602, 69 Stat. 125----- T. 39, § 3571

SEC. 602. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, employees shall not be required to work more than eight hours a day. The work schedule of employees shall be regulated so that the eight hours of service shall not extend over a longer period than ten consecutive hours.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 603, 69 Stat.

125, 126

SEC. 603. In emergencies or if the needs of the service require, the Postmaster General may require employees to work more than eight hours in one day, or on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays. For such service he shall grant employees in the "PFS" Schedule compensatory time or pay such employees overtime compensation under the following rules:

(1) Each employee in or below salary level PFS-7 shall be paid for all work in excess of eight hours in one day at the rate of 150 per centum of his hourly basic compensation.

(2) (A) Each employee in or below salary level PFS-7 who performs work on Saturdays or Sundays shall, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to the excess time worked within five working days, except that, in lieu of such compensatory time, the Postmaster General may, if the exigencies of the service require, authorize such employee to be paid, for work performed on Saturdays and Sundays during the month of December, at the rate of 150 per centum of his hourly basic compensation.

(B) If the work performed by such employees on Saturdays and Sundays is less than eight hours, such service, in the discretion of the Postmaster General may be carried forward and combined with similar service performed on other Saturdays and Sundays. The employees may be allowed compensatory time for such combined service or any part thereof at any time, except that, whenever at least eight hours of such service has been accumulated, the employees shall be allowed eight hours compensatory time on one day within five working days next succeeding the Saturday or Sunday on which the total accumulated service was at least eight hours.

(3) For time worked on a day referred to as a holiday in the Act of December 26, 1941 (5 U. S. C., sec. 87b), or on a day designated by Executive order as a holiday for Federal employees generally, each employee in or below salary level PFS-7, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, shall either be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to such time worked within thirty working days, or be paid premium compensation at a rate equal to his hourly basic compensation for the time so worked. For work performed on Christmas Day, premium compensation shall be paid at a rate equal to 150 per centum of the employee's hourly basic compensation.

(4) Each employee in or above salary level PFS-8 who performs overtime or holiday work as described in this section, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, shall be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to such overtime or holiday work.

T. 39, § 3575

SEC. 605. (a) Sections 602, 603, and 604 of this Act do not apply to the heads of regional or district offices and such other employees of the headquarters staff of regional and district offices as the Postmaster General designates, or to postmasters, rural carriers, post office inspectors, traveling mechanics, and traveling examiners of equipment and supplies.

(b) Sections 602 and 603 of this Act do not apply to substitute employees and to employees in the Postal Transportation Service assigned to road duty.

(c) Section 602 of this Act does not apply to employees in post offices of the third class.

(d) The provisions of section 603 of this Act relating to compensatory time and overtime compensation for work on Saturdays or Sundays do not apply to hourly rate regular employees and to employees in post offices of the third class.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 606, 69 Stat. 127----- T. 39, §§ 3302, 3572

SEC. 606. (a) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, the Postmaster General shall prescribe the conditions under which substitute positions may be established.

(b) Each substitute, hourly rate, and temporary employee who reports for duty in compliance with an official order shall be employed for not less than two hours following the hour at which such employee is ordered to report.

(c) In the case of positions which are the same as or equivalent to the positions enumerated in the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the appointment of substitute postal employees, and for other purposes", approved June 4, 1936, as amended (39 U. S. C., sec. 834), the ratio of classified substitute employees to regular employees shall not be more than one classified substitute to five regular employees or fraction thereof with respect to each such position, except that in offices having fewer than five regular employees there may be one substitute clerk and one substitute carrier, and one substitute in the motor vehicle service.

T. 39, § 3581

SEC. 607. (a) The Postmaster General shall organize the work of employees in the Postal Transportation Service who are assigned to road duty into regularly scheduled tours of duty. Such tours of duty shall aggregate an average of not more than eight hours a day for two hundred and fifty-two days a year, including an allowance of one hour and thirty-five minutes for work to be performed on layoff periods. He shall not grant allowances of time for work performed on layoff periods to employees other than employees engaged in the distribution of mail.

(b) Employees in the Postal Transportation Service assigned to road duty, except substitute employees, who are required to perform work in excess of the scheduled time of their regular tours of duty as established by the Postmaster General shall be paid at the rate of 150 per centum of their hourly basic compensation for such overtime work. In arriving at the amount of overtime to be paid at any time during the calendar year, any deficiencies accrued up to that time during the same calendar year shall be offset against any overtime work by the employee.

(c) Substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service assigned to road duty shall be paid on an hourly basis for actual work performed according to the time value of each trip of such road duty, including an allowance of time for all work required on layoff periods.

(d) In addition to compensation provided under this Act, the Postmaster General, under regulations prescribed by him, may pay not more than $9 per day as travel allowances in lieu of actual expenses, at fixed rates per annum or by such other method as he deems equitable to regular and substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service who are assigned to road duty, after the expiration of ten hours from the time the initial run begins.

(e) Substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service shall be credited with full time while traveling under orders of the Post Office Department to and from their designated headquarters to take up assignments.

SEC. 608. (a) In addition to the compensation provided under this Act regular and substitute special-delivery carriers and special-delivery messengers at first-class post offices shall be paid an automotive equipment maintenance allowance at the rate of 7 cents per mile or major fraction thereof for miles traveled under the direction of the Department in making delivery of special-delivery mail or at the option of the Postmaster General at the rate of 90 cents per hour spent in making delivery of special-delivery mail. Payments for equipment maintenance shall be made at the same periods and in the same manner as payments of regular compensation.

(b) The Postmaster General may provide or hire vehicles under an allowance basis for use in the delivery of special-delivery mail whenever the needs of the postal field service so require.

June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 609, 69 Stat. 128-----T. 39, § 3543

SEC. 609. (a) In addition to the compensation provided in the Rural Carrier Schedule, each rural carrier shall be paid for equipment maintenance a sum equal to 9 cents per mile for each mile or major fraction of a mile scheduled. The Postmaster General may pay such additional equipment maintenance allowance as he determines to be fair and reasonable, not in excess of $3 per day when combined with the equipment maintenance allowance provided by the preceding sentence, to rural carriers entitled to additional compensation under section 302 (c) of this Act for serving heavily patronized routes. Payments for such equipment maintenance shall be made at the same periods and in the same manner as payments of regular compensation.

(b) Any employee in the postal field service who is assigned to serve any rural route, and who furnishes the vehicle used in the performance of such service, shall be paid the equipment maintenance allowance provided for the route so served, in addition to his compensation.

T. 39, § 4007

(a) Whenever the Postmaster General shall determine during proceedings before him that in the administration of the Act of August 16, 1950 (39 U. S. C. 259a), such action is necessary to the effective enforcement of such Act, he may enter an interim order directing that mail addressed to any person be held and detained by the postmaster at the post office of delivery for a period of twenty days from the effective date of such order. Notice of such order, advising such person of the holding and detention and setting forth in specific detail the reasons therefor, together with a copy of this Act, and the aforesaid Act of August 16, 1950, shall be sent forthwith by registered or certified mail to such person at the post office at which such mail is to be held and detained. Any such order for the holding and detention of mail addressed to any person shall expire at the end of the twenty days after the issuance thereof unless the Postmaster General shall file, prior to the expiration of such twenty-day period, a petition in the United States district court for the district in which the post office in which such mail is held or detained is situated, and obtain an order directing that mail addressed to such person be held and detained for such further period as the court shall determine. Notice of the filing of any such petition shall be given forthwith by the clerk of the court in which such petition is filed to such person, at the post office at which the mail is being detained (or otherwise as the clerk of the court shall determine to be appropriate), and such person shall have five days in which to appear and show cause why such order should not issue. If, upon all the evidence before it, the court shall determine that the continued withholding and detention of mail addressed to such person is reasonable and necessary to the effective enforcement of the Act of August 16, 1950, it shall forthwith issue an order directing that mail addressed to such person be held and detained by the postmaster at the office of delivery until conclusion of the proceeding by the Postmaster General or until further order of the court. If the court shall determine, upon all the evidence before it, that the continued withholding and detention of mail addressed to such person is not reasonable or necessary in the administration of such Act, it shall dismiss the petition and order all mail addressed to such person held or detained in any post office to be released forthwith for delivery. An appeal from the order of the court shall be allowed as in civil causes. Any order of the Postmaster General or of the district court, under this Act, may be dissolved by such court at any time for cause, including failure to conduct expeditiously the proceedings instituted against such person before the Postmaster General with respect to the Act of August 16, 1950 (39 U. S. C. 259a). When, under any order herein authorized to be issued by the Postmaster General or the district court, a person's mail is detained and held by the postmaster at the office of delivery, such person shall have the right to examine said mail and receive such mail as clearly is not connected with the alleged unlawful activity.

(b) As used in this Act the term "person" means any individual, firm, corporation, company, partnership, or association.

(c) Action by the Postmaster General in issuing the interim order provided for herein and petitioning for a continuance of such order under this Act, shall not be subject to the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (ch. 19, title 5, U. S. C.).

SEC. 2. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to mail addressed to publishers or distributors of publications which have entry as second-class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879, as amended (ch. 180, 20 Stat. 358; 39 U. S. C. 221, et seq.), or to publishers or distributors of copyrighted books and other publications as to which certificate of registration of copyright has been issued under the copyright laws of the United States (title 17 U. S. C.).

Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, §§ 1, 2, 70 Stat. 781----- T. 39, § 6351

This Act may be cited as the "Highway Post Office Service Act of 1955".

SEC. 2. The Postmaster General may provide highway post office service, either by contract or Government-owned motor vehicle, for carrying the mails and postal employees on routes between points where in his judgment conditions justify the operation of such service. The motor vehicles shall be especially designed and equipped for the distribution of mail en route and shall be constructed, fitted up, maintained, and operated in accordance with such specifications, rules, and regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe.

Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 3, 70 Stat. 781----- T. 39, § 6352

SEC. 3. Contracts for highway post office service shall be obtained in accordance with section 3709 of the Revised Statutes as amended (41 U. S. C. 5).

Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 4, 70 Stat. 781----- T. 39, § 6352

SEC. 4. (a) The Postmaster General may make contracts for highway post office service for terms not to exceed six years.

(b) The Postmaster General may make provisions in contracts for highway post office service for increasing or decreasing the mileage, increasing or decreasing the hours of service required or for other service changes. He may also provide in such contracts for the readjustment of compensation paid thereunder, either upward or downward to reflect such changes, and to reflect increased or decreased costs attributable to changed conditions occurring during the contract term over which the Postmaster General or the contractor have no control and which could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time the original bid was made or the proposal for renewal filed.

(c) Contracts for highway post office service may provide for the imposition or remission of fines and penalties by the Postmaster General for delinquencies in the performance of the contract. Each such contract shall contain a provision providing for its cancellation by the Postmaster General and may provide for an indemnity payment by the Postmaster General in the event of such cancellation.

(d) Contracts for highway post office service may contain such other provisions as the Postmaster General deems appropriate.

Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 5, 70 Stat. 781----- T. 39, § 6353

SEC. 5. (a) The Postmaster General, by mutual agreement with the holder of a contract for highway post office service and without submitting the service for bids, may renew the contract for successive periods of not more than six years at the rates of compensation prevailing at the end of the preceding contract term.

(b) If the holder of a contract for highway post office service has sublet his contract in accordance with its terms and does not indicate in writing to the Postmaster General at least ninety days before the end of contract term that he desires to renew the contract, the Postmaster General may enter into a contract with a subcontractor then performing the service, in the same manner and upon the same terms as prescribed in subsection (a) of this section, if such subcontractor has performed the service required under the contract to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General for a period of at least six months.

May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, § 102,
72 Stat. 134, 135

T. 39, § 2301

SEC. 102. The Congress hereby finds that—

(1) the postal establishment was created to unite more closely the American people, to promote the general welfare, and to advance the national economy;

(2) the postal establishment has been extended and enlarged through the years into a nationwide network of services and facilities for the communication of intelligence, the dissemination of information, the advancement of education and culture, and the distribution of articles of commerce and industry. Furthermore, the Congress has encouraged the use of these broadening services and facilities through reasonable and, in many cases, special postal rates;

(3) the development and expansion of these several elements of postal service, under authorization by the Congress, have been the impelling force in the origin and growth of many and varied business, commercial, and industrial enterprises which contribute materially to the national economy and the public welfare and which depend upon the continuance of these elements of postal service;

(4) historically and as a matter of public policy there have evolved, in the operations of the postal establishment authorized by the Congress, certain recognized and accepted relationships among the several classes of mail. It is clear, from the continued expansion of the postal service and from the continued encouragement by the Congress of the most widespread use thereof, that the postal establishment performs many functions and offers its facilities to many users on a basis which can only be justified as being in the interest of the national welfare;

(5) while the postal establishment, as all other Government agencies, should be operated in an efficient manner, it clearly is not a business enterprise conducted for profit or for raising general funds, and it would be an unfair burden upon any particular user or class of users of the mails to compel them to bear the expenses incurred by reason of special rate considerations granted or facilities provided to other users of the mails, or to underwrite those expenses incurred by the postal establishment for services of a nonpostal nature; and

(6) the public interest and the increasing complexity of the social and economic fabric of the Nation require an immediate, clear, and affirmative declaration of congressional policy with respect to the activities of the postal establishment including those of a public service nature as the basis for the creation and maintenance of a sound and equitable postal-rate structure which will assure efficient service, produce adequate postal revenues, and stand the test of time.

DECLARATION OF POLICY

SEC. 103. (a) The Congress hereby emphasizes, reaffirms, and restates its function under the Constitution of the United States of forming postal policy.

(b) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Congress, as set forth in this title—

(1) that the post office is a public service;

(2) to provide a more stable basis for the postal-rate structure through the establishment of general principles, standards, and related requirements with respect to the determination and allocation of postal revenues and expenses; and

(3) in accordance with these general principles, standards, and related requirements, to provide a means by which the postal-rate structure may be fixed and adjusted by action of the Congress, from time to time, as the public interest may require, in the light of periodic reviews of the postal-rate structure, periodic studies and surveys of expenses and revenues, and periodic reports, required to be made by the Postmaster General as provided by section 105 of this title.

(c) The general principles, standards, and related requirements referred to in subsection (b) of this section are as follows:

(1) In the determination and adjustment of the postal-rate structure, due consideration should be given to—

(A) the preservation of the inherent advantages of the postal service in the promotion of social, cultural, intellectual, and commercial intercourse among the people of the United States;

(B) the development and maintenance of a postal service adapted to the present needs, and adaptable to the future needs, of the people of the United States;

(C) the promotion of adequate, economical, and efficient postal service at reasonable and equitable rates and fees;

(D) the effect of postal services and the impact of postal rates and fees on users of the mails;

(E) the requirements of the postal establishment with respect to the manner and form of preparation and presentation of mailings by the users of the various classes of mail service;

(F) the value of mail;

(G) the value of time of delivery of mail; and

(H) the quality and character of the service rendered in terms of priority, secrecy, security, speed of transmission, use of facilities and manpower, and other pertinent service factors.

(2) The acceptance, transportation, and delivery of first-class mail constitutes a preferred service of the postal establishment and, therefore, the postage for first-class mail should be sufficient to cover (A) the entire amount of the expenses allocated to first-class mail in accordance with this title and (B) an additional amount representing the fair value of all extraordinary and preferential services, facilities, and factors relating thereto.

(3) Those services, elements of service, and facilities rendered and provided by the postal establishment in accordance with law, including services having public service aspects, which, in whole or in part, are held and considered by the Congress from time to time to be public services for the purposes of this title shall be administered on the following basis:

(A) the sum of such public service items as determined by the Congress should be assumed directly by the Federal Government and paid directly out of the general fund of the Treasury and should not constitute direct charges in the form of rates and fees upon any user or class of users of such public services, or of the mails generally; and

(B) nothing contained in any provision of this title should be construed as indicating any intention on the part of the Congress (i) that such public services, or any of them, should be limited or restricted or (ii) to derogate in any way from the need and desirability thereof in the public interest.

(4) Postal rates and fees shall be adjusted from time to time as may be required to produce the amount of revenue approximately equal to the total cost of operating the postal establishment less the amount deemed to be attributable to the performance of public services under section 104 (b) of this title.

SEC. 104. (a) The following shall be considered to be public services for the purposes of this title—

(1) the total loss resulting from the transmission of matter in the mails free of postage or at reduced rates of postage as provided by statute, including the following:

(A) paragraph (3) of subsection (a) of section 202 of the Act of February 28, 1925 (39 U. S. C. 283 (a) (3)), relating to reduced rates of postage on newspapers or periodicals of certain nonprofit organizations;

(B) sections 5 and 6 of the Act of March 3, 1877 (39 U. S. C. 321), relating to official mail matter of the Pan American Union sent free through the mails;

(C) section 25 of the Act of March 3, 1879, as amended (39 U. S. C. 286), and subsection (b) of section 2 of the Act of October 30, 1951 (39 U. S. C. 289a (b)), relating to free-in-county mailing privileges;

(D) the Act of April 27, 1904 (33 Stat. 313), the last paragraph under the heading "Office of the Third Assistant Postmaster General" contained in the first section of the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 551), and the Joint Resolution of June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 668; Pub. Res., No. 33, Sixty-eighth Congress), as contained in the Act of October 14, 1941 (55 Stat. 737; Public Law 270, Seventy-seventh Congress), and as further amended by the Act of September 7, 1949 (63 Stat. 690), relating to free postage and reduced postage rates on reading matter and other articles for the blind (39 U. S. C. 331);

(E) the Act of February 14, 1929 (39 U. S. C. 336), granting free mailing privileges to the diplomatic corps of the countries of the Pan American Postal Union;

(F) the Act of April 15, 1937 (39 U. S. C. 293c), granting reduced rates to publications for use of the blind;

(G) the Act of June 29, 1940 (39 U. S. C. 321-1), granting free mailing privileges to the Pan American Sanitary Bureau;

(H) the Act of May 7, 1945 (59 Stat. 707), and other provisions of law granting free mailing privileges to individuals;

(I) the second and third provisos of subsection (a) of section 2 of the Act of October 30, 1951 (65 Stat. 672; 39 U. S. C. 289a (a)), granting reduced second-class postage rates to publications of certain organizations;

(J) the last proviso of section 3 of the Act of October 30, 1951 (65 Stat. 673; 39 U. S. C. 290a-1), granting reduced third-class postage rates to certain organizations;

(K) section 302 of The Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955 (5 U. S. C. 2192), granting free postage, including free airmail postage, to post cards, ballots, voting instructions, and envelopes transmitted in the mails under authority of such Act; and

(L) section 204 (d) and (e) of the Postal Rate Revision and Federal Employees Salary Act of 1948, as amended (39 U. S. C. 292a (d) and (e)), including the amendment made by section 206 of this Act.

(2) the loss resulting from the operation of such prime and necessary public services as the star route system and third- and fourth-class post offices;

(3) the loss incurred in performing nonpostal services, such as the sale of documentary stamps for the Department of the Treasury;

(4) the loss incurred in performing special services such as cash on delivery, insured mail, special delivery, and money orders; and

(5) the additional cost of transporting United States mail by foreign air carriers at a Universal Postal Union rate in excess of the rate prescribed for United States carriers.

(b) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the revenues of the Post Office Department for each fiscal year from any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated an amount, which shall be deemed to be attributable to the public services enumerated under subsection (a) of this section, equal to the total estimated expenditures of the Post Office Department for the year for such public services as determined by the Congress in the appropriation Act based upon budget estimates submitted to the Congress. Such appropriations shall be available to enable the Postmaster General to pay in to postal revenues at quarterly or other intervals such sums as may be necessary to reimburse the Post Office Department for such amount attributable to public services.

(a) The Postmaster General is authorized and directed to initiate and conduct, through the facilities of the postal establishment, either on a continuing basis or from time to time, as he deems advisable, but not less often than every two years, a review of the postal-rate structure and a study and survey of the expenses incurred and the revenues received in connection with the several classes of mail, and the various classes and kinds of services and facilities provided by the postal establishment, in order to determine, on the basis of such review, study, and survey for each class and kind of service or facility provided by the postal establishment, the need for adjustment of postal rates and fees in accordance with the policy set forth in this title.

(b) The Postmaster General shall submit to the Senate and the House of Representatives not later than April 15 of each alternate fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1960, a report of the results of the review, study, and survey conducted pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. Such report shall include—

(1) information with respect to expenses and revenues which is pertinent to the allocation of expenses and the determination and adjustment of postal rates and fees in accordance with the policy set forth in this title; and

(2) such other information as is necessary to enable the Congress, or as may be required by the Congress or an appropriate committee thereof, to carry out the purposes of this title.

That each employee—

(1) who is in the postal field service on the date of enactment of this section,

(2) whose basic salary was adjusted under section 304 of the Postal Field Service Compensation Act of 1955 (Public Law 68, Eighty-fourth Congress) and, immediately prior to such adjustment, was paid under the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, or under a prevailing wage schedule,

(3) who, prior to such adjustment of salary, had performed service which was creditable toward his next within-grade step-increase under section 701 (a) of the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, or under such prevailing wage schedule, and

(4) whose amount of increase in basic salary received upon adjustment of his basic salary under section 304 of the Postal Field Service Compensation Act of 1955 was less than the difference between the salary for that step of the grade of his position under the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, or of his position under such prevailing wage schedule, which he occupied immediately prior to such adjustment of salary and the salary at such time for the next higher step of such grade, shall, for purposes of the first advancement by step-increase under and in accordance with section 401 of the Postal Field Service Compensation Act of 1955—

(A) have his anniversary date adjusted to the first day of his first pay period under such Act which begins on or after the date on which he would have earned a within-grade step-increase under the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, or a within-grade step-increase under such prevailing wage schedule, if his position had remained subject to the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, or subject to such schedule, as the case may be, unless his anniversary date under the Postal Field Service Compensation Act of 1955 which is in effect on the date of enactment of this section occurs earlier than such adjusted anniversary date, and

(B) be paid, for all periods of service performed by him under the Postal Field Service Compensation Act of 1955 beginning on or after such adjusted anniversary date, the additional basic salary to which he becomes entitled under such Act by reason of this section, subject to and in accordance with the following requirements:

(i) that any advancement of such employee by step-increase under section 401 of such Act which such employee may have received prior to the date of enactment of this section shall not be regarded as an equivalent increase in basic salary for purposes of such Act, and

(ii) that the amount of additional basic salary to which such employee is entitled under clause (B) of this section is appropriately reduced by the amount of additional basic salary attributable to any advancement of such employee by step-increase under section 401 of such Act prior to the date of enactment of this section.

§ 1. Definitions

As used in this title—

“Department” means the Post Office Department, continued by section 301 of this title, and the postal field service of the Post Office Department;

“postal field service” or “field postal service” includes all operations and organization units of the Department, other than the departmental operations and organization units in the headquarters offices of the Department at the seat of the Government, and includes postal inspectors assigned to the headquarters offices of the Department at the seat of the Government;

“departmental service” means the administrative headquarters of the Department and its branches as distinguished from the postal field service;

“revenue of the Department” means all funds of the United States, other than trust funds, received by the Department from any source in the exercise of any power or function vested in it, including, but not limited to—

(i) unclaimed money in dead letters for which an owner cannot be found;

(ii) unclaimed money taken from the mail by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which may come into the hands of an agent or employee of the United States or any other person;

(iii) fines, penalties, and forfeitures, imposed for a violation of the postal laws, except such part as may by law belong to the informer or party prosecuting for the same;

(iv) money derived from the sale of wastepaper or other public property of the Department.

§ 2. Application

This title has the same force and effect within Guam as within other possessions of the United States.

CHAPTER 3—ORGANIZATION

Sec.

- 301. Post Office Department.
- 302. Postmaster General.
- 303. Seal.
- 304. Deputy Postmaster General.
- 305. Assistant Postmaster General.
- 306. Advisory board.
- 307. General Counsel.
- 308. Chief Postal Inspector.
- 309. Delegation of authority.

§ 301. Post Office Department

The executive department, known as the Post Office Department, is continued at the seat of the Government.

§ 302. Postmaster General

The head of the Department is a Postmaster General appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Postmaster General is vested with the functions of all subordinate officers and agencies of the Post Office Department. His term is for the term of the President by whom he is appointed, and for one month thereafter.

§ 303. Seal

The seal of the Department, filed by the Postmaster General in the office of the Secretary of State, which shall be judicially noticed, shall be affixed to all commissions of postmasters and other officers of the Department and used to authenticate records of the Department.

§ 304. Deputy Postmaster General

A Deputy Postmaster General, appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall perform such duties as the Postmaster General designates. He shall receive the compensation provided by law for undersecretaries of executive departments.

§ 305. Assistant Postmasters General

Five Assistant Postmasters General appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall perform such duties as the Postmaster General designates. Each shall receive the compensation provided by law for the assistant secretaries of executive departments.

§ 306. Advisory board

The Advisory Board for the Department, of which the Postmaster General is chairman and the Deputy Postmaster General is vice chairman, is continued. The Board has seven additional members, representative of the public, appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The members so appointed shall each receive compensation of $50 per diem when engaged in duties as members of the Board, including travel time to and from their homes or regular places of business, and reasonable subsistence and travel expense as determined by the Postmaster General. The Board shall consider methods and policies for the improvement of the postal service, and shall advise and make recommendations to the Postmaster

General with respect to such methods and policies. It shall meet quarterly in the District of Columbia, or at such other time and place as the Postmaster General determines.

§ 307. General Counsel

The legal officer of the Department is the General Counsel, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

§ 308. Chief Postal Inspector.

The annual rate of basic compensation of the position of Chief Postal Inspector in the Post Office Department is $19,000.

§ 309. Delegation of authority.

The Postmaster General may delegate to any officer, employee, or agency of the Department such of the functions vested by law in him or in any other officer or employee of the Department as he deems appropriate.

CHAPTER 5—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.

501. General duties of the Postmaster General.

502. Bonds.

503. Mail equipment shops.

504. Research and development program.

505. International postal arrangements.

506. International money-order exchanges.

507. Fees for special services.

508. Sale of maps, opinions of General Counsel, and transcripts of hearings.

509. Rewards.

510. Disposal of wastepaper.

§ 501. General duties of the Postmaster General

In addition to his other duties the Postmaster General shall—

(1) prescribe rules and regulations that he deems necessary to accomplish the objectives of this title;

(2) instruct all persons in the Department with reference to their duties;

(3) decide on the forms of all official papers of the Department, except as otherwise provided by law;

(4) investigate postal offenses and civil matters relating to the Department;

(5) superintend generally the business of the Department and execute all laws relating to the Department.

§ 502. Bonds

(a) The Postmaster General shall cause postmasters, acting postmasters, and other officers and employees designated by him, to be bonded in accordance with section 14 of title 6 in such sum as he prescribes.

(b) When a new bond is made covering a postmaster, acting postmaster, officer, or employee, payments thereafter made by him may be applied first to discharge balances due from him under the prior bond, if the Postmaster General deems it just.

§ 503. Mail equipment shops

The Postmaster General may maintain a mail equipment shop in the District of Columbia.

§ 504. Research and development program

(a) The Postmaster General shall maintain in the Department a research and development program, including investigations and studies, for the purpose of introducing or improving equipment, supplies, methods, procedures, means, and devices used in the Department in order that its business may be more efficiently and economically operated.

(b) The Postmaster General, pursuant to section 686 of title 31, or other applicable law, may utilize the research and testing facilities of the National Bureau of Standards and procure advice and assistance from any department or independent establishment in the executive branch of the Government.

§ 505. International postal arrangements

(a) For the purpose of making better postal arrangements with other countries, or to counteract their adverse measures affecting our postal intercourse with them, the Postmaster General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, may negotiate and conclude postal treaties or conventions, and may reduce or increase the rates of postage or other charges on mail matter conveyed between the United States and other countries. The decisions of the Postmaster General construing or interpreting the provisions of any treaty or convention which has been or may be negotiated and concluded shall, if approved by the President, be final and conclusive upon all officers of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General shall transmit a copy of each postal convention concluded with other governments to the Secretary of State, who shall furnish a copy of the same to the Public Printer for publication. The Department shall revise the printed proof sheets of all such conventions.

§ 506. International money-order exchanges

The Postmaster General may make arrangements with other governments, with which postal conventions are or may be concluded for the exchange of sums of money by means of postal orders. He shall fix the rates of exchange. A postal order may not exceed $100 in amount.

§ 507. Fees for special services

The Postmaster General may prescribe from time to time the fees which shall be charged by the postal service, and the manner in which they shall be collected, for—

- (1) the registry of mail;
- (2) the insurance of mail, or other indemnification of senders thereof for articles damaged or lost;
- (3) securing a signed receipt upon the delivery of mail and returning such receipt to sender;
- (4) certified mail service;
- (5) collect-on-delivery service;
- (6) special-delivery service;
- (7) special-handling service;
- (8) receipt or certificate showing mailing of registered, insured, certified, collect-on-delivery, and ordinary mail;
- (9) the issue of money orders;
- (10) notice to publishers of undeliverable second class mail, for notice of change of address, and notice to addressee or sender of undeliverable third or fourth class mail, or of undeliverable second class mail mailed at the transient rate.
- (11) for returning undeliverable letters and parcels from the dead letter office to senders.

§ 508. Sale of maps, opinions of General Counsel, and transcripts of hearings

The Postmaster General may sell, at such rates as he determines to be fair and reasonable, but not exceeding the cost thereof—

- (1) post route and rural delivery maps;
- (2) opinions of the General Counsel; and
- (3) transcripts of hearings before the Department.

§ 509. Rewards

The Postmaster General may offer and pay rewards for information and services in connection with violations of the postal laws.

§ 510. Disposal of wastepaper

The Postmaster General, subject to the provisions of sections 366–380 of title 44, may sell as wastepaper or otherwise dispose of the files of papers that are not needed in the transaction of current business and have no permanent value or historical interest.

CHAPTER 7—POST OFFICES

Sec.

- 701. Establishment and discontinuance of post offices.
- 702. Classes of post offices.
- 703. Distributing offices; clerk hire.
- 704. Reimbursement for equipment on discontinuance of office.
- 705. Branch post offices and stations.
- 706. Postal agencies in other countries.
- 707. Hours of service.
- 708. Box rents to be prepaid.
- 709. Arrival and departure of mail.
- 710. Making up mail.
- 711. Method of determining gross receipts.
- 712. Armed Forces postal clerks.

§ 701. Establishment and discontinuance of post offices

(a) The Postmaster General may—

- (1) establish post offices as he deems expedient;
- (2) discontinue post offices when the efficiency of the service requires or revenues are endangered from any cause; and
- (3) consolidate post offices, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The Postmaster General may not discontinue post offices at county seats as a result of a consolidation. This subsection does not apply to—

- (1) Cambridge, Massachusetts; or
- (2) Towson, Maryland; or
- (3) Clayton, St. Louis County, Missouri.

§ 702. Classes of post offices

At the beginning of each fiscal year, the Postmaster General shall divide post offices into four classes on the basis of gross annual postal receipts for the preceding calendar year. He shall place in the first class those post offices at which those receipts are $40,000 or more. He shall place in the second class those post offices at which those receipts are $8,000 or more, but less than $40,000. He shall place in the third class those post offices at which those receipts are $1,500 or more, but less than $8,000. He shall place in the fourth class those offices at which those receipts for each of two consecutive calendar years are less than $1,500, or where in any calendar year those receipts are less than $1,400.

§ 703. Distributing offices; clerk hire

When the Postmaster General designates an office of the fourth class as distributing or separating offices he may make allowances to the postmaster for the necessary cost of clerical services arising from the duties involved.

§ 704. Reimbursement for equipment on discontinuance of office

The Postmaster General shall reimburse, on a fair and equitable basis, the postmaster of any discontinued post office of the first, second or third class for equipment and fixtures that were—

- (1) furnished by the postmaster;
- (2) necessary to the efficient operation of the post office; and
- (3) in use in the post office at the time of discontinuance.

§ 705. Branch post offices and stations

(a) The Postmaster General may establish branch post offices within the delivery limits of a post office for the receipt and delivery of mail, and the performance of other postal functions.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Postmaster General may not establish stations, substations, or branches of a post office beyond the corporate limits or boundaries of a village, town, or city in which the principal office is located.

(c) The Postmaster General may establish stations, substations, or branches of a post office within 10 miles of the outer boundary or limits of a village, town, or city having 1,500 or more inhabitants and in which the principal office is located.

(d) The Postmaster General may establish branch post offices at camps, posts or stations of the Armed Forces and at defense or other strategic installations.

(e) The Postmaster General may establish branch offices, non-accounting offices, or stations of the Honolulu, San Juan, and Charlotte Amalie post offices, respectively, in (1) the Territory of Hawaii, (2) the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and (3) the Virgin Islands. Offices and stations so established shall be conducted under the name of the existing post office so as to maintain the identity of the office concerned.

(f) The Postmaster General may enter into contracts for the conduct of contract stations in accordance with section 2011 of this title.

(g) This section does not apply to rural stations established under authority of section 6005 of this title.

§ 706. Postal agencies in other countries

When in his judgment the efficiency of the international postal service will be thereby promoted, the Postmaster General may establish postal agencies at seaports or airports in other countries at which United States mail steamers or aircraft arrive and receive mails. He may pay the postal agents employed thereat a reasonable compensation for their services, in addition to the necessary expenses for office rent, office furniture, clerk hire, and incidental expenses.

§ 707. Hours of service

(a) The Postmaster General shall require at least one person to be on duty at each post office during such hours of each day as he directs, to perform the functions of the office.

(b) Post offices of the first and second classes shall not be open on Sundays for the purpose of delivering mail, other than special delivery mail.

(a) Patrons shall pay rent on post office boxes in advance on a quarterly basis.

(b) The Postmaster General may permit patrons to provide lock boxes or drawers for their own use and at their own expense, which shall become the property of the United States subject to the direction and control of the Department. The patrons shall pay the same rent as that charged for similar boxes provided by the Department.

§ 709. Arrival and departure of mail

The Postmaster General shall furnish to the postmasters at the terminals of each route—

(1) a schedule of arrivals and departures of mail at their offices; and

(2) notice of any change in the arrival and departure that may be ordered.

Postmasters shall post the schedules and notices in a conspicuous place in their offices.

§ 710. Making up mail

Letters brought for mailing to a post office half an hour before the time for the next forwarding mail shall be included therein unless, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, more time for making up the mail is required, it may be included in mail to be forwarded not more than one hour thereafter.

§ 711. Method of determining gross receipts

(a) In determining gross receipts at post offices of the fourth class, the Postmaster General shall allow credit only for the postage collected in addition to the regular rate on business reply cards and letters in business reply envelopes delivered at those offices.

(b) The gross receipts do not include money received for—

(1) setting meters for patrons beyond the area served by his office unless authorized by the Department;

(2) stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards sold in large or unusual quantities to be used in mailing matter at other offices; and

(3) stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards sold for mailing matter diverted from other offices, and mailings of matter so diverted without stamps affixed.

(c) The part of the gross postal receipts of a post office, that are determined in accordance with estimates of the Postmaster General to be attributable to the increases in postage rates provided by Public Law 85-426, may not be counted for the purpose of determining the classes of the respective post offices and the compensation and allowances of postmasters and other employees whose compensation or allowances are based on the annual gross receipts of such post offices. This section does not operate to relegate a post office to a class or receipts category below the class or receipts category to which it may be assigned on the basis of gross postal receipts accruing during the last complete calendar year prior to May 27, 1958, or, in the case of a post office which was in existence on that date but which was not in existence during the whole of that calendar year, on the basis of gross postal receipts accruing during the last quarter prior to May 27, 1958.

§ 712. Armed Forces postal clerks

(a) Upon selection by the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, the Postmaster General may designate Armed Forces postal clerks, and assistant Armed Forces postal clerks from enlisted personnel of the—

(1) Army of the United States;

(2) United States Navy;

(3) Air Force of the United States;

(4) United States Marine Corps; and

(5) United States Coast Guard,

including their reserve components.

(b) Armed Forces postal clerks and assistant Armed Forces postal clerks designated under authority of subsection (a) of this section shall—

(1) receive and open all pouches and sacks of mail addressed to the post offices, stations, vessels and installations of the organizations listed in subsection (a) of this section;

(2) make delivery of the mail;

(3) receive matter for transmission in the mail;

(4) receipt for registered mail;

(5) sell postage stamps;

(6) make up and dispatch mail; and

(7) perform any other postal duties that may be authorized by the Postmaster General in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the appropriate authority of the organizations listed in subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Each clerk or assistant clerk appointed under authority of this section shall—

(1) take the oath of office prescribed for members of the field postal service;

(2) be covered by a bond in such penal sum as the Postmaster General deems sufficient for the faithful performance of his duties as postal clerk or assistant postal clerk, unless bonding is waived by the Secretary of the Department concerned; and

(3) be amenable in all respects to the discipline of their respective services, except as provided in subsection (d) of this section.

(d) The commanding officer having jurisdiction over a post office, station, vessel, or installation where Armed Forces postal clerks or assistant Armed Forces postal clerks are stationed shall require them to be governed by the postal laws and the postal regulations. Whenever he deems it necessary a commanding officer may require any assistant Armed Forces postal clerk to perform the duties of an Armed Forces postal clerk.

(e) The Secretary of the Department concerned may terminate any bond covering any Armed Forces postal clerk or assistant Armed Forces postal clerk without affecting the liability of any person or surety thereunder for losses or shortages occurring prior to such termination.

(f) The Departments of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Treasury shall reimburse the Post Office Department annually in an amount of money equal to—

(1) funds and the value of other accountable postal stock embezzled by, or lost through the negligence, errors, or defalcations on the part of—

(A) unbonded Armed Forces postal clerks or assistant Armed Forces postal clerks or persons acting in that capacity; or

(B) commissioned or warrant officers of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard who have been designated custodians of postal effects by the appropriate commanding officer.

(2) funds expended by the Post Office Department in payment of claims arising through negligence, errors, losses, or defalcations by persons listed in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(g) The Secretaries of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Treasury shall take action to recover from the persons responsible for the losses or shortages the amounts paid under the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 9—PRIVATE CARRIAGE OF LETTERS

Sec.

- 901. Letters carried out of the mail.
- 902. Foreign letters out of the mails.
- 903. Searches authorized.
- 904. Seizing and detaining letters.
- 905. Searching vessels for letters.
- 906. Disposition of seized mail.

§ 901. Letters carried out of the mail

(a) A letter may be carried out of the mails when—

- (1) it is enclosed in an envelope;
- (2) the amount of postage which would have been charged on the letter if it had been sent by mail is paid by stamps, or postage meter stamps, on the envelope;
- (3) the envelope is properly addressed;
- (4) the envelope is so sealed that the letter cannot be taken from it without defacing the envelope;
- (5) any stamps on the envelope are canceled in ink by the sender; and
- (6) the date of the letter, of its transmission or receipt by the carrier is endorsed on the envelope in ink.

(b) The Postmaster General may suspend the operation of any part of this section upon any mail route where the public interest requires the suspension.

§ 902. Foreign letters out of the mails

(a) Except as provided in section 901 of this title the master of a vessel departing from the United States for foreign ports may not receive on board or transport any letter which originated in the United States that—

(1) has not been regularly received from a United States post office; or

(2) does not relate to the cargo of the vessel.

(b) The officer of the port empowered to grant clearances, shall require from the master of such a vessel, as a condition of clearance, an oath that he does not have under his care or control, and will not receive or transport, any letter contrary to the provisions of this section.

(c) Except as provided in section 1699 of title 18, the master of a vessel arriving at a port of the United States carrying letters not regularly in the mails shall deposit them in the Post Office at the port of arrival.

§ 903. Searches authorized

The Postmaster General, by letter of authority filed in the Department, may authorize any postal inspector or other officer of the Department to make searches for mailable matter transported in violation of law. When the authorized officer has reason to believe that mailable matter transported contrary to law may be found therein, he may open and search any—

(1) vehicle passing, or having lately passed, from a place at which there is a post office of the United States;

(2) article being, or having lately been, in the vehicle;

(3) store or office, other than a dwelling house, used or occupied by a common carrier or transportation company, in which an article may be contained.

§ 904. Seizing and detaining letters

A postal inspector, customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputy, may seize at any time, letters and bags, packets or parcels containing letters which are being carried contrary to law on board any vessel or on any post road. The officer who makes the seizure shall convey the articles seized to the nearest post office; or by direction of the Postmaster General or the Secretary of the Treasury, he may detain them until two months after the final determination of all suits and proceedings which may be brought within six months after the seizure against any person for sending or carrying the letters.

§ 905. Searching vessels for letters

A postal inspector when instructed by the Postmaster General to make examinations and seizures and any customs officer without special instructions shall search vessels for letters which may be on board, or which may have been conveyed contrary to law.

§ 906. Disposition of seized mail

Every package or parcel seized by a postal inspector, customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputies, in which a letter is unlawfully concealed, shall be forfeited to the United States. The same proceedings may be used to enforce forfeitures as are authorized in respect of goods, wares, and merchandise forfeited for violation of the revenue laws. Laws for the benefit and protection of customs officers making seizures for violating revenue laws apply to officers making seizures for violating the postal laws.

2001.	Purchase or rental of equipment and supplies.
2002.	Bonds and contracts.
2003.	Purchase of supplies.
2004.	Contracts for envelopes and other supplies.
2005.	Contracts for money order supplies.
2006.	Contracts for rental of equipment and services.
2007.	Purchase of motor-truck parts.
2008.	Hire of vehicles from employees.
2009.	Contracts for delivery of special delivery mail.
2010.	No postal material or supplies manufactured by convict labor.
2011.	Contracts for postal stations.

§ 2001. Purchase or rental of equipment and supplies

The Postmaster General may provide by purchase, rental, or otherwise, necessary equipment and supplies to carry out the provisions of this title.

§ 2002. Bonds and contracts

Bonds taken and contracts entered into by the Department shall be in the name of the United States of America.

§ 2003. Purchase of supplies

(a) The Postmaster General, in making purchases for equipment and supplies necessary for the Department, shall advertise as provided by law and award contracts therefor to the lowest responsible bidder. He shall solicit separate proposals and make separate contracts for each class furnished.

(b) The Postmaster General shall record an abstract of all bids for furnishing supplies to the Department, stating the

- (1) name of the party bidding;
- (2) terms of the offer; and
- (3) sum to be paid.

He shall keep on file and preserve all bids until the end of the contract term to which they relate. These records shall be open at all times for inspection by Congress, and by those who are interested in the contracts.

(c) The Postmaster General shall permit each bidder to be present, either in person or by attorney, when the bids are opened, and to examine all bids.

§ 2004. Contracts for envelopes and other supplies

(a) The Postmaster General may contract, for a period not to exceed four years, for—

- (1) stamped envelopes for sale to the public;
- (2) envelopes for use by the executive departments and agencies, subject to applicable regulations under section 481 of title 40;
- (3) postal cards and stamps;
- (4) miscellaneous equipment and supplies for the Field Postal Service; and
- (5) printing of post-route maps.

(b) When the Postmaster General determines the interests of the Department require it, all adhesive stamps prescribed by him may be manufactured by the Department of the Treasury, in conformity with an agreement satisfactory to both the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 2005. Contracts for money order supplies

Except when he procures them from the Government Printing Office, the Postmaster General shall obtain money order supplies in accordance with the provisions of section 5 of title 41. He shall solicit separate proposals for each item. He shall enter into contracts for a period of not more than four years containing such conditions as he may prescribe.

§ 2006. Contracts for rental of equipment and services

(a) The Postmaster General, after advertising, may enter into contracts for a period of not more than four years for—

- (1) the rental of canceling machines;
- (2) the hire of vehicles for the City Delivery Service;
- (3) collection service by means of boxes attached to street cars; and
- (4) the operation of the Detroit River Postal Service.

(b) The Postmaster General may not pay more than $270 a year for the rental and repairs of each canceling machine.

§ 2007. Purchase of motor-truck parts

The Postmaster General may make agreements without advertising with motor vehicle manufacturers for the purchase of parts for non-passenger motor vehicles under such arrangement as he deems most advantageous to the Government at prices not in excess of the manufacturer's list price less regular discounts.

§ 2008. Hire of vehicles from employees.

The Postmaster General may hire, by contract or on an allowance basis, vehicles from postal employees, other than supervisors, for use in the city and village delivery, including special delivery services, and for the collection of mail.

§ 2009. Contracts for delivery of special delivery mail

The Postmaster General, when he deems it expedient, may contract for the immediate delivery of all special delivery mail from any post office at any price less than eight cents per piece.

§ 2010. No postal material or supplies manufactured by convict labor

Except as provided in chapter 307 of title 18, the Postmaster General may not make a contract for the purchase of equipment or supplies to be manufactured by convict labor.

§ 2011. Contracts for postal stations

The Postmaster General may enter into contracts for the conduct of contract stations for a term not exceeding three years. He may renew contracts at the same or lower contract price, for additional terms not exceeding three years unless

- (1) he finds that the renewal is not in the interest of the United States, or
- (2) not later than ninety days before the end of a contract term the Department receives a request in writing that the contract be opened for competitive bidding at the end of the term.

Upon such a finding by him, or upon receipt of such a request, the Postmaster General shall terminate the contract, with respect to which the finding has been made or the request has been received, at the end of the current term and shall advertise for bids thereon in accordance with the existing laws relating to the advertising of public contracts and the award thereof on the basis of competitive bidding.

§ 2101. Gifts, donations of services and property

The Postmaster General may accept gifts and donations of services and property in aid of the activities of the Department.

§ 2102. Leases

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law the Postmaster General may lease, on such terms as he deems appropriate, real property necessary in the conduct of the affairs of the Department.

(b) The term of a lease may not exceed twenty years when made for quarters—

- (1) for post offices of the first, second and third classes;
- (2) for terminal railway post offices; and
- (3) at public airports.

(c) The Postmaster General may rent quarters for postal purposes without entering into a formal written contract where the amount of the rental does not exceed $1,000 per annum.

(d) When a leased building or part thereof becomes unfit for use for the purpose rented, the Postmaster General may not pay rent until it is put in satisfactory condition by the lessor, or at his option he may cancel the lease.

§ 2103. Additional leasing authority

(a) In addition to the authority vested in him by section 2102 of this title the Postmaster General may—

(1) negotiate and enter into lease agreements which do not bind the Government for periods exceeding thirty years, on such terms as the Postmaster General deems to be in the best interests of the United States, for the erection by the lessor of the buildings and improvements for postal purposes as the Postmaster General deems appropriate, on lands sold, leased, or otherwise disposed of by the Postmaster General to, or otherwise acquired by, the lessor;

(2) for the purposes of paragraph (1) of this subsection, and without regard to sections 630–630h of title 5, sections 471–475, 481, 483–492, and 511–514 of title 40, sections 5, 153, and 251–255, 257–260 of title 41, sections 391–401 of title 44, and section 1622 of title 50, appendix—

(A) acquire by purchase, condemnation, lease, donation, or otherwise, and on such terms as he deems appropriate to the best interests of the United States, real property and interests therein, for use for postal purposes; and

(B) dispose of real property, and interests therein, acquired for use or used for postal purposes by sale, lease, or otherwise, on such terms as he deems appropriate to the best interests of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may not, for the purpose of this section, dispose of (1) any Government-owned property, or interests therein, acquired pursuant to section 352 of title 40 or (2) any Government-owned property, or interests therein, acquired pursuant to law prior to July 22, 1954, on which there has been constructed a building to be used for postal purposes and which is presently being used for those purposes.

(c) Funds available to the Department for the payment of rents may be utilized by the Postmaster General for the purposes of this section.

§ 2104. Space procurement by lease-purchase agreements

Whenever the Postmaster General determines that—

(1) there is a substantial need for space for postal purposes in any particular area which cannot be satisfied by utilization of any existing property suitable for the purpose then owned by the Government,

(2) the receipts of the post office serving the area exceed $10,000 per year, and

(3) the best interests of the United States will be served by taking action hereunder, he may obtain and provide space for postal purposes in suitable structures of permanent-type construction in the several States, the District of Columbia, and the Territories and possessions of the United States by negotiating and entering into lease-purchase agreements, the terms of which may not be less than ten nor more than twenty-five years and which shall provide in each case that title to the property shall vest in the United States at or before the expiration of the leasehold term and upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions stipulated in each lease-purchase agreement. The terms and conditions shall provide for the application to the purchase price agreed upon therein of rental payments made thereunder. The payments under an agreement may include amounts for the amortization of the fair market value on the date of the agreement of the property described therein. The financial transactions of the Department with respect to lease-purchase agreements are subject to the accounting and auditing requirements of sections 2202, 2206-2208, and 2211 of this title.

§ 2105. Development of existing sites and property

(a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the Postmaster General may exercise the powers granted in section 2104 of this title with respect to existing properties, including those for which conversions, additions, extensions, or remodeling may be required, and properties upon which construction is to be subsequently effected in pursuance of the terms of applicable lease-purchase agreements.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the Postmaster General may—

(1) enter into agreements to effectuate any of the purposes of this section, and

(2) bring about the development and improvement of any land purchased by the United States for postal purposes, including the demolition of obsolete and outmoded structures situate thereon, by providing for the construction thereon by others of such structures and facilities as are the subject of the applicable lease-purchase agreement.

(c) This section does not authorize the Postmaster General to enter into lease-purchase agreements with respect to any site owned by the Government which was acquired pursuant to law prior to July 22, 1954, on which there has been constructed a building to be used for postal purposes and which was being used for those purposes on July 22, 1954.

§ 2106. Use of rental funds

The Postmaster General may use funds available to the Department for the payment of rents to make payments becoming due from time to time from the United States in pursuance of lease-purchase agreements entered into under the authority of sections 2104 and 2105 of this title. He may not expend the funds for acquisition of title to the property covered by any lease-purchase agreement prior to the expiration of the leasehold term specified therein, whether by exercise of option to purchase or otherwise, in the absence of specific appropriation of funds for the acquisition.

Appropriations for acquisition purposes are hereby authorized.

§ 2107. Congressional approval

Appropriations may not be made for lease-purchase projects which have not been approved by resolutions adopted by the Committees on Public Works of the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, before July 22, 1957. For the purpose of securing consideration of the approval the Postmaster General shall transmit to those Committees a prospectus of the proposed project, including, but not limited to—

(1) a brief description of the building located or to be erected at a given location;

(2) an estimate of the maximum cost of site and building together with the term of years over which payments would run and the maximum rate of interest that would be acceptable for any deferred part of the cost;

(3) a certificate of need for the space signed by the head of the agency which will use the facility;

(4) a statement by the Postmaster General that suitable space owned by the Government is not available and that suitable rental space is not available at a price commensurate with that to be afforded through the contract proposed:

(5) a statement of the managerial, custodial, heat and utility services to be provided by the contractor, or an estimate of their probable cost if to be supplied in any part by the Government;

(6) a statement of the requirements for tax liability, upkeep and maintenance of the property by either the contractor or the Government during the period of the contract;

(7) a statement of rents and other housing costs currently being paid by the Government for any agencies to be housed in the building to be erected; and

(8) a statement in writing by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget that the project is necessary and in conformity with the policy of the President. The statement by the Director shall be based on budgetary and related considerations and does not constitute approval by the Director of the specific terms or provisions of any proposed agreement or of the selection of any particular contractor or lessor.

§ 2108. Lease-purchase agreement provisions

(a) Each lease-purchase agreement shall include such provisions as the Postmaster General deems to be in the best interest of the United States and appropriate to secure the performance of the obligations imposed upon the party that enters into an agreement with the United States. The agreement may not provide for any payment to be made by the United States in excess of the amount necessary, as determined by the Postmaster General, to—

(1) amortize—

(A) the cost of improvements to be constructed plus the fair market value, on the date of the agreement, of the site, if owned or acquired by the contractor, or

(B) the fair market value, on the date of the agreement, of completed improvements together with the site thereof, or

(C) a combination of the foregoing in the case of existing improvements to be remodeled by the contractor; and

(2) provide a reasonable rate of interest on the outstanding principal as determined under item (1) of this subsection, and

(3) reimburse the contractor for the cost of any other obligations assumed by him under the contract, including, but not limited to, payment of taxes, costs of carrying appropriate insurance, and costs of repair and maintenance if assumed by the contractor.

(b) Each lease-purchase agreement entered into pursuant to sections 2104 and 2105 of this title shall provide for equal annual payments for the amortization of principal with interest thereon. The Postmaster General may not enter into the contract unless the amount of the annual payment required by it plus the aggregate of the annual payments required by all other lease-purchase agreements entered into during the same fiscal year do not exceed the specific limitations on the payments which are provided in appropriation acts.

§ 2109. Time limitations on agreements

Agreements may not be entered into under sections 2103–2105 of this title after July 22, 1964.

§ 2110. Taxes and rental adjustments

(a) An interest in real property acquired under the provisions of sections 2104 and 2105 of this title, is subject to State and local taxes until title passes to the Government of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may, at the time he enters into a lease-purchase or lease agreement under authority of sections 2103–2105 of this title, include a provision for adjustment of the rental paid to a lessor to compensate for an increase or decrease in taxes on the leased property.

§ 2111. Property title

(a) The Postmaster General shall take title, on behalf of the United States, to all real property purchased by him under authority of sections 2103–2105 of this title.

(b) Section 175 of title 50 applies to the acquisition in fee simple of real property under sections 2103–2105 of this title, except that a lease-purchase agreement to acquire real property under sections 2104 and 2105 of this title may be entered into and placed in effect after request for but prior to receipt of an opinion of the Attorney General with respect to the validity of title to the real property described therein.

Section 5 of title 41 applies—

(1) to the acquisition of real property by lease-purchase agreements, under authority of sections 2104 and 2105 of this title, and

(2) to the lease agreements entered into under authority of item (1) of section 2103 (a) of this title.

§ 2113. Receipts from disposal of property

(a) Amounts received by the Government from disposals of property acquired under authority of sections 2103–2116 of this title in the performance by the Postmaster General of the functions vested in him by sections 2103–2116 of this title shall be credited to the current applicable appropriation of the Department and shall be available for expenditure for the purposes of sections 2103–2116 of this title. Any amount received by the Postmaster General from the sale of such property, under authority of sections 2103–2116 of this title, which exceeds the amount paid therefor from the appropriations for the Department, shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(b) Amounts received by the Postmaster General from the disposal of real property acquired by the Government under authority of the Public Buildings Act of May 25, 1926 (44 Stat. 630), as amended, and the Public Buildings Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 176), as amended, which may be transferred to the Postmaster General, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of sections 303b, 345, or 485 of title 40, whichever section may be applicable.

§ 2114. Nonapplicability of statutes

Sections 34 and 259 of title 40, and sections 12 and 14 of title 41, and any other provision of law, except applicable labor standards provisions, relating to the acquisition or disposal of real property, construction of buildings, or leasing of space, do not apply to any of the functions performed by the Postmaster General in effectuating the purposes of sections 2103–2116 of this title, except as provided by sections 2111 and 2112 of this title.

Sections 2103–2116 of this title supplement other provisions of law for the leasing of space for postal purposes by providing authorization for the acquisition by the Postmaster General of space through the execution of lease-purchase and other agreements under which the United States will obtain immediate use of the space and will make periodic payments, and in the case of lease-purchase agreements will obtain title to the property described therein at or prior to the end of the term prescribed therein. Sections 2104–2108 of this title do not constitute a substitute for or a replacement of any program for the construction by the United States of such structures as may be required from time to time by the postal service.

§ 2116. Annual report

The Postmaster General shall include in his annual report an account of transactions conducted during the applicable year pursuant to the provisions of sections 2103–2105 of this title.

Congress shall appropriate the revenue of the Department, not otherwise obligated by law, to the extent necessary for the operation of the Department.

§ 2202. Post Office Department fund

(a) The Secretary of the Treasury shall maintain a revolving fund, known as the Post Office Department fund. He shall deposit in the fund, subject to withdrawal by check by the Postmaster General—

(1) amounts requisitioned by the Postmaster General against appropriations available to the Department out of the general fund of the Treasury; and

(2) amounts from the revenue of the Department, including any excess of funds accrued because of money orders remaining unpaid, that the Postmaster General may pay into the fund.

(b) The Postmaster General may, within limits of appropriations and subject to provisions of appropriation or other laws limiting expenditures or authorizing appropriations, use the funds of the Department, from whatever source derived, in the exercise of any power or function vested in him.

(c) The Postmaster General may use any appropriation of the Department for the payment of expenses for attendance at meetings of technical, scientific, professional, or similar organizations concerned with the function or activity for which the appropriation is made.

§ 2203. Reimbursement of appropriations

(a) Collections resulting from damage to Government-owned vehicles operated by the Department shall be credited by the Postmaster General to applicable appropriations and shall be available for meeting repair cost of damaged vehicles.

(b) Collections from the sale of leather, metal, canvas cuttings and old canvas resulting from the manufacture and repair of mail bags and locks shall be credited by the Postmaster General to applicable appropriations and shall be available for meeting the cost of the manufacture and repair.

§ 2204. Charges against postal revenues

(a) The Postmaster General shall pay indemnities for the loss of or damage to registered, insured and collect-on-delivery mail, and the expense of manufacturing embossed stamped envelopes, printed or unprinted, from postal revenue.

(b) The Postmaster General shall pay money orders from the receipts representing the face value of money orders issued.

§ 2205. Date of orders, entries, contracts

An officer or employee who—

(1) makes an order, entry or memorandum on which an action is to be based, allowance made, or money paid; or

(2) enters into a contract or other obligation on behalf of the Department; or

(3) files or receives on behalf of the Department any paper relating to contracts or allowances shall indicate thereon the date of the action.

§ 2206. Audit by General Accounting Office

The General Accounting Office shall audit the financial transactions of the Department in accordance with such principles and procedures and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller General. To the fullest extent practicable, as determined by the Comptroller General, all accounts of accountable officers, contracts, vouchers, or other documents that are required by law to be submitted to the General Accounting Office shall be retained in the Department and the audit shall be conducted at the places where the accounts of the Department are normally kept in accordance with the determinations of the Postmaster General. The representatives of the General Accounting Office shall have access to all books, accounts, financial records, reports, files, and other papers, or property belonging to or in use by the Department and necessary to facilitate the audit, and shall have full facilities for verifying transactions with the balances or securities held by depositaries, fiscal agents, and custodians. In the termination of the auditing procedures to be followed and the extent of the examination of vouchers and other documents, the Comptroller General shall give due regard to the adequacy of the system of accounts and internal control maintained by the Department and to generally accepted principles of auditing.

§ 2207. Administrative accounting

(a) The Postmaster General shall perform all functions relating to the Department with respect to--

- (1) the maintenance of administrative appropriation and fund accounts;
- (2) accounts receivable and payable;
- (3) allotment controls;
- (4) the preparation of financial and statistical reports;
- (5) the preaudit of expenses; and
- (6) related administrative, accounting, and reporting functions.

(b) The Postmaster General shall provide for such preaudit of expenses as he deems necessary.

§ 2208. System of accounting and control

(a) The Postmaster General shall establish and maintain a system of accounting conforming to accounting principles and standards prescribed by the Comptroller General, and a system of internal control providing for--

- (1) adequate accounting and internal control, including appropriate provisions for internal audit over and accountability for all funds, property and other assets for which the Department is responsible;
- (2) assembling of financial information needed for management purposes; and
- (3) full disclosure of the financial results of the operations of the Department.

(b) Officers and employees of the Department shall render accounts required by the Postmaster General in such form and with such certificate as he prescribes.

(c) The Comptroller General shall cooperate with the Postmaster General in the establishment of the accounting system provided for by subsection (a) of this section and shall approve the system when he deems it to be in conformity with the accounting principles and standards prescribed by him under such subsection.

§ 2209. Responsibility of postmasters

(a) A postmaster is responsible for—

(1) the due performance of the duties including the collection of the revenue of the post office; and

(2) the safekeeping of all monies, accountable paper, and other property of the post office, or coming into the custody of the office.

(b) Postmasters shall keep all money collected at a post office, or which may come into the custody of a post office, without—

(1) loaning;

(2) using;

(3) depositing in an unauthorized bank; or

(4) exchanging for other funds;

until it is required, by order or regulation of the Postmaster General, to be transferred or paid out.

(c) A postmaster at an office in a city or town where there is no designated depository may make temporary deposits of money in his custody, in a national bank or State bank—

(1) in the State where the postmaster resides; or

(2) in the State in which the post office is located; or

(3) within a reasonable radius of his post office in an adjacent State.

The postmaster shall make the deposits in his official capacity and at his own risk. Interest may not be paid or received on a deposit made in accordance with this subsection.

(d) Except when an acting postmaster has been appointed under section 3315 (c) of this title a postmaster shall be responsible for acts of—

(1) persons acting in his place during his absence; and

(2) assistants and other employees in the post office, its branches and stations.

§ 2210. Withholding compensation of postmasters

When the Postmaster General is satisfied that a postmaster has made a false statement of account, he may withhold compensation on the account and allow such compensation as he deems proper under the circumstances.

§ 2211. Administrative examination of accounts

The Postmaster General shall designate the places where the Department will conduct administrative examination of the accounts of its officers and employees. With the concurrence of the Comptroller General, the Postmaster General may waive administrative examination, in whole or in part, when it is determined that the other accounting and audit procedures of the Department adequately protect the interests of the United States.

§ 2212. Continuance of disbursing officer's accounts and issuance of checks

(a) In case of the death, resignation, or separation from office of the disbursing officer for the Post Office Department his accounts may be continued and payments made in his name by the assistant disbursing officers designated by the Postmaster General or designated by any official of the Post Office Department authorized by the Postmaster General to make such a designation, for a period of time not to extend beyond the last day of the second month following the month in which the death, resignation or separation occurs. The accounts and payments shall be allowed, audited, and settled and the checks signed in the name of the former disbursing officer for the Post Office Department shall be honored in the same manner as if the former disbursing officer for the Post Office Department had continued in office.

(b) A former disbursing officer for the Post Office Department, his estate, or the surety on his official bond, is not subject to legal liability or penalty for the official accounts and defaults of the assistant disbursing officers acting in the name or in the place of the former disbursing officer, but the assistant disbursing officers and their sureties are responsible therefor.

POSTAL MODERNIZATION FUND

§ 2231. Establishment of Fund

There is established in the Treasury of the United States a fund to be known as the "Postal Modernization Fund".

§ 2232. Appropriations to Fund

There are authorized to be appropriated and paid into the Fund such sums as may be necessary during each fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959 and ending with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1961, to carry out the purposes of section 2233 of this title.

§ 2233. Expenditure from Fund

Moneys paid into the Fund, together with any income thereof under section 2234 (b) of this title or otherwise, shall be available until expended for obligation by the Postmaster General for the purpose of conducting research, either directly or through private or other organizations, and for the purpose of developing, acquiring, and placing into operation improved equipment and facilities for the performance of the postal function.

§ 2234. Management of Fund

(a) The Secretary of the Treasury shall hold the Fund, and after consultation with the Postmaster General report to the Congress not later than the first day of January of each year on the financial condition of the Fund as of the end of the next preceding fiscal year.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury shall invest such portion of the Fund as is not, in his judgment, after consultation with the Postmaster General, required to meet current withdrawals. Investments may be made only in interest-bearing obligations of the United States or in obligations guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States.

REPORTS

2331. Cost Ascertainment.

2332. Postal Modernization Fund.

§ 2301. Findings of the Congress

The Congress hereby finds that—

(1) the postal establishment was created to unite more closely the American people, to promote the general welfare, and to advance the national economy;

(2) the postal establishment has been extended and enlarged through the years into a nationwide network of services and facilities for the communication of intelligence, the dissemination of information, the advancement of education and culture, and the distribution of articles of commerce and industry. Furthermore, the Congress has encouraged the use of these broadening services and facilities through reasonable and, in many cases, special postal rates;

(3) the development and expansion of these several elements of postal service, under authorization by the Congress, have been the impelling force in the origin and growth of many and varied business, commercial, and industrial enterprises which contribute materially to the national economy and the public welfare and which depend upon the continuance of these elements of postal service;

(4) historically and as a matter of public policy there have evolved, in the operations of the postal establishment authorized by the Congress, certain recognized and accepted relationships among the several classes of mail. It is clear, from the continued expansion of the postal service and from the continued encouragement by the Congress of the most widespread use thereof, that the postal establishment performs many functions and offers its facilities to many users on a basis which can only be justified as being in the interest of the national welfare;

(5) while the postal establishment, as all other Government agencies, should be operated in an efficient manner, it clearly is not a business enterprise conducted for profit or for raising general funds, and it would be an unfair burden upon any particular user or class of users of the mails to compel them to bear the expenses incurred by reason of special rate considerations granted or facilities provided to other users of the mails, or to underwrite those expenses incurred by the postal establishment for services of a nonpostal nature; and

(6) the public interest and the increasing complexity of the social and economic fabric of the Nation require an immediate, clear, and affirmative declaration of congressional policy with respect to the activities of the postal establishment including those of a public service nature as the basis for the creation and maintenance of a sound and equitable postal-rate structure which will assure efficient service, produce adequate postal revenues, and stand the test of time.

§ 2302. Declaration of policy

(a) The Congress hereby emphasizes, reaffirms, and restates its function under the Constitution of the United States of forming postal policy.

(b) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Congress, as set forth in sections 2301–2305 of this title—

(1) that the post office is a public service;

(2) to provide a more stable basis for the postal-rate structure through the establishment of general principles, standards, and related requirements with respect to the determination and allocation of postal revenues and expenses; and

(3) in accordance with these general principles, standards, and related requirements, to provide a means by which the postal-rate structure may be fixed and adjusted by action of the Congress, from time to time, as the public interest may require, in the light of periodic reviews of the postal-rate structure, periodic studies and surveys of expenses and revenues, and periodic reports, required to be made by the Postmaster General as provided by section 2304 of this title.

(c) The general principles, standards, and related requirements referred to in subsection (b) of this section are as follows:

(1) In the determination and adjustment of the postal-rate structure, due consideration should be given to—

(A) the preservation of the inherent advantages of the postal service in the promotion of social, cultural, intellectual, and commercial intercourse among the people of the United States;

(B) the development and maintenance of a postal service adapted to the present needs, and adaptable to the future needs, of the people of the United States;

(C) the promotion of adequate, economical, and efficient postal service at reasonable and equitable rates and fees;

(D) the effect of postal services and the impact of postal rates and fees on users of the mails;

(E) the requirements of the postal establishment with respect to the manner and form of preparation and presentation of mailings by the users of the various classes of mail service;

(F) the value of mail;

(G) the value of time of delivery of mail; and

(H) the quality and character of the service rendered in terms of priority, secrecy, security, speed of transmission, use of facilities and manpower, and other pertinent service factors.

(2) The acceptance, transportation, and delivery of first class mail constitutes a preferred service of the postal establishment and, therefore, the postage for first class mail should be sufficient to cover (A) the entire amount of the expenses allocated to first class mail in accordance with sections 2301–2305 of this title and (B) an additional amount representing the fair value of all extraordinary and preferential services, facilities, and factors relating thereto.

(3) Those services, elements of service, and facilities rendered and provided by the postal establishment in accordance with law, including services having public service aspects, which, in whole or in part, are held and considered by the Congress from time to time to be public services for the purposes of sections 2301–2305 of this title shall be administered on the following basis:

(A) the sum of such public service items as determined by the Congress should be assumed directly by the Federal Government and paid directly out of the general fund of the Treasury and should not constitute direct charges in the form of rates and fees upon any user or class of users of such public services, or of the mails generally; and

(B) nothing contained in any provision of section 2301–2305 of this title should be construed as indicating any intention on the part of the Congress (i) that such public services, or any of them, should be limited or restricted or (ii) to derogate in any way from the need and desirability thereof in the public interest.

(4) Postal rates and fees shall be adjusted from time to time as may be required to produce the amount of revenue approximately equal to the total cost of operating the postal establishment less the amount deemed to be attributable to the performance of public services under section 2303 (b) of this title.

§ 2303. Identification of and appropriations for public services

(a) The following shall be considered to be public services for the purposes of sections 2301–2305 of this title—

(1) the total loss resulting from the transmission of matter in the mails free of postage or at reduced rates of postage as provided by statute, including the following:

(A) reduced rates for certain publications as provided by sections 4359 and 4360 of this title;

(B) penalty mailings of the Pan American Union and the Pan American Sanitary Bureau as provided by section 4152 (a) of this title;

(C) free-in-county mailing of publications as provided by section 4358 of this title;

(D) free postage and reduced postage rates on reading matter and other articles for the blind as provided by sections 4653 and 4654 of this title;

(E) free mailing privileges for members of the diplomatic corps of the countries of the Postal Union of the Americas and Spain as provided by section 4167 of this title;

(F) free mailing privileges granted to individuals by the Act of May 7, 1945 (59 Stat. 707) and other provisions of law;

(G) reduced third-class postage rates to certain organizations as provided by section 4452 of this title;

(H) section 302 of The Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955 (5 U. S. C. 2192), granting free postage, including free airmail postage, to post cards, ballots, voting instructions, and envelopes transmitted in the mails under authority of that Act; and

(I) reduced postage rates on books, films, and similar educational material as provided by section 4554 of this title.

(2) the loss resulting from the operation of such prime and necessary public services as the star route system and third and fourth class post offices;

(3) the loss incurred in performing nonpostal services, such as the sale of documentary stamps for the Department of the Treasury;

(4) the loss incurred in performing special services such as cash on delivery, insured mail, special delivery, and money orders; and

(5) the additional cost of transporting United States mail by foreign air carriers at a Universal Postal Union rate in excess of the rate prescribed for United States carriers.

(b) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the revenues of the Post Office Department for each fiscal year from any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated an amount, which shall be deemed to be attributable to the public services enumerated under subsection (a) of this section, equal to the total estimated expenditures of the Post Office Department for the year for such public services as determined by the Congress in the appropriation Act based upon budget estimates submitted to the Congress. The appropriations shall be available to enable the Postmaster General to pay in to postal revenues at quarterly or other intervals such sums as may be necessary to reimburse the Post Office Department for the amount attributable to public services.

§ 2304. Reviews, studies, surveys, and reports of Postmaster General

(a) The Postmaster General shall initiate and conduct, through the facilities of the postal establishment, either on a continuing basis or from time to time, as he deems advisable, but not less often than every two years, a review of the postal-rate structure and a study and survey of the expenses incurred and the revenues received in connection with the several classes of mail, and the various classes and kinds of services and facilities provided by the postal establishment, in order to determine, on the basis of the review, study, and survey for each class and kind of service or facility provided by the postal establishment, the need for adjustment of postal rates and fees in accordance with the policy set forth in sections 2301–2305 of this title.

(b) The Postmaster General shall submit to the Senate and the House of Representatives not later than April 15 of each alternate fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1960, a report of the results of the review, study, and survey conducted pursuant to subsection (a) of this section which includes—

(1) information with respect to expenses and revenues which is pertinent to the allocation of expenses and the determination and adjustment of postal rates and fees in accordance with the policy set forth in sections 2301–2305 of this title; and

(2) such other information as is necessary to enable the Congress, or as may be required by the Congress or an appropriate committee thereof, to carry out the purposes of sections 2301–2305 of this title.

§ 2305. Effect on fourth class mail rates

The provisions of sections 2301–2304 of this title do not require any downward adjustment in rates of postage on fourth class mail existing on May 27, 1958.

§ 2306. Costs for establishing postal rates

The amounts contributed by the Post Office Department to the civil service retirement and disability fund in compliance with section 2254 (a) of title 5 are considered as costs of providing postal service for the purpose of establishing postal rates.

REPORTS

§ 2331. Cost ascertainment

(a) The Postmaster General shall ascertain and state annually the revenues derived from and the cost of—

- (1) carrying and handling the several classes of mail matter; and
- (2) performing special services.

(b) The appropriations of the Department, as determined by the Postmaster General, shall be available for cost of supervising or conducting the studies required by this section.

§ 2332. Postal Modernization Fund

The Postmaster General shall include in his annual report to the President for each year a detailed report of his activities during the year under sections 2231–2234 of this title.

CHAPTER 29—DEBTS AND COLLECTIONS

Sec.

- 2401. Collection of debts.
- 2402. Transportation of international mail by air carriers of the United States.
- 2403. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and Armed Forces postal clerks.
- 2404. Penalty for failure to render accounts.
- 2405. Deficiency in accounts.
- 2406. Limitation of action against sureties.
- 2407. Penalties and forfeitures imposed for violations.
- 2408. Suits to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments.
- 2409. Settlement of claims for damages caused by Post Office Department and services.
- 2410. Delivery of stolen money to owner.
- 2411. Substitute checks.

§ 2401. Collection of debts

(a) The Postmaster General shall—

- (1) collect debts due the Department; and
- (2) collect and remit fines, penalties, and forfeitures arising out of matters affecting the Department.

He may refer any debt, which is uncollectible through administrative action, to the General Accounting Office for collection.

This subsection does not affect the authority of the Attorney General in cases in which judicial proceedings are instituted.

(b) In all cases of disability or alleged liability for any sum of money by way of damages or otherwise, under any provision of law in relation to the officers, employees, operations, or business of the Postal Service, the Postmaster General shall determine whether the interests of the Department probably require the exercise of his powers over the same. Upon the determination the Controller General, with the written consent of the Postmaster General and on such terms as the Postmaster General deems just and expedient, may—

- (1) remove the disability; or
- (2) compromise, release, or discharge the claim for such sum of money and damages.

(c) Subsection (b) applies to cases involving balances due the United States through accountability for public moneys under any provisions of law in relation to the officers, employees, operations, or business of the Postal Service, except cases cognizable under section 2403 of this title.

§ 2402. Transportation of international mail by air carriers of the United States

(a) The Postmaster General may offset against any balances due another country resulting from the transaction of international money order business, or otherwise, amounts due from that country to the United States, or to the United States for the account of air carriers of the United States transporting mail of that country, when—

- (1) the Postmaster General puts into effect rates of compensation to be charged another country for transportation; and
- (2) the United States is required to collect from another country the amounts owed for transportation for the account of the air carriers.

(b) When the Postmaster General has proceeded under authority of subsection (a), he shall—

- (1) give appropriate credit to the country involved;
- (2) pay to the air carrier the portion of the amount so credited which is owed to the air carrier for its services in transporting the mail of the other country; and
- (3) deposit in the Department fund that portion of the amount so credited which is due the United States on its own account.

(c) The Postmaster General, from time to time may advance to an air carrier, out of funds available for payment of balances due other countries, the amounts determined by him to be due from another country to an air carrier for the transportation of its mails when—

- (1) collections are to be made by the United States for the account of air carriers; and
- (2) the Postmaster General determines that the balance of funds available is such that the advances may be made therefrom.

Collection from another country of the amount so advanced shall be made by offset, or otherwise, and the appropriation from which the advance is made shall be reimbursed by the collections made by the United States.

(d) If the United States is unable to collect from the debtor country an amount paid or advanced to an air carrier within twelve months after payment or advance has been made, the United States may deduct the uncollected amount from any sums owed by it to the air carrier.

(e) The Postmaster General shall adopt such accounting procedures as may be necessary to conform to and effect the purposes of this section.

§ 2403. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and Armed Forces postal clerks

(a) When the Postmaster General determines, after investigation, that any of the following losses has resulted without negligence of a postmaster, Armed Forces postal clerk, or assistant Armed Forces postal clerk, he may, subject to subsections (b)—(d) of this section, pay or credit the postmaster, Armed Forces postal clerk, or assistant Armed Forces postal clerk, the sum he ascertains to be the amount of—

(1) the loss of funds or valuable papers from their official custody resulting from burglary, fire, or unavoidable casualty;

(2) the loss of funds deposited in National or State banks;

(3) the loss of funds remitted in accordance with instructions of the Department in the form of drafts or checks which have been returned unpaid or disallowed by reason of the closing of the bank issuing the drafts or checks;

(4) a remittance of funds or accountable papers, made in compliance with instructions of the Department, which are lost, stolen or destroyed—

(A) while in transit to a designated depository; or

(B) after arrival at the depository, and before the depository has become responsible therefor; and

(5) authorized sums of postage and other stamped stock or accountable paper lost while in transit by mail to or from—

(A) postmasters or employees; or

(B) the Department.

(b) Claims of postmasters, Armed Forces postal clerks and assistant Armed Forces postal clerks outside the continental United States for losses occurring while the United States is at war may be presented within two years from the time the loss occurred. All other claims under this section must be presented within six months from the time when the loss occurred.

(c) Claims in excess of $10,000 for losses covered by this section may not be paid or credited until an appropriation has been made therefor.

(d) This section does not apply to claims for losses—

(1) cognizable under sections 134–134h of title 5;

(2) by Armed Forces postal clerks or assistant Armed Forces postal clerks for stamps, stamped envelopes, postal cards and other stamped paper supplied them by the Department of Defense and not by the Post Office Department, nor to funds received from the sale of the same.

§ 2404. Penalty for failure to render accounts

When a postmaster neglects to render his accounts for one month after the time and in the form and manner prescribed by law and the regulations of the Postmaster General, he and his sureties shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the gross receipts at his office for the period, estimated on the basis of any previous or subsequent equal period of time. If the postmaster or his sureties fail to pay the amount of the forfeiture, the Postmaster General shall request the Attorney General to bring an action on the bond of the postmaster. If, at the time of trial, no account has been rendered, the postmaster and his sureties shall be liable in double the amount estimated by the court or jury to be the gross postal receipts.

§ 2405. Deficiency in accounts

The Postmaster General shall mail a notice to the last known addresses of the sureties of a postmaster who fails to make good a deficiency discovered in his accounts. Failure to mail the notice to the sureties does not discharge them on the bond.

§ 2406. Limitation of action against sureties

Sureties on the bond of a postmaster may be sued for deficiencies in his account only within three years after settlement of the account.

§ 2407. Penalties and forfeitures imposed for violations

Unless a different disposal is expressly prescribed, one-half of all penalties and forfeitures imposed for violations of law affecting the Department, its revenues or property, shall be paid to the person informing and prosecuting for the same. The other one-half shall be paid into the postal revenues.

§ 2408. Suits to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments

The Postmaster General shall request the Attorney General to bring a suit to recover with interest any payment made from moneys of, or credit granted by, the Department or postal savings system as a result of—

- (1) mistake;
- (2) fraudulent representations;
- (3) collusion; or
- (4) misconduct of an officer or employee of the Department.

§ 2409. Settlement of claims for damages caused by Post Office Department and services

When the Postmaster General finds a claim for damage to persons or property resulting from the operation of the Department to be a proper charge against the United States, and it is not cognizable under section 2672 of title 28, he may adjust and settle it in an amount not exceeding $500.

§ 2410. Delivery of stolen money to owner

When the Postmaster General is satisfied that money or property in the possession of the Department represents money or property stolen from the mails, or the proceeds thereof, he may deliver it to the person he finds to be the rightful owner.

§ 2411. Substitute checks

(a) The Postmaster General may authorize the issuance of a substitute check for a lost, stolen or destroyed check of the Department.

Substitute checks shall—

- (1) be marked "Duplicate";
- (2) show the number, date, and payee of the original.

(b) The Postmaster General may authorize the issuance of the substitute check (1) upon the execution of a bond agreeable to the Postmaster General by the owner, or (2) without bond, upon the affidavit of the payee or owner of the original check when the Postmaster General is satisfied that the loss, theft or destruction occurred without the fault of the owner or holder or while the check was in the custody or control of the Department or in the mails.

(c) Subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 528 of title 31 do not apply to checks of the Department.

CHAPTER 31—STAMPS AND STAMPED PAPER

Sec.

- 2501. Postage stamps.
- 2502. Double postal cards, letter-sheet envelopes, double-letter envelopes.
- 2503. Postal cards and stamped envelopes.
- 2504. Improvements in stamps and envelopes.
- 2505. Sale of postage due stamps.
- 2506. Printing of black-and-white illustrations of United States stamps.
- 2507. Stamps to be defaced.
- 2508. Permits for special canceling of postmarking dies.
- 2509. Special cancellation "Pray for peace".
- 2510. Printing on stamped envelopes.

§ 2501. Postage stamps

The Postmaster General may issue appropriate stamps in such denomination, form and design, and at such times as he deems necessary, for use in payment of postage or fees for special services. He shall issue postage due stamps of special design and in the denomination he deems necessary to be affixed to short paid mail. Postage due stamps shall be canceled as other postage stamps.

§ 2502. Double postal cards, letter-sheet envelopes, double-letter envelopes

(a) The Postmaster General may furnish for public use, with postage stamps printed or impressed thereon, double postal cards, letter-sheet envelopes, and double-letter envelopes.

(b) The Postmaster General may not make payments for royalty or patent right on any of the articles named in this section.

§ 2503. Postal cards and stamped envelopes

(a) The Postmaster General shall furnish for public use postal cards and envelopes with postage stamps printed or impressed thereon.

(b) Stamped envelopes shall be sold as nearly as possible at cost, but not less than cost. Cost includes the value of the postage stamps, salaries and clerk hire, and other expenses connected therewith.

§ 2504. Improvements in stamps and envelopes

The Postmaster General may adopt such improvements in postage stamps and stamped envelopes as he deems advisable. When an improvement is adopted it shall be subject to all the provisions of law respecting postage stamps or stamped envelopes.

§ 2505. Sale of postage due stamps

(a) Postage due stamps may not be sold by any postmaster nor received by him in prepayment of postage or fees for special services.

(b) The Postmaster General may designate agencies of the Department where postage due stamps may be sold for philatelic purposes only.

§ 2506. Printing of black-and-white illustrations of United States stamps

(a) When requested by the Postmaster General, the Public Printer shall print as a public document for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, illustrations in black and white of postage stamps of the United States, together with such descriptive, historical, and philatelic information with regard to the stamps as the Postmaster General deems suitable.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 58 of title 44, stereotype or electrotpe plates, or duplicates thereof, used in the publications authorized to be printed by this section may not be sold or otherwise disposed of.

§ 2507. Stamps to be defaced

(a) The Postmaster General shall direct the manner in which postage stamps on mail matter shall be canceled and may furnish necessary equipment and supplies therefor.

(b) The Postmaster General may furnish to post offices postage stamps precanceled with the name of the post office at which they are to be used imprinted thereon.

(c) The Postmaster General may issue permits to persons using stamped envelope and postal cards to precancel the postage stamps thereon.

§ 2508. Permits for special canceling or postmarking dies

(a) In post offices of the first and second class the Postmaster General may permit, for a period of six months and the duration of the event to be advertised, the use of special canceling stamps or postmarking dies for advertising purposes when the event to be advertised—

(1) is for a national purpose for which Congress has made an appropriation; or

(2) is of general public interest and importance and is to endure for a definite period of time and is not to be conducted for private gain or profit.

(b) The permittee shall prepay all expenses for the purchase, adapting or installing special canceling stamps or postmarking dies.

(c) The Postmaster General may revoke permits granted under this section when he finds it expedient or necessary to use special canceling stamps or postmarking dies for governmental purposes.

§ 2509. Special cancellation "Pray for peace"

The Postmaster General may provide for the use in post offices of the first and second class of a special canceling stamp or postmarking die bearing the words "Pray for peace".

§ 2510. Printing on stamped envelopes

The Postmaster General may not sell stamped envelopes containing any lithographing or engraving, printing or advertising, other than the usual request for return of the envelope to the sender.

(6) "basic compensation" means basic salary plus longevity compensation.

(7) "assigned to road duty" as used in reference to employees in the Motor Vehicle Service means assignment to a Motor Vehicle Service route which is not less than fifty miles in length one way.

EMPLOYEES GENERALLY

§ 3103. Oath of office

Before entering upon their duties, and before receiving any salary, the Postmaster General, and all persons employed in the Department, in addition to any other oath or affirmation required by law, shall respectively take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

"I, do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me and abstain from everything forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of post offices and post roads within the United States; and that I will honestly and truly account for and pay over any money belonging to the said United States which may come into my possession or control; and I also further swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States; so help me God."

A person authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States, including section 16a of title 5, or of a State or Territory, or an officer, civil or military, holding a commission under the United States may administer and certify the oath or affirmation.

§ 3104. Employees not to receive fees

An officer or employee of the Department may not receive any fee or perquisite from a patron of the Department on account of the duties performed by virtue of his appointment, except as authorized by law.

§ 3105. Detail of employees between field and department

With the consent of the employee, the Postmaster General may detail any employee, including an employee of the departmental service, between the postal field service and the departmental service to such extent as may be necessary to develop a more efficient working force and more effectively to perform the work of the Department. Each detail shall be made for a period of not more than one year and may be made without change in compensation of the employees so detailed.

SPECIAL CLASSES OF EMPLOYEES

§ 3111. Residence of postal transportation clerks

Clerks appointed to the Postal Transportation Service to perform duty on railway post offices shall reside at some point on the route to which they are assigned unless they are authorized by the Postmaster General to reside at some other convenient point.

§ 3112. Inspectors may administer oaths

Postal inspectors may administer oaths required or authorized by law or regulation with respect to any matter coming before them in the performance of their official duties.

§ 3113. Rural carriers to furnish equipment

Rural carriers shall furnish, for prompt handling of the mail, necessary vehicles and such other equipment as the Postmaster General requires.

§ 3114. Rural carriers not to carry merchandise

Rural carriers may not solicit business or receive orders for any person. The Postmaster General may permit them to carry merchandise for hire during their hours of duty for and at the request of patrons residing on their routes.

§ 3115. Special delivery messengers as employees or carriers

(a) A person temporarily employed to deliver special delivery mail is deemed an employee of the postal service, and is subject to the provisions of chapter 83 of title 18 to the same extent as other employees of the Department.

(b) Any person, when engaged in carrying special delivery mail under contract with the Department, or employed by the Department, is deemed a carrier or person entrusted with the mail and having custody thereof, within the meaning of sections 1701, 1708, and 2114 of title 18.

§ 3116. Uniforms and badges

(a) The Postmaster General may prescribe a uniform dress to be worn by letter carriers.

(b) The Postmaster General may not require employees in the Postal Transportation Service to wear any uniform other than cap or badge.

ESTABLISHMENT OF POSITIONS

§ 3301. Personnel requirements

The Postmaster General shall determine the personnel requirements of the postal field service, and fix the number of supervisors and other employees in that service, except that there may not be at any one time more than—

- (1) one assistant postmaster employed at any post office;
- (2) 40 employees in positions assigned to salary level 17;
- (3) 12 employees in positions assigned to salary level 18;
- (4) four employees in positions assigned to salary level 19; or
- (5) 15 employees in positions assigned to salary level 20.

§ 3302. Substitute positions

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section the Postmaster General shall prescribe the conditions under which substitutes may be appointed.

(b) The Postmaster General may appoint not more than one career substitute to five regular employees, or fraction thereof, in any of the following categories.

- (1) postal transportation clerks;
- (2) post office clerks;

- (3) city letter carriers;
- (4) village letter carriers;
- (5) mail handlers;
- (6) watchmen;
- (7) messengers;
- (8) employees of the Motor Vehicle Service.

(c) In post offices having fewer than five regular employees, the Postmaster General may appoint one career substitute clerk, carrier, and employee in the Motor Vehicle Service.

(d) The Postmaster General may not appoint additional career substitutes until the ratios prescribed by this section are established.

(e) The Postmaster General may not furlough or dismiss a career substitute in the categories covered by this section to meet requirements of this section.

POSTMASTERS

§ 3311. Method of appointment

(a) The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint postmasters at post offices of the first, second, and third classes in the competitive civil service without term. He shall make the appointments in accordance with the Civil Service Act and rules by—

- (1) competitive examinations; or
- (2) promotion from within the postal service.

(b) The Postmaster General shall appoint postmasters at post offices of the fourth class without term.

§ 3312. Residence requirements

(a) A person is not eligible for appointment as postmaster at a post office of the first, second, or third class unless he has actually resided within the delivery of that post office, or within the city or town where it is situated, for one year next preceding—

- (1) the date fixed for the close of receipt of applications for examination, if the appointment is made by competitive examination; or
- (2) the appointment, if the appointment is made without competitive examination.

(b) The residence requirements of subsection (a) of this section may be waived whenever the Civil Service Commission finds that peculiar local conditions preclude or render impossible the application of the requirement. In that case the Commission may examine and certify for appointment or promotion persons who reside in such areas adjacent to, or surrounding, the delivery zone of the post office as may be fixed by the Commission.

(c) Every postmaster shall reside within the delivery of the post office to which he is appointed, or within the town or city where it is situated, or in the area adjacent to or surrounding the delivery zone of the post office in which he lived at the time of appointment.

§ 3313. Appointment in fourth class offices in Alaska

Notwithstanding sections 58, 62, 69, and 70 of title 5, and other provision of law, an officer, agent, or employee of the United States Government, who is a citizen of the United States, is eligible for appointment as, and to receive the compensation provided by section 3544 of this title for a postmaster of a fourth class post office in Alaska.

§ 3314. Status on change in class of office

A postmaster appointed in the competitive civil service at a post office of—

(1) the first, second, or third class whose post office is relegated to the fourth class; or

(2) the fourth class whose post office is advanced to a higher class, shall continue to be the postmaster after the change in the class of office.

§ 3315. Filling vacancies

(a) When the office of a postmaster becomes vacant, the appointment of a regular postmaster shall be made without delay. In the interim the Postmaster General may—

(1) continue the post office, under the name of the former postmaster, by the assistant postmaster or other employee of the inspector or other special agent; or

(2) in the case of a third or fourth class post office, place the office under the charge of a suitable person, pending appointment of a regular or acting postmaster; or

(3) place the post office under the charge of a postal inspector; or

(4) appoint an acting postmaster.

(b) Acting postmasters appointed under this section may not serve more than six months from the date of their designation, unless the Postmaster General extends the period of service with the permission of the Civil Service Commission.

(c) Acting postmasters may be appointed by the Postmaster General in accordance with the Civil Service act, rules, and regulations to serve during military leave of the regular postmaster granted pursuant to section 3317 of this title.

§ 3316. Designation of persons to act during absence

The Postmaster General may authorize postmasters to designate the assistant postmaster, or, if none, a clerk employed in the office to perform the functions of the office of postmaster during the absences of the postmaster. The person so designated shall, during the absences of the postmaster—

- (1) discharge the duties required of the postmaster; and
- (2) be subject to the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the postmaster for whom he acts.

§ 3317. Leave without pay for military service

(a) The Postmaster General shall grant leave of absence without pay to a postmaster entering active military service.

(b) The Postmaster General shall permit a postmaster who resigns for the purpose of active military service to withdraw his resignation and resume the office of postmaster upon being released from service, if the office is being conducted by an acting postmaster.

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER OF EMPLOYEES

§ 3331. Duty station

The Postmaster General shall designate an official duty station for employees within the region, division or territory to which they are assigned. He may not allow per diem, in lieu of actual expenses, to employees for official travel except when they are traveling on official business away from their home and their official duty station.

§ 3332. Assignment to branches and stations

The Postmaster General may assign employees in a post office to duty in a branch or station thereof.

§ 3333. Transfer of postal transportation employees

(a) The Postmaster General may transfer employees in the Postal Transportation Service, including supervisors, from one position or assignment to another position or assignment in the Postal Transportation Service.

(b) When the Postmaster General is required because of changes in the service to transfer employees of the Postal Transportation Service, including supervisors, from one position or assignment to another, he may not reduce their basic salary except as provided in subsection (c) of this section. While serving in miscellaneous assignments they shall be retained by the Postmaster General on the roster of their own organizations. He shall also retain for them the promotion status authorized by law for the positions from which they are withdrawn. They are entitled to pay by the hour for actual services performed when on other than road duty. For road duty services they are entitled to pay by the hour according to the time value of the trip including a proper allowance for all services required on lay-off periods, until again restored to regular positions.

(c) When a surplus postal transportation employee, including a supervisor, can not be placed in a position corresponding to his salary step or salary level in the position from which he was withdrawn without giving him preference over an employee or supervisor with a longer continuous transportation service record, the Postmaster General may relegate him to a lower salary step or salary level in his own organization or transfer him elsewhere to any salary step or salary level that may be available for a regular employee or supervisor of his standing.

§ 3334. Transfer of ten-point preference eligibles

(a) An employee entitled as a preference eligible under chapter 17 of title 5 to ten points in addition to his earned rating, who transfers between positions in the same salary level at a post office, shall not, as a result of the transfer, incur loss of seniority if he presents, to the Civil Service Commission, within thirty days after the transfer, satisfactory evidence to the Civil Service Commission that the transfer was necessitated principally by reason of a disability which he received on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may not reduce a regular employee to substitute status to accord the benefits of this section to another employee.

§ 3335. Dual employment and extra duties

(a) The Postmaster General may appoint an employee to more than one position and he shall pay compensation at the rate provided by law for each position, without regard to the provisions of sections 58, 62, 69, and 70 of title 5.

(b) As the needs of the service require, the Postmaster General may assign an employee from time to time to perform, without change in compensation, duties, and responsibilities, other than the duties and responsibilities specifically set forth in his position description.

If an employee is assigned for more than thirty days in a calendar year to duties and responsibilities of a salary level which is higher than the salary level to which his position is assigned, except to perform service in a relief capacity for a supervisor granted compensatory time pursuant to section 3573 of this title, the Postmaster General shall pay for the period of his assignment in excess of thirty days, a basic salary computed in accordance with the provisions of section 3559 of this title.

(c) The Postmaster General, with the consent of the Administrator of General Services, may appoint custodial employees working under the jurisdiction of the General Services Administration at Federal buildings occupied in part by the Postal Service to positions in the Postal Service to perform postal duties in addition to their regular duties as custodial employees, and he shall pay compensation to them at the rate provided by law without regard to sections 58, 62, 69, and 70 of title 5.

§ 3336. Detail to stations of Armed Forces

Whenever the Postmaster General deems it necessary in serving the camps, posts, or stations of the Armed Forces and defense or other strategic installations, he may—

(1) detail field postal employees from main post offices to postal units at those installations without changing their official station; and

(2) pay them an allowance, in lieu of actual expenses, of not more than $4 for each day while so detailed, without regard to chapter 16 of title 5.

§ 3337. Promotions and assignment of rural carriers

(a) The seniority status of a rural carrier commences on the day of appointment as a regular rural carrier. Upon voluntary transfer from one post office to another, or another branch of the service into the rural delivery service, the relative seniority of the transferee commences on the day he enters the rural delivery service of the office to which transfer is made.

(b) A rural carrier shall be assigned by the Postmaster General to the least desirable route upon entering the service and shall rise to the more desirable routes by seniority.

(c) The Postmaster General shall base promotions and preferential assignments in the rural delivery service upon seniority and ability. If ability be sufficient, seniority shall govern.

§ 3338. Filling vacancies on rural routes

(a) The Postmaster General shall post a notice in the post office of each new or vacant rural route and give all rural carriers attached to the office opportunity to apply.

(b) A rural carrier assigned to a new or vacant route has ninety days in which to demonstrate his fitness for the assignment. He may not be removed therefrom until his inability to fill the assignment is proven. The Postmaster General shall return any carrier so removed to his former position.

(c) A senior rural carrier whose application for a new or vacant route is denied, or who is removed therefrom under subsection (b) of this section shall be furnished a written statement of the reasons for the action. He has the right, upon written request, to a hearing before a person designated by the Postmaster General.

(d) The hearing shall be held within ten days from the date of the carrier's request, unless prevented by unusual conditions, in which event he shall be given a written statement of the reasons for the postponement.

(e) The rural carrier is entitled to be represented at the hearing by not more than three representatives of his own choosing.

(f) This section does not supplant the Civil Service Regulations.

§ 3339. Consolidation of rural routes

The Postmaster General may not consolidate rural routes except on account of a carrier's—(1) resignation, (2) death, (3) retirement, or (4) dismissal on charges.

POSITIONS

§ 3501. Ranking of positions

(a) The Postmaster General shall define the various positions other than the key positions specified in sections 3511–3531 of this title and the standard positions of postmaster in a fourth class office and rural carrier. He shall assign each position to its appropriate salary level in the Postal Field Service Schedule. He shall ascertain the appropriate salary level of a position (1) by comparing the duties, responsibilities, and work requirements of the position with those of key positions described in sections 3511-3531 of this title, and (2) by ranking the position in relation to the key position most closely comparable in terms of the level of duties, responsibilities, and work requirements.

(b) In ranking positions, the Postmaster General shall apply the principle of equal pay for substantially equal work and give effect to substantial differences in difficulty of the work to be performed, in the degree of responsibility to be exercised, in the scope and variety of tasks involved, and in the conditions of performance.

(d) The Postmaster General's determinations under this section is the basis for the payment of compensation and for personnel transactions.

§ 3502. Appeals to Civil Service Commission

An employee, either individually or together with one or more other employees with a similar grievance, may appeal at any time, in person or through his representative specifically designated for that purpose, to the United States Civil Service Commission to review—

(1) if the employee is in a position other than a key position described in sections 3511-3531 of this title, any action taken by the Postmaster General under section 3501 of this title, in order to determine whether his position has been placed in its appropriate salary level in accordance with that section, and

(2) if the employee is in a key position described in sections 3511-3531 of this title, any administrative action taken or determination made under section 3501 of this title, in connection with the employee, in order to determine whether the employee has been placed correctly in a key position on the basis of and in accordance with the descriptions of key positions and the assignments of the positions to salary levels specified in sections 3511-3531 of this title.

The Commission shall act upon the appeal at the earliest practicable time, and certify its decision forthwith to the Postmaster General who shall take action in accordance with the certificate.

§ 3511. Key positions

COMPENSATION AND ALLOWANCES

§ 3541. Pay periods and computation of rates

(a) Employees in the postal field service shall be paid compensation in twenty-six installments. Each installment shall be the compensation for a pay period of two weeks.

(b) As basic compensation for a full pay period, an employee, other than an hourly rate employee, shall be paid an amount equal to one twenty-sixth of his annual basic compensation. As basic compensation for a portion of a pay period, the employee shall be paid basic compensation computed in accordance with subsection (d) of this section for the number of days and hours of service for which he has credit.

(c) As basic compensation for the pay period, an hourly rate employee shall be paid an amount equal to the product of his hourly rate of basic compensation and the number of hours of service for which he has credit.

(d) For purposes of computing rates of compensation other than annual rates the following rules govern :

(1) To compute an hourly rate of basic compensation for employees other than substitute employees, the annual rate of basic compensation shall be divided by 2,080.

(2) To compute an hourly rate of basic compensation for substitute employees, the annual rate of basic compensation shall be divided by 2,016.

(3) To compute the daily rate of compensation for postmasters, postal inspectors, and rural carriers, the annual rate of compensation shall be divided by 312.

(4) To compute the daily rate of basic compensation for annual rate employees other than postmasters, postal inspectors, and rural carriers, the hourly rate of basic compensation shall be multiplied by the number of daily hours of service required.

(e) Except for lump-sum payments for accumulated leave upon the termination of employment, an annual rate employee shall not be paid more than one twenty-sixth of his basic compensation as basic compensation for a pay period.

(f) Rates shall be computed to the nearest cent, counting one-half cent and over as a whole cent.

(g) When a pay period for employees begins in one fiscal year and ends in another, the gross amount of the earnings of such employees for such pay period may be regarded as a charge against the appropriation or allotment current at the end of such pay period.

(h) Wherever a temporary per annum rate is provided by a basic salary schedule contained in sections 3542, 3543, and 3544 of this title, the temporary rate shall be in effect, in lieu of the regular scheduled rate, for the period beginning on January 11, 1958, and ending on the last day of the last pay period which begins not more than three years after that date.

§ 3542. Postal Field Service Schedule

(a) There is established a basic salary schedule for positions in the postal field service which shall be known as the Postal Field Service Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be "PFS". Except as provided in sections 3543 and 3544 of this title, basic salary shall be paid to all employees in accordance with this schedule.

(b) The basic salary for hourly rate employees shall be computed by dividing the per annum rates prescribed in the Postal Field Service Schedule (1) by 2,080 in the case of hourly rate employees other than substitutes, and (2) by 2,016 in the case of substitute employees.

(c) In addition to the compensation provided under this section regular and substitute special delivery carriers and special delivery messengers at first class post offices shall be paid an automotive equipment maintenance allowance at the rate of 7 cents per mile or major fraction thereof for miles traveled under the direction of the Department in making delivery of special delivery mail or at the option of the Postmaster General at the rate of 90 cents per hour spent in making delivery of special delivery mail. Payments for equipment maintenance shall be made at the same periods and in the same manner as payments of regular compensation.

§ 3543. Rural Carrier Schedule

(a) There is established a basic salary schedule which shall be known as the Rural Carrier Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be "RCS", for carriers in the rural delivery service, which is based in part on fixed compensation per annum and in part on specified rates per mile per annum. Basic salary shall be paid to rural carriers in accordance with this schedule.

(b) A rural carrier serving one triweekly route shall be paid on the basis of a route one-half the length of the route served by him. A rural carrier serving two triweekly routes shall be paid on the basis of a route one-half the combined length of the two routes.

(c) The Postmaster General may pay such additional compensation as he may determine to be fair and reasonable in each individual case to rural carriers serving heavily patronized routes not exceeding sixty-one miles in length. He may not pay additional compensation to a carrier serving such a route in an amount which would exceed $5,165 during the period referred to in section 3541 (h) of this title, and $5,035 thereafter, when added to the basic salary for the maximum step in the Rural Carrier Schedule for his route. In case such a heavily patronized route is extended in length, the rural carrier assigned to the route at the time of the extension may not be reduced in pay.

(d) The Postmaster General may pay additional compensation to rural carriers who are required to carry pouch mail to intermediate post offices, or for intersecting loop routes, in all cases where it appears that the carriage of pouches increases the expense of the equipment required by the carrier or materially increases the amount of labor performed by him. The compensation may not exceed the sum of $12 per annum for each mile the carrier is required to carry the pouches.

(e) In addition to the other compensation, rural carriers shall be paid the authorized fee for making special delivery of mail. The fee may not be paid when—

- (1) no special delivery service is rendered,
- (2) delivery is made into a rural mail box, or
- (3) delivery is made to the addressee or his representative on the rural carrier's route.

(f) In addition to the compensation provided in the Rural Carrier Schedule, each rural carrier shall be paid for equipment maintenance a sum equal to—

- (1) 10 cents per mile for each mile or major fraction of a mile scheduled or
- (2) $3.50 per day, whichever is greater.

In addition to the allowance provided by the proceeding sentence, the Postmaster General may pay such amount as he determines to be fair and reasonable, not in excess of $2.50 per day, to rural carriers entitled to additional compensation under subsection (c) of this section for servicing heavily patronized routes. Payment for equipment maintenance shall be made at the same periods and in the same manner as payments of regular compensation.

(g) Any other employee in the postal field service who is assigned to serve a rural route, and who furnishes the vehicle used in the performance of that service, shall be paid the equipment maintenance allowance provided for the route so served, in addition to his compensation.

(h) The length of rural routes shall be determined in accordance with records of the Department. The Postmaster General shall change the records whenever he determines they are not correct.

§ 3544. Fourth Class Office Schedule

(a) There is established a basic salary schedule which shall be known as the Fourth Class Office Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be “FOS”, for postmasters in post offices of the fourth class which is based on the gross postal receipts as contained in returns of the post office for the calendar year immediately preceding. Basic salary shall be paid to postmasters in post offices of the fourth class in accordance with this schedule, and basic salary so paid, together with other forms of compensation provided by this title, shall replace existing forms of compensation for those postmasters.

(b) The basic salary of postmasters in fourth class post offices shall be readjusted for changes in gross receipts at the start of the first pay period after the beginning of each fiscal year. In adjusting a postmaster's basic salary under this section the basic salary shall be fixed at the lowest step which is higher than the basic salary received by the postmaster at the end of the preceding fiscal year. If there is no such step the basic salary shall be fixed at the highest step for the adjusted gross receipts of the office. Each increase in basic salary because of change in gross receipts shall be deemed the equivalent of a step-increase under section 3552 of this title and the waiting period, for purposes of advancement to the next step, shall begin on the date of adjustment.

(c) The basic salaries of postmasters at newly established offices of the fourth class shall be fixed at the lowest salary rate. Whenever unusual conditions prevail at any post office of the fourth class the Postmaster General may advance such office to the appropriate category or class indicated by the receipts of the preceding quarter. Any fourth class office advanced to the appropriate category or class pursuant to this subsection shall not be reduced in category or class until the start of the first pay period after July 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which it was so advanced, at which time it shall be assigned to the category or class indicated by the receipts for the preceding calendar year.

(d) Persons who perform the duties of postmaster at post offices of the fourth class where there is a vacancy or during the absence of the postmaster on sick or annual leave, or leave without pay, shall be paid the same basic salary to which they would have been entitled if regularly appointed as postmaster.

(e) The Postmaster General may allow to postmasters in fourth class post offices additional compensation for separating services and for unusual conditions during a portion of the year, in lieu of an allowance for clerical services for this purpose.

(f) At seasonal post offices of the fourth class, the Postmaster General may authorize the payment of the basic salary prorated over the pay periods the office is open for business during the fiscal year.

(g) Where the gross postal receipts of a post office of the third class for each of two consecutive calendar years are less than $1,500, or where in any calendar year the gross postal receipts are less than $1,400, the post office shall be relegated to the fourth class and the basic salary of the postmaster shall be fixed in the manner provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(h) Postmasters of fourth class post offices shall be paid as allowances for rent, fuel, light, and equipment an amount equal to 15 per centum of the basic compensation earned in each pay period, at the same time and in the same manner as their regular compensation.

SALARY STEPS AND PROMOTIONS

§ 3551. Appointments to positions in the postal field service

(a) The Postmaster General may appoint any person who has been employed in a civilian capacity in any branch of the Government to any position in a regional or district office or to any professional or scientific position and may place him in any step in the salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule which is less than one full step above the highest basic salary which he received from the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may appoint any employee of the legislative branch whose compensation is disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives, and who has completed two or more years of service as such an employee, to any position in the postal field service and may fix his initial rate of compensation at the minimum rate of the appropriate level of the basic salary schedule applicable to the position, or at any step of that level that does not exceed the highest previous rate of compensation received by him during his service in the legislative branch.

§ 3552. Automatic advancement by step increases

(a) Except as to a substitute employee in the Postal Transportation Service whose position is allocated to salary level PFS-5 as a distribution clerk in a railway or highway post office, each employee whose position is allocated to the Rural Carrier Schedule, the Fourth Class Office Schedule, or the Postal Field Service Schedule, who has not reached the highest step for his position, shall be advanced successively to the next higher step for his position at the beginning of the first pay period following the completion of each fifty-two calendar weeks of satisfactory service, if no equivalent increase in basic salary from any cause was received during the period of fifty-two calendar weeks. The benefit of successive step-increases shall be preserved, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, for employees whose continuous service is interrupted by service in the Armed Forces.

(b) Each substitute employee in the Postal Transportation Service, whose position is allocated to salary level PFS-5 as a distribution clerk in a railway or highway post office, shall be advanced in the manner prescribed for other employees under subsection (a) of this section, but may not be advanced beyond step four of salary level PFS-5.

§ 3553. Creditable service for advancement

Each employee in the postal field service is eligible to earn step-increases in accordance with this chapter. Except for temporary rural carriers serving in the absence of regular rural carriers on leave without pay or on military leave, credit may not be allowed for time on the rolls under a temporary appointment for one year or less unless the time on the rolls is continuous to the date of appointment to a position of unlimited duration.

§ 3554. Compensation of certain temporary employees

Temporary employees hired for a continuous period of one year or less for a position under the Postal Field Service Schedule shall be paid a basic salary at the entrance step for the salary level of the position to which they are appointed.

§ 3555. Reduction in salary step [or level]

【The Postmaster General may reduce in salary step or salary level an employee whose efficiency falls below a fair standard or whenever it is necessary for purposes of discipline.】 The Postmaster General may reduce in salary step clerks or carriers whose efficiency falls below a fair standard or whenever it is necessary for purposes of discipline. At the beginning of any pay period commencing ninety days after a reduction in salary of such an employee, the Postmaster General may restore him to his former salary or advance him to an intermediate salary. That action is not regarded as an "equivalent increase in basic salary."

§ 3556. Automatic advancement withheld

At the beginning of any pay period commencing ninety days after the withholding of an automatic advancement of an employee for unsatisfactory service, the Postmaster General may advance him, on evidence that his record has been satisfactory during the intervening period.

§ 3557. Automatic advancement of substitute employee deferred

The Postmaster General shall defer the automatic promotion of a substitute employee who is absent on leave without pay and not available for duty for ninety days or more during a calendar year in proportion to the time the employee is absent on leave without pay.

§ 3558. Longevity step increases

(a) There are established for each employee longevity steps A, B, and C. For each promotion to a longevity step—

(1) each postmaster at a post office of the fourth class shall receive an amount equal to 5 per centum of his basic salary, or $100 per annum, whichever is the lesser, and

(2) each employee, other than a postmaster at a post office of the fourth class, shall receive $100 per annum.

In computing the percentage increase under this subsection the amount of the increase shall be rounded to the nearest dollar. A half dollar or one-half cent shall be rounded to the next highest dollar or cent, respectively.

(b) Each employee shall be assigned to—

(1) longevity step A at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of thirteen years of service;

(2) longevity step B at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of eighteen years of service; and

(3) longevity step C at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of twenty-five years of service.

(c) (1) There shall be credited, for the purposes of subsection (b) time on the rolls—

(A) in the postal field service or in the Post Office Department, except time on the rolls as a substitute rural carrier;

(B) in the custodial service of the Department of the Treasury continuous to the date of the transfer of the employee to the custodial service of the Post Office Department in accordance with Executive Order Numbered 6166, dated June 10, 1933;

(C) as a special delivery messenger at a first class post office;

(D) as a clerk in a third class post office for which payment is made from authorized allowances;

(E) under the Postal Accounts Division, including time on the rolls under the former Post Office Department Division, in the General Accounting Office continuous to the date of the transfer of the employee to the Post Office Department in accordance with section 7 (a) of the Post Office Department Financial Control Act of 1950; and

(F) in the Panama Canal Zone postal service.

(2) In determining longevity credit for the purposes of subsection (b) in the case of an employee whose continuous service in the postal field service or in the departmental service of the Post Office Department is interrupted by service with the Armed Forces or to comply with a transfer during war or national emergency as defined by the United States Civil Service Commission, time engaged in that service with the Armed Forces or on the transfer shall be credited pro rata for each week of the service. Service specified in this subsection, whether continuous or intermittent, shall be credited on the basis of one week for each whole week the employee has been on the rolls, except that credit may not be allowed for time on the rolls under a temporary appointment for one year or less unless the time on the rolls is continuous to the date of appointment to a position of unlimited duration.

(d) Increases under this section are not equivalent increases within the meaning of section 3552 of this title.

(e) Payment of longevity compensation may not be made by reason of clause (F) of subsection (c) (1) of this section, for any period prior to September 6, 1958.

§ 3559. Promotions

(a) An employee who is promoted or transferred to a position in a higher salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule shall be paid basic salary at the lowest step of the higher salary level which exceeds his existing basic salary by not less than the amount of difference between the entrance step of the salary level from which promoted and the entrance step of the salary level immediately above the salary level from which promoted. If there is no step in the salary level to which the employee is promoted which exceeds his existing basic salary by at least the amount of the difference, the employee shall be paid (1) the maximum step of the salary level to which promoted, or (2) his existing basic salary, whichever is higher.

(b) Regular clerks and carriers in first and second class post offices are not eligible for promotion to positions of higher salary levels in their respective offices unless they are in the maximum steps of their respective salary levels. If for any reason clerks and carriers in the maximum steps are not available those clerks and carriers in the lower steps in the offices are eligible for the promotion.

HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

§ 3571. Maximum hours of work

Except as otherwise provided in this title, employees may not be required to work more than eight hours a day. The work schedule of employees shall be regulated so that the eight hours of service does not extend over a longer period than ten consecutive hours.

§ 3572. Minimum hours of work for hourly rate employees

Each substitute, hourly rate, and temporary employee who reports for duty in compliance with an official order shall be employed for not less than two hours following the hour at which he is ordered to report.

§ 3573. Compensatory time, overtime, and holidays

In emergencies or if the needs of the service require, the Postmaster General may require employees to work more than eight hours in one day, or on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays. For that service he shall grant employees in the "PFS" Schedule compensatory time or pay them overtime compensation under the following rules:

(1) Each employee in or below salary level PFS-7 shall be paid for all work in excess of eight hours in one day at the rate of 150 per centum of his hourly basic compensation.

(2) (A) Each employee in or below salary level PFS-7 who performs work on Saturdays or Sundays shall, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to the excess time worked within five working days, except that, in lieu of such compensatory time, the Postmaster General may, if the exigencies of the service require, authorize him to be paid, for work performed on Saturdays and Sundays during the month of December, at the rate of 150 per centum of his hourly basic compensation.

(B) If the work performed by such employees on Saturdays and Sundays is less than eight hours, such service, in the discretion of the Postmaster General may be carried forward and combined with similar service performed on other Saturdays and Sundays. The employees may be allowed compensatory time for combined service or any part thereof at any time, except that, whenever at least eight hours of such service has been accumulated, the employees shall be allowed eight hours compensatory time on one day within five working days next succeeding the Saturday or Sunday on which the total accumulated service was at least eight hours.

(3) For time worked on a day referred to as a holiday in section 87b of title 5, or on a day designated by Executive order as a holiday for Federal employees generally, each employee in or below salary level PFS-7, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, shall either be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to the time worked within thirty working days, or be paid premium compensation at a rate equal to his hourly basic compensation for the time so worked. For work performed on Christmas Day, premium compensation shall be paid at a rate equal to 150 per centum of the employee's hourly basic compensation.

(4) Each employee in or above salary level PFS-8 who performs overtime or holiday work as described in this section, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, shall be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to the overtime or holiday work.

§ 3574. Night work

Employees who perform work between the hours of 6 o'clock post meridian and 6 o'clock ante meridian standard or daylight saving time, depending upon which time is observed where the work is performed, shall be paid extra compensation for each hour of that work at the rate of 10 per centum of their hourly basic compensation. The differential for night duty is not included in computing overtime compensation to which the employees may be entitled.

§ 3575. Exemptions

(a) Sections 3571, 3573 and 3574 of this title do not apply to the heads of regional or district offices and such other employees of the headquarters staff of regional and district offices as the Postmaster General designates, or to postmasters, rural carriers, post office inspectors, traveling mechanics, and traveling examiners of equipment and supplies.

(b) Sections 3571 and 3573 of this title do not apply to substitute employees and to employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service assigned to road duty.

(c) Section 3571 of this title does not apply to employees in post offices of the third class.

(d) The provisions of section 3573 of this title relating to compensatory time and overtime compensation for work on Saturdays or Sundays do not apply to hourly rate regular employees and to employees in post offices of the third class.

§ 3576. Holiday service of rural carriers and employees assigned to road duty

When the President of the United States authorizes Federal employees generally to be excused from duty on a work day, rural carriers and employees in the Postal Transportation Service or in the Motor Vehicle Service who are assigned to road duty, other than substitutes, who are required to work on such a day, shall be granted a day off, with pay and without charge thereof to their earned annual leave, within one year thereafter.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR POSTAL TRANSPORTATION AND MOTOR VEHICLE SERVICES

§ 3581. Road duty employees

(a) The Postmaster General shall organize the work of employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service who are assigned to road duty into regularly scheduled tours of duty. The tours of duty shall aggregate an average of not more than eight hours a day for two hundred and fifty-two days a year, including an allowance of one hour and thirty-five minutes for work to be performed on layoff periods. He may not grant allowances of time for work performed on layoff periods to employees other than employees engaged in the distribution of mail.

(b) Employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service assigned to road duty, except substitute employees, who are required to perform work in excess of the scheduled time of their regular tours of duty as established by the Postmaster General shall be paid at the rate of 150 per centum of their hourly basic compensation for overtime work. In arriving at the amount of overtime to be paid at any time during the calendar year, any deficiencies accrued up to that time during the same calendar year shall be offset against any overtime work by the employee.

(c) Substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service assigned to road duty shall be paid on an hourly basis for actual work performed according to the time value of each trip of road duty, including an allowance of time for all work required on layoff periods.

(d) In addition to compensation provided under this title, the Postmaster General, under regulations prescribed by him, may pay not more than $9 per day as travel allowances in lieu of actual expenses, at fixed rates per annum or by such other method as he deems equitable to regular and substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service who are assigned to road duty, after the expiration of ten hours from the time the initial run begins.

(e) Substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service shall be credited with full time while traveling under orders of the Post Office Department to and from their designated headquarters to take up assignments.

§ 3582. Time credit for delay to trains and highway post offices

The Postmaster General shall credit postal transportation employees assigned to road duty with full time for delays to trains and highway post offices.

CHAPTER 51—NONMAILABLE MATTER

Sec.

- 4001. Nonmailable matter.
- 4002. Nonmailable fourth class matter.
- 4003. Mail bearing a fictitious name or address.
- 4004. Delivery of mail to persons not residents of the place of address.
- 4005. Fraudulent and lottery matter.
- 4006. "Unlawful" matter.
- 4007. Detention of mail for temporary periods.

§ 4001. Nonmailable matter

(a) Matter, the deposit of which in the mails is punishable under sections 1302, 1341, 1342, 1461, 1463, 1714, 1715, 1716, 1717, or 1718 of title 18, is nonmailable.

(b) Except as provided in section 4002 of this title, nonmailable matter which reaches the office of delivery, or which may be seized or detained for violation of law, shall be disposed of as the Postmaster General directs.

§ 4002. Nonmailable fourth class matter

(a) Matter of the fourth class is nonmailable which—

- (1) exceeds the prescribed size and weight limits; or
- (2) is of a character perishable within the period required for transportation and delivery.

(b) Matter made nonmailable by this section which by inadvertence reaches the office of destination may be delivered in accordance with its address, if the party addressed furnishes the name and address of the sender. If the person addressed refuses to furnish the information, the package shall be disposed of as the Postmaster General directs.

§ 4003. Mail bearing a fictitious name or address

(a) Upon evidence satisfactory to the Postmaster General that any person is using a fictitious, false or assumed name, title or address in conducting, promoting or carrying on or assisting therein, by means of the postal service of the United States, an activity in violation of sections 1302, 1341, and 1342 of title 18, the Postmaster General may—

(1) withhold mail so addressed from delivery; and

(2) require the party claiming the mail to furnish proof to him of the claimant's identity and right to receive the mail.

(b) The Postmaster General may issue an order directing that mail, covered by subsection (a), be forwarded to a dead letter office as fictitious matter, or be returned to the senders when the—

(1) party claiming the mail fails to furnish proof of his identity and right to receive the mail; or

(2) the Postmaster General is satisfied that the mail is addressed to a fictitious, false or assumed name, title or address.

§ 4004. Delivery of mail to persons not residents of the place of address

Whenever the Postmaster General is satisfied that letters or parcels sent in the mail are addressed to places not the residence or regular business address of the person for whom they are intended, to enable the person to escape identification, he may deliver the mail only upon identification of the persons so addressed.

§ 4005. Fraudulent and lottery matter

(a) Upon evidence satisfactory to the Postmaster General that any person is engaged in conducting a scheme or device for obtaining money or property through the mail by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises; or engaged in conducting a lottery, gift enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money or of real or personal property by lottery, chance, or drawing of any kind; the Postmaster General may—

(1) direct postmasters at the office at which registered letters or other letters or mail arrive, addressed to such a person or to his representative, to return the registered letters or other letters or mail to the sender marked "fraudulent" or "lottery mail"; and

(2) forbid the payment by a postmaster to such a person or his representative of any money order or postal note drawn to the order of either and provide for the return to the remitters of the sums named in the money orders or postal notes.

(b) The public advertisement by a person engaged in activities covered by subsection (a) of this section, that remittances may be made by mail to a person named in the advertisement, is prima facie evidence that the latter is the agent or representative of the advertiser for the receipt of remittances on behalf of the advertiser. The Postmaster General is not precluded from ascertaining the existence of the agency in any other legal way satisfactory to him.

(c) As used in this section and section 4006 of this title the term "representative" includes an agent or representative acting as an individual or as a firm, bank, corporation, or association of any kind.

Upon evidence satisfactory to the Postmaster General that a person is obtaining or attempting to obtain remittances of money or property of any kind through the mail for an obscene, lewd, lascivious, indecent, filthy, or vile article, matter, thing, device, or substance, or is depositing or causing to be deposited in the United States mail information as to where, how, or from whom the same may be obtained, the Postmaster General may—

(1) direct postmasters at the office at which registered letters or other letters or mail arrive, addressed to such a person or to his representative, to return the registered letters or other letters or mail to the sender marked "Unlawful"; and

(2) forbid the payment by a postmaster to such a person or his representative of any money order or postal note drawn to the order of either and provide for the return to the remitters of the sums named in the money orders or postal notes.

§ 4007. Detention of mail for temporary periods

(a) When the Postmaster General determines during proceedings before him that in the administration of section 4006 of this title such action is necessary to the effective enforcement of the section, he may enter an interim order directing that mail addressed to any person be detained by the postmaster at the post office of delivery for twenty days from the effective date of the order. Notice of the order, advising the person of the detention and setting forth in specific detail the reasons therefor, together with a copy of this section and section 4006 of this title, shall be sent forthwith by registered or certified mail to the person at the post office at which the mail is to be detained. An order for the detention of mail addressed to a person expires at the end of the twenty days after the issuance thereof unless the Postmaster General files, prior to the expiration of the twenty-day period, a petition in the United States district court for the district in which the post office in which the mail is detained is situated, and obtains an order directing that mail addressed to the person be detained for such further period as the court determines. Notice of the filing of such a petition shall be given forthwith by the clerk of the court in which it is filed to the person, at the post office at which the mail is being detained, or otherwise as the clerk of the court determines to be appropriate, and the person shall have five days in which to appear and show cause why the order should not issue.

If, upon all the evidence before it, the court determines that the continued detention of the mail is reasonable and necessary to the effective enforcement of section 4006 of this title, it shall forthwith issue an order directing that mail addressed to that person be detained by the postmaster at the office of delivery until conclusion of the proceeding by the Postmaster General or until further order of the court.

If, upon all the evidence before it, the court determines, that the continued detention of the mail addressed is not reasonable or necessary in the administration of section 4006 of this title, it shall dismiss the petition and order all detained mail addressed to him to be released forthwith for delivery.

An appeal from the order of the court is allowable as in civil causes. An order of the Postmaster General or of the district court, under this section, may be dissolved by that court at any time for cause, including failure to conduct expeditiously the proceedings instituted against the person before the Postmaster General with respect to section 4006 of this title. When, under an order herein authorized to be issued by the Postmaster General or the district court, a person's mail is detained by the postmaster at the office of delivery, that person may examine the mail and receive such mail as clearly is not connected with the alleged unlawful activity.

(b) Action by the Postmaster General in issuing the interim order provided for herein and petitioning for a continuance of an order under this section, is not subject to chapter 19 of title 5.

(c) This section does not apply to mail addressed to publishers of publications which have entry as second-class matter, or to mail addressed to the agents of those publishers.

CHAPTER 53—THE SEVERAL CLASSES OF MAIL

Sec.

- 4051. Prepayment of postage.
- 4052. Method of paying postage.
- 4053. Postage meters.
- 4054. Postage collection on Armed Forces mail.
- 4055. Refund of postage.
- 4056. Acceptance of letters by transportation employees or carriers.
- 4057. Opening first class mail.
- 4058. Wrapping matter not charged with first class postage.
- 4059. Addresses on postal cards and unsealed circulars.
- 4060. Foreign publications free from customs duty.

§ 4051. Prepayment of postage

Except as otherwise provided by law, postage shall be prepaid at the time of mailing.

§ 4052. Method of paying postage

(a) Postage may be prepaid—

- (1) by postage stamps;
- (2) by postage meter stamps;
- (3) without stamps as prescribed by the Postmaster General for second class matter mailed by the publisher or registered news agent;
- (4) as prescribed by the Postmaster General for controlled circulation publications or for matter mailed at the bulk rates; or
- (5) under a permit, without stamps, issued by the Postmaster General.

(b) The fee for a permit under subsection (a) (5) is $10 and shall be paid at the time of application.

§ 4053. Postage meters

A postage meter is a device or mechanism to print prepaid postage and a postmark on mail matter, which automatically locks when the amount of postage registered therein is exhausted. Meters in the possession of patrons shall be set by postmasters for the amount of postage collected at the time of setting. Mail on which postage is paid by means of a postage meter is called "metered mail." The impressions made by postage meters are called "meter stamps."

§ 4054. Postage collection on Armed Forces mail

The Postmaster General may transmit, without the prepayment of postage, letters of members of the Armed Forces in the service of the United States certified in a manner prescribed by him, and collect the postage upon delivery.

§ 4055. Refund of postage

The Postmaster General may refund out of postal receipts postage which he is satisfied has been—

- (1) paid for service not rendered; or
- (2) collected in excess of the lawful rate.

§ 4056. Acceptance of letters by transportation employees or carriers

A postal transportation employee or other carrier of the mail shall accept letters presented to him on which postage is properly prepaid by stamps.

§ 4057. Opening first class mail

Only an employee opening dead mail by authority of the Postmaster General, or a person holding a search warrant authorized by law may open any letter or parcel of the first class which is in the custody of the Department.

§ 4058. Wrapping matter not charged with first class postage

(a) The Postmaster General may prescribe the manner of wrapping and securing mail not charged with first class postage so that the contents of the mail may be easily examined. He shall charge the first class rate of postage on all matter which cannot be examined easily.

(b) To ascertain whether the proper rate of postage has been paid, postmasters may examine second class mail and remove the wrappers and envelopes from other mail not bearing first class postage if it can be done without destroying them.

§ 4059. Addresses on postal cards and unsealed circulars

Addresses upon postal cards, post cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender.

(a) Printed matter other than books received in the mail from foreign countries under the provisions of postal treaties or conventions are free of customs duty.

(b) When books which are admitted to the international mail under the provisions of the Universal Postal Union Convention are subject to customs duty, they may be delivered by the Postmaster General as addressed under such regulations for the collection of duties as may be agreed upon by him and the Secretary of the Treasury.

CHAPTER 55—SHORT PAID AND UNDELIVERABLE MAIL

Sec.

- 4101. Retention period for undelivered mail.
- 4102. Forwarding mail.
- 4103. Return of mail.
- 4104. International dead letters.
- 4105. Disposal of undelivered mail.
- 4106. Notice of nondelivery of mail.
- 4107. Dead letter offices established.
- 4108. Dead letter treatment of first class mail.
- 4109. Unpaid and part paid mail.
- 4110. Charges for unpaid and part paid mail.

§ 4101. Retention period for undelivered mail

The Postmaster General may prescribe the period during which undelivered mail may be held for delivery.

§ 4102. Forwarding mail

The Postmaster General shall forward prepaid first class mail from one post office to another at the request of the party addressed without additional charge for postage. He shall charge additional postage on mail of other classes forwarded from one post office to another in accordance with section 4105 of this title.

§ 4103. Return of mail

Prepaid letters or parcels of the first class endorsed with the sender's name and address shall be returned by the Postmaster General without additional charge for postage if remaining undelivered for the period directed by the sender or as prescribed by the Postmaster General. He may not return other mail matter unless the sender pays additional postage in accordance with section 4105 of this title.

§ 4104. International dead letters

The Postmaster General shall treat international dead letters in accordance with postal arrangements made with other countries pursuant to section 505 of this title.

§ 4105. Disposal of undelivered mail

(a) Undelivered mail, other than letters and parcels of the first class, may be—

- (1) disposed of as the Postmaster General directs; or
- (2) forwarded to the addressee or returned to the sender.

The postage for the service may be prepaid or collected on delivery in accordance with the instructions and pledge of the addressee or sender.

(b) The Postmaster General may prescribe conditions under which mail covered by subsection (a), including mail which is of an urgent or perishable nature, and for which payment of forwarding or return postage is not pledged, may be forwarded or returned.

(c) The Postmaster General may sell undelivered parcels containing perishable matter, not forwarded or returned. He shall remit to the sender or rightful owner the amount realized, less a commission of 10 per centum, or 25 cents, whichever is the greater.

§ 4106. Notice of nondelivery of mail

(a) The Postmaster General may notify the sender or addressee when mail, other than mail of the first class, is undeliverable as addressed.

(b) The Postmaster General shall notify the publisher or news agent when copies of a publication of the second class mailed by him are undeliverable as addressed. Copies of publications undeliverable as addressed received subsequent to the notice may be treated as directed by the Postmaster General.

§ 4107. Dead letter offices established

The Postmaster General may designate places, known as dead letter offices, for the examination and treatment of dead mail.

(a) The Postmaster General shall send first class mail which cannot be delivered either to the addressee or sender to a dead letter office. He shall cause enclosures of value, other than correspondence, to be recorded. When the sender or addressee cannot be identified, he shall hold the letters or parcels for reclamation for a period of one year after which they shall be disposed of as he directs. Letters and parcels without valuable enclosures may be disposed of by him without record and not held for reclamation.

(b) The Postmaster General shall return to the senders by registered mail ordinary dead letters containing $10 or more in cash, and parcels of the first class which apparently contain matter valued at $10 or more. The minimum registry fee, in addition to such other fees as the Postmaster General may prescribe, shall be collected at the time of delivery.

§ 4109. Unpaid and part paid mail

The Postmaster General shall prescribe the conditions for delivery to the addressee, return to the sender, or other disposition, of matter mailed without prepayment of the postage required by law.

§ 4110. Charges for unpaid and part paid mail

The Postmaster General shall prescribe from time to time the charges to be collected for matter mailed without prepayment of required postage. The charges—

(1) shall be in addition to the payment of lawfully required postage,

(2) may not be adjusted more frequently than once every two years, and

(3) when adjusted, shall equal, as nearly as practicable, the approximate cost incurred by the Department with respect to the delivery of such matter and the collection of postage and other charges thereon.

The Postmaster General may waive the collection of any charges when he deems a waiver to be in the interest of the Government.

4167. Reimbursement for franked mailings.

4168. Correspondence of members of diplomatic corps and consuls of countries of Postal Union of Americas and Spain.

§ 4151. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

“Penalty mail” means official mail, other than franked mail, which is authorized by law to be transmitted in the mail without prepayment of postage.

“Penalty cover” means envelopes, wrappers, labels, or cards used to transmit penalty mail.

“Frank” means the autographic or facsimile signature of persons authorized by sections 4161–4167 of this title to transmit matter through the mail without prepayment of postage or other indicia contemplated by sections 162 and 185 of title 44.

“Franked mail” means mail which is transmitted in the mail under a frank.

§ 4152. Penalty mail

(a) Subject to the limitations imposed by sections 4154 and 4158 of this title, there may be transmitted as penalty mail—

(1) official mail of—

(A) officers of the United States Government other than Members of Congress;

(B) the Smithsonian Institution;

(C) the Pan American Union;

(D) the Pan American Sanitary Bureau;

(E) the United States Employment Service and the system of employment offices operated by it in conformity with the provisions of sections 49–49c, 49d, 49e–49k of title 29, and all State employment systems which receive funds appropriated under authority of those sections; and

(F) any college officer or other person connected with the extension department of the college as the Secretary of Agriculture may designate to the Postmaster General to the extent that the official mail consists of correspondence, bulletins, and reports for the furtherance of the purposes of sections 341–343, 344–348 of title 7;

(2) mail relating to naturalization to be sent to the Immigration and Naturalization Service by clerks of courts addressed to the Department of Justice or the Immigration and Naturalization Service, or any official thereof;

(3) mail relating to a collection of statistics, survey or census authorized by title 13 and addressed to the Department of Commerce or a bureau or agency thereof; and

(4) mail of State Agriculture Experiment Stations pursuant to sections 325 and 361f of title 7.

(5) articles for copyright deposited with postmasters and addressed to the Register of Copyrights pursuant to section 15 of title 17.

(b) A department or officer authorized to use penalty covers may enclose them with return address to any person from or through whom official information is desired. The penalty cover may be used only to transmit the official information and endorsements relating thereto.

(c) This section does not apply to officers who receive a fixed allowance as compensation for their services, including expenses of postage.

§ 4153. Endorsements on penalty covers

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, penalty covers shall bear, over the words “Official Business” an endorsement showing the name of the department, bureau or office from which, or officer from whom, it is transmitted. The penalty for the unlawful use of all penalty covers shall be printed thereon.

(b) The Postmaster General shall prescribe the endorsement to be placed on covers mailed under paragraphs (1) (E), (2), and (3) of section 4152 (a) of this title.

§ 4154. Restrictions on use of penalty mail

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an officer, executive department or independent establishment of the Government of the United States may not mail, as penalty mail, any article or document unless—

(1) a request therefor has been previously received by the department or establishment; or

(2) its mailing is required by law.

(b) Subsection (a) does not prohibit the mailing, as penalty mail, by an officer, executive department or independent agency of—

(1) enclosures reasonably related to the subject matter of official correspondence;

(2) informational releases relating to the census of the United States and authorized by title 13;

(3) matter concerning the sale of Government securities;

(4) forms, blanks, and copies of statutes, rules, regulations, instructions, administrative orders, and interpretations necessary in the administration of the department or establishment;

(5) agricultural bulletins;

(6) lists of public documents offered for sale by the Superintendent of Documents;

(7) announcements of the publication of maps, atlases, and statistical and other reports offered for sale by the Federal Power Commission as authorized by section 825k of title 16; or

(8) articles or documents to educational institutions or public libraries, or to Federal, State, or other public authorities.

§ 4155. Accounting for penalty covers

Executive departments and agencies, independent establishments of the Government, and organizations and persons authorized by law to use penalty mail, shall account for all penalty covers through the Postmaster General as he prescribes.

§ 4156. Reimbursement for penalty mail service

(a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, executive departments and agencies, independent establishments of the Government, and Government corporations concerned shall transfer to the Post Office Department as postal revenue out of any appropriations or funds available to them, as a necessary expense of the appropriations or funds and of the activities concerned, the equivalent amount of postage due, as determined by the Postmaster General, for matter sent in the mails by or to them as penalty mail under authority of section 4152 of this title.

(b) The Department of Agriculture shall transfer to the Post Office Department as postal revenues out of any appropriation made to it for that purpose the equivalent amount of postage, as determined by the Postmaster General, for penalty mailings under paragraphs (1) (F) and (4) of subsection (a) of section 4152 of this title.

(c) The Library of Congress shall transfer to the Post Office Department as postal revenues out of any appropriations made to it for that purpose the equivalent amount of postage, as determined by the Postmaster General, for penalty mailings under paragraph (5) of subsection (a) of section 4152 of this title.

§ 4157. Report to Congress by Postmaster General

The Postmaster General shall report to the Congress and to the Bureau of the Budget within ninety days after the close of each fiscal year the number of penalty covers accounted for through him during the fiscal year by each executive department and agency, independent establishment, and organization or person authorized to use penalty mail.

§ 4158. Limit of weight of penalty mail; postage on overweight matter

(a) Penalty mail is restricted to articles not in excess of the weight and size prescribed for first class mail, except—

(1) stamped paper and supplies sold or used by the postal service; and

(2) books and documents published or circulated by order of Congress when mailed by the Superintendent of Public Documents.

(b) A penalty mail article which is—

(1) over four pounds in weight,

(2) not in excess of the weight and size prescribed for fourth class matter, and

(3) otherwise mailable,

is mailable at fourth class rates even though it may include written matter and may be sealed. The postage on such an article is payable in the manner prescribed by the Postmaster General.

§ 4159. Shipment by most economical means

Shipments of official matter other than franked mail shall be sent by the most economical means of transportation practicable. The Postmaster General may refuse to accept official matter for shipment by mail when in his judgment it may be shipped by other means at less expense, or he may provide for its transportation by freight or express, whenever a saving to the Government will result therefrom without detriment to the public service.

§ 4160. Executive Departments to supply information

Persons and governmental organizations authorized to use penalty mail shall supply all information requested by the Postmaster General necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 4151—4168 of this title as soon as practicable after request therefor.

§ 4161. Official correspondence of Vice President and Members of Congress

The Vice President, Members and Members-elect of Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate until the thirtieth day of June following the expiration of their respective terms of office, may send as franked mail—

- (1) matter, not exceeding four pounds in weight, upon official or departmental business, to a Government official; and
- (2) correspondence, not exceeding four ounces in weight, upon official business to any person.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Senate or Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, any authorized person may exercise this privilege in the officer's name during the period of the vacancy.

§ 4162. Public documents

The Vice President, Members of Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, until the thirtieth day of June following the expiration of their respective terms of office, may send and receive as franked mail all public documents printed by order of Congress.

§ 4163. Congressional Record under frank of Members of Congress

Members of Congress may send as franked mail the Congressional Record, or any part thereof, or speeches or reports therein contained.

§ 4164. Seeds and reports from Department of Agriculture

Seeds and agricultural reports emanating from the Department of Agriculture may be mailed—

- (1) as penalty mail by the Secretary of Agriculture; and
- (2) until the 30th day of June following the expiration of their terms of office as franked mail by Members of Congress.

§ 4165. Mailing privilege of former Presidents.

A former President may send all his mail within the United States and its Territories and possessions as franked mail.

§ 4166. Lending or permitting use of frank unlawful

A person entitled to use a frank may not lend it or permit its use by any committee, organization, or association, or permit its use by any person for the benefit or use of any committee, organization, or association. This section does not apply to any committee composed of Members of Congress.

§ 4167. Reimbursement for franked mailings

(a) The postage on mail matter sent and received through the mails under the franking privilege by the Vice President, Members, and Members-elect of Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, including registry fees if registration is required, shall be paid by a lump-sum appropriation to the legislative branch for that purpose, and credited to the Department as postal revenue.

(b) The postage on mail matter sent through the mails under the franking privilege by former Presidents shall be paid by reimbursement of the postal revenues each fiscal year out of the general funds of the Treasury in an amount equivalent to the postage which would otherwise be payable on the mail matter.

§ 4168. Correspondence of members of diplomatic corps and consuls of countries of Postal Union of Americas and Spain

Correspondence of the members of the diplomatic corps of the countries of the Postal Union of the Americas and Spain stationed in the United States may be reciprocally transmitted in the domestic mails free of postage, and be entitled to free registration without right to indemnity in case of loss. The same privilege is accorded consuls and vice consuls when they are discharging the function of consuls of countries stationed in the United States, for official correspondence among themselves, and with the Government of the United States.

CHAPTER 59—FIRST CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4251. Definition.

4252. Weight limit.

4253. Postage rates on first class mail.

4254. Business reply mail.

§ 4251. Definition

(a) First class mail consists of mailable (1) postal cards, (2) post cards, (3) matter wholly or partially in writing or typewriting, except as provided in sections 4365, 4453, and 4555 of this title, and (4) matter closed against postal inspection.

(b) A postal card is a card supplied by the Department with a postage stamp printed or impressed on it for the transmission of messages, orders, notices and other communications, either printed or written in pencil or ink.

(c) Post cards are privately printed mailing cards for the transmission of messages. They may not be larger than the size fixed by the Convention of the Universal Postal Union in effect and of approximately the same form, quality and weight as postal cards.

(d) Drop letters are letters—

(1) mailed for local delivery at post offices where letter carrier service is not established; and

(2) neither collected nor delivered by rural or star route carriers.

§ 4252. Weight limit

The maximum weight of first class mail is the same as the maximum limit applicable to fourth class mail.

§ 4253. Postage rates on first class mail

(a) Postage on first class mail is computed separately on each letter or piece of mail. The rate of postage on first class mail is four cents for each ounce or fraction of an ounce, except that the rate—

(1) on drop letters is three cents for each ounce or fraction of an ounce;

(2) for each single postal card and each portion of a double postal card, including the cost of manufacture, is three cents;

(3) for each post card and the initial portion of each double post card conforming to section 4251 (c) of this title is three cents.

(b) The rate of postage on business reply mail is the regular rate prescribed in subsection (a) of this section together with an additional charge thereon of two cents for each piece weighing two ounces or less and five cents for each piece weighing more than two ounces. The postage and charge shall be collected on delivery.

§ 4254. Business reply mail

The Postmaster may accept for transmission in the mails, without prepayment of postage, business reply cards, letters, and business reply envelopes, and any other matter under business reply labels.

4301. Definitions.

4302. Treatment of air mail.

4303. Postage rates on air mail.

4304. Postage on Alaskan air mail.

4305. Size and weight limits.

As used in this chapter—

(1) “domestic air mail” means matter bearing postage at the rates of postage prescribed in sections 4303 and 4304 of this title which is mailed in the United States Postal Service for transportation by air and delivery by the United States Postal Service.

(2) “air parcel post” means domestic air mail of any class weighing in excess of eight ounces.

§ 4302. Treatment of air mail

(a) Except with respect to the postage required, domestic air mail, other than air parcel post, shall be treated as first class mail.

(b) The Postmaster General shall prescribe the conditions under which air parcel post shall be—

(1) forwarded or returned to the sender;

(2) charged with forwarding or return postage; and

(3) registered, insured, or given C. O. D. service.

He shall provide for the treatment of unpaid or short paid air parcel post.

§ 4303. Postage rates on air mail

(a) Except as provided in section 4304 of this title and subsection (b) of this section the rate of postage on domestic air mail weighing not more than eight ounces is seven cents for each ounce or fraction thereof.

(b) The rate of postage on each postal card and post card sent as domestic air mail is five cents.

(c) The rate of postage on letters in business reply envelopes and on business reply cards sent as domestic air mail is the regular rate prescribed in subsection (a) or (b) together with an additional charge thereon of two cents for each piece weighing two ounces or less and five cents for each piece weighing more than two ounces. The postage and charge shall be collected on delivery.

(d) (1) The rates of postage on air parcel post are based on the eight zones established for fourth class mail in accordance with the following table:

Zones	First pound over 8 ounces or fraction thereof	Additional pounds or fraction thereof
	Cents	Cents
1, 2, and 3.....	60	48
4.....	65	50
5.....	70	56
6.....	75	64
7.....	75	72
8.....	80	80

(2) The rate of postage on airmail of the first class weighing in excess of eight ounces shall be the rate provided for air parcels, but in no event shall it be less than the rate provided for first class surface mail.

(3) In addition to parcels to which it is otherwise applicable, the eighth zone includes, for purposes of this section only, parcels transported as follows:

(A) between the continental United States, its Territories and possessions or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone.

(B) between the continental United States, its Territories and possessions or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and Army and Air Forces post offices and naval vessels and commands, when the address is in care of Fleet Post Offices, New York, New York, or San Francisco, California.

(e) Air parcel post of light weight in relation to size is subject to such surcharge as the Postmaster General determines to be warranted by reason of the extra space and care required in handling and transporting it.

§ 4304. Postage on Alaskan air mail

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 4303 of this title, the Postmaster General may fix the postage at rates not exceeding 30 cents per ounce or 15 cents per one-half ounce for airmail sent to, from, or within Alaska.

§ 4305. Size and weight limits

The maximum size and weight of domestic airmail and air parcel post is 100 inches in length and girth combined and 70 pounds.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION PUBLICATIONS

- 4421. Definition.
- 4422. Rates.

§ 4351. Definition

Second class mail embraces newspapers and other periodical publications when entered and mailed in accordance with sections 4352–4357 of this title.

§ 4352. Entry as second class mail

(a) Upon application in the form prescribed by him the Postmaster General shall enter as second class mail, at the Post Office where the office of publication is maintained, any publication which is entitled under sections 4353–4357 of this title to be classified as second class mail. A publication entered at one post office may also upon application be entered by him at another post office.

(b) The Postmaster General may revoke the entry of a publication as second class mail whenever he finds, after a hearing, that the publication is no longer entitled to be entered as second class mail.

(c) The Postmaster General may not accept for mailing as second class mail any publication having more than 75 per centum advertising in more than one-half of its issues during any twelve-month period and he shall revoke its entry. A charge made solely for the publication of transportation schedules, fares, and related information is not considered as advertising under this subsection.

§ 4353. Entry of foreign publications

Foreign newspapers and other periodicals of the same general character as domestic publications entered as second class mail may be accepted by the Postmaster General, on application of the publishers thereof or their agents, for transmission through the mail at the same rates as if published in the United States. This section does not authorize the transmission through the mail of a publication which violates a copyright granted by the United States.

§ 4354. Conditions for entry of publications

(a) Generally aailable periodical publication is entitled to be entered and mailed as second class mail if it—

(1) is regularly issued at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year and bears a date of issue and is numbered consecutively;

(2) is issued from a known office of publication;

(3) is formed of printed sheets;

(4) is originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, arts, or a special industry; and

(5) has a legitimate list of subscribers.

(b) For the purpose of this section, the word “printed” does not include reproduction by the stencil, mimeograph or hectograph processes or reproduction in imitation of typewriting.

(c) A periodical publication designed primarily for advertising purposes or for free circulation or for circulation at nominal rates is not entitled to be admitted as second class mail under this section.

§ 4355. Conditions for entry of publications of certain organizations

(a) Mailable periodical publications meeting the first three conditions of section 4354(a) of this title are entitled to be entered and mailed as second class mail when they do not contain advertising other than that of the publisher and if they are—

(1) published by a regularly incorporated institution of learning; or

(2) published by a regularly established State institution of learning supported in whole or in part by public taxation; or

(3) a bulletin issued by a State board of health; or

(4) a bulletin issued by a State conservation or fish and game agency or department; or

(5) a bulletin issued by a State board or department of public charities and corrections; or

(6) published by or under the auspices of a benevolent or fraternal society or order organized under the lodge system and having a bona fide membership of not less than 1,000 persons; or

(7) published by or under the auspices of a trades union; or

(8) published by a strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific society; or

(9) published by a church or church organization.

(b) A publication containing advertising of persons other than the publisher but otherwise qualifying under items (6) through (9) of subsection (a) of this section is entitled to be entered and mailed as second class mail if—

(1) the publication is not designed or published primarily for advertising purposes;

(2) the publication is originated and published to further the objects and purposes of the publisher;

(3) the circulation is limited to copies sent to members who pay either as a part of their dues or assessments, or otherwise, not less than 50 per centum of the regular subscription price; to other actual subscribers; to exchanges; and 10 per centum of the circulation as sample copies.

Individual subscriptions or receipts are not required when members pay for publications, to which this subsection applies, as a part of their dues or assessments.

§ 4356. Conditions for entry of publications of State departments of agriculture

A mailable periodical publication issued by a State department of agriculture may be entered and mailed as second class mail if it—

(1) is issued from a known place of publication;

(2) is issued at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year;

(3) is published only for the purpose of furthering the objects of the departments; and

(4) does not contain advertising matter.

§ 4357. Fees for entry and registration

(a) The fees for entry as second class mail are as follows—

(1) for a publication having a circulation of not more than 2,000 copies, $25;

(2) for a publication having a circulation of more than 2,000 copies but not more than 5,000 copies, $50;

(3) for a publication having a circulation of more than 5,000 copies, $100.

(b) The fee for re-entry of a publication as second class mail on account of change in title, frequency of issue, office of publication or for other reasons is $10. The fee for each additional entry is $10.

(c) The fee for registry of a news agent is $20.

(d) The applicant shall pay the fees fixed by this section at the time of application. The Postmaster General shall return one-half of any fee paid under subsection (a) of this section to the applicant if he denies the application.

§ 4358. Postage rates within county of publication

(a) One copy each of a publication admitted as second class mail may be mailed free to each actual subscriber if the subscriber—

(1) resides in the county in which the publication is printed in whole or in part and in which it is published; and

(2) receives his mail at an office at which letter carrier service is not established.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section and subject to the minimum rates provided by section 4360 of this title, the rate of postage on publications admitted as second class mail when addressed for delivery within the county in which they are published and entered is as follows—

(1) if mailed for delivery by letter carrier at the office of mailing:

(A) publications issued more frequently than weekly, one cent a copy;

(B) publications issued weekly, one cent a pound;

(C) publications issued less frequently than weekly—

(i) weighing two ounces or less, one cent a copy,

(ii) weighing more than two ounces, two cents a copy;

(2) if mailed for delivery at the office of mailing through post office boxes, general delivery or by rural or star route carrier, one cent a pound;

(3) if mailed for delivery at an office other than the office of mailing, one cent a pound.

(c) When copies of a publication are mailed at a post office where it is entered for delivery by letter carrier at a different post office within the delivery limits of which the headquarters or general business office of the publisher is located the rate of postage is—

(1) the rate that would be applicable if the copies were mailed at the latter post office, or

(2) the pound rates from the office of mailing if the rates under paragraph (1) hereof are higher.

§ 4359. Postage rates beyond county of publication

(a) Except as provided in sections 4358, 4361, and 4362 of this title, the rates of postage set out in this section are applicable to copies, including sample copies to the extent of 10 per centum of the weight of copies mailed to subscribers during the calendar year, of publications entered as second class mail mailed to news agents for the purpose of sale or to actual subscribers by—

- (1) the publishers from any office at which it is entered, or
- (2) a registered news agent.

(b) Subject to the minimum rates provided by section 4360 of this title, the rates of postage on publications mailed in accordance with subsection (a) of this section are fixed by the pound as follows:

	Classroom publications	Other publications
		Mailed during calendar year 1959	Mailed during calendar year 1960	Mailed after Dec. 31, 1960
Advertising portion:
Zones 1 and 2.....	1.5	2.2	2.6	3.0
Zone 3.....	2.0	3.0	3.5	4.0
Zone 4.....	3.0	4.5	5.2	6.0
Zone 5.....	4.0	6.0	7.0	8.0
Zone 6.....	5.0	7.7	8.7	10.0

Zone 8.....	7.0	11.0	12.5	14.0
Nonadvertising portion.....	1.5	2.1	2.3	2.5
Publications of nonprofit organizations.....		1.5	1.5	1.5

(c) For the purpose of this section, the portion of a publication devoted to advertisements shall include all advertisements inserted in the publication and attached permanently thereto.

(d) The publisher of a classroom publication or of a publication of a nonprofit organization before being entitled to the rates for the publications shall furnish such proof of qualifications as the Postmaster General prescribes.

(e) As used in this section the term—

(1) “classroom publication” means a religious, educational or scientific publication entered as second class mail and designed specifically for use in classrooms or in religious instruction classes;

(2) “publication of nonprofit organization” means a publication entered as second class mail which is published by and in the interests of a religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans’ or fraternal organization or association not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual; and

(3) “zones” means the eight zones established for fourth class mail.

§ 4360. Minimum postage

The following are the minimum rates for each individually addressed copy of second class mail :

SECOND CLASS MINIMUM RATES

[In cents]

	Mailed during calendar year 1959	Mailed during calendar year 1960	Mailed after Dec. 31, 1960
For delivery within county of publication except when mailed free under sec. 4358(a) of this title.....	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$
For delivery beyond county of publication:
Classroom and nonprofit organization publication.....	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$
Other publications.....	$\frac{1}{4}$	$\frac{3}{8}$	$\frac{1}{2}$

§ 4361. Rates for proofs of advertisements

The publisher may mail single sheets or portions thereof from any publication entered as second class mail, to an advertiser or his agent as proof of the insertion of an advertisement, at the zone rates of postage applicable to the advertising portions of second class mail under section 4359 of this title.

§ 4362. Transient postage rate

The rate of postage on copies of publications having second class entry mailed—

(1) by persons other than the publishers or registered news agents;

(2) as sample copies by the publishers in excess of the 10 per centum permitted to be mailed at the pound rates; and

(3) copies mailed by the publishers to persons who may not be included in the required legitimate list of subscribers;

is two cents for the first two ounces and one cent for each additional ounce or fraction thereof. When postage at the rates prescribed for fourth class mail is lower, the latter applies. The rates are computed on each individually addressed copy or package of unaddressed copies.

§ 4363. Separation by mailer of second class mail

The Postmaster General may require publishers and news agents to separate and make up to zones, in such manner as he directs, second class mail offered for mailing.

§ 4364. Information to be furnished by mailer

With the first mailing of each issue of a publication mailed as second class mail, the publisher shall file a copy of the issue together with a statement containing such information as the Postmaster General prescribes for determining the postage to be paid.

§ 4365. Permissible marks and enclosures

(a) Second class mail may contain no writing, print, or sign thereon or therein, in addition to the original print except—

(1) the name and address of the person to whom the mail is sent and directions for transmission, delivery, forwarding or return;

(2) index figures of subscription book either printed or written;

(3) the printed title of the publication and the place of its publication;

(4) the printed or written name and address without addition of advertisement of the publisher or sender, or both;

(5) written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to the matter will end;

(6) the correction of typographical errors;

(7) a mark except written or printed words to designate a word or passage to which it is desired to call attention;

(8) the words "sample copy" when the matter is sent as such; and

(9) the words "marked copy" when the matter contains a marked item or article.

(b) Publishers and news agents may enclose in their publications bills, receipts and orders for subscriptions.

(c) This section does not prohibit the insertion in periodicals of advertisements permanently attached thereto.

§ 4366. Permissible supplements

Publishers may fold a supplement within the regular issue of a publication entered as second class mail if the supplement is—

(1) germane to the publication;

(2) needed to supply matter omitted from the regular issue for want of space, time or greater convenience; and

(3) issued with the regular issue.

§ 4367. Marking of advertising matter

Editorial or other reading matter contained in publications entered as second class mail and for the publication of which a valuable consideration is paid, accepted or promised, shall be marked plainly "advertisement" by the publisher.

§ 4368. Affidavits relating to mailings; second class mail

The Postmaster General may require when he deems it necessary—

(1) a publisher of a second class publication; or

(2) a news agent who distributed the publication; or

(3) an employee of the publisher or news agent to make an affidavit in the form prescribed by the Postmaster General, stating that he will not send or knowingly permit to be sent through the mails a copy of the publication without prepayment of postage thereon at the rate prescribed by law.

§ 4369. Affidavits relating to publications of the second class

(a) The editor, publisher, business manager or owner of a publication entered as second class mail shall file with the Postmaster General and publish in the second issue thereafter of the publication to which it relates a sworn statement on forms furnished by the Postmaster General on or before the first day of October of each year setting forth—

(1) the names and post office addresses of the editor and managing editor, publisher, business managers and owners;

(2) the name of the corporation and the stockholders thereof if the publication is owned by a corporation;

(3) the names of known bond holders, mortgagees or other security holders; and

(4) in the case of daily, semi-weekly, tri-weekly and weekly publications, the average number of copies of each issue of the publication sold or distributed through the mails or otherwise distributed to paid subscribers during the preceding 12 months.

The sworn statement need not include the names of persons owning less than one per centum of the total amount of stock, bonds, mortgages or other securities.

(b) The Postmaster General shall deny the privilege of the mail to a publication which fails to comply with the provisions of this section within ten days after notice by registered mail of the failure.

(c) This section is not applicable to religious, fraternal, temperance, scientific, or similar publications.

§ 4370. Delivery of newspapers by the Postal Transportation Service

The Postmaster General may provide by order the terms upon which the Department will receive directly from publishers or news agents in charge thereof, packages of newspapers and other periodicals not received from or intended for delivery at any post office and deliver them as directed, if presented and called for at the mail car or steamer.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION PUBLICATIONS

§ 4421. Definition

Controlled circulation publications are those publications that—

- (1) contain twenty-four pages or more;
- (2) are issued at regular intervals of four or more times a year;
- (3) devote 25 per centum or more of their pages to text or reading matter and not more than 75 per centum to advertising matter;
- (4) are circulated free or mainly free; and
- (5) are not owned and controlled by one or several individuals or business concerns and conducted as an auxiliary to and essentially for the advancement of the main business or calling of those who own or control them.

§ 4422. Rates of postage

The postage rates on controlled circulation publications found by the Postmaster General to meet the definition contained in section 4421 of this title is 12 cents a pound or fraction thereof, regardless of the weight of the individual copies, with a minimum charge of 1 cent for each piece. The rates provided in this section shall remain in effect until otherwise provided by the Congress.

CHAPTER 65—THIRD CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4451. Definition.

4452. Postage rates.

4453. Permissible marks and enclosures.

§ 4451. Definition

(a) Third class mail consists of mailable matter which is—

- (1) not mailed or required to be mailed as first class mail;
- (2) not entered as second class mail; and
- (3) less than sixteen ounces in weight.

(b) A person who presents for mailing at one time twenty or more identical copies of bills and statements of account produced by any photographic or mechanical process, other than typewriting, may mail them as third class mail. In other cases, bills and statements of account shall be mailed as first class mail.

(c) Circulars, including printed letters which according to internal evidence are being sent in identical terms to several persons, are third class mail. A circular does not lose its character as such when the date and name of the addressee and of the sender are written therein, nor by the correction in writing of mere typographical errors.

(d) Unsealed letters written in point print or raised characters, or on sound reproduction records, used by the blind are third class mail without regard to the limit on weight prescribed in subsection (a) (2) of this section.

(e) Printed matter within the limit of weight set forth in subsection (a) of this section is third class mail. For the purpose of this subsection, printed matter is paper on which words, letters, characters, figures or images, or any combination thereof, not having the character of actual and personal correspondence, have been reproduced by any process other than handwriting or typewriting.

§ 4452. Postage rates

(a) Subject to the minimum rates per piece provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the postage rates on third class mail are as follows:

Type of mailing	Rate	Unit
(1) Individual piece.....	Cents 3	First 2 ounces or fraction thereof.
(2) Bulk mailings under subsec. (e) of this section of—	1½	Each additional ounce or fraction thereof.
(A) Books and catalogs of 24 pages or more, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants.	10	Each pound or fraction thereof.
(B) Other matter.....	16	Do.

(b) Matter mailed in bulk under subsection (e) of this section is subject to the following minimum rates for each piece unless a higher minimum rate is applicable under subsection (c) of this section:

[In cents]

Mailed by—	Through June 30, 1960	After June 30, 1960
Other than nonprofit organizations.....	2	2½
Nonprofit organizations.....	(1)	(1)

(c) The minimum postage rate on pieces or packages of third class mail of such size or form as to prevent ready facing and tying in bundles and requiring individual distribution is six cents.

(d) The term “nonprofit organization” as used in subsections (a) and (b) of this section means religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans, or fraternal organizations or associations not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. Before being entitled to the preferential rates set out in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the organization or association shall furnish proof of its qualifications to the Postmaster General.

(e) Upon payment of a fee of $20 for each calendar year or portion thereof, any person may mail in the manner directed by the Postmaster General, separately addressed, identical pieces of third class mail in quantities of not less than twenty pounds or of not less than two hundred pieces subject to pound rates of postage applicable to the entire bulk mail at one time.

§ 4453. Permissible marks and enclosures

Only marks and enclosures permissible in the case of fourth class mail, pursuant to section 4555 of this title, may be placed on or enclosed in third class mail.

CHAPTER 67—FOURTH CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4551. Definition.

4552. Size and weight limitations.

4553. Postal zones.

4554. Postage rates on books and films.

4555. Permissible marks and enclosures.

§ 4551. Definition

Fourth class mail consists of mailable matter—

- (1) not mailed or required to be mailed as first class mail;
- (2) within the size and weight limits prescribed for fourth class mail; and
- (3) not entered as second class mail.

§ 4552. Size and weight limitations

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section—

- (1) the maximum size of fourth class mail is seventy-two inches in girth and length combined, and
- (2) the minimum weight is sixteen ounces and the maximum forty pounds in the first and second zones and twenty pounds in any other zone.

(b) The maximum size of fourth class mail is one hundred inches in girth and length combined and the minimum weight is sixteen ounces and the maximum seventy pounds for parcels—

- (1) mailed at, or addressed for delivery at, a second, third, or fourth class post office or on a rural or star route;
- (2) containing baby fowl, liveplants, trees, shrubs or agricultural commodities but not the manufactured products of those commodities;
- (3) consisting of books permanently bound for preservation consisting wholly of reading matter or reading matter with incidental blank spaces for students' notations and containing no advertising matter other than incidental announcements of books;

(4) addressed to or mailed at an Army, Air Force, or Fleet post office;

(5) addressed to or mailed in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Territory of Hawaii or a possession of the United States including the Canal Zone and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands; and

(6) consisting of reproducers for sound reproduction records for the blind or parts thereof, and of Braille writers and other appliances for the blind or parts thereof, mailed under section 4654 of this title.

§ 4553. Postal zones

(a) For the purposes of fourth class mail the United States, its possessions, the Territory of Hawaii and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico are divided into units of area thirty minutes square, identical with a quarter of the area formed by the intersecting parallels of latitude and meridians of longitude, represented on postal maps or plans.

(b) The units of area are the basis of eight postal zones, as follows:

(1) the first zone includes all territory within the quadrangle in conjunction with every contiguous quadrangle, representing an area having a mean radial distance of approximately fifty miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(2) the second zone includes all units of area outside the first zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one hundred and fifty miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(3) the third zone includes all units of area outside the second zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately three hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(4) the fourth zone includes all units of area outside the third zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately six hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(5) the fifth zone includes all units of area outside the fourth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(6) the sixth zone includes all units of area outside the fifth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand four hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(7) the seventh zone includes all units of area outside the sixth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand eight hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(8) the eighth zone includes all units of area outside the seventh zone.

§ 4554. Postage rates on books, films, and similar educational materials

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the postage rate is 9 cents a pound for the first pound or fraction thereof and 5 cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof on—

(1) books permanently bound for preservation, consisting wholly of reading matter or scholarly bibliography or reading matter with incidental blank spaces for students' notations and containing no advertising matter other than incidental announcement of books;

(2) 16-millimeter films and 16-millimeter film catalogs except when sent to commercial theaters;

(3) printed music, whether in bound form or in sheet form;

(4) printed objective test materials and accessories thereto used by or in behalf of educational institutions in the testing of ability, aptitude, achievement, interests, and other mental and personal qualities with or without answer or by mark;

(5) phonograph recordings; and

(6) manuscripts for books, periodicals and music.

(b) (1) Matter designated in paragraph (2) of this subsection may be mailed at the regular third or fourth class postage rates, or at the rate of 4 cents for the first pound or fraction thereof and 1 cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof when loaned or exchanged between—

(A) schools, colleges or universities;

(B) public libraries, religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans', or fraternal organizations or associations, not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or between such organizations and their members, readers or borrowers.

(2) The materials mailable under the rates prescribed in paragraph (1) of this subsection are—

(A) books consisting wholly of reading matter or scholarly bibliography or reading matter with incidental blank spaces for students' notations and containing no advertising matter other than incidental announcements of books;

(B) printed music matter, whether in bound form or in sheet form;

(C) bound volumes of academic theses in typewritten or other duplicated form;

(D) bound volumes of periodicals;

(E) phonograph recordings; and

(F) other library materials in printed, duplicated, or photographic form or in the form of unpublished manuscripts.

(3) Before being entitled to the preferential rates under this subsection, the Postmaster General may require an organization or association to furnish satisfactory evidence to him that none of the net income inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(c) 16 millimeter films, film strips, transparencies for projection slides, microfilms, sound recordings, and catalog of those items may be mailed at the rates prescribed in subsection (b) (1) of this section when sent to or from the institutions, organizations or associations listed in (A) and (B) of subsection (b) (1).

(d) The limit of weight on parcels mailed under this section is 70 pounds.

(e) The postage rates prescribed in this section shall continue until otherwise provided by the Congress.

§ 4555. Permissible marks and enclosures

The sender may not place on or enclose in fourth class mail marks that have the character of personal correspondence, but the following marks and enclosures may be placed on or in fourth class mail when space is left on the address side sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps—

(1) the sender's name, occupation, and address, preceded by the word "from", and directions for transmission, delivery, forwarding, or return;

(2) marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to words or passages in the text;

(3) correction of typographical errors;

(4) a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not of the nature of personal correspondence on the blank leaves or cover of a book or other printed matter;

(5) matter mailable as third class mail printed on the wrapper, envelope, tag or label;

(6) marks, numbers, names or letters for the purpose of description printed or written on the wrapper or cover;

(7) the words "Please Do Not Open Until Christmas" or words to that effect on the package, wrapper or envelope enclosing the same or on a tag or label attached thereto;

(8) corrections on proof sheets;

(9) manuscript accompanying proof sheets; and

(10) matter mailable as third class mail.

CHAPTER 69—POSTAGE RATES FOR MISCELLANEOUS MATTER WITHIN THE VARIOUS CLASSES

Sec.

4651. Keys and other small articles.

4652. Congressional Record.

4653. Publications for the blind.

4654. Reproducers and sound reproduction records for the blind.

§ 4651. Keys and other small articles

(a) Any person may mail without prepayment of postage a key, identification card, identification tag, or similar identification device, or small article which the Postmaster General by regulation designates, which bears, contains, or has attached securely thereto—

(1) a complete, definite, and legible post office address, including any street address or box or route number; and

(2) a notice directing that it be returned to the address, and guaranteeing the payment, on delivery, of the postage due thereon.

(b) Postage at the rate of 5 cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof shall be collected on delivery.

§ 4652. Congressional Record

The postage on each copy of the daily Congressional Record mailed from the District of Columbia as transient matter is one cent.

§ 4653. Publications for the blind

(a) The following matter may be mailed free of postage—

(1) books, pamphlets, and other reading matter:

(A) published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand, or printed, or in the form of sound reproduction records, for use of the blind;

(B) in packages not exceeding the weight prescribed by the Postmaster General;

(C) containing no advertising or other matter whatever;

(D) unsealed;

(E) sent by public institutions for the blind or by any public library as a loan to blind readers, or when returned by the latter to the institutions or public libraries; and

(2) magazines, periodicals and other regularly issued publications:

(A) published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed, or in the form of sound reproduction records, for the use of the blind;

(B) containing no advertising;

(C) for which no subscription fee is charged; and

(3) books or pages thereof:

(A) published in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed;

(B) containing no advertising;

(C) sent to a blind person without cost to the blind person.

(b) There may be mailed at the rate of postage of one cent for each pound or fraction thereof, magazines, periodicals, and other regularly issued publications—

(1) published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed, or in the form of sound reproduction records, for the use of the blind;

(2) containing no advertisements; and

(3) when furnished by an organization, institution, or association not conducted for private profit, to a blind person, at a price not greater than the cost price thereof.

(c) Volumes of the Holy Scriptures or part thereof, published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed or in the form of sound reproduction records for the use of the blind, which do not contain advertisements—

(1) when furnished to a blind person without charge by an organization, institution, or association not conducted for private profit, may be mailed free of postage; and

(2) when furnished to a blind person at a price not greater than the cost thereof by an organization, institution, or association, not conducted for private profit, may be mailed at the rate of one cent for each pound or fraction thereof.

§ 4654. Reproducers and sound reproduction records for the blind

(a) The postage rate is one cent a pound or fraction thereof on reproducers for sound reproduction records for the blind, or parts thereof, which are the property of the United States Government sent for repair or returned after repair—

(1) by an organization, institution, public library, or association for the blind, not conducted for private profit;

(2) by a blind person to such an agency not conducted for private profit;

(3) from such an agency to an organization, institution, public library, or association for the blind not conducted for private profit; or

(4) to a blind person.

(b) The Postmaster General may extend the rate set out in subsection (a) of this section to reproducers or parts thereof for sound reproduction records for the blind, Braille writers and other appliances for the blind, or parts thereof, that are the property of—

(1) State governments or subdivisions thereof; or

(2) public libraries;

(3) private agencies for the blind not conducted for private profit; or

(4) blind individuals.

85. POSTAL SAVINGS SYSTEM.....	5201

CHAPTER 81—REGISTRY, INSURED AND C. O. D. SERVICE

Sec.

- 5001. Registry system.
- 5002. Registration of letters containing currency.
- 5003. Registered official mail.
- 5004. Reimbursement for matter mailed without prepayment of registry fee.
- 5005. Declaration of full value of registered mail.
- 5006. Insurance system.
- 5007. Collect-on-delivery service.
- 5008. Undeliverable C. O. D. parcels.
- 5009. Restricted delivery.
- 5010. Returns receipts.
- 5011. Co-insurance.
- 5012. Receipts of mailing.

§ 5001. Registry system

(a) The Postmaster General may maintain a system of registration for the greater security of mail matter. As part of the registry system he may indemnify the senders or owners of registered articles for their loss, rifling, or damage, in the mails.

(b) The maximum limit of indemnity payable for a registered article is $1,000, or the actual value when that is less than $1,000, and for which no other compensation or reimbursement has been made. However, the Postmaster General may provide for the payment of indemnity for the actual value of a registered article, or an insured article treated as a registered article, in excess of $1,000, but not in excess of $10,000 when the article is not insured with another insuring agency.

(c) The Postmaster General may cause liability or risk assumed by the Department, in connection with the mailing of a particular registered article, to be underwritten or reinsured in whole or in part, with a commercial insurance company.

(d) An additional fee, known as a surcharge, may be required for a registered article, or for an insured article treated as a registered article, that has a declared value in excess of the maximum indemnity covered by the registry or insurance fee.

(e) The official mail of the Department, which requires registration, may be registered without payment of registry fee.

§ 5002. Registration of letters containing currency

The Postmaster General shall accept for registration without prepayment of registry fee—

(1) letters containing fractional or other currency sent for redemption to the Department of the Treasury;

(2) letters sent from the District of Columbia, by the Department of the Treasury containing new currency for currency redeemed when marked with the word "register" over the official signature of the sending officer.

§ 5003. Registered official mail

(a) An executive department or agency, independent establishment of the Government, or Government corporation, or the Public Printer, may register official domestic letter or parcel requiring registration without prepayment of the fees.

(b) Matter requiring registration relating to naturalization or to the census, which is entitled to be sent without prepayment of postage, may be registered without prepayment of registry fee.

§ 5004. Reimbursement for matter mailed without payment of registry fees

Executive departments and agencies, independent establishments of the Government and Government corporations concerned shall transfer to the Department as postal revenue out of appropriations or funds available to them, as a necessary expense of the appropriation or funds and of the activity concerned, the equivalent amount of registry fees, as determined by the Postmaster General, for matter sent in the mails without prepayment of the fee, by or to them under authority of sections 5002 or 5003 of this title.

§ 5005. Declaration of full value of registered mail

(a) Unless otherwise prescribed by the Postmaster General, the mailer shall declare the full value of registered mail, or insured mail treated as registered mail at the time of mailing. The Postmaster General may not pay a claim for indemnity if the value was knowingly and willfully misstated.

(b) The Postmaster General may determine upon what part of the declared value in excess of the maximum indemnity covered by the fee paid, surcharges shall be based for registered mail, or insured mail treated as registered mail, which may be carried at less than the maximum risk of loss in the mails.

§ 5006. Insurance system

The Postmaster General shall provide for the indemnification, by insurance or otherwise, not to exceed $200, for an article sent by third class or fourth class mail which is injured or lost in the mail.

§ 5007. Collect-on-delivery service

(a) The Postmaster General shall provide for the collection on delivery of the postage and price of an article mailed as first, third, or fourth class, or registered, mail.

(b) The maximum amount of charges collectible and the maximum amount of indemnity payable on a collect-on-delivery article is $200, except that indemnity in excess of $200, but not in excess of the limit of indemnity for registered mail, may be paid in the case of a registered collect-on-delivery article.

§ 5008. Undeliverable C. O. D. parcels

(a) The Postmaster General may return to the sender charged with return postage a collect-on-delivery article that the addressee fails to remove from the post office within fifteen days from the first attempt to deliver or the first notice of arrival at the office of address, regardless of whether the parcel bears a specified time limit for delivery. He may collect a demurrage charge when delivery has not been made to either the addressee or the sender until after the expiration of the prescribed period. He may not charge demurrage on collect-on-delivery articles exchanged between post offices in the continental United States and post offices in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Territories and possessions of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may direct the immediate return to the sender, charged with return postage, of an undeliverable collect-on-delivery article.

(a) The Postmaster General may provide for domestic registered, insured, and collect-on-delivery and other mail accorded special services to be restricted in delivery to the addressee only, or to the addressee or order. He shall charge an additional fee for this service.

(b) The Postmaster General may refund fees paid for this service only upon request and when the postal service is at fault for the erroneous delivery or the nondelivery of the article.

§ 5010. Return receipts

(a) Upon payment of the fee prescribed by him, the Postmaster General shall provide senders of mail, receipts showing either—

- (1) to whom and when the article was delivered, or
- (2) to whom, when, and the address where the article was delivered.

(b) Receipts furnished under subsection (a) of this section shall be received in the courts as prima facie evidence of the delivery.

(c) The Postmaster General may refund fees paid for receipts under subsection (a) of this section when the failure to furnish the receipt, or the equivalent, is the fault of the postal service.

§ 5011. Co-insurance

Claims for indemnity involving registered mail, insured mail treated as registered mail, other insured mail or collect-on-delivery mail which is also insured with another insuring agency shall be adjusted by the Postmaster General on a pro rata basis as a co-insurer with the other insuring agency.

§ 5012. Receipts of mailing

The Postmaster General may provide for the issuance to the sender of a receipt or certificate showing the mailing of ordinary mail, and additional receipts for the mailing of registered, insured, and collect-on-delivery mail.

CHAPTER 83—MONEY ORDER SYSTEM

Sec.

5101. Money order system.

5102. Issuance of money orders.

5103. Payment of money orders.

5104. Indorsement of orders.

5105. Postal notes.

§ 5101. Money order system

To promote public convenience, and insure greater security in remitting funds through the mail, the Postmaster General may maintain a money order system.

§ 5102. Issuance of money orders

(a) The Postmaster General shall cause money orders to be issued at such post offices, including stations and branches, as he designates.

(b) The Postmaster General may not permit a money order to be issued under this chapter for more than $100.

(c) A money order is not valid unless drawn upon a form furnished by the Postmaster General.

(d) The Postmaster General may not permit money orders to be issued on the condition that identification of the payee, indorsee, or attorney may be waived, nor permit payment to be made of a money order so issued.

§ 5103. Payment of money orders

(a) The Postmaster General shall provide for the payment of money orders to the payee, indorsee, or remitter at offices at which money orders are issued.

(b) When a money order has been lost the Postmaster General, upon evidence satisfactory to him, may pay the face value thereof or issue a duplicate money order, without charge, to the person he determines is entitled thereto.

(c) The records of the Department shall serve as the basis for adjudicating claims for payment of money orders.

(d) The Postmaster General may not pay a money order after twenty years from the last day of the month of original issue. Claims for unpaid money orders are forever barred unless received by the Department within that period.

§ 5104. Indorsement of orders

The payee of a money order, by his written indorsement thereon, may direct it to be paid to any other person who shall be entitled to payment upon furnishing such proof as the Postmaster General requires that the indorsement is genuine, and that he is the person named therein. More than one indorsement renders an order invalid. The holder of such an order, if otherwise entitled thereto, may obtain payment under such application and proof of the genuineness of the indorsements as the Postmaster General requires.

§ 5105. Postal notes

(a) The Postmaster General may authorize postmasters at offices designated by him to issue and pay money orders not exceeding $10, to be known as postal notes.

(b) Postal notes are valid for two calendar months from the last day of the month of their issue, but thereafter the Postmaster General may pay them or make refund in case of loss, upon evidence satisfactory to him. The Postmaster General may not consider a claim filed later than one year from the last day of the month of issue of the postal note unless the original postal note is presented with the claim and a duplicate postal note has not been issued therefor.

5221. Application of income from postal savings funds.

5222. Judgment adjudicating right or interest in deposit.

5223. Liability for outstanding postal savings stamps.

5224. Disposal of paid certificates.

§ 5201. Faith of United States pledged to payment of deposits

The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of the deposits made in postal savings depository offices, with accrued interest thereon as provided in this chapter.

§ 5202. Definitions

As used in this chapter "bank" means a bank, including savings banks and trust companies doing a banking business, which is subject to national or state supervision and examination.

§ 5203. Establishment of system

(a) The Board of Trustees of the Postal Savings System, consisting of the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall control, supervise and administer the Postal Savings System.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury shall designate an officer or employee of the Department of the Treasury as Treasurer of the Board of Trustees. The Secretary of the Treasury may employ personnel and expend sums for contingent and miscellaneous items necessary to transact the business of the Postal Savings System in the office of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, utilizing therefor money advanced to the Secretary of the Treasury out of any available appropriation for the establishment, maintenance, and extension of postal savings depositories.

§ 5204. Regulations of Board of Trustees

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the Board of Trustees may make regulations for the receipt, transmittal, custody, deposit, investment and repayment of the funds deposited at postal savings depository offices.

§ 5205. Annual report of Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees shall submit a report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session showing by States, Territories, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, for the preceding fiscal year—

- (1) the number and names of post offices receiving deposits;
- (2) the aggregate amount of deposits made therein;
- (3) the aggregate amount of withdrawals therefrom;
- (4) the number of depositors;
- (5) the total amount standing to the credit of all depositors at the conclusion of the year;
- (6) the amount of deposits at interest;
- (7) the amount of interest received thereon;
- (8) the amount of interest paid thereon;
- (9) the number and amount of unclaimed deposits;
- (10) the amount invested in Government securities by the Board of Trustees;
- (11) the expense of the Department and postal service incident to the operation of the postal savings depository system; and
- (12) other facts deemed pertinent and proper.

§ 5206. Depository offices

The Postmaster General shall designate post offices which are to be postal savings depository offices and shall prescribe the hours during which they shall remain open.

§ 5207. Opening of accounts

Upon receipt of an application to open a postal savings account, and the tender of an initial deposit, the postal savings depository office shall deliver to the depositor evidence of the deposit free of cost.

§ 5208. Deposits and withdrawals

The Postmaster General shall prescribe regulations with respect to deposits in and withdrawals from postal savings accounts, and shall provide for the issuance of pass books or other devices as evidence of deposits and withdrawals.

§ 5209. Claims on paid postal savings certificates

(a) Claims for payment of a postal savings certificate, or other evidence of deposit in the postal savings depository system, including duplicates, which are shown by the records of the Department to have been duly paid, are barred if not presented to the Postmaster General within six years from the date on which the records show that they were paid.

(b) Final determination by the Postmaster General as to whether payment properly has been made on postal savings certificates or other evidences of deposit in the postal savings depository system, including duplicates, shall be based upon the official records of the Department.

§ 5210. Depositors

A person ten years of age or over, in his own name, and a married woman in her own name and free from control or interference by her husband, may open and maintain one postal savings account at a time.

§ 5211. Amount of deposits

A depositor may make deposits in amounts of $5 or multiples thereof. Interest is not payable on any balance in excess of $2,500, exclusive of accumulated interest.

§ 5212. Privacy of accounts

Persons connected with the Department may not disclose the amount of a deposit to any person other than the depositor, unless directed to do so by the Postmaster General.

§ 5213. Interest on deposits

(a) The Postmaster General shall pay depositors interest on savings accounts at the rate of 2 per centum per year, but not in excess of the rate permitted to be paid on savings deposits by regulations prescribed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, pursuant to section 371b of title 12, by member banks of the System located nearest to the place where the depository office in which the deposit was made.

(b) The Postmaster General shall compute interest on deposits under such regulations as the Board of Trustees prescribes, and shall enter it to the credit of the depositor once for each quarter, beginning with the first day of the month following the date of the deposit. He may not allow interest on any part of funds deposited for a period of less than three months or on fractions of a dollar.

§ 5214. Cash reserve

The Treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall maintain five percent of all postal savings funds in a cash reserve.

§ 5215. Apportionment of funds among banks

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the Board of Trustees shall deposit postal savings funds received at a postal savings depository office in the banks in that locality, substantially in proportion to the capital and surplus of each bank willing to receive deposits under the terms of this chapter, and the regulations of the Board.

(b) If no qualified bank in the locality in which the funds were received at postal savings depository offices is willing to receive deposits of postal savings funds on the terms prescribed, the Board shall deposit the funds in the bank most convenient to the depository office.

§ 5216. Security for funds deposited in banks

The Board of Trustees, to the extent that the deposits are not insured under section 264 of title 12, shall require banks receiving deposits of postal savings funds to provide such security in public bonds or other securities authorized by act of Congress, or supported by the taxing power, as it deems sufficient and necessary to insure the safety and prompt payment of the deposits.

§ 5217. Interest on bank deposits

(a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, depository banks shall pay interest on postal savings funds at a rate uniform throughout the United States and territories thereof of not less than $2\frac{1}{4}$ per centum a year.

(b) The Board of Trustees may deposit postal savings funds on time in member banks of the Federal Reserve System, subject to the provisions of section 371b of title 12 and of the regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

§ 5218. Purchase of Government obligations

(a) When the postal savings deposits in a State, Territory, the District of Columbia or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico exceed the amount which qualified banks therein are willing to receive the Board of Trustees may invest any excess in bonds or other securities of the United States or in other obligations which are lawful investments for trust funds of the United States.

(b) When in the judgment of the President the general welfare and interest of the United States so require, the Board of Trustees may invest all or any part of the postal savings funds in bonds or other securities of the United States or in other obligations which are lawful investments for trust funds of the United States.

§ 5219. Sources of funds to pay depositors

(a) Postal funds used to pay postal savings depositors shall be replaced from postal savings funds on deposit in the State, Territory, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico insofar as they may be sufficient for the purpose and so far as practicable, from postal savings funds on deposit in the community in which the depositor maintains his account.

(b) The Board of Trustees may obtain funds needed to meet withdrawals of postal savings depositors either by withdrawals of funds on deposit with banks or by disposal of bonds held as postal savings investments.

§ 5220. Bank fees on postal savings business

Banks in which postal savings funds are deposited may not receive a fee or compensation on account of the cashing or collection of a check or the performance of other service in connection with the Postal Savings System.

§ 5221. Application of income from postal savings funds

The Postmaster General shall apply interest and profit accruing from the deposits or investment of postal savings funds to the payment of interest due to postal savings depositors, covering any excess into the Treasury of the United States as a part of the postal revenue.

§ 5222. Judgment adjudicating right or interest in deposit

The Board of Trustees shall accept as conclusive the final judgment, order, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating any right or interest in a postal savings account, after time for appeal has expired, upon submission of a copy to the Postmaster General authenticated in accordance with section 1738 of title 28. Payments made in accordance therewith discharge the Postal Savings System and the United States from further claim or demand for the sum so paid.

Stamps formerly issued under the authority of section 757 (c) of title 31, and section 6 of the Act of June 25, 1910 (ch. 386, 36 Stat. 816), as amended, are not liabilities of the Board of Trustees of the Postal Savings System, but are public debt obligations of the United States.

§ 5224. Disposal of paid certificates

The Postmaster General may destroy, or otherwise dispose of, postal-savings certificates or other evidences of deposit in the postal-savings depository system, including duplicates, after the expiration of six years from the date payment thereon has been made as shown by the records of the Post Office Department.

6006. Special delivery service.
6007. Fee paid to persons making delivery of special delivery mail.
6008. Special handling.
6009. Community mail boxes.

§ 6001. City delivery service

(a) The Postmaster General shall establish city delivery service for the free delivery of mail, as frequently as the public business may require, at every incorporated city, village, or borough containing a population of fifty thousand within its corporate limits.

(b) The Postmaster General may establish city delivery service for the free delivery of mail—

(1) at a place containing a population of not less than ten thousand, within its corporate limits, according to the last general census, taken by authority of State or United States law; or

(2) at a post office which produces a gross revenue, for the preceding fiscal year, of not less than $10,000; or

(3) upon consolidation of two or more post offices situated within the corporate limits of a city, village, or borough, which offices produced revenue of not less than $10,000 for the preceding fiscal year.

(c) The Postmaster General may continue city delivery service at post offices where it is established, even though there is a decrease below ten thousand in population or $10,000 in gross postal revenue.

§ 6002. Village delivery service

(a) The Postmaster General may establish village delivery service for the free delivery of mail in towns and villages having post offices of the third class that are not by law entitled to city delivery service.

(b) When a post office becomes a post office of the second class the Postmaster General may not continue village delivery service at that office.

§ 6003. Receiving boxes

(a) When the public convenience requires, the Postmaster General may provide receiving boxes for the deposit of mail and for the collection of mail deposited therein.

(b) The Postmaster General may not place a receiving box inside a building except a railroad station, a public building, or a building which is freely open to the public during business hours. He may declare that chutes or other devices approved by him which are connected with receiving boxes are part thereof and under the exclusive care and custody of the Department.

§ 6004. Delivery of mail at stations or branches

The Postmaster General may not transmit a letter to a branch post office or station for delivery to an addressee contrary to the request of the addressee.

§ 6005. Rural delivery service

The Postmaster General shall maintain a rural delivery service for the free delivery of mail serving as nearly as practicable the entire rural population of the United States.

§ 6006. Special delivery service

(a) When a special delivery fee is prepaid in addition to the regular postage the Postmaster General shall give the most expeditious handling and transportation practicable to mail of any class and immediate delivery within—

(1) one mile of a post office;

(2) one mile of substations or branches as the Postmaster General may designate; and

(3) the delivery limits of a post office having carrier delivery service.

(b) The postmaster is responsible for the immediate delivery of every special delivery article received at his office for delivery.

§ 6007. Fee paid to persons making delivery of special delivery mail

(a) The Postmaster General shall pay persons, other than special delivery messengers at post offices of the first class, making delivery of special delivery mail—

(1) 9 cents for first class mail weighing not more than two pounds;

(2) 10 cents for other mail weighing not more than two pounds;

(3) 15 cents for mail of any class weighing more than two pounds but not more than ten pounds; and

(4) 20 cents for mail of any class weighing more than ten pounds.

(b) At post offices of the second, third and fourth class, the Postmaster General may employ any person, including postmasters, assistants, and clerks, to deliver special delivery mail.

§ 6008. Special handling

Upon payment of a special handling fee, fourth class mail is entitled to the most expeditious handling and transportation practicable.

§ 6009. Community mail boxes

The Postmaster General may erect and maintain community boxes and suitable sheltered racks or stands for rural mail boxes, in such selected localities as he determines. The boxes may have separate compartments for incoming and outgoing mail. Rural patrons may rent box units, rack space, or stands at such monthly or annual rates as the Postmaster General determines, based on the cost of installation and maintenance. The cost of the installation and maintenance of community boxes and sheltered stands may not exceed $2,000 a year.

6101. Provisions for carrying the mail.

6102. Emergency mail service in Alaska.

6103. Transportation of mail of adjoining countries through the United States

6104. Mails to be carried on United States registered vessels.

6105. Establishment of post roads.

6106. Discontinuance of service on post roads.

6107. Preferred treatment of letter mail.

§ 6101. Provisions for carrying the mail

(a) The Postmaster General shall provide for the transportation of mail by land, air or water as often as he deems proper under the circumstances—

(1) within, among and between, the United States, its Territories, territories under trusteeship, possessions, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and Armed Forces; and

(2) between the United States, its Territories, territories under trusteeship, possessions, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or its Armed Forces, and any foreign country.

(b) The Postmaster General shall provide for the transportation of mail to the courthouse of every county in the United States.

§ 6102. Emergency mail service in Alaska

The Postmaster General may provide difficult or emergency mail service in Alaska, including the establishment and equipment of relay stations, in such manner as he deems advisable, without advertising therefor, at a total annual cost not exceeding $25,000.

§ 6103. Transportation of mail of adjoining countries through the United States

The Postmaster General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, may make arrangements to allow the mail of countries adjoining the United States to be transported over the territory of the United States from one point in that country to any other point therein, at the expense of the country to which the mail belongs, upon obtaining a like privilege for the transportation of the United States mail through the country to which the privilege is granted. The President or Congress may annul the privilege at any time. The privilege shall terminate one month succeeding the day on which notice of the act of the President or Congress is given to the chief executive or head of the post office department of the country whose privilege is to be annulled.

§ 6104. Mails to be carried on United States registered vessels

Mail of the United States shall, insofar as practicable, be carried on vessels of United States registry between ports between which it is lawful under the navigation laws for a vessel not documented under the laws of the United States to carry merchandise.

§ 6105. Establishment of post roads

The following are post roads—

(1) the waters of the United States, during the time the mail is carried thereon;

(2) railroads or parts of railroads and air routes in operation;

(3) canals, during the time the mail is carried thereon;

(4) public roads, highways, and toll roads during the time the mail is carried thereon; and

(5) letter-carrier routes established for the collection and delivery of mail.

§ 6106. Discontinuance of service on post roads

The Postmaster General may discontinue service on a post road or part thereof when, in his opinion—

- (1) the postal service cannot safely be continued;
- (2) the revenues cannot be collected;
- (3) the laws cannot be maintained; or
- (4) the public interest so requires.

§ 6107. Preferred treatment of letter mail

The Postmaster General may provide for the preferential treatment of first class mail, without unnecessary delay to other mail, when the quantity of mail to be transported over any route—

- (1) seriously retards the progress or endangers the security of the mail; or
- (2) materially increases the cost of transportation at the ordinary rate of speed.

§ 6201. Definition

As used in this chapter, unless otherwise specified, "railroad" means a railway common carrier, including an electric urban and interurban railway common carrier.

§ 6202. Service by railroad

This chapter applies to mail transportation performed by a railroad by rail or combination of rail, vessel and motor vehicle, or as provided by section 6213 of this title.

§ 6203. Authorization of service by railroad

(a) The Postmaster General may establish railroad mail routes and authorize mail transportation service thereon. He may transport equipment and supplies of the Department as mail thereon.

(b) A railroad shall transport mail including equipment and supplies of the Department offered for transportation by the United States in the manner, under the conditions, and with the service prescribed by the Postmaster General. It is entitled to receive fair and reasonable compensation for the transportation and services connected therewith.

(c) The Postmaster General shall determine the trains upon which mail shall be transported.

(d) A railroad shall transport with due speed, on any train it operates, such mail, including equipment and supplies of the Department, as the Postmaster General directs.

(e) A railroad engaged in the transportation of mail shall transport on any train it operates upon exhibiting their credentials and without extra charge therefor—

(1) persons in charge of the mail when on duty and traveling to and from duty; and

(2) accredited agents and officers, including postal inspectors, of the Department while traveling on official business.

§ 6204. Facilities provided by railroads

(a) A railroad engaged in the transportation of mail shall provide the following equipment and facilities—

(1) cars or parts of cars used in the transportation and distribution of mail;

(2) facilities for protecting and handling mail in its custody;

(3) station space and rooms for handling, storing and transfer of mail in transit, including the separation thereof by packages for connecting lines, and for distribution of registered mail in transit; and

(4) when required by the Postmaster General, offices for employees of the postal transportation service engaged in station work, in which mail from station boxes may be distributed if additional space is not required therefor.

(b) Railway post office cars or parts thereof used for mail transportation and distribution must be of such construction, style, length, and character, and must be equipped in such manner as the Postmaster General requires. They must be constructed, equipped, maintained, heated, lighted, and cleaned by and at the expense of the railroad. The Postmaster General may not pay for full and apartment railway post office car service unless the car furnished therefor is sound in material and construction, equipped with sanitary drinking water containers and toilet facilities, and regularly and thoroughly cleaned. He may not accept or pay for service by a full railway post office car unless the car is constructed of steel, steel underframe, or equally indestructible material.

(c) A railroad shall place cars used for full or apartment railway post office car service in stations at such times before the departure of the trains as the Postmaster General directs.

§ 6205. Changes in service

The Postmaster General may authorize, according to the need therefor, new or additional mail transportation service by railroad at the rates or compensation fixed pursuant to this chapter. He may reduce or discontinue service with pro rata reductions in compensation. The Postmaster General may not pay for additional service which he has not specifically authorized.

§ 6206. Evidence of service

A railroad shall submit evidence of the performance of mail transportation service, signed by an authorized official, in such form and at such times as the Postmaster General requires. Mail transportation service is considered that of the railroad performing it regardless of the ownership of the property used by the railroad.

§ 6207. Fines and deductions

(a) For refusal to perform mail transportation service required by the Postmaster General at rates or method of compensation established under this chapter, the Postmaster General shall fine—

- (1) an electric urban or interurban railroad, $100; and
- (2) any other railroad, $1,000.

Each day of refusal constitutes a separate offense.

(b) The Postmaster General shall fine a railroad an amount he deems reasonable for—

- (1) failure or refusal to transport mail, equipment, and supplies on any train it operates when required by the Postmaster General;
- (2) failure or refusal to furnish cars or apartments in cars for distribution purposes when required by the Postmaster General;
- (3) failure or refusal to construct, equip, maintain, heat, light, and clean cars or apartments in cars for distribution purposes;
- (4) failure or refusal to furnish appliances for use in case of accident, as required by the Postmaster General, in cars or apartments in cars used for distribution purposes; or

(5) other delinquencies in mail transportation and the service connected therewith.

(c) The Postmaster General may make deductions from the compensation of a railroad for failure to perform mail transportation service as authorized and, if the failure to perform is due to the fault of the railroad, he may deduct a sum not exceeding three times the compensation applying to such service.

§ 6208. Interstate Commerce Commission to fix rates

(a) The Interstate Commerce Commission shall determine and fix from time to time the fair and reasonable rates or compensation for the transportation of mail by railroad and the service connected therewith and prescribe the method for computing such rates or compensation. The Commission shall publish its orders stating its determination under this section which shall remain in force until changed by it after notice and hearing.

(b) For the purpose of determining and fixing rates or compensation under this section, the Commission may make just and reasonable classifications of railroads and, where just and equitable, fix general rates applicable to railroads in the same classification.

(c) In determining and fixing fair and reasonable rates under this section, the Commission shall consider the relation between the Government and railroads as public service corporations, and the nature of public service as distinguished, if there is a distinction, from the ordinary transportation business of the railroads.

§ 6209. Procedures

(a) At any time after six months from the entry of an order stating the Commission's determination under section 6208 of this title, the Postmaster General or an interested railroad may apply for a re-examination and substantially similar proceedings as have theretofore been had shall be followed with respect to the rates for services covered by the application. At the conclusion of the hearing the Commission shall enter an order stating its determination.

(b) Except as authorized by sections 6210 and 6215 of this title, the Postmaster General shall pay a railroad the rates or compensation so determined and fixed for application at such stated times as named in the order.

(c) The Postmaster General may file with the Commission a comprehensive plan, stating—

(1) his requirements for the transportation of mail by railroad;

(2) the number, equipment, size, and construction of the cars necessary for the transaction of the business;

(3) the character and speed of the trains which are to carry the various kinds of mail;

(4) the service, both terminal and en route, which carriers are to render;

(5) what he believes to be the fair and reasonable rates or compensation for the services required;

(6) all other information which may be material to the inquiry, but such other information may be filed at any time in the discretion of the Commission.

(d) When a comprehensive plan is filed, the Commission shall give notice of not less than thirty days to each railroad required by the Postmaster General to transport mail. A railroad may file its answer at the time fixed by the Commission, but not later than thirty days after the expiration date fixed by the Commission in the notice, and the Commission shall proceed with the hearing.

§ 6210. Special rates

(a) Upon petition by the Postmaster General the Commission shall determine and fix carload or less-than-carload rates for the transportation of fourth class and periodical mail. A railroad shall perform the service at the rates so determined when requested to do so and under the conditions prescribed by the Postmaster General.

(b) The Postmaster General may make special arrangements with railroads for the transportation of mail in freight trains at rates not in excess of the usual and just freight rates in accordance with classifications and tariffs filed with or prescribed by the Commission.

§ 6211. Authority to distinguish between classes of mail

The Postmaster General may distinguish between the several classes of mail and arrange for less frequent dispatches of mail, other than first class mail, when lower transportation rates or other economies may be secured without material detriment to the service.

§ 6212. Discrimination in transporting second class mail

(a) The Postmaster General may not transport a publication by freight if this method of mail transportation results in unfair discrimination against the owner of the publication.

(b) When the owner of a publication required by order of the Department to be transported by freight believes that this method of transportation unfairly discriminates against him, he may file a written application with the Department for a hearing. Thereafter he shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Department. Pending final determination no change may be made in the method of transportation of the publication as ordered by the Department.

(c) Prior to the entry of an order stating the Department's determination, the Postmaster General shall cause the testimony in the hearing under this section to be reduced to writing and filed in the Department.

(d) If the Department after the hearing determines by order that there is no unfair discrimination, the publisher may, within a period of twenty days after the date of the order, petition the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for review of the order, by filing in the court a written petition praying that the order be set aside. The clerk of the court shall transmit a copy of the petition to the Department and thereupon the Department shall file in the court the record as provided in section 2112 of title 28. Upon the filing of the petition the court shall have jurisdiction to examine, set aside or modify the order of the Department.

(e) The jurisdiction of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia to affirm, set aside, or modify the orders of the Department is exclusive.

(f) The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia shall give precedence to proceedings under this section over other pending cases and they shall be expedited in every way.

§ 6213. Transportation by motor vehicle

The Postmaster General may permit a railroad to perform mail transportation by motor vehicle over highways in lieu of service by rail at rates or compensation not exceeding those allowable for similar service by rail.

§ 6214. Statistical studies

The Postmaster General may arrange for weighing and measuring mail transported on railroad mail routes and make other computations for statistical and administrative purposes to carry out the purposes of this chapter and pay the expense thereof out of appropriations available to the Department.

§ 6215. Special contracts

The Postmaster General may enter into special contracts with railroads for terms not to exceed 4 years for the transportation of mail and the service connected therewith without advertising for bids. He may contract to pay lower rates or compensation, or where in his judgment conditions warrant, higher rates or compensation, than those determined and fixed by the Commission.

6302. Special arrangement in Alaska.

6303. Air star routes.

6304. Fines on aircraft carriers transporting the mails.

6305. Airmail flyer's Medal of Honor.

§ 6301. Rules and regulations

The Postmaster General may make such rules, regulations and orders not inconsistent with sections 1301–1542 of title 49, or any order, rule, or regulation made by the Civil Aeronautics Board thereunder, as may be necessary for the safe and expeditious carriage of mail by aircraft.

§ 6302. Special arrangement in Alaska

(a) When in the opinion of the Postmaster General the postal service requires the transportation of mail by aircraft in Alaska, and where transportation of mail by aircraft has not been authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board under sections 1371–1386 of title 49, the Postmaster General, notwithstanding any other provision of law, after advertisement in accordance with law, may contract for the carriage of any class of mail by aircraft. The transportation of mail under contracts entered into under this section, is not, except for sections 1371(k) and 1386(b) of title 49 and “air transportation” as that term is defined in section 1301 of title 49, and the rates of compensation therefor may not be fixed under sections 1301–1542 of title 49. The Postmaster General shall transmit a copy of each contract made pursuant to this section to the Board at the time it is let. He shall cancel such a contract upon the issuance by the Board of an authorization under sections 1371–1386 of title 49 to any air carrier to engage in the transportation of mail by aircraft between any of the points named in the contract.

(b) An air carrier authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board under sections 1371–1386 of title 49 to engage in the transportation of mail by aircraft in Alaska, may be required by the Postmaster General to transport, within the limits of the authorization, any class of mail. The Board shall determine and fix the rates of compensation to be paid for the transportation in accordance with the provisions of sections 1301–1542 of title 49.

§ 6303. Air star routes

(a) The Postmaster General may contract for the transportation of any class of mail by aircraft upon star routes—

(1) whenever he finds it to be in the public interest because of the nature of the terrain or the impracticability or inadequacy of surface transportation; and

(2) where the cost is reasonably compatible with the service to be performed.

(b) Prior to advertising for bids for the transportation of mail by aircraft under this section, the Postmaster General shall obtain from the Civil Aeronautics Board a certification that the proposed route does not conflict with the development of air transportation as contemplated under sections 1301-1542 of title 49. Upon receipt of a request from the Postmaster General for certification, the Board shall—

(1) promptly publish in the Federal Register and send to such persons as the Board by regulation determines, a notice describing the proposed air star route;

(2) thereafter afford interested persons a reasonable opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments with or without the opportunity to present them orally;

(3) consider all relevant matter presented; and

(4) grant, not less than thirty days after notice, the requested certification upon finding that the proposed route does not conflict with the development of air transportation as contemplated under sections 1301-1542 of title 49. The Board may grant the requested certification upon less notice if it for good cause finds that thirty days advance notice is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest, and incorporates this finding and a brief statement of the reasons therefor in its order granting the certification.

(c) The Postmaster General may not consider a bid for a contract under this section unless the bidder is a resident of or qualified to do business as a common carrier in a State within which one or more points to be served under the proposed contract are located. As used in this subsection, "State" includes the Territory of Hawaii and the District of Columbia.

(d) The Postmaster General shall cancel a contract made under this section upon the issuance by the Board of an authorization under sections 1371-1386 of title 49 to an air carrier to engage in the transportation of mail by aircraft between any of the points named in the contract.

(e) All laws and regulations governing star routes not in conflict with this section are applicable to contracts made under the authority of this section.

(f) Sections 1371–1376, 1380, 1381, and 1385 of title 49 do not apply to the transportation of mail under this section.

§ 6304. Fines on aircraft carriers transporting the mails

The Postmaster General may impose or remit fines on contractors or carriers transporting mail by air on routes extending beyond the borders of the United States for—

- (1) unreasonable or unnecessary delay to mail; and
- (2) other delinquencies in the transportation of the mail.

§ 6305. Airmail Flyer's Medal of Honor

The President may present, but not in the name of Congress, an Airmail Flyer's Medal of Honor, of appropriate design, with accompanying ribbon, to any person who, while serving as a pilot in the airmail service distinguished himself by heroism or extraordinary achievement. The President may not award more than one medal to any one person, but for each additional act or achievement sufficient to justify the award of a medal he may award a bar or other suitable device to be worn as he directs. If the individual who distinguished himself dies before the award is made, the President may present the medal, bar, or other device, to such representative of the deceased as the President designates. A medal, bar, or other device may not be awarded or presented to an individual whose entire service subsequent to the time he distinguished himself has not been honorable.

- 6352. Highway post office contracts.
- 6353. Renewal of contracts for highway post office service.
- 6354. Temporary contracts for highway post office service.
- 6355. Bonds for highway post office contract.

§ 6351. Highway post office service

The Postmaster General may provide highway post office service, either by contract or Government-owned motor vehicle, for carrying the mail and postal employees on routes between points where, in his judgment, conditions justify the operation of that service. The motor vehicles must be especially designed and equipped for the distribution of mail en route and be constructed, fitted up, maintained, and operated as the Postmaster General prescribes.

§ 6352. Highway post office contracts

(a) The Postmaster General shall obtain contracts for highway post office service in accordance with section 5 of title 41, for terms not in excess of six years.

(b) The Postmaster General in contracts for highway post office service may provide for—

- (1) increasing or decreasing the mileage;
- (2) increasing or decreasing the hours of service required;
- (3) other service charges;

(4) the readjustment and compensation either upward or downward to reflect the services changes and increased or decreased costs attributable to changed conditions occurring during the contract term over which the Postmaster General or the contractor have no control and which could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time the original bid was made or the proposal for renewal filed;

(5) the imposition or remission of fines and penalties by the Postmaster General for delinquencies in the performance of the contract; and

(6) other matters deemed appropriate by him.

(c) Each contract shall provide for its cancellation by the Postmaster General and may provide for an indemnity payment by the Postmaster General in the event of such a cancellation.

§ 6353. Renewal of contracts for highway post office service

(a) The Postmaster General, by mutual agreement with the holder of a contract for highway post office service and without submitting the service for bids, may renew the contract for successive periods of not more than six years at the rates of compensation prevailing at the end of the preceding contract term.

(b) The Postmaster General may enter into a contract with the subcontractor then performing the service, in the same manner and upon the same terms as prescribed in subsection (a) of this section if—

(1) the holder of the contract has sublet his contract in accordance with its terms and does not indicate in writing to the Postmaster General at least ninety days before the end of the contract term that he desires to renew the contract, and

(2) the subcontractor has performed the service required under the contract to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General for a period of at least six months.

§ 6354. Temporary contracts for highway post office service

Where there is no contractor legally bound or required to perform the service desired by the Postmaster General, or when an accepted bidder or contractor fails or refuses to perform the service on a route according to his accepted proposal or his contract, the Postmaster General, without advertising, may contract for the service desired or continue the service originally contracted for in such manner and in such equipment as he deems to be in the public interest for a term not in excess of one year.

§ 6355. Bonds for highway post office contract

The Postmaster General may require such bonds as he deems necessary to protect the interests of the Government in the form and amount and containing such conditions as he prescribes.

§ 6401. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

“star route contract” means a contract for the transportation of mail over a post road other than a railroad and may include collection and delivery service to patrons of the postal service;

“contract motor vehicle service” means a formal contract for a fixed term for service in accordance with section 6403 of this title;

“mail messenger service” means service performed in accordance with section 6403 of this title under an informal agreement without term.

§ 6402. Authority to contract for mail transportation

(a) The Postmaster General may contract for necessary domestic or foreign transportation of mail, except that—

(1) transportation of mail by railroad shall be procured as provided in chapter 95 of this title and otherwise provided by law;

(2) transportation of mail by air shall be obtained in accordance with chapter 97 of this title;

(3) highway post office service shall be obtained in accordance with chapter 99 of this title;

(4) delivery and collection service may not be established or extended under a star route contract if a majority of the patrons on the route has been served by a rural delivery route for which a qualified rural carrier can be obtained; and

(5) if possible, mail consigned between an airport and a post office at which there is Government-owned motor vehicle service, shall be transported by Government-owned motor vehicles, when the distance is not more than 35 miles.

(b) Subsection (a) (5) of this section does not prohibit the transportation of mail by helicopter or similar aircraft between airports and post offices.

§ 6403. Mail messenger and contract motor vehicle service

(a) Subject to subsection (a) (4) of section 6402 of this title, the Postmaster General may enter into informal agreements for mail messenger service without term or into formal contracts for motor vehicle service for the carriage of mail in connection with transportation service in cases where, by law or the regulations of the Department, rail, air, water and other carriers are not required to deliver into and take from postal facilities the mails carried by them. The Postmaster General may use such service as transfer service between such points as he deems necessary including service within, between and among carriers, depots, airports, piers, post offices, branch post offices or stations or other postal facilities and over bridges and ferries.

(b) Postmasters, officers, and employees, may enter into agreements for the performance of mail messenger service when the Postmaster General determines that the performance of the service will not interfere with their regular duties or with the operations of the postal service. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section the total amount payable under an agreement may not exceed $900 in any one year.

(c) Special delivery messengers at post offices of all classes may enter into agreements for mail messenger service without regard to the amount payable in any one year.

§ 6404. Sea post service

The Postmaster General may maintain sea post service on ocean vessels conveying mail to and from the United States.

§ 6405. Duration of contracts

(a) The Postmaster General may make contracts for the transportation of mail by vessel between the United States and foreign ports for terms of not more than two years. When the foreign office is not more than 200 miles from the domestic office he may make contracts for domestic and foreign transportation of mail by vessels, combined in one route, for terms of not more than four years. He may make other contracts for the transportation of mail for four-year terms.

(b) This section does not apply to mail messenger service or to contracts made under sections 6408, 6413, 6415, 6427 of this title.

§ 6406. Termination of contracts for foreign transportation

Contracts for the transportation of mail by vessel between the United States and a foreign port shall be made subject to cancellation by the Postmaster General or the Congress.

§ 6407. Extension of contracts

(a) The Postmaster General may continue in force beyond its express terms any regular contract for the transportation of mail until a new contract is made, but not longer than six months.

(b) This section does not apply to temporary contracts made under section 6415 of this title.

§ 6408. Transportation by vessel under noncompetitive contracts

(a) When the Postmaster General deems it necessary to make a new contract for the transportation of mail by vessel on waters, or between ports, of the United States he may contract without advertising for terms of not more than four years at a rate of compensation not to exceed the average compensation paid under the existing contract or under the last preceding contract for the transportation of mail on that route. When there has been no prior contract for the transportation of mail on a route on waters, or between ports, of the United States, the Postmaster General may contract for a term of one year for the transportation of mail on that route without advertising, or for terms of not more than four years after advertising.

(b) The Postmaster General may contract for the transportation of all classes of mail by vessel of United States registry on the route from Seward to points on Kanai Peninsula, Kodiak Island, Alaska Peninsula, the Aleutian Islands, Umnak Island, and points on Bristol Bay, Alaska, and vicinity. He may make the contract without advertisement for a term of not more than four years, at an annual cost not to exceed $250,000. The Postmaster General shall require the contractor to furnish and use in the service a safe and seaworthy vessel of sufficient size to provide adequate space for mail, passengers and freight.

§ 6409. Transportation by vessel under informal arrangements

(a) The Postmaster General without advertising may provide for the transportation of mail by vessel between—

(1) the [continental] United States, its possessions, the Territory of Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and a foreign port;

(2) the [continental] United States and [is] its possessions, its Armed Forces abroad, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; or

(3) any possession or the Armed Forces of the United States, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any other possession or Armed Forces of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General for transportation obtained under this section by a—

(1) vessel of United States registry, may pay compensation not to exceed eighty cents a pound for letters, post cards and postal cards, and eight cents a pound for other articles; and

(2) vessel of foreign registry, may pay compensation not to exceed the sea transit rates fixed from time to time by the Universal Postal Union Convention.

§ 6410. Transportation of mail by vessel as freight or express

The Postmaster General may require that mail be transported as freight or express when—

- (1) there is no competition on a water route and the rate of compensation asked is excessive; or
- (2) no proposal is received.

A common carrier by water that refuses to transport the mail when required to do so under this section shall be fined not more than $500 for each day of refusal.

§ 6411. Requirements of contracts let after competitive bidding

(a) Formal contracts for transportation of mail which are required to be made after advertising shall—

- (1) be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder with sufficient guarantee for faithful performance in accordance with the terms of the advertisement; and
- (2) require due celerity, certainty, and security in the performance of the service.

(b) The Postmaster General may disregard the bid of a person who willfully or negligently failed to perform a former contract.

§ 6412. Advertisements for mail transportation contracts

When advertising is required by law, the Postmaster General shall advertise, for a period of not less than 30 days, for bids for a contract for transporting the mails, unless he shall publish with the advertisement a finding that the public exigencies surrounding the particular contract require a shorter period. The advertisement shall be conspicuously posted in each post office to be served under the contract.

§ 6413. Exceptions from advertisement requirements

Section 6412 does not apply to contracts for the transportation of mail—

- (a) by mail messengers under sections 6403 and 6423 of this title;
- (b) by highway post office service under sections 6351 to 6355 of this title; or
- (c) by steamships under sections 6405 and 6408 of this title.

§ 6414. Procedures after default of bidder or contractor

(a) If an accepted bidder or contractor for the transportation of mail defaults on his bid or contract, the Postmaster General shall contract with the next lowest bidder who will enter into a contract for the service in accordance with his bid, unless he considers the bid too high. If he considers the bid too high, he may contract with any person, giving preference to regular bidders for the service, who will enter into a contract to perform the service at a lower price.

(b) The Postmaster General shall require each person contracting under this section to furnish a bond of like tenor, effect, and penalty as that required in the advertisement of the route. Contracts made under this section shall contain the same terms and provisions as those prescribed for similar service.

(c) If a satisfactory contract cannot be secured under this section, the Postmaster General may procure temporary service in accordance with section 6412 or 6415 of this title.

§ 6415. Temporary mail contracts

(a) The Postmaster General may make temporary contracts without advertising for the transportation of mail on routes for terms of not more than one year, if—

- (1) a new route is established;
- (2) a new service is required; or
- (3) for any other reason there is no regular contract for service on the route.

(b) Temporary service rendered necessary by reason of the default of an accepted bidder or of a contractor may be obtained at a rate which the Postmaster General deems reasonable and the cost shall be charged to the bidder or contractor.

§ 6416. Renewal of contracts

(a) The Postmaster General, by mutual agreement with the holder of a star route, contract motor vehicle service or water route contract and without advertising may renew the contract for successive terms, of not more than four years each, at the rate of compensation prevailing at the end of the preceding contract term. The contractor shall give such bond as the Postmaster General requires.

(b) If a contractor has sublet the service in accordance with law and does not indicate in writing to the Postmaster General at least 90 days before the end of the contract term that he desires to renew the contract, the Postmaster General may enter into a contract with the subcontractor then, and for 6 months prior thereto, performing the service under the contract to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General. Contracts made under this subsection—

(1) shall be upon the terms prevailing at the end of the preceding contract term;

(2) may be made without advertising; and

(3) shall be accompanied by such bond as the Postmaster General requires.

(c) A contract under this section may be terminated at the end of any four-year term at the option of the Postmaster General or of the contractor, or at any time by operation of law.

§ 6417. Bids for mail contracts

(a) Bids for transportation of mail shall be sealed. The Postmaster General shall keep them sealed until the bidding is closed, and then they shall be opened and marked in the presence of two or more officers or employees of the Department designated by the Postmaster General. A bidder may withdraw his bid at any time up to twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the opening of bids, by serving upon the Postmaster General notice in writing.

(b) The Postmaster General shall have recorded a true abstract of the details of all bids made for carrying the mail. He shall preserve the originals of the bids until disposed of as provided by law.

§ 6418. Bond of bidder

(a) Every bid for transporting the mail shall be accompanied by the bond of the bidder in the sum designated by the Postmaster General in the advertisement.

(b) The bond required by this section shall contain a condition that if the bidder, within such time after his bid is accepted as the Postmaster General prescribes, enters into a contract with the United States of America with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Postmaster General to perform the service proposed in his bid, and further if he performs the service according to his contract, then the said obligation on the bond is void, otherwise it remains in full force and obligation in law.

(c) If a bidder fails to enter into the prescribed contract or if after executing a contract fails to perform the service in accordance with his contract, he and his sureties are liable for the amount of the bond as liquidated damages to be recovered in a civil action.

(d) The Postmaster General may not consider a bid unless it is accompanied by the bond required by this section, and there is affixed to it the signed statement of the bidder that he has the pecuniary ability to fulfill his obligations, and that the bid is made in good faith with the intention to enter into a contract and perform the service if the bid is accepted.

§ 6419. Justification of sureties on bonds of bidders

(a) The Postmaster General shall direct the manner in which the sureties on the bond of a bidder for the transportation of mail are approved.

(b) Before the bond of a bidder is approved the sureties shall submit signed statements that they are owners of real estate worth in the aggregate a sum double the amount of the bond, over and above all debts due and owing by them, and all judgments, mortgages, and executions against them, after allowing all exemptions of every character whatever. Accompanying the statement and as a part thereof, there shall be a series of written interrogatories, prescribed by the Postmaster General, and answered by the sureties showing—

- (1) the amount of real estate owned by them;
- (2) a brief description and the probable value thereof; and
- (3) where it is situated, and in what county and State evidence of ownership is recorded.

(c) If a surety knowingly submits a false statement under the provisions of this section he shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of section 1001 of title 18.

(d) Subsections (b) and (c) of this section do not apply to corporate sureties qualifying under title 6.

§ 6420. Qualifications of bidder

(a) The Postmaster General may not consider the bid of an individual for a star route contract unless the bidder is a legal resident of the county in which part of the route lies or of an adjoining county. He may not consider the bid of a firm, company, or corporation for such a contract unless it is actually engaged in business within the county in which part of the route lies or in an adjoining county.

(b) Except as provided in section 6403 of this title, a postmaster or employee of the Department may not be concerned in a contract for the transportation of mail.

§ 6421. Combinations to prevent bids for carrying the mail

The Postmaster General may not make a contract for transportation of mail with a person who—

- (1) enters, or proposes to enter, into a combination to prevent the making of a bid for transportation of mail; or
- (2) makes an agreement, or gives or performs, or promises to give or perform, any consideration whatever to induce another person not to bid for the contract.

The Postmaster General may annul the contract of any contractor so offending. For the first offense the person shall be disqualified for five years to contract for transporting mail, and for the second offense shall be disqualified forever.

§ 6422. Additional compensation for increased travel

The Postmaster General may allow additional compensation to a star route contractor for necessary increased travel caused by—

- (1) obstruction of roads;
- (2) destruction of bridges;
- (3) discontinuance of ferries; or
- (4) any other cause occurring during the contract term.

He may not allow additional compensation under this section at a rate proportionately greater than the rate established by the contract involved.

§ 6423. Readjustment of compensation of contractors and mail messengers

(a) The Postmaster General with the consent of the contractor may readjust the compensation under a star route, motor vehicle service, or water route contract for increased or decreased costs occasioned by changed conditions occurring during the contract term which could not reasonably have been anticipated at the time—

- (1) the original bid was made; or
- (2) the bond for a renewed contract was executed in accordance with section 6416 of this title.

(b) The Postmaster General may readjust the compensation under an agreement for the performance of mail messenger service on account of increased or decreased costs occasioned by changed conditions which could not reasonably have been anticipated at the time the agreement was made.

§ 6424. Additional compensation for extension of route or additional service

(a) The Postmaster General, in cases where the mail service would be improved, may obtain additional service or extend routes under contract. Extensions ordered during a contract term may not, in the aggregate, increase the one-way length of a route more than fifty miles.

(b) The Postmaster General may not allow additional compensation under this section at a rate proportionately greater than the rate established by the contract involved.

(c) When additional service is ordered, the Postmaster General shall state the sum allowed therefor in the order, and enter it in the records of the Department. He may not pay compensation for additional regular service rendered before he issues the order.

(d) Subsection (c) of this section does not apply to service authorized under sections 6415, and 6422 of this title.

§ 6425. Release of contractors

(a) The Postmaster General, in the interest of the postal service, may readvertise and make new contracts for the transportation of mail in order to release contractors and their sureties when—

(1) a change is ordered in the service involving a material increase or decrease in the amount of service required to such an extent as to impose undue hardship on the contractor;

(2) an abnormal or sustained increase in the quantity of mail develops during a contract period or after a bid has been submitted necessitating larger capacity equipment to maintain the service;

(3) a change in schedule is ordered that will necessitate the contractor being away from the initial terminal for an excessively longer or shorter period than required in the advertised schedule; or

(4) the contractor complies with subsection (b) of this section and it is found, after full investigation, that the compensation of the contractor is wholly inadequate and that the continuation of the contract would impose undue hardship upon the contractor.

(b) A contractor who desires to be released from his contract under the fourth condition of subsection (a) of this section shall give 90 days' notice to the Postmaster General and waive any extra pay provided under his contract or by law as indemnity for cancellation.

§ 6426. Substitutions of sureties

The Postmaster General, whenever he deems it consistent with the public interest, may accept or require new surety upon a contract for the transportation of mail in substitution for and release of an existing surety.

§ 6427. Contracts for transmission of mail by mechanical devices

(a) The Postmaster General may enter into contracts, for terms of not more than ten years, for the transmission of mail by pneumatic tubes or other mechanical devices.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section contracts for the transmission of mail by pneumatic tubes or other mechanical devices are subject to the provisions of laws relating to the making of contracts for the transportation of mail. Advertisements shall state in general terms only the requirements of the service and shall be in the form best calculated to invite competitive bidding. The Postmaster General may reject any and all bids. A contract may be awarded only to the lowest responsible bidder tendering full and sufficient guaranties to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General of his ability to perform satisfactory service.

§ 6428. Limitation on rate payable for transmission of mail by mechanical devices

Until December 31, 1960, the Postmaster General may not pay a rate of more than $15,500 a year for each mile of double line pneumatic-tube facilities in the city of New York, N. Y. Thereafter the annual rate of expenditures per mile may not exceed $12,000. This rate includes maintenance expenses but excludes all operating expenses.

§ 6429. Transfer of mail contracts

A contractor holding a contract for the transportation of mail may not sublet, assign or transfer his contract without the consent in writing from the Postmaster General. Whenever the Postmaster General determines that a contractor has sublet, assigned or transferred his contract without consent, he shall consider the contract as breached and may again advertise the service as provided by law. The contractor and his sureties are liable to the United States for damage resulting to the United States from the termination of the contract.

§ 6430. Settlements with subcontractors

If the holder of a contract for the transportation of mail lawfully sublets his contract or lawfully employs other persons to perform the service covered by the contract or any part thereof, he shall file in the Department a copy of his contract with those persons. Upon receipt of the contract, the Postmaster General shall withhold the amount fixed therein as compensation to the subcontractor from the amount due to the original contractor, and pay the subcontractor under the rules and regulations governing payments made to original contractors. Upon satisfactory evidence that the original contractor has paid off and discharged the amount due under his contract to the subcontractor, the Postmaster General shall settle with the original contractor.

§ 6431. New contract with subcontractors

If a contractor or subcontractor sublets his contract for the transportation of the mail for a sum less than that for which he contracted to perform the service, the Postmaster General, whenever he deems it for the good of the service, may cancel the contract. The Postmaster General may enter into a contract with the last subcontractor to perform the service under the terms of his subcontract. The original contractor may not be released from his contract until a good and sufficient bond has been made by the new contractor and accepted by the Postmaster General. When a contract is cancelled under this section the contractor is not entitled to indemnity therefor.

§ 6432. Lien on compensation of contractor

(a) A person who—

- (1) performs service for a contractor or subcontractor in the transportation of mail;
- (2) files his contract for service with the Department; and
- (3) files satisfactory evidence of performance with the Department shall have a lien on money due the contractor or subcontractor for the service.

(b) The Postmaster General may pay the person establishing a lien under subsection (a) of this section the sum due him, when the contractor or subcontractor fails to pay the person the amount of his lien within two months after the expiration of the month in which the service was performed. He shall charge the amount so paid to the contract. The payments may not exceed the annual rate of pay of the contractor or subcontractor.

§ 6433. Free transportation of postal officials

Every person engaged in the transportation of mail by vessel and, unless otherwise provided in the contract, every other contractor engaged in the transportation of mail shall carry on any vessel or vehicle he operates upon exhibiting their credentials and without extra charge therefor—

- (1) persons in charge of the mails when on duty and traveling to and from duty, and
- (2) accredited agents and officers, including postal inspectors, of the Department while traveling on official business.

§ 6434. Liability of contractor for breach

(a) The Postmaster General may make deductions from the compensation of contractors for failure to perform service according to contracts for the transportation of the mail, and he may impose fines upon them for other delinquencies. He may deduct the price of the trip in all cases where the trip is not performed and not exceeding three times the price if the failure is occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier. The Postmaster General may change or remit deductions or fines.

(b) Contractors are also answerable in damages to the United States for the proper care and transportation of the mail. They are accountable to the United States for loss of or damage to the mail or any part of it due to the failure of any of the contractor's officers, agents, or employees to exercise due care in the custody, handling, or transportation thereof.

§ 6435. Fines on ocean carriers

The Postmaster General may impose or remit fines on carriers transporting mail by vessel on routes extending beyond the borders of the United States for—

- (1) unreasonable or unnecessary delay to the mail; and
- (2) other delinquencies in the transportation of the mail.

§ 6436. Default of contractor having several routes

Where a person having contracts for the transportation of mail upon more than one route fails to perform the service according to the contract on any of the routes, the Postmaster General shall withhold payments on all contracts with him until the failure has been removed and all penalties therefor fully satisfied.

§ 6437. Unreasonable bids

When the Postmaster General believes that the bids for the performance of star route service are unreasonable, or that there is a combination of bidders to fix the rate for star route service, he may use such means or methods to provide the desired service as he deems expedient, without reference to laws respecting the employment of personal service or the procurement of conveyances, materials, or supplies. He may pay the cost thereof from any appropriation available for the transportation of mail.

§ 6438. Newspapers out of the mail

Mail carriers and contractors for the transportation of mail may convey, out of the mail, newspapers for sale or distribution to subscribers.

§ 6439. Initial payment under contract

The Postmaster General may not make payments to a person whose bid for a contract for the transportation of mail is accepted until the bidder has executed the contract according to law and the regulations of the Department.

§ 6440. Special service

The Postmaster General may provide for the transportation of mail to supply a post office that is not on an established route. He may not pay compensation, under the contract, in excess of two-thirds of the salary of the postmaster at such an office.

SEC. 2. If a part of title 39, United States Code, as enacted by section 1 of this Act, is held invalid the remainder of the title is not affected thereby.

SEC. 3. Orders, rules and regulations in effect under provisions of law superseded or amended by this Act shall, to the extent they would have been authorized under this Act, remain in force and effect as the regulations and orders under the provisions of this Act and shall be administered and enforced under this Act as nearly as may be until specifically repealed, amended or revised.

SEC. 4. (a) The benefits granted to postal employees by sections 403, 504 and 808 of the Act of June 10, 1955 (69 Stat. 88), and by sections 402, 406, and 407 (a) of the Act of May 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 146, 147), are continued to the same effect as though the sections had remained in force and effect.

(b) Postal employees on the rolls of the Post Office Department on the date of the enactment of this Act, who are entitled to the benefits of section 2 of the Act of May 3, 1950 (64 Stat. 102), and to the benefits of sections 1 and 3 of the Act of May 29, 1958 (72 Stat. 150), which are repealed by section 12 of this Act, shall retain the benefits to the same extent as though those sections had remained in force and effect.

SEC. 5. Whenever reference is made in another law to a law or part of law which is repealed by section 12 of this Act, the reference shall be considered to mean the appropriate section of title 39, United States Code, as codified by section 1 of this Act.

SEC. 6. An inference of a legislative construction is not to be drawn by reason of the chapter in title 39, United States Code, as set out in section 1 of this Act, in which a section is placed nor by reason of the caption or catch line.

AMENDMENTS OF TITLE 18

SEC. 7. Chapter 83 of Title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding the following new sections:

“§ 1733. Affidavits relating to second class mail

“(a) Whoever, being a publisher or news agent or employee, fails or refuses to make the affidavit when required under section 4368 of title 39, and thereafter tenders for mailing any second class mail without having first made the affidavit shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each refusal.

“(b) Whoever knowingly mails any second class mail without the payment of postage, or being a postmaster or postal official knowingly permits any second class mail to be mailed without prepayment of postage, shall be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

“§ 1734. Editorials and other matter as ‘advertisements’

“Whoever, being an editor or publisher, prints in a publication entered as second class mail, editorial or other reading matter for which he has been paid or promised a valuable consideration, without plainly marking the same ‘advertisement’ shall be fined not more than $500.”

SEC. 8. The analysis of chapter 83, preceding § 1691 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding the following items:

“1733. Affidavits relating to second class mail.

“1734. Editorials and other matter as ‘advertisements’.”

AMENDMENTS OF TITLE 28

SEC. 9. Title 28, United States Code, is amended by adding the following new chapter:

“CHAPTER 173.—ATTACHMENT IN POSTAL SUITS

“Sec.

“2710. Right of attachment.

“2712. Issue of warrant.

“2713. Trial of ownership of property.

“2714. Investment of proceeds of attached property.

“2715. Publication.

“2716. Personal notice.

“2717. Discharge.

“2718. Interest on balances due department.

“§ 2710. Right of attachment

“(a) Where debts are due from a defaulting or delinquent postmaster, contractor, or other officer, agent or employee of the Post Office Department, a warrant of attachment may issue against all property and legal and equitable rights belonging to him, and his sureties, or either of them, where he—

“(1) is a nonresident of the district where he was appointed, or has departed from that district for the purpose of permanently residing outside thereof, or of avoiding the service of civil process; and

“(2) has conveyed away, or is about to convey away any of his property, or has removed or is about to remove the same from the district wherein it is situated, with intent to defraud the United States.

“(b) When the property has been removed, the marshal of the district into which it has been removed, upon receipt of certified copies of the warrant, may seize the property and convey it to a convenient place within the jurisdiction of the court which issued the warrant. Alias warrants may be issued upon due application. The warrant first issued remains valid until the return day thereof.

“§ 2711. Application for warrant

“A United States attorney or assistant United States attorney or a person authorized by the Attorney General—

“(1) upon his own affidavit or that of another credible person, stating the existence of either of the grounds of attachments enumerated in section 2710 of this title and

“(2) upon production of legal evidence of the debt may apply for a warrant of attachment to a judge, or, in his absence, to the clerk of any court of the United States having original jurisdiction of the cause of action.

“§ 2712. Issue of warrant

“Upon an order of a judge of a court, or, in his absence and upon the clerk’s own initiative, the clerk shall issue a warrant for the attachment of the property belonging to the person specified in the affidavit. The marshal shall execute the warrant forthwith and take the property attached, if personal, in his custody, subject to the interlocutory or final orders of the court.

“§ 2713. Trial of ownership of property

“Not later than twenty days before the return day of a warrant issued under section 2712 of this title, the party whose property is attached, on notice to the United States Attorney, may file a plea in abatement, denying the allegations of the affidavit, or denying ownership in the defendant of the property attached. The court, upon application of either party, shall order a trial by jury of the issues. Where the parties, by consent, waive a trial by jury, the court shall decide the issues. A party claiming ownership of the property attached and seeking its return is limited to the remedy afforded by this section, but his right to an action of trespass, or other action for damages, is not impaired.

“When the property attached is sold on an interlocutory order or is producing revenue, the money arising from the sale or revenue shall be invested, under the order of the court, in securities of the United States. The accretions therefrom are subject to the order of the court.

“§ 2715. Publication

“The marshal shall cause publication of an executed warrant of attachment—

“(1) for two months in case of an absconding debtor, and

“(2) for four months in case of a nonresident debtor

in a newspaper published in the district where the property is situated pursuant to the details of the order under which the warrant is issued.

“§ 2716. Personal notice

“After the first publication of the notice of attachment, a person indebted to, or having possession of property of a defendant and having knowledge of the notice, shall answer for the amount of his debt or the value of the property. Any disposal or attempted disposal of the property, to the injury of the United States, is unlawful. When the person indebted to, or having possession of the property of a defendant, is known to the United States attorney or marshal, the officer shall cause a personal notice of the attachment to be served upon him, but the lack of the notice does not invalidate the attachment.

“§ 2717. Discharge

“The court, or a judge thereof, upon—

“(1) application of the party when property has been attached and

“(2) execution to the United States of a penal bond, approved by a judge, in double the value of the property attached and conditioned upon the return of the property or the payment of any judgment rendered by the court may discharge the warrant of attachment as to the property of the applicant.

“§ 2718. Interest on balances due department

“In suits for balances due the Post Office Department may recover interest at the rate of 6 per centum per year from the time of default.”

SEC. 10. The analysis of part VI of title 28 United States Code immediately preceding chapter 151 is amended by adding the following:

“173. Attachment in postal suits----- Sec. 2710.”

EFFECTIVE DATE

SEC. 11. This Act takes effect on September 1, 1959. Laws enacted after January 7, 1959, that are inconsistent with this Act shall supersede it to the extent of the inconsistency.

86TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2339

[Report No. 36]

A BILL

To revise, codify, and enact into law, title 39 of the United States Code, entitled "The Postal Service".

By Mr. Celler

JANUARY 15, 1959

Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

FEBRUARY 17, 1959

Reported with amendments, committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, and ordered to be printed asserted a letter and resolution he had received opposing "the recommendations of President Eisenhower for the elimination of Federal aids for vocational education beginning July 1, 1960." pp. 2767-8

.3/2/59

17. ADJOURNED until Thurs., Mar. 5. p. 2834

HOUSE

18. APPROPRIATIONS. Received from the President supplemental appropriation estimates for the fiscal year 1959 (H. Doc. 90); to Appropriations Committee. p. 2856

These estimates provide for Pay Act costs for appropriation items not covered in H. Doc. 58 (See Digest No. 23). Estimates included for the Department of Agriculture provide for Pay Act costs for the following items, to be derived by transfer from the 1959 appropriation for "Conservation reserve program":

Farmer Cooperative Service, $42,000;
Soil Conservation Service (Conservation operations), $6,424,000;
Foreign Agricultural Service, $257,800;
Commodity Exchange Authority, $68,000;
Rural Electrification Administration, $613,000;
Farmers Home Administration, $2,210,500;
Office of General Counsel, $267,500;
Office of the Secretary, $207,505; and Library, $62,600.

In addition, (a) an increase of $330,000 is proposed for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation Fund, in the limitation upon the amount which may be paid from premium income for administrative and operating expenses, and (b) general language is proposed increasing expenditure and transfer limitations to the extent necessary to meet increased pay costs (covering a $77,000 increase for Agricultural Research Service, "Diseases of Animals and Poultry," and a $111,926 increase for Commodity Stabilization Service, "Sugar Act Program").

19. POSTAL SERVICE. Passed as reported H. R. 2339, to revise, codify, and enact into law title 39 of the United States Code entitled "The Postal Service." p. 2837

20. ORANGES. The Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee reported with ^{out} amendment S. 79, to amend the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act to permit the temporary certification of Citrus: Red No. 2 for coloring mature oranges under tolerances found safe by HEW (H. Rept. 88). Later, the bill was recommitted at the request of Rep. Harris to have the bill corrected. pp. 2839; , 2857, D121

21. FARM PROGRAM. Rep. Mathews stated that farmers do not get a fair press, that USDA appropriations are wrongly interpreted as farm subsidies, that subsidies to business and labor are not emphasized, and defended the price support program. pp. 2845-8

Rep. Hoffman, Mich., praised a constituent who, opposed to Federal regulations concerning farm production, is selling his farm and going to Australia. pp. 2854-5

22. FOREIGN TRADE. Rep. Cooley criticized the Administration for alleged restrictions on the barter program under Public Law 480 as Congress planned it, and stated that these restrictions hindered our effective countering of the Soviet economic offensive. pp. 2848-9

23. WATER PLANTS. Received from Interior a report "pertaining to the construction and operation of saline water demonstration plants." p. 2856
24. HOUSING. The Committee on Banking and Currency reported on Feb. 27 with amendment S. 57, "To extend and amend laws relating to the provision and improvement of housing and the renewal of urban communities" (H. Rept. 86). pp. 2856-7
25. BUDGET. Rep. Mack stated that he received numerous letters in favor of "less extravagant spending." p. 2836
26. NATURAL RESOURCES. The Interior and Insular Affairs Committee reported with amendment H. R. 1776 to exempt employees of the National Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission from the Classification Act of 1949 (H. Rept. 87). p. 2857
27. IRRIGATION. The Irrigation and Reclamation Subcommittee of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee ordered reported to the full committee H. R. 1306, to amend section 2 (b) of the Columbia Basin Project Act to provide water for the State College of Washington, and H. R. 4405, to authorize studies on the feasibility of developing the water resources of the Salt Fork of the Red River in Texas. p. D122
28. PUBLICATIONS; LIBRARIES. H. R. 519, relating to the distribution of Government publications to depository libraries, as reported by the House Administration Committee (see Digest No. 30), includes the following provisions:
Provides that each Government agency shall furnish monthly to the Superintendent of Documents a list of publications, except for certain restricted and administrative publications, which it issued during the previous month that were obtained from sources other than the Government Printing Office; permits Representatives to designate additional depository libraries, up to a total of two, within the areas which they serve; requires Government agencies to furnish the Superintendent of Documents a sufficient number of copies of publications it orders from the Public Printer for distribution to depository libraries; requires Government agencies to bear the expense of printing copies for depository libraries of those publications obtained elsewhere than from the Government Printing Office; authorizes heads of executive departments to designate additional depository libraries within departments based on need, not to exceed the number of major bureaus or divisions in the department; and authorizes not to exceed two regional depository libraries in each State to receive copies of all new and revised Government publications authorized for distribution to depository libraries.

ITEMS IN APPENDIX

29. WATER RESOURCES. Sen. Mansfield inserted Sen. Ellender's recent address before the annual meeting of the New York State Waterways Ass'n. pp. A1569-71
30. BUDGET; EXPENDITURES. Sen. Goldwater inserted his recent address, "The Massive Irresponsibility of the Spenders." pp. A1571-2
Extension of remarks of Rep. Arends stating that his constituent's repeatedly emphasize the importance of balancing the budget. p. A1629

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mr. COOLEY. Mr. Speaker, it was not possible for me to be here last Thursday when eulogies were offered for my colleague, SID SIMPSON. I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the permanent RECORD immediately following the remarks of the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. ARENDS].

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?
There was no objection.

REPORT ON H.R. 1011

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce may have until midnight to file a report on the bill H.R. 1011.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?
There was no objection.

CONSENT CALENDAR

ACQUISITION OF ADDITIONAL LAND ALONG MOUNT VERNON MEMORIAL HIGHWAY

The Clerk called the first bill on the Consent Calendar, H.R. 2228, to provide for the acquisition of additional land along the Mount Vernon Memorial Highway in exchange for certain dredging privileges, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the present consideration of the bill?

Mr. SAYLOR. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that this bill be passed over without prejudice.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

There was no objection.

HANDLING OF STUDENT FUNDS IN INDIAN SCHOOLS OPERATED BY THE BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

The Clerk called the bill (H. R. 3648) to regulate the handling of student funds in Indian schools operated by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

There being no objection, the Clerk read the bill, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior may authorize officials or employees of the Bureau of Indian Affairs to accept and to disburse deposits of funds of students and student activity associations in schools operated by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Such deposits shall be accounted for under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

TO REVISE, CODIFY, AND ENACT INTO LAW TITLE 39, UNITED STATES CODE, ENTITLED "THE POSTAL SERVICE"

The Clerk called the bill (H. R. 2339) to revise, codify, and enact into law title

39 of the United States Code entitled "The Postal Service."

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the present consideration of the bill?

Mr. ASPINALL. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object. Last week the members of the objectors' committee on both sides of the aisle had inserted in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a statement as to the rules which the members of the objectors' committee would endeavor to follow in this Congress in the consideration of bills placed on the Consent Calendar. If I read correctly the report of the bill now before the House it perhaps is unfortunate that the report bears certain language which would appeal to cause the legislation to be ineligible for favorable consideration on the Consent Calendar. There appears in the report at page 2, the beginning of the last paragraph, the following statement:

Several of the Departments suggested a number of substantive changes to existing law. Many appear desirable to the Post Office Department. For the most part, however, they are not within the scope of legislation of this nature, but are more properly handled in legislation considered by the legislative committee having jurisdiction of the subject matter.

I would like to ask the gentleman from Louisiana [Mr. WILLIS], if the Committee on the Judiciary made any changes in the substantive law in the measure which they now present to us.

Mr. WILLIS. I would say the policy of the committee is to deliberately avoid making changes in substantive law. In the passage which the gentleman read many changes are recommended, but a number of those changes we had to object to on the very basis of avoidance of making substantive changes. I would say to the gentleman that these bills are not brought out overnight. In some cases it takes years to codify a particular title. All Government agencies, in this instance particularly the Post Office Department, and even the Department of State, where foreign mail is involved, all interested department agencies collaborate in the preparation of these bills. The Bureau of the Budget must approve. The committee, in this instance the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, handling the legislation in point, collaborated with our committee, and the final work is an agreement all the way around to be sure that we try to carry out the very point that the gentleman is inquiring about.

Mr. ASPINALL. As I understand there, there are no real important changes made in the substantive law.

Mr. WILLIS. That is correct.

Mr. ASPINALL. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the present consideration of the bill?

There was no objection.

Mr. WILLIS. Mr. Speaker, in view of its length and, as usual, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be not printed in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentlemen from Louisiana?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the committee amendments, as follows:

Page 52, in the chapter analysis strike out "3555. Reduction in salary step or level." and insert "3555. Reduction in salary step."

Page 102, strike out the catchline and the first sentence of section 3555 reading:

"§ 3555. Reduction in salary step or level

"The Postmaster General may reduce in salary step or salary level an employee whose efficiency falls below a fair standard or whenever it is necessary for purposes of discipline."

and insert:

"§ 3555. Reduction in salary step

"The Postmaster General may reduce in salary step clerks or carriers whose efficiency falls below a fair standard or whenever it is necessary for purposes of discipline."

Page 168, in the first lines of paragraphs (1) and (2) of § 6409, strike out the word "continental."

The purpose of the committee amendments is to insure that the existing law is restated without substantive changes.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

DESIGN OF THE U.S. FLAG

The Clerk called the bill (H.R. 75) providing for the design of the flag of the United States.

There being no objection the Clerk read the bill, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That sections 1 and 2 of title 4, United States Code, are amended to read as follows:

"§ 1. Flag; design

"The flag of the United States shall have thirteen horizontal stripes of the same width, alternate red and white, with a union consisting of as many white stars on a field of blue as there are States in the Union.

"§ 2. Same; additional stars; dimensions

"(a) Whenever a new State is admitted to the Union the President shall cause a plan to be made setting forth the positions of the stars in the union of the flag. He shall also cause to be fixed the proportionate dimensions of the constituent parts of the flag.

"(b) The addition of each new star to the union of the flag shall take effect on the 4th day of July next succeeding the admission of a new State.

"(c) All flags of the United States on hand on the 4th day of July next succeeding the admission of a new State may be continued in use until unserviceable, but all flags manufactured for use after that date should conform to the design and specifications adopted pursuant to this section."

Sec. 2. Items 1 and 2 of the chapter analysis of chapter 1 of title 4 are amended to read as follows:

"Flag; design.

"Same; additional stars; dimensions."

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

DEFINING THE TERM "ORGANIZE" AS USED IN THE SMITH ACT

The Clerk called the bill (H.R. 2369) to amend section 2385, title 18, United States Code, to define the term "organize" as used in that section.

There being no objection the Clerk read the bill, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 2385 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"As used in this section the term 'organize,' with respect to any society, group, or assembly of persons, includes the recruiting of new members, the forming of new units, and the regrouping or expansion of existing clubs, classes, and other units of such society, group, or assembly of persons."

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

EXTENSION OF ESPIONAGE LAWS

The Clerk called the bill (H.R. 1992) to repeal section 791 of title 18 of the United States Code so as to extend the application of chapter 37 of title 18, relating to espionage and censorship.

There being no objection the Clerk read the bill, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 791 of title 18, United States Code, is repealed.

SEC. 2. The analysis of chapter 37 of such title is amended by deleting the following: "791. Scope of chapter."

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

ADDITIONAL PEREMPTORY CHALLENGES IN CIVIL CASES

The Clerk called the bill (H.R. 2978) to amend section 1870 of title 28, United States Code, to authorize the district courts to allow additional peremptory challenges in civil cases to multiple plaintiffs as well as multiple defendants.

Mr. FORD. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I would like to ask a question of a member of the Committee on the Judiciary, this bill having come from that committee. I notice that this legislation, or legislation comparable to it was pocket vetoed by the President a year ago, primarily for the reason that section 2 was added by the other body. In my examination of H.R. 2978 I see no such provision at the present time.

Mr. WILLIS. That is correct. The pocket veto addressed itself to a non-germane section attached to the bill in the other body. That section is not in this bill.

Mr. FORD. This is the bill as it was approved by the House a year or two ago.

Mr. WILLIS. Yes. It is requested by the Department of Justice and approved by the Bureau of the Budget.

Mr. FORD. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

There being no objection, the Clerk read the bill, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 1870 of title 28, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"§ 1870. Challenges

"In civil cases, each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges. Several defendants or several plaintiffs may be considered as a single party for the purposes of making challenges, or the court may allow additional peremptory challenges and permit them to be exercised separately or jointly.

"All challenges for cause or favor, whether to the array or panel or to individual jurors, shall be determined by the court."

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

COLORING MATURE ORANGES

The Clerk called the bill (S. 79) to amend the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act to permit the temporary listing and certification of Citrus Red No. 2 for coloring mature oranges under tolerances found safe by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, so as to permit continuance of established coloring practice in the orange industry pending congressional consideration of general legislation for the listing and certification of food color additives under safe tolerances.

Mr. BOLAND. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that this bill may be passed over without prejudice.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

LIMITATION ON LIEUTENANT GENERALS IN THE MARINE CORPS

The Clerk called the bill (H.R. 3323) to establish a peacetime limitation on the number of lieutenant generals in the Marine Corps.

Mr. GROSS. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I have several questions I should like to ask concerning this bill. First of all, as I understand, this would give the rank of lieutenant general permanently to three officers of the Marine Corps.

Mr. KILDAY. That is correct, but will the gentleman allow me to explain the bill briefly?

Mr. GROSS. Certainly.

Mr. KILDAY. In the first place, in the Officer Personnel Act of August 1947, provision is made for two lieutenant generals in the Marine Corps. That same law, the Officer Personnel Act, contains a provision which suspends the number during periods of national emergency. The national emergency declared incident to Korea is still in effect, and the Marine Corps now has on active duty five lieutenant generals.

After the Officer Personnel Act of 1947 was passed Congress changed the authorized strength of the Marine Corps by which they were limited to two lieutenant generals. The total authorized strength of the Marine Corps was set at 7,000 officers and 100,000 enlisted men. Subsequent to that time the present law fixing the strength of the Marine Corps was passed placing the strength at 400,000. That was after Congress had fixed the number of permanent lieutenant generals at two. The strength of the Marine Corps was increased very materially to consist of not less than three combat divisions and three air wings with a strength not to exceed 400,000, and, importantly, we changed the organization of the Marine Corps to require that they maintain three divisions and three combat wings.

So the bill would make provision for five permanent lieutenant generals. It would not increase the number of lieutenant generals now on duty in the Marine Corps nor, very importantly, would it change the total number of generals in the Marine Corps. These extra three would be charged to the total strength of the Marine Corps.

Mr. GROSS. You would make the three grades of lieutenant general permanent?

Mr. KILDAY. That is correct, it would become permanent. It will increase the permanent lieutenant general strength in the Marine Corps from two to five.

Mr. GROSS. What is the present strength of the Marine Corps? It is about 185,000?

Mr. KILDAY. I think 188,000 or a little less.

Mr. GROSS. In 1942 they had 143,000 approximately?

Mr. KILDAY. Yes.

Mr. GROSS. In 1942 there were 137 colonels and above in the Marine Corps; in 1959 there are 573 colonels and above in the Marine Corps.

Let me ask the gentleman why the number of colonels and generals has increased over three times the total Marine Corps growth?

Mr. KILDAY. First of all, may I say that while I do not have the figures before me as to the strength of the Marine Corps in 1942, for the purpose of this discussion I am willing to accept the figures that the gentleman from Iowa has mentioned.

There are a number of reasons for having more officers in these grades now than even during wartime, primarily because of the action of the Congress of the United States in passing the Officer Personnel Act of 1947. We were attempting at that time to prevent the loss of many highly trained and experienced officers.

We did a number of things to provide for that. The first thing we did was to increase the percentage of star ranks. We increased the percentage of generals and admirals from one-half of 1 percent to three-quarters of 1 percent of the total officer strength. In addition to that, we provided that men who had reached the grades of lieutenant colonel and colonel could remain on active duty for stated periods of 26 and 30 years total service. Those two things are material here.

In addition, there was at that time in the Marine Corps a situation as to colonels that the Commandant of the Marine Corps would not permit anyone

As used in this title—

“Department” means the Post Office Department, continued by section 301 of this title, and the postal field service of the Post Office Department;

“postal field service” or “field postal service” includes all operations and organization units of the Department, other than the departmental operations and organization units in the headquarters offices of the Department at the seat of the Government, and includes postal inspectors assigned to the headquarters offices of the Department at the seat of the Government;

“departmental service” means the administrative headquarters of the Department and its branches as distinguished from the postal field service;

“revenue of the Department” means all funds of the United States, other than trust funds, received by the Department from any source in the exercise of any power or function vested in it, including, but not limited to—

(i) unclaimed money in dead letters for which an owner cannot be found;

(ii) unclaimed money taken from the mail by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which may come into the hands of an agent or employee of the United States or any other person;

(iii) fines, penalties, and forfeitures, imposed for a violation of the postal laws, except such part as may by law belong to the informer or party prosecuting for the same;

(iv) money derived from the sale of wastepaper or other public property of the Department.

§ 2. Application

This title has the same force and effect within Guam as within other possessions of the United States.

CHAPTER 3—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
301.	Post Office Department.
302.	Postmaster General.
303.	Seal.
304.	Deputy Postmaster General.
305.	Assistant Postmaster General.
306.	Advisory board.
307.	General Counsel.
308.	Chief Postal Inspector.
309.	Delegation of authority.

§ 301. Post Office Department

The executive department, known as the Post Office Department, is continued at the seat of the Government.

§ 302. Postmaster General

The head of the Department is a Postmaster General appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Postmaster General is vested with the functions of all subordinate officers and agencies of the Post Office Department. His term is for the term of the President by whom he is appointed, and for one month thereafter.

§ 303. Seal

The seal of the Department, filed by the Postmaster General in the office of the Secretary of State, which shall be judicially noticed, shall be affixed to all commissions of postmasters and other officers of the Department and used to authenticate records of the Department.

§ 304. Deputy Postmaster General

A Deputy Postmaster General, appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall perform such duties as the Postmaster General designates. He shall receive the compensation provided by law for undersecretaries of executive departments.

§ 305. Assistant Postmasters General

Five Assistant Postmasters General appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall perform such duties as the Postmaster General designates. Each shall receive the compensation provided by law for the assistant secretaries of executive departments.

§ 306. Advisory board

The Advisory Board for the Department, of which the Postmaster General is chairman and the Deputy Postmaster General is vice chairman, is continued. The Board has seven additional members, representative of the public, appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The members so appointed shall each receive compensation of $50 per diem when engaged in duties as members of the Board, including travel time to and from their homes or regular places of business, and reasonable subsistence and travel expense as determined by the Postmaster General. The Board shall consider methods and policies for the improvement of the postal service, and shall advise and make recommendations to the Postmaster

General with respect to such methods and policies. It shall meet quarterly in the District of Columbia, or at such other time and place as the Postmaster General determines.

§ 307. General Counsel

The legal officer of the Department is the General Counsel, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

§ 308. Chief Postal Inspector.

The annual rate of basic compensation of the position of Chief Postal Inspector in the Post Office Department is $19,000.

§ 309. Delegation of authority.

The Postmaster General may delegate to any officer, employee, or agency of the Department such of the functions vested by law in him or in any other officer or employee of the Department as he deems appropriate.

CHAPTER 5—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.

501. General duties of the Postmaster General.

502. Bonds.

503. Mail equipment shops.

504. Research and development program.

505. International postal arrangements.

506. International money-order exchanges.

507. Fees for special services.

508. Sale of maps, opinions of General Counsel, and transcripts of hearings.

509. Rewards.

510. Disposal of wastepaper.

§ 501. General duties of the Postmaster General

In addition to his other duties the Postmaster General shall—

- (1) prescribe rules and regulations that he deems necessary to accomplish the objectives of this title;
- (2) instruct all persons in the Department with reference to their duties;
- (3) decide on the forms of all official papers of the Department, except as otherwise provided by law;
- (4) investigate postal offenses and civil matters relating to the Department;
- (5) superintend generally the business of the Department and execute all laws relating to the Department.

§ 502. Bonds

(a) The Postmaster General shall cause postmasters, acting postmasters, and other officers and employees designated by him, to be bonded in accordance with section 14 of title 6 in such sum as he prescribes.

(b) When a new bond is made covering a postmaster, acting postmaster, officer, or employee, payments thereafter made by him may be applied first to discharge balances due from him under the prior bond, if the Postmaster General deems it just.

§ 503. Mail equipment shops

The Postmaster General may maintain a mail equipment shop in the District of Columbia.

§ 504. Research and development program

(a) The Postmaster General shall maintain in the Department a research and development program, including investigations and studies, for the purpose of introducing or improving equipment, supplies, methods, procedures, means, and devices used in the Department in order that its business may be more efficiently and economically operated.

(b) The Postmaster General, pursuant to section 686 of title 31, or other applicable law, may utilize the research and testing facilities of the National Bureau of Standards and procure advice and assistance from any department or independent establishment in the executive branch of the Government.

§ 505. International postal arrangements

(a) For the purpose of making better postal arrangements with other countries, or to counteract their adverse measures affecting our postal intercourse with them, the Postmaster General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, may negotiate and conclude postal treaties or conventions, and may reduce or increase the rates of postage or other charges on mail matter conveyed between the United States and other countries. The decisions of the Postmaster General construing or interpreting the provisions of any treaty or convention which has been or may be negotiated and concluded shall, if approved by the President, be final and conclusive upon all officers of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General shall transmit a copy of each postal convention concluded with other governments to the Secretary of State, who shall furnish a copy of the same to the Public Printer for publication. The Department shall revise the printed proof sheets of all such conventions.

§ 506. International money-order exchanges

The Postmaster General may make arrangements with other governments, with which postal conventions are or may be concluded for the exchange of sums of money by means of postal orders. He shall fix the rates of exchange. A postal order may not exceed $100 in amount.

§ 507. Fees for special services

The Postmaster General may prescribe from time to time the fees which shall be charged by the postal service, and the manner in which they shall be collected, for—

- (1) the registry of mail;
- (2) the insurance of mail, or other indemnification of senders thereof for articles damaged or lost;
- (3) securing a signed receipt upon the delivery of mail and returning such receipt to sender;
- (4) certified mail service;
- (5) collect-on-delivery service;
- (6) special-delivery service;
- (7) special-handling service;
- (8) receipt or certificate showing mailing of registered, insured, certified, collect-on-delivery, and ordinary mail;
- (9) the issue of money orders;
- (10) notice to publishers of undeliverable second class mail, for notice of change of address, and notice to addressee or sender of undeliverable third or fourth class mail, or of undeliverable second class mail mailed at the transient rate.
- (11) for returning undeliverable letters and parcels from the dead letter office to senders.

§ 508. Sale of maps, opinions of General Counsel, and transcripts of hearings

The Postmaster General may sell, at such rates as he determines to be fair and reasonable, but not exceeding the cost thereof—

- (1) post route and rural delivery maps;
- (2) opinions of the General Counsel; and
- (3) transcripts of hearings before the Department.

§ 509. Rewards

The Postmaster General may offer and pay rewards for information and services in connection with violations of the postal laws.

§ 510. Disposal of wastepaper

The Postmaster General, subject to the provisions of sections 366–380 of title 44, may sell as wastepaper or otherwise dispose of the files of papers that are not needed in the transaction of current business and have no permanent value or historical interest.

CHAPTER 7—POST OFFICES

Sec.

- 701. Establishment and discontinuance of post offices.
- 702. Classes of post offices.
- 703. Distributing offices; clerk hire.
- 704. Reimbursement for equipment on discontinuance of office.
- 705. Branch post offices and stations.
- 706. Postal agencies in other countries.
- 707. Hours of service.
- 708. Box rents to be prepaid.
- 709. Arrival and departure of mail.
- 710. Making up mail.
- 711. Method of determining gross receipts.
- 712. Armed Forces postal clerks.

§ 701. Establishment and discontinuance of post offices

(a) The Postmaster General may—

- (1) establish post offices as he deems expedient;
- (2) discontinue post offices when the efficiency of the service requires or revenues are endangered from any cause; and
- (3) consolidate post offices, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The Postmaster General may not discontinue post offices at county seats as a result of a consolidation. This subsection does not apply to—

- (1) Cambridge, Massachusetts; or
- (2) Towson, Maryland; or
- (3) Clayton, St. Louis County, Missouri.

§ 702. Classes of post offices

At the beginning of each fiscal year, the Postmaster General shall divide post offices into four classes on the basis of gross annual postal receipts for the preceding calendar year. He shall place in the first class those post offices at which those receipts are $40,000 or more. He shall place in the second class those post offices at which those receipts are $8,000 or more, but less than $40,000. He shall place in the third class those post offices at which those receipts are $1,500 or more, but less than $8,000. He shall place in the fourth class those offices at which those receipts for each of two consecutive calendar years are less than $1,500, or where in any calendar year those receipts are less than $1,400.

§ 703. Distributing offices; clerk hire

When the Postmaster General designates an office of the fourth class as distributing or separating offices he may make allowances to the postmaster for the necessary cost of clerical services arising from the duties involved.

§ 704. Reimbursement for equipment on discontinuance of office

The Postmaster General shall reimburse, on a fair and equitable basis, the postmaster of any discontinued post office of the first, second or third class for equipment and fixtures that were—

- (1) furnished by the postmaster;
- (2) necessary to the efficient operation of the post office; and
- (3) in use in the post office at the time of discontinuance.

§ 705. Branch post offices and stations

(a) The Postmaster General may establish branch post offices within the delivery limits of a post office for the receipt and delivery of mail, and the performance of other postal functions.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Postmaster General may not establish stations, substations, or branches of a post office beyond the corporate limits or boundaries of a village, town, or city in which the principal office is located.

(c) The Postmaster General may establish stations, substations, or branches of a post office within 10 miles of the outer boundary or limits of a village, town, or city having 1,500 or more inhabitants and in which the principal office is located.

(d) The Postmaster General may establish branch post offices at camps, posts or stations of the Armed Forces and at defense or other strategic installations.

(e) The Postmaster General may establish branch offices, non-accounting offices, or stations of the Honolulu, San Juan, and Charlotte Amalie post offices, respectively, in (1) the Territory of Hawaii, (2) the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and (3) the Virgin Islands. Offices and stations so established shall be conducted under the name of the existing post office so as to maintain the identity of the office concerned.

(f) The Postmaster General may enter into contracts for the conduct of contract stations in accordance with section 2011 of this title.

(g) This section does not apply to rural stations established under authority of section 6005 of this title.

§ 706. Postal agencies in other countries

When in his judgment the efficiency of the international postal service will be thereby promoted, the Postmaster General may establish postal agencies at seaports or airports in other countries at which United States mail steamers or aircraft arrive and receive mails. He may pay the postal agents employed thereat a reasonable compensation for their services, in addition to the necessary expenses for office rent, office furniture, clerk hire, and incidental expenses.

§ 707. Hours of service

(a) The Postmaster General shall require at least one person to be on duty at each post office during such hours of each day as he directs, to perform the functions of the office.

(b) Post offices of the first and second classes shall not be open on Sundays for the purpose of delivering mail, other than special delivery mail.

§ 708. Box rents to be prepaid

(a) Patrons shall pay rent on post office boxes in advance on a quarterly basis.

(b) The Postmaster General may permit patrons to provide lock boxes or drawers for their own use and at their own expense, which shall become the property of the United States subject to the direction and control of the Department. The patrons shall pay the same rent as that charged for similar boxes provided by the Department.

§ 709. Arrival and departure of mail

The Postmaster General shall furnish to the postmasters at the terminals of each route—

(1) a schedule of arrivals and departures of mail at their offices; and

(2) notice of any change in the arrival and departure that may be ordered.

Postmasters shall post the schedules and notices in a conspicuous place in their offices.

§ 710. Making up mail

Letters brought for mailing to a post office half an hour before the time for the next forwarding mail shall be included therein unless, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, more time for making up the mail is required, it may be included in mail to be forwarded not more than one hour thereafter.

§ 711. Method of determining gross receipts

(a) In determining gross receipts at post offices of the fourth class, the Postmaster General shall allow credit only for the postage collected in addition to the regular rate on business reply cards and letters in business reply envelopes delivered at those offices.

(b) The gross receipts do not include money received for—

(1) setting meters for patrons beyond the area served by his office unless authorized by the Department;

(2) stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards sold in large or unusual quantities to be used in mailing matter at other offices; and

(3) stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards sold for mailing matter diverted from other offices, and mailings of matter so diverted without stamps affixed.

(c) The part of the gross postal receipts of a post office, that are determined in accordance with estimates of the Postmaster General to be attributable to the increases in postage rates provided by Public Law 85-426, may not be counted for the purpose of determining the classes of the respective post offices and the compensation and allowances of postmasters and other employees whose compensation or allowances are based on the annual gross receipts of such post offices. This section does not operate to relegate a post office to a class or receipts category below the class or receipts category to which it may be assigned on the basis of gross postal receipts accruing during the last complete calendar year prior to May 27, 1958, or, in the case of a post office which was in existence on that date but which was not in existence during the whole of that calendar year, on the basis of gross postal receipts accruing during the last quarter prior to May 27, 1958.

§ 712. Armed Forces postal clerks

(a) Upon selection by the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, the Postmaster General may designate Armed Forces postal clerks, and assistant Armed Forces postal clerks from enlisted personnel of the—

(1) Army of the United States;

(2) United States Navy;

(3) Air Force of the United States;

(4) United States Marine Corps; and

(5) United States Coast Guard,

including their reserve components.

(b) Armed Forces postal clerks and assistant Armed Forces postal clerks designated under authority of subsection (a) of this section shall—

(1) receive and open all pouches and sacks of mail addressed to the post offices, stations, vessels and installations of the organizations listed in subsection (a) of this section;

(2) make delivery of the mail;

(3) receive matter for transmission in the mail;

(4) receipt for registered mail;

(5) sell postage stamps;

(6) make up and dispatch mail; and

(7) perform any other postal duties that may be authorized by the Postmaster General in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the appropriate authority of the organizations listed in subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Each clerk or assistant clerk appointed under authority of this section shall—

(1) take the oath of office prescribed for members of the field postal service;

(2) be covered by a bond in such penal sum as the Postmaster General deems sufficient for the faithful performance of his duties as postal clerk or assistant postal clerk, unless bonding is waived by the Secretary of the Department concerned; and

(3) be amenable in all respects to the discipline of their respective services, except as provided in subsection (d) of this section.

(d) The commanding officer having jurisdiction over a post office, station, vessel, or installation where Armed Forces postal clerks or assistant Armed Forces postal clerks are stationed shall require them to be governed by the postal laws and the postal regulations. Whenever he deems it necessary a commanding officer may require any assistant Armed Forces postal clerk to perform the duties of an Armed Forces postal clerk.

(e) The Secretary of the Department concerned may terminate any bond covering any Armed Forces postal clerk or assistant Armed Forces postal clerk without affecting the liability of any person or surety thereunder for losses or shortages occurring prior to such termination.

(f) The Departments of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Treasury shall reimburse the Post Office Department annually in an amount of money equal to—

(1) funds and the value of other accountable postal stock embezzled by, or lost through the negligence, errors, or defalcations on the part of—

(A) unbonded Armed Forces postal clerks or assistant Armed Forces postal clerks or persons acting in that capacity; or

(B) commissioned or warrant officers of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard who have been designated custodians of postal effects by the appropriate commanding officer.

(2) funds expended by the Post Office Department in payment of claims arising through negligence, errors, losses, or defalcations by persons listed in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(g) The Secretaries of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Treasury shall take action to recover from the persons responsible for the losses or shortages the amounts paid under the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 9—PRIVATE CARRIAGE OF LETTERS

Sec.

901. Letters carried out of the mail.

902. Foreign letters out of the mails.

903. Searches authorized.

904. Seizing and detaining letters.

905. Searching vessels for letters.

906. Disposition of seized mail.

§ 901. Letters carried out of the mail

(a) A letter may be carried out of the mails when—

(1) it is enclosed in an envelope;

(2) the amount of postage which would have been charged on the letter if it had been sent by mail is paid by stamps, or postage meter stamps, on the envelope;

(3) the envelope is properly addressed;

(4) the envelope is so sealed that the letter cannot be taken from it without defacing the envelope;

(5) any stamps on the envelope are canceled in ink by the sender; and

(6) the date of the letter, of its transmission or receipt by the carrier is endorsed on the envelope in ink.

(b) The Postmaster General may suspend the operation of any part of this section upon any mail route where the public interest requires the suspension.

§ 902. Foreign letters out of the mails

(a) Except as provided in section 901 of this title the master of a vessel departing from the United States for foreign ports may not receive on board or transport any letter which originated in the United States that—

- (1) has not been regularly received from a United States post office; or
- (2) does not relate to the cargo of the vessel.

(b) The officer of the port empowered to grant clearances, shall require from the master of such a vessel, as a condition of clearance, an oath that he does not have under his care or control, and will not receive or transport, any letter contrary to the provisions of this section.

(c) Except as provided in section 1699 of title 18, the master of a vessel arriving at a port of the United States carrying letters not regularly in the mails shall deposit them in the Post Office at the port of arrival.

§ 903. Searches authorized

The Postmaster General, by letter of authority filed in the Department, may authorize any postal inspector or other officer of the Department to make searches for mailable matter transported in violation of law. When the authorized officer has reason to believe that mailable matter transported contrary to law may be found therein, he may open and search any—

- (1) vehicle passing, or having lately passed, from a place at which there is a post office of the United States;
- (2) article being, or having lately been, in the vehicle;
- (3) store or office, other than a dwelling house, used or occupied by a common carrier or transportation company, in which an article may be contained.

§ 904. Seizing and detaining letters

A postal inspector, customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputy, may seize at any time, letters and bags, packets or parcels containing letters which are being carried contrary to law on board any vessel or on any post road. The officer who makes the seizure shall convey the articles seized to the nearest post office; or by direction of the Postmaster General or the Secretary of the Treasury, he may detain them until two months after the final determination of all suits and proceedings which may be brought within six months after the seizure against any person for sending or carrying the letters.

§ 905. Searching vessels for letters

A postal inspector when instructed by the Postmaster General to make examinations and seizures and any customs officer without special instructions shall search vessels for letters which may be on board, or which may have been conveyed contrary to law.

§ 906. Disposition of seized mail

Every package or parcel seized by a postal inspector, customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputies, in which a letter is unlawfully concealed, shall be forfeited to the United States. The same proceedings may be used to enforce forfeitures as are authorized in respect of goods, wares, and merchandise forfeited for violation of the revenue laws. Laws for the benefit and protection of customs officers making seizures for violating revenue laws apply to officers making seizures for violating the postal laws.

CHAPTER 21—CONTRACTS

Sec.
2001.	Purchase or rental of equipment and supplies.
2002.	Bonds and contracts.
2003.	Purchase of supplies.
2004.	Contracts for envelopes and other supplies.
2005.	Contracts for money order supplies.
2006.	Contracts for rental of equipment and services.
2007.	Purchase of motor-truck parts.
2008.	Hire of vehicles from employees.
2009.	Contracts for delivery of special delivery mail.
2010.	No postal material or supplies manufactured by convict labor.
2011.	Contracts for postal stations.

§ 2001. Purchase or rental of equipment and supplies

The Postmaster General may provide by purchase, rental, or otherwise, necessary equipment and supplies to carry out the provisions of this title.

§ 2002. Bonds and contracts

Bonds taken and contracts entered into by the Department shall be in the name of the United States of America.

§ 2003. Purchase of supplies

(a) The Postmaster General, in making purchases for equipment and supplies necessary for the Department, shall advertise as provided by law and award contracts therefor to the lowest responsible bidder. He shall solicit separate proposals and make separate contracts for each class furnished.

(b) The Postmaster General shall record an abstract of all bids for furnishing supplies to the Department, stating the

- (1) name of the party bidding;
- (2) terms of the offer; and
- (3) sum to be paid.

He shall keep on file and preserve all bids until the end of the contract term to which they relate. These records shall be open at all times for inspection by Congress, and by those who are interested in the contracts.

(c) The Postmaster General shall permit each bidder to be present, either in person or by attorney, when the bids are opened, and to examine all bids.

§ 2004. Contracts for envelopes and other supplies

(a) The Postmaster General may contract, for a period not to exceed four years, for—

- (1) stamped envelopes for sale to the public;
- (2) envelopes for use by the executive departments and agencies, subject to applicable regulations under section 481 of title 40;
- (3) postal cards and stamps;
- (4) miscellaneous equipment and supplies for the Field Postal Service; and
- (5) printing of post-route maps.

(b) When the Postmaster General determines the interests of the Department require it, all adhesive stamps prescribed by him may be manufactured by the Department of the Treasury, in conformity with an agreement satisfactory to both the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 2005. Contracts for money order supplies

Except when he procures them from the Government Printing Office, the Postmaster General shall obtain money order supplies in accordance with the provisions of section 5 of title 41. He shall solicit separate proposals for each item. He shall enter into contracts for a period of not more than four years containing such conditions as he may prescribe.

§ 2006. Contracts for rental of equipment and services

(a) The Postmaster General, after advertising, may enter into contracts for a period of not more than four years for—

- (1) the rental of canceling machines;
- (2) the hire of vehicles for the City Delivery Service;
- (3) collection service by means of boxes attached to street cars; and
- (4) the operation of the Detroit River Postal Service.

(b) The Postmaster General may not pay more than $270 a year for the rental and repairs of each canceling machine.

§ 2007. Purchase of motor-truck parts

The Postmaster General may make agreements without advertising with motor vehicle manufacturers for the purchase of parts for non-passenger motor vehicles under such arrangement as he deems most advantageous to the Government at prices not in excess of the manufacturer's list price less regular discounts.

§ 2008. Hire of vehicles from employees.

The Postmaster General may hire, by contract or on an allowance basis, vehicles from postal employees, other than supervisors, for use in the city and village delivery, including special delivery services, and for the collection of mail.

§ 2009. Contracts for delivery of special delivery mail

The Postmaster General, when he deems it expedient, may contract for the immediate delivery of all special delivery mail from any post office at any price less than eight cents per piece.

§ 2010. No postal material or supplies manufactured by convict labor

Except as provided in chapter 307 of title 18, the Postmaster General may not make a contract for the purchase of equipment or supplies to be manufactured by convict labor.

§ 2011. Contracts for postal stations

The Postmaster General may enter into contracts for the conduct of contract stations for a term not exceeding three years. He may renew contracts at the same or lower contract price, for additional terms not exceeding three years unless

- (1) he finds that the renewal is not in the interest of the United States, or
- (2) not later than ninety days before the end of a contract term the Department receives a request in writing that the contract be opened for competitive bidding at the end of the term.

Upon such a finding by him, or upon receipt of such a request, the Postmaster General shall terminate the contract, with respect to which the finding has been made or the request has been received, at the end of the current term and shall advertise for bids thereon in accordance with the existing laws relating to the advertising of public contracts and the award thereof on the basis of competitive bidding.

CHAPTER 23—PROPERTY

Sec.

2101. Gifts, donations of services and property.

2102. Leases.

2103. Additional leasing authority.

2104. Space procurement by lease-purchase agreements.

2105. Development of existing sites and property.

2106. Use of rental funds.

2107. Congressional approval.

2108. Lease-purchase agreement provisions.

2109. Time limitations on agreements.

2112. Advertisement.

2113. Receipts from disposal of property.

2114. Nonapplicability of statutes.

2115. Purpose.

2116. Annual report.

§ 2101. Gifts, donations of services and property

The Postmaster General may accept gifts and donations of services and property in aid of the activities of the Department.

§ 2102. Leases

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law the Postmaster General may lease, on such terms as he deems appropriate, real property necessary in the conduct of the affairs of the Department.

(b) The term of a lease may not exceed twenty years when made for quarters—

- (1) for post offices of the first, second and third classes;
- (2) for terminal railway post offices; and
- (3) at public airports.

(c) The Postmaster General may rent quarters for postal purposes without entering into a formal written contract where the amount of the rental does not exceed $1,000 per annum.

(d) When a leased building or part thereof becomes unfit for use for the purpose rented, the Postmaster General may not pay rent until it is put in satisfactory condition by the lessor, or at his option he may cancel the lease.

§ 2103. Additional leasing authority

(a) In addition to the authority vested in him by section 2102 of this title the Postmaster General may—

(1) negotiate and enter into lease agreements which do not bind the Government for periods exceeding thirty years, on such terms as the Postmaster General deems to be in the best interests of the United States, for the erection by the lessor of the buildings and improvements for postal purposes as the Postmaster General deems appropriate, on lands sold, leased, or otherwise disposed of by the Postmaster General to, or otherwise acquired by, the lessor;

(2) for the purposes of paragraph (1) of this subsection, and without regard to sections 630–630h of title 5, sections 471–475, 481, 483–492, and 511–514 of title 40, sections 5, 153, and 251–255, 257–260 of title 41, sections 391–401 of title 44, and section 1622 of title 50, appendix—

(A) acquire by purchase, condemnation, lease, donation, or otherwise, and on such terms as he deems appropriate to the best interests of the United States, real property and interests therein, for use for postal purposes; and

(B) dispose of real property, and interests therein, acquired for use or used for postal purposes by sale, lease, or otherwise, on such terms as he deems appropriate to the best interests of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may not, for the purpose of this section, dispose of (1) any Government-owned property, or interests therein, acquired pursuant to section 352 of title 40 or (2) any Government-owned property, or interests therein, acquired pursuant to law prior to July 22, 1954, on which there has been constructed a building to be used for postal purposes and which is presently being used for those purposes.

(c) Funds available to the Department for the payment of rents may be utilized by the Postmaster General for the purposes of this section.

§ 2104. Space procurement by lease-purchase agreements

Whenever the Postmaster General determines that—

(1) there is a substantial need for space for postal purposes in any particular area which cannot be satisfied by utilization of any existing property suitable for the purpose then owned by the Government,

(2) the receipts of the post office serving the area exceed $10,000 per year, and

(3) the best interests of the United States will be served by taking action hereunder,

he may obtain and provide space for postal purposes in suitable structures of permanent-type construction in the several States, the District of Columbia, and the Territories and possessions of the United States by negotiating and entering into lease-purchase agreements, the terms of which may not be less than ten nor more than twenty-five years and which shall provide in each case that title to the property shall vest in the United States at or before the expiration of the leasehold term and upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions stipulated in each lease-purchase agreement. The terms and conditions shall provide for the application to the purchase price agreed upon therein of rental payments made thereunder. The payments under an agreement may include amounts for the amortization of the fair market value on the date of the agreement of the property described therein. The financial transactions of the Department with respect to lease-purchase agreements are subject to the accounting and auditing requirements of sections 2202, 2206-2208, and 2211 of this title.

§ 2105. Development of existing sites and property

(a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the Postmaster General may exercise the powers granted in section 2104 of this title with respect to existing properties, including those for which conversions, additions, extensions, or remodeling may be required, and properties upon which construction is to be subsequently effected in pursuance of the terms of applicable lease-purchase agreements.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the Postmaster General may—

(1) enter into agreements to effectuate any of the purposes of this section, and

(2) bring about the development and improvement of any land purchased by the United States for postal purposes, including the demolition of obsolete and outmoded structures situate thereon, by providing for the construction thereon by others of such structures and facilities as are the subject of the applicable lease-purchase agreement.

(c) This section does not authorize the Postmaster General to enter into lease-purchase agreements with respect to any site owned by the Government which was acquired pursuant to law prior to July 22, 1954, on which there has been constructed a building to be used for postal purposes and which was being used for those purposes on July 22, 1954.

§ 2106. Use of rental funds

The Postmaster General may use funds available to the Department for the payment of rents to make payments becoming due from time to time from the United States in pursuance of lease-purchase agreements entered into under the authority of sections 2104 and 2105 of this title. He may not expend the funds for acquisition of title to the property covered by any lease-purchase agreement prior to the expiration of the leasehold term specified therein, whether by exercise of option to purchase or otherwise, in the absence of specific appropriation of funds for the acquisition.

Appropriations for acquisition purposes are hereby authorized.

§ 2107. Congressional approval

Appropriations may not be made for lease-purchase projects which have not been approved by resolutions adopted by the Committees on Public Works of the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, before July 22, 1957. For the purpose of securing consideration of the approval the Postmaster General shall transmit to those Committees a prospectus of the proposed project, including, but not limited to—

(1) a brief description of the building located or to be erected at a given location;

(2) an estimate of the maximum cost of site and building together with the term of years over which payments would run and the maximum rate of interest that would be acceptable for any deferred part of the cost;

(3) a certificate of need for the space signed by the head of the agency which will use the facility;

(4) a statement by the Postmaster General that suitable space owned by the Government is not available and that suitable rental space is not available at a price commensurate with that to be afforded through the contract proposed:

(5) a statement of the managerial, custodial, heat and utility services to be provided by the contractor, or an estimate of their probable cost if to be supplied in any part by the Government:

(6) a statement of the requirements for tax liability, upkeep and maintenance of the property by either the contractor or the Government during the period of the contract;

(7) a statement of rents and other housing costs currently being paid by the Government for any agencies to be housed in the building to be erected; and

(8) a statement in writing by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget that the project is necessary and in conformity with the policy of the President. The statement by the Director shall be based on budgetary and related considerations and does not constitute approval by the Director of the specific terms or provisions of any proposed agreement or of the selection of any particular contractor or lessor.

§ 2108. Lease-purchase agreement provisions

(a) Each lease-purchase agreement shall include such provisions as the Postmaster General deems to be in the best interest of the United States and appropriate to secure the performance of the obligations imposed upon the party that enters into an agreement with the United States. The agreement may not provide for any payment to be made by the United States in excess of the amount necessary, as determined by the Postmaster General, to—

(1) amortize—

(A) the cost of improvements to be constructed plus the fair market value, on the date of the agreement, of the site, if owned or acquired by the contractor, or

(B) the fair market value, on the date of the agreement, of completed improvements together with the site thereof, or

(C) a combination of the foregoing in the case of existing improvements to be remodeled by the contractor; and

(2) provide a reasonable rate of interest on the outstanding principal as determined under item (1) of this subsection, and

(3) reimburse the contractor for the cost of any other obligations assumed by him under the contract, including, but not limited to, payment of taxes, costs of carrying appropriate insurance, and costs of repair and maintenance if assumed by the contractor.

(b) Each lease-purchase agreement entered into pursuant to sections 2104 and 2105 of this title shall provide for equal annual payments for the amortization of principal with interest thereon. The Postmaster General may not enter into the contract unless the amount of the annual payment required by it plus the aggregate of the annual payments required by all other lease-purchase agreements entered into during the same fiscal year do not exceed the specific limitations on the payments which are provided in appropriation acts.

§ 2109. Time limitations on agreements

Agreements may not be entered into under sections 2103–2105 of this title after July 22, 1964.

§ 2110. Taxes and rental adjustments

(a) An interest in real property acquired under the provisions of sections 2104 and 2105 of this title, is subject to State and local taxes until title passes to the Government of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may, at the time he enters into a lease-purchase or lease agreement under authority of sections 2103–2105 of this title, include a provision for adjustment of the rental paid to a lessor to compensate for an increase or decrease in taxes on the leased property.

§ 2111. Property title

(a) The Postmaster General shall take title, on behalf of the United States, to all real property purchased by him under authority of sections 2103–2105 of this title.

(b) Section 175 of title 50 applies to the acquisition in fee simple of real property under sections 2103–2105 of this title, except that a lease-purchase agreement to acquire real property under sections 2104 and 2105 of this title may be entered into and placed in effect after request for but prior to receipt of an opinion of the Attorney General with respect to the validity of title to the real property described therein.

§ 2112. Advertisement

Section 5 of title 41 applies—

(1) to the acquisition of real property by lease-purchase agreements, under authority of sections 2104 and 2105 of this title, and

(2) to the lease agreements entered into under authority of item (1) of section 2103 (a) of this title.

§ 2113. Receipts from disposal of property

(a) Amounts received by the Government from disposals of property acquired under authority of sections 2103–2116 of this title in the performance by the Postmaster General of the functions vested in him by sections 2103–2116 of this title shall be credited to the current applicable appropriation of the Department and shall be available for expenditure for the purposes of sections 2103–2116 of this title. Any amount received by the Postmaster General from the sale of such property, under authority of sections 2103–2116 of this title, which exceeds the amount paid therefor from the appropriations for the Department, shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(b) Amounts received by the Postmaster General from the disposal of real property acquired by the Government under authority of the Public Buildings Act of May 25, 1926 (44 Stat. 630), as amended, and the Public Buildings Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 176), as amended, which may be transferred to the Postmaster General, shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of sections 303b, 345, or 485 of title 40, whichever section may be applicable.

§ 2114. Nonapplicability of statutes

Sections 34 and 259 of title 40, and sections 12 and 14 of title 41, and any other provision of law, except applicable labor standards provisions, relating to the acquisition or disposal of real property, construction of buildings, or leasing of space, do not apply to any of the functions performed by the Postmaster General in effectuating the purposes of sections 2103–2116 of this title, except as provided by sections 2111 and 2112 of this title.

Sections 2103–2116 of this title supplement other provisions of law for the leasing of space for postal purposes by providing authorization for the acquisition by the Postmaster General of space through the execution of lease-purchase and other agreements under which the United States will obtain immediate use of the space and will make periodic payments, and in the case of lease-purchase agreements will obtain title to the property described therein at or prior to the end of the term prescribed therein. Sections 2104–2108 of this title do not constitute a substitute for or a replacement of any program for the construction by the United States of such structures as may be required from time to time by the postal service.

§ 2116. Annual report

The Postmaster General shall include in his annual report an account of transactions conducted during the applicable year pursuant to the provisions of sections 2103–2105 of this title.

POSTAL MODERNIZATION FUND

- 2231. Establishment of fund.
- 2232. Appropriations to fund.
- 2233. Expenditures from fund.
- 2234. Management of fund.

§ 2201. Appropriation for the Department

Congress shall appropriate the revenue of the Department, not otherwise obligated by law, to the extent necessary for the operation of the Department.

§ 2202. Post Office Department fund

(a) The Secretary of the Treasury shall maintain a revolving fund, known as the Post Office Department fund. He shall deposit in the fund, subject to withdrawal by check by the Postmaster General—

(1) amounts requisitioned by the Postmaster General against appropriations available to the Department out of the general fund of the Treasury; and

(2) amounts from the revenue of the Department, including any excess of funds accrued because of money orders remaining unpaid, that the Postmaster General may pay into the fund.

(b) The Postmaster General may, within limits of appropriations and subject to provisions of appropriation or other laws limiting expenditures or authorizing appropriations, use the funds of the Department, from whatever source derived, in the exercise of any power or function vested in him.

(c) The Postmaster General may use any appropriation of the Department for the payment of expenses for attendance at meetings of technical, scientific, professional, or similar organizations concerned with the function or activity for which the appropriation is made.

§ 2203. Reimbursement of appropriations

(a) Collections resulting from damage to Government-owned vehicles operated by the Department shall be credited by the Postmaster General to applicable appropriations and shall be available for meeting repair cost of damaged vehicles.

(b) Collections from the sale of leather, metal, canvas cuttings and old canvas resulting from the manufacture and repair of mail bags and locks shall be credited by the Postmaster General to applicable appropriations and shall be available for meeting the cost of the manufacture and repair.

§ 2204. Charges against postal revenues

(a) The Postmaster General shall pay indemnities for the loss of or damage to registered, insured and collect-on-delivery mail, and the expense of manufacturing embossed stamped envelopes, printed or unprinted, from postal revenue.

(b) The Postmaster General shall pay money orders from the receipts representing the face value of money orders issued.

§ 2205. Date of orders, entries, contracts

An officer or employee who—

(1) makes an order, entry or memorandum on which an action is to be based, allowance made, or money paid; or

(2) enters into a contract or other obligation on behalf of the Department; or

(3) files or receives on behalf of the Department any paper relating to contracts or allowances shall indicate thereon the date of the action.

§ 2206. Audit by General Accounting Office

The General Accounting Office shall audit the financial transactions of the Department in accordance with such principles and procedures and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller General. To the fullest extent practicable, as determined by the Comptroller General, all accounts of accountable officers, contracts, vouchers, or other documents that are required by law to be submitted to the General Accounting Office shall be retained in the Department and the audit shall be conducted at the places where the accounts of the Department are normally kept in accordance with the determinations of the Postmaster General. The representatives of the General Accounting Office shall have access to all books, accounts, financial records, reports, files, and other papers, or property belonging to or in use by the Department and necessary to facilitate the audit, and shall have full facilities for verifying transactions with the balances or securities held by depositaries, fiscal agents, and custodians. In the termination of the auditing procedures to be followed and the extent of the examination of vouchers and other documents, the Comptroller General shall give due regard to the adequacy of the system of accounts and internal control maintained by the Department and to generally accepted principles of auditing.

§ 2207. Administrative accounting

(a) The Postmaster General shall perform all functions relating to the Department with respect to--

- (1) the maintenance of administrative appropriation and fund accounts;
- (2) accounts receivable and payable;
- (3) allotment controls;
- (4) the preparation of financial and statistical reports;
- (5) the preaudit of expenses; and
- (6) related administrative, accounting, and reporting functions.

(b) The Postmaster General shall provide for such preaudit of expenses as he deems necessary.

§ 2208. System of accounting and control

(a) The Postmaster General shall establish and maintain a system of accounting conforming to accounting principles and standards prescribed by the Comptroller General, and a system of internal control providing for—

- (1) adequate accounting and internal control, including appropriate provisions for internal audit over and accountability for all funds, property and other assets for which the Department is responsible;
- (2) assembling of financial information needed for management purposes; and
- (3) full disclosure of the financial results of the operations of the Department.

(b) Officers and employees of the Department shall render accounts required by the Postmaster General in such form and with such certificate as he prescribes.

(c) The Comptroller General shall cooperate with the Postmaster General in the establishment of the accounting system provided for by subsection (a) of this section and shall approve the system when he deems it to be in conformity with the accounting principles and standards prescribed by him under such subsection.

§ 2209. Responsibility of postmasters

(a) A postmaster is responsible for—

- (1) the due performance of the duties including the collection of the revenue of the post office; and
- (2) the safekeeping of all monies, accountable paper, and other property of the post office, or coming into the custody of the office.

(b) Postmasters shall keep all money collected at a post office, or which may come into the custody of a post office, without—

- (1) loaning;
- (2) using;
- (3) depositing in an unauthorized bank; or
- (4) exchanging for other funds;

until it is required, by order or regulation of the Postmaster General, to be transferred or paid out.

(c) A postmaster at an office in a city or town where there is no designated depository may make temporary deposits of money in his custody, in a national bank or State bank—

- (1) in the State where the postmaster resides; or
- (2) in the State in which the post office is located; or
- (3) within a reasonable radius of his post office in an adjacent State.

The postmaster shall make the deposits in his official capacity and at his own risk. Interest may not be paid or received on a deposit made in accordance with this subsection.

(d) Except when an acting postmaster has been appointed under section 3315 (c) of this title a postmaster shall be responsible for acts of—

- (1) persons acting in his place during his absence; and
- (2) assistants and other employees in the post office, its branches and stations.

§ 2210. Withholding compensation of postmasters

When the Postmaster General is satisfied that a postmaster has made a false statement of account, he may withhold compensation on the account and allow such compensation as he deems proper under the circumstances.

§ 2211. Administrative examination of accounts

The Postmaster General shall designate the places where the Department will conduct administrative examination of the accounts of its officers and employees. With the concurrence of the Comptroller General, the Postmaster General may waive administrative examination, in whole or in part, when it is determined that the other accounting and audit procedures of the Department adequately protect the interests of the United States.

§ 2212. Continuance of disbursing officer's accounts and issuance of checks

(a) In case of the death, resignation, or separation from office of the disbursing officer for the Post Office Department his accounts may be continued and payments made in his name by the assistant disbursing officers designated by the Postmaster General or designated by any official of the Post Office Department authorized by the Postmaster General to make such a designation, for a period of time not to extend beyond the last day of the second month following the month in which the death, resignation or separation occurs. The accounts and payments shall be allowed, audited, and settled and the checks signed in the name of the former disbursing officer for the Post Office Department shall be honored in the same manner as if the former disbursing officer for the Post Office Department had continued in office.

(b) A former disbursing officer for the Post Office Department, his estate, or the surety on his official bond, is not subject to legal liability or penalty for the official accounts and defaults of the assistant disbursing officers acting in the name or in the place of the former disbursing officer, but the assistant disbursing officers and their sureties are responsible therefor.

POSTAL MODERNIZATION FUND

§ 2231. Establishment of Fund

There is established in the Treasury of the United States a fund to be known as the "Postal Modernization Fund".

§ 2232. Appropriations to Fund

There are authorized to be appropriated and paid into the Fund such sums as may be necessary during each fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1959 and ending with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1961, to carry out the purposes of section 2233 of this title.

§ 2233. Expenditure from Fund

Moneys paid into the Fund, together with any income thereof under section 2234 (b) of this title or otherwise, shall be available until expended for obligation by the Postmaster General for the purpose of conducting research, either directly or through private or other organizations, and for the purpose of developing, acquiring, and placing into operation improved equipment and facilities for the performance of the postal function.

§ 2234. Management of Fund

(a) The Secretary of the Treasury shall hold the Fund, and after consultation with the Postmaster General report to the Congress not later than the first day of January of each year on the financial condition of the Fund as of the end of the next preceding fiscal year.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury shall invest such portion of the Fund as is not, in his judgment, after consultation with the Postmaster General, required to meet current withdrawals. Investments may be made only in interest-bearing obligations of the United States or in obligations guaranteed as to both principal and interest by the United States.

REPORTS

2331. Cost Ascertainment.

2332. Postal Modernization Fund.

§ 2301. Findings of the Congress

The Congress hereby finds that—

(1) the postal establishment was created to unite more closely the American people, to promote the general welfare, and to advance the national economy;

(2) the postal establishment has been extended and enlarged through the years into a nationwide network of services and facilities for the communication of intelligence, the dissemination of information, the advancement of education and culture, and the distribution of articles of commerce and industry. Furthermore, the Congress has encouraged the use of these broadening services and facilities through reasonable and, in many cases, special postal rates;

(3) the development and expansion of these several elements of postal service, under authorization by the Congress, have been the impelling force in the origin and growth of many and varied business, commercial, and industrial enterprises which contribute materially to the national economy and the public welfare and which depend upon the continuance of these elements of postal service;

(4) historically and as a matter of public policy there have evolved, in the operations of the postal establishment authorized by the Congress, certain recognized and accepted relationships among the several classes of mail. It is clear, from the continued expansion of the postal service and from the continued encouragement by the Congress of the most widespread use thereof, that the postal establishment performs many functions and offers its facilities to many users on a basis which can only be justified as being in the interest of the national welfare;

(5) while the postal establishment, as all other Government agencies, should be operated in an efficient manner, it clearly is not a business enterprise conducted for profit or for raising general funds, and it would be an unfair burden upon any particular user or class of users of the mails to compel them to bear the expenses incurred by reason of special rate considerations granted or facilities provided to other users of the mails, or to underwrite those expenses incurred by the postal establishment for services of a nonpostal nature; and

(6) the public interest and the increasing complexity of the social and economic fabric of the Nation require an immediate, clear, and affirmative declaration of congressional policy with respect to the activities of the postal establishment including those of a public service nature as the basis for the creation and maintenance of a sound and equitable postal-rate structure which will assure efficient service, produce adequate postal revenues, and stand the test of time.

§ 2302. Declaration of policy

(a) The Congress hereby emphasizes, reaffirms, and restates its function under the Constitution of the United States of forming postal policy.

(b) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Congress, as set forth in sections 2301-2305 of this title—

(1) that the post office is a public service;

(2) to provide a more stable basis for the postal-rate structure through the establishment of general principles, standards, and related requirements with respect to the determination and allocation of postal revenues and expenses; and

(3) in accordance with these general principles, standards, and related requirements, to provide a means by which the postal-rate structure may be fixed and adjusted by action of the Congress, from time to time, as the public interest may require, in the light of periodic reviews of the postal-rate structure, periodic studies and surveys of expenses and revenues, and periodic reports, required to be made by the Postmaster General as provided by section 2304 of this title.

(c) The general principles, standards, and related requirements referred to in subsection (b) of this section are as follows:

(1) In the determination and adjustment of the postal-rate structure, due consideration should be given to—

(A) the preservation of the inherent advantages of the postal service in the promotion of social, cultural, intellectual, and commercial intercourse among the people of the United States;

(B) the development and maintenance of a postal service adapted to the present needs, and adaptable to the future needs, of the people of the United States;

(C) the promotion of adequate, economical, and efficient postal service at reasonable and equitable rates and fees;

(D) the effect of postal services and the impact of postal rates and fees on users of the mails;

(E) the requirements of the postal establishment with respect to the manner and form of preparation and presentation of mailings by the users of the various classes of mail service;

(F) the value of mail;

(G) the value of time of delivery of mail; and

(H) the quality and character of the service rendered in terms of priority, secrecy, security, speed of transmission, use of facilities and manpower, and other pertinent service factors.

(2) The acceptance, transportation, and delivery of first class mail constitutes a preferred service of the postal establishment and, therefore, the postage for first class mail should be sufficient to cover (A) the entire amount of the expenses allocated to first class mail in accordance with sections 2301–2305 of this title and (B) an additional amount representing the fair value of all extraordinary and preferential services, facilities, and factors relating thereto.

(3) Those services, elements of service, and facilities rendered and provided by the postal establishment in accordance with law, including services having public service aspects, which, in whole or in part, are held and considered by the Congress from time to time to be public services for the purposes of sections 2301–2305 of this title shall be administered on the following basis:

(A) the sum of such public service items as determined by the Congress should be assumed directly by the Federal Government and paid directly out of the general fund of the Treasury and should not constitute direct charges in the form of rates and fees upon any user or class of users of such public services, or of the mails generally; and

(B) nothing contained in any provision of section 2301–2305 of this title should be construed as indicating any intention on the part of the Congress (i) that such public services, or any of them, should be limited or restricted or (ii) to derogate in any way from the need and desirability thereof in the public interest.

(4) Postal rates and fees shall be adjusted from time to time as may be required to produce the amount of revenue approximately equal to the total cost of operating the postal establishment less the amount deemed to be attributable to the performance of public services under section 2303 (b) of this title.

§ 2303. Identification of and appropriations for public services

(a) The following shall be considered to be public services for the purposes of sections 2301–2305 of this title—

(1) the total loss resulting from the transmission of matter in the mails free of postage or at reduced rates of postage as provided by statute, including the following:

(A) reduced rates for certain publications as provided by sections 4359 and 4360 of this title;

(B) penalty mailings of the Pan American Union and the Pan American Sanitary Bureau as provided by section 4152 (a) of this title;

(C) free-in-county mailing of publications as provided by section 4358 of this title;

(D) free postage and reduced postage rates on reading matter and other articles for the blind as provided by sections 4653 and 4654 of this title;

(E) free mailing privileges for members of the diplomatic corps of the countries of the Postal Union of the Americas and Spain as provided by section 4167 of this title;

(F) free mailing privileges granted to individuals by the Act of May 7, 1945 (59 Stat. 707) and other provisions of law;

(G) reduced third-class postage rates to certain organizations as provided by section 4452 of this title;

(H) section 302 of The Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955 (5 U. S. C. 2192), granting free postage, including free airmail postage, to post cards, ballots, voting instructions, and envelopes transmitted in the mails under authority of that Act; and

(I) reduced postage rates on books, films, and similar educational material as provided by section 4554 of this title.

(2) the loss resulting from the operation of such prime and necessary public services as the star route system and third and fourth class post offices;

(3) the loss incurred in performing nonpostal services, such as the sale of documentary stamps for the Department of the Treasury;

(4) the loss incurred in performing special services such as cash on delivery, insured mail, special delivery, and money orders; and

(5) the additional cost of transporting United States mail by foreign air carriers at a Universal Postal Union rate in excess of the rate prescribed for United States carriers.

(b) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the revenues of the Post Office Department for each fiscal year from any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated an amount, which shall be deemed to be attributable to the public services enumerated under subsection (a) of this section, equal to the total estimated expenditures of the Post Office Department for the year for such public services as determined by the Congress in the appropriation Act based upon budget estimates submitted to the Congress. The appropriations shall be available to enable the Postmaster General to pay in to postal revenues at quarterly or other intervals such sums as may be necessary to reimburse the Post Office Department for the amount attributable to public services.

§ 2304. Reviews, studies, surveys, and reports of Postmaster General

(a) The Postmaster General shall initiate and conduct, through the facilities of the postal establishment, either on a continuing basis or from time to time, as he deems advisable, but not less often than every two years, a review of the postal-rate structure and a study and survey of the expenses incurred and the revenues received in connection with the several classes of mail, and the various classes and kinds of services and facilities provided by the postal establishment, in order to determine, on the basis of the review, study, and survey for each class and kind of service or facility provided by the postal establishment, the need for adjustment of postal rates and fees in accordance with the policy set forth in sections 2301–2305 of this title.

(b) The Postmaster General shall submit to the Senate and the House of Representatives not later than April 15 of each alternate fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1960, a report of the results of the review, study, and survey conducted pursuant to subsection (a) of this section which includes—

(1) information with respect to expenses and revenues which is pertinent to the allocation of expenses and the determination and adjustment of postal rates and fees in accordance with the policy set forth in sections 2301–2305 of this title; and

(2) such other information as is necessary to enable the Congress, or as may be required by the Congress or an appropriate committee thereof, to carry out the purposes of sections 2301–2305 of this title.

§ 2305. Effect on fourth class mail rates

The provisions of sections 2301–2304 of this title do not require any downward adjustment in rates of postage on fourth class mail existing on May 27, 1958.

§ 2306. Costs for establishing postal rates

The amounts contributed by the Post Office Department to the civil service retirement and disability fund in compliance with section 2254 (a) of title 5 are considered as costs of providing postal service for the purpose of establishing postal rates.

REPORTS

§ 2331. Cost ascertainment

(a) The Postmaster General shall ascertain and state annually the revenues derived from and the cost of—

- (1) carrying and handling the several classes of mail matter; and
- (2) performing special services.

(b) The appropriations of the Department, as determined by the Postmaster General, shall be available for cost of supervising or conducting the studies required by this section.

§ 2332. Postal Modernization Fund

The Postmaster General shall include in his annual report to the President for each year a detailed report of his activities during the year under sections 2231–2234 of this title.

CHAPTER 29—DEBTS AND COLLECTIONSSec.

- 2401. Collection of debts.
- 2402. Transportation of international mail by air carriers of the United States.
- 2403. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and Armed Forces postal clerks.
- 2404. Penalty for failure to render accounts.
- 2405. Deficiency in accounts.
- 2406. Limitation of action against sureties.
- 2407. Penalties and forfeitures imposed for violations.
- 2408. Suits to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments.
- 2409. Settlement of claims for damages caused by Post Office Department and services.
- 2410. Delivery of stolen money to owner.
- 2411. Substitute checks.

§ 2401. Collection of debts

(a) The Postmaster General shall—

- (1) collect debts due the Department; and
- (2) collect and remit fines, penalties, and forfeitures arising out of matters affecting the Department.

He may refer any debt, which is uncollectible through administrative action, to the General Accounting Office for collection.

This subsection does not affect the authority of the Attorney General in cases in which judicial proceedings are instituted.

(b) In all cases of disability or alleged liability for any sum of money by way of damages or otherwise, under any provision of law in relation to the officers, employees, operations, or business of the Postal Service, the Postmaster General shall determine whether the interests of the Department probably require the exercise of his powers over the same. Upon the determination the Controller General, with the written consent of the Postmaster General and on such terms as the Postmaster General deems just and expedient, may—

- (1) remove the disability; or
- (2) compromise, release, or discharge the claim for such sum of money and damages.

(c) Subsection (b) applies to cases involving balances due the United States through accountability for public moneys under any provisions of law in relation to the officers, employees, operations, or business of the Postal Service, except cases cognizable under section 2403 of this title.

§ 2402. Transportation of international mail by air carriers of the United States

(a) The Postmaster General may offset against any balances due another country resulting from the transaction of international money order business, or otherwise, amounts due from that country to the United States, or to the United States for the account of air carriers of the United States transporting mail of that country, when—

- (1) the Postmaster General puts into effect rates of compensation to be charged another country for transportation; and
- (2) the United States is required to collect from another country the amounts owed for transportation for the account of the air carriers.

(b) When the Postmaster General has proceeded under authority of subsection (a), he shall—

- (1) give appropriate credit to the country involved;
- (2) pay to the air carrier the portion of the amount so credited which is owed to the air carrier for its services in transporting the mail of the other country; and
- (3) deposit in the Department fund that portion of the amount so credited which is due the United States on its own account.

(c) The Postmaster General, from time to time may advance to an air carrier, out of funds available for payment of balances due other countries, the amounts determined by him to be due from another country to an air carrier for the transportation of its mails when—

- (1) collections are to be made by the United States for the account of air carriers; and
- (2) the Postmaster General determines that the balance of funds available is such that the advances may be made therefrom.

Collection from another country of the amount so advanced shall be made by offset, or otherwise, and the appropriation from which the advance is made shall be reimbursed by the collections made by the United States.

(d) If the United States is unable to collect from the debtor country an amount paid or advanced to an air carrier within twelve months after payment or advance has been made, the United States may deduct the uncollected amount from any sums owed by it to the air carrier.

(e) The Postmaster General shall adopt such accounting procedures as may be necessary to conform to and effect the purposes of this section.

§ 2403. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and Armed Forces postal clerks

(a) When the Postmaster General determines, after investigation, that any of the following losses has resulted without negligence of a postmaster, Armed Forces postal clerk, or assistant Armed Forces postal clerk, he may, subject to subsections (b)—(d) of this section, pay or credit the postmaster, Armed Forces postal clerk, or assistant Armed Forces postal clerk, the sum he ascertains to be the amount of—

(1) the loss of funds or valuable papers from their official custody resulting from burglary, fire, or unavoidable casualty;

(2) the loss of funds deposited in National or State banks;

(3) the loss of funds remitted in accordance with instructions of the Department in the form of drafts or checks which have been returned unpaid or disallowed by reason of the closing of the bank issuing the drafts or checks;

(4) a remittance of funds or accountable papers, made in compliance with instructions of the Department, which are lost, stolen or destroyed—

(A) while in transit to a designated depository; or

(B) after arrival at the depository, and before the depository has become responsible therefor; and

(5) authorized sums of postage and other stamped stock or accountable paper lost while in transit by mail to or from—

(A) postmasters or employees; or

(B) the Department.

(b) Claims of postmasters, Armed Forces postal clerks and assistant Armed Forces postal clerks outside the continental United States for losses occurring while the United States is at war may be presented within two years from the time the loss occurred. All other claims under this section must be presented within six months from the time when the loss occurred.

(c) Claims in excess of $10,000 for losses covered by this section may not be paid or credited until an appropriation has been made therefor.

(d) This section does not apply to claims for losses—

(1) cognizable under sections 134–134h of title 5;

(2) by Armed Forces postal clerks or assistant Armed Forces postal clerks for stamps, stamped envelopes, postal cards and other stamped paper supplied them by the Department of Defense and not by the Post Office Department, nor to funds received from the sale of the same.

§ 2404. Penalty for failure to render accounts

When a postmaster neglects to render his accounts for one month after the time and in the form and manner prescribed by law and the regulations of the Postmaster General, he and his sureties shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the gross receipts at his office for the period, estimated on the basis of any previous or subsequent equal period of time. If the postmaster or his sureties fail to pay the amount of the forfeiture, the Postmaster General shall request the Attorney General to bring an action on the bond of the postmaster. If, at the time of trial, no account has been rendered, the postmaster and his sureties shall be liable in double the amount estimated by the court or jury to be the gross postal receipts.

§ 2405. Deficiency in accounts

The Postmaster General shall mail a notice to the last known addresses of the sureties of a postmaster who fails to make good a deficiency discovered in his accounts. Failure to mail the notice to the sureties does not discharge them on the bond.

§ 2406. Limitation of action against sureties

Sureties on the bond of a postmaster may be sued for deficiencies in his account only within three years after settlement of the account.

§ 2407. Penalties and forfeitures imposed for violations

Unless a different disposal is expressly prescribed, one-half of all penalties and forfeitures imposed for violations of law affecting the Department, its revenues or property, shall be paid to the person informing and prosecuting for the same. The other one-half shall be paid into the postal revenues.

§ 2408. Suits to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments

The Postmaster General shall request the Attorney General to bring a suit to recover with interest any payment made from moneys of, or credit granted by, the Department or postal savings system as a result of—

- (1) mistake;
- (2) fraudulent representations;
- (3) collusion; or
- (4) misconduct of an officer or employee of the Department.

§ 2409. Settlement of claims for damages caused by Post Office Department and services

When the Postmaster General finds a claim for damage to persons or property resulting from the operation of the Department to be a proper charge against the United States, and it is not cognizable under section 2672 of title 28, he may adjust and settle it in an amount not exceeding $500.

§ 2410. Delivery of stolen money to owner

When the Postmaster General is satisfied that money or property in the possession of the Department represents money or property stolen from the mails, or the proceeds thereof, he may deliver it to the person he finds to be the rightful owner.

§ 2411. Substitute checks

(a) The Postmaster General may authorize the issuance of a substitute check for a lost, stolen or destroyed check of the Department.

Substitute checks shall—

- (1) be marked "Duplicate";
- (2) show the number, date, and payee of the original.

(b) The Postmaster General may authorize the issuance of the substitute check (1) upon the execution of a bond agreeable to the Postmaster General by the owner, or (2) without bond, upon the affidavit of the payee or owner of the original check when the Postmaster General is satisfied that the loss, theft or destruction occurred without the fault of the owner or holder or while the check was in the custody or control of the Department or in the mails.

(c) Subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 528 of title 31 do not apply to checks of the Department.

CHAPTER 31—STAMPS AND STAMPED PAPER

Sec.

- 2501. Postage stamps.
- 2502. Double postal cards, letter-sheet envelopes, double-letter envelopes.
- 2503. Postal cards and stamped envelopes.
- 2504. Improvements in stamps and envelopes.
- 2505. Sale of postage due stamps.
- 2506. Printing of black-and-white illustrations of United States stamps.
- 2507. Stamps to be defaced.
- 2508. Permits for special canceling of postmarking dies.
- 2509. Special cancellation "Pray for peace".
- 2510. Printing on stamped envelopes.

§ 2501. Postage stamps

The Postmaster General may issue appropriate stamps in such denomination, form and design, and at such times as he deems necessary, for use in payment of postage or fees for special services. He shall issue postage due stamps of special design and in the denomination he deems necessary to be affixed to short paid mail. Postage due stamps shall be canceled as other postage stamps.

§ 2502. Double postal cards, letter-sheet envelopes, double-letter envelopes

(a) The Postmaster General may furnish for public use, with postage stamps printed or impressed thereon, double postal cards, letter-sheet envelopes, and double-letter envelopes.

(b) The Postmaster General may not make payments for royalty or patent right on any of the articles named in this section.

§ 2503. Postal cards and stamped envelopes

(a) The Postmaster General shall furnish for public use postal cards and envelopes with postage stamps printed or impressed thereon.

(b) Stamped envelopes shall be sold as nearly as possible at cost, but not less than cost. Cost includes the value of the postage stamps, salaries and clerk hire, and other expenses connected therewith.

§ 2504. Improvements in stamps and envelopes

The Postmaster General may adopt such improvements in postage stamps and stamped envelopes as he deems advisable. When an improvement is adopted it shall be subject to all the provisions of law respecting postage stamps or stamped envelopes.

§ 2505. Sale of postage due stamps

(a) Postage due stamps may not be sold by any postmaster nor received by him in prepayment of postage or fees for special services.

(b) The Postmaster General may designate agencies of the Department where postage due stamps may be sold for philatelic purposes only.

§ 2506. Printing of black-and-white illustrations of United States stamps

(a) When requested by the Postmaster General, the Public Printer shall print as a public document for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, illustrations in black and white of postage stamps of the United States, together with such descriptive, historical, and philatelic information with regard to the stamps as the Postmaster General deems suitable.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 58 of title 44, stereotype or electrotype plates, or duplicates thereof, used in the publications authorized to be printed by this section may not be sold or otherwise disposed of.

§ 2507. Stamps to be defaced

(a) The Postmaster General shall direct the manner in which postage stamps on mail matter shall be canceled and may furnish necessary equipment and supplies therefor.

(b) The Postmaster General may furnish to post offices postage stamps precanceled with the name of the post office at which they are to be used imprinted thereon.

(c) The Postmaster General may issue permits to persons using stamped envelope and postal cards to precancel the postage stamps thereon.

§ 2508. Permits for special canceling or postmarking dies

(a) In post offices of the first and second class the Postmaster General may permit, for a period of six months and the duration of the event to be advertised, the use of special canceling stamps or postmarking dies for advertising purposes when the event to be advertised—

(1) is for a national purpose for which Congress has made an appropriation; or

(2) is of general public interest and importance and is to endure for a definite period of time and is not to be conducted for private gain or profit.

(b) The permittee shall prepay all expenses for the purchase, adapting or installing special canceling stamps or postmarking dies.

(c) The Postmaster General may revoke permits granted under this section when he finds it expedient or necessary to use special canceling stamps or postmarking dies for governmental purposes.

§ 2509. Special cancellation “Pray for peace”

The Postmaster General may provide for the use in post offices of the first and second class of a special canceling stamp or postmarking die bearing the words “Pray for peace”.

§ 2510. Printing on stamped envelopes

The Postmaster General may not sell stamped envelopes containing any lithographing or engraving, printing or advertising, other than the usual request for return of the envelope to the sender.

(7) "assigned to road duty" as used in reference to employees in the Motor Vehicle Service means assignment to a Motor Vehicle Service route which is not less than fifty miles in length one way.

EMPLOYEES GENERALLY

§ 3103. Oath of office

Before entering upon their duties, and before receiving any salary, the Postmaster General, and all persons employed in the Department, in addition to any other oath or affirmation required by law, shall respectively take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

"I, do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me and abstain from everything forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of post offices and post roads within the United States; and that I will honestly and truly account for and pay over any money belonging to the said United States which may come into my possession or control; and I also further swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States; so help me God."

A person authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States, including section 16a of title 5, or of a State or Territory, or an officer, civil or military, holding a commission under the United States may administer and certify the oath or affirmation.

§ 3104. Employees not to receive fees

An officer or employee of the Department may not receive any fee or perquisite from a patron of the Department on account of the duties performed by virtue of his appointment, except as authorized by law.

§ 3105. Detail of employees between field and department

With the consent of the employee, the Postmaster General may detail any employee, including an employee of the departmental service, between the postal field service and the departmental service to such extent as may be necessary to develop a more efficient working force and more effectively to perform the work of the Department. Each detail shall be made for a period of not more than one year and may be made without change in compensation of the employees so detailed.

SPECIAL CLASSES OF EMPLOYEES

§ 3111. Residence of postal transportation clerks

Clerks appointed to the Postal Transportation Service to perform duty on railway post offices shall reside at some point on the route to which they are assigned unless they are authorized by the Postmaster General to reside at some other convenient point.

§ 3112. Inspectors may administer oaths

Postal inspectors may administer oaths required or authorized by law or regulation with respect to any matter coming before them in the performance of their official duties.

§ 3113. Rural carriers to furnish equipment

Rural carriers shall furnish, for prompt handling of the mail, necessary vehicles and such other equipment as the Postmaster General requires.

§ 3114. Rural carriers not to carry merchandise

Rural carriers may not solicit business or receive orders for any person. The Postmaster General may permit them to carry merchandise for hire during their hours of duty for and at the request of patrons residing on their routes.

§ 3115. Special delivery messengers as employees or carriers

(a) A person temporarily employed to deliver special delivery mail is deemed an employee of the postal service, and is subject to the provisions of chapter 83 of title 18 to the same extent as other employees of the Department.

(b) Any person, when engaged in carrying special delivery mail under contract with the Department, or employed by the Department, is deemed a carrier or person entrusted with the mail and having custody thereof, within the meaning of sections 1701, 1708, and 2114 of title 18.

§ 3116. Uniforms and badges

(a) The Postmaster General may prescribe a uniform dress to be worn by letter carriers.

(b) The Postmaster General may not require employees in the Postal Transportation Service to wear any uniform other than cap or badge.

ESTABLISHMENT OF POSITIONS

§ 3301. Personnel requirements

The Postmaster General shall determine the personnel requirements of the postal field service, and fix the number of supervisors and other employees in that service, except that there may not be at any one time more than—

- (1) one assistant postmaster employed at any post office;
- (2) 40 employees in positions assigned to salary level 17;
- (3) 12 employees in positions assigned to salary level 18;
- (4) four employees in positions assigned to salary level 19; or
- (5) 15 employees in positions assigned to salary level 20.

§ 3302. Substitute positions

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section the Postmaster General shall prescribe the conditions under which substitutes may be appointed.

(b) The Postmaster General may appoint not more than one career substitute to five regular employees, or fraction thereof, in any of the following categories.

- (1) postal transportation clerks;
- (2) post office clerks;

- (3) city letter carriers;
- (4) village letter carriers;
- (5) mail handlers;
- (6) watchmen;
- (7) messengers;
- (8) employees of the Motor Vehicle Service.

(c) In post offices having fewer than five regular employees, the Postmaster General may appoint one career substitute clerk, carrier, and employee in the Motor Vehicle Service.

(d) The Postmaster General may not appoint additional career substitutes until the ratios prescribed by this section are established.

(e) The Postmaster General may not furlough or dismiss a career substitute in the categories covered by this section to meet requirements of this section.

POSTMASTERS

§ 3311. Method of appointment

(a) The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint postmasters at post offices of the first, second, and third classes in the competitive civil service without term. He shall make the appointments in accordance with the Civil Service Act and rules by—

- (1) competitive examinations; or
- (2) promotion from within the postal service.

(b) The Postmaster General shall appoint postmasters at post offices of the fourth class without term.

§ 3312. Residence requirements

(a) A person is not eligible for appointment as postmaster at a post office of the first, second, or third class unless he has actually resided within the delivery of that post office, or within the city or town where it is situated, for one year next preceding—

- (1) the date fixed for the close of receipt of applications for examination, if the appointment is made by competitive examination; or
- (2) the appointment, if the appointment is made without competitive examination.

(b) The residence requirements of subsection (a) of this section may be waived whenever the Civil Service Commission finds that peculiar local conditions preclude or render impossible the application of the requirement. In that case the Commission may examine and certify for appointment or promotion persons who reside in such areas adjacent to, or surrounding, the delivery zone of the post office as may be fixed by the Commission.

(c) Every postmaster shall reside within the delivery of the post office to which he is appointed, or within the town or city where it is situated, or in the area adjacent to or surrounding the delivery zone of the post office in which he lived at the time of appointment.

§ 3313. Appointment in fourth class offices in Alaska

Notwithstanding sections 58, 62, 69, and 70 of title 5, and other provision of law, an officer, agent, or employee of the United States Government, who is a citizen of the United States, is eligible for appointment as, and to receive the compensation provided by section 3544 of this title for a postmaster of a fourth class post office in Alaska.

§ 3314. Status on change in class of office

A postmaster appointed in the competitive civil service at a post office of—

(1) the first, second, or third class whose post office is relegated to the fourth class; or

(2) the fourth class whose post office is advanced to a higher class, shall continue to be the postmaster after the change in the class of office.

§ 3315. Filling vacancies

(a) When the office of a postmaster becomes vacant, the appointment of a regular postmaster shall be made without delay. In the interim the Postmaster General may—

(1) continue the post office, under the name of the former postmaster, by the assistant postmaster or other employee of the inspector or other special agent; or

(2) in the case of a third or fourth class post office, place the office under the charge of a suitable person, pending appointment of a regular or acting postmaster; or

(3) place the post office under the charge of a postal inspector; or

(4) appoint an acting postmaster.

(b) Acting postmasters appointed under this section may not serve more than six months from the date of their designation, unless the Postmaster General extends the period of service with the permission of the Civil Service Commission.

(c) Acting postmasters may be appointed by the Postmaster General in accordance with the Civil Service act, rules, and regulations to serve during military leave of the regular postmaster granted pursuant to section 3317 of this title.

§ 3316. Designation of persons to act during absence

The Postmaster General may authorize postmasters to designate the assistant postmaster, or, if none, a clerk employed in the office to perform the functions of the office of postmaster during the absences of the postmaster. The person so designated shall, during the absences of the postmaster—

- (1) discharge the duties required of the postmaster; and
- (2) be subject to the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the postmaster for whom he acts.

§ 3317. Leave without pay for military service

(a) The Postmaster General shall grant leave of absence without pay to a postmaster entering active military service.

(b) The Postmaster General shall permit a postmaster who resigns for the purpose of active military service to withdraw his resignation and resume the office of postmaster upon being released from service, if the office is being conducted by an acting postmaster.

§ 3331. Duty station

The Postmaster General shall designate an official duty station for employees within the region, division or territory to which they are assigned. He may not allow per diem, in lieu of actual expenses, to employees for official travel except when they are traveling on official business away from their home and their official duty station.

§ 3332. Assignment to branches and stations

The Postmaster General may assign employees in a post office to duty in a branch or station thereof.

§ 3333. Transfer of postal transportation employees

(a) The Postmaster General may transfer employees in the Postal Transportation Service, including supervisors, from one position or assignment to another position or assignment in the Postal Transportation Service.

(b) When the Postmaster General is required because of changes in the service to transfer employees of the Postal Transportation Service, including supervisors, from one position or assignment to another, he may not reduce their basic salary except as provided in subsection (c) of this section. While serving in miscellaneous assignments they shall be retained by the Postmaster General on the roster of their own organizations. He shall also retain for them the promotion status authorized by law for the positions from which they are withdrawn. They are entitled to pay by the hour for actual services performed when on other than road duty. For road duty services they are entitled to pay by the hour according to the time value of the trip including a proper allowance for all services required on lay-off periods, until again restored to regular positions.

(c) When a surplus postal transportation employee, including a supervisor, can not be placed in a position corresponding to his salary step or salary level in the position from which he was withdrawn without giving him preference over an employee or supervisor with a longer continuous transportation service record, the Postmaster General may relegate him to a lower salary step or salary level in his own organization or transfer him elsewhere to any salary step or salary level that may be available for a regular employee or supervisor of his standing.

§ 3334. Transfer of ten-point preference eligibles

(a) An employee entitled as a preference eligible under chapter 17 of title 5 to ten points in addition to his earned rating, who transfers between positions in the same salary level at a post office, shall not, as a result of the transfer, incur loss of seniority if he presents, to the Civil Service Commission, within thirty days after the transfer, satisfactory evidence to the Civil Service Commission that the transfer was necessitated principally by reason of a disability which he received on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may not reduce a regular employee to substitute status to accord the benefits of this section to another employee.

§ 3335. Dual employment and extra duties

(a) The Postmaster General may appoint an employee to more than one position and he shall pay compensation at the rate provided by law for each position, without regard to the provisions of sections 58, 62, 69, and 70 of title 5.

(b) As the needs of the service require, the Postmaster General may assign an employee from time to time to perform, without change in compensation, duties, and responsibilities, other than the duties and responsibilities specifically set forth in his position description.

If an employee is assigned for more than thirty days in a calendar year to duties and responsibilities of a salary level which is higher than the salary level to which his position is assigned, except to perform service in a relief capacity for a supervisor granted compensatory time pursuant to section 3573 of this title, the Postmaster General shall pay for the period of his assignment in excess of thirty days, a basic salary computed in accordance with the provisions of section 3559 of this title.

(c) The Postmaster General, with the consent of the Administrator of General Services, may appoint custodial employees working under the jurisdiction of the General Services Administration at Federal buildings occupied in part by the Postal Service to positions in the Postal Service to perform postal duties in addition to their regular duties as custodial employees, and he shall pay compensation to them at the rate provided by law without regard to sections 58, 62, 69, and 70 of title 5.

§ 3336. Detail to stations of Armed Forces

Whenever the Postmaster General deems it necessary in serving the camps, posts, or stations of the Armed Forces and defense or other strategic installations, he may—

(1) detail field postal employees from main post offices to postal units at those installations without changing their official station; and

(2) pay them an allowance, in lieu of actual expenses, of not more than $4 for each day while so detailed, without regard to chapter 16 of title 5.

§ 3337. Promotions and assignment of rural carriers

(a) The seniority status of a rural carrier commences on the day of appointment as a regular rural carrier. Upon voluntary transfer from one post office to another, or another branch of the service into the rural delivery service, the relative seniority of the transferee commences on the day he enters the rural delivery service of the office to which transfer is made.

(b) A rural carrier shall be assigned by the Postmaster General to the least desirable route upon entering the service and shall rise to the more desirable routes by seniority.

(c) The Postmaster General shall base promotions and preferential assignments in the rural delivery service upon seniority and ability. If ability be sufficient, seniority shall govern.

§ 3338. Filling vacancies on rural routes

(a) The Postmaster General shall post a notice in the post office of each new or vacant rural route and give all rural carriers attached to the office opportunity to apply.

(b) A rural carrier assigned to a new or vacant route has ninety days in which to demonstrate his fitness for the assignment. He may not be removed therefrom until his inability to fill the assignment is proven. The Postmaster General shall return any carrier so removed to his former position.

(c) A senior rural carrier whose application for a new or vacant route is denied, or who is removed therefrom under subsection (b) of this section shall be furnished a written statement of the reasons for the action. He has the right, upon written request, to a hearing before a person designated by the Postmaster General.

(d) The hearing shall be held within ten days from the date of the carrier's request, unless prevented by unusual conditions, in which event he shall be given a written statement of the reasons for the postponement.

(e) The rural carrier is entitled to be represented at the hearing by not more than three representatives of his own choosing.

(f) This section does not supplant the Civil Service Regulations.

§ 3339. Consolidation of rural routes

The Postmaster General may not consolidate rural routes except on account of a carrier's—(1) resignation, (2) death, (3) retirement, or (4) dismissal on charges.

POSITIONS

§ 3501. Ranking of positions

(a) The Postmaster General shall define the various positions other than the key positions specified in sections 3511–3531 of this title and the standard positions of postmaster in a fourth class office and rural carrier. He shall assign each position to its appropriate salary level in the Postal Field Service Schedule. He shall ascertain the appropriate salary level of a position (1) by comparing the duties, responsibilities, and work requirements of the position with those of key positions described in sections 3511-3531 of this title, and (2) by ranking the position in relation to the key position most closely comparable in terms of the level of duties, responsibilities, and work requirements.

(b) In ranking positions, the Postmaster General shall apply the principle of equal pay for substantially equal work and give effect to substantial differences in difficulty of the work to be performed, in the degree of responsibility to be exercised, in the scope and variety of tasks involved, and in the conditions of performance.

(d) The Postmaster General's determinations under this section is the basis for the payment of compensation and for personnel transactions.

§ 3502. Appeals to Civil Service Commission

An employee, either individually or together with one or more other employees with a similar grievance, may appeal at any time, in person or through his representative specifically designated for that purpose, to the United States Civil Service Commission to review—

(1) if the employee is in a position other than a key position described in sections 3511-3531 of this title, any action taken by the Postmaster General under section 3501 of this title, in order to determine whether his position has been placed in its appropriate salary level in accordance with that section, and

(2) if the employee is in a key position described in sections 3511-3531 of this title, any administrative action taken or determination made under section 3501 of this title, in connection with the employee, in order to determine whether the employee has been placed correctly in a key position on the basis of and in accordance with the descriptions of key positions and the assignments of the positions to salary levels specified in sections 3511-3531 of this title.

The Commission shall act upon the appeal at the earliest practicable time, and certify its decision forthwith to the Postmaster General who shall take action in accordance with the certificate.

§ 3511. Key positions

§ 3541. Pay periods and computation of rates

(a) Employees in the postal field service shall be paid compensation in twenty-six installments. Each installment shall be the compensation for a pay period of two weeks.

(b) As basic compensation for a full pay period, an employee, other than an hourly rate employee, shall be paid an amount equal to one twenty-sixth of his annual basic compensation. As basic compensation for a portion of a pay period, the employee shall be paid basic compensation computed in accordance with subsection (d) of this section for the number of days and hours of service for which he has credit.

(c) As basic compensation for the pay period, an hourly rate employee shall be paid an amount equal to the product of his hourly rate of basic compensation and the number of hours of service for which he has credit.

(d) For purposes of computing rates of compensation other than annual rates the following rules govern:

(1) To compute an hourly rate of basic compensation for employees other than substitute employees, the annual rate of basic compensation shall be divided by 2,080.

(2) To compute an hourly rate of basic compensation for substitute employees, the annual rate of basic compensation shall be divided by 2,016.

(3) To compute the daily rate of compensation for postmasters, postal inspectors, and rural carriers, the annual rate of compensation shall be divided by 312.

(4) To compute the daily rate of basic compensation for annual rate employees other than postmasters, postal inspectors, and rural carriers, the hourly rate of basic compensation shall be multiplied by the number of daily hours of service required.

(e) Except for lump-sum payments for accumulated leave upon the termination of employment, an annual rate employee shall not be paid more than one twenty-sixth of his basic compensation as basic compensation for a pay period.

(f) Rates shall be computed to the nearest cent, counting one-half cent and over as a whole cent.

(g) When a pay period for employees begins in one fiscal year and ends in another, the gross amount of the earnings of such employees for such pay period may be regarded as a charge against the appropriation or allotment current at the end of such pay period.

(h) Wherever a temporary per annum rate is provided by a basic salary schedule contained in sections 3542, 3543, and 3544 of this title, the temporary rate shall be in effect, in lieu of the regular scheduled rate, for the period beginning on January 11, 1958, and ending on the last day of the last pay period which begins not more than three years after that date.

§ 3542. Postal Field Service Schedule

(a) There is established a basic salary schedule for positions in the postal field service which shall be known as the Postal Field Service Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be "PFS". Except as provided in sections 3543 and 3544 of this title, basic salary shall be paid to all employees in accordance with this schedule.

(b) The basic salary for hourly rate employees shall be computed by dividing the per annum rates prescribed in the Postal Field Service Schedule (1) by 2,080 in the case of hourly rate employees other than substitutes, and (2) by 2,016 in the case of substitute employees.

(c) In addition to the compensation provided under this section regular and substitute special delivery carriers and special delivery messengers at first class post offices shall be paid an automotive equipment maintenance allowance at the rate of 7 cents per mile or major fraction thereof for miles traveled under the direction of the Department in making delivery of special delivery mail or at the option of the Postmaster General at the rate of 90 cents per hour spent in making delivery of special delivery mail. Payments for equipment maintenance shall be made at the same periods and in the same manner as payments of regular compensation.

§ 3543. Rural Carrier Schedule

(a) There is established a basic salary schedule which shall be known as the Rural Carrier Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be "RCS", for carriers in the rural delivery service, which is based in part on fixed compensation per annum and in part on specified rates per mile per annum. Basic salary shall be paid to rural carriers in accordance with this schedule.

(b) A rural carrier serving one triweekly route shall be paid on the basis of a route one-half the length of the route served by him. A rural carrier serving two triweekly routes shall be paid on the basis of a route one-half the combined length of the two routes.

(c) The Postmaster General may pay such additional compensation as he may determine to be fair and reasonable in each individual case to rural carriers serving heavily patronized routes not exceeding sixty-one miles in length. He may not pay additional compensation to a carrier serving such a route in an amount which would exceed $5,165 during the period referred to in section 3541 (h) of this title, and $5,035 thereafter, when added to the basic salary for the maximum step in the Rural Carrier Schedule for his route. In case such a heavily patronized route is extended in length, the rural carrier assigned to the route at the time of the extension may not be reduced in pay.

(d) The Postmaster General may pay additional compensation to rural carriers who are required to carry pouch mail to intermediate post offices, or for intersecting loop routes, in all cases where it appears that the carriage of pouches increases the expense of the equipment required by the carrier or materially increases the amount of labor performed by him. The compensation may not exceed the sum of $12 per annum for each mile the carrier is required to carry the pouches.

(e) In addition to the other compensation, rural carriers shall be paid the authorized fee for making special delivery of mail. The fee may not be paid when—

- (1) no special delivery service is rendered,
- (2) delivery is made into a rural mail box, or
- (3) delivery is made to the addressee or his representative on the rural carrier's route.

(f) In addition to the compensation provided in the Rural Carrier Schedule, each rural carrier shall be paid for equipment maintenance a sum equal to—

(1) 10 cents per mile for each mile or major fraction of a mile scheduled or

(2) $3.50 per day, whichever is greater.

In addition to the allowance provided by the proceeding sentence, the Postmaster General may pay such amount as he determines to be fair and reasonable, not in excess of $2.50 per day, to rural carriers entitled to additional compensation under subsection (c) of this section for servicing heavily patronized routes. Payment for equipment maintenance shall be made at the same periods and in the same manner as payments of regular compensation.

(g) Any other employee in the postal field service who is assigned to serve a rural route, and who furnishes the vehicle used in the performance of that service, shall be paid the equipment maintenance allowance provided for the route so served, in addition to his compensation.

(h) The length of rural routes shall be determined in accordance with records of the Department. The Postmaster General shall change the records whenever he determines they are not correct.

§ 3544. Fourth Class Office Schedule

(a) There is established a basic salary schedule which shall be known as the Fourth Class Office Schedule, and for which the symbol shall be "FOS", for postmasters in post offices of the fourth class which is based on the gross postal receipts as contained in returns of the post office for the calendar year immediately preceding. Basic salary shall be paid to postmasters in post offices of the fourth class in accordance with this schedule, and basic salary so paid, together with other forms of compensation provided by this title, shall replace existing forms of compensation for those postmasters.

(b) The basic salary of postmasters in fourth class post offices shall be readjusted for changes in gross receipts at the start of the first pay period after the beginning of each fiscal year. In adjusting a postmaster's basic salary under this section the basic salary shall be fixed at the lowest step which is higher than the basic salary received by the postmaster at the end of the preceding fiscal year. If there is no such step the basic salary shall be fixed at the highest step for the adjusted gross receipts of the office. Each increase in basic salary because of change in gross receipts shall be deemed the equivalent of a step-increase under section 3552 of this title and the waiting period, for purposes of advancement to the next step, shall begin on the date of adjustment.

(c) The basic salaries of postmasters at newly established offices of the fourth class shall be fixed at the lowest salary rate. Whenever unusual conditions prevail at any post office of the fourth class the Postmaster General may advance such office to the appropriate category or class indicated by the receipts of the preceding quarter. Any fourth class office advanced to the appropriate category or class pursuant to this subsection shall not be reduced in category or class until the start of the first pay period after July 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which it was so advanced, at which time it shall be assigned to the category or class indicated by the receipts for the preceding calendar year.

(d) Persons who perform the duties of postmaster at post offices of the fourth class where there is a vacancy or during the absence of the postmaster on sick or annual leave, or leave without pay, shall be paid the same basic salary to which they would have been entitled if regularly appointed as postmaster.

(e) The Postmaster General may allow to postmasters in fourth class post offices additional compensation for separating services and for unusual conditions during a portion of the year, in lieu of an allowance for clerical services for this purpose.

(f) At seasonal post offices of the fourth class, the Postmaster General may authorize the payment of the basic salary prorated over the pay periods the office is open for business during the fiscal year.

(g) Where the gross postal receipts of a post office of the third class for each of two consecutive calendar years are less than $1,500, or where in any calendar year the gross postal receipts are less than $1,400, the post office shall be relegated to the fourth class and the basic salary of the postmaster shall be fixed in the manner provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(h) Postmasters of fourth class post offices shall be paid as allowances for rent, fuel, light, and equipment an amount equal to 15 per centum of the basic compensation earned in each pay period, at the same time and in the same manner as their regular compensation.

SALARY STEPS AND PROMOTIONS

(a) The Postmaster General may appoint any person who has been employed in a civilian capacity in any branch of the Government to any position in a regional or district office or to any professional or scientific position and may place him in any step in the salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule which is less than one full step above the highest basic salary which he received from the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may appoint any employee of the legislative branch whose compensation is disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives, and who has completed two or more years of service as such an employee, to any position in the postal field service and may fix his initial rate of compensation at the minimum rate of the appropriate level of the basic salary schedule applicable to the position, or at any step of that level that does not exceed the highest previous rate of compensation received by him during his service in the legislative branch.

§ 3552. Automatic advancement by step increases

(a) Except as to a substitute employee in the Postal Transportation Service whose position is allocated to salary level PFS-5 as a distribution clerk in a railway or highway post office, each employee whose position is allocated to the Rural Carrier Schedule, the Fourth Class Office Schedule, or the Postal Field Service Schedule, who has not reached the highest step for his position, shall be advanced successively to the next higher step for his position at the beginning of the first pay period following the completion of each fifty-two calendar weeks of satisfactory service, if no equivalent increase in basic salary from any cause was received during the period of fifty-two calendar weeks. The benefit of successive step-increases shall be preserved, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, for employees whose continuous service is interrupted by service in the Armed Forces.

(b) Each substitute employee in the Postal Transportation Service, whose position is allocated to salary level PFS-5 as a distribution clerk in a railway or highway post office, shall be advanced in the manner prescribed for other employees under subsection (a) of this section, but may not be advanced beyond step four of salary level PFS-5.

§ 3553. Creditable service for advancement

Each employee in the postal field service is eligible to earn step-increases in accordance with this chapter. Except for temporary rural carriers serving in the absence of regular rural carriers on leave without pay or on military leave, credit may not be allowed for time on the rolls under a temporary appointment for one year or less unless the time on the rolls is continuous to the date of appointment to a position of unlimited duration.

§ 3554. Compensation of certain temporary employees

Temporary employees hired for a continuous period of one year or less for a position under the Postal Field Service Schedule shall be paid a basic salary at the entrance step for the salary level of the position to which they are appointed.

§ 3555. Reduction in salary step

The Postmaster General may reduce in salary step clerks or carriers whose efficiency falls below a fair standard or whenever it is necessary for purposes of discipline. At the beginning of any pay period commencing ninety days after a reduction in salary of such an employee, the Postmaster General may restore him to his former salary or advance him to an intermediate salary. That action is not regarded as an "equivalent increase in basic salary."

§ 3556. Automatic advancement withheld

At the beginning of any pay period commencing ninety days after the withholding of an automatic advancement of an employee for unsatisfactory service, the Postmaster General may advance him, on evidence that his record has been satisfactory during the intervening period.

§ 3557. Automatic advancement of substitute employee deferred

The Postmaster General shall defer the automatic promotion of a substitute employee who is absent on leave without pay and not available for duty for ninety days or more during a calendar year in proportion to the time the employee is absent on leave without pay.

§ 3558. Longevity step increases

(a) There are established for each employee longevity steps A, B, and C. For each promotion to a longevity step—

(1) each postmaster at a post office of the fourth class shall receive an amount equal to 5 per centum of his basic salary, or $100 per annum, whichever is the lesser, and

(2) each employee, other than a postmaster at a post office of the fourth class, shall receive $100 per annum.

In computing the percentage increase under this subsection the amount of the increase shall be rounded to the nearest dollar. A half dollar or one-half cent shall be rounded to the next highest dollar or cent, respectively.

(b) Each employee shall be assigned to—

(1) longevity step A at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of thirteen years of service;

(2) longevity step B at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of eighteen years of service; and

(3) longevity step C at the beginning of the pay period following the completion of twenty-five years of service.

(c) (1) There shall be credited, for the purposes of subsection (b) time on the rolls—

(A) in the postal field service or in the Post Office Department, except time on the rolls as a substitute rural carrier;

(B) in the custodial service of the Department of the Treasury continuous to the date of the transfer of the employee to the custodial service of the Post Office Department in accordance with Executive Order Numbered 6166, dated June 10, 1933;

(C) as a special delivery messenger at a first class post office;

(D) as a clerk in a third class post office for which payment is made from authorized allowances;

(E) under the Postal Accounts Division, including time on the rolls under the former Post Office Department Division, in the General Accounting Office continuous to the date of the transfer of the employee to the Post Office Department in accordance with section 7 (a) of the Post Office Department Financial Control Act of 1950; and

(F) in the Panama Canal Zone postal service.

(2) In determining longevity credit for the purposes of subsection (b) in the case of an employee whose continuous service in the postal field service or in the departmental service of the Post Office Department is interrupted by service with the Armed Forces or to comply with a transfer during war or national emergency as defined by the United States Civil Service Commission, time engaged in that service with the Armed Forces or on the transfer shall be credited pro rata for each week of the service. Service specified in this subsection, whether continuous or intermittent, shall be credited on the basis of one week for each whole week the employee has been on the rolls, except that credit may not be allowed for time on the rolls under a temporary appointment for one year or less unless the time on the rolls is continuous to the date of appointment to a position of unlimited duration.

(d) Increases under this section are not equivalent increases within the meaning of section 3552 of this title.

(e) Payment of longevity compensation may not be made by reason of clause (F) of subsection (c) (1) of this section, for any period prior to September 6, 1958.

§ 3559. Promotions

(a) An employee who is promoted or transferred to a position in a higher salary level of the Postal Field Service Schedule shall be paid basic salary at the lowest step of the higher salary level which exceeds his existing basic salary by not less than the amount of difference between the entrance step of the salary level from which promoted and the entrance step of the salary level immediately above the salary level from which promoted. If there is no step in the salary level to which the employee is promoted which exceeds his existing basic salary by at least the amount of the difference, the employee shall be paid (1) the maximum step of the salary level to which promoted, or (2) his existing basic salary, whichever is higher.

(b) Regular clerks and carriers in first and second class post offices are not eligible for promotion to positions of higher salary levels in their respective offices unless they are in the maximum steps of their respective salary levels. If for any reason clerks and carriers in the maximum steps are not available those clerks and carriers in the lower steps in the offices are eligible for the promotion.

HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

§ 3571. Maximum hours of work

Except as otherwise provided in this title, employees may not be required to work more than eight hours a day. The work schedule of employees shall be regulated so that the eight hours of service does not extend over a longer period than ten consecutive hours.

§ 3572. Minimum hours of work for hourly rate employees

Each substitute, hourly rate, and temporary employee who reports for duty in compliance with an official order shall be employed for not less than two hours following the hour at which he is ordered to report.

§ 3573. Compensatory time, overtime, and holidays

In emergencies or if the needs of the service require, the Postmaster General may require employees to work more than eight hours in one day, or on Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays. For that service he shall grant employees in the "PFS" Schedule compensatory time or pay them overtime compensation under the following rules:

(1) Each employee in or below salary level PFS-7 shall be paid for all work in excess of eight hours in one day at the rate of 150 per centum of his hourly basic compensation.

(2) (A) Each employee in or below salary level PFS-7 who performs work on Saturdays or Sundays shall, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to the excess time worked within five working days, except that, in lieu of such compensatory time, the Postmaster General may, if the exigencies of the service require, authorize him to be paid, for work performed on Saturdays and Sundays during the month of December, at the rate of 150 per centum of his hourly basic compensation.

(B) If the work performed by such employees on Saturdays and Sundays is less than eight hours, such service, in the discretion of the Postmaster General may be carried forward and combined with similar service performed on other Saturdays and Sundays. The employees may be allowed compensatory time for combined service or any part thereof at any time, except that, whenever at least eight hours of such service has been accumulated, the employees shall be allowed eight hours compensatory time on one day within five working days next succeeding the Saturday or Sunday on which the total accumulated service was at least eight hours.

(3) For time worked on a day referred to as a holiday in section 87b of title 5, or on a day designated by Executive order as a holiday for Federal employees generally, each employee in or below salary level PFS-7, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, shall either be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to the time worked within thirty working days, or be paid premium compensation at a rate equal to his hourly basic compensation for the time so worked. For work performed on Christmas Day, premium compensation shall be paid at a rate equal to 150 per centum of the employee's hourly basic compensation.

(4) Each employee in or above salary level PFS-8 who performs overtime or holiday work as described in this section, under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, shall be granted compensatory time in an amount equal to the overtime or holiday work.

§ 3574. Night work

Employees who perform work between the hours of 6 o'clock post meridian and 6 o'clock ante meridian standard or daylight saving time, depending upon which time is observed where the work is performed, shall be paid extra compensation for each hour of that work at the rate of 10 per centum of their hourly basic compensation. The differential for night duty is not included in computing overtime compensation to which the employees may be entitled.

§ 3575. Exemptions

(a) Sections 3571, 3573 and 3574 of this title do not apply to the heads of regional or district offices and such other employees of the headquarters staff of regional and district offices as the Postmaster General designates, or to postmasters, rural carriers, post office inspectors, traveling mechanics, and traveling examiners of equipment and supplies.

(b) Sections 3571 and 3573 of this title do not apply to substitute employees and to employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service assigned to road duty.

(c) Section 3571 of this title does not apply to employees in post offices of the third class.

(d) The provisions of section 3573 of this title relating to compensatory time and overtime compensation for work on Saturdays or Sundays do not apply to hourly rate regular employees and to employees in post offices of the third class.

§ 3576. Holiday service of rural carriers and employees assigned to road duty

When the President of the United States authorizes Federal employees generally to be excused from duty on a work day, rural carriers and employees in the Postal Transportation Service or in the Motor Vehicle Service who are assigned to road duty, other than substitutes, who are required to work on such a day, shall be granted a day off, with pay and without charge thereof to their earned annual leave, within one year thereafter.

§ 3581. Road duty employees

(a) The Postmaster General shall organize the work of employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service who are assigned to road duty into regularly scheduled tours of duty. The tours of duty shall aggregate an average of not more than eight hours a day for two hundred and fifty-two days a year, including an allowance of one hour and thirty-five minutes for work to be performed on layoff periods. He may not grant allowances of time for work performed on layoff periods to employees other than employees engaged in the distribution of mail.

(b) Employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service assigned to road duty, except substitute employees, who are required to perform work in excess of the scheduled time of their regular tours of duty as established by the Postmaster General shall be paid at the rate of 150 per centum of their hourly basic compensation for overtime work. In arriving at the amount of overtime to be paid at any time during the calendar year, any deficiencies accrued up to that time during the same calendar year shall be offset against any overtime work by the employee.

(c) Substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service assigned to road duty shall be paid on an hourly basis for actual work performed according to the time value of each trip of road duty, including an allowance of time for all work required on layoff periods.

(d) In addition to compensation provided under this title, the Postmaster General, under regulations prescribed by him, may pay not more than $9 per day as travel allowances in lieu of actual expenses, at fixed rates per annum or by such other method as he deems equitable to regular and substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service who are assigned to road duty, after the expiration of ten hours from the time the initial run begins.

(e) Substitute employees in the Postal Transportation Service and the Motor Vehicle Service shall be credited with full time while traveling under orders of the Post Office Department to and from their designated headquarters to take up assignments.

§ 3582. Time credit for delay to trains and highway post offices

The Postmaster General shall credit postal transportation employees assigned to road duty with full time for delays to trains and highway post offices.

4004. Delivery of mail to persons not residents of the place of address.
4005. Fraudulent and lottery matter.
4006. "Unlawful" matter.
4007. Detention of mail for temporary periods.

§ 4001. Nonmailable matter

(a) Matter, the deposit of which in the mails is punishable under sections 1302, 1341, 1342, 1461, 1463, 1714, 1715, 1716, 1717, or 1718 of title 18, is nonmailable.

(b) Except as provided in section 4002 of this title, nonmailable matter which reaches the office of delivery, or which may be seized or detained for violation of law, shall be disposed of as the Postmaster General directs.

§ 4002. Nonmailable fourth class matter

(a) Matter of the fourth class is nonmailable which—

- (1) exceeds the prescribed size and weight limits; or
- (2) is of a character perishable within the period required for transportation and delivery.

(b) Matter made nonmailable by this section which by inadvertence reaches the office of destination may be delivered in accordance with its address, if the party addressed furnishes the name and address of the sender. If the person addressed refuses to furnish the information, the package shall be disposed of as the Postmaster General directs.

§ 4003. Mail bearing a fictitious name or address

(a) Upon evidence satisfactory to the Postmaster General that any person is using a fictitious, false or assumed name, title or address in conducting, promoting or carrying on or assisting therein, by means of the postal service of the United States, an activity in violation of sections 1302, 1341, and 1342 of title 18, the Postmaster General may—

(1) withhold mail so addressed from delivery; and

(2) require the party claiming the mail to furnish proof to him of the claimant's identity and right to receive the mail.

(b) The Postmaster General may issue an order directing that mail, covered by subsection (a), be forwarded to a dead letter office as fictitious matter, or be returned to the senders when the—

(1) party claiming the mail fails to furnish proof of his identity and right to receive the mail; or

(2) the Postmaster General is satisfied that the mail is addressed to a fictitious, false or assumed name, title or address.

§ 4004. Delivery of mail to persons not residents of the place of address

Whenever the Postmaster General is satisfied that letters or parcels sent in the mail are addressed to places not the residence or regular business address of the person for whom they are intended, to enable the person to escape identification, he may deliver the mail only upon identification of the persons so addressed.

§ 4005. Fraudulent and lottery matter

(a) Upon evidence satisfactory to the Postmaster General that any person is engaged in conducting a scheme or device for obtaining money or property through the mail by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises; or engaged in conducting a lottery, gift enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money or of real or personal property by lottery, chance, or drawing of any kind; the Postmaster General may—

(1) direct postmasters at the office at which registered letters or other letters or mail arrive, addressed to such a person or to his representative, to return the registered letters or other letters or mail to the sender marked "fraudulent" or "lottery mail"; and

(2) forbid the payment by a postmaster to such a person or his representative of any money order or postal note drawn to the order of either and provide for the return to the remitters of the sums named in the money orders or postal notes.

(b) The public advertisement by a person engaged in activities covered by subsection (a) of this section, that remittances may be made by mail to a person named in the advertisement, is prima facie evidence that the latter is the agent or representative of the advertiser for the receipt of remittances on behalf of the advertiser. The Postmaster General is not precluded from ascertaining the existence of the agency in any other legal way satisfactory to him.

(c) As used in this section and section 4006 of this title the term "representative" includes an agent or representative acting as an individual or as a firm, bank, corporation, or association of any kind.

§ 4006. "Unlawful" matter

Upon evidence satisfactory to the Postmaster General that a person is obtaining or attempting to obtain remittances of money or property of any kind through the mail for an obscene, lewd, lascivious, indecent, filthy, or vile article, matter, thing, device, or substance, or is depositing or causing to be deposited in the United States mail information as to where, how, or from whom the same may be obtained, the Postmaster General may—

(1) direct postmasters at the office at which registered letters or other letters or mail arrive, addressed to such a person or to his representative, to return the registered letters or other letters or mail to the sender marked "Unlawful"; and

(2) forbid the payment by a postmaster to such a person or his representative of any money order or postal note drawn to the order of either and provide for the return to the remitters of the sums named in the money orders or postal notes.

§ 4007. Detention of mail for temporary periods

(a) When the Postmaster General determines during proceedings before him that in the administration of section 4006 of this title such action is necessary to the effective enforcement of the section, he may enter an interim order directing that mail addressed to any person be detained by the postmaster at the post office of delivery for twenty days from the effective date of the order. Notice of the order, advising the person of the detention and setting forth in specific detail the reasons therefor, together with a copy of this section and section 4006 of this title, shall be sent forthwith by registered or certified mail to the person at the post office at which the mail is to be detained. An order for the detention of mail addressed to a person expires at the end of the twenty days after the issuance thereof unless the Postmaster General files, prior to the expiration of the twenty-day period, a petition in the United States district court for the district in which the post office in which the mail is detained is situated, and obtains an order directing that mail addressed to the person be detained for such further period as the court determines. Notice of the filing of such a petition shall be given forthwith by the clerk of the court in which it is filed to the person, at the post office at which the mail is being detained, or otherwise as the clerk of the court determines to be appropriate, and the person shall have five days in which to appear and show cause why the order should not issue.

If, upon all the evidence before it, the court determines that the continued detention of the mail is reasonable and necessary to the effective enforcement of section 4006 of this title, it shall forthwith issue an order directing that mail addressed to that person be detained by the postmaster at the office of delivery until conclusion of the proceeding by the Postmaster General or until further order of the court.

If, upon all the evidence before it, the court determines, that the continued detention of the mail addressed is not reasonable or necessary in the administration of section 4006 of this title, it shall dismiss the petition and order all detained mail addressed to him to be released forthwith for delivery.

An appeal from the order of the court is allowable as in civil causes. An order of the Postmaster General or of the district court, under this section, may be dissolved by that court at any time for cause, including failure to conduct expeditiously the proceedings instituted against the person before the Postmaster General with respect to section 4006 of this title. When, under an order herein authorized to be issued by the Postmaster General or the district court, a person's mail is detained by the postmaster at the office of delivery, that person may examine the mail and receive such mail as clearly is not connected with the alleged unlawful activity.

(b) Action by the Postmaster General in issuing the interim order provided for herein and petitioning for a continuance of an order under this section, is not subject to chapter 19 of title 5.

(c) This section does not apply to mail addressed to publishers of publications which have entry as second-class matter, or to mail addressed to the agents of those publishers.

CHAPTER 53—THE SEVERAL CLASSES OF MAIL

Sec.

4051. Prepayment of postage.

4052. Method of paying postage.

4053. Postage meters.

4054. Postage collection on Armed Forces mail.

4055. Refund of postage.

4056. Acceptance of letters by transportation employees or carriers.

4057. Opening first class mail.

4058. Wrapping matter not charged with first class postage.

4059. Addresses on postal cards and unsealed circulars.

4060. Foreign publications free from customs duty.

§ 4051. Prepayment of postage

Except as otherwise provided by law, postage shall be prepaid at the time of mailing.

§ 4052. Method of paying postage

(a) Postage may be prepaid—

(1) by postage stamps;

(2) by postage meter stamps;

(3) without stamps as prescribed by the Postmaster General for second class matter mailed by the publisher or registered news agent;

(4) as prescribed by the Postmaster General for controlled circulation publications or for matter mailed at the bulk rates; or

(5) under a permit, without stamps, issued by the Postmaster General.

(b) The fee for a permit under subsection (a) (5) is $10 and shall be paid at the time of application.

§ 4053. Postage meters

A postage meter is a device or mechanism to print prepaid postage and a postmark on mail matter, which automatically locks when the amount of postage registered therein is exhausted. Meters in the possession of patrons shall be set by postmasters for the amount of postage collected at the time of setting. Mail on which postage is paid by means of a postage meter is called "metered mail." The impressions made by postage meters are called "meter stamps."

§ 4054. Postage collection on Armed Forces mail

The Postmaster General may transmit, without the prepayment of postage, letters of members of the Armed Forces in the service of the United States certified in a manner prescribed by him, and collect the postage upon delivery.

§ 4055. Refund of postage

The Postmaster General may refund out of postal receipts postage which he is satisfied has been—

- (1) paid for service not rendered; or
- (2) collected in excess of the lawful rate.

§ 4056. Acceptance of letters by transportation employees or carriers

A postal transportation employee or other carrier of the mail shall accept letters presented to him on which postage is properly prepaid by stamps.

§ 4057. Opening first class mail

Only an employee opening dead mail by authority of the Postmaster General, or a person holding a search warrant authorized by law may open any letter or parcel of the first class which is in the custody of the Department.

§ 4058. Wrapping matter not charged with first class postage

(a) The Postmaster General may prescribe the manner of wrapping and securing mail not charged with first class postage so that the contents of the mail may be easily examined. He shall charge the first class rate of postage on all matter which cannot be examined easily.

(b) To ascertain whether the proper rate of postage has been paid, postmasters may examine second class mail and remove the wrappers and envelopes from other mail not bearing first class postage if it can be done without destroying them.

§ 4059. Addresses on postal cards and unsealed circulars

Addresses upon postal cards, post cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender.

§ 4060. Foreign publications free from customs duty

(a) Printed matter other than books received in the mail from foreign countries under the provisions of postal treaties or conventions are free of customs duty.

(b) When books which are admitted to the international mail under the provisions of the Universal Postal Union Convention are subject to customs duty, they may be delivered by the Postmaster General as addressed under such regulations for the collection of duties as may be agreed upon by him and the Secretary of the Treasury.

CHAPTER 55—SHORT PAID AND UNDELIVERABLE MAIL

Sec.

- 4101. Retention period for undelivered mail.
- 4102. Forwarding mail.
- 4103. Return of mail.
- 4104. International dead letters.
- 4105. Disposal of undelivered mail.
- 4106. Notice of nondelivery of mail.
- 4107. Dead letter offices established.
- 4108. Dead letter treatment of first class mail.
- 4109. Unpaid and part paid mail.
- 4110. Charges for unpaid and part paid mail.

§ 4101. Retention period for undelivered mail

The Postmaster General may prescribe the period during which undelivered mail may be held for delivery.

§ 4102. Forwarding mail

The Postmaster General shall forward prepaid first class mail from one post office to another at the request of the party addressed without additional charge for postage. He shall charge additional postage on mail of other classes forwarded from one post office to another in accordance with section 4105 of this title.

§ 4103. Return of mail

Prepaid letters or parcels of the first class endorsed with the sender's name and address shall be returned by the Postmaster General without additional charge for postage if remaining undelivered for the period directed by the sender or as prescribed by the Postmaster General. He may not return other mail matter unless the sender pays additional postage in accordance with section 4105 of this title.

§ 4104. International dead letters

The Postmaster General shall treat international dead letters in accordance with postal arrangements made with other countries pursuant to section 505 of this title.

§ 4105. Disposal of undelivered mail

(a) Undelivered mail, other than letters and parcels of the first class, may be—

- (1) disposed of as the Postmaster General directs; or
- (2) forwarded to the addressee or returned to the sender.

The postage for the service may be prepaid or collected on delivery in accordance with the instructions and pledge of the addressee or sender.

(b) The Postmaster General may prescribe conditions under which mail covered by subsection (a), including mail which is of an urgent or perishable nature, and for which payment of forwarding or return postage is not pledged, may be forwarded or returned.

(c) The Postmaster General may sell undelivered parcels containing perishable matter, not forwarded or returned. He shall remit to the sender or rightful owner the amount realized, less a commission of 10 per centum, or 25 cents, whichever is the greater.

§ 4106. Notice of nondelivery of mail

(a) The Postmaster General may notify the sender or addressee when mail, other than mail of the first class, is undeliverable as addressed.

(b) The Postmaster General shall notify the publisher or news agent when copies of a publication of the second class mailed by him are undeliverable as addressed. Copies of publications undeliverable as addressed received subsequent to the notice may be treated as directed by the Postmaster General.

§ 4107. Dead letter offices established

The Postmaster General may designate places, known as dead letter offices, for the examination and treatment of dead mail.

§ 4108. Dead letter treatment of first class mail

(a) The Postmaster General shall send first class mail which cannot be delivered either to the addressee or sender to a dead letter office. He shall cause enclosures of value, other than correspondence, to be recorded. When the sender or addressee cannot be identified, he shall hold the letters or parcels for reclamation for a period of one year after which they shall be disposed of as he directs. Letters and parcels without valuable enclosures may be disposed of by him without record and not held for reclamation.

(b) The Postmaster General shall return to the senders by registered mail ordinary dead letters containing $10 or more in cash, and parcels of the first class which apparently contain matter valued at $10 or more. The minimum registry fee, in addition to such other fees as the Postmaster General may prescribe, shall be collected at the time of delivery.

§ 4109. Unpaid and part paid mail

The Postmaster General shall prescribe the conditions for delivery to the addressee, return to the sender, or other disposition, of matter mailed without prepayment of the postage required by law.

§ 4110. Charges for unpaid and part paid mail

The Postmaster General shall prescribe from time to time the charges to be collected for matter mailed without prepayment of required postage. The charges—

(1) shall be in addition to the payment of lawfully required postage,

(2) may not be adjusted more frequently than once every two years, and

(3) when adjusted, shall equal, as nearly as practicable, the approximate cost incurred by the Department with respect to the delivery of such matter and the collection of postage and other charges thereon.

The Postmaster General may waive the collection of any charges when he deems a waiver to be in the interest of the Government.

4166. Lending or permitting use of frank unlawful.

4167. Reimbursement for franked mailings.

4168. Correspondence of members of diplomatic corps and consuls of countries of Postal Union of Americas and Spain.

§ 4151. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

“Penalty mail” means official mail, other than franked mail, which is authorized by law to be transmitted in the mail without prepayment of postage.

“Penalty cover” means envelopes, wrappers, labels, or cards used to transmit penalty mail.

“Frank” means the autographic or facsimile signature of persons authorized by sections 4161–4167 of this title to transmit matter through the mail without prepayment of postage or other indicia contemplated by sections 162 and 185 of title 44.

“Franked mail” means mail which is transmitted in the mail under a frank.

§ 4152. Penalty mail

(a) Subject to the limitations imposed by sections 4154 and 4158 of this title, there may be transmitted as penalty mail—

(1) official mail of—

(A) officers of the United States Government other than Members of Congress;

(B) the Smithsonian Institution;

(C) the Pan American Union;

(D) the Pan American Sanitary Bureau;

(E) the United States Employment Service and the system of employment offices operated by it in conformity with the provisions of sections 49–49c, 49d, 49e–49k of title 29, and all State employment systems which receive funds appropriated under authority of those sections; and

(F) any college officer or other person connected with the extension department of the college as the Secretary of Agriculture may designate to the Postmaster General to the extent that the official mail consists of correspondence, bulletins, and reports for the furtherance of the purposes of sections 341–343, 344–348 of title 7;

(2) mail relating to naturalization to be sent to the Immigration and Naturalization Service by clerks of courts addressed to the Department of Justice or the Immigration and Naturalization Service, or any official thereof;

(3) mail relating to a collection of statistics, survey or census authorized by title 13 and addressed to the Department of Commerce or a bureau or agency thereof; and

(4) mail of State Agriculture Experiment Stations pursuant to sections 325 and 361f of title 7.

(5) articles for copyright deposited with postmasters and addressed to the Register of Copyrights pursuant to section 15 of title 17.

(b) A department or officer authorized to use penalty covers may enclose them with return address to any person from or through whom official information is desired. The penalty cover may be used only to transmit the official information and endorsements relating thereto.

(c) This section does not apply to officers who receive a fixed allowance as compensation for their services, including expenses of postage.

§ 4153. Endorsements on penalty covers

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, penalty covers shall bear, over the words “Official Business” an endorsement showing the name of the department, bureau or office from which, or officer from whom, it is transmitted. The penalty for the unlawful use of all penalty covers shall be printed thereon.

(b) The Postmaster General shall prescribe the endorsement to be placed on covers mailed under paragraphs (1) (E), (2), and (3) of section 4152 (a) of this title.

§ 4154. Restrictions on use of penalty mail

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an officer, executive department or independent establishment of the Government of the United States may not mail, as penalty mail, any article or document unless—

(1) a request therefor has been previously received by the department or establishment; or

(2) its mailing is required by law.

(b) Subsection (a) does not prohibit the mailing, as penalty mail, by an officer, executive department or independent agency of—

(1) enclosures reasonably related to the subject matter of official correspondence;

(2) informational releases relating to the census of the United States and authorized by title 13;

(3) matter concerning the sale of Government securities;

(4) forms, blanks, and copies of statutes, rules, regulations, instructions, administrative orders, and interpretations necessary in the administration of the department or establishment;

(5) agricultural bulletins;

(6) lists of public documents offered for sale by the Superintendent of Documents;

(7) announcements of the publication of maps, atlases, and statistical and other reports offered for sale by the Federal Power Commission as authorized by section 825k of title 16; or

(8) articles or documents to educational institutions or public libraries, or to Federal, State, or other public authorities.

§ 4155. Accounting for penalty covers

Executive departments and agencies, independent establishments of the Government, and organizations and persons authorized by law to use penalty mail, shall account for all penalty covers through the Postmaster General as he prescribes.

§ 4156. Reimbursement for penalty mail service

(a) Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, executive departments and agencies, independent establishments of the Government, and Government corporations concerned shall transfer to the Post Office Department as postal revenue out of any appropriations or funds available to them, as a necessary expense of the appropriations or funds and of the activities concerned, the equivalent amount of postage due, as determined by the Postmaster General, for matter sent in the mails by or to them as penalty mail under authority of section 4152 of this title.

(b) The Department of Agriculture shall transfer to the Post Office Department as postal revenues out of any appropriation made to it for that purpose the equivalent amount of postage, as determined by the Postmaster General, for penalty mailings under paragraphs (1) (F) and (4) of subsection (a) of section 4152 of this title.

(c) The Library of Congress shall transfer to the Post Office Department as postal revenues out of any appropriations made to it for that purpose the equivalent amount of postage, as determined by the Postmaster General, for penalty mailings under paragraph (5) of subsection (a) of section 4152 of this title.

§ 4157. Report to Congress by Postmaster General

The Postmaster General shall report to the Congress and to the Bureau of the Budget within ninety days after the close of each fiscal year the number of penalty covers accounted for through him during the fiscal year by each executive department and agency, independent establishment, and organization or person authorized to use penalty mail.

§ 4158. Limit of weight of penalty mail; postage on overweight matter

(a) Penalty mail is restricted to articles not in excess of the weight and size prescribed for first class mail, except—

(1) stamped paper and supplies sold or used by the postal service; and

(2) books and documents published or circulated by order of Congress when mailed by the Superintendent of Public Documents.

(b) A penalty mail article which is—

(1) over four pounds in weight,

(2) not in excess of the weight and size prescribed for fourth class matter, and

(3) otherwise mailable,

is mailable at fourth class rates even though it may include written matter and may be sealed. The postage on such an article is payable in the manner prescribed by the Postmaster General.

§ 4159. Shipment by most economical means

Shipments of official matter other than franked mail shall be sent by the most economical means of transportation practicable. The Postmaster General may refuse to accept official matter for shipment by mail when in his judgment it may be shipped by other means at less expense, or he may provide for its transportation by freight or express, whenever a saving to the Government will result therefrom without detriment to the public service.

§ 4160. Executive Departments to supply information

Persons and governmental organizations authorized to use penalty mail shall supply all information requested by the Postmaster General necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 4151—4168 of this title as soon as practicable after request therefor.

§ 4161. Official correspondence of Vice President and Members of Congress

The Vice President, Members and Members-elect of Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate until the thirtieth day of June following the expiration of their respective terms of office, may send as franked mail—

- (1) matter, not exceeding four pounds in weight, upon official or departmental business, to a Government official; and
- (2) correspondence, not exceeding four ounces in weight, upon official business to any person.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Senate or Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, any authorized person may exercise this privilege in the officer's name during the period of the vacancy.

§ 4162. Public documents

The Vice President, Members of Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, until the thirtieth day of June following the expiration of their respective terms of office, may send and receive as franked mail all public documents printed by order of Congress.

§ 4163. Congressional Record under frank of Members of Congress

Members of Congress may send as franked mail the Congressional Record, or any part thereof, or speeches or reports therein contained.

§ 4164. Seeds and reports from Department of Agriculture

Seeds and agricultural reports emanating from the Department of Agriculture may be mailed—

- (1) as penalty mail by the Secretary of Agriculture; and
- (2) until the 30th day of June following the expiration of their terms of office as franked mail by Members of Congress.

§ 4165. Mailing privilege of former Presidents.

A former President may send all his mail within the United States and its Territories and possessions as franked mail.

§ 4166. Lending or permitting use of frank unlawful

A person entitled to use a frank may not lend it or permit its use by any committee, organization, or association, or permit its use by any person for the benefit or use of any committee, organization, or association. This section does not apply to any committee composed of Members of Congress.

§ 4167. Reimbursement for franked mailings

(a) The postage on mail matter sent and received through the mails under the franking privilege by the Vice President, Members, and Members-elect of Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, including registry fees if registration is required, shall be paid by a lump-sum appropriation to the legislative branch for that purpose, and credited to the Department as postal revenue.

(b) The postage on mail matter sent through the mails under the franking privilege by former Presidents shall be paid by reimbursement of the postal revenues each fiscal year out of the general funds of the Treasury in an amount equivalent to the postage which would otherwise be payable on the mail matter.

§ 4168. Correspondence of members of diplomatic corps and consuls of countries of Postal Union of Americas and Spain

Correspondence of the members of the diplomatic corps of the countries of the Postal Union of the Americas and Spain stationed in the United States may be reciprocally transmitted in the domestic mails free of postage, and be entitled to free registration without right to indemnity in case of loss. The same privilege is accorded consuls and vice consuls when they are discharging the function of consuls of countries stationed in the United States, for official correspondence among themselves, and with the Government of the United States.

CHAPTER 59—FIRST CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4251. Definition.

4252. Weight limit.

4253. Postage rates on first class mail.

4254. Business reply mail.

§ 4251. Definition

(a) First class mail consists of mailable (1) postal cards, (2) post cards, (3) matter wholly or partially in writing or typewriting, except as provided in sections 4365, 4453, and 4555 of this title, and (4) matter closed against postal inspection.

(b) A postal card is a card supplied by the Department with a postage stamp printed or impressed on it for the transmission of messages, orders, notices and other communications, either printed or written in pencil or ink.

(c) Post cards are privately printed mailing cards for the transmission of messages. They may not be larger than the size fixed by the Convention of the Universal Postal Union in effect and of approximately the same form, quality and weight as postal cards.

(d) Drop letters are letters—

(1) mailed for local delivery at post offices where letter carrier service is not established; and

(2) neither collected nor delivered by rural or star route carriers.

§ 4252. Weight limit

The maximum weight of first class mail is the same as the maximum limit applicable to fourth class mail.

§ 4253. Postage rates on first class mail

(a) Postage on first class mail is computed separately on each letter or piece of mail. The rate of postage on first class mail is four cents for each ounce or fraction of an ounce, except that the rate—

(1) on drop letters is three cents for each ounce or fraction of an ounce;

(2) for each single postal card and each portion of a double postal card, including the cost of manufacture, is three cents;

(3) for each post card and the initial portion of each double post card conforming to section 4251 (c) of this title is three cents.

(b) The rate of postage on business reply mail is the regular rate prescribed in subsection (a) of this section together with an additional charge thereon of two cents for each piece weighing two ounces or less and five cents for each piece weighing more than two ounces. The postage and charge shall be collected on delivery.

§ 4254. Business reply mail

The Postmaster may accept for transmission in the mails, without prepayment of postage, business reply cards, letters, and business reply envelopes, and any other matter under business reply labels.

CHAPTER 61—AIR MAIL AND AIR PARCEL POST

Sec.

4301. Definitions.

4302. Treatment of air mail.

4303. Postage rates on air mail.

4304. Postage on Alaskan air mail.

4305. Size and weight limits.

§ 4301. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

(1) “domestic air mail” means matter bearing postage at the rates of postage prescribed in sections 4303 and 4304 of this title which is mailed in the United States Postal Service for transportation by air and delivery by the United States Postal Service.

(2) “air parcel post” means domestic air mail of any class weighing in excess of eight ounces.

§ 4302. Treatment of air mail

(a) Except with respect to the postage required, domestic air mail, other than air parcel post, shall be treated as first class mail.

(b) The Postmaster General shall prescribe the conditions under which air parcel post shall be—

- (1) forwarded or returned to the sender;
- (2) charged with forwarding or return postage; and
- (3) registered, insured, or given C. O. D. service.

He shall provide for the treatment of unpaid or short paid air parcel post.

§ 4303. Postage rates on air mail

(a) Except as provided in section 4304 of this title and subsection (b) of this section the rate of postage on domestic air mail weighing not more than eight ounces is seven cents for each ounce or fraction thereof.

(b) The rate of postage on each postal card and post card sent as domestic air mail is five cents.

(c) The rate of postage on letters in business reply envelopes and on business reply cards sent as domestic air mail is the regular rate prescribed in subsection (a) or (b) together with an additional charge thereon of two cents for each piece weighing two ounces or less and five cents for each piece weighing more than two ounces. The postage and charge shall be collected on delivery.

(d) (1) The rates of postage on air parcel post are based on the eight zones established for fourth class mail in accordance with the following table:

Zones	First pound over 8 ounces or fraction thereof	Additional pounds or fraction thereof
	Cents	Cents
1, 2, and 3.....	60	48
4.....	65	50
5.....	70	56
6.....	75	64
7.....	75	72
8.....	80	80

(2) The rate of postage on airmail of the first class weighing in excess of eight ounces shall be the rate provided for air parcels, but in no event shall it be less than the rate provided for first class surface mail.

(3) In addition to parcels to which it is otherwise applicable, the eighth zone includes, for purposes of this section only, parcels transported as follows:

(A) between the continental United States, its Territories and possessions or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone.

(B) between the continental United States, its Territories and possessions or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and Army and Air Forces post offices and naval vessels and commands, when the address is in care of Fleet Post Offices, New York, New York, or San Francisco, California.

(e) Air parcel post of light weight in relation to size is subject to such surcharge as the Postmaster General determines to be warranted by reason of the extra space and care required in handling and transporting it.

§ 4304. Postage on Alaskan air mail

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 4303 of this title, the Postmaster General may fix the postage at rates not exceeding 30 cents per ounce or 15 cents per one-half ounce for airmail sent to, from, or within Alaska.

§ 4305. Size and weight limits

The maximum size and weight of domestic airmail and air parcel post is 100 inches in length and girth combined and 70 pounds.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION PUBLICATIONS

- 4421. Definition.
- 4422. Rates.

§ 4351. Definition

Second class mail embraces newspapers and other periodical publications when entered and mailed in accordance with sections 4352–4357 of this title.

§ 4352. Entry as second class mail

(a) Upon application in the form prescribed by him the Postmaster General shall enter as second class mail, at the Post Office where the office of publication is maintained, any publication which is entitled under sections 4353–4357 of this title to be classified as second class mail. A publication entered at one post office may also upon application be entered by him at another post office.

(b) The Postmaster General may revoke the entry of a publication as second class mail whenever he finds, after a hearing, that the publication is no longer entitled to be entered as second class mail.

(c) The Postmaster General may not accept for mailing as second class mail any publication having more than 75 per centum advertising in more than one-half of its issues during any twelve-month period and he shall revoke its entry. A charge made solely for the publication of transportation schedules, fares, and related information is not considered as advertising under this subsection.

§ 4353. Entry of foreign publications

Foreign newspapers and other periodicals of the same general character as domestic publications entered as second class mail may be accepted by the Postmaster General, on application of the publishers thereof or their agents, for transmission through the mail at the same rates as if published in the United States. This section does not authorize the transmission through the mail of a publication which violates a copyright granted by the United States.

§ 4354. Conditions for entry of publications

(a) Generally aailable periodical publication is entitled to be entered and mailed as second class mail if it—

(1) is regularly issued at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year and bears a date of issue and is numbered consecutively;

(2) is issued from a known office of publication;

(3) is formed of printed sheets;

(4) is originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, arts, or a special industry; and

(5) has a legitimate list of subscribers.

(b) For the purpose of this section, the word “printed” does not include reproduction by the stencil, mimeograph or hectograph processes or reproduction in imitation of typewriting.

(c) A periodical publication designed primarily for advertising purposes or for free circulation or for circulation at nominal rates is not entitled to be admitted as second class mail under this section.

§ 4355. Conditions for entry of publications of certain organizations

(a) Mailable periodical publications meeting the first three conditions of section 4354(a) of this title are entitled to be entered and mailed as second class mail when they do not contain advertising other than that of the publisher and if they are—

(1) published by a regularly incorporated institution of learning; or

(2) published by a regularly established State institution of learning supported in whole or in part by public taxation; or

(3) a bulletin issued by a State board of health; or

(4) a bulletin issued by a State conservation or fish and game agency or department; or

(5) a bulletin issued by a State board or department of public charities and corrections; or

(6) published by or under the auspices of a benevolent or fraternal society or order organized under the lodge system and having a bona fide membership of not less than 1,000 persons; or

(7) published by or under the auspices of a trades union; or

(8) published by a strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific society; or

(9) published by a church or church organization.

(b) A publication containing advertising of persons other than the publisher but otherwise qualifying under items (6) through (9) of subsection (a) of this section is entitled to be entered and mailed as second class mail if—

(1) the publication is not designed or published primarily for advertising purposes;

(2) the publication is originated and published to further the objects and purposes of the publisher;

(3) the circulation is limited to copies sent to members who pay either as a part of their dues or assessments, or otherwise, not less than 50 per centum of the regular subscription price; to other actual subscribers; to exchanges; and 10 per centum of the circulation as sample copies.

Individual subscriptions or receipts are not required when members pay for publications, to which this subsection applies, as a part of their dues or assessments.

§ 4356. Conditions for entry of publications of State departments of agriculture

A mailable periodical publication issued by a State department of agriculture may be entered and mailed as second class mail if it—

(1) is issued from a known place of publication;

(2) is issued at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year;

(3) is published only for the purpose of furthering the objects of the departments; and

(4) does not contain advertising matter.

§ 4357. Fees for entry and registration

(a) The fees for entry as second class mail are as follows—

(1) for a publication having a circulation of not more than 2,000 copies, $25;

(2) for a publication having a circulation of more than 2,000 copies but not more than 5,000 copies, $50;

(3) for a publication having a circulation of more than 5,000 copies, $100.

(b) The fee for re-entry of a publication as second class mail on account of change in title, frequency of issue, office of publication or for other reasons is $10. The fee for each additional entry is $10.

(c) The fee for registry of a news agent is $20.

(d) The applicant shall pay the fees fixed by this section at the time of application. The Postmaster General shall return one-half of any fee paid under subsection (a) of this section to the applicant if he denies the application.

§ 4358. Postage rates within county of publication

(a) One copy each of a publication admitted as second class mail may be mailed free to each actual subscriber if the subscriber—

(1) resides in the county in which the publication is printed in whole or in part and in which it is published; and

(2) receives his mail at an office at which letter carrier service is not established.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section and subject to the minimum rates provided by section 4360 of this title, the rate of postage on publications admitted as second class mail when addressed for delivery within the county in which they are published and entered is as follows—

(1) if mailed for delivery by letter carrier at the office of mailing:

(A) publications issued more frequently than weekly, one cent a copy;

(B) publications issued weekly, one cent a pound;

(C) publications issued less frequently than weekly—

(i) weighing two ounces or less, one cent a copy,

(ii) weighing more than two ounces, two cents a copy;

(2) if mailed for delivery at the office of mailing through post office boxes, general delivery or by rural or star route carrier, one cent a pound;

(3) if mailed for delivery at an office other than the office of mailing, one cent a pound.

(c) When copies of a publication are mailed at a post office where it is entered for delivery by letter carrier at a different post office within the delivery limits of which the headquarters or general business office of the publisher is located the rate of postage is—

(1) the rate that would be applicable if the copies were mailed at the latter post office, or

(2) the pound rates from the office of mailing if the rates under paragraph (1) hereof are higher.

§ 4359. Postage rates beyond county of publication

(a) Except as provided in sections 4358, 4361, and 4362 of this title, the rates of postage set out in this section are applicable to copies, including sample copies to the extent of 10 per centum of the weight of copies mailed to subscribers during the calendar year, of publications entered as second class mail mailed to news agents for the purpose of sale or to actual subscribers by—

- (1) the publishers from any office at which it is entered, or
- (2) a registered news agent.

(b) Subject to the minimum rates provided by section 4360 of this title, the rates of postage on publications mailed in accordance with subsection (a) of this section are fixed by the pound as follows:

	Classroom publications	Other publications
		Mailed during calendar year 1959	Mailed during calendar year 1960	Mailed after Dec. 31, 1960
Advertising portion:
Zones 1 and 2.....	1.5	2.2	2.6	3.0
Zone 3.....	2.0	3.0	3.5	4.0
Zone 4.....	3.0	4.5	5.2	6.0
Zone 5.....	4.0	6.0	7.0	8.0
Zone 6.....	5.0	7.7	8.7	10.0

Zone 8.....	7.0	11.0	12.5	14.0
Nonadvertising portion.....	1.5	2.1	2.3	2.5
Publications of nonprofit organizations.....		1.5	1.5	1.5

(c) For the purpose of this section, the portion of a publication devoted to advertisements shall include all advertisements inserted in the publication and attached permanently thereto.

(d) The publisher of a classroom publication or of a publication of a nonprofit organization before being entitled to the rates for the publications shall furnish such proof of qualifications as the Postmaster General prescribes.

(e) As used in this section the term—

(1) “classroom publication” means a religious, educational or scientific publication entered as second class mail and designed specifically for use in classrooms or in religious instruction classes;

(2) “publication of nonprofit organization” means a publication entered as second class mail which is published by and in the interests of a religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans’ or fraternal organization or association not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual; and

(3) “zones” means the eight zones established for fourth class mail.

§ 4360. Minimum postage

The following are the minimum rates for each individually addressed copy of second class mail:

SECOND CLASS MINIMUM RATES

[In cents]

	Mailed during calendar year 1959	Mailed during calendar year 1960	Mailed after Dec. 31, 1960
For delivery within county of publication except when mailed free under sec. 4358(a) of this title.....	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$
For delivery beyond county of publication:
Classroom and nonprofit organization publication.....	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$	$\frac{1}{8}$
Other publications.....	$\frac{1}{4}$	$\frac{3}{8}$	$\frac{1}{2}$

§ 4361. Rates for proofs of advertisements

The publisher may mail single sheets or portions thereof from any publication entered as second class mail, to an advertiser or his agent as proof of the insertion of an advertisement, at the zone rates of postage applicable to the advertising portions of second class mail under section 4359 of this title.

§ 4362. Transient postage rate

The rate of postage on copies of publications having second class entry mailed—

(1) by persons other than the publishers or registered news agents;

(2) as sample copies by the publishers in excess of the 10 per centum permitted to be mailed at the pound rates; and

(3) copies mailed by the publishers to persons who may not be included in the required legitimate list of subscribers;

is two cents for the first two ounces and one cent for each additional ounce or fraction thereof. When postage at the rates prescribed for fourth class mail is lower, the latter applies. The rates are computed on each individually addressed copy or package of unaddressed copies.

§ 4363. Separation by mailer of second class mail

The Postmaster General may require publishers and news agents to separate and make up to zones, in such manner as he directs, second class mail offered for mailing.

§ 4364. Information to be furnished by mailer

With the first mailing of each issue of a publication mailed as second class mail, the publisher shall file a copy of the issue together with a statement containing such information as the Postmaster General prescribes for determining the postage to be paid.

§ 4365. Permissible marks and enclosures

(a) Second class mail may contain no writing, print, or sign thereon or therein, in addition to the original print except—

(1) the name and address of the person to whom the mail is sent and directions for transmission, delivery, forwarding or return;

(2) index figures of subscription book either printed or written;

(3) the printed title of the publication and the place of its publication;

(4) the printed or written name and address without addition of advertisement of the publisher or sender, or both;

(5) written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to the matter will end;

(6) the correction of typographical errors;

(7) a mark except written or printed words to designate a word or passage to which it is desired to call attention;

(8) the words “sample copy” when the matter is sent as such; and

(9) the words “marked copy” when the matter contains a marked item or article.

(b) Publishers and news agents may enclose in their publications bills, receipts and orders for subscriptions.

(c) This section does not prohibit the insertion in periodicals of advertisements permanently attached thereto.

§ 4366. Permissible supplements

Publishers may fold a supplement within the regular issue of a publication entered as second class mail if the supplement is—

(1) germane to the publication;

(2) needed to supply matter omitted from the regular issue for want of space, time or greater convenience; and

(3) issued with the regular issue.

§ 4367. Marking of advertising matter

Editorial or other reading matter contained in publications entered as second class mail and for the publication of which a valuable consideration is paid, accepted or promised, shall be marked plainly “advertisement” by the publisher.

§ 4368. Affidavits relating to mailings; second class mail

The Postmaster General may require when he deems it necessary—

(1) a publisher of a second class publication; or

(2) a news agent who distributed the publication; or

(3) an employee of the publisher or news agent to make an affidavit in the form prescribed by the Postmaster General, stating that he will not send or knowingly permit to be sent through the mails a copy of the publication without prepayment of postage thereon at the rate prescribed by law.

§ 4369. Affidavits relating to publications of the second class

(a) The editor, publisher, business manager or owner of a publication entered as second class mail shall file with the Postmaster General and publish in the second issue thereafter of the publication to which it relates a sworn statement on forms furnished by the Postmaster General on or before the first day of October of each year setting forth—

(1) the names and post office addresses of the editor and managing editor, publisher, business managers and owners;

(2) the name of the corporation and the stockholders thereof if the publication is owned by a corporation;

(3) the names of known bond holders, mortgagees or other security holders; and

(4) in the case of daily, semi-weekly, tri-weekly and weekly publications, the average number of copies of each issue of the publication sold or distributed through the mails or otherwise distributed to paid subscribers during the preceding 12 months.

The sworn statement need not include the names of persons owning less than one per centum of the total amount of stock, bonds, mortgages or other securities.

(b) The Postmaster General shall deny the privilege of the mail to a publication which fails to comply with the provisions of this section within ten days after notice by registered mail of the failure.

(c) This section is not applicable to religious, fraternal, temperance, scientific, or similar publications.

§ 4370. Delivery of newspapers by the Postal Transportation Service

The Postmaster General may provide by order the terms upon which the Department will receive directly from publishers or news agents in charge thereof, packages of newspapers and other periodicals not received from or intended for delivery at any post office and deliver them as directed, if presented and called for at the mail car or steamer.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION PUBLICATIONS

§ 4421. Definition

Controlled circulation publications are those publications that—

- (1) contain twenty-four pages or more;
- (2) are issued at regular intervals of four or more times a year;
- (3) devote 25 per centum or more of their pages to text or reading matter and not more than 75 per centum to advertising matter;
- (4) are circulated free or mainly free; and
- (5) are not owned and controlled by one or several individuals or business concerns and conducted as an auxiliary to and essentially for the advancement of the main business or calling of those who own or control them.

§ 4422. Rates of postage

The postage rates on controlled circulation publications found by the Postmaster General to meet the definition contained in section 4421 of this title is 12 cents a pound or fraction thereof, regardless of the weight of the individual copies, with a minimum charge of 1 cent for each piece. The rates provided in this section shall remain in effect until otherwise provided by the Congress.

CHAPTER 65—THIRD CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4451. Definition.

4452. Postage rates.

4453. Permissible marks and enclosures.

§ 4451. Definition

(a) Third class mail consists of mailable matter which is—

- (1) not mailed or required to be mailed as first class mail;
- (2) not entered as second class mail; and
- (3) less than sixteen ounces in weight.

(b) A person who presents for mailing at one time twenty or more identical copies of bills and statements of account produced by any photographic or mechanical process, other than typewriting, may mail them as third class mail. In other cases, bills and statements of account shall be mailed as first class mail.

(c) Circulars, including printed letters which according to internal evidence are being sent in identical terms to several persons, are third class mail. A circular does not lose its character as such when the date and name of the addressee and of the sender are written therein, nor by the correction in writing of mere typographical errors.

(d) Unsealed letters written in point print or raised characters, or on sound reproduction records, used by the blind are third class mail without regard to the limit on weight prescribed in subsection (a) (2) of this section.

(e) Printed matter within the limit of weight set forth in subsection (a) of this section is third class mail. For the purpose of this subsection, printed matter is paper on which words, letters, characters, figures or images, or any combination thereof, not having the character of actual and personal correspondence, have been reproduced by any process other than handwriting or typewriting.

§ 4452. Postage rates

(a) Subject to the minimum rates per piece provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the postage rates on third class mail are as follows:

Type of mailing	Rate	Unit
(1) Individual piece.....	Cents 3	First 2 ounces or fraction thereof.
(2) Bulk mailings under subsec. (e) of this section of—	1½	Each additional ounce or fraction thereof.
(A) Books and catalogs of 24 pages or more, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions and plants.	10	Each pound or fraction thereof.
(B) Other matter.....	16	Do.

(b) Matter mailed in bulk under subsection (e) of this section is subject to the following minimum rates for each piece unless a higher minimum rate is applicable under subsection (c) of this section:

[In cents]

Mailed by—	Through June 30, 1960	After June 30, 1960
Other than nonprofit organizations.....	2	2½
Nonprofit organizations.....	(1)	(1)

¹ One-half the minimum rate applicable to other than nonprofit organizations.

(c) The minimum postage rate on pieces or packages of third class mail of such size or form as to prevent ready facing and tying in bundles and requiring individual distribution is six cents.

(d) The term “nonprofit organization” as used in subsections (a) and (b) of this section means religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans, or fraternal organizations or associations not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. Before being entitled to the preferential rates set out in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the organization or association shall furnish proof of its qualifications to the Postmaster General.

(e) Upon payment of a fee of $20 for each calendar year or portion thereof, any person may mail in the manner directed by the Postmaster General, separately addressed, identical pieces of third class mail in quantities of not less than twenty pounds or of not less than two hundred pieces subject to pound rates of postage applicable to the entire bulk mail at one time.

§ 4453. Permissible marks and enclosures

Only marks and enclosures permissible in the case of fourth class mail, pursuant to section 4555 of this title, may be placed on or enclosed in third class mail.

CHAPTER 67—FOURTH CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4551. Definition.

4552. Size and weight limitations.

4553. Postal zones.

4554. Postage rates on books and films.

4555. Permissible marks and enclosures.

§ 4551. Definition

Fourth class mail consists of mailable matter—

- (1) not mailed or required to be mailed as first class mail;
- (2) within the size and weight limits prescribed for fourth class mail; and
- (3) not entered as second class mail.

§ 4552. Size and weight limitations

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section—

- (1) the maximum size of fourth class mail is seventy-two inches in girth and length combined, and
- (2) the minimum weight is sixteen ounces and the maximum forty pounds in the first and second zones and twenty pounds in any other zone.

(b) The maximum size of fourth class mail is one hundred inches in girth and length combined and the minimum weight is sixteen ounces and the maximum seventy pounds for parcels—

- (1) mailed at, or addressed for delivery at, a second, third, or fourth class post office or on a rural or star route;
- (2) containing baby fowl, liveplants, trees, shrubs or agricultural commodities but not the manufactured products of those commodities;
- (3) consisting of books permanently bound for preservation consisting wholly of reading matter or reading matter with incidental blank spaces for students' notations and containing no advertising matter other than incidental announcements of books;

(4) addressed to or mailed at an Army, Air Force, or Fleet post office;

(5) addressed to or mailed in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Territory of Hawaii or a possession of the United States including the Canal Zone and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands; and

(6) consisting of reproducers for sound reproduction records for the blind or parts thereof, and of Braille writers and other appliances for the blind or parts thereof, mailed under section 4654 of this title.

§ 4553. Postal zones

(a) For the purposes of fourth class mail the United States, its possessions, the Territory of Hawaii and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico are divided into units of area thirty minutes square, identical with a quarter of the area formed by the intersecting parallels of latitude and meridians of longitude, represented on postal maps or plans.

(b) The units of area are the basis of eight postal zones, as follows:

(1) the first zone includes all territory within the quadrangle in conjunction with every contiguous quadrangle, representing an area having a mean radial distance of approximately fifty miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(2) the second zone includes all units of area outside the first zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one hundred and fifty miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(3) the third zone includes all units of area outside the second zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately three hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(4) the fourth zone includes all units of area outside the third zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately six hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(5) the fifth zone includes all units of area outside the fourth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(6) the sixth zone includes all units of area outside the fifth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand four hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(7) the seventh zone includes all units of area outside the sixth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand eight hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

(8) the eighth zone includes all units of area outside the seventh zone.

§ 4554. Postage rates on books, films, and similar educational materials

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the postage rate is 9 cents a pound for the first pound or fraction thereof and 5 cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof on—

(1) books permanently bound for preservation, consisting wholly of reading matter or scholarly bibliography or reading matter with incidental blank spaces for students' notations and containing no advertising matter other than incidental announcement of books;

(2) 16-millimeter films and 16-millimeter film catalogs except when sent to commercial theaters;

(3) printed music, whether in bound form or in sheet form;

(4) printed objective test materials and accessories thereto used by or in behalf of educational institutions in the testing of ability, aptitude, achievement, interests, and other mental and personal qualities with or without answer or by mark;

(5) phonograph recordings; and

(6) manuscripts for books, periodicals and music.

(b) (1) Matter designated in paragraph (2) of this subsection may be mailed at the regular third or fourth class postage rates, or at the rate of 4 cents for the first pound or fraction thereof and 1 cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof when loaned or exchanged between—

(A) schools, colleges or universities;

(B) public libraries, religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, veterans', or fraternal organizations or associations, not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or between such organizations and their members, readers or borrowers.

(2) The materials mailable under the rates prescribed in paragraph (1) of this subsection are—

(A) books consisting wholly of reading matter or scholarly bibliography or reading matter with incidental blank spaces for students' notations and containing no advertising matter other than incidental announcements of books;

(B) printed music matter, whether in bound form or in sheet form;

(C) bound volumes of academic theses in typewritten or other duplicated form;

(D) bound volumes of periodicals;

(E) phonograph recordings; and

(F) other library materials in printed, duplicated, or photographic form or in the form of unpublished manuscripts.

(3) Before being entitled to the preferential rates under this subsection, the Postmaster General may require an organization or association to furnish satisfactory evidence to him that none of the net income inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(c) 16 millimeter films, film strips, transparencies for projection slides, microfilms, sound recordings, and catalog of those items may be mailed at the rates prescribed in subsection (b) (1) of this section when sent to or from the institutions, organizations or associations listed in (A) and (B) of subsection (b) (1).

(d) The limit of weight on parcels mailed under this section is 70 pounds.

(e) The postage rates prescribed in this section shall continue until otherwise provided by the Congress.

§ 4555. Permissible marks and enclosures

The sender may not place on or enclose in fourth class mail marks that have the character of personal correspondence, but the following marks and enclosures may be placed on or in fourth class mail when space is left on the address side sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps—

(1) the sender's name, occupation, and address, preceded by the word "from", and directions for transmission, delivery, forwarding, or return;

(2) marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to words or passages in the text;

(3) correction of typographical errors;

(4) a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not of the nature of personal correspondence on the blank leaves or cover of a book or other printed matter;

(5) matter mailable as third class mail printed on the wrapper, envelope, tag or label;

(6) marks, numbers, names or letters for the purpose of description printed or written on the wrapper or cover;

(7) the words "Please Do Not Open Until Christmas" or words to that effect on the package, wrapper or envelope enclosing the same or on a tag or label attached thereto;

(8) corrections on proof sheets;

(9) manuscript accompanying proof sheets; and

(10) matter mailable as third class mail.

CHAPTER 69—POSTAGE RATES FOR MISCELLANEOUS MATTER WITHIN THE VARIOUS CLASSES

Sec.

4651. Keys and other small articles.

4652. Congressional Record.

4653. Publications for the blind.

4654. Reproducers and sound reproduction records for the blind.

§ 4651. Keys and other small articles

(a) Any person may mail without prepayment of postage a key, identification card, identification tag, or similar identification device, or small article which the Postmaster General by regulation designates, which bears, contains, or has attached securely thereto—

(1) a complete, definite, and legible post office address, including any street address or box or route number; and

(2) a notice directing that it be returned to the address, and guaranteeing the payment, on delivery, of the postage due thereon.

(b) Postage at the rate of 5 cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof shall be collected on delivery.

§ 4652. Congressional Record

The postage on each copy of the daily Congressional Record mailed from the District of Columbia as transient matter is one cent.

§ 4653. Publications for the blind

(a) The following matter may be mailed free of postage—

(1) books, pamphlets, and other reading matter:

(A) published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand, or printed, or in the form of sound reproduction records, for use of the blind;

(B) in packages not exceeding the weight prescribed by the Postmaster General;

(C) containing no advertising or other matter whatever;

(D) unsealed;

(E) sent by public institutions for the blind or by any public library as a loan to blind readers, or when returned by the latter to the institutions or public libraries; and

(2) magazines, periodicals and other regularly issued publications:

(A) published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed, or in the form of sound reproduction records, for the use of the blind;

(B) containing no advertising;

(C) for which no subscription fee is charged; and

(3) books or pages thereof:

(A) published in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed;

(B) containing no advertising;

(C) sent to a blind person without cost to the blind person.

(b) There may be mailed at the rate of postage of one cent for each pound or fraction thereof, magazines, periodicals, and other regularly issued publications—

(1) published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed, or in the form of sound reproduction records, for the use of the blind;

(2) containing no advertisements; and

(3) when furnished by an organization, institution, or association not conducted for private profit, to a blind person, at a price not greater than the cost price thereof.

(c) Volumes of the Holy Scriptures or part thereof, published either in raised characters, whether prepared by hand or printed or in the form of sound reproduction records for the use of the blind, which do not contain advertisements—

(1) when furnished to a blind person without charge by an organization, institution, or association not conducted for private profit, may be mailed free of postage; and

(2) when furnished to a blind person at a price not greater than the cost thereof by an organization, institution, or association, not conducted for private profit, may be mailed at the rate of one cent for each pound or fraction thereof.

§ 4654. Reproducers and sound reproduction records for the blind

(a) The postage rate is one cent a pound or fraction thereof on reproducers for sound reproduction records for the blind, or parts thereof, which are the property of the United States Government sent for repair or returned after repair—

(1) by an organization, institution, public library, or association for the blind, not conducted for private profit;

(2) by a blind person to such an agency not conducted for private profit;

(3) from such an agency to an organization, institution, public library, or association for the blind not conducted for private profit; or

(4) to a blind person.

(b) The Postmaster General may extend the rate set out in subsection (a) of this section to reproducers or parts thereof for sound reproduction records for the blind, Braille writers and other appliances for the blind, or parts thereof, that are the property of—

(1) State governments or subdivisions thereof; or

(2) public libraries;

(3) private agencies for the blind not conducted for private profit; or

(4) blind individuals.

CHAPTER 81—REGISTRY, INSURED AND C. O. D. SERVICE

Sec.

5001. Registry system.

5002. Registration of letters containing currency.

5003. Registered official mail.

5004. Reimbursement for matter mailed without prepayment of registry fee.

5005. Declaration of full value of registered mail.

5006. Insurance system.

5007. Collect-on-delivery service.

5008. Undeliverable C. O. D. parcels.

5009. Restricted delivery.

5010. Returns receipts.

5011. Co-insurance.

5012. Receipts of mailing.

§ 5001. Registry system

(a) The Postmaster General may maintain a system of registration for the greater security of mail matter. As part of the registry system he may indemnify the senders or owners of registered articles for their loss, rifling, or damage, in the mails.

(b) The maximum limit of indemnity payable for a registered article is $1,000, or the actual value when that is less than $1,000, and for which no other compensation or reimbursement has been made. However, the Postmaster General may provide for the payment of indemnity for the actual value of a registered article, or an insured article treated as a registered article, in excess of $1,000, but not in excess of $10,000 when the article is not insured with another insuring agency.

(c) The Postmaster General may cause liability or risk assumed by the Department, in connection with the mailing of a particular registered article, to be underwritten or reinsured in whole or in part, with a commercial insurance company.

(d) An additional fee, known as a surcharge, may be required for a registered article, or for an insured article treated as a registered article, that has a declared value in excess of the maximum indemnity covered by the registry or insurance fee.

(e) The official mail of the Department, which requires registration, may be registered without payment of registry fee.

§ 5002. Registration of letters containing currency

The Postmaster General shall accept for registration without prepayment of registry fee—

(1) letters containing fractional or other currency sent for redemption to the Department of the Treasury;

(2) letters sent from the District of Columbia, by the Department of the Treasury containing new currency for currency redeemed when marked with the word “register” over the official signature of the sending officer.

§ 5003. Registered official mail

(a) An executive department or agency, independent establishment of the Government, or Government corporation, or the Public Printer, may register official domestic letter or parcel requiring registration without prepayment of the fees.

(b) Matter requiring registration relating to naturalization or to the census, which is entitled to be sent without prepayment of postage, may be registered without prepayment of registry fee.

§ 5004. Reimbursement for matter mailed without payment of registry fees

Executive departments and agencies, independent establishments of the Government and Government corporations concerned shall transfer to the Department as postal revenue out of appropriations or funds available to them, as a necessary expense of the appropriation or funds and of the activity concerned, the equivalent amount of registry fees, as determined by the Postmaster General, for matter sent in the mails without prepayment of the fee, by or to them under authority of sections 5002 or 5003 of this title.

§ 5005. Declaration of full value of registered mail

(a) Unless otherwise prescribed by the Postmaster General, the mailer shall declare the full value of registered mail, or insured mail treated as registered mail at the time of mailing. The Postmaster General may not pay a claim for indemnity if the value was knowingly and willfully misstated.

(b) The Postmaster General may determine upon what part of the declared value in excess of the maximum indemnity covered by the fee paid, surcharges shall be based for registered mail, or insured mail treated as registered mail, which may be carried at less than the maximum risk of loss in the mails.

§ 5006. Insurance system

The Postmaster General shall provide for the indemnification, by insurance or otherwise, not to exceed $200, for an article sent by third class or fourth class mail which is injured or lost in the mail.

§ 5007. Collect-on-delivery service

(a) The Postmaster General shall provide for the collection on delivery of the postage and price of an article mailed as first, third, or fourth class, or registered, mail.

(b) The maximum amount of charges collectible and the maximum amount of indemnity payable on a collect-on-delivery article is $200, except that indemnity in excess of $200, but not in excess of the limit of indemnity for registered mail, may be paid in the case of a registered collect-on-delivery article.

§ 5008. Undeliverable C. O. D. parcels

(a) The Postmaster General may return to the sender charged with return postage a collect-on-delivery article that the addressee fails to remove from the post office within fifteen days from the first attempt to deliver or the first notice of arrival at the office of address, regardless of whether the parcel bears a specified time limit for delivery. He may collect a demurrage charge when delivery has not been made to either the addressee or the sender until after the expiration of the prescribed period. He may not charge demurrage on collect-on-delivery articles exchanged between post offices in the continental United States and post offices in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Territories and possessions of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General may direct the immediate return to the sender, charged with return postage, of an undeliverable collect-on-delivery article.

§ 5009. Restricted delivery

(a) The Postmaster General may provide for domestic registered, insured, and collect-on-delivery and other mail accorded special services to be restricted in delivery to the addressee only, or to the addressee or order. He shall charge an additional fee for this service.

(b) The Postmaster General may refund fees paid for this service only upon request and when the postal service is at fault for the erroneous delivery or the nondelivery of the article.

§ 5010. Return receipts

(a) Upon payment of the fee prescribed by him, the Postmaster General shall provide senders of mail, receipts showing either—

(1) to whom and when the article was delivered, or

(2) to whom, when, and the address where the article was delivered.

(b) Receipts furnished under subsection (a) of this section shall be received in the courts as prima facie evidence of the delivery.

(c) The Postmaster General may refund fees paid for receipts under subsection (a) of this section when the failure to furnish the receipt, or the equivalent, is the fault of the postal service.

§ 5011. Co-insurance

Claims for indemnity involving registered mail, insured mail treated as registered mail, other insured mail or collect-on-delivery mail which is also insured with another insuring agency shall be adjusted by the Postmaster General on a pro rata basis as a co-insurer with the other insuring agency.

§ 5012. Receipts of mailing

The Postmaster General may provide for the issuance to the sender of a receipt or certificate showing the mailing of ordinary mail, and additional receipts for the mailing of registered, insured, and collect-on-delivery mail.

CHAPTER 83—MONEY ORDER SYSTEM

Sec.

5101. Money order system.

5102. Issuance of money orders.

5103. Payment of money orders.

5104. Indorsement of orders.

5105. Postal notes.

§ 5101. Money order system

To promote public convenience, and insure greater security in remitting funds through the mail, the Postmaster General may maintain a money order system.

§ 5102. Issuance of money orders

(a) The Postmaster General shall cause money orders to be issued at such post offices, including stations and branches, as he designates.

(b) The Postmaster General may not permit a money order to be issued under this chapter for more than $100.

(c) A money order is not valid unless drawn upon a form furnished by the Postmaster General.

(d) The Postmaster General may not permit money orders to be issued on the condition that identification of the payee, indorsee, or attorney may be waived, nor permit payment to be made of a money order so issued.

§ 5103. Payment of money orders

(a) The Postmaster General shall provide for the payment of money orders to the payee, indorsee, or remitter at offices at which money orders are issued.

(b) When a money order has been lost the Postmaster General, upon evidence satisfactory to him, may pay the face value thereof or issue a duplicate money order, without charge, to the person he determines is entitled thereto.

(c) The records of the Department shall serve as the basis for adjudicating claims for payment of money orders.

(d) The Postmaster General may not pay a money order after twenty years from the last day of the month of original issue. Claims for unpaid money orders are forever barred unless received by the Department within that period.

§ 5104. Indorsement of orders

The payee of a money order, by his written indorsement thereon, may direct it to be paid to any other person who shall be entitled to payment upon furnishing such proof as the Postmaster General requires that the indorsement is genuine, and that he is the person named therein. More than one indorsement renders an order invalid. The holder of such an order, if otherwise entitled thereto, may obtain payment under such application and proof of the genuineness of the indorsements as the Postmaster General requires.

§ 5105. Postal notes

(a) The Postmaster General may authorize postmasters at offices designated by him to issue and pay money orders not exceeding $10, to be known as postal notes.

(b) Postal notes are valid for two calendar months from the last day of the month of their issue, but thereafter the Postmaster General may pay them or make refund in case of loss, upon evidence satisfactory to him. The Postmaster General may not consider a claim filed later than one year from the last day of the month of issue of the postal note unless the original postal note is presented with the claim and a duplicate postal note has not been issued therefor.

5221. Application of income from postal savings funds.

5222. Judgment adjudicating right or interest in deposit.

5223. Liability for outstanding postal savings stamps.

5224. Disposal of paid certificates.

§ 5201. Faith of United States pledged to payment of deposits

The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of the deposits made in postal savings depository offices, with accrued interest thereon as provided in this chapter.

§ 5202. Definitions

As used in this chapter "bank" means a bank, including savings banks and trust companies doing a banking business, which is subject to national or state supervision and examination.

§ 5203. Establishment of system

(a) The Board of Trustees of the Postal Savings System, consisting of the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall control, supervise and administer the Postal Savings System.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury shall designate an officer or employee of the Department of the Treasury as Treasurer of the Board of Trustees. The Secretary of the Treasury may employ personnel and expend sums for contingent and miscellaneous items necessary to transact the business of the Postal Savings System in the office of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, utilizing therefor money advanced to the Secretary of the Treasury out of any available appropriation for the establishment, maintenance, and extension of postal savings depositories.

§ 5204. Regulations of Board of Trustees

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the Board of Trustees may make regulations for the receipt, transmittal, custody, deposit, investment and repayment of the funds deposited at postal savings depository offices.

§ 5205. Annual report of Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees shall submit a report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session showing by States, Territories, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, for the preceding fiscal year—

- (1) the number and names of post offices receiving deposits;
- (2) the aggregate amount of deposits made therein;
- (3) the aggregate amount of withdrawals therefrom;
- (4) the number of depositors;
- (5) the total amount standing to the credit of all depositors at the conclusion of the year;
- (6) the amount of deposits at interest;
- (7) the amount of interest received thereon;
- (8) the amount of interest paid thereon;
- (9) the number and amount of unclaimed deposits;
- (10) the amount invested in Government securities by the Board of Trustees;
- (11) the expense of the Department and postal service incident to the operation of the postal savings depository system; and
- (12) other facts deemed pertinent and proper.

§ 5206. Depository offices

The Postmaster General shall designate post offices which are to be postal savings depository offices and shall prescribe the hours during which they shall remain open.

§ 5207. Opening of accounts

Upon receipt of an application to open a postal savings account, and the tender of an initial deposit, the postal savings depository office shall deliver to the depositor evidence of the deposit free of cost.

§ 5208. Deposits and withdrawals

The Postmaster General shall prescribe regulations with respect to deposits in and withdrawals from postal savings accounts, and shall provide for the issuance of pass books or other devices as evidence of deposits and withdrawals.

§ 5209. Claims on paid postal savings certificates

(a) Claims for payment of a postal savings certificate, or other evidence of deposit in the postal savings depository system, including duplicates, which are shown by the records of the Department to have been duly paid, are barred if not presented to the Postmaster General within six years from the date on which the records show that they were paid.

(b) Final determination by the Postmaster General as to whether payment properly has been made on postal savings certificates or other evidences of deposit in the postal savings depository system, including duplicates, shall be based upon the official records of the Department.

§ 5210. Depositors

A person ten years of age or over, in his own name, and a married woman in her own name and free from control or interference by her husband, may open and maintain one postal savings account at a time.

§ 5211. Amount of deposits

A depositor may make deposits in amounts of $5 or multiples thereof. Interest is not payable on any balance in excess of $2,500, exclusive of accumulated interest.

§ 5212. Privacy of accounts

Persons connected with the Department may not disclose the amount of a deposit to any person other than the depositor, unless directed to do so by the Postmaster General.

§ 5213. Interest on deposits

(a) The Postmaster General shall pay depositors interest on savings accounts at the rate of 2 per centum per year, but not in excess of the rate permitted to be paid on savings deposits by regulations prescribed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, pursuant to section 371b of title 12, by member banks of the System located nearest to the place where the depository office in which the deposit was made.

(b) The Postmaster General shall compute interest on deposits under such regulations as the Board of Trustees prescribes, and shall enter it to the credit of the depositor once for each quarter, beginning with the first day of the month following the date of the deposit. He may not allow interest on any part of funds deposited for a period of less than three months or on fractions of a dollar.

§ 5214. Cash reserve

The Treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall maintain five percent of all postal savings funds in a cash reserve.

§ 5215. Apportionment of funds among banks

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the Board of Trustees shall deposit postal savings funds received at a postal savings depository office in the banks in that locality, substantially in proportion to the capital and surplus of each bank willing to receive deposits under the terms of this chapter, and the regulations of the Board.

(b) If no qualified bank in the locality in which the funds were received at postal savings depository offices is willing to receive deposits of postal savings funds on the terms prescribed, the Board shall deposit the funds in the bank most convenient to the depository office.

§ 5216. Security for funds deposited in banks

The Board of Trustees, to the extent that the deposits are not insured under section 264 of title 12, shall require banks receiving deposits of postal savings funds to provide such security in public bonds or other securities authorized by act of Congress, or supported by the taxing power, as it deems sufficient and necessary to insure the safety and prompt payment of the deposits.

§ 5217. Interest on bank deposits

(a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, depository banks shall pay interest on postal savings funds at a rate uniform throughout the United States and territories thereof of not less than $2\frac{1}{4}$ per centum a year.

(b) The Board of Trustees may deposit postal savings funds on time in member banks of the Federal Reserve System, subject to the provisions of section 371b of title 12 and of the regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

§ 5218. Purchase of Government obligations

(a) When the postal savings deposits in a State, Territory, the District of Columbia or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico exceed the amount which qualified banks therein are willing to receive the Board of Trustees may invest any excess in bonds or other securities of the United States or in other obligations which are lawful investments for trust funds of the United States.

(b) When in the judgment of the President the general welfare and interest of the United States so require, the Board of Trustees may invest all or any part of the postal savings funds in bonds or other securities of the United States or in other obligations which are lawful investments for trust funds of the United States.

§ 5219. Sources of funds to pay depositors

(a) Postal funds used to pay postal savings depositors shall be replaced from postal savings funds on deposit in the State, Territory, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico insofar as they may be sufficient for the purpose and so far as practicable, from postal savings funds on deposit in the community in which the depositor maintains his account.

(b) The Board of Trustees may obtain funds needed to meet withdrawals of postal savings depositors either by withdrawals of funds on deposit with banks or by disposal of bonds held as postal savings investments.

§ 5220. Bank fees on postal savings business

Banks in which postal savings funds are deposited may not receive a fee or compensation on account of the cashing or collection of a check or the performance of other service in connection with the Postal Savings System.

§ 5221. Application of income from postal savings funds

The Postmaster General shall apply interest and profit accruing from the deposits or investment of postal savings funds to the payment of interest due to postal savings depositors, covering any excess into the Treasury of the United States as a part of the postal revenue.

§ 5222. Judgment adjudicating right or interest in deposit

The Board of Trustees shall accept as conclusive the final judgment, order, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating any right or interest in a postal savings account, after time for appeal has expired, upon submission of a copy to the Postmaster General authenticated in accordance with section 1738 of title 28. Payments made in accordance therewith discharge the Postal Savings System and the United States from further claim or demand for the sum so paid.

§ 5223. Liability for outstanding postal savings stamps

Stamps formerly issued under the authority of section 757 (c) of title 31, and section 6 of the Act of June 25, 1910 (ch. 386, 36 Stat. 816), as amended, are not liabilities of the Board of Trustees of the Postal Savings System, but are public debt obligations of the United States.

§ 5224. Disposal of paid certificates

The Postmaster General may destroy, or otherwise dispose of, postal-savings certificates or other evidences of deposit in the postal-savings depository system, including duplicates, after the expiration of six years from the date payment thereon has been made as shown by the records of the Post Office Department.

- 6006. Special delivery service.
- 6007. Fee paid to persons making delivery of special delivery mail.
- 6008. Special handling.
- 6009. Community mail boxes.

§ 6001. City delivery service

(a) The Postmaster General shall establish city delivery service for the free delivery of mail, as frequently as the public business may require, at every incorporated city, village, or borough containing a population of fifty thousand within its corporate limits.

(b) The Postmaster General may establish city delivery service for the free delivery of mail—

(1) at a place containing a population of not less than ten thousand, within its corporate limits, according to the last general census, taken by authority of State or United States law; or

(2) at a post office which produces a gross revenue, for the preceding fiscal year, of not less than $10,000; or

(3) upon consolidation of two or more post offices situated within the corporate limits of a city, village, or borough, which offices produced revenue of not less than $10,000 for the preceding fiscal year.

(c) The Postmaster General may continue city delivery service at post offices where it is established, even though there is a decrease below ten thousand in population or $10,000 in gross postal revenue.

§ 6002. Village delivery service

(a) The Postmaster General may establish village delivery service for the free delivery of mail in towns and villages having post offices of the third class that are not by law entitled to city delivery service.

(b) When a post office becomes a post office of the second class the Postmaster General may not continue village delivery service at that office.

§ 6003. Receiving boxes

(a) When the public convenience requires, the Postmaster General may provide receiving boxes for the deposit of mail and for the collection of mail deposited therein.

(b) The Postmaster General may not place a receiving box inside a building except a railroad station, a public building, or a building which is freely open to the public during business hours. He may declare that chutes or other devices approved by him which are connected with receiving boxes are part thereof and under the exclusive care and custody of the Department.

§ 6004. Delivery of mail at stations or branches

The Postmaster General may not transmit a letter to a branch post office or station for delivery to an addressee contrary to the request of the addressee.

§ 6005. Rural delivery service

The Postmaster General shall maintain a rural delivery service for the free delivery of mail serving as nearly as practicable the entire rural population of the United States.

§ 6006. Special delivery service

(a) When a special delivery fee is prepaid in addition to the regular postage the Postmaster General shall give the most expeditious handling and transportation practicable to mail of any class and immediate delivery within—

(1) one mile of a post office;

(2) one mile of substations or branches as the Postmaster General may designate; and

(3) the delivery limits of a post office having carrier delivery service.

(b) The postmaster is responsible for the immediate delivery of every special delivery article received at his office for delivery.

§ 6007. Fee paid to persons making delivery of special delivery mail

(a) The Postmaster General shall pay persons, other than special delivery messengers at post offices of the first class, making delivery of special delivery mail—

(1) 9 cents for first class mail weighing not more than two pounds;

(2) 10 cents for other mail weighing not more than two pounds;

(3) 15 cents for mail of any class weighing more than two pounds but not more than ten pounds; and

(4) 20 cents for mail of any class weighing more than ten pounds.

(b) At post offices of the second, third and fourth class, the Postmaster General may employ any person, including postmasters, assistants, and clerks, to deliver special delivery mail.

§ 6008. Special handling

Upon payment of a special handling fee, fourth class mail is entitled to the most expeditious handling and transportation practicable.

§ 6009. Community mail boxes

The Postmaster General may erect and maintain community boxes and suitable sheltered racks or stands for rural mail boxes, in such selected localities as he determines. The boxes may have separate compartments for incoming and outgoing mail. Rural patrons may rent box units, rack space, or stands at such monthly or annual rates as the Postmaster General determines, based on the cost of installation and maintenance. The cost of the installation and maintenance of community boxes and sheltered stands may not exceed $2,000 a year.

6104. Mails to be carried on United States registered vessels.

6105. Establishment of post roads.

6106. Discontinuance of service on post roads.

6107. Preferred treatment of letter mail.

§ 6101. Provisions for carrying the mail

(a) The Postmaster General shall provide for the transportation of mail by land, air or water as often as he deems proper under the circumstances—

(1) within, among and between, the United States, its Territories, territories under trusteeship, possessions, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and Armed Forces; and

(2) between the United States, its Territories, territories under trusteeship, possessions, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or its Armed Forces, and any foreign country.

(b) The Postmaster General shall provide for the transportation of mail to the courthouse of every county in the United States.

§ 6102. Emergency mail service in Alaska

The Postmaster General may provide difficult or emergency mail service in Alaska, including the establishment and equipment of relay stations, in such manner as he deems advisable, without advertising therefor, at a total annual cost not exceeding $25,000.

§ 6103. Transportation of mail of adjoining countries through the United States

The Postmaster General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, may make arrangements to allow the mail of countries adjoining the United States to be transported over the territory of the United States from one point in that country to any other point therein, at the expense of the country to which the mail belongs, upon obtaining a like privilege for the transportation of the United States mail through the country to which the privilege is granted. The President or Congress may annul the privilege at any time. The privilege shall terminate one month succeeding the day on which notice of the act of the President or Congress is given to the chief executive or head of the post office department of the country whose privilege is to be annulled.

§ 6104. Mails to be carried on United States registered vessels

Mail of the United States shall, insofar as practicable, be carried on vessels of United States registry between ports between which it is lawful under the navigation laws for a vessel not documented under the laws of the United States to carry merchandise.

§ 6105. Establishment of post roads

The following are post roads—

(1) the waters of the United States, during the time the mail is carried thereon;

(2) railroads or parts of railroads and air routes in operation;

(3) canals, during the time the mail is carried thereon;

(4) public roads, highways, and toll roads during the time the mail is carried thereon; and

(5) letter-carrier routes established for the collection and delivery of mail.

§ 6106. Discontinuance of service on post roads

The Postmaster General may discontinue service on a post road or part thereof when, in his opinion—

- (1) the postal service cannot safely be continued;
- (2) the revenues cannot be collected;
- (3) the laws cannot be maintained; or
- (4) the public interest so requires.

§ 6107. Preferred treatment of letter mail

The Postmaster General may provide for the preferential treatment of first class mail, without unnecessary delay to other mail, when the quantity of mail to be transported over any route—

- (1) seriously retards the progress or endangers the security of the mail; or
- (2) materially increases the cost of transportation at the ordinary rate of speed.

§ 6201. Definition

As used in this chapter, unless otherwise specified, “railroad” means a railway common carrier, including an electric urban and interurban railway common carrier.

§ 6202. Service by railroad

This chapter applies to mail transportation performed by a railroad by rail or combination of rail, vessel and motor vehicle, or as provided by section 6213 of this title.

§ 6203. Authorization of service by railroad

(a) The Postmaster General may establish railroad mail routes and authorize mail transportation service thereon. He may transport equipment and supplies of the Department as mail thereon.

(b) A railroad shall transport mail including equipment and supplies of the Department offered for transportation by the United States in the manner, under the conditions, and with the service prescribed by the Postmaster General. It is entitled to receive fair and reasonable compensation for the transportation and services connected therewith.

(c) The Postmaster General shall determine the trains upon which mail shall be transported.

(d) A railroad shall transport with due speed, on any train it operates, such mail, including equipment and supplies of the Department, as the Postmaster General directs.

(e) A railroad engaged in the transportation of mail shall transport on any train it operates upon exhibiting their credentials and without extra charge therefor—

(1) persons in charge of the mail when on duty and traveling to and from duty; and

(2) accredited agents and officers, including postal inspectors, of the Department while traveling on official business.

§ 6204. Facilities provided by railroads

(a) A railroad engaged in the transportation of mail shall provide the following equipment and facilities—

(1) cars or parts of cars used in the transportation and distribution of mail;

(2) facilities for protecting and handling mail in its custody;

(3) station space and rooms for handling, storing and transfer of mail in transit, including the separation thereof by packages for connecting lines, and for distribution of registered mail in transit; and

(4) when required by the Postmaster General, offices for employees of the postal transportation service engaged in station work, in which mail from station boxes may be distributed if additional space is not required therefor.

(b) Railway post office cars or parts thereof used for mail transportation and distribution must be of such construction, style, length, and character, and must be equipped in such manner as the Postmaster General requires. They must be constructed, equipped, maintained, heated, lighted, and cleaned by and at the expense of the railroad. The Postmaster General may not pay for full and apartment railway post office car service unless the car furnished therefor is sound in material and construction, equipped with sanitary drinking water containers and toilet facilities, and regularly and thoroughly cleaned. He may not accept or pay for service by a full railway post office car unless the car is constructed of steel, steel underframe, or equally indestructible material.

(c) A railroad shall place cars used for full or apartment railway post office car service in stations at such times before the departure of the trains as the Postmaster General directs.

§ 6205. Changes in service

The Postmaster General may authorize, according to the need therefor, new or additional mail transportation service by railroad at the rates or compensation fixed pursuant to this chapter. He may reduce or discontinue service with pro rata reductions in compensation. The Postmaster General may not pay for additional service which he has not specifically authorized.

§ 6206. Evidence of service

A railroad shall submit evidence of the performance of mail transportation service, signed by an authorized official, in such form and at such times as the Postmaster General requires. Mail transportation service is considered that of the railroad performing it regardless of the ownership of the property used by the railroad.

§ 6207. Fines and deductions

(a) For refusal to perform mail transportation service required by the Postmaster General at rates or method of compensation established under this chapter, the Postmaster General shall fine—

- (1) an electric urban or interurban railroad, $100; and
- (2) any other railroad, $1,000.

Each day of refusal constitutes a separate offense.

(b) The Postmaster General shall fine a railroad an amount he deems reasonable for—

- (1) failure or refusal to transport mail, equipment, and supplies on any train it operates when required by the Postmaster General;
- (2) failure or refusal to furnish cars or apartments in cars for distribution purposes when required by the Postmaster General;
- (3) failure or refusal to construct, equip, maintain, heat, light, and clean cars or apartments in cars for distribution purposes;
- (4) failure or refusal to furnish appliances for use in case of accident, as required by the Postmaster General, in cars or apartments in cars used for distribution purposes; or

(5) other delinquencies in mail transportation and the service connected therewith.

(c) The Postmaster General may make deductions from the compensation of a railroad for failure to perform mail transportation service as authorized and, if the failure to perform is due to the fault of the railroad, he may deduct a sum not exceeding three times the compensation applying to such service.

§ 6208. Interstate Commerce Commission to fix rates

(a) The Interstate Commerce Commission shall determine and fix from time to time the fair and reasonable rates or compensation for the transportation of mail by railroad and the service connected therewith and prescribe the method for computing such rates or compensation. The Commission shall publish its orders stating its determination under this section which shall remain in force until changed by it after notice and hearing.

(b) For the purpose of determining and fixing rates or compensation under this section, the Commission may make just and reasonable classifications of railroads and, where just and equitable, fix general rates applicable to railroads in the same classification.

(c) In determining and fixing fair and reasonable rates under this section, the Commission shall consider the relation between the Government and railroads as public service corporations, and the nature of public service as distinguished, if there is a distinction, from the ordinary transportation business of the railroads.

§ 6209. Procedures

(a) At any time after six months from the entry of an order stating the Commission's determination under section 6208 of this title, the Postmaster General or an interested railroad may apply for a re-examination and substantially similar proceedings as have theretofore been had shall be followed with respect to the rates for services covered by the application. At the conclusion of the hearing the Commission shall enter an order stating its determination.

(b) Except as authorized by sections 6210 and 6215 of this title, the Postmaster General shall pay a railroad the rates or compensation so determined and fixed for application at such stated times as named in the order.

(c) The Postmaster General may file with the Commission a comprehensive plan, stating—

(1) his requirements for the transportation of mail by railroad;

(2) the number, equipment, size, and construction of the cars necessary for the transaction of the business;

(3) the character and speed of the trains which are to carry the various kinds of mail;

(4) the service, both terminal and en route, which carriers are to render;

(5) what he believes to be the fair and reasonable rates or compensation for the services required;

(6) all other information which may be material to the inquiry, but such other information may be filed at any time in the discretion of the Commission.

(d) When a comprehensive plan is filed, the Commission shall give notice of not less than thirty days to each railroad required by the Postmaster General to transport mail. A railroad may file its answer at the time fixed by the Commission, but not later than thirty days after the expiration date fixed by the Commission in the notice, and the Commission shall proceed with the hearing.

§ 6210. Special rates

(a) Upon petition by the Postmaster General the Commission shall determine and fix carload or less-than-carload rates for the transportation of fourth class and periodical mail. A railroad shall perform the service at the rates so determined when requested to do so and under the conditions prescribed by the Postmaster General.

(b) The Postmaster General may make special arrangements with railroads for the transportation of mail in freight trains at rates not in excess of the usual and just freight rates in accordance with classifications and tariffs filed with or prescribed by the Commission.

§ 6211. Authority to distinguish between classes of mail

The Postmaster General may distinguish between the several classes of mail and arrange for less frequent dispatches of mail, other than first class mail, when lower transportation rates or other economies may be secured without material detriment to the service.

§ 6212. Discrimination in transporting second class mail

(a) The Postmaster General may not transport a publication by freight if this method of mail transportation results in unfair discrimination against the owner of the publication.

(b) When the owner of a publication required by order of the Department to be transported by freight believes that this method of transportation unfairly discriminates against him, he may file a written application with the Department for a hearing. Thereafter he shall be given an opportunity for a hearing before the Department. Pending final determination no change may be made in the method of transportation of the publication as ordered by the Department.

(c) Prior to the entry of an order stating the Department's determination, the Postmaster General shall cause the testimony in the hearing under this section to be reduced to writing and filed in the Department.

(d) If the Department after the hearing determines by order that there is no unfair discrimination, the publisher may, within a period of twenty days after the date of the order, petition the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for review of the order, by filing in the court a written petition praying that the order be set aside. The clerk of the court shall transmit a copy of the petition to the Department and thereupon the Department shall file in the court the record as provided in section 2112 of title 28. Upon the filing of the petition the court shall have jurisdiction to examine, set aside or modify the order of the Department.

(e) The jurisdiction of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia to affirm, set aside, or modify the orders of the Department is exclusive.

(f) The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia shall give precedence to proceedings under this section over other pending cases and they shall be expedited in every way.

§ 6213. Transportation by motor vehicle

The Postmaster General may permit a railroad to perform mail transportation by motor vehicle over highways in lieu of service by rail at rates or compensation not exceeding those allowable for similar service by rail.

§ 6214. Statistical studies

The Postmaster General may arrange for weighing and measuring mail transported on railroad mail routes and make other computations for statistical and administrative purposes to carry out the purposes of this chapter and pay the expense thereof out of appropriations available to the Department.

§ 6215. Special contracts

The Postmaster General may enter into special contracts with railroads for terms not to exceed 4 years for the transportation of mail and the service connected therewith without advertising for bids. He may contract to pay lower rates or compensation, or where in his judgment conditions warrant, higher rates or compensation, than those determined and fixed by the Commission.

6302. Special arrangement in Alaska.

6303. Air star routes.

6304. Fines on aircraft carriers transporting the mails.

6305. Airmail flyer's Medal of Honor.

§ 6301. Rules and regulations

The Postmaster General may make such rules, regulations and orders not inconsistent with sections 1301–1542 of title 49, or any order, rule, or regulation made by the Civil Aeronautics Board thereunder, as may be necessary for the safe and expeditious carriage of mail by aircraft.

§ 6302. Special arrangement in Alaska

(a) When in the opinion of the Postmaster General the postal service requires the transportation of mail by aircraft in Alaska, and where transportation of mail by aircraft has not been authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board under sections 1371–1386 of title 49, the Postmaster General, notwithstanding any other provision of law, after advertisement in accordance with law, may contract for the carriage of any class of mail by aircraft. The transportation of mail under contracts entered into under this section, is not, except for sections 1371(k) and 1386(b) of title 49 and “air transportation” as that term is defined in section 1301 of title 49, and the rates of compensation therefor may not be fixed under sections 1301–1542 of title 49. The Postmaster General shall transmit a copy of each contract made pursuant to this section to the Board at the time it is let. He shall cancel such a contract upon the issuance by the Board of an authorization under sections 1371–1386 of title 49 to any air carrier to engage in the transportation of mail by aircraft between any of the points named in the contract.

(b) An air carrier authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board under sections 1371–1386 of title 49 to engage in the transportation of mail by aircraft in Alaska, may be required by the Postmaster General to transport, within the limits of the authorization, any class of mail. The Board shall determine and fix the rates of compensation to be paid for the transportation in accordance with the provisions of sections 1301–1542 of title 49.

§ 6303. Air star routes

(a) The Postmaster General may contract for the transportation of any class of mail by aircraft upon star routes—

(1) whenever he finds it to be in the public interest because of the nature of the terrain or the impracticability or inadequacy of surface transportation; and

(2) where the cost is reasonably compatible with the service to be performed.

(b) Prior to advertising for bids for the transportation of mail by aircraft under this section, the Postmaster General shall obtain from the Civil Aeronautics Board a certification that the proposed route does not conflict with the development of air transportation as contemplated under sections 1301–1542 of title 49. Upon receipt of a request from the Postmaster General for certification, the Board shall—

(1) promptly publish in the Federal Register and send to such persons as the Board by regulation determines, a notice describing the proposed air star route;

(2) thereafter afford interested persons a reasonable opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments with or without the opportunity to present them orally;

(3) consider all relevant matter presented; and

(4) grant, not less than thirty days after notice, the requested certification upon finding that the proposed route does not conflict with the development of air transportation as contemplated under sections 1301–1542 of title 49. The Board may grant the requested certification upon less notice if it for good cause finds that thirty days advance notice is impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest, and incorporates this finding and a brief statement of the reasons therefor in its order granting the certification.

(c) The Postmaster General may not consider a bid for a contract under this section unless the bidder is a resident of or qualified to do business as a common carrier in a State within which one or more points to be served under the proposed contract are located. As used in this subsection, “State” includes the Territory of Hawaii and the District of Columbia.

(d) The Postmaster General shall cancel a contract made under this section upon the issuance by the Board of an authorization under sections 1371–1386 of title 49 to an air carrier to engage in the transportation of mail by aircraft between any of the points named in the contract.

(e) All laws and regulations governing star routes not in conflict with this section are applicable to contracts made under the authority of this section.

(f) Sections 1371–1376, 1380, 1381, and 1385 of title 49 do not apply to the transportation of mail under this section.

§ 6304. Fines on aircraft carriers transporting the mails

The Postmaster General may impose or remit fines on contractors or carriers transporting mail by air on routes extending beyond the borders of the United States for—

- (1) unreasonable or unnecessary delay to mail; and
- (2) other delinquencies in the transportation of the mail.

§ 6305. Airmail Flyer's Medal of Honor

The President may present, but not in the name of Congress, an Airmail Flyer's Medal of Honor, of appropriate design, with accompanying ribbon, to any person who, while serving as a pilot in the airmail service distinguished himself by heroism or extraordinary achievement. The President may not award more than one medal to any one person, but for each additional act or achievement sufficient to justify the award of a medal he may award a bar or other suitable device to be worn as he directs. If the individual who distinguished himself dies before the award is made, the President may present the medal, bar, or other device, to such representative of the deceased as the President designates. A medal, bar, or other device may not be awarded or presented to an individual whose entire service subsequent to the time he distinguished himself has not been honorable.

- 6351. Highway post office service.
- 6352. Highway post office contracts.
- 6353. Renewal of contracts for highway post office service.
- 6354. Temporary contracts for highway post office service.
- 6355. Bonds for highway post office contract.

§ 6351. Highway post office service

The Postmaster General may provide highway post office service, either by contract or Government-owned motor vehicle, for carrying the mail and postal employees on routes between points where, in his judgment, conditions justify the operation of that service. The motor vehicles must be especially designed and equipped for the distribution of mail en route and be constructed, fitted up, maintained, and operated as the Postmaster General prescribes.

§ 6352. Highway post office contracts

(a) The Postmaster General shall obtain contracts for highway post office service in accordance with section 5 of title 41, for terms not in excess of six years.

(b) The Postmaster General in contracts for highway post office service may provide for—

- (1) increasing or decreasing the mileage;
- (2) increasing or decreasing the hours of service required;
- (3) other service charges;
- (4) the readjustment and compensation either upward or downward to reflect the services changes and increased or decreased costs attributable to changed conditions occurring during the contract term over which the Postmaster General or the contractor have no control and which could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time the original bid was made or the proposal for renewal filed;
- (5) the imposition or remission of fines and penalties by the Postmaster General for delinquencies in the performance of the contract; and
- (6) other matters deemed appropriate by him.

(c) Each contract shall provide for its cancellation by the Postmaster General and may provide for an indemnity payment by the Postmaster General in the event of such a cancellation.

§ 6353. Renewal of contracts for highway post office service

(a) The Postmaster General, by mutual agreement with the holder of a contract for highway post office service and without submitting the service for bids, may renew the contract for successive periods of not more than six years at the rates of compensation prevailing at the end of the preceding contract term.

(b) The Postmaster General may enter into a contract with the subcontractor then performing the service, in the same manner and upon the same terms as prescribed in subsection (a) of this section if—

- (1) the holder of the contract has sublet his contract in accordance with its terms and does not indicate in writing to the Postmaster General at least ninety days before the end of the contract term that he desires to renew the contract, and
- (2) the subcontractor has performed the service required under the contract to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General for a period of at least six months.

§ 6354. Temporary contracts for highway post office service

Where there is no contractor legally bound or required to perform the service desired by the Postmaster General, or when an accepted bidder or contractor fails or refuses to perform the service on a route according to his accepted proposal or his contract, the Postmaster General, without advertising, may contract for the service desired or continue the service originally contracted for in such manner and in such equipment as he deems to be in the public interest for a term not in excess of one year.

§ 6355. Bonds for highway post office contract

The Postmaster General may require such bonds as he deems necessary to protect the interests of the Government in the form and amount and containing such conditions as he prescribes.

§ 6401. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

“star route contract” means a contract for the transportation of mail over a post road other than a railroad and may include collection and delivery service to patrons of the postal service;

“contract motor vehicle service” means a formal contract for a fixed term for service in accordance with section 6403 of this title;

“mail messenger service” means service performed in accordance with section 6403 of this title under an informal agreement without term.

§ 6402. Authority to contract for mail transportation

(a) The Postmaster General may contract for necessary domestic or foreign transportation of mail, except that—

(1) transportation of mail by railroad shall be procured as provided in chapter 95 of this title and otherwise provided by law;

(2) transportation of mail by air shall be obtained in accordance with chapter 97 of this title;

(3) highway post office service shall be obtained in accordance with chapter 99 of this title;

(4) delivery and collection service may not be established or extended under a star route contract if a majority of the patrons on the route has been served by a rural delivery route for which a qualified rural carrier can be obtained; and

(5) if possible, mail consigned between an airport and a post office at which there is Government-owned motor vehicle service, shall be transported by Government-owned motor vehicles, when the distance is not more than 35 miles.

(b) Subsection (a) (5) of this section does not prohibit the transportation of mail by helicopter or similar aircraft between airports and post offices.

§ 6403. Mail messenger and contract motor vehicle service

(a) Subject to subsection (a) (4) of section 6402 of this title, the Postmaster General may enter into informal agreements for mail messenger service without term or into formal contracts for motor vehicle service for the carriage of mail in connection with transportation service in cases where, by law or the regulations of the Department, rail, air, water and other carriers are not required to deliver into and take from postal facilities the mails carried by them. The Postmaster General may use such service as transfer service between such points as he deems necessary including service within, between and among carriers, depots, airports, piers, post offices, branch post offices or stations or other postal facilities and over bridges and ferries.

(b) Postmasters, officers, and employees, may enter into agreements for the performance of mail messenger service when the Postmaster General determines that the performance of the service will not interfere with their regular duties or with the operations of the postal service. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section the total amount payable under an agreement may not exceed $900 in any one year.

(c) Special delivery messengers at post offices of all classes may enter into agreements for mail messenger service without regard to the amount payable in any one year.

§ 6404. Sea post service

The Postmaster General may maintain sea post service on ocean vessels conveying mail to and from the United States.

§ 6405. Duration of contracts

(a) The Postmaster General may make contracts for the transportation of mail by vessel between the United States and foreign ports for terms of not more than two years. When the foreign office is not more than 200 miles from the domestic office he may make contracts for domestic and foreign transportation of mail by vessels, combined in one route, for terms of not more than four years. He may make other contracts for the transportation of mail for four-year terms.

(b) This section does not apply to mail messenger service or to contracts made under sections 6408, 6413, 6415, 6427 of this title.

§ 6406. Termination of contracts for foreign transportation

Contracts for the transportation of mail by vessel between the United States and a foreign port shall be made subject to cancellation by the Postmaster General or the Congress.

§ 6407. Extension of contracts

(a) The Postmaster General may continue in force beyond its express terms any regular contract for the transportation of mail until a new contract is made, but not longer than six months.

(b) This section does not apply to temporary contracts made under section 6415 of this title.

§ 6408. Transportation by vessel under noncompetitive contracts

(a) When the Postmaster General deems it necessary to make a new contract for the transportation of mail by vessel on waters, or between ports, of the United States he may contract without advertising for terms of not more than four years at a rate of compensation not to exceed the average compensation paid under the existing contract or under the last preceding contract for the transportation of mail on that route. When there has been no prior contract for the transportation of mail on a route on waters, or between ports, of the United States, the Postmaster General may contract for a term of one year for the transportation of mail on that route without advertising, or for terms of not more than four years after advertising.

(b) The Postmaster General may contract for the transportation of all classes of mail by vessel of United States registry on the route from Seward to points on Kanai Peninsula, Kodiak Island, Alaska Peninsula, the Aleutian Islands, Umnak Island, and points on Bristol Bay, Alaska, and vicinity. He may make the contract without advertisement for a term of not more than four years, at an annual cost not to exceed $250,000. The Postmaster General shall require the contractor to furnish and use in the service a safe and seaworthy vessel of sufficient size to provide adequate space for mail, passengers and freight.

§ 6409. Transportation by vessel under informal arrangements

(a) The Postmaster General without advertising may provide for the transportation of mail by vessel between—

- (1) the United States, its possessions, the Territory of Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and a foreign port;
- (2) the United States and its possessions, its Armed Forces abroad, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; or
- (3) any possession or the Armed Forces of the United States, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any other possession or Armed Forces of the United States.

(b) The Postmaster General for transportation obtained under this section by a—

- (1) vessel of United States registry, may pay compensation not to exceed eighty cents a pound for letters, post cards and postal cards, and eight cents a pound for other articles; and

(2) vessel of foreign registry, may pay compensation not to exceed the sea transit rates fixed from time to time by the Universal Postal Union Convention.

§ 6410. Transportation of mail by vessel as freight or express

The Postmaster General may require that mail be transported as freight or express when—

(1) there is no competition on a water route and the rate of compensation asked is excessive; or

(2) no proposal is received.

A common carrier by water that refuses to transport the mail when required to do so under this section shall be fined not more than $500 for each day of refusal.

§ 6411. Requirements of contracts let after competitive bidding

(a) Formal contracts for transportation of mail which are required to be made after advertising shall—

(1) be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder with sufficient guarantee for faithful performance in accordance with the terms of the advertisement; and

(2) require due celerity, certainty, and security in the performance of the service.

(b) The Postmaster General may disregard the bid of a person who willfully or negligently failed to perform a former contract.

§ 6412. Advertisements for mail transportation contracts

When advertising is required by law, the Postmaster General shall advertise, for a period of not less than 30 days, for bids for a contract for transporting the mails, unless he shall publish with the advertisement a finding that the public exigencies surrounding the particular contract require a shorter period. The advertisement shall be conspicuously posted in each post office to be served under the contract.

§ 6413. Exceptions from advertisement requirements

Section 6412 does not apply to contracts for the transportation of mail—

(a) by mail messengers under sections 6403 and 6423 of this title;

(b) by highway post office service under sections 6351 to 6355 of this title; or

(c) by steamships under sections 6405 and 6408 of this title.

§ 6414. Procedures after default of bidder or contractor

(a) If an accepted bidder or contractor for the transportation of mail defaults on his bid or contract, the Postmaster General shall contract with the next lowest bidder who will enter into a contract for the service in accordance with his bid, unless he considers the bid too high. If he considers the bid too high, he may contract with any person, giving preference to regular bidders for the service, who will enter into a contract to perform the service at a lower price.

(b) The Postmaster General shall require each person contracting under this section to furnish a bond of like tenor, effect, and penalty as that required in the advertisement of the route. Contracts made under this section shall contain the same terms and provisions as those prescribed for similar service.

(c) If a satisfactory contract cannot be secured under this section, the Postmaster General may procure temporary service in accordance with section 6412 or 6415 of this title.

§ 6415. Temporary mail contracts

(a) The Postmaster General may make temporary contracts without advertising for the transportation of mail on routes for terms of not more than one year, if—

- (1) a new route is established;
- (2) a new service is required; or
- (3) for any other reason there is no regular contract for service on the route.

(b) Temporary service rendered necessary by reason of the default of an accepted bidder or of a contractor may be obtained at a rate which the Postmaster General deems reasonable and the cost shall be charged to the bidder or contractor.

§ 6416. Renewal of contracts

(a) The Postmaster General, by mutual agreement with the holder of a star route, contract motor vehicle service or water route contract and without advertising may renew the contract for successive terms, of not more than four years each, at the rate of compensation prevailing at the end of the preceding contract term. The contractor shall give such bond as the Postmaster General requires.

(b) If a contractor has sublet the service in accordance with law and does not indicate in writing to the Postmaster General at least 90 days before the end of the contract term that he desires to renew the contract, the Postmaster General may enter into a contract with the subcontractor then, and for 6 months prior thereto, performing the service under the contract to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General. Contracts made under this subsection—

(1) shall be upon the terms prevailing at the end of the preceding contract term;

(2) may be made without advertising; and

(3) shall be accompanied by such bond as the Postmaster General requires.

(c) A contract under this section may be terminated at the end of any four-year term at the option of the Postmaster General or of the contractor, or at any time by operation of law.

§ 6417. Bids for mail contracts

(a) Bids for transportation of mail shall be sealed. The Postmaster General shall keep them sealed until the bidding is closed, and then they shall be opened and marked in the presence of two or more officers or employees of the Department designated by the Postmaster General. A bidder may withdraw his bid at any time up to twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the opening of bids, by serving upon the Postmaster General notice in writing.

(b) The Postmaster General shall have recorded a true abstract of the details of all bids made for carrying the mail. He shall preserve the originals of the bids until disposed of as provided by law.

§ 6418. Bond of bidder

(a) Every bid for transporting the mail shall be accompanied by the bond of the bidder in the sum designated by the Postmaster General in the advertisement.

(b) The bond required by this section shall contain a condition that if the bidder, within such time after his bid is accepted as the Postmaster General prescribes, enters into a contract with the United States of America with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Postmaster General to perform the service proposed in his bid, and further if he performs the service according to his contract, then the said obligation on the bond is void, otherwise it remains in full force and obligation in law.

(c) If a bidder fails to enter into the prescribed contract or if after executing a contract fails to perform the service in accordance with his contract, he and his sureties are liable for the amount of the bond as liquidated damages to be recovered in a civil action.

(d) The Postmaster General may not consider a bid unless it is accompanied by the bond required by this section, and there is affixed to it the signed statement of the bidder that he has the pecuniary ability to fulfill his obligations, and that the bid is made in good faith with the intention to enter into a contract and perform the service if the bid is accepted.

§ 6419. Justification of sureties on bonds of bidders

(a) The Postmaster General shall direct the manner in which the sureties on the bond of a bidder for the transportation of mail are approved.

(b) Before the bond of a bidder is approved the sureties shall submit signed statements that they are owners of real estate worth in the aggregate a sum double the amount of the bond, over and above all debts due and owing by them, and all judgments, mortgages, and executions against them, after allowing all exemptions of every character whatever. Accompanying the statement and as a part thereof, there shall be a series of written interrogatories, prescribed by the Postmaster General, and answered by the sureties showing—

(1) the amount of real estate owned by them;

(2) a brief description and the probable value thereof; and

(3) where it is situated, and in what county and State evidence of ownership is recorded.

(c) If a surety knowingly submits a false statement under the provisions of this section he shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of section 1001 of title 18.

(d) Subsections (b) and (c) of this section do not apply to corporate sureties qualifying under title 6.

§ 6420. Qualifications of bidder

(a) The Postmaster General may not consider the bid of an individual for a star route contract unless the bidder is a legal resident of the county in which part of the route lies or of an adjoining county. He may not consider the bid of a firm, company, or corporation for such a contract unless it is actually engaged in business within the county in which part of the route lies or in an adjoining county.

(b) Except as provided in section 6403 of this title, a postmaster or employee of the Department may not be concerned in a contract for the transportation of mail.

§ 6421. Combinations to prevent bids for carrying the mail

The Postmaster General may not make a contract for transportation of mail with a person who—

- (1) enters, or proposes to enter, into a combination to prevent the making of a bid for transportation of mail; or
- (2) makes an agreement, or gives or performs, or promises to give or perform, any consideration whatever to induce another person not to bid for the contract.

The Postmaster General may annul the contract of any contractor so offending. For the first offense the person shall be disqualified for five years to contract for transporting mail, and for the second offense shall be disqualified forever.

§ 6422. Additional compensation for increased travel

The Postmaster General may allow additional compensation to a star route contractor for necessary increased travel caused by—

- (1) obstruction of roads;
- (2) destruction of bridges;
- (3) discontinuance of ferries; or
- (4) any other cause occurring during the contract term.

He may not allow additional compensation under this section at a rate proportionately greater than the rate established by the contract involved.

§ 6423. Readjustment of compensation of contractors and mail messengers

(a) The Postmaster General with the consent of the contractor may readjust the compensation under a star route, motor vehicle service, or water route contract for increased or decreased costs occasioned by changed conditions occurring during the contract term which could not reasonably have been anticipated at the time—

- (1) the original bid was made; or
- (2) the bond for a renewed contract was executed in accordance with section 6416 of this title.

(b) The Postmaster General may readjust the compensation under an agreement for the performance of mail messenger service on account of increased or decreased costs occasioned by changed conditions which could not reasonably have been anticipated at the time the agreement was made.

§ 6424. Additional compensation for extension of route or additional service

(a) The Postmaster General, in cases where the mail service would be improved, may obtain additional service or extend routes under contract. Extensions ordered during a contract term may not, in the aggregate, increase the one-way length of a route more than fifty miles.

(b) The Postmaster General may not allow additional compensation under this section at a rate proportionately greater than the rate established by the contract involved.

(c) When additional service is ordered, the Postmaster General shall state the sum allowed therefor in the order, and enter it in the records of the Department. He may not pay compensation for additional regular service rendered before he issues the order.

(d) Subsection (c) of this section does not apply to service authorized under sections 6415, and 6422 of this title.

§ 6425. Release of contractors

(a) The Postmaster General, in the interest of the postal service, may readvertise and make new contracts for the transportation of mail in order to release contractors and their sureties when—

(1) a change is ordered in the service involving a material increase or decrease in the amount of service required to such an extent as to impose undue hardship on the contractor;

(2) an abnormal or sustained increase in the quantity of mail develops during a contract period or after a bid has been submitted necessitating larger capacity equipment to maintain the service;

(3) a change in schedule is ordered that will necessitate the contractor being away from the initial terminal for an excessively longer or shorter period than required in the advertised schedule; or

(4) the contractor complies with subsection (b) of this section and it is found, after full investigation, that the compensation of the contractor is wholly inadequate and that the continuation of the contract would impose undue hardship upon the contractor.

(b) A contractor who desires to be released from his contract under the fourth condition of subsection (a) of this section shall give 90 days' notice to the Postmaster General and waive any extra pay provided under his contract or by law as indemnity for cancellation.

§ 6426. Substitutions of sureties

The Postmaster General, whenever he deems it consistent with the public interest, may accept or require new surety upon a contract for the transportation of mail in substitution for and release of an existing surety.

§ 6427. Contracts for transmission of mail by mechanical devices

(a) The Postmaster General may enter into contracts, for terms of not more than ten years, for the transmission of mail by pneumatic tubes or other mechanical devices.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section contracts for the transmission of mail by pneumatic tubes or other mechanical devices are subject to the provisions of laws relating to the making of contracts for the transportation of mail. Advertisements shall state in general terms only the requirements of the service and shall be in the form best calculated to invite competitive bidding. The Postmaster General may reject any and all bids. A contract may be awarded only to the lowest responsible bidder tendering full and sufficient guaranties to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General of his ability to perform satisfactory service.

§ 6428. Limitation on rate payable for transmission of mail by mechanical devices

Until December 31, 1960, the Postmaster General may not pay a rate of more than $15,500 a year for each mile of double line pneumatic-tube facilities in the city of New York, N. Y. Thereafter the annual rate of expenditures per mile may not exceed $12,000. This rate includes maintenance expenses but excludes all operating expenses.

§ 6429. Transfer of mail contracts

A contractor holding a contract for the transportation of mail may not sublet, assign or transfer his contract without the consent in writing from the Postmaster General. Whenever the Postmaster General determines that a contractor has sublet, assigned or transferred his contract without consent, he shall consider the contract as breached and may again advertise the service as provided by law. The contractor and his sureties are liable to the United States for damage resulting to the United States from the termination of the contract.

§ 6430. Settlements with subcontractors

If the holder of a contract for the transportation of mail lawfully sublets his contract or lawfully employs other persons to perform the service covered by the contract or any part thereof, he shall file in the Department a copy of his contract with those persons. Upon receipt of the contract, the Postmaster General shall withhold the amount fixed therein as compensation to the subcontractor from the amount due to the original contractor, and pay the subcontractor under the rules and regulations governing payments made to original contractors. Upon satisfactory evidence that the original contractor has paid off and discharged the amount due under his contract to the subcontractor, the Postmaster General shall settle with the original contractor.

§ 6431. New contract with subcontractors

If a contractor or subcontractor sublets his contract for the transportation of the mail for a sum less than that for which he contracted to perform the service, the Postmaster General, whenever he deems it for the good of the service, may cancel the contract. The Postmaster General may enter into a contract with the last subcontractor to perform the service under the terms of his subcontract. The original contractor may not be released from his contract until a good and sufficient bond has been made by the new contractor and accepted by the Postmaster General. When a contract is cancelled under this section the contractor is not entitled to indemnity therefor.

§ 6432. Lien on compensation of contractor

(a) A person who—

- (1) performs service for a contractor or subcontractor in the transportation of mail;
- (2) files his contract for service with the Department; and
- (3) files satisfactory evidence of performance with the Department

shall have a lien on money due the contractor or subcontractor for the service.

(b) The Postmaster General may pay the person establishing a lien under subsection (a) of this section the sum due him, when the contractor or subcontractor fails to pay the person the amount of his lien within two months after the expiration of the month in which the service was performed. He shall charge the amount so paid to the contract. The payments may not exceed the annual rate of pay of the contractor or subcontractor.

§ 6433. Free transportation of postal officials

Every person engaged in the transportation of mail by vessel and, unless otherwise provided in the contract, every other contractor engaged in the transportation of mail shall carry on any vessel or vehicle he operates upon exhibiting their credentials and without extra charge therefor—

(1) persons in charge of the mails when on duty and traveling to and from duty, and

(2) accredited agents and officers, including postal inspectors, of the Department while traveling on official business.

§ 6434. Liability of contractor for breach

(a) The Postmaster General may make deductions from the compensation of contractors for failure to perform service according to contracts for the transportation of the mail, and he may impose fines upon them for other delinquencies. He may deduct the price of the trip in all cases where the trip is not performed and not exceeding three times the price if the failure is occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier. The Postmaster General may change or remit deductions or fines.

(b) Contractors are also answerable in damages to the United States for the proper care and transportation of the mail. They are accountable to the United States for loss of or damage to the mail or any part of it due to the failure of any of the contractor's officers, agents, or employees to exercise due care in the custody, handling, or transportation thereof.

§ 6435. Fines on ocean carriers

The Postmaster General may impose or remit fines on carriers transporting mail by vessel on routes extending beyond the borders of the United States for—

(1) unreasonable or unnecessary delay to the mail; and

(2) other delinquencies in the transportation of the mail.

§ 6436. Default of contractor having several routes

Where a person having contracts for the transportation of mail upon more than one route fails to perform the service according to the contract on any of the routes, the Postmaster General shall withhold payments on all contracts with him until the failure has been removed and all penalties therefor fully satisfied.

§ 6437. Unreasonable bids

When the Postmaster General believes that the bids for the performance of star route service are unreasonable, or that there is a combination of bidders to fix the rate for star route service, he may use such means or methods to provide the desired service as he deems expedient, without reference to laws respecting the employment of personal service or the procurement of conveyances, materials, or supplies. He may pay the cost thereof from any appropriation available for the transportation of mail.

§ 6438. Newspapers out of the mail

Mail carriers and contractors for the transportation of mail may convey, out of the mail, newspapers for sale or distribution to subscribers.

§ 6439. Initial payment under contract

The Postmaster General may not make payments to a person whose bid for a contract for the transportation of mail is accepted until the bidder has executed the contract according to law and the regulations of the Department.

§ 6440. Special service

The Postmaster General may provide for the transportation of mail to supply a post office that is not on an established route. He may not pay compensation, under the contract, in excess of two-thirds of the salary of the postmaster at such an office.

SEC. 2. If a part of title 39, United States Code, as enacted by section 1 of this Act, is held invalid the remainder of the title is not affected thereby.

SEC. 3. Orders, rules and regulations in effect under provisions of law superseded or amended by this Act shall, to the extent they would have been authorized under this Act, remain in force and effect as the regulations and orders under the provisions of this Act and shall be administered and enforced under this Act as nearly as may be until specifically repealed, amended or revised.

SEC. 4. (a) The benefits granted to postal employees by sections 403, 504 and 808 of the Act of June 10, 1955 (69 Stat. 88), and by sections 402, 406, and 407 (a) of the Act of May 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 146, 147), are continued to the same effect as though the sections had remained in force and effect.

(b) Postal employees on the rolls of the Post Office Department on the date of the enactment of this Act, who are entitled to the benefits of section 2 of the Act of May 3, 1950 (64 Stat. 102), and to the benefits of sections 1 and 3 of the Act of May 29, 1958 (72 Stat. 150), which are repealed by section 12 of this Act, shall retain the benefits to the same extent as though those sections had remained in force and effect.

SEC. 5. Whenever reference is made in another law to a law or part of law which is repealed by section 12 of this Act, the reference shall be considered to mean the appropriate section of title 39, United States Code, as codified by section 1 of this Act.

SEC. 6. An inference of a legislative construction is not to be drawn by reason of the chapter in title 39, United States Code, as set out in section 1 of this Act, in which a section is placed nor by reason of the caption or catch line.

AMENDMENTS OF TITLE 18

SEC. 7. Chapter 83 of Title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding the following new sections:

“§ 1733. Affidavits relating to second class mail

“(a) Whoever, being a publisher or news agent or employee, fails or refuses to make the affidavit when required under section 4368 of title 39, and thereafter tenders for mailing any second class mail without having first made the affidavit shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each refusal.

“(b) Whoever knowingly mails any second class mail without the payment of postage, or being a postmaster or postal official knowingly permits any second class mail to be mailed without prepayment of postage, shall be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

“§ 1734. Editorials and other matter as ‘advertisements’

“Whoever, being an editor or publisher, prints in a publication entered as second class mail, editorial or other reading matter for which he has been paid or promised a valuable consideration, without plainly marking the same ‘advertisement’ shall be fined not more than $500.”

SEC. 8. The analysis of chapter 83, preceding § 1691 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding the following items:

“1733. Affidavits relating to second class mail.

“1734. Editorials and other matter as ‘advertisements’.”

AMENDMENTS OF TITLE 28

SEC. 9. Title 28, United States Code, is amended by adding the following new chapter:

“CHAPTER 173.—ATTACHMENT IN POSTAL SUITS

“Sec.

“2710. Right of attachment.

“2711. Application for warrant.

“2712. Issue of warrant.

“2713. Trial of ownership of property.

“2714. Investment of proceeds of attached property.

“2715. Publication.

“2716. Personal notice.

“2717. Discharge.

“2718. Interest on balances due department.

“§ 2710. Right of attachment

“(a) Where debts are due from a defaulting or delinquent postmaster, contractor, or other officer, agent or employee of the Post Office Department, a warrant of attachment may issue against all property and legal and equitable rights belonging to him, and his sureties, or either of them, where he—

“(1) is a nonresident of the district where he was appointed, or has departed from that district for the purpose of permanently residing outside thereof, or of avoiding the service of civil process; and

“(2) has conveyed away, or is about to convey away any of his property, or has removed or is about to remove the same from the district wherein it is situated, with intent to defraud the United States.

“(b) When the property has been removed, the marshal of the district into which it has been removed, upon receipt of certified copies of the warrant, may seize the property and convey it to a convenient place within the jurisdiction of the court which issued the warrant. Alias warrants may be issued upon due application. The warrant first issued remains valid until the return day thereof.

“§ 2711. Application for warrant

“A United States attorney or assistant United States attorney or a person authorized by the Attorney General—

“(1) upon his own affidavit or that of another credible person, stating the existence of either of the grounds of attachments enumerated in section 2710 of this title and

“(2) upon production of legal evidence of the debt may apply for a warrant of attachment to a judge, or, in his absence, to the clerk of any court of the United States having original jurisdiction of the cause of action.

“§ 2712. Issue of warrant

“Upon an order of a judge of a court, or, in his absence and upon the clerk’s own initiative, the clerk shall issue a warrant for the attachment of the property belonging to the person specified in the affidavit. The marshal shall execute the warrant forthwith and take the property attached, if personal, in his custody, subject to the interlocutory or final orders of the court.

“§ 2713. Trial of ownership of property

“Not later than twenty days before the return day of a warrant issued under section 2712 of this title, the party whose property is attached, on notice to the United States Attorney, may file a plea in abatement, denying the allegations of the affidavit, or denying ownership in the defendant of the property attached. The court, upon application of either party, shall order a trial by jury of the issues. Where the parties, by consent, waive a trial by jury, the court shall decide the issues. A party claiming ownership of the property attached and seeking its return is limited to the remedy afforded by this section, but his right to an action of trespass, or other action for damages, is not impaired.

“§ 2714. Investment of proceeds of attached property

“When the property attached is sold on an interlocutory order or is producing revenue, the money arising from the sale or revenue shall be invested, under the order of the court, in securities of the United States. The accretions therefrom are subject to the order of the court.

“§ 2715. Publication

“The marshal shall cause publication of an executed warrant of attachment—

“(1) for two months in case of an absconding debtor, and

“(2) for four months in case of a nonresident debtor

in a newspaper published in the district where the property is situated pursuant to the details of the order under which the warrant is issued.

“§ 2716. Personal notice

“After the first publication of the notice of attachment, a person indebted to, or having possession of property of a defendant and having knowledge of the notice, shall answer for the amount of his debt or the value of the property. Any disposal or attempted disposal of the property, to the injury of the United States, is unlawful. When the person indebted to, or having possession of the property of a defendant, is known to the United States attorney or marshal, the officer shall cause a personal notice of the attachment to be served upon him, but the lack of the notice does not invalidate the attachment.

“§ 2717. Discharge

“The court, or a judge thereof, upon—

“(1) application of the party when property has been attached and

“(2) execution to the United States of a penal bond, approved by a judge, in double the value of the property attached and conditioned upon the return of the property or the payment of any judgment rendered by the court may discharge the warrant of attachment as to the property of the applicant.

“§ 2718. Interest on balances due department

“In suits for balances due the Post Office Department may recover interest at the rate of 6 per centum per year from the time of default.”

SEC. 10. The analysis of part VI of title 28 United States Code immediately preceding chapter 151 is amended by adding the following:

“173. Attachment in postal suits----- Sec. 2710.”

EFFECTIVE DATE

SEC. 11. This Act takes effect on September 1, 1959. Laws enacted after January 7, 1959, that are inconsistent with this Act shall supersede it to the extent of the inconsistency.

REPEALS

86TH CONGRESS
1ST Session

H. R. 2339

AN ACT

To revise, codify, and enact into law, title 39 of the United States Code, entitled "The Postal Service".

MARCH 5, 1959

Read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

June 28, 1960

31. FARM PROGRAM. Sen. Aiken inserted "a declaration of purpose" sponsored by several Senators which included a statement calling for conservation of water, soil, and forests, bountiful production, and intelligent use of surpluses. pp. 13662-4
32. ROADS. H. R. 10495, to authorize appropriations for the fiscal years 1962 and 1963 for the construction of certain highways in accordance with title 23 of the U. S. Code (including forest highways and development roads and trails), was made the unfinished business of the Senate. p. 13688
33. POSTAL SERVICE. The Judiciary Committee reported with amendments H. R. 2339, to revise, codify, and enact into law, title 39 of the U. S. Code, entitled "The Postal Service" (S. Rept. 1763). p. 13696

ITEMS IN APPENDIX

34. PERSONNEL. Rep. Holland inserted an article critical of the Federal Employees Health Benefits Act which states that employees had hoped for a good plan and that "they now know that what has been granted is little more than another Government subsidy -- to the insuring companies." pp. A5540-1
35. WILDLIFE. Rep. Edmondson inserted a report of the committee on wildlife and recreation which was presented to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress. p. A5543
36. FARM PROGRAM. Rep. St. George inserted a farm paper article, "Here We Stand -- A Declaration of Principles Which Guides the Staff of American Agriculture." pp. A5544-5
- Extension of remarks of Rep. Short stating that "Congress in its next session must deal with the buildup of surplus farm products," and commending and inserting an article, "The Farm Problem: Fact and Fancy." pp. A5545-6
- Sen. Wiley inserted a letter from the chairman of the Dept. of Agricultural Economics, University of Wisconsin reviewing the agricultural situation. pp. A5584-5
- Extension of remarks of Rep. Robison discussing some of the farm problems, stating that the number one problem is wheat and that there is "not the slightest doubt in my mind" but that the great majority of his constituents favor getting the Federal Government "out" of American agriculture. pp. A5553-4
- Extension of remarks of Rep. Pelly stating that "speaking of our agricultural situation, I must deplore, as I have during the past session of Congress, that no legislation has been passed to reduce the inexcusable costs of farm subsidies or to end Federal controls." pp. A5554-5
- Rep. Quie inserted an article, "Nixon on Agriculture." p. A5624
37. ELECTRIFICATION. Extension of remarks of Rep. Porter criticizing private power company propaganda advertising as being "false and deliberately misleading." pp. A5565-6
38. IMPORTS. Extension of remarks of Rep. Gathings criticizing action by the Tariff Commission in holding that imports of cotton were not "materially interfering" with this Department's program and inserting an article on this subject. pp. A5571-2
- Extension of remarks of Rep. Shipley expressing concern over the effects of imports on the textile industry. pp. A5614-5

Extension of remarks of Sen. Randolph critical of certain "severe restrictions" imposed by some European countries upon American commodities, with special reference to American deciduous fruits and insertion of a statement of the U. S. National Fruit Export Council and the apple and pear industry. pp. A5580-1

39. FOREIGN RELIEF. Extension of remarks of Sen. Keating urging establishment of the Great White Fleet as a step forward toward world peace and inserting an address on this subject. pp. A5573-4
40. WATER RESOURCES. Sen. Mundt inserted a price winning essay: "Water -- Key to Our Survival." pp. A5581-2
41. FUTURES TRADING; ONIONS. Extension of remarks of Rep. Anfuso stating that "I think we made a mistake when we killed futures trading in onions," and "that there is no equity in singling out futures trading in onions for death, while leaving futures trading in potatoes and in many other commodities untouched." pp. A5591-2
42. PESTICIDES. Rep. Auchincloss inserted a N. J. Dept. of Agriculture letter opposing proposed legislation which would require consultation with Fish and Wildlife Service before a State could use pesticides or other chemicals for mass biological controls. p. A5608
43. FOREIGN AID. Rep. Reuss inserted two articles expressing public interest in the proposed establishment of a Point-4 Youth Corps. pp. A5615-6

PURPOSE OF AMENDMENTS

The purpose of the amendments is to correct typographical errors appearing in the bill, and in one instance to change the language so as to avoid the possibility of any substantive change in existing law.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this bill, as amended, is to consolidate and simplify the laws governing the postal service and enact title 39 of the United State Code into law. Simple language has been substituted for awkward and obsolete terms. Conflicts in laws have been resolved where possible. Ambiguous provisions have been revised to reflect Comptroller General interpretations. Superseded, obsolete, or executed laws have been eliminated. Similar provisions have been consolidated.

STATEMENT

The committee, on June 6, 1959, by notice in the Congressional Record, advised any and all interested parties of the consideration of this legislation by the Subcommittee on Revision and Codification, and requested any statements or comments relating to the proposed legislation. Since the insertion of that notice in the Record, certain suggested amendments as to clarification and typographical corrections to the codification have been submitted to the subcommittee, which are reflected in the amendments hereinbefore set forth.

The committee has studied this matter thoroughly, and on the basis of all of the evidence before it, believes that the bill represents a codification of existing law relating to the postal service, without any change in substance. The committee, therefore, recommends that the bill, H.R. 2339, as amended, be considered favorably.

House Report No. 36 on H.R. 2339 sets forth the scope of the revision and related matters. That report is set forth below, as follows:

[H. Rept. 36, 86th Cong., 1st sess.]

SCOPE OF REVISION

The Postmaster General submitted to the 84th Congress a bill to revise, codify, and enact into law, title 39 of the United States Code, entitled "The Postal Service." The bill was introduced in the closing days of the 1st session of the 84th Congress as H.R. 7768.

In the months intervening between the 1st and 2d sessions of the 84th Congress, the law revision counsel of the House Committee on the Judiciary worked closely with members of the staff of the General Counsel of the Post Office Department refining language, checking existing law against the proposed revision, and expanding or condensing the revision notes.

The committee sought the views and comments of agencies of government which had an apparent interest in this bill. Among the agencies requested to study the bill were the Departments of Justice, State, Treasury, and Defense, the Civil Service Commission, and the Interstate Commerce Commission. Because of the magnitude of the project (the postal laws have not been revised since 1872), the task of reviewing and analyzing the bill for the purpose of insuring accuracy could not be completed prior to close of the 84th Congress.

The bill, revised to reflect comments received and intervening enactments of the Congress, was again introduced in the 1st session of the 85th Congress as H.R. 4012. Because of the extensive changes made to the original text, H.R. 4012 was again submitted to the interested agencies of government for review and comment. Comments were received from the Departments of State, Treasury, and Defense and the Civil Service Commission. The Department of Justice was unable to submit its report prior to the close of the 1st session and final committee action, therefore, was not possible. The views of the Department of Justice were received, however, in October 1957, and the staff of the committee and that of the General Counsel of the Post Office Department again reviewed the bill and made appropriate revisions to cover the newly received comments and enactments of the 1st session of the 85th Congress.

Several of the departments suggested a number of substantive changes to existing law. Many appeared desirable to the Post Office Department. For the most part, however, they are not within the scope of legislation of this nature and are more appropriately handled in separate legislation considered by the legislative committee having jurisdiction of the subject matter. For example, the Department of Justice has recommended that changes be made in the Post Office Department Property Act (39 U.S.C. 901-909), and to the so-called Impounding of Mail Act (39 U.S.C. 259b and 259c). The Department of Defense has suggested that a new provision of law be added authorizing the Postmaster General to forward mail, without collection of additional postage, addressed to military personnel whose addresses have changed due to official orders.

These suggested changes are typical of others. However, they so depart from existing law as to preclude consideration in this bill.

Every effort has been made to insure that the bill accurately restates or otherwise disposes of all laws, including reorganization plans, coming within the scope of the project.

It was decided in approving this legislation, to introduce a clean bill in lieu of H.R. 4012. This was done and H.R. 13600 was reported containing the provisions of H.R. 4012 as changed to reflect recent enactments and improvements by the committee. That bill passed the House on August 4, 1958, but was not acted upon in the other body. The instant bill contains provisions bringing the title up to date by including all enactments of the 85th Congress, without substantive change.

RESTATEMENT OF SUBSTANCE

The object of the new title is to restate existing law, not to make new law. Consistently with the general plan of the United States Code, the pertinent provisions of law have been reworded and rearranged, subject to every precaution against making changes in substance or disburbing existing rights, privileges, duties, or functions.

It is sometimes feared that mere changes in terminology and style will result in changes in substance or impair the precedent value of earlier judicial decisions and other interpretations. This fear might have some weight were this the usual kind of amendatory legislation, where it can be inferred that a change in language is intended to change substance. In a codification statute, however, the courts uphold the contrary presumption: the law is intended to remain substantively unchanged. The following authorities affirm this principle:

Stewart v. Kahn (11 Wall. 493, 502 (1871)).

Smythe v. Fiske (23 Wall. 374, 382 (1874)).

McDonald v. Hovey (110 U.S. 619, 628 (1884)).

United States v. Ryder (110 U.S. 729, 740 (1884)).

United States v. Sischo (262 U.S. 165, 168 (1923)).

Walsh v. Commonwealth (224 Mass. 239, 112 N.E. 486, 487 (1916)).

In re Sullivan's Estate (38 Ariz. 387, 300 Pac. 193, 195 (1931)).

State ex rel. Rankin v. Wibaux County Bank (85 Mont. 532, 281 Pac. 341, 344 (1929)).

Sigal v. Wise (114 Conn. 297, 158 Atl. 891, 894 (1932)).

Martin v. Dyer-Kane Co. (113 N.J. Eq. 88, 166 Atl. 227, 229 (1933)).

Norfolk & Portsmouth Bar Ass'n. v. Drewry (161 Va. 833, 172 S.E. 282, 285 (1934)).

CONSULTATION WITH THE COMMITTEE ON POST OFFICE AND CIVIL SERVICE

Inasmuch as the legislation constitutes a revision and codification of existing statutes it was, under the rules of the House, referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. This committee has followed a policy of consulting with the standing committee of the House which would ordinarily have jurisdiction of the subject matter embraced in its codification bills. Accordingly, it invited the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service to participate in a review of the bill, particularly with respect to changes made in existing law.

In response to this invitation, members of the professional staff of the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service met with several members of the law revision staff of this committee and thereafter the bill was studied in detail by this group. Upon completion of their consideration, the chairman of the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service expressed his views in the following letter to the chairman of Subcommittee No. 3:

COMMITTEE ON POST OFFICE AND CIVIL SERVICE,
Washington, D.C., June 30, 1958.

HON. EDWIN E. WILLIS,
House Committee on the Judiciary,
House of Representatives, Washington, D.C.

DEAR COLLEAGUE: Reference is made to the codification of title 39 which has been pending before the Judiciary Committee for some time. My staff has worked with your staff in going over the bill originally sent down from the Post Office Department.

It is my understanding that there remains only two issues in which there is not general agreement. The first relates to the Postal Field Service compensation schedule. I believe that the current compensation schedule should be used as it appears in Public Law 462, 85th Congress. To do otherwise would just generate a lot of correspondence and explanation as to why an incorrect schedule appears in title 39. The other point is one about which I have written the Judiciary Committee before. It relates to the size and weight of parcel post. It is my understanding you are putting Public Law 199, 82d Congress, in the appendix, rather than in the codification. I believe it should be codified as I indicated in my letter of July 13, 1956, copy attached for your ready reference.

With these two exceptions, I would have no objection to the codification.

With kindest personal regards, I am
Sincerely yours,

TOM MURRAY, Chairman.

The committee considered the observations of Chairman Murray as noted in his letter above and, in accordance with his suggestion, codified both public laws. To meet Mr. Murray's exceptions, however, it was necessary to leave uncoded and unrepealed section 247 of title 39, United States Code. (See table 4, later in this report.)

RAILWAY MAIL PAY ACT

Certain provisions of the act of July 28, 1916 (39 Stat. 419), have been omitted from the instant codification. They are title 39, United States Code, sections 548, 554, and 557. There is a conflict as to the interpretation to be placed on these sections which should be settled, insofar as congressional committees are concerned, by the committee having general jurisdiction of these matters. Meanwhile and to maintain the status quo the sections have not been codified nor are they being repealed. (See table 4, later in this report.)

REVISION NOTES

For each of the sections in this revision, a revision note has been written showing the source of the law and explaining the significance of the language changes and omissions from that appearing in the 1952 edition of the United States Code. Credits have been made as exact as possible. These notes are set out in the appendix to this report.

Appropriate tables have been prepared showing where existing provisions appear in the new title 39 and why laws, codified or uncoded, have been repealed and not included in the new code.

SECTION ANALYSIS

Section 1 of the bill sets forth the revised title 39 and provides that it shall be enacted into positive law.

Section 2 of the bill is the usual separability provision.

Section 3 is a savings provision preserving all orders, rules, and regulations in effect under laws superseded or amended by the bill to the extent they would have been authorized under the bill. This is a standard provision in all bills to recodify titles of the United States Code.

Section 4 is a savings provision preserving certain benefits to which employees are entitled under provisions of law which are repealed by this bill.

Section 5 provides that when reference is made in another law to a law repealed by section 12 of the bill the reference shall be considered to be a reference to the appropriate section of the new title 39.

Section 6 provides that no inference of a legislation construction is to be drawn by reason of the chapter in new title 39 in which any section is placed, nor by reason of the caption or catchline used in the revision.

Sections 7 and 8 transfer to title 18, United States Code, certain penal provisions presently codified in new title 39.

Sections 9 and 10 transfer to title 28, United States Code, certain sections now found in existing title 39 dealing with attachments in postal suits.

Section 11 provides that the act shall take effect on September 1, 1960. Laws enacted subsequent to January 7, 1960, that are inconsistent will supersede this bill to the extent of the inconsistency.

Section 12 provides for the specific repeal of laws covered by the revision and other superseded and obsolete laws. This section has been checked carefully on a number of occasions to insure that no law has been omitted which should be covered and that no law is covered that should have been omitted.

Section 12 also preserves all rights and liabilities existing on the effective date of this act.

The committee expresses its sincere thanks to all who cooperated in the various drafts of this bill, particularly to the Post Office Department's General Counsel and the members of his staff who consulted almost daily over protracted periods with the committee's law revision counsel.

APPENDIX

REVISION NOTES

Notes explaining in detail the revision of the laws relating to the Postal Service are set forth in numerical order according to the section numbers of revised title 39 as set forth in section 1 of the bill.

SECTION 1—NEW SECTION

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 8, 782, 783, 784, 791, 951 (R. S. 4050, 4051, 4059; May 11, 1906, ch. 2448, 34, Stat. 186; May 27, 1908, ch. 206, 35 Stat. 415; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; Oct. 25, 1951, ch. 562, § 4 (8), 65 Stat. 640; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 101, 69 Stat. 88).

The definitions in the first three paragraphs are based on section 951, title 39. The last definition is based on sections 8, 782, 783, 784, and 791, title 39.

SECTION 2—NEW SECTION

This section provides for the application of title 39 to Guam as well as other possessions of the United States. It does not change existing law.

CHAPTER 3—ORGANIZATION

Sec.
301. Post Office Department.
302. Postmaster General.
303. Seal.
304. Deputy Postmaster General.
305. Assistant Postmasters General.
306. Advisory board.
307. General Counsel.
308. Chief Postal Inspector.
309. Delegation of authority.

SECTION 301—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 361 (R. S. 388).

The section is divided. The portion dealing with appointment of Postmaster General is covered by section 302 of this title.

SECTION 302—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 361 (R. S. 388) and on Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, § 1 (63 Stat. 0066).

The section is divided. The remainder is placed in section 301 of this title. The words "and who may be removed in the same manner" are deleted in view of the inherent right of the President to remove Presidential appointees (Myers v. U. S., 272 U. S. 52). The second sentence of this section is based on section 1 of Reorganization Plan No. 3, 1949.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 303—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed. § 362 (R. S. 395).

The filing of the description and impression with the Secretary of State and the provision that it be judicially noticed is new to title 39, but is in conformity with provisions regarding seals of other departments.

SECTION 304—NEW SECTION

Based on Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, § 2 (63 Stat. 1066). This section is new.

Words “after the date of transmittal of this reorganization plan to the Congress” are omitted.

Specification of salary is omitted as it is adequately covered in the Executive Pay Act of 1956 (70 Stat. 736).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 305—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 363a and Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, § 3 (63 Stat. 1066; July 20, 1953, ch. 232, 67 Stat. 183). Words “after the date of transmittal of this reorganization plan to the Congress” appearing in section 3 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949 are omitted.

Specification of salary is omitted as it is covered by the Executive Pay Act of 1956 (70 Stat. 736).

For succession in office see Ex. Ord. No. 10154, Aug. 22, 1950, 3 C. F. R. 1950 Supp. 115; Ex. Ord. No. 10558, Sept. 8, 1954, 3 C. F. R. 1954, Supp. 70; Ex. Ord. No. 10686, Nov. 1, 1956, 21 F. R. 8479.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 306—NEW SECTION

Based on Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, § 4 (63 Stat. 1066). This section is new to the code and is taken from the cited section of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 307—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 364, 364-1 (R. S. 390; July 16, 1914, ch. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 497; July 31, 1956, ch. 804, § 301, 70 Stat. 742).

The provisions of sections 364 and 364-1, title 5, are covered by this section. Changes in phraseology are made.

Subsection (b) of 364-1 is omitted as executed.

SECTION 308—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 364b (June 20, 1958, Pub. L. 85-462, § 12 (f), 72 Stat. 213, 214).

Section is restated without change.

SECTION 309—SECTION REVISED

Based on Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, § 1 (b) (63 Stat. 1066)

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 5—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.

501. General duties of the Postmaster General.

502. Bonds.

503. Mail equipment shops.

504. Research and development program.

505. International postal arrangements.

506. International money-order exchanges.

507. Fees for special services.

508. Sale of maps, opinions of the General Counsel, and transcripts of hearings.

509. Rewards.

510. Disposal of waste paper.

SECTION 501—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 22, 311a, 369 (R. S. 161, 396, Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1143, § 1, 68 Stat. 998).

This section, paragraph (1), brings into title 39 the general authority given to all departments to prescribe regulations for the government of their departments (sec. 22 of title 5). Paragraph (1) is also based on the many sections of title 39, which authorize the Postmaster General to issue rules and regulations to implement acts of Congress. In each instance the authority to do so is omitted and the revision notes indicate that this section, paragraph (1), is intended to convey authority to prescribe the regulations. Typical of the sections of the U. S. Code containing this authority are: 5 U. S. C. 383, 39 U. S. C. 153, 39 U. S. C. 169, 39 U. S. C. 171, 39 U. S. C. 196, 39 U. S. C. 212, 39 U. S. C. 244, 39 U. S. C. 245c, 39 U. S. C. 246c, 39 U. S. C. 246f, 39 U. S. C. 249, 39 U. S. C. 260a, 39 U. S. C. 273, 39 U. S. C. 273a, 39 U. S. C. 276d, 39 U. S. C. 278a, 39 U. S. C. 278b, 39 U. S. C. 280, 39 U. S. C. 284, 39 U. S. C. 285, 39 U. S. C. 290-a-1, 39 U. S. C. 291b, 39 U. S. C. 292a, 39 U. S. C. 321i, 39 U. S. C. 321p, 39 U. S. C. 321q, 39 U. S. C. 321r, 39 U. S. C. 329, 39 U. S. C. 331, 39 U. S. C. 336, 39 U. S. C. 384a, 39 U. S. C. 385, 39 U. S. C. 387, 39 U. S. C. 411, 39 U. S. C. 434, 39 U. S. C. 475, 39 U. S. C. 578, 39 U. S. C. 711, 39 U. S. C. 712, 39 U. S. C. 720, 39 U. S. C. 1051.

Paragraphs (2), (3) and (5) are based on items "Second", "Third" and "Ninth" of section 369 of title 5. Item "First" of section 369 is covered by section 701 of this title; items "Fourth" through "Eighth" of said section are superseded by sections 794-794f title 39 which sections are covered by sections 509, 2101, 2102, 2202, 2206-2208, 2211, 2302, 2401 and 2402 of this title.

The authority to investigate offenses, paragraph (4) of this section is derived from section 311a of title 5, and sections 497, 498, 499 and 700 of title 39. (See secs. 903-906 of this title.)

SECTION 502—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 6, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 14 (July 30, 1947, ch. 390, § 1, 61 Stat. 646; Aug. 9, 1955, ch. 683, § 1, 69 Stat. 618) and title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 34, 36, 132, 157, 696 (R. S. 3834, 3835, 3870, 4017, 4018; June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177; July 31, 1894, ch. 174, § 3, 28 Stat. 205; June 13, 1898, ch. 446, § 3, 30 Stat. 444; Mar. 1, 1909, ch. 232, 35 Stat. 670; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24).

Subsection (a) covers the first sentence of section 34 of title 39, and sections 132, 157 and 696 of title 39, 1952 ed. The second sentence of section 34 is eliminated as superseded by the records disposal act (title 44, §§ 366–371). The last sentence of section 34 relating to bonds of married women is also eliminated as obsolete and unnecessary. In view of the language in section 132, title 39, which authorizes the Postmaster General to designate which employees may be required to furnish bond, all references to assistant postmasters, general superintendents, assistant general superintendents of finance, general superintendents and assistant superintendents of money orders, post office inspectors, cashiers and carriers are deleted.

The sections covered by subsection (a) required in their original forms that employees furnish their own bonds. However, upon enactment of section 14 of title 6 it became the obligation of the Department to procure bonds for employees. The modification of the bonding provisions brought about by section 14 of title 6 is reflected in subsection (a).

Section 36 of title 39 is covered by subsection (b).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 503—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 374 (R. S. 400).

The words “blank agency” are omitted and the words “mail equipment shops” are inserted in lieu thereof. The “blank agency” has been known for many years as the “mail equipment shops” and has been given recognition in appropriation acts.

SECTION 504—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 847, 847a (Aug. 16, 1949, ch. 439, §§ 1, 2, 63 Stat. 608).

Section 847 of title 39 is covered by subsection (a) of this section. Reference to use of such “officers and employees as he may designate” is omitted as surplusage.

Section 847a of title 39 is covered by subsection (b).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 505—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 372, 373 (R. S. 398, 399; June 20, 1874, ch. 328, 18 Stat. 88; June 12, 1934, ch. 473, 48 Stat. 943).

Section 372 of title 5 is covered by subsection (a), and section 373 of title 5 is covered by subsection (b).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 506—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 712 (R. S. 4028; Jan. 30, 1889, ch. 100, § 1, 25 Stat. 654).

The last sentence providing that expenses be paid out of the proceeds of money order business is omitted. Annual appropriations provide for expenses necessary in the operation of the postal service. Expenses are therefore paid out of available funds. Reference to compensation of postmasters is omitted in view of sections 3542 and 3544 of this title.

Authority to issue rules and regulations is omitted. That authority is covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 507—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 246b, 246f, 260a (May 9, 1930, ch. 231, § 2, 46 Stat. 264; Jan. 13, 1931, ch. 27, 46 Stat. 1035; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 12, 65 Stat. 676; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L. 85-371, § 2, 72 Stat. 83).

This section covers the authority granted to the Postmaster General to prescribe fees as found in the cited sections. Reference to issuance of rules and regulations has been omitted. Such authority is now contained in section 501 of this title.

Fees for certified mail are now fixed by the Postmaster General under the general authority of 5 U. S. C. 140, and in the same manner as he sets fees for registered, insured and c. o. d. service under 39 U. S. C. 246f. Since certified mail is closely akin to registered and insured mail, it is appropriate to bring the fee authority for certified mail into this section dealing with fees for allied services. Congress has given legislative recognition to certified mail in Public Law 85-259 by authorizing its use in serving jury notices.

SECTION 508—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., § 364-1, and title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 805 (May 8, 1951, ch. 46, 65 Stat. 40; July 31, 1956, ch. 804, § 301, 70 Stat. 742, 743).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 509—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 9, 794f (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 8, 64 Stat. 462; June 1, 1955, ch. 113, title 11, § 201, 69 Stat. 77).

Section 794f was divided. Clause (3) is covered by this section. Clause (1) is placed in section 2102 of this title, and clause (2) is placed in section 2101 of this title.

The words "information and services" are derived from section 9, title 39, which is temporary legislation. This section has appeared in the Post Office Department Appropriations Acts dating back to 1917.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 510—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 8 (May 11, 1906, ch. 2448, 34 Stat. 186; Oct. 25, 1951, ch. 562, § 4 (8), 65 Stat. 640).

The clause reading “and pay proceeds of such sales into the Treasury as postal revenues” is covered by definition of postal revenue in section 1 of this title. The remainder of section 8 is covered by this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 7—POST OFFICES

Sec.

- 701. Establishment and discontinuance of post offices.
- 702. Classes of post offices.
- 703. Distributing offices; clerk hire.
- 704. Reimbursement for equipment on discontinuance of office.
- 705. Branch post offices and stations.
- 706. Postal agencies in other countries.
- 707. Hours of service.
- 708. Box rents to be prepaid.
- 709. Arrival and departure of mail.
- 710. Making up mail.
- 711. Method of determining gross receipts.
- 712. Armed Forces postal clerks.

SECTION 701—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 369, and 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 1, 2, 3 (R. S. 396, 3829, 3864; June 9, 1896, ch. 386, 29 Stat. 313; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 545).

Subsection (a) covers the purpose and intent of sections 1, 2 and 3 of title 39 and section 369 of title 5.

Reference to establishing post office on post roads “established by law” in section 1 of title 39 is omitted. All roads are post roads. (See sec. 6105 of this title.) Reference to notifying General Accounting Office is omitted as obsolete.

Subsection (b) covers the remaining provisions of section 3 of title 39 prohibiting discontinuance of post offices at county seats.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 702—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 973 (g), 1031 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, §§ 303 (g), 801, 69 Stat. 121, 129).

Sections 973 (g) and 1031 of title 39 are combined.

SECTION 703—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 82 (July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 11, 19 Stat. 82).

Reference to allowances to postmasters at offices of the third class is omitted. Expenses at such offices are paid out of the annual appropriations made to the Department.

For similar provisions regarding payment of allowances, see section 3544 (e) of this revision.

SECTION 704—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 69, 70 (Aug. 23, 1954, ch. 827, §§ 1, 2, 68 Stat. 766).

The cited sections are combined. That part of section 70 authorizing appropriations is omitted as unnecessary.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 705—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 158, 159, 160, 160a, 161 (R. S. 3871; June 9, 1896, ch. 386, 29 Stat. 313; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 15, 39 Stat. 163; Oct. 28, 1919, ch. 86, 41 Stat. 323; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; Mar. 10, 1952, ch. 98, § 1, 66 Stat. 28; Apr. 7, 1958, Pub. L. 85-368, 72 Stat. 81; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L. 85-372, 72 Stat. 84; Sept. 2, 1958, Pub. L. 85-893, § 1, 72 Stat. 1713).

The first sentence of section 158, title 39, is covered in subsection (a). The last sentence is covered by section 6004 of this title.

Section 160 of title 39 is covered by subsections (b) and (c).

The provisions of the note to section 160, title 39, as amended by the Act of April 7, 1958, 72 Stat. 81, are covered by subsection (d).

Subsection (e) covers the provisions of section 159, title 39.

Section 161, title 39, is cross referenced in subsection (f) to section 2011 of this title.

Rural stations referred to in subsection (f) have traditionally been established under authority to establish the rural free delivery service. For many years prior to 1950 the Appropriations Acts for the Department carried funds to be used for the establishment of such stations under the heading Rural Delivery Service. Commencing with the 1951 Appropriations Act, the appropriations for the Department are consolidated so that the rural delivery service and its costs are no longer separately stated. The authority to establish these rural postal stations throughout the country still remains.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 706—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 672 (R. S. 4021; Oct. 5, 1940, ch. 745, § 1, 54 Stat. 965).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 707—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 4, 5 (R. S. 3839; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 543).

Section 4 of title 39 is covered by subsection (a).

Section 5 of title 39 is covered by subsection (b).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 708—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 279, 785 (R. S. 3901, 4052).

Subsection (a) is based on section 279 of title 39. Payment "on a quarterly basis" is substituted for "one quarter in advance" to simplify accounting and billing procedures.

Subsection (b) covers, with changes in phraseology, the provisions of section 785, title 39. The words "which rental shall be accounted for as other box rents" is omitted in view of the provisions of section 794 (b), title 39 (see sec. 2208 of this revision) which requires establishment and maintenance of systems of accounting covering all funds, property, and other assets of the Department.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 709—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 7 (R. S. 3841, Apr. 4, 1953, ch. 18, § 1, 67 Stat. 21).

The final clause requiring the making of such reports as the Postmaster General may require is omitted as unnecessary.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 710—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 6 (R. S. 3840).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 711—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 56, 57d (Mar. 9, 1914, ch. 33, 38 Stat. 296; Mar. 29, 1944, ch. 143, § 3, 58 Stat. 131; July 6, 1945, ch. 274, § 8 (a), 59 Stat. 437; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, § 211, 72 Stat. 142.)

The second proviso of section 57d of title 39 is covered by subsection (a) of this section.

The remainder of section 57d is superseded.

Subsection (b) covers that part of section 56 of title 39 preceding the proviso. The language of this subsection is revised to make express mention of postage meter settings. The proviso is superseded by section 1031, title 39, which section is covered by section 702 of this title.

Subsection (c) covers section 211 of Public Law 85-426.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 712—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 141, 142, 143, 144, and 145 (June 6, 1953, ch. 108, §§ 1-5, 67 Stat. 55, 56).

Changes in phraseology are made to conform to the style of this revision and to reflect the provisions of section 14 of title 6. The words "armed forces postal clerks" are used instead of listing each one of the five services.

CHAPTER 9—PRIVATE CARRIAGE OF LETTERS

Sec.

901. Letters carried out of the mail.

902. Foreign letters out of the mails.

903. Searches authorized.

904. Seizing and detaining letters.

905. Searching vessels for letters.

906. Disposition of seized mail.

SECTION 901—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 500 (R. S. 3993, June 29, 1938, ch. 805, 52 Stat. 1231).
Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 902—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 494, 496 (R. S. 3978, 3987).
Subsections (a) and (b) cover the provisions of section 496 of title 39, U. S. C.
Subsection (c) covers the last clause of section 494 of title 39. The remainder of this latter section is obsolete. See section 6409 of this title for transportation rates to be paid owner of vessels.
Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 903—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 700 (R. S. 4017, 4026; June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177).
“Vehicle”, includes a “car”, therefore the words “car or” are omitted. “Article” is substituted for “box, package or packet”.

SECTION 904—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 498 (R. S. 3990, 4017; June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177).
“Customs officer” includes “collector”, therefore, the words “collector or other” are omitted.
Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 905—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 497 (R. S. 3989; 4017; June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177).
“Customs officer” includes “collector”, therefore the words “collector or other” are omitted.
Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 906—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 499 (R. S. 3991, 4017, June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177).
“Customs officer” includes “collector”, therefore the words “collector or other” are omitted.
Authority to seize mail is covered by section 904 of this title.
Changes are made in phraseology.

PART II—FISCAL ADMINISTRATION

CHAPTER	Sec.
21. CONTRACTS.....	2001
23. PROPERTY.....	2101
25. FUNDS AND ACCOUNTING.....	2201
27. FISCAL REPORTING.....	2301
29. DEBTS AND COLLECTIONS.....	2401
31. STAMPS AND STAMPED PAPER.....	2501

CHAPTER 21—CONTRACTS

Sec.

- 2001. Purchase or rental of equipment and supplies.
- 2002. Bonds and contracts.
- 2003. Purchase of supplies.
- 2004. Contracts for envelopes and other supplies.
- 2005. Contracts for money order supplies.
- 2006. Contracts for rental of equipment and services.
- 2007. Purchase of motor-truck parts.
- 2008. Hire of vehicles from employees.
- 2009. Contracts for delivery of special delivery mail.
- 2010. No postal material or supplies manufactured by convict labor.
- 2011. Contracts for postal stations.

SECTION 2001—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C. 1952 ed., § 242 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 558; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 149, § 1, 37 Stat. 928).

The limitation to fourth class mail is eliminated in view of authority in other laws to obtain supplies and equipment for other services. (See section 2004, this title.)

“Equipment and supplies” as used in this section includes those specifically mentioned in section 242 of title 39; for example, vehicles, maps, stamps, directories, and printed instructions.

Reference to appointment and compensation of employees is omitted. Appointment and compensation of employees are covered by chapters 41, 43, and 45 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2002—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 377 (R. S. 403).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2003—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 366 (Apr. 28, 1904, ch. 1759, § 3, 33 Stat. 440; Reorganization Plan No. 3, §§ 1 (a), 5 (a), eff. Aug. 20, 1949, 63 Stat. 10666).

Since the office of Purchasing Agent was abolished by Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, the provision that he make contracts in name of Postmaster General is omitted. In any event the provision is in conflict with section 2002 of this title.

Reference to the purchase of articles of “domestic production and manufacture” is omitted. This is now covered by section 10a of title 41.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2004—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 164, 352, 355, 803, 804, 809 (Mar. 24, 1874, No. 6, 18 Stat. 286; Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 374, § 1, 25 Stat. 844; Mar. 2, 1895, ch. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 803; Apr. 21, 1902, ch. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 117; June 26, 1906, ch. 3546, 34 Stat. 476; Oct. 31, 1951, ch. 654, § 4 (7), 65 Stat. 709); and derived from title 41, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 13a (Mar. 24, 1874), No. 6, 18 Stat. 286.

Sections 164, 355, 803, 804 and 809, title 39, authorize 4-year contracts for the procurement of stamped envelopes, envelopes for use by the executive departments of Government, postal cards and stamps, post route maps, miscellaneous equipment and supplies. The authority contained in those sections is consolidated in this section.

Section 164 of title 39 authorizes the Postmaster General to contract for a period of not to exceed 4 years for necessary supplies for the free-delivery service. This provision is covered by the broad language of paragraph (4) of this section which is based, in part, on section 803 of title 39.

Section 803 authorizes contracts for terms not exceeding 4 years for articles enumerated under the heading "Supply Division" in the Act of April 21, 1902, 32 Stat. 113. The last mentioned statute was an Appropriation Act listing a great variety of miscellaneous supplies under the heading "Supply Division." Paragraph 4 of subsection (a) of this section is based on section 803 but the words "Supply Division" are omitted.

The provision of section 804, title 39, relating to the printing of post-road maps is covered by paragraph (5) of this section.

The provisions of section 809 of title 39 and section 13a of title 41, provide that contracts for mail bags, mail locks and keys, postal cards, and postage stamps are not subject to the provisions of section 13 of title 41.

Section 352 of title 39 is covered by subsection (b) of this section.

For provisions covering sale of envelopes, see sections 2503, 2510.

SECTION 2005—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 715 (Mar. 3, 1883, ch. 123, § 2, 22 Stat. 527; June 4, 1897, ch. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 18).

The second sentence is omitted in view of section 111 of title 44, requiring that printing be done at the Government Printing Office.

The reference to section 5 of title 41 is new and is in substitution of the words "from the lowest responsible bidders" and "under separate advertisements."

SECTION 2006—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 802 (Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1333; Mar. 9, 1914, ch. 33, 38 Stat. 303).

Changes are made in phraseology. The words "the equipages" are omitted and "vehicles" inserted in lieu thereof. The words "and shall be awarded on the basis of cheapness and efficiency" are eliminated. The letting of contracts is covered by section 5 of title 41 which authorizes awards of contracts to the lowest responsible bidder.

SECTION 2007—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 829 (June 30, 1930, ch. 766, 46 Stat. 838).

The introductory clause "whenever motor truck parts are needed by the Post Office Department in the operation of motor trucks" is as surplusage. The annual appropriations acts of the Department make appropriations for expenses necessary in the operation of the postal service. The key points in this section are that the Postmaster General may make these agreements without advertising and at prices which do not exceed the manufacturers' list price.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2008—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 52, 1008 (R. S. 3850; Feb. 20, 1929, ch. 278, 45 Stat. 1252; June 18, 1930, ch. 526, 46 Stat. 782; June 22, 1934, ch. 713, 48 Stat. 1205; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, title 6, § 608, 69 Stat. 128).

Section 52 is divided. That portion preceding the proviso is covered by section 6420 of this title. The proviso is covered in this section. The words "including special delivery" are based on section 1008 of title 39. The remainder of section 1008 is covered by section 3542 of this title.

See section 3543 (g) for allowances to employees serving rural routes.

SECTION 2009—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 167 (Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 1, 24 Stat. 220).

The section is divided. Its application to the employment of persons at post offices of the third and fourth class to deliver special delivery mail is covered in section 6007. Its application to special delivery mail generally is covered by section 6006 of this title. The last sentence which applies to contracts for delivery of special delivery mail is covered by this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2010—SECTION REVISED

Derived from title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 367 (Apr. 28, 1904, ch. 1759, § 1, 33 Stat. 435).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2011—SECTION REVISED

Based on 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 161 (May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 15, 39 Stat. 163; Apr. 7, 1958, Pub. L. 85-368, 72 Stat. 81).

The cited section is also covered by section 705 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 23—PROPERTY

Sec.

- 2101. Gifts, donations of services and property.
- 2102. Leases.
- 2103. Additional leasing authority.
- 2104. Space procurement by lease-purchase agreements.
- 2105. Development of existing sites and property.
- 2106. Use of rental funds.
- 2107. Congressional approval.
- 2108. Lease-purchase agreement provisions.
- 2109. Time limitations on agreements.
- 2110. Taxes and rental adjustments.
- 2111. Property title.
- 2112. Advertisement.
- 2113. Receipts from disposal of property.
- 2114. Nonapplicability of statutes.
- 2115. Purpose.
- 2116. Annual report.

SECTION 2101—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 794f (Aug. 17, 1750, ch. 735, § 8, 64 Stat. 462).

This section covers clause (2) of section 794f of title 39. The parenthetical phrase “whether real, personal, or mixed, and whether tangible or intangible” in said clause is omitted as unnecessary because it is embraced within the broad scope of the word “property” as used in this section.

Section 794f is divided. Clause (1) is covered by subsection (a) of section 2102 of this title. Clause (3) is covered by section 509 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2102—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 10, 11, 12, 14, 476, 577, 794f (Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386; July 24, 1888, ch. 702, § 1, 25 Stat. 346; Mar. 9, 1914, ch. 33, 38 Stat. 301; Apr. 24, 1920, ch. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 578, 580; June 19, 1922, ch. 227, § 1, 42 Stat. 656; Mar. 3, 1925, ch. 420, 43 Stat. 1105; June 3, 1926, ch. 455, June 3, 1926, ch. 456, 44 Stat. 688; June 29, 1948, ch. 717, § 2, 62 Stat. 1098; Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 8, 64 Stat. 462).

The broad authority of the Postmaster General under clause (1) of section 794f of title 39 to make leases on such terms as he deems appropriate, limited only by laws specifically applicable to the postal service, is covered by subsection (a) of this section. The laws specifically applicable to the leasing authority of the postal service within the limitation imposed by section 794f are distributed in this section as follows:

Section 10 of title 39 which authorizes the Postmaster General to cancel leases on buildings unfit for postal service and prohibits the payment of rent on such buildings is covered by subsection (d).

Section 14 of title 39 is covered by subsection (c).

The twenty-year limitation on the term of leases for quarters for first, second, and third class post offices, quarters at public airports and at terminal railway post offices contained in sections 11, 476, and 577 of title 39 is covered by subsection (b). The references in said sections to the appropriation items available for such payments have been omitted for the reason that such specific appropriation items are no longer carried in the appropriation acts for the Department.

The authorization in sections 11, 12, 476, and 577, for the Postmaster General to pay rental for leased quarters on a monthly or quarterly basis is omitted in view of subsection (a).

Clause (2) of section 746f and clause (3) of section 746f are covered by sections 2101 and 509 of their title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2103—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 903 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 203, 68 Stat. 523, 524).

This section covers section 903 of title 39. The reference in paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of said section to “person, copartnership, corporation, or other public or private entity” is omitted as unnecessary. The authority vested in the Postmaster General by this section to enter into lease agreements carries with it authority for him to enter into such agreements with any "person, copartnership, corporation, or other public or private entity." The word "lessor" as used in paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of this section also embraces persons, copartnerships, corporations, or other public or private entities.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2104—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C. 1952, ed., § 902 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 202, 68 Stat. 521).

This section covers subsection (a) of section 902 of title 39. The reference to Guam is omitted as unnecessary in view of section 2 of this title.

Section 902 is distributed as follows: The provisions of subsection (b), (c), and (d) are covered by section 2105 of this title. Subsection (e) is covered by section 2108 of this title; subsection (f) by section 2106 of this title; subsection (g) by section 2107 of this title; subsection (h) by section 2110 of this title; and subsection (i) by section 2108 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2105—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 902 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 202, 68 Stat. 521, 522).

This section covers the provisions of subsection (b), (c), and (d) of section 902 of title 39. For distribution see note to section 2104 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2106—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 902 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 202, 68 Stat. 522).

This section covers subsection (f) of section 902 of title 39. For distribution see note to section 2104 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2107—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 902 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 202, 68 Stat. 522, 523; July 9, 1956, ch. 525, § 2, 70 Stat. 510, 511).

This section covers the provisions of subsection (g) of section 902 of title 39. For distribution see note under section 2104 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2108—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 902 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 202, 68 Stat. 522, 523).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the provisions of subsection (e) of section 902 of title 39.

Subsection (b) of this section covers the provisions of subsection (i) of section 902.

For distribution see the note to section 2104 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2109—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 908 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 208, 68 Stat. 525).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2110—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 902, 904 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, §§ 202, 204, 68 Stat. 523, 524).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the provisions of subsection (h) of section 902 of title 39. For distribution of said section, see the note to section 2104 of this title.

Subsection (b) of this section covers the provisions of section 904 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2111—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 906, 907 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, §§ 206, 207, 68 Stat. 524).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the provisions of section 906 of title 39.

Subsection (b) of this section covers the provisions of subsection (a) of section 907 of title 39. Subsection (b) of section 907 is covered by section 2112 of this title, and subsection (c) is covered by section 2114 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2112—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 907 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 207, 68 Stat. 524).

This section covers subsection (b) of section 907 of title 39. For distribution of said section, see the note to section 2111 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2113—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 905 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 205, 68 Stat. 524).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2114—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 907 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 207, 68 Stat. 524).

This section covers subsection (c) of section 907 of title 39. For distribution of the section, see the note to section 2111 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2115—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 901 (July 22, 1954, ch. 560, § 201, 68 Stat. 521).

Changes are made in phraseology.

GENERAL

SECTION 2201—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 786 (R. S. 4054).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2202—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 728a, 794a, 848b (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 3, 64 Stat. 461; June 1, 1955, ch. 113, § 202, 69 Stat. 78; June 8, 1955, ch. 134, § 2, 69 Stat. 87).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the provisions of section 3 of the Post Office Department Financial Control Act of 1950—section 794a, title 39. The Financial Control Act superseded the many detailed provisions of law with respect to the handling of postal money and accounting procedures such as (to specify a few) sections 733–736 of title 39.

It also covers the third sentence of section 728a of title 39. The remaining provisions of section 728a are covered by section 5103 of this title.

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 794a (b), title 39.

Subsection (c) covers the provisions of section 848b, title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2203—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 829a, 829b (June 1, 1955, ch. 113, title II, 69 Stat. 77, 78).

Subsection (a) covers the provisions of section 829a, title 39, which is the first proviso in paragraph "Facilities", Appropriation Act for 1956, Public Law 51, June 1, 1955.

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 829b, title 39, which is the second proviso of paragraph "Facilities" in the above-cited appropriation act.

The words "The Postmaster General are added because under Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949 he possesses all authority to operate the Postal Service.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2204—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 355a, 383a, 727a (May 28, 1954, ch. 242, §§ 204, 205, title II, 68 Stat. 149).

Subsection (a) covers the provisions of sections 355a and 383a of title 39.

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 727a of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2205—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 376 (R. S. 402).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2206—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 794c (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 5, 64 Stat. 461).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2207—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 794 (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 2, 64 Stat. 460).

The provisions of subsection (a) are covered by this section.

Subsections (b) and (c) of section 794, title 39, are covered by section 2208 of this title.

Subsection (d) of said section is covered by section 2401 of this title

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2208—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 42, 43, 45 and 794 (R. S. 3843, 3844; June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 1, 20 Stat. 141; June 18, 1934, ch. 578, 48 Stat. 989; Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 2, 64 Stat. 460; Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 2, 64 Stat. 460; Aug. 14, 1951, ch. 303, § 1, 65 Stat. 189, 190).

Subsection (a) covers the provisions of section 794 (b) of title 39. This latter section was section 2 of the Post Office Department Financial Control Act of 1950 (64 Stat. 460). It superseded the many detailed provisions of law covering the accounting for postal money such as for example 781 and 783 of title 39.

Subsection (b) covers sections 42 and 43 of title 39 and the last sentence of section 45 of title 39 as they have been modified by the Financial Control Act. The remainder of section 45 is covered by section 2210 of this title.

Subsection (c) of this section covers the provisions of subsection (c) of section 794 of title 39. Subsections (a) and (d) of section 794 are covered by sections 2207 and 2401, respectively.

The sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth paragraphs of section 369 of title 5 are also covered by the broad language of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2209—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 38, 46, 47, 713, 714, 783 (R. S. 3836; 3846; 3847; 4029; 4031; 4051; May 27, 1908, ch. 206, 35 Stat. 415; May 29, 1920, ch. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654; Mar. 1, 1921, ch. 88, § 1, 41 Stat. 1151; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24, May 4, 1934, ch. 214, 48 Stat. 664).

That portion of section 38 covering the responsibility of postmasters and sureties "for the safekeeping of the public property" and for "due performance of the duties" is covered by subsection (a) of this section. The portion of section 38 dealing with the period of responsibility under postmaster's bond is omitted since the Department now purchases such bonds pursuant to section 14 of title 6 (see section 502 of this title). The remainder of section 38 dealing with the filling of vacancies is covered by section 3315 of this title.

Subsection (a) of this section also covers section 783 of title 39, which requires postmasters to account for "all postages, box rents and other receipts".

Section 46 of title 39 is covered by subsection (b) of this section.

Section 47 of title 39 is covered by subsection (c) of this section.

The matter after the "semi-colon" in section 713 and after the first semicolon in section 714 of title 39 is covered by subsection (d) of this section. The remainder of section 713 is covered by sections 5102 and 5103 of this title. The remainder of section 714 is covered by section 3316 of this title.

For further definition of duties and the area of responsibility of postmasters see the several definitions of key postmaster positions in sections 3512-3530 of this title.

SECTION 2210—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 45 (June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 1, 20 Stat. 141; June 18, 1934, ch. 578, 48 Stat. 989; Aug. 14, 1951, ch. 303, § 1 (c), 65 Stat. 190).

All but the last sentence of section 45 of title 39 is covered by this section. The last sentence is covered by subsection (b) of section 2208 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2211—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 794b (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 4, 64 Stat. 461).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2212—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 795 (Mar. 15, 1958, Pub. L. 85-340, 72 Stat. 34).

Changes are made in phraseology.

POSTAL MODERNIZATION FUNDS

SECTION 2231—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1071 (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title III, § 301, 72 Stat. 144).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2232—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1072 (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title III, § 302, 72 Stat. 144).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2233—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1073 (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title III, § 303, 72 Stat. 144).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2234—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1074 (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title III, § 304, 72 Stat. 144).

The words "beginning with 1960" were omitted.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 27—POSTAL POLICY AND FISCAL REPORTS

POSTAL POLICY

Sec.

- 2301. Findings of Congress.
- 2302. Declaration of policy.
- 2303. Identification of and appropriations for public services.
- 2304. Reviews, studies, surveys, and reports of Postmaster General.
- 2305. Effect on fourth class mail rates.
- 2306. Costs for establishing postal rates.

REPORTS

- 2331. Cost ascertainment.
- 2332. Postal modernization fund.

SECTION 2301—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 270 (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 102, 72 Stat. 134).

SECTION 2302—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 270a (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 103, 72 Stat. 135).

Changes are made in phraseology. The words "as set forth in this title" are changed to "as set forth in sections 2301-2305 of this title."

SECTION 2303—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 270b (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 104, 72 Stat. 136).

Changes are made in phraseology. The words "for the purposes of this title" are changed to "for the purposes of sections 2301-2305 of this title."

The citations in the various items under subsection (a) (1) of section 270b of title 39 have been changed to refer to the sections of this title in which the respective laws have been codified.

Items (A) and (I) relating to reduced rates for certain publications have been combined in item (A) of this section.

Item (B) relating to mail of the Pan American Union and item (G) relating to mail of the Pan American Sanitary Bureau in subsection (a) (1) of section 270b have been combined in item (B) of this section since the mailing privileges granted by sections 321 and 321-1 of title 39 are combined in section 4152 (a) of this title. Also items (D) and (F) of subsection (a) (1) of section 270b relating to free postage and reduced postage rates on reading matter and other articles for the blind have been combined in item (D) of subsection (a) (1) of this section for the reason that the pertinent provisions of sections 293c and 331 of title 39 have been distributed to sections 4653 and 4654 of this title.

SECTION 2304—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 270c (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 105, 72 Stat. 137).

Changes are made in phraseology. The words "set forth in this title" and "the purposes of this title" are changed to "refer to sections 2301-2305 of this title".

SECTION 2305—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 270d (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 106, 72 Stat. 138).

Changes are made in phraseology. Section numbers have been inserted for "titles" and "existing on the date of enactment of this Act" are changed to "existing on May 27, 1958", which in effect is the date of enactment referred to in this text.

SECTION 2306—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 793 (b) (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 214 (b), 72 Stat. 143).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2331—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 826 (Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 214, 43 Stat. 1069; June 28, 1944, ch. 292, 58 Stat. 393).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2332—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1075 (May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title III, § 305, 72 Stat. 142).

CHAPTER 29—DEBTS AND COLLECTIONS

Sec.

- 2401. Collection of debts.
- 2402. Transportation of international mails by air carriers of the United States.
- 2403. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and armed forces postal clerks.
- 2404. Penalty for failure to render accounts.
- 2405. Deficiency in accounts.
- 2406. Limitation of action against sureties.
- 2407. Penalties and forfeitures imposed for violations.
- 2408. Suits to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments.
- 2409. Settlement of claims for damages caused by Post Office Department and services.
- 2410. Delivery of stolen money to owner.
- 2411. Substitute checks.

SECTION 2401—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 383, 384 (R. S. 409; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; Mar. 4, 1925, ch. 531, 43 Stat. 1266; Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, §§ 1 (a), 5 (a), eff. Aug. 19, 1949, 14 F. R. 5225, 63 Stat. 1066) and title 39, U. S. C., 1946 ed., 794 (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 2, 64 Stat. 460).

Subsection (a) is based on section 794 (d) of title 39. See note to section 2207 for distribution of other portions of section 794.

Subsection (b) is based on sections 383 and 384 of title 5, as modified by 794 (d) of title 39. This latter section of title 39 authorizes the Postmaster General to collect debts and “remit fines, penalties, and forfeitures”. Section 383 of title 5 therefore is now limited only to “disability or alleged liability”. The language has been simplified. Reference to regulations has been omitted in view of section 501 of this revision.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2402—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 794 (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 2, 64 Stat. 460), title 49, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 485a, 485b, 485c (Aug. 27, 1940, ch. 693, §§ 1, 2, 3, 54 Stat. 862, 863).

This section consolidates sections 485a, 485b and 485c, title 49. The language is simplified considerably. References to General Accounting Office have been omitted in view of section 794, title 39. For distribution of specific provisions of section 794, see note to section 2207.

The Postmaster General’s authority to fix rates to be charged foreign countries and make collections is contained in section 485 (i) of title 49.

Changes are made in phraseology to conform to the Financial Control Act of 1950 (Aug. 17, 1950, ch. 735, § 3, 64 Stat. 461).

SECTION 2403—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 49, 49a (Mar. 17, 1882, ch. 41, §§ 1, 2, 22 Stat. 29, 30; May 9, 1888, ch. 231, §§ 1, 2, 25 Stat. 135; June 11, 1896, ch. 424, 29 Stat. 458; Jan. 21, 1914, ch. 12, §§ 1, 2, 38 Stat. 279; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 14, 39 Stat. 163; July 2, 1918, ch. 117, § 10, 40 Stat. 754; July 3, 1926, ch. 799, 44 Stat. 903; May 29, 1928, ch. 901, § 1 (50), 45 Stat. 990; June 18, 1934, ch. 579, 48 Stat. 990; Dec. 7, 1945, ch. 560, §§ 1, 2, 59 Stat. 603, 604; July 26, 1947, ch. 343, title 11, § 205 (a), 61 Stat. 501).

The sections are combined. The text reading "office designated as depository" changed to "designated depository" to cover shipments made to banks as well as post offices. The provisions of section 49a are covered by subsection (d).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2404—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C. 1952 ed., § 44 (R. S. 3845).

Reference to the Postmaster General causing an action to be brought on the bond of the postmaster is deleted. The section is revised to require the Postmaster General to request the Attorney General to bring suit on the postmaster's bonds. This revision is necessary in view of the Attorney General's plenary authority with respect to litigation (see Executive Order 6166 dated June 10, 1933, and 28 U. S. C. 507 (b)).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2405—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 37 (R. S. 3835; Feb. 4, 1879, ch. 45, 20 Stat. 281; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24).

The requirement in the section that the General Accounting Office notify the Postmaster General of deficiencies discovered in the accounts of postmasters is deleted. Pursuant to section 794 of title 39 (see sections 2207 and 2208 of this title) the General Accounting Office no longer makes initial audits of the accounts of the department.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2406—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 40 (R. S. 3838).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2407—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 791 (R. S. 4059).

The first sentence of said section is covered in this section without changes in phraseology. The remainder of said section is covered in section 1 of this title.

SECTION 2408—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 789 (R. S. 4057).

Reference to the institution of suit by the Postmaster General is omitted. The revision requires the Postmaster General to request the Attorney General to bring suit to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments. This revision is made necessary in view of the Attorney General's plenary authority with respect to litigation (see Executive Order 6166 dated June 10, 1933, and 28 U. S. C. 507 (b)).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2409—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 31, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 224c (June 16, 1921, ch. 23, § 4, 42 Stat. 63; June 22, 1934, ch. 717, 48 Stat. 1207).

Reference to negligence is omitted, since the Federal Tort Claims Act repealed that portion of section 224c. See sections 2672 and 2673 of title 28, and note to section 2680 of title 28.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2410—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 790 (R. S. 4058).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2411—SECTION REVISED

Derived from title 31, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 528 (e) (R. S. 3646, Feb. 16, 1885; ch. 123, 23 Stat. 306; Mar. 23, 1906, ch. 1129, 34 Stat. 84; June 19, 1906, ch. 3434, 34 Stat. 301; May 27, 1908, ch. 206, 35 Stat. 415; Feb. 23, 1909, ch. 174, 35 Stat. 643; Mar. 21, 1916, ch. 52, 39 Stat. 37; July 8, 1937, ch. 444, § 9, 50 Stat. 482; Aug. 10, 1939, ch. 665, §§ 5-7, 53 Stat. 1359; Dec. 3, 1945, ch. 515, § 1, 59 Stat. 592; Proc. No. 2695, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7876, 60 Stat. 1100; July 11, 1947, ch. 222, § 4, 61 Stat. 309; Mar. 10, 1952, ch. 97, 66 Stat. 22; Aug. 28, 1957, Pub. L. 85-183, § 5 (b), 71 Stat. 465).

Subsection (e) of section 528, title 31, is brought into title 39, since it relates entirely to matters coming under the jurisdiction of the Post Office Department.

Changes are made in phraseology.

- 2508. Permits for special canceling of postmarking dies.
- 2509. Special cancellation "Pray for peace."
- 2510. Printing on stamped envelopes.

SECTION 2501—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 165, 275, 276a, 351 (R. S. 3914; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 26, 20 Stat. 361; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 3, 23 Stat. 387; Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 1, 24 Stat. 220; Jan. 16, 1889, ch. 50, 25 Stat. 650; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 3, 45 Stat. 940; Mar. 2, 1931, ch. 372, § 1, 46 Stat. 1469; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L. 85-371, § 3, 72 Stat. 83).

Section 165 of title 39 is divided. That part authorizing the Postmaster General to issue a special stamp to be used on special-delivery mail, is covered by the general language of this section. The remainder of said section is covered by section 6006 of this title.

Section 246f of title 39 (see section 507 of this title) authorizes the Postmaster General to prescribe the fees which shall be charged for special-delivery service. Accordingly, the words "of the face valuation of 10 cents" in section 165 are deleted. Also deleted are the words "weighing not more than two pounds". This latter deletion conforms to section 6007 of this title, relating to the rates to be paid special-delivery messengers.

The authorization in section 275 of title 39 for the Postmaster General to prescribe the special design and denomination of postage due stamps, is covered by the last sentence of this section. The remainder is covered by section 2505 of this title.

Section 276a of title 39, which authorizes the Postmaster General to provide and issue special-delivery and special-handling stamps is covered by the broad language of this section.

Section 351 of title 39, which authorizes the Postmaster General to prepare postage stamps is covered by the broad language of this section.

SECTION 2502—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 358 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 32, 20 Stat. 362; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 1, 65 Stat. 672). Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2503—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 354, 356, 357, 362 (R. S. 3915, 3916; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 1, 18 Stat. 231; July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 14, 19 Stat. 82; June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 179; Mar. 3, 1893, ch. 213, § 1, 27 Stat. 733; June 26, 1906, ch. 3546, 34 Stat. 476; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title 1, § 1, 65 Stat. 672).

Section 354 of title 39, dealing with the furnishing of "stamped envelopes" for public use is covered by subsection (a) of this section. Reference to "letter and newspaper envelopes" was omitted as both are adequately covered by "stamped envelopes." Moreover, "newspaper envelopes" were long ago discontinued. Reference to envelopes with stamps of "suitable denominations" and "with such watermarks or other guards against counterfeits as he may deem expedient" is omitted. The authority to issue "stamped envelopes" is broad enough to cover such authority. The last sentence is omitted as being unnecessary.

That part of section 354 dealing with sale of such envelopes at cost, combined with similar provisions of section 362, is covered by subsection (b) of this section.

The part of section 354 prohibiting advertising on "stamped envelopes" is covered by section 2510 of this title.

Section 356, title 39, is divided. The portion authorizing and directing the Postmaster General to furnish postal cards is covered in subsection (a) of this section. The remaining provisions of the section are covered in section 4251 of this title.

Sections 354 and 356 of title 39, dealing with stamped envelopes and postal cards, respectively, authorized their issuance with stamps of suitable denominations "impressed thereon." Since the beginning, postal cards have been issued with the stamps printed thereon and envelopes have been issued with embossed stamps. The words "printed or impressed thereon" have been added for clarity.

The language of subsection (a) of this section is broad enough to authorize the Postmaster General to issue the international postal cards which he is authorized in his discretion to issue by section 357, title 39. The specific language of 357 and the applicable rates for international postal cards has been omitted as unnecessary. The rate of 2 cents, specified in that section, is obsolete. The Postmaster General fixes international postal rates and has changed the rate for postal cards from 2 to 4 cents. (See 39 CFR 111.2 (b).)

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2504—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 360 (R. S. 3917).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2505—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 275 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 26, 20 Stat. 361; Aug. 24, 1954, ch. 895, 68 Stat. 787; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L. 85-371, § 3, 72 Stat. 83).

Subsections (b) and (c) of section 275 of title 39 relating to postage due stamps is covered by this section. The remainder of the section is covered by section 2501.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2506—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 371 (Jan. 27, 1938, ch. 10, § 1, 52 Stat. 6; July 30, 1947, ch. 391, § 2, 61 Stat. 668).

The words "but shall remain the property of the United States" are omitted as unnecessary.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2507—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 365, 367, 370 (R. S. 3921, June 20, 1878, ch. 359, § 1, 20 Stat. 240; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 12, 39 Stat. 162; May 9, 1930, ch. 230, 46 Stat. 264).

The first sentence of section 365 of title 39 is covered by subsection (a). Reference to cancellation of stamps by postmaster at office of mailing is omitted as being unnecessary. The second sentence of section 365 is covered by subsection (b).

Section 367 of title 39 is covered by the first sentence of subsection (a). Reference to adoption of uniform canceling ink or appliances which experiments have shown are practicable and best calculated to protect against fraud is omitted as unnecessary. Such authority falls within general authority reposed in the Postmaster General.

Section 370 of title 39 is covered by subsection (c).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2508—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 368, 368a (May 11, 1922, ch. 186, §§ 1, 2, 42 Stat. 539, 540; June 20, 1956, ch. 411, §§ 1, 2, 70 Stat. 297).

Section 368 of title 39 is covered by subsections (a) and (b) of this section. The second proviso in the first section of the Act of May 11, 1922, as amended by section 2 of the Act of June 20, 1956, requiring the permittee to pay expenses, is restated in subsection (b) of this section.

Section 368a of title 39 is divided. That part which authorizes the Postmaster General to revoke permits issued for the use of special canceling stamps (previously codified as the last sentence of § 368 of title 39) is covered by subsection (c) of this section. That part which authorizes the use of a canceling stamp or postmarking die bearing the words "Pray for peace" is covered by section 2509 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2509—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 368a (June 20, 1956, ch. 411, § 1, 70 Stat. 297).

Section 368a of title 39 is divided. That part which authorizes the Postmaster General to revoke permits issued for the use of special canceling stamps is covered by subsection (c) of section 2508. That part which authorizes the use of a canceling stamp or postmarking die bearing the words "Pray for peace" is covered by this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 2510—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 354 (R. S. 3915; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 1, 18 Stat. 231; Mar. 3, 1893, ch. 213, § 1, 27 Stat. 733; June 26, 1906, ch. 3546, 34 Stat. 476).

For distribution of the remainder of section 354 of title 39, see section 2503 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

41. GENERAL PROVISIONS.....	3101
43. APPOINTMENT AND ASSIGNMENT OF FIELD SERVICE EMPLOYEES.....	3301
45. COMPENSATION IN THE POSTAL FIELD SERVICE.....	3501

CHAPTER 41—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.

3101. Definitions.

EMPLOYEES GENERALLY

3103. Oath of office.

3104. No employee to receive fees.

3105. Detail of employees between field and Department.

SPECIAL CLASSES OF EMPLOYEES

3111. Residence of postal transportation clerks.

3112. Inspectors may administer oaths.

3113. Rural carriers to furnish equipment.

3114. Rural carriers not to carry merchandise.

3115. Special delivery messengers as employees or carriers.

3116. Uniforms and badges.

SECTION 3101—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 951, 1007 note (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 101, 69 Stat. 88; Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 842, § 2, 70 Stat. 892).

Section 951 of title 39 is divided. That part relating to the definition of "Department" and "postal field service" is covered by section 1 of this title. The definition of "persons" contained in section 951 of title 39 is omitted as unnecessary because of the definition in section 1 of title 1.

That part of the note to section 1007 of title 39 which defines the term "assigned to road duty" when used in reference to Motor Vehicle Employees in sections 3575 and 3581 of this title, is covered by paragraph 7 of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

EMPLOYEES GENERALLY

SECTION 3103—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 16a, 92a, 365 (R. S. 391, 392; Mar. 5, 1874, ch. 46, 18 Stat. 19; July 3, 1926, ch. 752, 44 Stat. 830; June 26, 1943, ch. 145, title 11, § 206, 57 Stat. 196).

The words "including section 16a of title 5" are included here for the purpose of making it clear that any person may be designated by the Postmaster General to administer oaths in connection with employment in the Department and not just those persons who are specifically authorized to do so by some Federal, State or Territorial law.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3104—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 812 (R. S. 3858).

This is revised to clarify application of the law. The section evidently was intended to prohibit persons employed in the postal service from accepting fees or perquisites from the public for the performance of duties required of them by virtue of their office. However, certain employees are authorized to accept fees for the execution of pension vouchers under the provisions of sections 60 and 61 of title 38, and section 35c of title 48.

SECTION 3105—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1032 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 802, 69 Stat. 129).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SPECIAL CLASSES OF EMPLOYEES

SECTION 3111—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 631 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556; June 18, 1930, ch. 527, 46 Stat. 782).

The proviso is omitted from the cited section for the reason that it has been executed.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3112—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 704 (June 15, 1934, ch. 537, 48 Stat. 963).

This section, in shortened form, covers the provisions of section 704 of title 39. This section of title 39, while granting postal inspectors authority to administer oaths on any matter coming before them in the performance of their duties, also spells out that they may administer oaths to accounts for travel or other expenses against the United States. Oaths are no longer required on travel accounts or other claims. False claims are covered by section 1001 of title 18.

The second sentence of section 704, which authorized chief clerks and assistant chief clerks of the Railway Mail Service to administer oaths to employees on employment or promotion is omitted as being unnecessary, and for the further reason that these officers are no longer designated as chief clerks and assistant chief clerks. Section 16-A of title 5, which is covered by section 3103 of this title, authorizes the Postmaster General to designate such officers and employees as he desires and confer upon them authority to administer these oaths. Under this authority the Postmaster General may designate any officer or employee in the Postal Transportation Service as persons to administer oaths.

SECTION 3113—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 194, 195 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423).

Section 194 of title 39 requires rural carriers to furnish all necessary vehicle equipment for prompt handling of the mail. Section 195 of title 39 authorizes the Postmaster General to require rural carriers to furnish sufficient equipment to handle postal business on their routes. The provisions of these sections have been combined in this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3114—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 196 (Apr. 28, 1904, ch. 1759, § 1, 33 Stat. 439; Mar. 4, 1915, No. 15, 38 Stat. 1227; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 8, 43 Stat. 1063).

The words "prescribe regulations governing" have been eliminated and the word "permit" substituted therefor. See section 501 of this title for authority to prescribe regulations.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3115—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 173, 174 (Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 4, 24 Stat. 221, Mar. 3, 1903, ch. 1009, § 4, 32 Stat. 1176).

Subsection (a) covers section 173 of title 39.

Subsection (b) covers section 174 of title 39.

The section numbers of title 18 are changed to correspond to the new numbering of that title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3116—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 154, 638 (R. S. 3867; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 1, 20 Stat. 357; July 31, 1882, ch. 361, § 1, 22 Stat. 180).

Section 154 of title 39 is covered in subsection (a) without change.

Section 638 of title 39 is covered in subsection (b).

Provisions for payment of allowance for uniforms are contained in section 2131 of title 5.

Changes are made in phraseology.

3337. Promotions and assignment of rural carriers.

3338. Filling vacancies on rural routes.

3339. Consolidation of rural routes.

ESTABLISHMENT OF POSITIONS

SECTION 3301—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 961 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 201, 69 Stat. 89).

This section, with changes in phraseology which do not affect substance, is based on the first sentence of subsection (a) and subsection (c) of section 961 of title 39. The remainder of the section is covered by section 3501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3302—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 834, 1006 (June 4, 1936, ch. 493, 49 Stat. 1460; Mar. 20, 1944, ch. 102, 58 Stat. 118; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 606, 69 Stat. 127).

Section 1006 of title 39 is divided. Subsections (a) and (c) of that section are covered by subsections (a), (b), and (c) of section 3302. Subsection (b) is covered by section 3572 of this title.

Section 834 of title 39 is covered by subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section. Reference to "classified substitute" is changed to "career substitute".

Changes are made in phraseology.

POSTMASTERS

SECTION 3311—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed. §§ 31, 31a, 31b (July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 6, 19 Stat. 80; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; June 25, 1938, ch. 678, §§ 1, 2, 52 Stat. 1076; July 18, 1941, ch. 308, 55 Stat. 599, Mar. 29, 1949, ch. 39, 63 Stat. 17).

The clause preceding the proviso in section 31a of title 39 is combined with the first clause in section 31 of title 39 and with the first sentence of section 31b of title 39, and covered by subsection (a) of this section. At the suggestion of the Civil Service Commission "classified civil service" is changed to "competitive civil service". The remainder of section 31b is covered by section 3312 of this title.

The last clause of section 31 is covered by subsection (b). Reference to removal of postmasters of fourth-class offices is deleted. The power to appoint is power to remove.

The proviso of section 31a, as amended by the Act of March 29, 1949, ch. 39, 63 Stat. 17, is placed in section 3314 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3312—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 31b, 32 (Apr. 28, 1904, ch. 1759, § 8, 33 Stat. 441; June 25, 1938, ch. 678, § 2, 52 Stat. 1076, July 18, 1941, ch. 308, 55 Stat. 599).

Section 31b of title 39 is divided. The first sentence is covered by subsection (a) of section 3311 of this title. The remainder is covered by subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

Section 32 of title 39 is covered by subsection (c) of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3313—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 31d (Oct. 16, 1945, ch. 416, 59 Stat. 544).

Specific reference is made to sections 58, 62, 69, and 70 of title 5, the so-called dual employment laws, for the sake of clarity. The broad language of the law in section 31d of title 39 exempted fourth class postmasters in Alaska from the provisions of these and other laws.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3314—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 31a (June 25, 1938, ch. 678, § 1, 52 Stat. 1076; Mar. 29, 1949, ch. 39, 63 Stat. 17).

Section 31a of title 39 is divided. The proviso is covered by this section. At the suggestion of the Civil Service Commission "classified civil service" is changed to "competitive civil service". That part preceding the proviso is covered by section 3311 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3315—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 38, 39, 39a (R. S. 3836; Mar. 1, 1921, ch. 88, § 1, 41 Stat. 1151; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; Apr. 22, 1937, ch. 122, 50; June 25, 1938, ch. 678, § 3, 52 Stat. 1077; Dec. 6, 1940, ch. 927; 54 Stat. 1221).

Section 38 of title 39 is divided. The second, third and fifth clauses of said section are covered by section 2209 of this title. The first and fourth clauses of said section are covered by this section. Postal inspectors is included in subsection (a) (3) along with "special agents" as persons who may be named by the Postmaster General to take charge of a post office in emergencies. This reflects the long administrative practice of utilizing postal inspectors for this purpose. The words "special agents" are retained to permit utilizing other skilled employees in the postal field service, i. e., regional directors.

Section 39 of title 39 is divided. The second sentence is covered by section 2209 of this title. The fourth sentence was superseded by sections 964 (b) and 991 of title 39. The remainder is covered by this section.

Section 39a of title 39 is divided. That part of this section relating to the granting of military leave is covered by section 3317 of this title. The remainder is covered by subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3316—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 714 (R. S. 4031).

Section 714 of title 39 is divided. The provisions of the first and last clauses are covered by this section. The provisions of the second clause are covered by section 2209 of this title. In conformity with section 1 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, 63 Stat. 1066, this section was revised to vest authority in the Postmaster General to authorize postmasters to designate persons to act in their stead during their absences.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3317—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 39a (June 25, 1938, ch. 678, § 3, 52 Stat. 1077; Dec. 6, 1940, ch. 927, 54 Stat. 1221).

This section is divided. That part relating to the granting of military leave is covered by this section. The remainder is covered by section 3315 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER OF EMPLOYEES

SECTION 3331—SECTION REVISED

Based on 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 820 (Apr. 28, 1904, ch. 1759, § 4, 33 Stat. 440; Apr. 24, 1920, ch. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 574; June 5, 1920, ch. 254, 41 Stat. 1052).

The Travel and Expense Act of 1949 did not specifically repeal this section. In this latter Act the word "home" is omitted. The law embodied in section 820 of title 39 is considered to be still applicable to the Department. The travel voucher, Standard Form 1012, revised by the Comptroller General, in February 1952, requires postal employees to show their residence as well as their official duty station in order that per diem at the former may not be allowed.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3332—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 128 (Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 385).

Reference to payment out of money order funds is omitted as obsolete.

Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949 placed in the Postmaster General all authority of his subordinates. The reference in section 128 of title 39 to the authority of "postmasters" to make assignments to duty was superseded. The authority now rests in the Postmaster General.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3333—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 624, 632, 632a, 963, 971, 981, 1001, 1007 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556; Mar. 3, 1917, ch. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1064, 1065; June 22, 1948, ch. 602, 62 Stat. 575; Dec. 28, 1950, ch. 1175, 64 Stat. 1121; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, §§ 203, 301, 401, 601, 607, 69 Stat. 90, 118, 122, 125, 127).

These laws were construed as applying to supervisory employees as well as nonsupervisory employees in the Postal Transportation Service, e. g., general foremen and clerks in charge. The words "including supervisors" have therefore been added to conform to this long established interpretation and application.

The word "Classification" is omitted from this section to conform to sections 963, 971, 981, 1001, and 1007 of title 39 (see table for placement in this title) which abolished Class A and Class B railway post office lines.

See note to section 3511 of this title for distribution of section 963 of title 39.

Section 971 of title 39 is covered by section 3542 of this title; section 981 of title 39 is covered by section 3552 of this title; section 1001 of title 39 is covered by section 3541 of this title; and section 1007 of title 39 is covered by section 3581 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3334—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 103b (June 22, 1948, ch. 601, 62 Stat. 514).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3335—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 136a, 964 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 204, 69 Stat. 117; Aug. 9, 1955, 69 Stat. 575).

Subsections (a) and (b) are based on section 964, title 39.

For detailed explanation of subsections (a) and (b) and their effect, see pages 18 to 20 of House report No. 728, 84th Congress, 1st session.

Subsection (c) covers section 136a of title 39 relating to employment of custodial employees under the General Services Administration in a dual capacity as postal employees.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3336—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 133a (June 15, 1950, ch. 252, § 1 (a), 64 Stat. 216; Ma. 10, 1952, ch. 98, § 2, 66 Stat. 23).

Reference to Coast Guard as being included within the meaning of "Armed Forces" is omitted as unnecessary. Section 1 of title 14 creates the Coast Guard as "a military service and a branch of the armed forces of the United States at all times."

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3337—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 213, 214, 215 (May 18, 1948, ch. 298, §§ 1, 2, 3, 62 Stat. 236).

Section 213 of title 39 is covered by subsection (a).

Section 214 of title 39 is covered by subsection (b).

Section 215 of title 39 is covered by subsection (c).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3338—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 216, 217, 218, 219 (May 18, 1928, ch. 298, §§ 4, 5, 6, 7, 62 Stat. 236).

Subsection (a) covers section 216 of title 39. Reference to assigning to the route the senior rural carrier who applies is omitted. Assignment is adequately covered by section 3337 of this title.

Subsection (b) covers section 217 of title 39. Reference to right of appeal as provided by "section 218" is omitted. The right of appeal is provided in subsection (c) of this section.

Subsections (c), (d) and (e) cover section 218 of title 39. The right to a "hearing before a Post Office Inspector" is changed to a "hearing before a person designated by the Postmaster General". This is in accord with Reorganization Plan 3 of 1949 under which the Postmaster General placed in himself all duties theretofore prescribed by law for his subordinates with authority to delegate.

Subsection (f) covers section 219 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3339—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 192a (June 25, 1934, ch. 741, §3, 48 Stat. 1213).

Changes are made in phraseology.

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 961 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 201, 69 Stat. 89).

This section is divided. That portion of subsection (a) which authorizes the Postmaster General to determine personnel requirements and fix the number of supervisors with the limitations therein stated is covered by section 3301 of this title.

Subsection (c) of section 961 of title 39 is covered by section 3301 of this title.

The remainder of section 961 is covered by this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3502—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 962 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 202, 69 Stat. 89).

Changes are made in phraseology.

POSITIONS

SPECIAL NOTE APPLICABLE TO SECTIONS 3511–3531 OF THIS TITLE. Section 963 of title 39 contains the description of 49 “key positions,” assigning to each a number running from 1 to 49 and further assigning the numbered positions to salary levels. Since enactment of section 963, the Department has, for convenience, referred to the key positions as “K. P.–5” to indicate the position No. 5 of Guard assigned level 3. In the sections of this title 3511–3531, the positions in a specific salary level are assigned a separate section. In order that the convenient reference may be continued, there is inserted after each position title and abbreviation K. P., followed by the number of the position found in 963 of title 39.

SECTION 3511—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 963 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 203, 69 Stat. 90).

Section 963 of title 39 is divided. That portion of the section which precedes paragraph (1), the first salary level, is covered by this section. The remainder of the section has been distributed among sections 3512 to 3531 so that each salary level is covered by a separate section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3512—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 963 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 203, 69 Stat. 90).

This section covers paragraph (1) of section 963 of title 39, and brings into one section the key position in level 1. For distribution of section 963, see note to section 3511 of this title.

SECTION 3513—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 963 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 203, 69 Stat. 90).

COMPENSATION AND ALLOWANCES

SECTION 3541—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 974, 1001 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 601, 69 Stat. 125; May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, Title IV, § 401, 72 Stat. 146).

Section is restated without change. For detailed explanation see pages 36 to 37 of House Report No. 728, 84th Congress, 1st session.

Subsection (h) is based on the part of 39 U. S. C. 974 providing temporary salaries. The remainder is executed.

SECTION 3542—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 971, 1008 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, §§ 301, 608, 69 Stat. 118; July 31, 1956, ch. 804, § 115, 70 Stat. 741; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426 § 401, 72 Stat. 145; June 20, 1958, Public Law 85-462, § 16, 72 Stat. 215).

Section 971 of title 39 is restated in subsections (a) and (b) without change in substance.

Section 1008 of title 39 is divided. Subsection (a) is covered by subsection (c) of this section, and subsection (b) is covered by section 2008 of this title.

SECTION 3543—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952, sec. §§ 199, 972, 1009 (Apr. 24, 1920, ch. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 582; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, §§ 302, 609, 69 Stat. 119, 128; May 14, 1958, Pub. L. 85-399, § 1, 72 Stat. 117; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, § 401, 72 Stat. 145).

Section 972 of title 39 is covered by subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section.

Section 1009 of title 39 is covered by subsections (f) and (g) of this section.

Section 199 of title 39 is in part superseded by section 972 of title 39 which prescribes basic salary for rural carriers which in part is based on the length of the route served. That part of section 199 dealing with determination of the length of routes is covered by subsection (h) of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3544—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed. §§ 973, 1010 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, §§ 303, 610, 69 Stat. 120; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, § 401, 72 Stat. 146).

Section 973 except subsection (g) of title 39 is covered by subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of this section. For subsection (g) see § 702 of this title.

Section 1010 of title 39 is covered by subsection (h) of this section. Section is restated without change.

SALARY STEPS AND PROMOTIONS

SECTION 3551—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 991 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 501, 69 Stat. 125; Sept. 2, 1958, Pub. L. 85-914, § 2, 72 Stat. 1761).

Subsection (a) is restated without change.

In House Report No. 728, 84th Congress, 1st session, it is stated, at page 34, that "Except for appointments to positions mentioned in section 501, the present practice of the Post Office Department of appointing each employee new to the postal field service to the lowest step of the salary level for the position to which he is appointed, and the present practice with respect to reinstatements to the postal field service, is expected to be continued."

In his decision B-127739, dated October 11, 1956, the Comptroller General held that the Post Office Department Supply Centers, the Kansas City Money Order Center, the Area Internal Audit Offices and the Divisional Headquarters of the Postal Inspection Service are "Regional or District" offices within the intendment of this section.

Changes are made in the phraseology of subsection (b).

SECTION 3552—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 981 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 401, 69 Stat. 122; May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, Title II, § 212, 72 Stat. 143.)

Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3553—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 982 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 402, 69 Stat. 122).

Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3554—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 195 ed., § 993 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 503, 69 Stat. 124).

Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3555—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 109, 121, 627, 701, 994 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1064, 1065; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 504, 69 Stat. 124).

This section covers the sense of sections 109, 121, 627, and 701 of title 39. These sections deal with the same subject matter. There is no need for carrying them at different points in this title. (The old law provided for restoration at the beginning of the quarter following.) In House Report 728, 84th Congress, 1st session, it is stated at page 35 that sections 504 and 994, title 39, do not prevent reductions in basic salary for disciplinary reasons.

SECTION 3556—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, §§ 123, 625, 703, 981 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1064; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 401, 69 Stat. 122).

This section covers the sense of sections 123, 625, 703, and 981 of title 39. Sections 123, 625, and 703 are identical. There is no need for carrying them at different points in this title. While sections 123, 625, and 703 of title 39, have been construed by the Department as requiring a delay of 6 months because of the words "second quarter" the section is reworded to provide for a delay of only ninety days or one quarter which is the present construction. This will also conform the time to that governing restoration after demotions in section 3555 of this title. This renders the section consistent with section 701 of title 39 (section 3555 of this revision) which provides that an employee may be restored to his prior position within ninety days or one quarter after his reduction even though the reduction may have been for disciplinary reasons.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3557—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C. 1952 ed., §§ 862d, 981 (Apr. 15, 1947, ch. 35, § 2, 61 Stat. 40; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title II, § 207 (b), 65 Stat. 682; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 401, 69 Stat. 122).

Section is based on the last proviso of section 862d of title 39. Withholding of additional advancement is changed from "3 months" to "90 days" to conform to biweekly pay periods. (See section 3541 of this title.) The first proviso of said section is unnecessary. The matter preceding the provisos is superseded by section 981 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3558—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 984 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 404, 69 Stat. 123; May 29, 1958, Pub. L. 85-432, § 2, 72 Stat. 151; Aug. 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-751, §§ 1, 2, 72 Stat. 844).

Section 1 of the Act of August 25, 1958, is covered by clause (F) of subsection (c) (1) of this section, and section 2 is covered by subsection (e) of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 3559—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 992 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 502, 69 Stat. 124).

Section is restated without change. For detailed explanation see page 35 of House Report No. 728, 84th Congress, 1st session.

HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

SECTION 3571—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1002 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 602, 69 Stat. 125).

Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3572—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1006 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 606, 69 Stat. 127).

Section 1006 of title 39 is divided. This section covers subsection (b) of section 1006 of title 39. Subsections (a) and (c) of section 1006 are covered by subsections (a) and (b) of section 3302 of this title.

SECTION 3573—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1003 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 603, 69 Stat. 125).

Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3574—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C. 1952 ed., § 1004 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 604, 69 Stat. 126).

Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3575—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1005 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 605, 69 Stat. 126; Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 842, § 3, 70 Stat. 892).
Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3576—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 107a (Aug. 28, 1957, Pub. L. 85-189, 71 Stat. 70).

The section is revised to fully reflect the Congressional intent that the benefits of this section do not run to substitute employees. The report of the House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service accompany H. R. 5558 (Rept. No. 964, 85th Cong., 1st sess.), reads in part as follows:

"It would grant to rural carriers transportation and motor vehicle employees, other than substitutes, compensatory time off with pay within one year after the holiday on which each employee performed duty" and "The provisions of this bill do not include employees paid on an hourly basis, such as classified and temporary substitutes. These are the individuals who would be employed to substitute for the regular employees who are on compensatory leave."

The words "* * * by Executive Order, memorandum or other administrative act" were omitted as surplusage.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR POSTAL TRANSPORTATION SERVICE

SECTION 3581—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1007 (June 10, 1955, ch. 137, § 607, 69 Stat. 127; Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 842, § 1, 70 Stat. 892).
Section is restated without change.

SECTION 3582—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 630, 963 (16) (Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063; June 10, 1955, ch. 137, title 11, § 205, 69 Stat. 118).

This section covers the provisions of section 630 of title 39.

The reference in this section to highway post offices is based on that part of section 963, title 39 which defines the position of clerks assigned to road duty as including clerks in highway post offices.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 51—NONMAILABLE MATTER

Sec.

- 4001. Nonmailable matter.
- 4002. Nonmailable fourth class matter.
- 4003. Mail bearing a fictitious name or address.
- 4004. Delivery of mail to persons not residents of the place of address.
- 4005. Fraudulent and lottery matter.
- 4006. "Unlawful" matter.
- 4007. Detention of mail for temporary periods.

SECTION 4001—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 243, 256, 258 (R. S. 3895; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 21, 20 Stat. 360; Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 393, § 4, 25 Stat. 874; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557), and §§ 1302, 1461, 1463, 1714, 1715, 1716, 1717 and 1718 of title 18, U. S. C.

Section 256 of title 39 is divided. The first clause is covered by subsection (a) of this section. The second clause is covered by section 4057 of this title.

The first clause of section 256 covers only sections 338 and 339 of title 18 (now secs. 1341 and 1342), although each of the other sections of title 18 contains a provision that the material dealt with therein is nonmailable. The nonmailable provisions are brought into subsection (a) of this section. There is no change in existing law by so doing.

For similar provisions concerning nonmailability of certain materials, see the following: 7 U. S. C. 142, 143, 150cc, 166 and 1575; 14 U. S. C. 142; 15 U. S. C. 77q, 80a-20, 80a-24, 80b-3, 80b-5, and 80b-6; 22 U. S. C. 618; 50 U. S. C. 789.

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 258 of title 39. The words "which reaches the office of delivery" are taken from section 243, title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4002—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 240, 243 (R. S. 3879; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 21, 20 Stat. 360; June 8, 1896, ch. 370, 29 Stat. 262; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 207, 43 Stat. 1067; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 7, 45 Stat. 941).

Section 240 of title 39 is divided. That part relating to the definition of fourth class mail is covered by section 4551. That part relating to the limitation on weights was superseded by section 240a, title 39. For explanation of section 240a, see the note to section 4551 of this title. That part relating to proof sheets and manuscript copy is covered by section 4554 of this title. That part of said section making overweight and perishable matter nonmailable is revised and restated in this section as items (1) and (2) of subsection (a). Reference to matter likely to injure postal employees or damage the mail is omitted because it is in conflict with section 1716 of title 18 which makes materials of this kind nonmailable and prohibits their delivery from any post office or by any letter carrier.

The second and third sentences of section 243 of title 39 are revised and are covered by subsection (b) of this section. The reference in said section to section 334 (now section 1461) of title 18, and the last sentence of said section is omitted for the reason that the provisions are covered by section 4001 of this chapter as superseded. The first sentence of section 243, title 39, is covered by section 4058 of this title. Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4003—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 255, 258 (R. S. 3895; Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 393, § 3, 25 Stat. 873).

Changes are made in phraseology to clarify the somewhat obscure provisions of section 255 of title 39. The use of the word "enterprise" in the first sentence and the authority for the Postmaster General to issue an order, inserted in the last sentence, is merely clarification. To the same effect is the addition of section 1302 of title 39, U. S. Code.

Since Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949 transferred the functions of all subordinates to the Postmaster General, the section is rewritten to show the Postmaster General responsibility for action taken under it.

Subsection (b) is based on section 258, title 39, which provides that mail matter seized or detained for violations of law shall be returned to the senders or otherwise disposed of as the Postmaster General may direct. See section 4001 of this revision.

SECTION 4004—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 257 (Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 393, § 5, 25 Stat. 874).

The words "letters or packets" are changed to "letters or parcels." As used in section 257, title 39, "packets" meant packages or parcels other than first class mail. Such has been the construction placed on this section by the Department for many years.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4005—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 259, 732 (R. S. 3929, 4041; Sept. 19, 1890, ch. 908, §§ 2, 3, 26 Stat. 466; Mar. 2, 1895, ch. 191, § 4, 28 Stat. 964).

The cited sections, exclusive of the second sentences of sections 259 and 732, are consolidated in this section and the language simplified. When a lottery is involved it is not appropriate to issue a "fraud" order therefore a "lottery" order has been authorized.

Reference to "person or company" as in sections 259 and 732 of title 39 is reduced to "person" in view of the definition of "person" in section 1 of title 1.

The second sentences of sections 259 and 732 are covered by section 4057.

SECTION 4006—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 259a (Aug. 16, 1950, ch. 721, 64 Stat. 451).

Reference to "person, firm, corporation, company, partnership, or association" is reduced to "person" in view of the definition of "person" in section 1 of title 1. The definition of the term "representative" was omitted. It is covered in subsection (c) of section 4005 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4007—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 259b, 259c (July 27, 1956, ch. 755, §§ 1, 2, 70 Stat. 699; Aug. 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-789, 72 Stat. 940).

Sections 259b and 259c are covered by this section except subsection (b) of 259b which defines the term "person." This definition is omitted in view of the definition of "person" in section 1 of title 1.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 53—THE SEVERAL CLASSES OF MAIL

Sec.

- 4051. Prepayment of postage.
- 4052. Method of paying postage.
- 4053. Postage meters.
- 4054. Postage collection on Armed Forces mail.
- 4055. Refund of postage.
- 4056. Acceptance of letters by transportation employees or carriers.
- 4057. Opening first class mail.
- 4058. Wrapping matter not charged with first class postage.
- 4059. Addresses on postal cards and unsealed circulars.
- 4060. Foreign publications free from customs duty.

SECTION 4051—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 271 (R. S. 3896).

Section 271 of title 39 is restated to establish the general principle (with exceptions) that postage must be prepaid. Reference to manner of payment, i. e., "by stamps" is omitted from this section and is covered by section 4052. References to sections of title 39 as being the exceptions are eliminated.

The general exceptions to this section are Penalty and Franked mail (ch. 57); free for blind (sec. 4653); small articles (sec. 4651); business reply cards and envelopes (sec. 4254); letters certified by members of the Armed Forces (sec. 4054).

SECTION 4052—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 271, 273, 273a, 282, 285, 290a, 290a-1, 291a, 292a (a), 295 (R. S. 3896; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 6, 18 Stat. 233; June 13, 1898, ch. 446, § 1, 30 Stat. 443; Apr. 28, 1904, ch. 1759, § 2, 33 Stat. 440; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 13, 39 Stat. 162; Apr. 24, 1920, ch. 161, § 5, 41 Stat. 583; June 9, 1930, ch. 415, 46 Stat. 526; July 7, 1932, ch. 445, 47 Stat. 647; July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, §§ 202, 204, 62 Stat. 1261, 1262; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title 1, § 3, 65 Stat. 673).

Subsection (a) provides the manner of prepaying postage. Provisions of existing law authorize prepayment as follows: by stamps, sections 271 and 292a, title 39; by meter stamp, sections 273a, 291a, title 39; without stamp or meter stamp on second class matter, sections 285 and 295 of title 39; 282 which authorizes acceptance of second class mail without stamps affixed; without stamps or meter stamps on third class matter, section 290a-1, title 39, and by permit without stamps or meter stamps, section 292a (a) and 290a-1, title 39. The method of prepaying postage on controlled circulation publications have not been prescribed by law. Such publications have been considered akin to second class mail in this respect and have been handled in the same manner.

Subsection (b) is taken from the first proviso of section 273a, title 39. The authority to issue regulations conferred upon the Postmaster General by sections 273, 273a, 285, 290a-1, and 292a of title 39 has been omitted here as it is covered by section 501 of this title. Other portions of the sections of title 39, on which this section is based are covered in this title as follows: Section 271 in 4051; section 273, in 4053; section 290a in section 4452; section 290a-1 in section 4452; and section 292a, in sections 4553 and 6008.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4053—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 273 (Apr. 24, 1920, ch. 161, § 5, 41 Stat. 583; June 9, 1930, ch. 415, 46 Stat. 526).

Section is derived from the proviso in section 273, title 39 which describes the devices which are now known as "Postage Meters". The definitions used in connection with meters are added. Reference to short paid metered mail is omitted as adequately covered by section 4109 of this title.

SECTION 4054—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 280 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 9, 20 Stat. 358; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386; Oct. 3, 1917, ch. 63, § 1100, 40 Stat. 327; Feb. 24, 1919, ch. 18, § 1401, 40 Stat. 1150; June 30, 1947, ch. 183, § 1, 61 Stat. 213; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title 1, § 1, 65 Stat. 672; Mar. 12, 1952, ch. 102, § 1, 66 Stat. 24).

This section covers the last sentence of section 280 of title 39. The words "Armed Forces" are substituted for "soldiers, sailors and marines." The rate portions are covered by section 4253 of this title.

Reference to the issuance of regulations by the Postmaster General omitted as it is covered by section 501 of this title.

The definition of drop letters is covered by section 4251 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4055—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 300 (Mar. 3, 1905, ch. 1480, § 2, 33 Stat. 1091).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4056—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 495 (R. S. § 3980, July 31, 1882, ch. 361, § 1, 22 Stat. 180).

Reference to delivering "the same for mailing at the next post office" is eliminated as unnecessary. When a letter is delivered to the postal employee or carrier it has become a part of the mails and thereafter is to be handled as such.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4057—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 18, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1717 (c) (June 25, 1948, ch. 645, § 1, 62 Stat. 782); title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 256, 259, 732 (R. S. 3929, 4041; Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 393, § 4, 25 Stat. 874; Sept. 19, 1890, ch. 908, §§ 2, 3, 26 Stat. 466; Mar. 2, 1895, ch. 191, § 4, 28 Stat. 964).

This section is based on section 1717 (c) of title 18 and on sections 256, 259 and 732 of title 39. Each of these sections contains language prohibiting the opening of letter mail. The provisions of section 1717 (c), title 18, are not restricted to opening mail to discover violations of subsections (a) and (b) of section 1717, title 18. Therefore, the provisions of the said subsection are consolidated in this section with somewhat similar provisions of sections 256, 259, 732 of title 39.

SECTION 4058—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 225, 243, 250, 251 (R. S. 3882; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, §§ 12, 21, 24, 20 Stat. 359, 360, 361; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557) and on section 1717 (c) of title 18, U. S. C., 1952 ed. (June 25, 1948, ch. 645, § 1, 62 Stat. 782).

Subsection (a) covers section 250 of title 39. (See also sec. 4251 of this title.)

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 251 of title 39, and the sense of the first sentences of sections 225 and 243, title 39, i. e., mail may be examined. The balance of section 225 is covered by section 4365 of this title. The balance of section 243 is covered by section 4002 of this title.

SECTION 4059—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 248 (July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 15, 19 Stat. 82).

This section is retained as it is a limitation on the authority of Post Office Department.

The words "post cards" are added. They are private mailing cards serving the same purpose as "postal cards." The limitation on the Department's authority to prescribe the manner of address applies to them.

SECTION 4060—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 239 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 17, 20 Stat. 359; Feb 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 206, 43 Stat. 1067).

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 55—SHORT PAID AND UNDELIVERABLE MAIL

Sec.

- 4101. Retention period for undelivered mail.
- 4102. Forwarding mail.
- 4103. Return of mail matter.
- 4104. International dead letters.
- 4105. Disposal of undelivered mail.
- 4106. Notice of nondelivery of mail.
- 4107. Dead letter offices established.
- 4108. Dead letter treatment of first class mail.
- 4109. Unpaid and part-paid mail.
- 4110. Charges for unpaid and part-paid mail.

SECTION 4101—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 278a, 406 (R. S. 3936; Apr. 24, 1920, ch. 161, § 4 41 Stat. 583; June 7, 1935, ch. 203, 49 Stat. 333; June 8, 1950, ch. 222, § 1, 64 Stat. 210; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L. 85-371, § 4, 72 Stat. 83).

This section covers the first sentence of section 406 of title 39 and the sense of section 278a, which authorize the Postmaster General to regulate the period during which mail may be held for delivery. The remainder of section 406 is covered by section 4108 of this title. The remainder of section 278a is covered by sections 4102, 4103, and 4105 of this title. The authority to prescribe regulations is covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4102—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 278a and 410 (R. S. 3940; June 8, 1950, ch. 222, § 1, 64 Stat. 210).

The first sentence is based on section 410 of title 39. The words "first-class mail" are substituted for "letters" so that it will be clear that first class parcels, postal cards and post cards are entitled to be forwarded.

The second sentence covers that part of section 278a of title 39, which provides that other classes of mail may be forwarded only when charged with additional postage. The provision with respect to return of such mail to senders is covered by section 4103 of this title. The authority to prescribe regulations is covered by section 501 of this title. The remainder of the section is covered by sections 4101 and 4105 of this title. Forwarding of air mail is covered by section 4302.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4103—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 278a and 409 (R. S. 3939; June 24, 1910, ch. 380, 36 Stat. 630; June 8, 1950, ch. 222, § 1, 64 Stat. 210).

The first sentence is based on section 409 of title 39. Reference to advertising is eliminated as obsolete.

The second sentence is based on section 278a of title 39, insofar as it relates to the return of mail other than first class to senders. The remainder of said section is covered by sections 501, 4101, 4102 and 4105 of this title. Forwarding of air mail is covered by section 4302.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4104—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 375 (R. S. 401).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4105—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 261, 278a, 411 (R. S. 4061; May 9, 1930, ch. 231, § 1, 46 Stat. 264; June 8, 1950, ch. 222, § 1, 64 Stat. 210; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L., 85-371, § 5, 72 Stat. 83).

Subsections (a), (b) and (c) cover the sense of sections 278a and 411 of title 39 with respect to the disposition of undelivered matter. The remainder of section 278a is covered by sections 4101, 4102, 4103 and 501 of this title.

Subsection (d) covers section 261 of title 39.

The authority to prescribe regulations contained in section 411 of title 39 is covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4106—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 278b (June 8, 1950, ch. 222, § 2, 64 Stat. 210).

The fees set out in section 278b are omitted because the Postmaster General is authorized by title 39, section 246f (a) (8) to fix the fees for the notices mentioned in this section. He has exercised the authority and changed these fees. This authority is covered by section 506 of this title. The phrase "as provided by sections 278a and 278b of this title or" is omitted as unnecessary.

The authority to issue regulations which that section twice confers on the Postmaster General is omitted because it is covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4107—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 408 (R. S. 3938; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418).

The authority to establish dead letter offices and the name "dead letter office" is derived from the section cited. The provision of section 408 regarding dead letter treatment is placed in section 4108.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4108—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 406, 408 (R. S. 3936, 1938; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; Apr. 24, 1920, ch. 161, § 4, 41 Stat. 583; June 7, 1935, ch. 203, 49 Stat. 333; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L., 85-371, § 4, 72 Stat. 83).

Subsection (a) covers section 408 of title 39.

Subsection (b) covers the second sentence of section 406 of title 39. The first sentence is covered by section 4101 of this title. Reference to "regulations" is omitted in item 8, section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4109—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 4109, 4110 (Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L., 85-371, § 1, 72 Stat. 83).

This section covers subsection (a) of the cited section. The word "regulations" is omitted in view of section 501 of this title. Surplus language is omitted.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4110—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 4109, 4110 (Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L., 85-371, § 1, 72 Stat. 83).

This section covers subsection (b) of the cited section. The word "regulations" is omitted in view of section 501 of this title.

CHAPTER 57—PENALTY AND FRANKED MAIL

- Sec.
- 4151. Definitions.
 - 4152. Penalty mail.
 - 4153. Endorsements on penalty covers.
 - 4154. Restrictions on use of penalty mail.
 - 4155. Accounting for penalty covers.
 - 4156. Reimbursement for penalty mail service.
 - 4157. Report to Congress by Postmaster General.
 - 4158. Limit of weight of penalty mail; postage on overweight matter.
 - 4159. Shipment by most economical means.
 - 4160. Executive departments to supply information.
 - 4161. Official correspondence of Vice President and Members of Congress.
 - 4162. Public documents.
 - 4163. Congressional Record under frank of Members of Congress.
 - 4164. Seeds and reports from Department of Agriculture.
 - 4165. Mailing privilege of former Presidents.
 - 4166. Lending or permitting use of frank unlawful.
 - 4167. Reimbursement for franked mailings.
 - 4168. Correspondence of members of diplomatic corps and consuls of countries of Postal Union of Americas and Spain.

SECTION 4151—SECTION REVISED

The term "penalty mail" is historically derived from the penal provision now contained in section 1719 of title 18.

The definition of the term "penalty cover" is included to eliminate the necessity of repeating the words "envelopes, wrappers, labels, or cards" (39 U. S. C. 321i) in reference to penalty mail.

The definitions of the terms "frank" and "franked mail" are based on the provisions of sections 325 and 326, title 39, wherein reference is made to the frank as being the name and office of the person authorized to use same.

The definition of Members of Congress is used to eliminate the need of repeating the officials included within the term.

SECTION 4152—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 2, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 277 (Feb. 24, 1919, ch. 18, 1303 (d), 40 Stat. 1141; June 2, 1924, ch. 234, § 1101, 43 Stat. 353; title 7, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 325, 361f, 365 (Mar. 2, 1887, ch. 314, § 4, 24 Stat. 441; Aug. 30, 1890, ch. 841, § 3, 26 Stat. 418; Aug. 11, 1955, ch. 790, § 6, 69 Stat. 673); title 8, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1456 (June 27, 1952, ch. 477, § 345, 66 Stat. 266); title 11, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 203a (June 7, 1934, ch. 424, § 6, 48 Stat. 924); title 12, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 635, 1020a, 1439, 1820 (July 22, 1932, ch. 522, § 19, 47 Stat. 737; Jan. 31, 1934, ch. 7, § 2, 48 Stat. 345; May 28, 1935, ch. 150, 49 Stat. 295; July 31, 1945, ch. 341, § 2, 59 Stat. 526; June 9, 1947, ch. 101, § 1, 61 Stat. 130; July 3, 1948, ch. 825, § 2, 62 Stat. 1240; Sept. 21, 1950, ch. 967, § 2, 64 Stat. 873; May 21, 1953, ch. 64, § 1, 67 Stat. 28); title 13, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 10 (Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1158, § 1, 68 Stat. 1014); title 15, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 603 (Jan. 22, 1932, ch. 8, § 3, 47 Stat. 5; Feb. 24, 1938, ch. 32, § 4, 52 Stat. 80; June 30, 1947, ch. 166, title I, § 1, title II, § 206 (a), 61 Stat. 202, 208; May 25, 1948, ch. 334, § 3, 62 Stat. 262; July 30, 1953, ch. 282, title I, § 102 (a), 67 Stat. 230; June 29, 1954, ch. 410, § 2 (b), 68 Stat. 320); title 17, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 15 (July 30, 1947, ch. 391, § 1, 61 Stat. 652); title 32, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 713 (July 10, 1952, ch. 630, title III, § 301, title V, § 501, 66 Stat. 522, 631; Aug. 10, 1956, ch. 1041, § 2); title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 321, 321-1, 323, 330, 338 (Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, §§ 5, 6, 19 Stat. 335, 336; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 29, 20 Stat. 362; July 5, 1884, ch. 234, § 3, 23 Stat. 158; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 412; Jan. 12, 1895, ch. 23, § 65, 28 Stat. 611; Feb. 20, 1897, ch. 268, 29 Stat. 590; June 30, 1914, ch. 131, 38 Stat. 438; June 6, 1933, ch. 49, § 13, 48 Stat. 117; June 29, 1940, ch. 453, 54 Stat. 695; Apr. 9, 1958, P. L. 85-371, § 6, 72 Stat. 84); title 42, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1405 (Sept. 1, 1937, ch. 896, § 5, 50 Stat. 890); title 44, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 309 (July 25, 1935, ch. 417, § 9, 49 Stat. 502).

Section is based primarily on provisions codified in title 39. However, as indicated by the citations given above, it is also based on sections of other titles which grant or confirm the penalty privilege in certain specific instances. A number of those sections have not been repealed since they are desirable for purposes of identifying certain special types of agencies as entitled to use the penalty privilege in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The following special provisions concerning the penalty privilege are not being listed for repeal: Section 277, title 2 (legislative counsel); section 203a, title 11 (Agricultural Conciliation Commissioners); section 635, title 12 (Export-Import Bank of Washington); section 1020a, title 12 (Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation); section 1439, title 12 (Federal Home Loan Bank Board); section 1820 (a), title 12 (Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation); section 603, title 15 (Reconstruction Finance Corporation); section 713, title 32 (National Guard); section 1405, title 42 (Public Housing Administration); section 309, title 44 (Federal Register). See, however, section 4156 of this title based on 39 U. S. C. 321i which in effect has repealed "free" mailing privileges.

In addition to the sections cited, section 2192, title 5, authorizes certain matter to be mailed pursuant to the Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1945, free of postage.

That part of said section 321 of title 39 which relates to the endorsements required over the words "Official Business" and the penalty mail endorsement is covered by section 4153.

That part of section 1456 of title 8 which relates to the transmission of matter relating to naturalization by registered mail is covered by section 5003.

That part of section 10 of title 13 which relates to the transmission of matter relating to the census by registered mail is covered by section 5003, and that part relating to the endorsement on such mail is covered by the last sentence of section 4153.

Paragraph (4) of subsection (a) brings into title 39 the penalty privilege extended by sections 361f and 365 of title 7 to State agricultural experiment stations. Paragraph (5) of this subsection brings into title 39 the penalty privilege extended by section 15 of title 17 to persons depositing matter with postmasters for the purpose of obtaining copyright.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4153—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 13, U. S. C., 1952 ed., section 10 (Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1158, § 1, 68 Stat. 1014); title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321 (Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, §§ 5, 6, 19 Stat. 335, 336; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 29, 20 Stat. 362; July 5, 1884, ch. 234, § 3, 23 Stat. 158; Aug. 18, 1894, ch. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 412; Feb. 20, 1897, ch. 268, 29 Stat. 590; Apr. 9, 1958, Pub. L. 85-371, § 6, 72 Stat. 84).

This section covers the parts of the cited sections which deal with the endorsements on penalty covers. The remaining portion of section 321 is covered by section 4152 of this title.

That part of section 10 of title 13 which relates to the penalty mailing of census matter is covered by section 4152 of this title. That part of section 10 of title 13 which relates to the transmission of census mail by registered mail is covered by section 5003 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4154—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321n (June 25, 1948, ch. 658, title III, § 306, 62 Stat. 1049; July 14, 1956, ch. 591, § 2, 70 Stat. 536).

The words "books, report, periodical, bulletin, pamphlet, list or other article or document" is shortened without change in meaning to "article or document."

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4155—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321i (June 25, 1948, ch. 658, title III, § 301, 62 Stat. 1048; Aug. 15, 1953, ch. 511, § 1, 67 Stat. 614; Mar. 29, 1956, ch. 108, 70 Stat. 63).

Section 321i, title 39, is divided. This section is based on the first sentence in section 321i. Reference to procurement of envelopes and labels is omitted since penalty covers are now procured through General Services Administration. Reference to regulations was omitted in view of section 501 of this title.

The remaining sentence of section 321i relating to reimbursement of Post Office Department for penalty mailings by departments, agencies, and establishments of the Government is covered by section 4156 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4156—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 321i, 321p, 321q, 321r (June 25, 1948, ch. 658, title III, § 301, 62 Stat. 1048; Aug. 15, 1953, ch. 511, § 1, 67 Stat. 614; Mar. 29, 1956, ch. 108, 70 Stat. 63; July 14, 1956, ch. 591, § 1, 70 Stat. 535).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the provisions of sections 321i and 321p of title 39 which provide for the departments, agencies, establishments, and Government corporations to reimburse the Post Office Department out of their appropriations, in an amount equivalent to postage, as determined pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, on matter sent to and from them without prepayment of postage.

That part of section 321i relating to the accounting for penalty covers, is covered by section 4155 of this title.

That part of section 321p which relates to reimbursement of the Post Office Department for registry fees, as determined by the Postmaster General pursuant to regulations prescribed by him, on matter mailed to or from departments, agencies, establishments, or Government corporations, is covered by section 5004 of this title.

Section 321q of title 39, which provides for the Department of Agriculture to reimburse the Post Office Department for matter sent in the mails without prepayment of postage under authority of sections 361f, and 325 of title 7, and by agricultural experiment stations, is covered by subsection (b) of this section.

The provisions of section 321r relating to reimbursements by the Library of Congress are covered by subsection (c) of this section.

References in sections 321i, 321p, 321q, and 321r to regulations to be issued by the Postmaster General are omitted from this section in view of section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4157—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321j (June 25, 1948, ch. 658, title III, § 302, 62 Stat. 1048).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4158—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 321k and 321l (June 25, 1948, ch. 658, title III, §§ 303, 304, 62 Stat. 1048). Section 321k of title 39, U. S. C., is covered in subsection (a).

The words "or under the franking privilege" are omitted. The right to send public documents ordered printed by Congress under the frank is contained in section 4162 of this title.

Section 321l (a) of title 39 is covered by subsection (b) of this section. Subsection (b) of the section 311l is covered by section 4159 of this title. The last sentence of subsection (a) of this section is added to allow postage to be collected on parcels in the same manner as it is on letters. (Comp. Gen. B-129006, of Nov. 1, 1956.)

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4159—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 321l, 522 (July 13, 1892, ch. 165, § 5, 27 Stat. 148; June 25, 1948, ch. 658, title III, § 304, 62 Stat. 1048).

This section consolidates subsection (b) of section 321l and section 522 of title 39. Franked mail is excepted, as the basic provisions do not apply to it. Subsection (a) of section 321l is covered by section 4158 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4160—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321m (June 25, 1958, ch. 658, title III, § 305, 62 Stat. 1049).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4161—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 327 (Apr. 28, 1904, ch. 1759, § 7, 33 Stat. 441; Mar. 2, 1917, ch. 145, § 36, 39 Stat. 963; 1946 Proc. No. 2695, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7517, 60 Stat. 1352; July 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-560, § 3 (b), 72 Stat. 420).

Because of definition of "Members of Congress" appearing in section 4151 of this title the words "Delegates and delegates elect" and "Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico" are eliminated. Reference to sending "free through the mails" are omitted in view of section 4167 of this title.

While section 327 does not fix the date upon which the right of a Member of Congress to use the frank on official correspondence will expire, it is the consistent administrative construction that the right to use the frank was to continue for a period of nine months after the expiration of the terms of office of the Members. This conformed to the period of time provided in section 329, title 39, 1952 edition. When the 20th Amendment to the Constitution became effective providing for only one meeting of Congress every year commencing on January 3, the "9th month" provision in section 329 permitted continuation of the use of the frank only until the 30th day of September following the expiration of the term of Members. In 1957 (see section 4164 of this title) section 329 was amended to provide June 30 as the date upon which the right to use the frank would expire. The date June 30 is used therefore in this section to conform to this history and long standing administration construction.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4162—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 326 (Jan. 12, 1895, ch. 23, § 85, 28 Stat. 622; June 18, 1934, ch. 606, § 2, 48 Stat. 1018; July 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-560, § 3 (a), 72 Stat. 420).

Because of definition of "Members of Congress" appearing in section 4151, reference to "Senators, Representatives, Delegates and Resident Commissioners" were omitted.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4163—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 325 (Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 128, § 5, 18 Stat. 343; Mar. 2, 1917, ch. 145, § 36, 39 Stat. 963; Proc. No. 2695, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7517, 60 Stat. 1352).

Because of definition of "Members of Congress" appearing in section 4151, reference to "delegate" and "Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico" is omitted. Reference to "free of postage" is omitted in view of section 4167 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4164—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 329 (Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 128, § 7, 18 Stat. 343; Sept. 2, 1957, Pub. L. 85-277, 71 Stat. 600).

Reference to passing through the mails "free of charge" was omitted in view of section 4167 of this title.

Reference to issuance of regulations by the Postmaster General is omitted. That authority is covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4165—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 3, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 102 (d) note (Aug. 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-745, § (d), 72 Stat. 838).

This section covers the first sentence of section (d) of the Act of August 25, 1958. The second sentence is covered by subsection (b) of section 4167 of this title.

SECTION 4166—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 335 (June 26, 1906, ch. 3546, 34 Stat. 477; July 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-560, § 3 (c), 72 Stat. 420).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4167—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 3, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 102 (d) note (Aug. 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-745, § (d), 72 Stat. 838); title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321-o (Aug. 15, 1953, ch. 511, § 2, 67 Stat. 614).

Section 1 of the Act of August 15, 1953, is covered by section 4156 of this title.

Because of definition of "Members of Congress" appearing in section 4151, the words, "Delegates and delegates-elect" and "Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico" are omitted.

The first sentence of section (d) of the Act of August 25, 1958, is covered by section 4165 of this title. The second sentence is covered by subsection (b) of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4168—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 336 (Feb. 14, 1929, ch. 203, 45 Stat. 1177).

Reference to issuance of regulations by the Postmaster General is omitted. The authority to issue regulations is in section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 59—FIRST CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4251. Definition.

4252. Weight limit.

4253. Postage rates on first class mail.

4254. Business reply mail.

SECTION 4251—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 221, 221a, 222, 250, 280, 356, 358a (R. S. 3916; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, §§ 7, 8, 9, 19, 24, 20 Stat. 358, 361; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386; May 19, 1898, ch. 347, 30 Stat. 419; Oct. 3, 1917, ch. 63, § 1100, 40 Stat. 327; Feb. 24, 1919, ch. 18, § 1401, 40 Stat. 1150; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, §§ 206, 207, 43 Stat. 1067; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 1, 45 Stat. 940; June 9, 1930, ch. 415, 46 Stat. 526; June 30, 1941, ch. 183, § 1, 61 Stat. 213; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 1, 65 Stat. 672; Mar. 12, 1952, ch. 102, § 1, 66 Stat. 24).

Subsection (a) covers that part of section 221 of title 39, which defines first class mail as "written matter". It also covers the sense of sections 221a and 222 of said title 39. The phrase "any matter closed against postal inspection" is added in view of section 250 of title 39 (see sec. 4058 of this title) which requires first class postage on matter which cannot be easily examined.

The definition in subsection (b) is taken from title 39, section 356. The provisions of that section authorizing the issue of postal cards is covered by section 2503 of this title.

The definition in subsection (c) is taken from title 39, section 358a, which is a codification of the Act of May 19, 1898. The phrase "now in general use in the United States" appearing in the 1898 Act is omitted.

Subsection (d) defines "drop letters". The definition is based on the first sentence of the first proviso in section 280 of title 39. The rate for drop letters is covered by section 4253 of this title. The last sentence of section 280 is covered by section 4054 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4252—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 223 (May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 11, 39 Stat. 162).

The word "maximum" is inserted twice for clarity. The minimum limit of weight on fourth class mail matter is not applicable to first class mail.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4253—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 280, 303 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 9, 20 Stat. 358; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386; Oct. 3, 1917, ch. 63, § 1100, 40 Stat. 327; Feb. 24, 1919, ch. 18, § 1401, 40 Stat. 1150; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 2, 45 Stat. 940; June 30, 1947, ch. 183, § 1, 61 Stat. 213; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 1, 65 Stat. 672; Mar. 12, 1952, ch. 102, 66 Stat. 24; May 27, 1958. Public Law 85-426, title II, § 201, 72 Stat. 138; July 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-560, § 1, 72 Stat. 420).

This section covers the provisions of section 280 except the last sentence and the definition of drop letter which is placed in section 4251 of this title.

The last sentence of 280 is made a part of section 4054 of this title.

The first sentence of subsection (a) is added to clearly show that there is no bulk rate for first class mail.

The portion of section 303 of title 39 prescribing the rate on business reply mail is covered by subsection (b). The portion of section 303 dealing with mailing of business reply mail without prepayment of postage is covered by section 4254 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4254—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 303 (May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 2, 45 Stat. 940; July 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-560, § 1, 72 Stat. 420).

This section covers the first sentence of section 303 of title 39. The rates prescribed by the second sentence are covered by sections 4253 and 4303 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 61—AIR MAIL AND AIR PARCEL POST

Sec.

4301. Definitions.

4302. Treatment of air mail.

4303. Postage rates on air mail.

4304. Postage on Alaskan air mail.

4305. Size and weight limits.

SECTION 4301—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 462, 462a, 469, 475 (Feb. 2, 1925, ch. 128, § 2, 43 Stat. 805; June 12, 1934, ch. 466, § 2 (b), 48 Stat. 933; Aug. 14, 1946, ch. 963, § 2, 60 Stat. 1062; June 23, 1938, ch. 601, § 1107 (k), 52 Stat. 1029; June 29, 1948, ch. 717, § 1, 62 Stat. 1097).

This definition of domestic air mail is derived from the matter preceding the proviso in section 462a. The proviso is covered by section 4304 of this title.

The definition of air parcel post is derived from section 475 of title 39.

Chapter 13 of title 39 contains three definitions relating to air mail. Section 462 defines air mail as "first class mail" at the special air mail rate; 462a defines "domestic air mail" as embracing "all mailable matter being transported as mail by air"; and section 469 defines air mail as "mail of any class" at the air mail rate when used in relation to sections 463 and 469f of said chapter; section 463 which fixed postage rates is superseded by section 463a and section 469f is an obsolete section dealing with claims on annulled air mail contracts.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4302—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 462, 475 (Feb. 2, 1925, ch. 128, § 2, 43 Stat. 805; June 29, 1948, ch. 717, § 1, 62 Stat. 1097).

For short-paid mail generally see sections 4109, 4110 of this title.

Subsection (a) is derived from section 462 of title 39.

Since only one schedule of rates is applicable to air parcel post, the laws which distinguish as between treatment of the various classes of mail are inappropriate to air parcel post. Paragraph 10 of section 475 of title 39 is intended to cover this situation. This subsection clarifies this situation by stating that the Postmaster General shall provide for the forwarding return and for special services for air parcel post.

SECTION 4303—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 303, 463a, 475 (May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 2, 45 Stat. 940; June 29, 1948, ch. 717, § 1, 62 Stat. 1097; July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 201, 62 Stat. 1261; May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 201, 72 Stat. 138; July 25, 1958, Pub. L. 85-560, § 1, 72 Stat. 420).

Subsections (a) and (b) are taken from section 463a of title 39.

Subsection (d) covers the rate provisions of section 475. Paragraph 11 of said section has expired. It authorized the Postmaster General to adjust rates of postage and other conditions relating to air parcel-post. The rates embodied in this section are taken from Postmaster General's Order No. 43920, dated August 30, 1950, as amended by Order No. 44391, dated October 30, 1950, modifying the rates and certain other conditions in accordance with the authority contained in paragraph 11 of section 475. Paragraph 10 authorizing rules and regulations is covered by sections 501 and 6301 of this title. The maximum size and weight limitations contained in section 475 are covered by section 4305. Section 4302 of this title is also based on this paragraph.

Subsection (d) (2) is based upon the proviso in section 3 of the Act of June 29, 1948, chapter 717 (62 Stat. 1098).

The portion of section 303 of title 39, prescribing rates of postage on letters in business reply envelopes and on business reply cards is covered by subsection (c) of this section.

The second sentence of section 303 of title 39, prescribing rates of postage on business reply mail, is covered by subsection (c) of this section and by subsection (b) of section 4253 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4304—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 462a, 488, 488a (Feb 21, 1925, ch. 283, 43 Stat. 960; Aug. 24, 1935, ch. 638, 49 Stat. 744; Aug. 20, 1937, ch. 718, 50 Stat. 725; June 23, 1938, ch. 601, § 1107 (d), 52 Stat. 1027; Oct. 14, 1940, ch. 879, § 1, 54 Stat. 1175; Aug. 14, 1946, ch. 963, § 2, 60 Stat. 1062).

The first sentence of this section covers the proviso in section 488 and the last sentence of section 488a. The matter in section 488 preceding the proviso is covered by section 6102 and the balance of section 488a is covered by section 6302.

The second sentence of this section is derived from the proviso in section 462a. The matter preceding the proviso is covered by section 4301.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4305—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 475 (June 28, 1948, ch. 717, § 1, 62 Stat. 1097).

This section is derived from the maximum size and weight limitation contained in section 475.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION PUBLICATIONS

- 4421. Definition.
- 4422. Rates of postage.

SECOND CLASS MAIL

SECTION 4351—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 224 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 10, 20 Stat. 359).

It is unnecessary to include the frequency of the issue of publications since this matter is covered by the sections referred to in the text. See section 4354 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4352—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 226a, 232, 289a, (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 851, § 1, 31 Stat. 1107; July 7, 1932, ch. 445, 47 Stat. 647; June 26, 1934, ch. 755, 48 Stat. 1224; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 2, 65 Stat. 72).

Subsection (a) is based on section 226a of title 39, which requires applications for entry and reentry by prescribing fees for such applications, and conforms to the sense of 18 U. S. C. 1722 which makes the submission of false evidence relative to a publication a misdemeanor when it is submitted for the purpose of securing the admission of a publication as second class mail matter. The fees set forth in section 226a are covered by section 4357 of this title.

Subsection (b) is based on title 39, section 232. The provisions are stated in the affirmative rather than in the negative form found in the existing law. The words "reasonable notice to the publisher" are omitted as surplusage in view of provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.).

Subsection (c) is based on the first proviso in title 39, section 289a. The rates of postage in section 289a are covered by sections 4358–4360 and 4362 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4353—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 227 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 15, 20 Stat. 359).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4354—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 226 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 14, 20 Stat. 359; June 11, 1934, ch. 443, 48 Stat. 928; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, title II, § 204, 72 Stat. 138).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4355—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 229 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 550; Aug. 4, 1947, ch. 473, 61 Stat. 747; July 26, 1955, ch. 378, § 1, 69 Stat. 373).

Section 229 of title 39 covers publications of eight types of organizations, but not all of the provisions of the section are applicable to all the organizations named.

Subsection (a) lists the organizations and sets out the general conditions applicable to them.

Subsection (b) lists the conditions applicable to certain of the listed publications when they carry advertising other than that of the publisher.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4356—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 230 (June 6, 1900, ch. 801, 31 Stat. 660).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4357—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 226a (July 7, 1932, ch. 445, 45 Stat. 647; June 26, 1934, ch. 755, 48 Stat. 1224).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4358—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 283, 286 and 289a, Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 387 (uncodified) (June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 5, 18 Stat. 232; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 25, 20 Stat. 361; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 387; Oct. 3, 1917, ch. 63, §§ 1101, 1102, 1103, 40 Stat. 327, 328; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 202, 43 Stat. 1066; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 4, 45 Stat. 940; June 28, 1932, ch. 286, 47 Stat. 338; 1946 Proc. No. 2695, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7517, 60 Stat. 1352; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 2, 65 Stat. 672; June 18, 1954, ch. 318, 68 Stat. 262).

Subsection (a) is based on the second half of the first sentence of section 283 (c) of title 39, the first sentence of section 286 of title 39, and that portion of section 289a (b) of title 39 preceding the proviso.

Subsection (b) is based on the second sentence of section 286; section 1, 23 Stat. 387 (uncodified); the first clause of the first sentence of section 283 (c) and that portion of section 289a (b) preceding the proviso. The rates for within county mailings are set out in S. Rept. No. 694, 82d Congress, 1st session. See 1951 Congressional Code Service 2501. Reference to affixing stamps are omitted as superseded by section 285 of title 39. Methods of paying postage are covered generally by section 4052 of this title.

Subsection (c) is based on the proviso in section 289a (b). That proviso has superseded the last sentence of section 286.

Subsections (a) and (b) of section 283 of title 39 are covered by section 4359 of this title. The second sentence of subsection (c) and all of subsection (d) of section 283 are covered by sections 4363 and 4364 of this title, respectively.

Subsection (a) of section 289a of title 39 is covered by sections 4352 and 4359 of this title. Subsections (c) and (d) of section 289a are covered by sections 4360 and 4362 of this title, respectively.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4359—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 283, 289a (June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 5, 18 Stat. 232; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 387; Oct. 3, 1917, ch. 63, §§ 1101–1103, 40 Stat. 327–328; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 202, 43 Stat. 1066; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 4, 45 Stat. 940; 1946 Proc. No. 2295, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7517, 60 Stat. 1352; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 2, 65 Stat. 672; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85–426, title II, § 204, 72 Stat. 138).

This section covers subsection (a) of section 283 and subsection (a) (except the first proviso) of section 289a. See note to section 4358 for distribution of other provisions of sections 283 and 289a. For purposes of clarity the rates are set up in tabular form.

The last two provisos of section 289a (a) of title 39 are covered by subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4360—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 289a (Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 361, title I, § 2, 65 Stat. 672; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85–426, title II, § 204, 72 Stat. 138; Aug. 28, 1958, Pub. L. 85–849, 72 Stat. 1089).

Based on section 289a (c) of title 39. Other provisions of said section are covered by sections 4352, 4358, 4359 and 4362 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4361—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 284 (Mar. 3, 1923, ch. 215, 42 Stat. 1434).

Authority to prescribe regulations is omitted as it is covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4362—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 289a (Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 2, 65 Stat. 672; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85–426, title II, § 204, 72 Stat. 138).

The remaining provisions of this section are covered by sections 4352, 4358–4360 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4363—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 283 (June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 5, 18 Stat. 232; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 387; Oct. 3, 1917, ch. 63, §§ 1101, 1102, 1103, 40 Stat. 327, 328; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 202, 43 Stat. 1066; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 4, 45 Stat. 940; 1946 Proc. No. 2695, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7517, 60 Stat. 1352).

This section covers the last sentence of section 283 (c) of title 39. The first sentence of said subsection is covered by section 4358 of this title. For the distribution of other portions of section 283, see note to section 4358.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4364—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 283 (June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 5, 18 Stat. 232, Oct. 3, 1917, ch. 63, §§ 1101, 1102, 1103, 40 Stat. 327, 328; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 202, 43 Stat. 1066; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 4, 45 Stat. 940; 1946 Proc. No. 2695, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7517, 60 Stat. 1352).

This section covers subsection (d) of section 283 of title 39. For the distribution of the balance of section 283, see note to section 4358.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4365—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 225, 249 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 12, 20 Stat. 359; Jan. 20, 1888, ch. 2, § 1, 25 Stat. 1; Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 6, 36 Stat. 1340; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 206, 43 Stat. 1067; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85–426, title II, § 208, 72 Stat. 141).

Subsections (a) and (b) are based on the first sentence of section 249 of title 39. The authority contained in the section to issue regulations is covered by section 501 of this title.

The provisions of section 249 which relate to third and fourth class mail are covered by sections 4453 and 4454 of this title.

Subsection (c) covers the second sentence of section 225 of title 39. The first sentence is covered by section 4058 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4366—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 228 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 16, 20 Stat. 359).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4367—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 234 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 2, 37 Stat. 554; Mar. 3, 1933, ch. 207, 47 Stat. 1486).

The first sentence of section 234 of title 39 is covered by this section. The words “valuable consideration” are substituted for “money or other valuable consideration”. “Periodical” is substituted for "newspaper, magazine or periodical". Newspapers and magazines to be entered as second class mail must be "periodicals".

The second sentence of section 234 is transferred to title 18 as section 1734. The rate specified in this section is changed and may change again. The words "rates prescribed by law" are substituted for the specific rate.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4368—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 231 (June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 9, 18 Stat. 233).

The material in section 231 of title 39 relating to the nature of the affidavit is covered by this section. The penal provisions are transferred to title 18 as section 1733.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4369—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 233 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 2, 37 Stat. 553; Mar. 3, 1933, ch. 207, 47 Stat. 1486; July 2, 1946, ch. 533, 60 Stat. 416).

The requirement that the affidavits be filed with the "postmaster at the office at which" the publication is entered is omitted as unnecessary. The Postmaster General may direct where such are to be filed.

The words "every newspaper, magazine, periodical or other publication" in the first sentence were shortened to "any publication entered as second class mail."

The words "through the mails or otherwise distributed" were inserted in the fourth item of subsection (a) in recognition of the holding of the Attorney General that the statement as to circulation must include the whole bona fide circulation of the publication. See 29 Opin. Atty. Gen. 526 and 30 Opin. Atty. Gen. 244.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4370—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 639 (R. S. 3889; July 31, 1882, ch. 361, 22 Stat. 180).

This section was revised to provide that the Postmaster General will specify the terms upon which the "Department" instead of "railway postal clerks" will receive newspapers at places other than post offices.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION PUBLICATIONS

SECTION 4421—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 291b (July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 203, 62 Stat. 1262; May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 205 72 Stat. 139).

This section covers that part of 39 U. S. C. 291b which defines controlled circulation publications. The rates prescribed in section 291b and the provision authorizing acceptance of publications meeting the definition at those rates are covered by section 4422 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4422—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 291b (July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 203, 62 Stat. 1262; May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 205 72 Stat. 139).

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 65—THIRD CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4451. Definition.

4452. Postage rates.

4453. Permissible marks and enclosures.

SECTION 4451—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 221, 221a, 235, 236, 237, 238, 290a-1, 331 (Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, §§ 7, 18, 19, 20 Stat. 358, 360; Mar. 2, 1899, ch. 362, 30 Stat. 984; Apr. 27, 1904, ch. 1612, 33 Stat. 313; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 551; June 7, 1924, ch. 375, 43 Stat. 668; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, §§ 206, 207, 43 Stat. 1067; June 9, 1930, ch. 415, 46 Stat. 526; May 9, 1934, ch. 264, 48 Stat. 678; Apr. 27, 1937, ch. 141, 50 Stat. 119; May 16, 1938, ch. 227, 52 Stat. 378; Oct. 14, 1941, ch. 437, 55 Stat. 737; Sept. 7, 1949, ch. 540, 63 Stat. 690; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 3, 65 Stat. 673; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, title II, § 205, 72 Stat. 139).

Subsection (a) covers the sense of sections 221 and 235 of title 39, e. g., section 221 divides mail into four classes and with respect to the third class states that third class mail includes "miscellaneous printed matter and other mailable matter not in the first, second or fourth class." Section 235 states that books, circulars "and other matter wholly in print * * *", and "all other matter not included in the first, second or in the fourth class * * *", are third class matter. The sense of these two sections is clearly that third class matter is any matter which is not first, second, or fourth class. Section 290a-1 provides that the weight shall be 16 ounces. Subsection (a) is so written. For minimum weight limit of fourth class mail see note to section 4551 of this title.

Subsection (b) covers section 235 of title 39 insofar as it refers to bills or statements of account. When 20 or more identical copies are offered at the same time they are third class mail. It appears necessary to retain this part of section 235 because of the exception. This subsection also preserves section 221a of title 39.

Subsection (c) covers section 236 of title 39. If the definition of "circular" and the provision that circulars be carried as third class matter were not retained, such matters might be held to fall within the first class because they are in the nature of actual and personal correspondence.

Subsection (d) is based upon section 238 and the last paragraph of section 331 of title 39. The remainder of section 331 is covered by sections 4653, 4654 of this title.

Subsection (e) is based on section 237 of title 39.

SECTION 4452—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 289a, 290a, 290a-1 (July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 202, 62 Stat. 1261; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, §§ 2 and 3, 65 Stat. 672, 673; May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, title II, § 205, 72 Stat. 139; Sept. 2, 1958, Pub. L. 85-893, § 2, 72 Stat. 1713).

The material in the cited sections is covered by this section. The language is revised considerably for the purpose of making it more understandable. The second sentence of subsection (d) added here for the sake of clarity is taken from the last sentence of section 289a (a) of title 39. The organizations named in the final proviso of section 290a-1 of title 39 relating to third class mail are identical with those named in the second proviso of section 289a (a) and are derived from sections 3 and 2 (a) of the same Act (secs. 289a (a) and 290a-1 of title 39). Congress obviously intended the same organizations to enjoy both the preferential second and third class rates and must therefore have intended them to qualify in the same manner with respect to both rates. See note to section 4352 for location of provisions of section 289a in this title.

That part of section 290a-1 which authorized the Postmaster General to issue necessary regulations was omitted as it is covered by section 501 of this title. The part dealing with the weight of third class mail is covered by section 4451.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4453—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1942 ed., § 249 (Jan. 20, 1888, ch. 2, § 1, 25 Stat. 1; Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 6, 36 Stat. 1340; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 206, 43 Stat. 1067).

Section 249 of title 39, U. S. C., applies to second, third, and fourth class matter. This section covers third class mailings. The portion of the section dealing with second class matter is set out in section 4365 and the portion dealing with fourth class matter is set out in section 4555.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 67—FOURTH CLASS MAIL

Sec.

4551. Definition.

4552. Size and weight limitations.

4553. Postal zones.

4554. Postage rates on books and films.

4555. Permissible marks and enclosures.

SECTION 4551—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 221, 240 (R. S. 3879; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 7, 20 Stat. 358; June 8, 1896, ch. 370, 29 Stat. 262; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, §§ 206, 207, 43 Stat. 1067; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 7, 45 Stat. 941).

The language of existing laws defining fourth class mail matter is simplified and fourth class matter is defined by reference to other classes of mail matter. The size and weight limits for parcel post are prescribed in section 240a, title 39, 1952 edition, which comes from the Act of October 24, 1951, chapter 552, section 1, 65 Stat. 610.

SECTION 4552—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 240a, 240b (Oct. 24, 1951, ch. 552, § 1, 65 Stat. 610; Apr. 9, 1952, ch. 172, § 1, 66 Stat. 51; May 27, 1958, Pub. L. 85-426, § 206, 72 Stat. 141).

This section except for the provisions relating to sound reproducers and other appliances for the blind, is based on section 240a of title 39. The provisions relating to sound reproducers and other appliances for the blind is based on section 240b of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4553—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 292 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557; 1946 Proc. No. 2695, eff. July 4, 1946, 11 F. R. 7517, 60 Stat. 1352).

Reference to the Philippine Islands is omitted in view of the granting of independence to that country.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4554—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 292a (d) and (e) (July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 204, 62 Stat. 1262; July 20, 1953, ch. 233, 67 Stat. 183; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, title II, § 206, 72 Stat. 140).

This section covers the provisions of subsections (d) and (e) of section 292a, title 39. Subsection (a) of section 292a is covered by section 4052 of this title. Subsection (f) of section 292a is covered by section 6008 of this title. Rates of postage for fourth class matter except books and other matter entitled to the book rates are omitted from this section in view of the fact that the Postmaster General, with the consent of the I. C. C., is authorized by the Act of February 28, 1925 (43 Stat. 1067), as amended to reform the rates of postage and other conditions of mailability for fourth class mail matter. The Postmaster General has exercised that authority and has prescribed rates which supersede those specified in section 292a (b) and (c). However, with respect to books, the Congress in the Act of October 31, 1951 (ch. 631, title 1, sec. 4, 65 Stat. 674), provided that the rate on books, as provided in these subsections of 292a of title 39 were to remain in effect until changed by Congress. Those rates have therefore been restated in this section. Rates of postage on certain fourth class matter for the blind are set out in sections 4653 and 4654.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4555—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 235, 240, 249 (R. S. 3879; Jan. 20, 1888, ch. 2, § 1, 25 Stat. 1; June 8, 1896, ch. 370, 29 Stat. 262; Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 6, 36 Stat. 1340; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, §§ 206, 207, 43 Stat. 1067; May 29, 1928, ch. 856, § 7, 45 Stat. 941; Apr. 27, 1937, ch. 141, 50 Stat. 119).

This section covers that part of section 249 of title 39 which relates to fourth class matter. The first sentence of section 249 and the antepenultimate sentence of that section to the extent it relates to second class mail is covered by section 4365 of this title. To the extent that the provisions of section 249 relate to third class matter, they are covered by section 4454 of this title. The authority to issue regulations, contained in section 249, is omitted as it is covered by section 501 of this title.

Paragraphs (8) and (9) are based on sections 235 and 240 of title 39. Insofar as section 235 defines third class mail it is covered by section 4451. For the distribution of section 240 see the note to section 4002.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 69—POSTAGE RATES FOR MISCELLANEOUS MATTER WITHIN THE VARIOUS CLASSES

Sec.

4651. Keys and other small articles.

4652. Congressional Record.

4653. Publications for the blind.

4654. Reproducible and sound reproduction records for the blind.

This chapter covers postage rates for miscellaneous matter. They are set out in this chapter since they cannot be dealt with conveniently in the chapters dealing with the specific classes of mail.

The various sections of this chapter cover matter which may fall within more than one class because of weight. In pursuance of section 7 of this bill, no inference should be drawn from this chapter that an additional class of mail is established.

SECTION 4651—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 302a (Aug. 4, 1955, ch. 560, § 1, 69 Stat. 497).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4652—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 290 (June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 13, 18 Stat. 237).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4653—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 293c, 331 (Apr. 27, 1904, ch. 1612, 33 Stat. 313; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 551; June 7, 1924, ch. 375, 43 Stat. 668; May 9, 1934, ch. 264, 48 Stat. 678; Apr. 15, 1937, ch. 104, 50 Stat. 66; May 16, 1938, ch. 227, 52 Stat. 378; Oct. 14, 1941, ch. 437, 55 Stat. 737; Sept. 7, 1949, ch. 540, 63 Stat. 690; May 27, 1958, Public Law 85-426, title II, § 207, 72 Stat. 141).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the first paragraph of section 331 of title 39. Subsection (b) covers section 293c of title 39. Subsection (c) covers the provisions of the second paragraph of section 331 of title 39. The third and fourth paragraphs of section 331 are covered by section 4654 and the last paragraph of the said section is covered by section 4451.

In each of the paragraphs in section 331 the Postmaster General is authorized to prescribe necessary regulations. This authority is omitted here as it is covered by section 501 of this title. The authority to issue regulations contained in section 293c was treated in the same manner.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 4654—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 331 (Apr. 27, 1904, ch. 1612, 33 Stat. 313; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 551; June 7, 1924, ch. 375, 43 Stat. 668; May 9, 1934, ch. 264, 48 Stat. 678; May 16, 1938, ch. 227, 52 Stat. 378; Oct. 14, 1941, ch. 437, 55 Stat. 737; Sept. 7, 1949, ch. 540, 63 Stat. 690).

This section covers the third and fourth paragraphs of section 331 of title 39. The authority to issue regulations contained in said paragraph is omitted here as it is covered by section 501 of this title. The first two paragraphs of that section are covered by section 4653, the last paragraph of that section is covered by section 4451 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

5012. Receipts of mailing.

SECTION 5001—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 381, 384a and 387 (R. S. 3926; Feb. 27, 1897, ch. 340, 29 Stat. 599; Mar. 3, 1903, ch. 1009, § 1, 32 Stat. 1174; May 1, 1928, ch. 463, § 3, 45 Stat. 469; June 28, 1932, ch. 287, §§ 1 and 3, 47 Stat. 338, 340; July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 208, 62 Stat. 1265; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 6, 65 Stat. 674).

The provisions of section 381 of title 39 are covered by subsections (a) through (c) of this section. Provisions for paying indemnity from postal revenues are covered also by 39 U. S. C. 383a. (See section 2204 of this title.)

Subsections (d) and (e) of this section cover provisions of subsections (b) and (c) of section 387 of title 39, except the proviso which is covered by section 5005 of this title. The schedule of fees in section 387 is omitted, for the reason that the Postmaster General is authorized by section 507 of this title to fix the fees for this service. The first sentence of subsection (c) of section 387 is made obsolete by the Post Office Department Financial Control Act of 1950. See section 2208 of this title.

The provisions of section 384a of title 39, authorizing the Postmaster General to issue rules and regulations is omitted as unnecessary in view of section 501 of this title and subsection (a) of this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5002—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 385 (R. S. § 3932).

“Department of the Treasury” and “officer sending same” is substituted for references to the Treasurer of the United States, in view of Reorganization Plan No. 26 of 1950.

The words “without payment of registry fee” are changed to “without pre-payment of registry fee” in view of 39 U. S. C. 321p which is covered by section 5004 of this title.

Reference to the issuance of rules and regulations is omitted here as covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5003—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 8, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1456 (June 27, 1952, ch. 477, title III, ch. 2, § 344, 66 Stat. 266); title 13, U. S. C., § 10 (Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1158, § 1, 68 Stat. 1014); and title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321a (July 5, 1884, ch. 234, § 3; May 1, 1928, ch. 463, § 2, 45 Stat. 469).

Subsection (a) of this section is based on section 321a of title 39.

The Comptroller General has held (36 Comp. Gen. 352) that postage on official matter not entitled to the penalty privilege could, in lieu of prepayment, be paid on a reimbursement basis along with equivalent postage for penalty mailings because Congress should not be considered to have wanted agencies to use two different methods of payment now that they are required to pay postage for all mailings. For similar reasons the use of the registry system outside the District of Columbia on a reimbursement basis is provided for in this section by omission of the restrictive phrase “located at Washington, District of Columbia” found in 321a of title 39.

Subsection (b) is based on section 1456 of title 8, with respect to mail relating to naturalization, and section 10 of title 13, relating to census mail.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5004—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 321p (July 14, 1956, ch. 591, § 1, 70 Stat. 735).

Section 321p of title 39 has been divided. That part requiring departments, agencies, establishments, or Government corporations to pay to the Post Office Department, as postal revenue, out of any appropriations or funds available to them, the equivalent amount of postage for matter sent to or from them without prepayment of postage, is covered by section 4156 (a) of this title. That part relating to reimbursements of the Post Office Department for matter sent to or from departments, agencies, establishments, or Government corporations, as registered mail without prepayment of registry fees, is covered by this section. For reimbursement of registry fees on franked mail, see section 4167 of this title.

Reference to regulations to be issued by the Postmaster General was omitted in view of section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5005—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 381a, 387 (May 1, 1928, ch. 463, § 3, 45 Stat. 469; June 28, 1932, ch. 287, § 1, 47 Stat. 339; July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 208, 62 Stat. 1265; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 6, 65 Stat. 674).

Subsection (a) of this section is based on the first sentence of section 381a of title 39. The second sentence of that section is covered by section 5011 of this title.

Subsection (b) of this section covers the proviso in subsection (b) of section 387 of title 39. The balance of that section is covered in section 5001 of this title.

Reference to the issuance of rules and regulations is omitted here as covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5006—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 244, 245a-1 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 558; June 7, 1924, ch. 347, 43 Stat. 652; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 211, 43 Stat. 1069; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 8, 65 Stat. 675).

This section covers the first clause of section 244 of title 39, and section 245a-1 of title 39. The provision in section 244 establishing the basis for fixing insurance fees is omitted as superseded by later congressional action in establishing such fees.

The fees set out in section 245a-1 are omitted for the reason that the Postmaster General is authorized under section 507 of this title to fix fees for insured mail.

Provisions of section 244 relating to COD service are covered by section 5007 of this title.

Reference to the issuance of rules and regulations is omitted here as covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5007—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 244, 245b-1, 245d-1, 246c (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 558; June 7, 1924, ch. 347, 43 Stat. 652; Feb. 28, 1925, ch. 368, § 211 (c), 43 Stat. 1069; May 23, 1930, ch. 314, 46 Stat. 377; Aug. 26, 1935, ch. 695, 49 Stat. 867; May 5, 1950, ch. 162, § 1, 64 Stat. 107; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, §§ 10, 11, 65 Stat. 676).

Subsection (a) of this section is based on the last clause of sections 244 and 246 of title 39, relating to collect-on-delivery mail. Although the latter section is shown as superseded in the 1952 ed., only the provisions relating to fees are superseded by the Act of October 30, 1951 (65 Stat. 76).

Section 244 is divided. Other provisions of section 244 are placed in section 5006 of this title.

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of sections 245b-1 and 245d-1 of title 39. The fees set out in those sections are omitted in view of the fact that the Postmaster General is authorized under section 507 of this title to fix the fees for this service.

Reference to the issuance of rules and regulations is omitted here as covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5008—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 246c, 246c-1 (May 23, 1930, ch. 314, 46 Stat. 377; Aug. 26, 1935, ch. 695, 49 Stat. 867; May 5, 1950, ch. 162, §§ 1, 2, 64 Stat. 107).

Subsection (a) covers the provisions of section 246c of title 39. The fee set out in that section is omitted inasmuch as the Postmaster General is authorized under section 507 of this title to fix the fee for this service.

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 246c-1 of title 39.

Reference to the issuance of rules and regulations is omitted here as covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5009—SECTION REVISED

Based on 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 245c (July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 212, 62 Stat. 1267).

The fee set out in section 245c of title 39 is omitted since the Postmaster General is authorized by section 507 of this title to fix the fee for this service.

Reference to the issuance of rules and regulations is omitted here as covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5010—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 245a-2, 388a (Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, §§ 7, 9, 65 Stat. 675).

This section consolidates sections 388a and 245a-2 of title 39. Authorizing issuance of receipts for registered and insured mail. The fees set out in those sections are omitted inasmuch as the Postmaster General is authorized under section 507 of this title to fix the fees for these receipts.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5011—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., 381a (May 1, 1928, ch. 463, § 3, 45 Stat. 469; June 28, 1932, ch. 287, § 1, 47 Stat. 339).

This section covers the provisions of the second sentence of section 381a of title 39. The provisions of the first half of that section are covered by section 5005 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5012—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 260a (Jan. 13, 1931, ch. 27, 46 Stat. 1035).

This section covers the provisions of section 260a of title 39, except for the authority of the Postmaster General to prescribe the fees.

Provisions relating to that authority are covered by section 507 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 83—MONEY ORDER SYSTEM

Sec.

- 5101. Money order system.
- 5102. Issuance of money orders.
- 5103. Payment of money orders.
- 5104. Indorsement of orders.
- 5105. Postal notes.

SECTION 5101—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 711 (R. S. 4027).

This section covers the authority contained in section 711 of title 39, to establish a money order system. The word “uniform” is omitted as unnecessary. Establishment at “all suitable post offices” is covered by the language of section 5102 of this title. Reference to the issuance of rules and regulations is omitted in view of the provisions of section 501 of this title.

SECTION 5102—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 711, 713, 716a, 720, 724 (R. S. 4027, 4029, 4034; Jan. 27, 1894, ch. 21, § 9, 28 Stat. 33; Mar. 1, 1899, ch. 327, § 5, 30 Stat. 966; July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title 11, § 206, 62 Stat. 1264).

Subsection (a) covers that part of section 711 of title 39, U. S. C., which authorizes the establishment of a money order system at “all suitable post offices”. It also covers that part of the first sentence of section 713, title 39, which deals with the issuance of money orders. That part of section 713 dealing with the accountability of postmasters is covered by section 2209 of this title. That part of section 713 relating to the places at which money orders are payable is covered by section 5103 of this title. Reference to postmaster’s authority to permit his assistants to issue money orders is deleted in view of Reorganization Plan 3 of 1949.

Subsection (b) is based on section 716a of title 39. Reference to money order fees is omitted for the reason that the Postmaster General is authorized under section 507 of this title to fix the fees for the issuance of money orders.

Subsection (c) is based on section 720, title 39. The remainder of the section which authorizes the Postmaster General to prescribe the forms is omitted as unnecessary in view of the provisions of section 501 of this title.

Subsection (d) is based on section 724 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5103—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 713, 723, 727, 728, 728a, 729 (R. S. 4029, 4037, 4039, 4040; Feb. 18, 1875, ch. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320; Jan. 27, 1874, ch. 21, §§ 6, 11, 28 Stat. 32, 33; Feb. 6, 1914, ch. 15, 38 Stat. 280; June 16, 1934, ch. 550, 48 Stat. 973; June 8, 1955, ch. 134, § 2, 69 Stat. 87).

Sections 713, 723, 727 and 728 of title 39, contain provisions with respect to the payment of money orders. For example, sections 713 and 727 permit the Postmaster General to provide for payment at any money order office; section 723 permits the payment of money orders to an indorsee; section 728 authorizes repayment of the face amount of the money order to the purchaser. The total effect of these sections is that the Postmaster General shall provide for the payment of money orders, to the payee, indorsee or remitter. Upon payment to any one of the three the fees charged for the issuance of the money order are earned. Subsection (a) of this section, therefore, covers the obvious purpose and intent of the cited sections.

Subsection (b) is based on section 729 of title 39. While this latter section is largely superseded by section 728a of title 39, Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1949, and the Post Office Department Financial Control Act of 1950, the provisions for paying or replacing lost money orders to the person rightfully entitled thereto are retained. The distinction between money orders under one year of age or over one year of age, however, is omitted in view of section 728a of title 39. Reference to the General Accounting Office is omitted in view of the Post Office Department Financial Control Act.

Subsection (c) is based on the last sentence of section 728a.

Subsection (d) is based on the first and second sentences of section 728a. The third sentence of section 728a is covered by section 2202 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5104—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 723 (R. S. 4037; Feb. 18, 1875, ch. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320).

This section is revised to conform to authority contained in section 5103 of this title under which money orders may be paid at any money order post office, although drawn on a specified office.

For purposes of clarification the words "are not payable" are deleted. Orders bearing more than one indorsement are invalid but may be payable upon written application to the Postmaster General.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5105—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 738a (July 3, 1948, ch. 830, title II, § 207, 62 Stat. 1264; Apr. 28, 1950, ch. 121, § 1, 64 Stat. 91).

The last sentence of subsection (a) of 738a, title 39; U. S. C., is omitted in view of general authority of Postmaster General to fix money-order fees contained in section 507 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 85—POSTAL SAVINGS SYSTEM

Sec.

- 5201. Faith of United States pledged to payment of deposits.
- 5202. Definitions.
- 5203. Establishment of system.
- 5204. Regulations of Board of Trustees.
- 5205. Annual report of Board of Trustees.
- 5206. Depository offices.
- 5207. Opening of accounts.
- 5208. Deposits and withdrawals.
- 5209. Claims on paid postal savings certificates.
- 5210. Depositors.
- 5211. Amount of deposits.
- 5212. Privacy of accounts.
- 5213. Interest on deposits.
- 5214. Cash reserve.
- 5215. Apportionment of funds among banks.
- 5216. Security for funds deposited in banks.
- 5217. Interest on bank deposits.
- 5218. Purchase of Government obligations.
- 5219. Sources of funds to pay depositors.
- 5220. Bank fees on postal savings business.
- 5221. Application of income from postal savings funds.
- 5222. Judgment adjudicating right or interest in deposit.
- 5223. Liability for outstanding postal savings stamps.
- 5224. Disposal of paid certificates.

SECTION 5201—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 766 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 16, 36 Stat. 819).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5202—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 759 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 9, 36 Stat. 816; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (d), 48 Stat. 182).

This section covers the last sentence of section 759 of title 39, and that portion of the first sentence which defines the banks in which postal savings funds may be deposited. The word "solvent" is omitted as unnecessary. Reference to banks being members of the Federal Reserve System is also omitted as unnecessary. The remainder of section 759 is covered in this chapter as follows: Section 5203 covers the last clause of the first sentence; section 5214 that part of the first sentence relating to a cash reserve; section 5215 the third, fourth, and fifth sentence relating to apportionment of funds available for deposit; section 5216 the second sentence relating to the pledging of securities by banks; section 5217 that portion of the first sentence relating to interest to be paid by banks; section 5218 the eighth and ninth sentences relating to investments in obligations of the United States; section 5219 the seventh and thirteenth sentences relating to the source of funds to pay depositors; section 5221 the eleventh sentence relating to the disposition of income of the postal savings system. The sixth and twelfth sentences are omitted as surplusage, and the tenth sentence is omitted as obsolete. The authority to issue bonds mentioned in that sentence terminated on July 1, 1935, and the last such bonds matured on July 1, 1955.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5203—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 751, 759, 769 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, §§ 1, 9, 36 Stat. 814, 816; Aug. 23, 1912, ch. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 377; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; Sept. 23, 1914, ch. 308, 38 Stat. 716; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; May 17, 1916, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; July 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (d), 48 Stat. 182; Sept. 12, 1950, ch. 946, title III, § 301 (103), 64 Stat. 844; 1950 Reorg. Plan No. 26, §§ 1, 2; Aug. 14, 1958, Pub. L. 85-634, 72 Stat. 589).

This section, with minor changes in phraseology, covers the first sentence and the first half of the second sentence of section 751. The remainder of the second sentence is covered by section 5204, the balance of section 751 is covered by section 5205.

The first sentence of subsection (b) is based on the final clause of the first sentence of section 759 of title 39, as modified by Reorganization Plan No. 26 of 1950, which transferred functions of the Treasurer of the United States to the Secretary of the Treasury with power of delegation. See note to section 5202 for distribution of the provisions of section 759. The second sentence of subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 769 of title 39, with changes to conform to Reorganization Plan 26 of 1950.

SECTION 5204—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 751 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 1, 36 Stat. 814; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; Sept. 23, 1914, ch. 308, 38 Stat. 716).

This section covers the last half of the second sentence of section 751. The balance of section 751 is covered by sections 5203 and 5205 of this title.

The words "Except as otherwise provided" refer to powers given to the Postmaster General by section 768 of title 39, which is covered by sections 5206 and 5208 of this title. The phrase " * * * all necessary and proper regulations" is shortened.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5205—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 751 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 1, 36 Stat. 814; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; Sept. 23, 1914, ch. 308, 38 Stat. 716).

This section covers the provisions of the second paragraph of section 751, title 39. The first paragraph is covered by sections 5203 and 5204 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5206—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 753, 768 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 3, 36 Stat. 815, 816; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559.)

Section 753 and that part of section 768 dealing with designation of postal savings depository offices are covered by this section.

The last sentence of section 768 is covered by section 5208 of this title. The provisions in section 768 relating to appointment of officers and employees are omitted as superseded by laws establishing compensation of employees.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5207—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 755 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 5, 36 Stat. 815; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559).

This section covers the matter preceding the proviso in section 755. The proviso is covered by section 5208. The section was shortened without change of meaning or intent.

SECTION 5208—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 775, 768 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 5, 36 Stat. 815; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559).

This section covers the proviso in section 755 and the last sentence of section 768 of title 39. The balance of section 755 is covered by section 5207 and the balance of section 768 is covered by section 5206.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5209—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., section 770 (July 14, 1954, ch. 476, § 1, 68 Stat. 470).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5210—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 754 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 4, 36 Stat. 815).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5211—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 756 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 6, 36 Stat. 815; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 1, 39 Stat. 159; July 2, 1918, ch. 117, §§ 12, 13, 40 Stat. 754; July 26, 1939, ch. 371, 53 Stat. 1121; Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 844, 70 Stat. 897).

This section covers the first sentence of section 756 of title 39, with the exception of the clause relating to non-interest-paying deposits. That clause is covered in section 5213 of this title. The remainder of section 756 was superseded by section 756a of title 39, which is covered by section 5223 of this title.

Other laws not covered here require Attorney General to deposit in Postal Savings System cash received from aliens as bond against their becoming public charges (sec. 1183 of title 8); and permit deposit of bankrupt funds without limit (sec. 101a of title 11). See also title 46, U. S. C., section 599 (b).

SECTION 5212—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 762 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 12, 36 Stat. 818).

This section covers the matter following the semicolon in the first sentence of section 762.

The remainder of section 762 is omitted. Bonds of officers and employees cover postal savings funds. It is no longer necessary to keep funds separate in view of Financial Control Act of 1950. See part II this revision.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5213—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 756, 757, 758 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, §§ 6, 7 and 8, 36 Stat. 815, 816; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 1, 39 Stat. 159; July 2, 1918, ch. 117, §§ 12, 13, 40 Stat. 754; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (c), 48 Stat. 182; Aug. 23, 1935, ch. 614, § 341, 49 Stat. 721; July 26, 1939, ch. 371, 53 Stat. 1121).

This section consolidates the provisions of section 757 of title 39, with the provision in section 758, relating to the rate of interest on depositors' accounts contained in items (1) and (2) of the first sentence. The prohibition in section 756 of title 39, against the acceptance of non-interest-paying deposits is covered by the broad language of subsection (a).

Item (3) of the first sentence of section 758 relating to interest on funds deposited in banks is covered by section 5217; the second sentence of section 758 relating to withdrawals is covered by section 5219 and the last sentence relating to bank charges by section 5220.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5214—CASH RESERVE

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 759 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 9, 36 Stat. 816; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (d), 48 Stat. 182).

This section covers that part of the first sentence of section 759 relating to the maintenance of a cash reserve. For the distribution of the provisions of section 759 see note to section 5202 of this title.

SECTION 5215—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 759 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 9, 36 Stat. 816; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (d), 48 Stat. 182).

This section covers the provision of section 759 of title 39, relating to apportionment of funds available for deposit in banks. For the distribution of the provisions of section 759, see note to section 5202 of this title.

Section 265, title 12, prohibits Federal officials from discriminating between insured banks on the basis of State or Federal charter or membership in the Federal Reserve System.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5216—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 759 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 9, 36 Stat. 816; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (d), 48 Stat. 182).

This section covers only those provisions of section 759 of title 39, U. S. C., which relate to the pledging of securities by banks. The words "on demand" are omitted in view of section 5217 (b) of this title which authorizes time deposits. For distribution of section 759, see note to section 5202 of this title.

SECTION 5217—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 758 and 759 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, §§ 8 and 9, 36 Stat. 816; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; June 16, 1933, ch. 89 § 11 (c), (d), 48 Stat. 182; Aug. 23, 1935, ch. 614, § 341, 49 Stat. 721).

This section consolidates item (3) of section 758, title 39, with the provisions relating to the rate of interest in section 759. For the distribution of the provisions of sections 758 and 759, see the notes to sections 5313 and 5202 of this title, respectively.

SECTION 5218—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 759 (Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 9, 36 Stat. 816; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (d), 48 Stat. 182).

This section covers the provisions of section 759 of title 39, relating to funds not deposited in banks and the use thereof for the purchase of Government obligations. The phrase "in other obligations which are lawful investments for trust funds of the United States" has been added in subsections (a) and (b), since various provisions of law authorize instruments of the United States to issue obligations which by the enabling statutes are made lawful investments for all fiduciary, trust and public funds of the United States. Cf. section 311 of the National Housing Act, as amended. As postal savings funds are trust funds, the quoted phrase has been inserted for clarity.

Reference to purchase of postal savings bonds which have been issued under the Act of July 25, 1910, is omitted as obsolete. The authority to issue these bonds terminated on July 1, 1935, and the last bonds issued under this authority matured on July 1, 1955.

For the distribution of the provisions of section 759, see note following section 5202 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5219—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 758 and 759 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, §§ 8 and 9, 36 Stat. 816; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (c) and (d), 48 Stat. 182; Aug. 23, 1935, ch. 614, § 341, 49 Stat. 721).

This section consolidates the provisions relating to withdrawals contained in sections 758 and 759 of title 39.

Subsection (a) covers the second sentence of section 758 of title 39, U. S. C.

Subsection (b) covers the seventh and thirteenth sentences of section 759 of title 39.

For the distribution of the provisions of sections 758 and 759 see the notes to sections 5213 and 5202.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5220—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 758 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 8, 36 Stat. 816; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (c), 48 Stat. 182; Aug. 23, 1935, ch. 614, § 341, 49 Stat. 721).

This section covers the provisions of the last sentence of section 758 of title 39. For the distribution of the provisions of section 758, see the note of section 5213 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5221—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 759 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 9, 36 Stat. 816; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159; May 17, 1932, ch. 190, 47 Stat. 158; June 16, 1933, ch. 89, § 11 (d), 48 Stat. 182).

This section covers the eleventh sentence of section 759 of title 39, which relate to the disposition of income from postal savings funds. For the distribution of section 759 see note to section 5202.

SECTION 5222—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 767 (June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 17, 36 Stat. 819).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 5223—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 756a (Mar. 28, 1942, ch. 205, § 5, 56 Stat. 189).

This section covers the provisions of the last sentence of section 756a of title 39. The balance of that section relates to discontinuing the issuance of postal savings stamps and the payment to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Board of Trustees of the redemption price of outstanding postal savings stamps. That portion of the section is no longer necessary inasmuch as this act repeals without reenactment the authority to issue stamps.

SECTION 5224—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 771 (July 14, 1954, ch. 476, § 2, 68 Stat. 471).

Section based on section 771 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

PART VI—DELIVERY AND TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

CHAPTER	Sec.
91. DELIVERY SERVICE.....	6001
93. AUTHORITY TO TRANSPORT MAIL.....	6101
95. TRANSPORTATION OF MAIL BY RAILROAD.....	6201
97. TRANSPORTATION OF MAIL BY AIR.....	6301
99. HIGHWAY POST OFFICES.....	6351
101. TRANSPORTATION OF MAIL OTHER THAN BY RAIL, AIR OR HIGHWAY POST OFFICE.....	6401

CHAPTER 91—DELIVERY SERVICE

Sec.
6001. City delivery service.
6002. Village delivery service.
6003. Receiving boxes.
6004. Delivery of mail at stations or branches.
6005. Rural delivery service.
6006. Special delivery service.
6007. Fee paid to persons making delivery of special delivery mail.
6008. Special handling.
6009. Community mail boxes.

SECTION 6001—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 151, 152 (Jan. 3, 1887, ch. 14, § 1, 24 Stat. 355; Feb. 16, 1911, ch. 87, 36 Stat. 911).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the mandatory provision for free delivery of mail contained in the first sentence of section 151, title 39. Reference to employment of "letter carriers" is omitted as unnecessary. See section 3515 (b) of this title which defines the position of letter carrier.

The second sentence of section 151 reading "This section shall not affect the existence of free delivery in places where it was established prior to January 3, 1887" is omitted as unnecessary.

Subsection (c) of this section covers the last sentence of section 151, title 39.

Subsection (b) covers the permissive provisions for establishing free delivery service contained in the first sentence of section 151 and the provisions of section 152, title 39.

Reference to consolidation by authority of the Postmaster General is omitted as unnecessary. His authority to consolidate is covered by section 701 of this revision. The words "letter carriers may be employed for the free delivery of mail matter in like manner as if any one of such post offices had produced such revenue in said fiscal year" are omitted as unnecessary.

SECTION 6002—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 153, 153a, 162 (R. S. 3873; Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 9, 37 Stat. 559; Oct. 29, 1949, ch. 784, §§ 1, 2, 63 Stat. 984).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the provisions of section 153 of title 39. The latter section is an Appropriations Act provision. Each year a sum of money is specifically authorized for this service. In the last Appropriation Act in which the language appeared, the word "experimental" is dropped and the language became "village delivery service in towns and villages having post offices of the second or third class and in communities adjacent to cities having city delivery." (See Act of January 26, 1927, ch. 58, title II, 44 Stat. 1048). However, by section 153a, title 39, village delivery service is abolished in second class offices. The new text reference covers third class offices only.

Reference to the issuance of regulations by the Postmaster General is omitted. This authority is covered by section 501 of this title.

To insure that there is free delivery of mail and to carry forward the intent of section 162 of title 39, the words "free delivery" are added.

Subsection (b) of this section covers the provisions of section 153a, title 39. The words "and all carriers in the village delivery service in such offices shall be classified as carriers in the city delivery service in accordance with section 153b of this title" are omitted as executed.

SECTION 6003—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 155, 156 (R. S. 3868; Mar. 3, 1887, ch. 388, § 1, 24 Stat. 569; Jan. 23, 1893, ch. 41, 27 Stat. 421).

Subsection (a) covers section 155 of title 39.

Subsection (b) covers section 156 of title 39. Reference to "Places where letter carriers are employed" is omitted as unnecessary.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6004—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., § 158 (R. S. 3871).

This section covers the last sentence of section 158 of title 39. The remainder of section 158 is covered by section 705 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6005—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 162, 191 (R. S. 3873; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423).

This section covers the provisions of section 191 of title 39. The words "for the free delivery of mail" are inserted to cover the intent of section 162 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6006—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 165, 167 and 276d (Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 3, 23 Stat. 387; Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 1, 24 Stat. 220; Jan. 16, 1889, ch. 50, 25 Stat. 650; Oct. 30, 1951, ch. 631, title I, § 5, 65 Stat. 674; Apr. 9, 1958, Public Law, 85-371, § 6, 72 Stat. 72).

Subsection (a) covers that part of 276d, title 39, which defines special delivery service. The remainder of the latter section dealing with fees is omitted. The Postmaster General is authorized to prescribe fees for this service by section 507 of this title. The provision for payment of the fee by a "special delivery stamp or ordinary postage stamps or in such other manner as the Postmaster General may prescribe," are omitted, and the matter is left to prescription by the Postmaster General under his authority to establish rules and regulations contained in section 501 of this title.

Subsection (a) also covers that part of section 167, title 39, which defines the area where special delivery service will be rendered, the Postmaster General having long ago prescribed that special delivery service shall be rendered at any post office. The authority to designate which post office shall provide this service is omitted. To make it clear, however, that the service is available at stations or branches, a provision for the establishment of the service at stations and branches at the direction of the Postmaster General is incorporated.

Subsection (b) covers that part of section 165 of title 39 which provides for the immediate delivery of special delivery mail from the office of address.

The remainder of section 165 providing for a special stamp is covered by section 2501 of this title. The part prescribing the fee of ten cents for matter under two pounds is omitted. The Postmaster General fixes fees for this service under the authority of section 507 of this title.

Subsection (b) also covers that part of section 167 which makes the postmaster at the office of address responsible for immediate delivery.

The provision in section 167 for the affixing "the proper special stamp" is superseded by section 276d which authorizes use of special or ordinary stamps or some other method prescribed by the Postmaster General. See the explanation of subsection (a) of this section. The remainder of section 167 dealing with the use of regular employees as messengers for the delivery of special delivery mail and the contracting for messenger service is covered by sections 2009 and 6007 of this title.

While this section is not based on section 171 of title 39, it should be noted that that section which authorizes the Postmaster General to prescribe suitable regulations not inconsistent with law for the performance of the special delivery service is adequately covered by section 501 of this title.

SECTION 6007—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 167, 169, 169a (Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 5, 23 Stat. 388; Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 1, 24 Stat. 220; June 19, 1922, ch. 227, § 1, 42 Stat. 656; Mar. 2, 1931, ch. 372, § 3, 46 Stat. 1469; July 6, 1945, ch. 274, § 22, 59 Stat. 459).

Subsection (a) is based on section 169a, title 39, and prescribes the fees to be paid to persons making delivery of special-delivery mail. The codifiers' note to section 169a shows that section 3 of the Act of March 2, 1931 (46 Stat. 1469), is superseded by the Act of July 6, 1945 (ch. 274, § 22, 59 Stat. 459), and that the section, 169a, is covered by section 872 of title 39. The Act of July 6, 1945, section 872 of title 39, placed special-delivery messengers at first-class offices on an annual salary basis and also provided that special-delivery articles may be delivered by regular, substitute, and temporary postal employees who shall be paid their regular rate of compensation for such delivery service. This did not apply to second, third and fourth class offices nor to the delivery of special delivery mail at first class offices by rural carriers or star route contractors (see 25 Comp. Gen. 71, 287). Section 872 is superseded by sections 963 (11), 964, 971, and 1008, title 39. The provisions for fees, therefore, in section 169a of title 39 must be preserved.

Subsection (b) of this section covers the provisions of section 167, title 39, dealing with the use of regular employees as messengers. The last sentence of section 167 is covered by section 2009 of this title. The remainder of section 167 is covered by section 6006 of this title. "Postmaster General" is substituted for "postmaster" by reason of Reorganization Plan No. 3, 1949.

Subsection (b) also covers the sense of section 169 of title 39, i. e., to employ persons to deliver special delivery mail.

The provisions of section 169 with respect to the manner of delivery and the procurement of receipts is omitted for the reason that by the very wording of section 169 the Postmaster General is given authority to provide a different manner of delivery. This later authority falls within the provisions of section 501 of this title. The proviso in section 169 is omitted. It is adequately covered by section 6006 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6008—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 292a (July 3, 1948, ch. 830 title II, § 204, 62 Stat. 1262; July 20, 1953, ch. 233, §§ 1, 2, 67 Stat. 183).

This section covers the provisions of section 292a (f) of title 39, which defines the special handling service. The provisions relating to fees are omitted inasmuch as the Postmaster General is authorized to prescribe fees by section 507 of this title. The provisions requiring "Special Handling Stamps" to be affixed to such mail and permitting the use of ordinary stamps of the equivalent value in the place of special handling stamps is omitted inasmuch as section 507 of this title not only authorizes the Postmaster General to fix the fees but also to prescribe the manner in which they shall be collected. The remainder of section 292a is covered by sections 4052 and 4555 of this title.

SECTION 6009—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 212 (May 29, 1928, ch. 899, 45 Stat. 985).

In view of broad language of section 2001 of this title authorizing purchase of equipment and supplies reference to purchase of these boxes is omitted from this section.

Reference to the issuance of regulations is omitted. That authority is covered in section 501 of this title.

Reference to the payment of the cost of installation and maintenance from appropriations for rural delivery service is omitted. There is no such appropriation.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 93—AUTHORITY TO TRANSPORT MAIL

Sec.

- 6101. Provisions for carrying the mail.
- 6102. Emergency mail service in Alaska.
- 6103. Transportation of mail of adjoining countries through the United States.
- 6104. Mails to be carried on United States registered vessels.
- 6105. Establishment of post roads.
- 6106. Discontinuance of service on post roads.
- 6107. Preferred treatment of letter mail.

SECTION 6101—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 651, 652, 653, 654 (R. S. 3964, 3965, 3966, 3967, 3968, 3969, 4006, 4007, 4008, 4009; Mar. 1, 1884, ch. 9, 23 Stat. 3; July 3, 1926, ch. 793, 44 Stat. 900; May 22, 1928, ch. 675, § 414 (e), 45 Stat. 696; Feb. 14, 1929, ch. 201, 45 Stat. 1175; June 23, 1938, ch. 601, § 1107 (a), 52 Stat. 1027), and title 46, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 880, 1145 (June 5, 1920, ch. 250, § 24, 41 Stat. 998; May 22, 1928, ch. 675, § 414 (a), 45 Stat. 696; June 29, 1936, ch. 858, title IV, § 405, 49 Stat. 1995).

All of the cited sections and many others relate to the authority of the Postmaster General to provide for the transportation of mail. In conformity with the purposes of this revision of title 39, such authority is consolidated and restated in this section.

Subsection (b) covers section 484, title 39, words "without a mail" are omitted as surplusage.

SECTION 6102—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 488 (Feb. 21, 1925, ch. 283, 43 Stat. 960; Aug. 24, 1935, ch. 638, 49 Stat. 744; Aug. 20, 1937, ch. 718, 50 Stat. 725; June 23, 1938, ch. 601, § 1107 (d), 52 Stat. 1027).

This section is based on that part of section 488 of title 39 which precedes the proviso. The authority of the Postmaster General to fix the postage rates for mail carried by aircraft in Alaska contained in the proviso of said section is superseded by section 488a of title 39, now covered by section 4304 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6103—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 669 (R. S. 4012).

The words "of Canada, or any other country adjoining the United States" were changed to "of countries adjoining the United States."

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6104—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 46, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 880, 1145 (June 5, 1920, ch. 250, § 24, 41 Stat. 998; May 22, 1928, ch. 675, § 414 (a), 45 Stat. 696; June 29, 1936, ch. 858, title IV, § 405, 49 Stat. 1995).

This section restates the language of subsection (a) of section 1145 of title 46. Subsection (b) of section 1145 is covered by section 6433 of this title.

Section 880 of title 46, covers the same matter as subsection (a) of section 1145. Insofar as it relates to the vessels on which mail may be carried, section 880 is superseded by section 11 of title 46. The third sentence of section 880 is omitted, as obsolete in view of the provisions of subsection (a) of section 1145. The provisions of the second sentence relating to subletting of contracts are covered by section 6429 of this title.

SECTION 6105—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 481, 482 (R. S. 3964; Mar. 1, 1884, ch. 9, 23 Stat. 3; June 23, 1938, ch. 601, § 1107 (a), 52 Stat. 1027).

The section covers the provisions of section 481 of title 39. On the basis of section 482 of title 39, "public roads and highways" and the words "toll roads" are substituted for the obsolete term "plank roads." Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6106—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 151, 483, 492, 656, 1053 (R. S. 3965, 3974, 4011, Jan. 3, 1887, ch. 14, § 1, 24 Stat. 355; Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 4, 70 Stat. 781).

The section, except paragraph "(4)", covers the provisions of section 492, title 39. The words "until the same can be safely restored" are omitted in view of the addition of paragraph "(4)".

Paragraph "(4)" is added to this section so that it will contain all of the conditions under which the Postmaster General may discontinue service over post routes. Discontinuance in the public interest is clearly authorized by sections 151, which requires letter carrier delivery as often as the Postmaster General determines is necessary for public business; 483, which directs that service be provided as often as the Postmaster General thinks proper (see section 6101 of this revision) by section 656, which requires that contracts for transporting mail to foreign countries be made subject to cancellation by the Postmaster General or Congress (see section 6406 of this revision); by section 1053, which requires that each contract for highway post office service contain a provision for cancellation by the Postmaster General (see section 6352 of this revision).

SECTION 6107—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 501 (R. S. 3994, Feb. 18, 1875, ch. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319).

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 95—TRANSPORTATION OF MAIL BY RAILROAD

Sec.

- 6201. Definition.
- 6202. Service by railroad and vessel.
- 6203. Authorization of service by railroads.
- 6204. Facilities provided by railroad.
- 6205. Changes in service.

SECTION 6201—NEW SECTION

This section is new to the Code.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has held that in the exercise of its authority to prescribe rates there is no distinction between "railway common carriers" and "urban and interurban electric railway common carriers." Electric Railway Mail Pay, 279 I. C. C. 17, 35-36. The distinction therefore has been eliminated in this title except with respect to the amount of fines that may be levied for refusal to perform services. See section 6207 of this title.

SECTION 6202—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 540, 541a (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 428; Feb. 15, 1933, ch. 75, 35, 47 Stat. 809).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6203—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 523, 525, 529, 539, 541, 560; 561, 573 (May 12, 1910, ch. 230, 36 Stat. 362; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, §§ 1, 5, 39 Stat. 419).

Subsection (a) covers section 525 of title 39 which authorizes the Postmaster General to designate railroads as mail routes and to authorize mail service on them. The naming of the classes of service was omitted as obsolete. The Act of July 28, 1916, delegated authority to the Postmaster General to prescribe the service to be rendered by railway common carriers and delegated authority to I. C. C. to fix and determine the applicable rates. Thus, the definition of service and the rates prescribed by Congress were operative only during the interim until the authority was exercised initially by the Postmaster General and the Commission.

Subsection (a) also covers sections 529, 539, 560, 561, and 573, which authorize the transportation of equipment and supplies as mail. In accordance with these sections, the Department has traditionally transported equipment and supplies as mail. The limitation in section 560, namely that equipment and supplies may be transported as mail "when practicable for the utilization of car space paid for and not needed for mail," and the limitation in section 561 "in cases of emergency between October 1 and April 1, of any year," are not consistent with the provisions of the same act codified in sections 529 and 539. The limitations have therefore been eliminated. The words "equipment and supplies" are used to cover the detailed statement of supplies, e. g., "postal cards, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, empty mail bags, furniture, equipment and other supplies" as in section 560 of title 39.

Subsection (b) restates section 541 of title 39. It is also based on sections 529, 560, and 561 of title 39 which require railroads to carry mail, including equipment and supplies.

Subsection (c) restates the first sentence of section 539 of title 39, but omits reference to the "manner in which the mails shall be conveyed." The manner of conveyance is covered in subsection (b) of this section.

Subsection (d) restates the second sentence of section 539 of title 39. The last sentence of the section is covered by section 6207 of this title. It is also based on sections 529, 560, and 561 of title 39.

Subsection (e) covers section 523 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6204—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 537, 538 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 427).

Section 537 of title 39 is covered by subsection (b). Changes were made in phraseology.

Section 538 of title 39 is covered by subsections (a) and (c). Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6205—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 564 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 427).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6206—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 556, 566 (July 18, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 427, 428; June 28, 1952, ch. 485, § 1 (4), 66 Stat. 286).

The first sentence covers section 556 of title 39. The second sentence covers the first sentence of section 566 of title 39. The second sentence of the latter section relating to special land-grant rates, was omitted because such rates were abolished. See section 65 (a) of title 49.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6207—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 539, 563, 567, 568, 570 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 428, 431; July 2, 1918, ch. 117, § 1, 40 Stat. 748).

Subsection (a) covers the fines that may be levied against railroads, including electric urban and interurban railroads, authorized by section 563 and the last sentence of section 570, title 39. The remainder of section 570 dealing with the fixing of fair and reasonable rates for the transportation of mail is covered by section 6208 of this title.

Subsection (b) paragraph (1) covers the last sentence of section 539, title 39. The remainder of said section is covered by subsections (a), (c), and (d) of section 6203 of this title.

Subsection (b) paragraphs (2), (3), (4) cover the provisions of section 567 of title 39.

Subsection (b) paragraph (5) covers that part of the first sentence of section 568, title 39, which relates to fines as distinguished from deductions.

Subsection (c) covers that part of section 568, title 39, which authorizes the Postmaster General to make deductions from the compensation of a railroad.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6208—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 542, 543, 549, 570 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 429, 430; July 2, 1918, ch. 117, § 1, 40 Stat. 748).

The provisions of section 542 and the first sentence of section 570 title 39, have been consolidated in subsection (a). The remainder of section 570 dealing with fines against urban and interurban electric railroads is covered by section 6207 of this title.

Section 549, title 39, has been restated in subsection (b).

Section 543, title 39, has been restated in subsection (c).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6209—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 544, 545, 546, 547, 551, 553 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 429, 430).

Section 544 of title 39, being merely introductory, was omitted.

Subsection (a) covers section 553, title 39, and that part of section 551 of title 39 which relates to the issuance of an order after hearing.

Subsection (b) covers the provisions of section 551 of title 39, relating to the payment by the Postmaster General of the rates prescribed by ICC. Reference to the appropriation from which payment is made was omitted. There is no such appropriation.

Subsection (c) is based on section 545 of title 39, and the last sentence of section 546 of title 39. The mandatory provision "shall file" has been changed to permissive "may file." These provisions concerning the filing of a comprehensive plan originally were applicable to the initial assumption of jurisdiction by ICC under the Act of July 28, 1916. Since that time, with one exception, comprehensive plans were not filed in proceedings before the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Commission did not require that they be filed. In the excepted case, the Department did file a comprehensive plan and it was received by the Commission. Section 553, title 39, which is covered by subsection (a) of this section, provides that after the initial assumption of jurisdiction by ICC, rates shall be reviewed under substantially similar proceedings; thus, the justification for making the filing of the comprehensive plan permissive rather than mandatory.

Subsection (d) covers the provisions of section 547, title 39.

SECTION 6210—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 555, 558 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 428).

Section 558 of title 39 has been restated in subsection (a).

Section 555, title 39 has been restated in subsection (b).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6211—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 559 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 428).

A similar provision based on section 501 of title 39 appears in section 6107 of this title. It covers carriers other than rail.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6212—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 576 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 2, 39 Stat. 424; June 7, 1934, ch. 426, 48 Stat. 926; Aug. 28, 1958, Pub. L. 85-791, § 5, 72 Stat. 943, 944).

Hearings under this section are governed by the Administrative Procedure Act. Reference to "full and fair" hearing and reduction of testimony to writing was therefore omitted.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6213—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 541a (Feb. 15, 1933, ch. 75, 47 Stat. 809).

Because of the definition of the word "railroad" in section 6201 of this title includes urban and interurban electric railroads reference to them was omitted.

The reference to the appropriation from which payment shall be made was omitted as obsolete.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6214—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 562 (July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 429).

Reference to appropriation from which cost is payable omitted as obsolete. Computation of "average loads" not always determined by "weighing". "Measuring" has been added.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6215—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 565, 571 (R. S. 3942; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 5, 39 Stat. 427; Aug. 7, 1946, ch. 770, § 1 (34), 60 Stat. 868), and title 49, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 65 (a) (Sept. 18, 1940, ch. 722, title III, § 321, 54 Stat. 954; Dec. 12, 1945, ch. 573, § 1, 59 Stat. 606).

This section consolidates the authority contained in sections 565 and 571 of title 39 and the first proviso of section 65 (a) of title 49. The later section authorizes contracts at rates lower than those fixed by I. C. C.

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 97—TRANSPORTATION OF MAIL BY AIR

Sec.

6301. Rules and regulations.

6302. Special arrangement in Alaska.

6303. Air star routes.

6304. Fines on aircraft carriers transporting the mails.

6305. Air mail flyer's Medal of Honor.

SECTION 6301—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 465, 475 (Feb. 2, 1925, ch. 128, § 5, 43 Stat. 806; June 29, 1948, ch. 717, § 1, 62 Stat. 1097); and on title 49, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1375 (1940 Reorganization Plan No. IV, § 7, effective June 30, 1940, 54 Stat. 1235; July 2, 1940, ch.

526, § 1, 54 Stat. 735; June 28, 1952, ch. 485, § 1 (5), 66 Stat. 286; Aug. 23, 1958, Pub. L. 85-726, § 1375, 72 Stat. 760).

Section 465, title 39, giving the Postmaster General authority to make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of sections 462 (air mail defined), 462a (domestic air mail defined), and 463 (postage rates), and section 475 (10), title 39, authorizing the Postmaster General to make rules for the safe and expeditious transportation by air of mail matter weighing in excess of 8 ounces are consolidated in this section. The section authorizes the Postmaster General to issue regulations concerning first class air mail, air parcel post, and any other class of mail matter moving by air.

Reference to "order, rule or regulation made by the Civil Aeronautics Board" conforms to section 1375 (a) of title 49, U. S. C.

SECTION 6302—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 488a, 488b (Oct. 14, 1940, ch. 879, §§ 1, 2, 54 Stat. 1175, 1176; Aug. 23, 1958, Pub. L. 85-726, § 1410, 72 Stat. 809).

Section 488a of title 39 is divided. The last sentence which authorizes the Postmaster General to fix the postage rates for mail carried by aircraft to, from or within Alaska is covered by section 4304 of this title. The remaining provisions of said section are covered by this section as subsections (a) and (b), with changes in phraseology made necessary by this codification. Section 488b of title 39 is omitted because separate appropriations are no longer made for the several types of mail transportation. The words "the Territory of" have been omitted in reference to Alaska.

SECTION 6303—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 470 (Apr. 15, 1938, ch. 157, § 6, 52 Stat. 219; Aug. 30, 1949; ch. 523, 63 Stat. 680; Aug. 23, 1958, Pub. L. 85-726, § 1408, 72 Stat. 808).

In order to make this section complete in itself the words "under this section" are used in subsection (b) in lieu of the words "except as authorized by sections 488a and 488b of this title" which are used in the third proviso of section 470 (a) of title 39. Alaska being a State, reference to it as a Territory has been omitted.

SECTION 6304—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 655 (R. S. 4010; Jan. 31, 1931, ch. 73, 46 Stat. 1049).

This section is divided and that portion relating to steamship carriers is inserted in section 6435 of this title.

Section 621, title 49, provides that air carriers, domestic or foreign, are subject to a civil penalty of not to exceed $1,000 for violation of rules or regulations issued by the Postmaster General. For authority to issue rules and regulations see section 6301 of this title.

SECTION 6305—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 830 (Feb. 14, 1931, ch. 182, 46 Stat. 1110).

Changes are made in phraseology.

CHAPTER 99—HIGHWAY POST OFFICES

Sec.

6351. Highway post office service.

6352. Highway post office contracts.

6353. Renewal of contracts for highway post office service.

6354. Temporary contracts for highway post office service.

6355. Bonds for highway post office contract.

SECTION 6351—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1051 (Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 2, 70 Stat. 781).

Changes in phraseology are made. The words "in accordance with such specifications, rules, and regulations" are omitted and "as the Postmaster General prescribes" substituted therefor. For authority of the Postmaster General to issue rules and regulations, see section 501 of this revision.

SECTION 6352—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 1052, 1053 (Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, §§ 3, 4, 70 Stat. 781).

These two sections are combined in this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6353—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1054 (Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 5, 70 Stat. 781).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6354—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1055 (Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 6, 70 Stat. 781).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6355—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1056 (Aug. 1, 1956, ch. 813, § 7, 70 Stat. 781).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6401—REVISED SECTION

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 425a, 434, 505, 506, 578 (R. S. 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; Mar. 3, 1887, ch. 346, 24 Stat. 492; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, §§ 1, 3, 54 Stat. 227, 228; July 11, 1940, ch. 582, §§ 1, 2, 54 Stat. 756; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; June 18, 1954, ch. 309, 68 Stat. 255; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998; Sept. 1, 1954, ch. 1208, title VI, § 604, 68 Stat. 1116).

This section, as a separate section, is new to the code. It is added for the purpose of simplifying the language in the succeeding sections of this chapter. The term "star route" is in general use and is employed in legislation. See, for example, sections 425a and 434 of title 39.

“Contract motor vehicle service” is a designation which replaces “screen vehicle service” and “regulation panel body vehicle service” used in section 434, title 39. The new designated term will distinguish the contract service from Government-operator motor vehicle service.

“Mail messenger service” is derived from section 578 of title 39, which section is covered by sections 6403 and 6423 of this title.

SECTION 6402—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 421, 422, 424, 425, 426, 429, 430, 433, 434, 435, 436, 451, 473, 474, 482, 486, 493, 651, 652. (R. S. 3944, 3945, 3949, 3951, 3955, 3956, 3968, 3975, 4006, 4007; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, §§ 245, 251, 17 Stat. 313, 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, § 3, 19 Stat. 335; Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 30, 20 Stat. 362; Mar. 1, 1881, ch. 96, § 1, 21 Stat. 374; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; Mar. 1, 1884, ch. 9, 23 Stat. 3; July 26, 1892, ch. 249, § 1, 27 Stat. 268; May 12, 1910, ch. 230, 36 Stat. 366; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, §§ 6, 7, 8, 39 Stat. 161; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; Mar. 3, 1917, ch. 162, § 2, 39 Stat. 1068; July 2, 1918, ch. 117, § 1, 40 Stat. 751; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, §§ 1, 2, 3, 54 Stat. 227, 228; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 23, 1948, ch. 607, § 1, 62 Stat. 576; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; June 28, 1952, § 1 (1), 66 Stat. 286; Apr. 4, 1953, ch. 18, § 3, 67 Stat. 22; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 69 Stat. 998; May 1, 1958, Public Law 85-392, 72 Stat. 103).

The sections of title 39 upon which this section is based explicitly or by implication convey authority to the Postmaster General to contract for the transportation of mail. The sense of these sections is covered here by the broad language authorizing contracts with the exceptions noted. For authority to contract without advertising for transportation of any or all classes of mail by aircraft under emergency conditions see title 49, section 485 (k).

Subsection (b) of this section serves to save the authority contained in section 474, title 39, to use helicopter service between airports and post offices.

SECTION 6403—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 578, 579, 667 (Mar. 3, 1887, ch. 346, 24 Stat. 492; Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2513, 34 Stat. 1214; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143, 37 Stat. 799; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418, 420; June 3, 1924, ch. 237, 43 Stat. 356; Jan. 22, 1925, ch. 87, title 11, 43 Stat. 786; July 3, 1952, ch. 552, 66 Stat. 324).

All but the last sentence of section 578, title 39, is covered by subsection (a) of this section. The last sentence is covered by section 6423 of this title.

Subsection (a) also covers section 667 of title 39, except authority to maintain Sea Post Service. This latter authority is covered in section 6404 of this title.

Section 579 of title 39 is covered by subsections (b) and (c) of this section. The section, however, is made applicable to all employees except special delivery messengers in accordance with Comptroller General's decisions (8 Comp. Gen. 578, 610). Reference to the appropriation available for such contracts is omitted. There is no such appropriation.

SECTION 6404—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 667 (Mar. 2, 1907, ch. 2513, 34 Stat. 1214; Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143, 37 Stat. 799; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 420; Jan. 22, 1925, ch. 87, title II, 43 Stat. 786).

This section is based on the matter preceding the semicolon in the cited section. The remainder of the section is covered by section 6403 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6405—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 424, 436, 449 (R. S. 3943, 3956; May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 5, 20 Stat. 62; Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386).

Section 449 of title 39 is divided. The last sentence of said section which places a two-year limitation on contracts for carrying mail between the United States and foreign ports is combined with similar provisions of section 436 of title 39, and covered by the first sentence of subsection (a). The remainder of section 449 is covered by section 6408 of this title. That part of section 436 providing generally that contracts be for terms not in excess of four years is covered by the last sentence of subsection (a).

The provisions of section 424, title 39, are also covered by subsection (a). Reference to the appropriation from which the contract price may be paid is omitted as obsolete.

Subsection (b) is added as a cross reference to other sections authorizing different terms for certain types of contracts.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6406—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 656 (R. S. 4011).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6407—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 434 (R. S. § 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the second sentence of the third paragraph of section 434, title 39. For the distribution of section 434, see note under section 6414 of this title.

Subsection (b) provides that extension is not authorized for contracts covered by section 6415 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6408—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 449, 487a (R. S. 3943; May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 5, 20 Stat. 62; Aug. 10, 1939, ch. 635, 53 Stat. 1338; June 3, 1948, ch. 381, 62 Stat. 292).

Subsection (a) of this section covers all but the last sentence of section 449 of title 39. The last sentence is covered by section 6405 of this title.

The language of the section is clarified to show that new contracts for the transportation of mail may be entered into notwithstanding the fact that there may be an existing contract for the transportation of mail over the same route. This is necessary for the reason that in some cases, such as between San Francisco and Honolulu, there may be need for several contracts covering transportation of mail over the same route, because of the volume of mail or need for expediting dispatch of the mail.

Subsection (b) covers section 487a, title 39. The word "vessel" is substituted for "boat" and "steamboat or other power boat". Reference to appropriations from which payable is omitted as obsolete.

Changes are made in phraseology.

See also section 424, title 39 (section 6405 of this revision) for authority to make contracts for four-year terms.

SECTION 6409—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 654 (R. S. 4009; July 3, 1926, ch. 793, 44 Stat. 900; May 22, 1928, ch. 675, § 414 (e), 45 Stat. 696; Feb. 14, 1929, ch. 201, 45 Stat. 1175).

The proviso of section 654 (a), title 39, U. S. C., is omitted as obsolete due to the repeal of sections 891e–891q, ch. 24A of title 46. Reference to sections 891e–891q of title 46 in subsection (b) of section 654, title 39, is omitted because of the repeal of said sections June 29, 1936, ch. 858, §§ 302, 903 (c), 49 Stat. 1993, 2016. The savings provisions of subsection (b) of section 654 is covered by subsection (b) of this section which confines the compensation provisions to transportation "obtained under this section." Subsection (c) of section 654, title 39, is omitted as obsolete as there is no specific appropriation for transportation of "foreign mails."

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6410—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 450 (July 2, 1918, ch. 117, § 1, 40 Stat. 747).

The word aeroplanes is omitted as superseded. Reference to "inland transportation" is omitted. See note to section 450, title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6412—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 422a (May 1, 1958, Pub. L. 85–392, § 2, 72 Stat. 103).

Changes were made in phraseology.

SECTION 6413—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 422b (May 1, 1958, Pub. L. 85-392, § 4, 72 Stat. 103).

Changes were made in phraseology.

SECTION 6413—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 422, 437 (R. S. 3957; July 26, 1892, ch. 249, § 1, 27 Stat. 268; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 2, 54 Stat. 228).

The section consolidates the cited sections of title 39, U. S. C.

The authority to secure transportation service, other than by "general advertisement," contained in sections 422 and 437 of title 39 is stated in subsection (a) of this section. The authority given in section 437 of title 39 to procure immediate service without advertising is covered by subsection (b).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6414—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 434 (R. S. § 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998).

Section 434 has been distributed in this title as follows:

The first paragraph is covered by this section. The paragraph was condensed to eliminate redundant and conflicting language. Changes in phraseology are made.

The second paragraph exclusive of the second proviso is covered by section 6415 of this title. The second proviso of the second paragraph is covered by section 6424 of this title.

The first sentence of the third paragraph is superseded by the Act of May 15, 1916, 39 Stat. 161. The remainder of the third paragraph is covered by section 6407 of this title.

The fourth paragraph, exclusive of the proviso, is covered by section 6422 of this title. The proviso in the fourth paragraph is covered by section 6424 of this title.

The fifth paragraph is covered by section 6425 of this title.

The sixth paragraph is covered by section 6416 of this title.

The seventh paragraph is covered by section 6423 of this title.

SECTION 6415—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 434 (R. S. 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998).

Subsection (a) of this section covers the second paragraph exclusive of the second proviso of section 434, title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed. Subsection (b) covers the provisions of the last sentence of section 1 of the Act of July 26, 1892 (ch. 249, § 1, 27 Stat. 268), with similar provisions in section 434 of title 39. The second proviso of the second paragraph of section 434, making section 440 of title 39, now section 6424 of this title, inapplicable to temporary contracts, is covered by the exception in subsection (c) of section 6424 of this title. For the distribution of the balance of section 434, see the note under section 6414 of this title.

A provision dealing with temporary contracts (paragraph 3 of section 434) is superseded by section 8 of the Act of May 15, 1916, and is therefore omitted.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6416—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 434 (R. S. § 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998; June 15, 1956, ch. 391, 70 Stat. 284).

This section covers the provisions of the sixth paragraph of section 434, title 39. Subsection (a) covers item (1) of the sixth paragraph. Subsection (b) covers item (2) of the sixth paragraph. Subsection (c) covers the last sentence of the sixth paragraph. For the distribution of section 434 see note under section 6414 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6417—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 425 and 428 (R. S. 3944, 3948; June 13, 1898, ch. 446, § 2, 30 Stat. 444; July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; Oct. 25, 1951, ch. 562, § 3 (2), 65 Stat. 639; June 28, 1952, ch. 485, § 1 (3), 66 Stat. 286).

Subsection (a) covers section 425 of title 39. The phrase "in the presence of the Postmaster General and one of the Assistant Postmasters General or of two of the Assistant Postmasters General or of any other two officers of the Department," is changed to read, "in the presence of two or more officers or employees of the Department by reason of sections 1 and 2 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1950, which transferred to the Postmaster General the functions of all officers or agencies in the Department, and authorized the Postmaster General to delegate any of his functions to officers or employees of the Department."

Subsection (b) covers the first sentence of section 428 of title 39. The second sentence of that section is obsolete in view of the Records Disposal Act and amendment for section 7 of title 39, which section is covered by section 709 of this title. Reference to keeping bids in "a book'' and the specifications of what the abstract shall contain is omitted as unnecessary.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6418—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 422a, 426 (R. S. 3945; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 245, 17 Stat. 313; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; June 28, 1952, ch. 485, § 1 (1), 66 Stat. 286; May 1, 1958, Public Law 85-392, 72 Stat. 103).

This section is divided. That part of the first sentence relating to the approval of sureties on bonds is covered by section 6419 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6419—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 422a, 426, 427 (R. S. 3945; 3946; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, §§ 245, 246, 17 Stat. 313; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129, June 28, 1952, ch. 485, § 1 (1-2), 66 Stat. 286; May 1, 1958, Public Law 85-392, 72 Stat. 103).

Section 426 of title 39 was divided. That part of the first sentence relating to the approval of sureties is covered by subsection (a). The remainder of section 426 is covered by section 6418 of this title.

The provisions of section 427 of title 39 are covered by subsections (b) and (c).

Subsection (d) is added to show clearly that subsections (b) and (c) are inapplicable to corporate sureties.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6420—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 52, 425a (R. S. 3850; Feb. 20, 1929, ch. 278, 45 Stat. 1252; June 18, 1930, ch. 526, 46 Stat. 782; June 22, 1934, ch. 713, 48 Stat. 1205; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, sec. 3, 54 Stat. 228).

Subsection (a) covers section 425a of title 39.

Subsection (b) covers the matter preceding the proviso in section 52 of title 39. See section 2008 of this title authorizing rental of vehicles from employees.

To reflect reasoning in Comptroller General decision (8 Comp. Gen. 578, 610) that no group of employees be given preferred treatment all postal employees are covered instead of just "postmasters, assistant postmasters and employees in any post office." The remainder of section 52 is covered by section 2008 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6421—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 432 (R. S. § 3950).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6422—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 434 (R. S. § 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998).

This section covers the provisions of the fourth paragraph of section 434, title 39, U. S. C., except the proviso which is covered by section 6424 of this title. The section is designed for emergency situations not within the scope of section 6423 of this title. For the distribution of section 434, see note under section 6414 of this title.

Authority to prescribe regulations is omitted as covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6423—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 434, 578 (R. S. § 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; Mar. 3, 1887, ch. 346, 24 Stat. 492; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998; Sept. 1, 1954, ch. 1208, title VI, § 604, 68 Stat. 1116; June 15, 1956, ch. 391, 70 Stat. 234).

Subsection (a) of this section is based on the seventh paragraph of section 434, title 39, U. S. C. The authority granted to the Postmaster General to provide regulations is omitted in view of the general authority in section 501 of this title. For the distribution of the balance of that section, see note under section 6414.

Subsection (b) is based on the last sentence of section 578 of title 39. Reference to issuance of regulations is dropped in view of section 501 of this title. The remainder of section 578 is covered by section 6403 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6424—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 434, 440, 442 (R. S. 3960, 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 235, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1339; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39 Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; June 18, 1934, ch. 583, 48 Stat. 992; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998).

Subsections (a), (b), and (c) combine the provisions of sections 440 and 442 of title 39. For uniformity the formula for determining the additional compensation to be paid is conformed, in subsection (b), to the formula stated in section 6422 of this title.

Subsection (d) covers the second proviso of the second paragraph and the proviso of the fourth paragraph of section 434 of title 39, thus making inapplicable to certain agreements the requirement of subsection (c). For the distribution of the balance of that section see the note under section 6414 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6425—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 434 (R. S. 3951; June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216; May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 8, 39, Stat. 161; June 14, 1930, ch. 490, 46 Stat. 588; May 31, 1940, ch. 226, § 1, 54 Stat. 227; June 19, 1948, ch. 500, 62 Stat. 477; June 27, 1950, ch. 370, 64 Stat. 260; Feb. 29, 1952, ch. 69, § 1 (a-c), 66 Stat. 10; Aug. 10, 1954, ch. 662, 68 Stat. 679; Aug. 31, 1954, ch. 1142, 68 Stat. 998).

This section covers the provision of the fifth paragraph of section 434, title 39. For the distribution of section 434, see note under section 6414 of this title.

The phrase "one month's extra pay authorized by law" in the second proviso is restated as "any extra pay provided under his contract or by law. There is no provision of law fixing one month's extra pay but contracts normally provide for such.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6426—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 435 (R. S. 3955; March 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 30, 20 Stat. 362).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6427—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 423a, 423b (Dec. 27, 1950, ch. 1153, §§ 1, 2, 64 Stat. 1118).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6428—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 423c (Dec. 27, 1950, ch. 1153, § 3, 64 Stat. 1118, 1119).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6429—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., §§ 444, 445 (R. S. 3963; May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 2, 20 Stat. 62), and title 46, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 880 (June 5, 1920, ch. 250, § 24, 41 Stat. 998; May 22, 1928, ch. 675, § 414 (a), 45 Stat. 696).

Section 444 of title 39 is a bar to assignment of contracts for the transportation of mail. However, the subsequent enactment of section 445, title 39, permitted subletting or "transfer" of contracts.

This latter enactment, however, did not specifically repeal section 444. The two sections are combined, thus permitting the Postmaster General to approve the subletting assignment or transfer of transportation contracts in individual cases. See section 2207 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6430—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 446 (May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 3, 20 Stat. 62; July 28, 1916, ch. 216, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; June 10, 1921, ch. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24).

The provisions relating to notification and certification to the General Accounting Office are omitted in view of the transfer of accounting and reporting functions from the General Accounting Office to the Postmaster General by section 794 of title 39.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6431—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 447 (May 4, 1882, ch. 116, § 1, 22 Stat. 53).

This section is divided. The last sentence of section 447 of title 39, is covered by section 6436 of this title. The remainder is covered by this section.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6432—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 448 (May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 9, 39 Stat. 162).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6433—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 507 (July 11, 1940, ch. 582, § 3, 54 Stat. 757), and title 46, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 1145 (June 29, 1936, ch. 858, title IV, § 405, 49 Stat. 1995).

This section covers the provisions of section 507 of title 39. The words "unless otherwise provided in his contract" are new. Some common carriers, e. g., bus companies, are reluctant to bid on service that requires use of only one scheduled trip over a small segment of their systems because if they are awarded a contract their entire system is opened to free travel. Whether the contractor is to be required to carry postal personnel should be left to the discretion of the Postmaster General.

For free travel on railroads and airlines see section 6203 of this title and title 49.

This section also covers section 1145 (b) of title 46. The remainder of section 1145 is covered by section 6104 of this title.

The authority given to the Postmaster General to provide rules and regulations is covered by section 501 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6434—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 443 (R. S. 3962; May 11, 1926, ch. 284, 44 Stat. 499; June 13, 1934, ch. 490, 48 Stat. 952).

This section will cover mail transportation contracts including contracts for transportation by vessel beyond the borders of the United States. Fines for carriers operating under informal agreements are covered by section 6435 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6435—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 655 (R. S. 4010; Jan. 31, 1931, ch. 73, 46 Stat. 1049).

This section is divided. That portion relating to aircraft carriers is covered by section 6304 of this title.

The word "contractors" is omitted as adequately covered by section 6434 of this title. Remainder of section is retained in order that "carriers" transporting mails under informal agreements (see sec. 6409 of this title) or pursuant to law (see sec. 6410 of this title) will be covered.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6436—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 447 (May 4, 1882, ch. 116, § 1, 22 Stat. 53).

This section covers the provisions of the last sentence of section 447, title 39. The balance of section 447 is covered by section 6431 of this title.

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6437—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 433 (May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 7, 39 Stat. 161).

Reference to appropriation from which rate is to be paid was changed to make any appropriation for transportation of mail available for this service. There is no separate appropriation for "inland transportation by star routes."

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6438—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 254 (R. S. 3888).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6439—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 439 (R. S. 3959).

Changes are made in phraseology.

SECTION 6440—SECTION REVISED

Based on title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed., § 489 (R. S. 3971).

Changes are made in phraseology.

TABLE 3.—OMITTED LAWS

Showing laws omitted from revised Title 39 of United States Code and included in the Schedule of Repeats

U. S. C., 1952 ed.		Reasons for omission and repeal
Title	Section
5	363	Superseded by §§ 3 and 5, Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949 (63 Stat. 1066) which is covered in § 305 of this revision.
5	364a	Unnecessary provision of law.
5	368	Superseded by § 1, Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949 (63 Stat. 1066).
5	370	Superseded by § 1032, Title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3105, this revision.)
5	382	Superseded by §§ 1, 5, Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949 (63 Stat. 1066).
5	385, 386	Obsolete. The enforcement of affirmative judgments in civil cases is a matter within the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice rather than the Postmaster General.
5	388	Superseded by the Budget and Accounting Procedures Act of 1950 and its predecessor (64 Stat. 832). There has been no Postmaster General Annual Report to Congress for many years. The estimates of revenues and expenditures under the Budg. and Acctg. Pro. Act of 1950 are sent to the President who presents those figures in his Messages to Congress.
5	391	Obsolete. There is no Official Postal Guide.
5	393	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 794f. (See § 2101, this revision.)
31	45	Rendered obsolete by Reorg. Plan No. 3.
39	11a	Obsolete and unnecessary provision.
39	13	Obsolete.
39	31c	Superseded by § 31a, Title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3311, 3314, this revision.)
39	33	Obsolete and unnecessary provision. Is adequately covered by §§ 16a, 97, Title 5, U. S. C. (See § 3103, this revision.)
39	35	Obsolete. Superseded by Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949, §§ 1, 3, 5. These sections abolished numerical designations for Assistant Postmasters General, and gave authority to Postmaster General to delegate his functions. (See §§ 305, 308, this revision.) Also rendered obsolete by § 14 of Title 6.
39	41	Obsolete. Superseded by §§ 794-794 (f), 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., and Records Disposal Act of 1950 (64 Stat. 583). (See §§ 2207, 2208, 2211, 2401, this revision.)
39	48	Obsolete. Superseded by §§ 794-794 (f), 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See sections of this revision cited immediately above.)
39	50	Obsolete. Superseded by Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949, § 1, which authorizes Postmaster General to delegate any of his functions.
39	51	Obsolete and unnecessary. Substance of section is matter of instruction to employees which Postmaster General is required to do under 5 U. S. C. 369, 1952 ed. (See §§ 501, 701, this revision.)
39	53	Superseded by several later acts. Is now covered by 39 U. S. C. 971, 972, 973. (See §§ 3542, 3543, 3544, this revision.)
39	54	Superseded by several later acts. Is now covered by 39 U. S. C. 971, 972, 973. (See §§ 3542, 3543, 3544, this revision.)
39	54a	Superseded by §§ 961, 971, 981, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3542, 3501, this revision.)
39	55	Superseded by later enactments. Is now covered by 39 U. S. C. 971. See § 3542, this revision.)

U. S. C., 1952 ed.		Reasons for omission and repeal
Title	Section
39	57	Superseded by several later acts. Is now covered by 39 U. S. C. 973. (See § 3544, this revision.)
39	57a	Obsolete. Superseded by § 857, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which in turn was superseded by § 1001, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3541, this revision.)
39	57b	Superseded by §§ 973, 1031, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 702, 3544, this revision.)
39	57c	Superseded by § 973, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 702, 3544, this revision.)
39	58	Superseded by § 973, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 702, 3544, this revision.)
39	59	Superseded by § 973, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 702, 3544, this revision.)
39	60	Superseded by § 973, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 702, 3544, this revision.)
39	60a	Superseded by § 1010, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3544, this revision.)
39	61	Superseded. First two clauses superseded by §§ 961, 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3333, 3501, this revision.) Third clause superseded by § 794, 1952 ed. (See §§ 2207, 2208, this revision.)
39	62	Obsolete and unnecessary. This prohibition adequately covered by 18 U. S. C. 648, 649.
39	63	Superseded by §§ 961, 971, 973, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3542, 3544, this revision.)
39	64	Obsolete and unnecessary provision. Sufficient authority exists in appropriation acts and § 794a, title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 2202, this revision) and other laws.
39	65	Superseded by Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949 (63 Stat. 1066), and 794, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 2207, 2208, 2401, this revision.)
39	66	Superseded by § 794, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 2207, 2208, 2401, this revision.)
39	67	Unnecessary provision in view of Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1949 (63 Stat. 1066).
39	68	Superseded by annual and sick leave laws, § 2061 et seq., 5 U. S. C.
39	81	Superseded by later acts which provided for appointment of clerks in third class offices as employees and provided annual salaries for them. (See §§ 3513 and 3542, this revision.)
39	83	Obsolete and unnecessary provision. Employees in third class offices are now employees of the Department and not the postmaster for which the latter heretofore received an allowance. Compensation of such employees is fixed under Part 3 of this revision. Section 961, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., authorizes the Postmaster General to determine personnel requirements of the postal field service. (See § 3301, this revision.)
39	84	Superseded by § 961, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., authorizing the Postmaster General to determine personnel requirements for the postal field service. (See §§ 3301, 3501, this revision.)
39	85	Covered by 31 U. S. C., 695 and Appropriations Acts.
39	86	These pay provisions superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3542, 3552, this revision.)
39	87	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3301, this revision.)
39	88	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	89	Same comment as next above.
39	90	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	91	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3301, 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	92	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)

39	95	Same comment as next above.
39	96	Superseded by § 858, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which in turn was superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, 3542, this revision.)
39	97	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, this revision.)
39	98	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	99	Superseded by the Travel and Expense Act of 1949 (5 U. S. C. 835).
39	100	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	101	Same comment as next above.
39	102	Obsolete. Appropriations for Post Office Department no longer itemized to place a ceiling on number of employees. Probably also superseded by Anti-Deficiency Act.
39	103	Same comment as for 39-100.
39	103a	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, this revision.)
39	104	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3552, 3553, this revision.)
39	105	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3542, this revision.)
39	106	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3515, 3542, this revision.)
39	107	Superseded but re-enacted by later acts. (See § 3552, this revision.)
39	108	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3552, 3559, this revision.)
39	110	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	111	Superseded by § 861a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which was in turn superseded by §§ 961, 963, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, 3511-3531, this revision.)

39	124	Superseded by § 1006, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3302, 3572, this revision.)
39	125	Superseded by § 1003, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3573, this revision.)
39	126	Superseded by §§ 961, 1006, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3302, 3501, 3572, this revision.)
39	127	Superseded. Same comment as for § 126, immediately above.
39	129	Superseded by §§ 962, 963, 964, 992, 39 U. S. C. (See §§ 3333, 3335, 3502, 3511-3531, 3559 of this revision.)
39	130	Superseded by §§ 981, 982, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3552, 3553, this revision.)
39	131	Executed. Similar savings provisions covered in later enactments.
39	133	Obsolete. Superseded by § 853, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which in turn was superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 973, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, 3544, this revision.)
39	136	Superseded by § 964, title 39. (See § 3325, this revision.)
39	137	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	139	Same comment as next above.
39	139a	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3552, 3559, this revision.)
39	140	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3514, this revision.)
39	153b	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 992, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3333, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, 3559, this revision.)
39	163	Obsolete. The provisions relating to the accounts to be maintained were superseded by § 794, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 2207, 2208, 2401, this revision.) The remainder is obsolete in view of the Annual Appropriations Acts for the Department, which appropriate moneys necessary for the expense of the Postal Service, and the Anti-Deficiency Act.
39	168	Superseded by 39, 276d. (See § 6006, this revision, and the revision note thereunder.)
39	170	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3515, this revision.)
39	175	Superseded by later enactments. (See § 3542, this revision.)
39	176	Superseded by later enactments. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	192	Obsolete. The Act of Feb. 28, 1925 (43 Stat. 1063), abolished the distinction between horsedrawn and motor driven routes. Section 867, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., removed the limitation limiting rural routes to 50 miles in length. This latter section in turn was superseded by § 972, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3543, this revision.) (See also 4 Comp. Gen. 862.)
39	193	Obsolete. Same note as for § 192, immediately above.
39	197	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3543, this revision.)
39	197a	Savings provision executed. Similar savings provisions in later acts.
39	198	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3543, this revision.)
39	200	This section in conflict with § 1001 (d) which provides the methods of computing rates of compensation other than annual rates. (See § 3541, this revision.)
39	201	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3302, this revision.)
39	202	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3543, this revision.)
39	203	Superseded by Annual and Sick Leave Act, Chapter 23, Title 5.
39	204	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 972, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3333, 3501, 3511-3531, 3543, this revision.)

39	301	Executed.
39	322	Section considered obsolete since Members of Congress are authorized to use frank for their official correspondence.
39	328	Superseded but covered by §§ 4151-4167, this revision.
39	332	Section unnecessary in view of broad provisions with respect to the franking of mail. (See §§ 4151-4167, this revision.)
39	333	Superseded by §§ 321 (e11) and 321 (k). (See § 4158, this revision)
39	334	Superseded by § 321 (k), 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 4158; this revision.)
39	353	Obsolete. This provision is adequately covered by 31 U. S. C. 686, which provides that for services performed by one Government agency for another there must be paid the actual cost of performing such services.
39	359	Unnecessary. This section makes it discretionary with Postmaster General as to whether contractors should be required to make delivery at various points in the United States. Under his general contracting authority the Postmaster General can stipulate in his advertisement the conditions with respect to delivery. (See chapter 21 of this revision.)
39	361	Omitted as unnecessary. There is no point in having a post office unless stamps and envelopes are for sale there. The accountability of postmasters is covered by §§ 794-794 (f), 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 2207, 2209, this revision.)
39	363	Obsolete. Section has long outlived its usefulness in view of many postal facilities throughout United States. Stamps are now so readily available to the members of the public that this section is not now needed.
39	366	Obsolete and unnecessary. Section 365, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (see § 2507, this revision), authorizes Postmaster General to direct the manner in which stamps shall be cancelled. It is implicit in that section that stamps be defaced so that they may not be reused. The matter of reporting delinquencies falls within the authority of the Postmaster General to issue regulations. (See § 501, this revision.)
39	369	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 370. (See § 2507, this revision.)
39	382	Unnecessary. Under Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949, the Postmaster General may delegate his official functions.
39	383	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 381. (See § 5001, this revision.)
39	384	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 387, which in turn is superseded in part by 39 U. S. C. 246f. (See §§ 507, 5001, 5005, this revision.)
39	386	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 388a. (See § 5010, this revision.)
39	388	See note above.
39	401	This section and §§ 402, 403, 404, 405 authorize Postmaster General, when he deems it to be in the public interest, to publish a list of non-delivered letters. This authority has not been exercised for more than 30 years. Letters which cannot be delivered are required by law to be sent to dead letter offices where effort is made to identify sender or addressee. Letters which contain enclosures of value are recorded pursuant to § 408, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 4107-4108, this revision.) The same section authorizes disposal of undelivered letters in such manner as Postmaster General deems proper.
39	402	Same comment as above.
39	403	Same comment as above.
39	404	Same comment as above.
39	405	Same comment as above.
39	431	Section rendered obsolete by Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949 (63 Stat. 1066).
39	438	Section rendered obsolete by § 434, 39 U. S. C. 1952 ed. (see §§ 6422-6424, this revision, and by § 442, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (see § 6424, this revision).
39	441	Section rendered obsolete by § 434, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 6423, 6424, this revision.)
39	461	Section omitted. Short titles not needed.
39	463	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 463a. (See § 4303, this revision.)
39	466	Temporary provision executed.
39	467	See note above.
39	469f	Section has been executed.
39	508	Section omitted. Authority to issue regulations fully covered by § 501, this revision.
39	524	Omitted as an obsolete provision of law. The act of July 16, 1916, delegated authority to the Postmaster General to prescribe the service to be rendered by railroad common carriers, and delegated authority to Interstate Commerce Commission to fix and determine the applicable rates. Thus the definition of service and the rates prescribed by Congress were operative only during the interim until the authority was exercised initially by the Postmaster General and the Commission.
39	526	Omitted. Same comment as for § 524, immediately above.
39	527	Omitted. Same comment as for § 524, above.
39	528	Omitted. Same comment as for § 524, above.

U. S. C., 1952 ed.		Reasons for omission and repeal
Title	Section
39	530	Omitted. Same comment as for § 524, above.
39	531	Omitted. Same comment as for § 524, above.
39	532	Omitted. Same comment as for § 524, above.
39	533	Omitted. Same comment as for § 524, above.
39	534	Omitted. The Interstate Commerce Commission, under its broad statutory power to fix railroad mail pay (§ 542, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed.—§ 6208 of this revision) has the authority, without the express authorization of §§ 534 and 535, 39 U. S. C., which were enacted for temporary application, to determine whether a system of round-trip rates should be prescribed or discontinued. (Railway Mail Pay, 56 I. C. C. 1, 78; 283 I. C. C. 503, 545-546.)
39	535	Omitted. Same comment as for § 534.
39	536	Superseded by 49 U. S. C. 65, 1952 ed.
39	541-1	This section was a provision in an appropriation act. The Attorney General held that it was temporary legislation (27 Op. AG. 108).
39	550	This section executed.
39	552	Superseded by 49 U. S. C. 65.
39	569	This section last appeared in the Appropriations Act of Apr. 24, 1920. The Interstate Commerce Commission rendered its decision establishing rates and methods of pay for transportation of mail by electric railway common carriers on Aug. 7, 1920, pursuant to the authority in 39 U. S. C. 570. (See §§ 6207, 6208 of this revision.) This action superseded the statutory rates applicable to such transportation. (See 58 I. C. C. 455.)
39	572	Omitted as an obsolete provision of law in that it relates to the specific rate basis of pay applicable to transportation of mail by railroad prior to the assumption of jurisdiction by I. C. C. under 39 I. C. C. 542. (See § 6208 of this revision.)
39	574	Same comment as for § 569, above.
39	575	Same comment as for § 569, above.
39	601	Superseded by §§ 835-842, title 5, U. S. C., 1952 ed.
39	602	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	602a	See note above.
39	603	Superseded. Same comment as for § 601, above.
39	604	Superseded. Same comment as for § 601, above.
39	605	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, this revision.)
39	606	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	607	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3552, 3559, this revision.)
39	607a	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3571-3573, this revision.)
39	608	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501, 3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	609	Superseded by §§ 861, 866, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which in turn were superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 1007, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3333, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, 3581, this revision.)
39	610	See note above.
39	611	Superseded by § 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3333, 3542 this revision.)
39	612	This section executed.
39	613	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3581, this revision.)
39	614	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3552, 3581, this revision.)
39	615	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3581, this revision.)
39	616	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3573, this revision.)
39	617	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, 3552, this revision.)
39	618	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3501-3531, this revision.)
39	618a	This section superseded by §§ 861a and 866, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which in turn were superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 1007, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3333, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, 3581 this revision.)
39	619	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501 3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	621	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, 3552, 3559, this revision.)
39	622	See note above.
39	623	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3542, 3552, 3558, 3559, this revision.)
39	626	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 992, 1952 ed. (See § 3559, this revision, which makes all employees eligible for promotion except as limited therein.)
39	628	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3552, 3559, this revision.)
39	629	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3571, 3573, 3575, this revision.)
39	633	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3581, this revision.)
39	634	Section executed.
39	635	Superseded by later acts and the Annual and Sick Leave Act, 5 U. S. C. 2061.
39	636	Superseded by § 1007, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3581, this revision.)
39	637	Superseded by the annual and sick leave laws and by § 861a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which section was in turn superseded by §§ 961, 971, 1006, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3302, 3501, 3542, this revision.)
39	640	Superseded by §§ 964, 971, 981, 984, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3302, 3542, this revision.)
39	670	Obsolete. In view of provisions of international agreements regarding exchange of diplomatic mails and other provisions relating to collection and payment of postage, this is an unnecessary provision of law.
39	691	Superseded by §§ 835-842, 5 U. S. C., 1952 ed.
39	692	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, this revision.)
39	693	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, 3552, this revision.)
39	693a	See note above.
39	694	Superseded by §§ 835-842, title 5, U. S. C., and § 820, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3331, this revision.)

Showing laws omitted from revised Title 39 of United States Code and included in the Schedule of Repeats—Continued

U. S. C., 1952 ed.		Reasons for omission and repeal
Title	Section
39	695	Obsolete.
39	697	Obsolete. Superseded by § 1032, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3105, this revision.)
39	698	See note above.
39	699	Superseded by §§ 971, 1006, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3302, 3542, this revision.)
39	702	Superseded by later acts which contain similar provisions. Is in the nature of a savings provision which has been executed.
39	716	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 716a. (See § 5102, this revision.)
39	717	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	719	Obsolete and unnecessary provision. The substance of this section falls within the general authority given to the Postmaster General to establish and maintain a money order system. (See § 2005, this revision.)
39	721	Obsolete and unnecessary. If "limited" money order offices are needed such may be accomplished under § 738a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 5105, this revision.)
39	722	Omitted. Adequately covered by § 501, this revision, and Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949.
39	725	Superseded by § 246f, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 507, this revision.)
39	726	Superseded. See comments under § 725 above.
39	733	Rendered obsolete by §§ 794, 794a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 2202, 2207, 2208, 2401, this revision.)
39	734	Obsolete. See note immediately above under § 733.
39	735	Rendered obsolete by Reorg. Plan No. 3, 1949, and §§ 794 and 794a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See notes under § 733 above.)
39	736	Obsolete. See notes under § 733 above.
39	737	Superseded by § 528, 31 U. S. C., 1952 ed.
39	738	Superseded by 39 U. S. C. 738a. (See § 5105, this revision.)
39	752	Omitted as unnecessary. Fully covered by § 4152 of this revision.
39	760	Superseded by §§ 757c (f), 31 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which provides that no bonds shall be issued under § 760 of title 39 after July 1, 1935.
39	761	Obsolete. This provision of law has been obsolete, for all practical purposes, for many years, since the present size of the various public debt issues outstanding, and the call provisions of such bonds, make it impracticable to give effect to the provision. In view of the broad market for public debt obligations, any funds of the postal savings system available for investment may be used for that purpose by purchasing securities in the market.
39	763	Superseded by §§ 858, 861a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which were in turn superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3333, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	764	Obsolete. For definition of duties see § 3501, this revision.
39	770	Note executed.
39	781	Superseded by § 794, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 2207, 2208, 2401, this revision.)
39	794e	This section has been executed.
39	794g	This section has been executed.
39	801	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3501-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	806	Obsolete. There is no specific appropriation for preparation and publication of post route maps. The provisions with respect to accounting and payment of salaries have been superseded by §§ 794, 794a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 2202, 2207, 2208, 2401, this revision.)
39	807	This section superseded by 44 U. S. C. 111.
39	809a	Temporary legislation. Contained in appropriations act. Last appearing in 1948.
39	810	This section obsolete and unnecessary. The broad powers of the Postmaster General authorize him to furnish equipment and supplies. (See §§ 2001, 2004, this revision.)
39	811	Section superseded by 5 U. S. C. 98.
39	814	Section superseded by 6 U. S. C. 14.
39	815	Rendered obsolete by 6 U. S. C. 14. Employees no longer furnish bonds. Bonds heretofore furnished by them have been cancelled as of date of new Government bond.
39	816	Section superseded by the provisions of Chapter 15, Title 5, U. S. C. Also probably superseded by the annual and sick leave laws.
39	817	Superseded by §§ 961, 1006, Title 39, U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3302, 3501, 3572, this revision.)
39	818	Superseded by provisions of the Universal Military Training Act, § 459, 50 Appendix, U. S. C.
39	819	Section obsolete and unnecessary. Fully and adequately covered by Civil Service rules.
39	821	Superseded by § 861a, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which in turn superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	822	Superseded by later acts. (See § 3541, this revision.)
39	823	Superseded by the Annual and Sick Leave Act, 5 U. S. C. 2061.
39	823a	See note above.
39	824	See note above.
39	824a	See note above.
39	824b	See note above.
39	824c	See note above.
39	824d	See note above.
39	824e	See note above.
39	825	Obsolete. In conflict with 18 U. S. C. 3231 and 28 U. S. C. 1339.
39	827	Temporary experimental legislation. Expired.
39	828	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3542, 3574, 3575, this revision.)
39	831	Superseded by later acts. (See §§ 3571, 3573, 3575, 3581, this revision.)

Title	Section
39	832	See note above.
39	833	Superseded by § 834, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which in turn was superseded by § 1006, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3302, 3572, this revision.)
39	834	Superseded by § 1006, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3302, 3572, this revision.)
39	835	Temporary legislation expired.
39	836	See note above.
39	848	This section was temporary legislation. The substance is now covered by §§ 821-840, 5 U. S. C.
39	848a	This section was held to be temporary legislation by the Comptroller General in his Decision B-113685, Feb. 11, 1953.
39	851	This section taken from Public Law 134, July 6, 1945 (59 Stat. 435). Rendered obsolete by passage of Public Law 68 approved June 10, 1955 (69 Stat. 88). (See §§ 1, 3101, this revision.)
39	852	Superseded by §§ 1002, 1005, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3571, 3575, this revision.)
39	853	Superseded by §§ 1003, 1005, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3575, this revision.)
39	854	Superseded by §§ 1003, 1005, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3573, this revision.)
39	855	Superseded by §§ 1004, 1005, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3574, this revision.)
39	856a	Section superseded by 5 U. S. C. 2061, et seq.
39	856b	Section superseded and reenacted by § 973, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 702, 3544, this revision.)
39	857	Section superseded by § 1001, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3541, this revision.)
39	858	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, this revision.)
39	859	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See sections of this revision cited under § 858 above.)
39	861	Subsection (a) superseded by § 961, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, this revision.) Subsection (b) superseded but reenacted by § 992 (b), 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See § 3559, this revision.)
39	861a	Superseded by §§ 971, 972, 39 U. S. C., 1952. (See §§ 3333, 3542, 3543, this revision.)
39	861b	Section has been executed.
39	862	Superseded by §§ 961, 963, 971, 981, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3301, 3501, 3511-3531, 3542, 3552, 3556, 3557, this revision.)
39	862a	Section superseded by §§ 971, 982, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3542, 3553, this revision.) and §§ 974, 983, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed., which sections have been executed.
39	862b	Superseded by § 981, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3333, 3542, 3556, 3557, this revision.)
39	862c	Superseded by § 981, 39 U. S. C., 1952 ed. (See §§ 3333, 3542, 3556, 3557, this revision.)

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with subsection (4) of rule XXIX of the Standing Rules of the Senate, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows:

The Revised Statutes, set out first, are in numerical order according to number. The Statutes at Large follow in chronological order.

The citation in the left-hand column identifies the text of the Revised Statutes or Statutes at Large which immediately follows that reference; that in the right-hand column refers to the section of proposed title 39, "The Postal Service," of the United States Code, where similar subject matter will be found. The word "omitted" in the right-hand column indicates that the particular text of such statute was not incorporated in proposed title 39 because it was obsolete, executed, covered by other law, or superseded by later law. The specific reasons for omitting and repealing such statutes are given in the omitted laws tables, elsewhere in this report.

REVISED STATUTES

R. S. 388----- T. 39, §§ 301, 302

There shall be at the seat of Government an Executive Department to be known as the Post-Office Department, and a Postmaster-General, who shall be the head thereof, and who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who may be removed in the same manner; and the term of the Postmaster-General shall be for and during the term of the President by whom he is appointed, and for one month thereafter, unless sooner removed.

R. S. 389----- Omitted (Table 3)

There shall be in the Post-Office Department three Assistant Postmasters-General, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who may be removed in the same manner, and who shall be entitled to a salary of four thousand dollars a year each.

R. S. 390----- T. 39, § 307

There shall be employed in the Post-Office Department one Assistant Attorney-General, who shall be appointed by the Postmaster-General, and shall be entitled to a salary of four thousand dollars a year.

R. S. 391----- T. 39, § 3103

Before entering upon the duties of his office, and before he shall receive any salary, the Postmaster-General and each of the persons employed in the postal service shall respectively take and subscribe before some magistrate or other competent officer, the following oath: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me, and abstain from everything forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of post-offices and post-roads within the United States; and that I will honestly and truly account for and pay over any money belonging to the said United States which may come into my possession or control: So help me, God."

R. S. 392----- T. 39, § 3103

Any officer, civil or military, holding a commission under the United States, is authorized to administer and certify the oath prescribed by the preceding section.

R. S. 395----- T. 39, § 303

The Postmaster-General shall keep the seal heretofore adopted for his Department, which shall be affixed to all commissions of postmasters and others, and used to authenticate all transcripts and copies which may be required from his Department.

- R. S. 396----- T. 39, §§ 501, 701
 It shall be the duty of the Postmaster-General:
 First. To establish and discontinue post-offices.
 Second. To instruct all persons in the postal service with reference to their duties.
 Third. To decide on the forms of all official papers.
 Fourth. To prescribe the manner of keeping and stating accounts.
 Fifth. To enforce the prompt rendition of returns relative to accounts.
 Sixth. To control, according to law, and subject to the settlement of the Sixth Auditor, all expenses incident to the service of the Department.
 Seventh. To superintend the disposal of the moneys of the Department.
 Eighth. To direct the manner in which balances shall be paid over; issue warrants to cover money into the Treasury; and to pay out the same.
 Ninth. To superintend generally the business of the Department, and execute all laws relative to the postal service.
- R. S. 398----- T. 39, § 505
 For the purpose of making better postal arrangements with foreign countries, or to counteract their adverse measures affecting our postal intercourse with them, the Postmaster-General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, may negotiate and conclude postal treaties or conventions, and may reduce or increase the rates of postage on mail-matter conveyed between the United States and foreign countries.
- R. S. 399----- T. 39, § 505
 The Postmaster-General shall transmit a copy of each postal convention concluded with foreign governments to the Secretary of State, who shall furnish a copy of the same to the Congressional Printer for publication; and the printed proof-sheets of all such conventions shall be revised at the Post-Office Department.
- R. S. 400----- T. 39, § 503
 The Postmaster-General may establish a blank-agency for the Post-Office Department, to be located at Washington, District of Columbia.
- R. S. 401----- T. 39, § 4104
 The action of the Post-Office Department respecting foreign dead-letters shall be subject to conventional stipulations with the respective foreign administrations.
- R. S. 402----- T. 39, § 2205
 Every order, entry, or memorandum whatever, on which any action is to be based, allowance made, or money paid, and every contract, paper, or obligation made by or with the Post-Office Department, shall have its true date affixed to it; and every paper relating to contracts or allowances filed in the Department shall have the date when it was filed indorsed upon it.
- R. S. 403----- T. 39, § 2002
 All bonds taken and contracts entered into by the Post-Office Department shall be made to and with the United States of America.
- R. S. 404----- Omitted (Table 3)
 The Postmaster-General shall deliver to the Sixth Auditor, within sixty days after the making of any contract for carrying the mail, a duplicate copy thereof.
- R. S. 409----- T. 39, § 2401
 In all cases of fine, penalty, forfeiture, or disability, or alleged liability for any sum of money by way of damages or otherwise, under any provision of law in relation to the officers, employes, operations, or business of the postal service, the Postmaster-General may prescribe such general rules and modes of proceeding as shall appear to be expedient, for the government of the Sixth Auditor, in ascertaining the fact in each case in which the Auditor shall certify to him that the interests of the Department probably require the exercise of his powers over fines, penalties, forfeitures, and liabilities; and upon the fact being ascertained, the Auditor may, with the written consent of the Postmaster-General, mitigate or remit such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, remove such disability, or compromise, release, or discharge such claim for such sum of money and damages, and on such terms as the Auditor shall deem just and expedient.

R. S. 410----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster General may discharge from imprisonment any person confined in jail on any judgment in a civil case, obtained in behalf of the Department, if it be made to appear that the defendant has no property of any description.

R. S. 411----- Omitted (Table 3)

The release provided for by the preceding section shall not bar a subsequent execution against the property of the defendant on the same judgment.

R. S. 924----- T. 28, § 2710

In all cases where debts are due from defaulting or delinquent postmasters, contractors, or other officers, agents, or employes of the Post-Office Department, a warrant of attachment may issue against all real and personal property and legal and equitable rights belonging to such officer, agent, or employe, and his sureties, or either of them, in the following cases :

First. When such officer, agent, or employe, and his sureties, or either of them, is a non-resident of the district where such officer, agent, or employe was appointed, or has departed from such district for the purpose of permanently residing out of the same, or of defrauding the United States, or of avoiding the service of civil process.

Second. When such officer, agent, or employe, and his sureties, or either of them, has conveyed away, or is about to convey away his property, or any part thereof, or has removed or is about to remove the same or any part thereof from the district wherein it is situate, with intent to defraud the United States.

And when any such property has been removed, certified copies of the warrant may be sent to the marshal of the district into which the same has been removed, under which certified copies he may seize said property and convey it to some convenient point within the jurisdiction of the court from which the warrant originally issued. And alias warrants may be issued in such cases upon due application, and the validity of the warrant first issued shall continue until the return day thereof.

R. S. 925----- T. 28, § 2711

Application for such warrant of attachment may be made by any district or assistant district attorney, or any other person authorized by the Postmaster-General, before the judge, or, in his absence, before the clerk of any court of the United States having original jurisdiction of the cause of action. And such application shall be made upon an affidavit of the applicant, or of some other credible person, stating the existence of either of the grounds of attachment enumerated in the preceding section, and upon production of legal evidence of the debt.

R. S. 926----- T. 28, § 2712

Upon any such application and upon due order of any judge of the court, or, in his absence, without such order, the clerk shall issue a warrant for the attachment of all the property of any kind belonging to the person specified in the affidavit, which warrant shall be executed with all possible dispatch by the marshal, who shall take the property attached, if personal, into his custody, and hold the same subject to all interlocutory or final orders of the court.

R. S. 927----- T. 28, § 2713

At any time within twenty days before the return day of such warrant, the party whose property is attached may, on giving notice to the district attorney of his intention, file a plea in abatement, traversing the allegations of the affidavit, or denying the ownership of the property attached to be in the defendants or either of them; in which case the court may, upon application of either party, order an immediate trial by jury of the issues raised by the affidavit and plea; but the parties may, by consent, waive a trial by jury, in which case the court shall decide the issues raised. And any party claiming ownership of the property attached and a specific return thereof, shall be confined to the remedy herein afforded, but his right to an action of trespass, or other action for damages, shall not be impaired hereby.

R. S. 928----- T. 28, § 2714

When the property attached is sold on any interlocutory order of the court or is producing any revenue, the money arising from such sale or revenue shall be invested in securities of the United States, under the order of the court, and all accretions shall be held subject to the orders of the same.

R. S. 929----- T. 28, § 2715

Immediately upon the execution of any such warrant of attachment, the marshal shall cause due publication thereof to be made, in the case of absconding debtors for two months and of non-residents for four months. The publication shall be made in some newspaper published in the district where the property is situate, and the details thereof shall be regulated by the order under which the warrant is issued.

R. S. 930----- T. 28, § 2716

After the first publication of such notice of attachment as required by law, every person indebted to, or having possession of any property belonging to, the said defendants, or either of them, and having knowledge of such notice, shall account and answer for the amount of such debt and the value of such property; and any disposal or attempt to dispose of any such property, to the injury of the United States, shall be illegal and void. And when the person indebted to, or having possession of the property of, such defendants, or either of them, is known to the district attorney or marshal, such officer shall see that personal notice of the attachment is served upon such person, but the want of such notice shall not invalidate the attachment.

R. S. 931----- T. 28, § 2717

Upon application of the party whose property has been attached, the court, or any judge thereof, may discharge the warrant of attachment as to the property of the applicant, provided such applicant shall execute to the United States a good and sufficient penal bond, in double the value of the property attached, to be approved by a judge of the court, and with condition for the return of said property, or to answer any judgment which may be rendered by the court in the premises.

R. S. 932----- Omitted (Table 3)

Nothing contained in the preceding eight sections shall be construed to limit or abridge, in any manner, such rights of the United States as have accrued or been allowed in any district under the former practice of, or the adoption of State laws by, the United States courts.

R. S. 964----- T. 28, § 2718

In all suits for balances due to the Post-Office Department, interest thereon shall be recovered, from the time of the default, at the rate of six per centum a year.

R. S. 3803----- Omitted (Table 3A)

The Secretary of State shall furnish the Congressional Printer with a correct copy of every act and joint resolution as soon as possible after its approval by the President of the United States, or after it shall have become a law in accordance with the Constitution without such approval; and also of every treaty between the United States and any foreign government after it shall have been duly ratified and proclaimed by the President, and of every postal convention made between the Postmaster-General, by and with the advice and consent of the President, on the part of the United States, and equivalent officers of foreign governments on the part of their respective countries.

R. S. 3804----- Omitted (Table 3A)

The Postmaster-General shall transmit a copy of every postal convention to the Secretary of State for the purpose of being printed, and the printed copy thereof shall be revised by the Post-Office Department instead of by the Secretary of State.

R. S. 3829----- T. 39, § 701

The Postmaster-General shall establish post-offices at all such places on post-roads established by law as he may deem expedient, and he shall promptly certify such establishment to the Sixth Auditor.

R. S. 3830----- Omitted (Table 3A)

Postmasters of the fourth and fifth class shall be appointed and may be removed by the Postmaster-General, and all others shall be appointed and may be removed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their offices for four years unless sooner removed or suspended according to law. All appointments and removals shall be notified to the Sixth Auditor.

R. S. 3833----- Omitted (Table 3)

All causes of action arising under the postal laws may be sued, and all offenders against the same may be prosecuted, before the justices of the peace, magistrates, or other judicial courts of the several States and Territories having competent jurisdiction by the laws thereof, to the trial of claims and demands of as great value, and of prosecutions where the punishments are of as great extent; and such justices, magistrates, or judiciary shall take cognizance thereof, and proceed to judgment and execution as in other cases.

R. S. 3834----- T. 39, § 502

Every postmaster, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond, with good and approved security, and in such penalty as the Postmaster-General shall deem sufficient, conditioned for the faithful discharge of all duties and trusts imposed on him either by law or the rules and regulations of the Department; and where an office is designated as a money-order office, the bond of the postmaster shall contain an additional condition for the faithful performance of all duties and obligations in connection with the money-order business. On the death, resignation, or removal of a postmaster, his bond shall be delivered to the Sixth Auditor. The bond of any married woman who may be appointed postmaster shall be binding upon her and her sureties, and she shall be liable for misconduct in office as if she were sole.

R. S. 3835----- T. 39, §§ 502, 2405

Whenever any postmaster is required to execute a new bond, all payments made by him after the execution of such new bond may, if the Postmaster-General or the Sixth Auditor deem it just, be applied first to discharge any balance which may be due from such postmaster under his old bond.

R. S. 3836----- T. 39, §§ 2209, 3315

Whenever the office of any postmaster becomes vacant, the Postmaster-General or the President shall supply such vacancy without delay, and the Postmaster-General shall promptly notify the Sixth Auditor of the change; and every postmaster and his sureties shall be responsible under their bond for the safe-keeping of the public property of the post-office, and the due performance of the duties thereof, until the expiration of the commission, or until a successor has been duly appointed and qualified, and has taken possession of the office; except that in cases where there is a delay of sixty days in supplying a vacancy, the sureties may terminate their responsibility by giving notice, in writing, to the Postmaster-General, such termination to take effect ten days after sufficient time shall have elapsed to receive a reply from the Postmaster-General; and the Postmaster-General may, when the exigencies of the service require, place such office in charge of a special agent until the vacancy can be regularly filled; and when such special agent shall have taken charge of such post-office, the liability of the sureties of the postmaster shall cease.

R. S. 3838----- T. 39, § 2406

If on the settlement of the account of any postmaster it shall appear that he is indebted to the United States, and suit therefor shall not be instituted within three years after the close of such account, the sureties on his bond shall not be liable for such indebtedness.

R. S. 3839----- T. 39, § 707

Every postmaster shall keep an office in which one or more persons shall be on duty during such hours of each day as the Postmaster-General may direct, for the purpose of receiving, delivering, making up, and forwarding all mail-matter received thereat.

R. S. 3840----- T. 39, § 710

All letters brought to any post-office half an hour before the time for the departure of the mail shall be forwarded therein; but at offices where, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, more time for making up the mail is required, he may prescribe accordingly, not exceeding one hour.

R. S. 3841----- T. 39, § 709

The Postmaster-General shall furnish to the postmasters at the termination of each route a schedule of the time of arrival and departure of the mail at their offices, respectively, to be posted in a conspicuous place in the office; and he shall also give them notice of any change in the arrival and departure that may be ordered; and he shall cause to be kept and returned to the Department, at short and regular intervals, registers, showing the exact times of the arrivals and departures of the mail.

R. S. 3842----- Omitted (Table 3)

Every postmaster shall keep a record, in such form as the Postmaster-General shall direct, of all postage-stamps, envelopes, postal books, blanks, and property received from his predecessor, or from the Department or any of its agents; of all receipts in money for postages and box-rents, and of all other receipts on account of the postal service, and of any other transactions which may be required by the Postmaster-General; and these records shall be preserved and delivered to his successor, and shall be at all times subject to examination by any special agent of the Department.

R. S. 3843----- T. 39, § 2208

Every postmaster shall render to the Postmaster-General, under oath, and in such form as the latter shall prescribe, a quarterly account of all moneys received or charged by him or at his office, for postage, rent of boxes or other receptacles for mail-matter, or by reason of keeping a branch office, or for the delivery of mail-matter in any manner whatever.

R. S. 3844----- T. 39, § 2208

The Postmaster-General may require a sworn statement to accompany each quarterly account of a postmaster, to the effect that such account contains a true statement of the entire amount of postage, box-rents, charges, and moneys collected or received at his office during the quarter; that he has not knowingly delivered, or permitted to be delivered, any mail-matter on which the postage was not at the time paid; that such account exhibits truly and faithfully the entire receipts collected at his office, and which, by due diligence, could have been collected; and that the credits he claims are just and right.

R. S. 3845----- T. 39, § 2404

Whenever any postmaster neglects to render his accounts for one month after the time, and in the form and manner prescribed by law and the regulations of the Postmaster-General, he and his sureties shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the gross receipts at such office during any previous or subsequent equal period of time; and if, at the time of trial, no account has been rendered, they shall be liable to a penalty of such sum as the court and jury shall estimate to be equivalent thereto, to be recovered in an action on the bond.

R. S. 3846----- T. 39, § 2209

Postmasters shall keep safely, without loaning, using, depositing in an unauthorized bank, or exchanging for other funds, all the public money collected by them, or which may come into their possession, until it is ordered by the Postmaster-General to be transferred or paid out.

R. S. 3847----- T. 39, § 2209

Any postmaster, having public money belonging to the Government, at an office within a county where there are no designated depositaries, treasurers of mints, or Treasurer or assistant treasurers of the United States, may deposit the same, at his own risk and in his official capacity, in any national bank in the town, city, or county where the said postmaster resides; but no authority or permission is or shall be given for the demand or receipt by the postmaster, or any other person, of interest, directly or indirectly, on any deposit made as herein described; and every postmaster who makes any such deposit shall report quarterly to the Postmaster-General the name of the bank where such deposits have been made, and also state the amount which may stand at the time to his credit.

R. S. 3848----- Omitted (Table 3)

The postmaster at Washington, and postmasters at cities where there is an assistant treasurer, shall deposit the postal revenues and all money accruing at their office, with such assistant treasurer, as often as once a week at least, and as much oftener as the Postmaster-General may direct.

R. S. 3849----- Omitted

Every postmaster shall promptly report to the Postmaster-General every delinquency, neglect, or malpractice of the contractors, their agents or carriers, which comes to his knowledge.

R. S. 3850----- T. 39, §§ 2008, 6420

No postmaster, assistant postmaster, or clerk employed in any post-office shall be a contractor or concerned in any contract for carrying the mail.

R. S. 3856----- Omitted (Table 3A)

The Postmaster-General shall make all orders assigning or changing the salaries of postmasters in writing, and record them in his journal, and notify the change to the Sixth Auditor; and any change made in such salaries shall not take effect until the first day of the quarter next following such order. But in cases of an extraordinary crease or decrease in the business of any post-office, the Postmaster-General may adjust the salary of the postmaster at such post-office, to take effect from the first day of the quarter or period the returns for which form the basis of re-adjustment.

R. S. 3857----- Omitted (Table 3)

No postmaster shall, under any pretense whatever, have, receive, or retain for himself, in the aggregate, more than the amount of his salary and his commission on the money-order business as hereinafter provided.

R. S. 3858----- T. 39, § 3104

No person employed in the postal service shall receive any fees or perquisites on account of the duties to be performed by virtue of his appointment.

R. S. 3859----- Omitted (Table 3A)

The Postmaster-General may designate offices at the intersection of mail-routes as distributing or separating offices; and where any such office is of the third, fourth, or fifth class he may make a reasonable allowance to the postmaster for the necessary cost of clerical services arising from such duties.

R. S. 3860----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General may allow to the postmaster at New York City, and to the postmasters at offices of the first and second classes, out of the surplus revenues of their respective offices, that is to say, the excess of box rents and commissions over and above the salary assigned to the office, a reasonable sum for the necessary cost of rent, fuel, lights, furniture, stationery, printing, clerks, and necessary incidentals, to be adjusted on a satisfactory exhibit of the facts, and no such allowance shall be made except upon the order of the Postmaster-General.

R. S. 3861----- Omitted (Table 3)

The salary of a postmaster, and such other expenses of the postal service authorized by law as may be incurred by him, and for which appropriations have been made, may be deducted out of the receipts of his office, under the direction of the Postmaster-General.

R. S. 3862----- Omitted (Table 3)

Vouchers for all deductions made by a postmaster out of the receipts of his office, on account of the expenses of the postal service, shall be submitted for examination and settlement to the Sixth Auditor, and no such deduction shall be valid unless found to be in conformity with law.

R. S. 3863----- Omitted (Table 3)

Whenever unusual business accrues at any post-office, the Postmaster-General shall make a special order allowing reasonable compensation for clerical service, and a proportionate increase of salary to the postmaster during the time of such extraordinary business.

R. S. 3864----- T. 39, § 701

The Postmaster-General may discontinue any post-office where the safety and security of the postal service and revenues are endangered from any cause whatever, or where the efficiency of the service requires such discontinuance, and he shall promptly certify such discontinuance to the Sixth Auditor.

R. S. 3867----- T. 39, § 3116

The Postmaster-General may prescribe a uniform dress to be worn by letter-carriers.

- R. S. 3868----- T. 39, § 6003
 The Postmaster-General may establish, in places where letter-carriers are employed, and in other places where, in his judgment, the public convenience requires it, receiving-boxes for the deposit of mail-matter, and shall cause the matter deposited therein to be collected as often as public convenience may require.
- R. S. 3870----- T. 39, § 502
 Every letter-carrier shall give bonds, with sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster-General, for the safe custody and delivery of all mail-matter, and the faithful account and payment of all money received by him.
- R. S. 3871----- T. 39, §§ 705, 6004
 The Postmaster-General, when the public convenience requires it, may establish within any post-office delivery one or more branch offices for the receipt and delivery of mail-matter and the sale of stamps and envelopes; and he shall prescribe the rules and regulations for the government thereof. But no letter shall be sent for delivery to any branch office contrary to the request of the party to whom it is addressed.
- R. S. 3873----- T. 39, §§ 6002, 6005
 No extra postage or carriers' fees shall be charged or collected upon any mail-matter collected or delivered by carriers.
- R. S. 3874----- Omitted (Table 3)
 All expenses of letter-carriers, branch offices, and receiving-boxes, or incident thereto, shall be kept and reported in a separate account, and shall be shown in comparison with the proceeds from postage on local mail-matter at each office, and the Postmaster-General shall be guided in the expenditures for this branch of the service by the income derived therefrom.
- R. S. 3879----- T. 39, §§ 4002, 4551, 4556
 No package weighing more than four pounds shall be received for conveyance by mail, except books published or circulated by order of Congress.
- R. S. 3880----- Omitted (Table 3)
 The Postmaster-General shall furnish to the post offices exchanging mails with foreign countries, and to such other offices as he may deem expedient, postal balances denominated in grams of the metric system, fifteen grams of which shall be the equivalent for postal purposes, of one-half ounce avoirdupois, and so on in progression.
- R. S. 3882----- T. 39, § 4058
 Postmasters at the office of delivery may remove the wrappers and envelopes from mail-matter not charged with letter-postage, when it can be done without destroying them, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is upon or connected with any such matter anything which would authorize or require the charge of a higher rate of postage thereon.
- R. S. 3883----- Omitted (Table 3)
 No newspapers shall be received to be conveyed by mail unless they are sufficiently dried and inclosed in proper wrappers.
- R. S. 3888----- T. 39, § 6438
 Contractors or mail-carriers may convey, out of the mail, newspapers for sale or distribution to subscribers.
- R. S. 3889----- T. 39, § 4370
 The Postmaster-General may provide by order the terms upon which route-agents may receive from publishers or any news agents in charge thereof, and deliver the same as directed, if presented and called for at the mail-car or steamer, packages of newspapers and other periodicals not received from or intended for delivery at any post-office.
- R. S. 3895----- T. 39, §§ 4001, 4003
 All letters, packets, or other matter which may be seized or detained for violation of law shall be returned to the owner or sender of the same, or otherwise disposed of as the Postmaster-General may direct.

R. S. 3896----- T. 39, §§ 4051, 4052

Postage on all mail-matter must be prepaid by stamps at the time of mailing, unless herein otherwise provided for.

R. S. 3901----- T. 39, § 708

No box at any post-office shall be assigned to the use of any person until the rent thereof has been paid for at least one quarter in advance, for which the postmaster shall give a receipt.

R. S. 3913----- Omitted (Table 3)

All letters conveyed by vessels not regularly employed in carrying the mail shall, if for delivery within the United States, be charged with double postage, to cover the fee paid to the vessel.

R. S. 3914----- T. 39, § 2501

The Postmaster-General shall prepare postage-stamps of suitable denominations, which, when attached to mail-matter, shall be evidence of the payment of the postage thereon.

R. S. 3915----- T. 39, §§ 2503, 2510

The Postmaster-General shall provide suitable letter and newspaper envelopes, with such water-marks or other guards against counterfeits as he may deem expedient, and with postage-stamps with such device and of such suitable denominations as he may direct, impressed thereon; and such envelopes shall be known as "stamped envelopes," and shall be sold, as nearly as may be, at the cost of procuring them, with the addition of the value of the postage-stamps impressed thereon; but no stamped envelope furnished by the Government shall contain any lithographing or engraving, nor any printing except a printed request to return the letter to the writer. Letters and papers inclosed in such stamped envelopes shall, if the postage-stamp is of a denomination sufficient to cover the postage properly chargeable thereon, pass in the mail as prepaid matter. [The Postmaster-General shall cause to be prepared a special stamp or stamped envelope, to be used only for official-mail-matter, for each of the Executive Departments; and said stamps and stamped envelopes shall be supplied by the proper officer of said Departments to all persons under its direction requiring the same for official use; and all appropriations for postage made prior to March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, shall no longer be available for said purpose; and all stamps and stamped envelopes shall be sold or furnished to said several Departments or clerks only at the price for which stamps and stamped envelopes of like value are sold at the several post-offices.]

R. S. 3916----- T. 39, §§ 2503, 4251

To facilitate letter correspondence, and to provide for the transmission in the mails, at a reduced rate of postage, of messages, orders, notices, and other short communications, either printed or written in pencil or ink, the Postmaster-General is authorized and directed to furnish and issue to the public, with postage-stamps impressed upon them, "postal cards," manufactured of good stiff paper, of such quality, form, and size as he shall deem best adapted for general use; which cards shall be used as a means of postal intercourse, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Postmaster-General, and when so used shall be transmitted through the mails at a postage charge of one cent each, including the cost of their manufacture.

R. S. 3917----- T. 39, § 2504

The Postmaster-General may, from time to time, adopt such improvements in postage-stamps and stamped envelopes as he may deem advisable; and when any such improvement is adopted it shall be subject to all the provisions herein respecting postage-stamps or stamped envelopes.

R. S. 3918----- Omitted (Table 3)

Postage-stamps and stamped envelopes shall be furnished by the Postmaster-General to all postmasters, and shall be kept for sale at all post-offices; and each postmaster shall be held accountable for all such stamps and envelopes furnished to him.

R. S. 3919----- Omitted (Table 3)

Postage-stamps and stamped envelopes may be sold at a discount to certain designated agents, who will agree to sell again without discount, under rules to be prescribed by the Postmaster-General; but the quantities of each sold to any one agent at one time shall not exceed one hundred dollars in value, and the discount shall not exceed five per centum on the face value of the stamps, nor the same per centum on the current price of the envelopes when sold in less quantities.

R. S. 3921----- T. 39, § 2507

Postage-stamps affixed to all mail-matter or the stamped envelopes in which the same is inclosed, shall, when deposited for mailing or delivery, be defaced by the postmaster at the mailing-office, in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct; and if any mail matter shall be forwarded without the stamps or envelopes being so defaced, the postmaster at the office of delivery shall deface them, and report the delinquent postmaster to the Postmaster-General.

R. S. 3926----- T. 39, § 5001

For the greater security of valuable mail-matter, the Postmaster-General may establish a uniform system of registration. But the Post-Office Department or its revenue shall not be liable for the loss of any mail-matter on account of its having been registered.

R. S. 3927----- Omitted (Table 3)

Mail-matter shall be registered only on the application of the party posting the same, and the fee therefor shall not exceed twenty cents in addition to the regular postage, to be, in all cases, prepaid; and all such fees shall be accounted for in such manner as the Postmaster-General shall direct. But letters upon the official business of the Post-Office Department which require registering shall be registered free of charge, and pass through the mails free of charge.

R. S. 3928----- Omitted (Table 3)

A receipt shall be taken upon the delivery of any registered mail-matter, showing to whom and when the same was delivered, which shall be returned to the sender, and be received in the courts as prima-facie evidence of such delivery.

R. S. 3929----- T. 39, §§ 4005, 4057

The Postmaster-General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him that any person is engaged in conducting any fraudulent lottery, gift-enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money or of any real or personal property, by lot, chance, or drawing of any kind, or in conducting any other scheme or device for obtaining money through the mails by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, instruct postmasters at any post-offices at which registered letters arrive directed to any such person, to return all such registered letters to the postmasters at the offices at which they were originally mailed, with the word "fraudulent" plainly written or stamped upon the outside of such letters; and all such letters so returned to such postmasters shall be by them returned to the writers thereof, under such regulations as the Postmaster-General may prescribe. But nothing contained in this Title shall be so construed as to authorize any postmaster or other person to open any letter not addressed to himself.

R. S. 3930----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General may direct the publication of the list of non-delivered letters at any post-office by a written list posted in some public place, or, when he shall deem it for the public interest, he may direct the publication of such list in the daily or weekly newspaper regularly published within the post-office delivery which has the largest circulation within such delivery; and where no daily paper is published within the post-office delivery, such list may be published in the daily newspaper of any adjoining delivery having the largest circulation within the delivery of the post-office publishing the list; and in case of dispute as to the circulation of competing newspapers, the postmaster shall receive evidence and decide upon the fact. Such list shall be published as frequently as the Postmaster-General may deem proper, but not oftener than once a week.

R. S. 3931----- Omitted (Table 3)

The list of non-delivered letters addressed to foreign-born persons may be published in a newspaper printed in the language most used by them, which shall be selected in the manner prescribed in the preceding section.

R. S. 3932----- T. 39, § 5002

Under such regulations as the Postmaster-General may prescribe, all postmasters are authorized to register in the manner prescribed by law, but without payment of any registration fee, all letters containing fractional or other currency of the United States, which shall be by them sent by mail to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption; and the postmaster at the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, shall register, in like manner, without charge, all letters containing new currency returned for currency redeemed, which shall be received by him from the Treasurer, in sealed packages, marked with the word "register" over the official signature of the said Treasurer.

R. S. 3933----- Omitted (Table 3)

Every postmaster shall post, in a conspicuous place in his office, a copy of each list of non-delivered letters immediately after its publication.

R. S. 3934----- Omitted (Table 3)

The compensation for publishing the list of non-delivered letters shall in no case exceed one cent for each letter so published.

R. S. 3935----- Omitted (Table 3)

All letters published as non-delivered shall be charged with one cent in addition to the regular postage, to be accounted for as part of the postal revenue.

R. S. 3936----- T. 39, §§ 4101, 4108

The Postmaster-General may regulate the period during which undelivered letters shall remain in any post-office, and when they shall be returned to the dead-letter office; and he may make regulations for their return from the dead-letter office to the writers, when they cannot be delivered to the parties addressed.

R. S. 3938----- T. 39, §§ 4107, 4108

Dead letters containing valuable inclosures shall be registered in the dead-letter office; and when they cannot be delivered to the party addressed nor to the writer, the contents thereof shall be disposed of, and a careful account shall be kept of the amount realized in each case, which shall be subject to reclamation by either the party addressed or the sender, for four years from the registry thereof; and all other letters of value or of importance to the party addressed or to the writer, and which cannot be returned to either, shall be disposed of as the Postmaster-General may direct.

R. S. 3939----- T. 39, § 4103

When the writer of any letter on which the postage is prepaid shall indorse upon the outside thereof his name and address, such letter shall not be advertised, but after remaining uncalled for at the office to which it is directed thirty days, or the time the writer may direct, shall be returned to him without additional charge for postage, and if not then delivered shall be treated as a dead letter.

R. S. 3940----- T. 39, § 4102

Prepaid letters shall be forwarded from one post-office to another, at the request of the party addressed, without additional charge for postage.

R. S. 3941----- Omitted (Table 3)

Before making any contract for carrying the mail, other than those herein-after excepted, the Postmaster-General shall give public notice by advertising once a week for six weeks in one or more, not exceeding five, newspapers published in the State or Territory where the service is to be performed, one of which shall be published at the seat of government of such State or Territory; and such notice shall describe the route, the time at which the mail is to be made up, the time at which it is to be delivered, and the frequency of the service; and the Postmaster-General shall direct, by special order in each case, the newspapers in which mail-lettings, or other proposals relative to the business of his Department, shall be advertised, and no publisher shall be paid for such advertisements without having been requested by the Postmaster-General to publish the same.

R. S. 3942----- T. 39, § 6216

The Postmaster-General may enter into contracts for carrying the mail, with railway companies, without advertising for bids therefor.

R. S. 3943----- T. 39, §§ 6405, 6408

The Postmaster-General may contract with the owner or master of any steamboat plying upon the waters of the United States, or of any steamship or other vessel plying between ports of the United States, for carrying the mail for any length of time less than four years, and without advertising for proposals therefor, whenever the public interest and convenience will thereby be promoted; but the price paid for such service shall in no case be greater than the average price paid under the last preceding or then existing regular contract on the same route.

R. S. 3944----- T. 39, §§ 6402, 6417

Proposals for carrying the mail shall be delivered sealed, and so kept until the bidding is closed, and shall then be opened and marked in the presence of the Postmaster-General, and one of the assistant postmasters-general, or of two of the assistant postmasters-general, or of any other two officers of the Department, to be designated by the Postmaster General; and any bidder may withdraw his bid at any time before twenty-four hours previous to the time fixed for the opening of proposals, by serving upon the Postmaster-General, or the second assistant postmaster-general, notice in writing of such withdrawal.

R. S. 3945----- T. 39, §§ 6418, 6419

Every proposal for carrying the mail shall be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and undertaking that, within such time after the bid is accepted as the Postmaster-General may prescribe, the bidder will enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed; and no proposals shall be considered unless accompanied by such guarantee.

R. S. 3946----- T. 39, § 6419

Each bid for carrying the mail shall hereafter have affixed to it the oath of the bidder, taken before an officer qualified to administer oaths, that he has the pecuniary ability to fulfill his obligations, and that the bid is made in good faith and with the intention to enter into contract and perform the service, in case his bid shall be accepted; and that the signatures of his guarantors are genuine, and that he believes the guarantors pecuniarily responsible for and able to pay all damages the United States shall suffer by reason of the bidder's failing to perform his obligations as such bidder.

R. S. 3948----- T. 39, § 6417

The Postmaster-General shall have recorded, in a book to be kept for that purpose, a true and faithful abstract of all proposals made to him for carrying the mail, giving the name of the party offering, the terms of the offer, the sum to be paid, and the time the contract is to continue; and he shall put on file and preserve the originals of all such proposals.

R. S. 3949----- T. 39, § 6411

All contracts for carrying the mail shall be in the name of the United States, and shall be awarded to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty, and security thereof; but the Postmaster-General shall not be bound to consider the bid of any person who has willfully or negligently failed to perform a former contract.

R. S. 3950----- T. 39, § 6421

No contract for carrying the mail shall be made with any person who has entered, or proposed to enter, into any combination to prevent the making of any bid for carrying the mail, or who has made any agreement, or given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration whatever to induce any other person not to bid for any such contract; and if any person so offending is a contractor for carrying the mail, his contract may be annulled; and for the first offense the person so offering shall be disqualified to contract for carrying the mail for five years, and for the second offense shall be forever disqualified.

R. S. 3951----- T. 39, §§ 6407, 6414, 6415, 6416

After any regular bidder or contractor for the transportation of the mail upon any route shall have failed to enter into contract, and commence the performance thereof as herein provided, the Postmaster-General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder for such service, who will enter into a contract and perform the same, unless the Postmaster-General shall consider such bid too high, in which case he shall re-advertise such service. And in all cases of regular contracts hereafter made the contract may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, be continued in force beyond its express terms for a period not exceeding six months, until a new contract with the same or other contractors shall be made by the Postmaster-General. The Postmaster-General may contract, without advertisement, for a period not to exceed twelve months, for the carriage of the mail on such route during the time that shall necessarily elapse between the failure of either of the accepted bidders to enter into a contract and the time when the next accepted bidder under the old or a new advertisement shall enter upon his contract; and the difference between the price proposed in the accepted bid and that paid for an intermediate service shall be charged to the failing bidder or bidders, and may be recovered in the name of the United States for the use of the Post-Office Department, in an action on the case. And when the contract shall be made and concluded, the difference between the accepted bid of the failing bidders and the amount payable under the contract for the service of two years shall be forthwith charged against the failing bidder or bidders; and an action for such sum in the nature of liquidated damages shall accrue to the United States for the use of the Post-Office Department immediately upon the execution of the final contract. And both causes of action mentioned in this section may be joined in one suit.

R. S. 3955----- T. 39, § 6426

The Postmaster-General, whenever he may deem it consistent with the public interest, may accept new surety upon any contract existing or hereafter made for carrying the mails, in substitution for and release of any existing surety.

R. S. 3956----- T. 39, §§ 6402, 6405

No contract for carrying the mail shall be made for a longer term than four years, and no contract for carrying the mail on the sea shall be made for a longer term than two years.

R. S. 3957----- T. 39, § 6413

Whenever, by reason of any error, omission, or other cause, any route which should properly be advertised for the regular letting is omitted, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster-General to advertise the same as soon as the error or omission shall be discovered, and the proposals for such route shall be opened as soon as possible after the other proposals in the same contract section; and the contract made under such supplementary advertisement shall run, as nearly as possible, from the beginning to the end of the regular contract term, and, during the time necessarily lost by reason of such error, omission, or other cause, the Postmaster-General shall provide for the carrying of the mail on such route at as low rate as possible, without advertising.

R. S. 3958----- Omitted (Table 3)

Whenever it becomes necessary to change the terms of an existing contract for carrying the mail otherwise than as provided in the preceding section, notice thereof shall be given and proceedings had thereon the same as at the letting of original contracts.

R. S. 3959----- T. 39, § 6439

No person whose bid for carrying the mail is accepted shall receive any pay until he has executed his contract according to law and the regulations of the Department.

R. S. 3960----- T. 39, § 6424

Compensation for additional service in carrying the mail shall not be in excess of the exact proportion which the original compensation bears to the original service; and when any such additional service is ordered, the sum to be allowed therefor shall be expressed in the order, and entered upon the books of the Department; and no compensation shall be paid for any additional regular service rendered before the issuing of such order.

R. S. 3961..... Omitted (Table 3)

No extra allowance shall be made for any increase of expedition in carrying the mail unless thereby the employment of additional stock and carriers is made necessary, and in such case the additional compensation shall bear no greater proportion to the additional stock and carriers necessarily employed than the compensation in the original contract bears to the stock and carriers necessarily employed in its execution.

R. S. 3962..... T. 39, § 6434

The Postmaster-General may make deductions from the pay of contractors, for failures to perform service according to contract, and impose fines upon them for other delinquencies. He may deduct the price of the trip in all cases where the trip is not performed; and not exceeding three times the price if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier.

R. S. 3963..... T. 39, § 6429

No contractor for transporting the mail within or between the United States and any foreign country shall assign or transfer his contract, and all such assignments or transfer shall be null and void.

R. S. 3964..... T. 39, §§ 6101, 6105

The following are established post-roads:

All the waters of the United States, during the time the mail is carried thereon.

All railroads or parts of railroads which are now or hereafter may be in operation.

All canals, during the time the mail is carried thereon.

All plank-roads during the time the mail is carried thereon.

The road on which the mail is carried to supply any court-house which may be without a mail, and the road on which the mail is carried under contract made by the Postmaster-General for extending the line of posts to supply mails to post-offices not on any established route, during the time such mail is carried thereon.

All letter-carrier-routes established in any city or town for the collection and delivery of mail matters.

R. S. 3965..... T. 39, §§ 6101, 6106

The Postmaster-General shall provide for carrying the mail on all post-roads established by law, as often as he, having due regard to productiveness and other circumstances, may think proper.

R. S. 3966..... T. 39, § 6101

The Postmaster-General shall cause a mail to be carried from the nearest post-office on any established post-road to the courthouse of any county in the United States which is without a mail.

R. S. 3967..... T. 39, § 6101

The Postmaster-General may contract for carrying the mail on the navigable canals of the several States, when, in his opinion, the public interest or convenience requires it.

R. S. 3968..... T. 39, §§ 6101, 6402

The Postmaster-General may contract for carrying the mail on any plank-road in the United States, when the public interest or convenience requires it.

R. S. 3969..... T. 39, § 6101

The Postmaster-General may cause the mail to be carried in any steamboat or other vessel used as a packet on any of the waters of the United States.

R. S. 3970..... Omitted (Table 3A)

The Postmaster-General may, if he deem it for the public interest, make contracts for any period not exceeding one year, for carrying the mails in steamships between any of the ports of the United States.

R. S. 3971..... T. 39, § 6440

The Postmaster-General may enter into contracts for extending the line of posts to supply mails to post-offices not on any established route, and, as a compensation for carrying the mail under such contracts, may allow not exceeding two-thirds of the salary paid to the postmaster at such special offices.

R. S. 3974----- T. 39, § 6106

Whenever, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, the postal service cannot be safely continued, the revenues collected, or the laws maintained on any post-road, he may discontinue the service on such road or any part thereof until the same can be safely restored.

R. S. 3975----- T. 39, § 6402

The Postmaster-General may, when he deems it advisable, contract for the transportation of the mails to and from any post-office; but where such service is performed over a route not established by law, he shall report the same to Congress at its meeting next thereafter, and such service shall cease at the end of the next session of Congress, unless such route is established a post-route by Congress.

R. S. 3978----- T. 39, § 902

The Postmaster-General may pay, to the master or owner of any vessel not regularly employed in carrying the mail, two cents for each letter carried by such vessel between ports or places in the United States, or from any foreign port to any port in the United State; but all such letters shall be deposited in the post-office at the port of arrival.

R. S. 3980----- T. 39, § 4056

Every route-agent, postal clerk, or other carrier of the mail shall receive any mail-matter presented to him, if properly prepaid by stamps, and deliver the same for mailing at the next post-office at which he arrives; but no fees shall be allowed him therefor.

R. S. 3987----- T. 39, § 902

No vessel departing from the United States for any foreign port shall receive on board or convey any letter or packet originating in the United States which has not been regularly received from the post-office at the port of departure, and which does not relate to the cargo of such vessel, except as provided in section three thousand nine hundred and ninety-three; and every collector, or other officer of the port empowered to grant clearances, shall require from the master of such vessel, as a condition of clearance, an oath that he has not received on board, has not under his care or control, and will not receive or convey any letter or packet contrary to the provisions of this section.

R. S. 3989----- T. 39, § 905

Any special agent of the Post-Office Department, when instructed by the Postmaster-General to make examinations and seizures, and the collector or other customs officer of any port, without special instructions, shall carefully search all vessels for letters which may be on board or which have been conveyed contrary to law.

R. S. 3990----- T. 39, § 904

Any special agent of the Post-Office Department, collector, or other customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputy, may at all times seize all letters and bags, packets or parcels, containing letters which are being carried contrary to law on board any vessel or on any post-route, and convey the same to the nearest post-office, or may, by the direction of the Postmaster-General or Secretary of the Treasury, detain them until two months after the final determination of all suits and proceedings which may, at any time within six months after such seizure, be brought against any person for sending or carrying such letters.

R. S. 3991----- T. 39, § 906

Every package or parcel seized by any special agent of the Post-Office Department, collector, or other customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputies, in which any letter is unlawfully concealed, shall be forfeited to the United States, and the same proceedings may be had to enforce the forfeiture as are authorized in respect to goods, wares, and merchandise forfeited for violation of the revenue laws; and all laws for the benefit and protection of customs officers making seizures for violating revenue laws shall apply to officers making seizures for violating the postal laws.

R. S. 3993----- T. 39, § 901

All letters inclosed in stamped envelopes, if the postage-stamp is of a denomination sufficient to cover the postage that would be chargeable thereon if the same were sent by mail, may be sent, conveyed, and delivered otherwise than by mail, provided such envelope shall be duly directed and properly sealed, so that the letter cannot be taken therefrom without defacing the envelope, and the date of the letter or of the transmission or receipt thereof shall be written or stamped upon the envelope. But the Postmaster-General may suspend the operation of this section upon any mail-route where the public interest may require such suspension.

R. S. 3994----- T. 39, § 6107

When the amount of mail-matter to be carried on any mail-route is so great as to seriously retard the progress or endanger the security of the letter-mail, or materially increase the cost of carriage at the ordinary rate of speed, the Postmaster-General may provide for the separate carriage of the letter-mail at the usual rate of speed; but the other mail-matter shall not be delayed any more than is absolutely necessary, having due regard to the cost of expedition and the means at his disposal for affecting the same.

R. S. 4006----- T. 39, §§ 6101, 6402

The Postmaster-General, after advertising for proposals, may enter into contracts or make suitable arrangements for transporting the mail through any foreign country, between any two points in the United States, and such transportation shall be by the speediest, safest, and most economical route; and all contracts therefor may be revoked whenever any new road or canal shall be opened affording a speedier, more economical, and equally safe transportation between the same points; but in case of the revocation of any such contract, a fair indemnity shall be awarded to the contractor.

R. S. 4007----- T. 39, §§ 6101, 6402

The Postmaster-General may, after advertising for proposals, enter into contracts for the transportation of the mail between the United States and any foreign country whenever the public interests will thereby be promoted.

R. S. 4008----- T. 39, § 6101

The mail between the United States and any foreign port, or between ports of the United States touching at a foreign port, shall be transported in steamships; but the Postmaster-General may have such transportation performed by sailing-vessels when the service can be facilitated thereby.

R. S. 4009----- T. 39, §§ 6101, 6409

For transporting the mail between the United States and any foreign port, or between ports of the United States touching at a foreign port, the Postmaster-General may allow as compensation, if by a United States steamship, any sum not exceeding the sea and United States inland postage; and if by a foreign steamship or by a sailing-vessel, any sum not exceeding the sea-postage, on the mail so transported.

R. S. 4010----- T. 39, §§ 6304, 6435

The Postmaster-General may impose fines on contractors for transporting the mail between the United States and any foreign country, for any unreasonable or unnecessary delay in the departure of such mail, or the performance of the trip; but the fine for any one default shall not exceed one-half the contract price for the trip.

R. S. 4011----- T. 39, §§ 6106, 6406

Every contract for transporting the mail between the United States and any foreign country shall contain, besides the usual stipulation for the right of the Postmaster-General to discontinue the same, the further stipulation that it may be terminated by Congress.

R. S. 4012----- T. 39, § 6103

The Postmaster-General may, by and with the advice and consent of the President, make any arrangements which may be deemed just and expedient for allowing the mails of Canada, or any other country adjoining the United States, to be transported over the territory of the United States from one point in such country to any other point in the same, at the expense of the country to which the mail belongs, upon obtaining a like privilege for the transportation of the United States mail through the country to which the privilege is granted; but such privilege may at any time be annulled by the President or Congress from and after one month succeeding the day on which notice of the act of the President or Congress is given to the chief executive or head of the post-office department of the country whose privilege is to be annulled.

R. S. 4014----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General or the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to empower the consuls of the United States to pay the foreign postage on such letters destined for the United States as may be detained at the ports of foreign countries for the nonpayment of postage, which postage shall be by the consul marked as paid by him, and the amount thereof shall be collected in the United States as other postage, on the delivery of the letters, and repaid to said consul, or credited on his account at the State Department.

R. S. 4017----- T. 39, §§ 904, 905, 906

The Postmaster-General may employ two special agents for the Pacific coast, and such number of other special agents as the good of the service and the safety of the mail may require. Such agents shall be entitled to a salary at the rate of not more than one thousand six hundred dollars a year each, and shall each be allowed for traveling and incidental expenses, while actually employed in the service, a sum not exceeding five dollars a day.

R. S. 4018----- T. 39, § 502

Whenever a special agent is required to collect or disburse any public money, he shall, before entering upon such duty, give bond in such sum and form, and with such security, as the Postmaster-General may approve.

R. S. 4019----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General may employ, when the service requires it, the Assistant Postmaster-General and superintendents in his Department as special agents; and he may allow them therefor not exceeding the amount expended by them as necessary traveling expenses while so employed.

R. S. 4020----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General may appoint two agents to superintend the railway postal-service, each of whom shall be paid out of the appropriation for the transportation of the mail, a salary at the rate of two thousand five hundred dollars a year, with an allowance for traveling and incidental expenses, while actively employed in the service, of not more than five dollars a day; and the Sixth Auditor shall charge to the appropriation for mail transportation the salary and per diem of the assistant superintendents of the postal railway-service; and to the appropriation for the free-delivery system the salary and per diem of the special agent detailed for that service; and the salary and per diem of the special agents employed in the money-order service shall be paid out of the proceeds of that service.

R. S. 4021----- T. 39, § 706

The Postmaster-General may establish resident mail-agencies at the ports of Panama and Aspinwall, in New Granada; Havana, in Cuba; at Saint Thomas, and at such other foreign ports at which United States mail-steamers touch to land and receive mails, as may, in his judgment, promote the efficiency of the foreign mail-service; and may pay the agents employed by him at such ports, out of the appropriation for transportation of the mail, a reasonable compensation for their services, and the necessary expenses for office-rent, clerk-hire, office-furniture, and other incidentals, to be allowed him at each of such agencies.

R. S. 4026----- T. 39, § 903

The Postmaster-General may, by a letter of authorization under his hand, to be filed among the records of his Department, empower any special agent or other officer of the Post-Office Establishment to make searches for mailable matter transported in violation of law; and the agent or officer so authorized may open and search any car or vehicle passing, or having lately before passed, from any place at which there is a post-office of the United States to any other such place, or any box, package, or packet, being, or having lately before been, in such car or vehicle, or any store or house, other than a dwelling house, used or occupied by any common carrier or transportation company, in which such box, package, or packet may be contained, whenever such agent or officer has reason to believe that mailable matter, transported contrary to law, may therein be found.

R. S. 4027----- T. 39, §§ 5101, 5102

To promote public convenience, and to insure greater security in the transfer of money through the mail, the Postmaster-General may establish and maintain, under such rules and regulations as he may deem expedient, a uniform money-order system, at all suitable post-offices, which shall be designated as "money-order offices."

R. S. 4028----- T. 39, § 506

The Postmaster-General may conclude arrangements with the post departments of foreign governments, with which postal conventions have been, or may be, concluded, for the exchange, by means of postal orders, of small sums of money, not exceeding fifty dollars in amount, at such rates of exchange, and compensation to postmasters, and under such rules and regulations as he may deem expedient; and the expenses of establishing and conducting such system of exchange may be paid out of the proceeds of the money-order business.

R. S. 4029----- T. 39, §§ 2209, 5102, 5103

The postmaster of every city where branch post-offices or stations are established and in operation, subject to his supervision, is authorized, under the direction of the Postmaster-General, to issue, or to cause to be issued, by any of his assistants or clerks in charge of branch post-offices or station, postal money-order, payable at his own or at any other money-order office, or at any branch post-office or station of his own, or of any other money-order office, as the remitters thereof may direct; and the postmaster and his sureties shall, in every case, be held accountable upon his official bond for all moneys received by him or his designated assistants or clerks in charge of stations, from the issue of money-orders, and for all moneys which may come into his or their hands, or be placed in his or their custody by reason of the transaction by them of money-order business.

R. S. 4031----- T. 39, §§ 2209, 3316

In case of the sickness or unavoidable absence from his office of the postmaster of any money-order post-office, he may, with the approval of the Postmaster-General, authorize the chief clerk, or some other clerk employed therein, to act in his place, and to discharge all the duties required by law of such postmaster; and the official bond given by the principal of the office shall be held to cover and apply to the acts of the person appointed to act in his place in such cases; and such acting officer shall, for the time being, be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the postmaster for whom he shall act.

R. S. 4033----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General shall supply money-order offices with blank forms of application for money-orders, which each applicant shall fill up with his name, the name and address of the party to whom the order is to be paid, the amount and the date of application; and all such applications shall be preserved by the postmaster receiving them for such time as the Postmaster-General may prescribe.

R. S. 4034----- T. 39, § 5102

The Postmaster-General shall furnish money-order offices with printed or engraved forms for money-orders, and no order shall be valid unless it be drawn upon such form.

R. S. 4037----- T. 39, §§ 5103, 5104

The payee of a money-order may, by his written indorsement thereon, direct it to be paid to any other person, and the postmaster on whom it is drawn shall pay the same to the person thus designated, provided he shall furnish such proof as the Postmaster-General may prescribe that the indorsement is genuine, and that he is the person empowered to receive payment; but more than one indorsement shall render an order invalid and not payable, and the holder, to obtain payment, must apply in writing to the Postmaster-General for a new order in lieu thereof, returning the original order, and making such proof of the genuineness of the indorsements as the Postmaster-General may require.

R. S. 4038----- Omitted (Table 3)

After a money-order has been issued, if the purchaser desires to have it modified or changed, the postmaster who issued the order shall take it back and issue another in lieu of it, for which a new fee shall be exacted.

R. S. 4039----- T. 39, § 5103

The postmaster issuing a money-order shall repay the amount of it upon the application of the person who obtained it, and the return of the order; but the feed paid for it shall not be returned.

R. S. 4040----- T. 39, § 5103

Whenever a money-order has been lost, the Postmaster-General, upon the application of the remitter or payee of such order, may cause a duplicate thereof to be issued, without charge, providing the party losing the original shall furnish a certificate from the postmaster by whom it was payable that it has not been, and will not thereafter be, paid; and a similar certificate from the postmaster by whom it was issued that it has not been, and will not thereafter be, repaid.

R. S. 4041----- T. 39, §§4005, 4057

The Postmaster-General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him that any person is engaged in conducting any fraudulent lottery, gift-enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money, or of any real or personal property, by lot, chance, or drawing of any kind, or in conducting any other scheme or device for obtaining money through the mails by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, forbid the payment, by any postmaster, to any such person of any postal money-order drawn to his order or in his favor, and may provide by regulations for the return, to the remitter, of the sums named in such money-orders. But this shall not authorize any person to open any letter not addressed to himself.

R. S. 4042----- Omitted (Table 3)

All payments and transfers to and from money-order offices shall be under the direction of the Postmaster-General. He may transfer money-order funds from one postmaster to another, and from the postal revenue to the money-order funds; and he may transfer money-order funds to creditors of the Department, to be replaced by equivalent transfers from the postal revenues.

R. S. 4043----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General may transfer to the postmaster at any money-order office, by warrant on the Treasury, countersigned by the Sixth Auditor, and payable out of the postal revenues, such sum as may be required over and above the current revenues at his office to pay the money-orders drawn upon him.

R. S. 4044----- Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General shall require each postmaster at a money-order office to render to the Post-Office Department weekly, semiweekly, or daily accounts of all money-orders issued and paid; of all fees received for issuing them; of all transfers and payments made from money-order funds; and of all money received to be used for the payment of money-orders or on account of money-order business.

R. S. 4045----- Omitted (Table 3)

All money received for the sale of money-orders, including all fees thereon, all money transferred from the postal revenues to the money-order funds, all money transferred or paid from the money-order funds to the service of the Post-Office Department, and all money-order funds transferred from one postmaster to another, shall be deemed and taken to be money-order funds and money in the Treasury of the United States. And it shall be the duty of the assistant treasurer of the United States to open, at the request of the Postmaster-General, an account of "money-order funds" deposited by postmasters to the credit of the Postmaster-General, and of drafts against the amounts so deposited, drawn by him and countersigned by the Sixth Auditor.

R. S. 4046----- Omitted (Table 3)

Disbursing officers of the United States shall issue, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, duplicates of lost checks drawn by them in favor of any postmaster on account of money-order or other public funds received by them from some other postmaster.

R. S. 4049----- Omitted (Table 3)

The accounts of the postal service shall be kept in such a manner as to exhibit separately the amount of revenue derived from the following sources respectively :

- First. Letter-postage.
- Second. Book, newspaper, and pamphlet postage.
- Third. Registered letters.
- Fourth. Box-rents and branch offices.
- Fifth. Postage-stamps and envelopes.
- Sixth. Dead letters.
- Seventh. Fines and penalties.
- Eighth. Revenue from money-order business.
- Ninth. Miscellaneous.

And they shall exhibit separately the amount of expenditure made for each of the following objects respectively :

- First. Transportation of the mail.
- Second. Compensation of postmasters.
- Third. Compensation of letter-carriers.
- Fourth. Compensation of clerks for post-offices.
- Fifth. Compensation of blank-agents and assistants.
- Sixth. Mail depredations and special agents.
- Seventh. Postage-stamps and envelopes.
- Eighth. Ship, steamboat, and way letters.
- Ninth. Dead-letters.
- Tenth. Mail-bags.
- Eleventh. Mail locks and keys.
- Twelfth. Post-marking and canceling stamps.
- Thirteenth. Wrapping-paper.
- Fourteenth. Twine.
- Fifteenth. Letter-balances.
- Sixteenth. Office-furniture.
- Seventeenth. Advertising.
- Eighteenth. Balances to foreign countries.
- Nineteenth. Rent, light, and fuel for post-offices.
- Twentieth. Stationery.
- Twenty-first. Miscellaneous.

R. S. 4050----- T. 39, § 1

Unclaimed money in dead letters for which no owner can be found ; all money taken from the mail by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which may come into the hands of any agent or employe of the United States, or any other person whatever ; all fines and penalties imposed for any violation of the postal laws, except such part as may by law belong to the informer or party prosecuting for the same ; and all money derived from the sale of waste paper or other public property of the Post-Office Department, shall be deposited in the Treasury, under the direction of the Postmaster-General, as part of the postal revenue. And the Postmaster-General shall cause to be placed to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, for the service of the Post-Office Department, the net proceeds of the money-order business ; and the receipts of the Post-Office Department derived from this source during each quarter shall be entered by the Sixth Auditor in the accounts of such Department, under the head of "revenue from money-order business."

R. S. 4051----- T. 39, §§ 1, 2209

All postages, box-rents, and other receipts at post-offices, shall be accounted for as part of the postal revenues ; and each postmaster shall be charged with and held accountable for any part of the same, accruing at his office, which he has neglected to collect, the same as if he had collected it.

R. S. 4052----- T. 39, § 708

Postmasters may allow box-holders who desire to do so to provide lock-boxes or drawers for their own use, at their own expense, which lock-boxes or drawers, upon their erection in any post-office, shall become the property of the United States, and be subject to the direction and control of the Post-Office Department, and shall pay a rental at least equal to that of other boxes in the same office, or, if there be no other boxes in such office, of boxes in other offices of the same class, which rental shall be accounted for as other box-rents.

R. S. 4054----- T. 39, § 2201

The money required for the postal service in each year shall be appropriated by law out of the revenues of the service.

R. S. 4057----- T. 39, § 2408

In all cases where money has been paid out of the funds of the Post-Office Department under the pretense that service has been performed therefor, when, in fact, such service has not been performed, or as additional allowance for increased service actually rendered, when the additional allowance exceeds the sum which, according to law, might rightfully have been allowed therefor, and in all other cases where money of the Department has been paid to any person in consequence of fraudulent representations, or by the mistake, collusion, or misconduct of any officer or other employe in the postal service, the Postmaster-General shall cause suit to be brought to recover such wrong or fraudulent payment or excess, with interest thereon.

R. S. 4058----- T. 39, § 2410

Whenever the Postmaster-General is satisfied that money or property stolen from the mail, or the proceeds thereof, has been received at the Department, he may, upon satisfactory evidence as to the owner, deliver the same to him.

R. S. 4059----- T. 39, §§1, 2407

All penalties and forfeitures imposed for any violation of law affecting the Post-Office Department for its revenue or property shall be recoverable, one-half to the use of the person informing and prosecuting for the same, and the other half to be paid into the Treasury for the use of the Post-Office Department, unless a different disposal is expressly prescribed. All fines collected for violations of such laws shall be paid into the Treasury for the use of the Post-Office Department.

R. S. 4061----- T. 39, § 4105

The Postmaster-General may provide, by regulations, for disposing of printed and mailable matter which may remain in any post-office, or in the Department, not called for by the party addressed.

STATUTES AT LARGE

June 1, 1872, ch. 256, § 3 (the first proviso, and the first sentence of the second proviso in section 3), 17 Stat. 201

Omitted (Table 3A)

That all steamships hereafter accepted for said service shall be of not less than four thousand tons register each, and shall be built of iron, and with their engines and machinery shall be wholly of American construction, and shall be so constructed as to be readily adapted to the armed naval service of the United States in case of war, and before acceptance the officers by whom they are inspected shall report to the Secretary of the Navy and the Postmaster-General whether this condition has been complied with: Provided, That in all cases the officers of the ships employed in the service herein provided for shall be citizens of the United States, and that persons of foreign birth, who have according to law declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, may be employed as though they were citizens within the meaning of this section, or of any act or acts specified in the act of June twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

June 1, 1872, ch. 256, § 4 (the last sentence of section 4), 17 Stat. 202

Omitted (Table 3A)

And hereafter payment for carrying such free matter shall be made out of the annual appropriations.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 71, 17 Stat. 293----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That every postmaster shall keep a record, in such form as the Postmaster-General shall direct, of all postage-stamps and envelopes and of all postal books, blanks, and property received from his predecessor, or from the department or any of its agents; and also of all receipts in money for postages and box-rents, and of all other receipts on account of the postal service, and of any other transactions which may be required by the Postmaster-General; and these records shall be preserved and delivered to his successor, and shall be at all times subject to examination by any special agent of the department.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 99, 17 Stat. 296-297

Omitted (Table 3A)

That the rate of postage on newspapers, excepting weeklies, periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, and circulars when the same are deposited in a letter-carrier office for delivery by the office or its carriers, shall be uniform at one cent each; but periodicals weighing more than two ounces shall be subject to a postage of two cents each, and these rates shall be prepaid by stamps.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 133, 17 Stat. 300----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That mailable matter of the third class shall embrace all pamphlets, occasional publications, transient newspapers, magazines, hand-bills, posters, unsealed circulars, prospectuses, books, book-manuscripts, proof-sheets, corrected proof-sheets, maps, prints, engravings, blanks, flexible patterns, samples of merchandise not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, sample cards, phonographic paper, letter envelopes, postal envelopes and wrappers, cards, plain and ornamental paper, photographic representations of different types, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and all other matter which may be declared mailable by law, and all other articles not above the weight prescribed by law, which are not, from their form or nature, liable to destroy, deface, or otherwise injure the contents of the mail-bag or the person of any one engaged in the postal service. All liquids, poisons, glass, explosive materials, and obscene books shall be excluded from the mails. All matter of the third class, excepting books and other printed matter, book-manuscripts, proof-sheets, and corrected proof-sheets, shall not exceed twelve ounces in weight, and all matter of the third class shall be subject to examination and to rates of postage as hereinafter provided. Samples of metals, ores, and mineralogical specimens shall not exceed twelve ounces in weight, and shall be subject to examination and to rates of postage as hereinafter provided.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 134, 17 Stat. 301----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That no package weighing more than four pounds shall be received for conveyance by mail, except books published or circulated by order of Congress.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 239, 17 Stat. 312----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That all letters inclosed in stamped envelopes (the postage-stamp in every case being of a denomination sufficient to cover the postage that would be chargeable thereon if the same were sent by mail) may be sent, conveyed, and delivered otherwise than by mail, provided such envelope shall be duly directed and properly sealed, so that the letter cannot be taken therefrom without defacing the envelope, and the date of the letter or of the transmission or receipt thereof shall be written or stamped upon the envelope. But the Postmaster-General may suspend the operation of this section upon any mail-route where the public interest may require such suspension.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 245, 17 Stat. 313----- T. 39, §§ 6418, 6419

That every proposal for carrying the mail shall be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and undertaking that, within such time after the bid is accepted as the Postmaster-General may prescribe, the bidder will enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient sureties, to perform the service proposed; and no proposals shall be considered unless accompanied by such guarantee.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 246, 17 Stat. 313----- T. 39, § 6419

That each bid for carrying the mail shall hereafter have affixed to it the oath of the bidder, taken before an officer qualified to administer oaths that he has the ability pecuniarily to fulfil his obligations, and that the bid is made in good faith and with the intention to enter into contract and perform the service, in case his bid shall be accepted; and that the signatures of his guarantors are genuine, and that he believes said guarantors pecuniarily responsible for and able to pay all damages the United States shall suffer by reason of the bidder's failing to perform his obligations as such bidder.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 248, 17 Stat. 313----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General shall have recorded, in a book to be kept for that purpose, a true and faithful abstract of all proposals made to him for carrying the mail, giving the name of the party offering, the terms of the offer, the sum to be paid, and the time the contract is to continue; and he shall put on file and preserve the originals of all such proposals.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314----- T. 39, §§ 6407, 6414, 6415, 6416

That after any regular bidder or contractor for the transportation of the mail upon any route shall have failed to enter into contract, and commence the performance thereof as herein provided, the Postmaster-General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder for such service, who will enter into a contract and perform the same, unless the Postmaster-General shall consider such bid too high, in which case he shall re-advertise such service. And in all cases of regular contracts hereafter made the contract may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, be continued in force beyond its express terms for a period not exceeding six months, until a new contract with the same or other contractors shall be made by the Postmaster-General. The Postmaster-General may contract, without advertisement, for a period not to exceed twelve months, for the carriage of the mail on such route during the time that shall necessarily elapse between the failure of either of the accepted bidders to enter into a contract and the time when the next accepted bidder under the old or a new advertisement shall enter upon his contract; and the difference between the price proposed in the accepted bid and that paid for intermediate service shall be charged to the failing bidder or bidders, and may be recovered in the name of the United States for the use of the Post-office Department, in an action on the case. And when the contract shall be made and concluded, the difference between the accepted bid of the failing bidders and the amount payable under the contract for the service of two years shall be forthwith charged against the failing bidder or bidders; and an action for such sum in the nature of liquidated damages shall accrue to the United States for the use of the Post-office Department immediately upon the execution of the final contract. And both causes of action mentioned in this section may be joined in one suit.

June 8, 1872, ch. 335, § 266, 17 Stat. 316----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General may make deductions from the pay of contractors, for failures to perform service according to contract, and impose fines upon them for other delinquencies. He may deduct the price of the trip in all cases where the trip is not performed; and not exceeding three times the price if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier.

Jan. 31, 1873, ch. 82 (that portion of Chapter 82 between the words "eighteen hundred and seventy-three" and the proviso), 17 Stat. 421 Omitted (Table 3A) and that thenceforth all official correspondence, of whatever nature, and other mailable matter sent from or addressed to any officer of the government or person now authorized to frank such matter, shall be chargeable with the same rates of postage as may be lawfully imposed upon like matter sent by or addressed to other persons:

Mar. 3, 1873, ch. 228, § 4 (the proviso in section 4), 17 Stat. 542 Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General shall cause to be prepared a special stamp or stamped envelope, to be used only for official mail-matter, for each of the executive departments; and said stamps and stamped envelopes shall be supplied by the proper officer of said departments to all persons under its direction requiring the same for official use; and all appropriations for postage heretofore made shall no longer be available for said purpose; and all said stamps, and stamped envelopes shall be sold or furnished to said several departments or clerks only at the price for which stamps and stamped envelopes of like value are sold at the several post-offices.

Mar. 3, 1873, ch. 231, § 1 (only the last proviso on page 557), 17 Stat. 557 Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter no envelope as furnished by the government shall contain any lithographing and engraving, and no printing except a printed request to return the letter to the writer.

Mar. 3, 1873, ch. 272, 17 Stat. 604----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for any postmaster, having public money belonging to the government, where there are no designated depositaries, treasurers of mints, or treasurer or assistant treasurers of the United States, within the county, to deposit the same, at his own risk and in his own official capacity, in any national bank in the town, city, or county where the said postmaster resides; but no authority or permission is or shall be given for the demand or receipt by the postmaster, or any other person, of interest, directly or indirectly, on any deposit made as herein described; and it shall be the duty of all postmasters who have made any such deposit to report quarterly to the Postmaster-General, the name of the bank where such deposits have been made, and also state the amount which may stand at the time to their credit.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 1 (the first proviso which precedes the words "and for this purpose" in the appropriation item "For pay of letter-carriers"), 18 Stat. 231 Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter letter-carriers shall not be employed for the free delivery of mail-matter in towns and cities whose population within their corporate limits, as shown by the last report of the national census or by any subsequent census taken in pursuance of State statute or by order of the mayor and common council of such town or city, shall be less than thirty thousand; but this proviso shall not affect the free delivery in towns and cities where it is now established. And for the more efficient management of the free-delivery system, the Postmaster-General may designate a fourth class clerk to act as superintendent of free delivery in the Post-Office Department at an annual salary of two thousand five hundred dollars;

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 1 (the proviso in the appropriation item "For stamped envelopes and wrappers"), 18 Stat. 231 T. 39, §§ 2503, 2510

That hereafter no envelope, as furnished by the Government, shall contain any lithographing and engraving, nor any printing except a printed request to return the letter to the writer.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 5, 18 Stat. 232-233 T. 39, §§ 4358, 4359, 4363, 4364

That on and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, all newspapers and periodical publications mailed from a known office of publication or news agency, and addressed to regular subscribers or news agents, postage shall be charged at the following rates: On newspapers and periodical publications, issued weekly and more frequently than once a week, two cents for each pound or fraction thereof and on those issued less frequently than once a week, three cents for each pound or fraction thereof: Provided That nothing in this act shall be held to change or amend section ninety nine of the act entitled "An Act to revise consolidate and amend the statutes relating to the Post-Office Department," approved June eight, eighteen hundred and seventy-two.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 6, 18 Stat. 233----- T. 39, §§ 4052, 4364

That on and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, upon the receipt of such newspapers and periodical publications at the office of mailing, they shall be weighed in bulk, and postage paid thereon by a special adhesive stamp, to be devised and furnished by the Postmaster-General, which shall be affixed to such matter, or to the sack containing the same, or upon a memorandum of such mailing, or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General may, from time to time, provide by regulation.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 7, 18 Stat. 233----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That newspapers, one copy to each actual subscriber residing within the county where the same are printed, in whole or in part, and published, shall go free through the mails; but the same shall not be delivered at letter-carrier offices or distributed by carriers unless postage is paid thereon as by law provided.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 8, 18 Stat. 233----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That all mailable matter of the third class, referred to in section one hundred and thirty-three of the act entitled "An act to revise, consolidate, and amend the statutes relating to the Post-Office Department," approved June eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, may weigh not exceeding four pounds for each package thereof, and postage shall be charged thereon at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof; but nothing herein contained shall be held to change or amend section one hundred and thirty-four of said act.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 9, 18 Stat. 233----- T. 39, § 4368

That the Postmaster-General, when in his judgment it shall be necessary, may prescribe, by regulation, an affidavit in form, to be taken by each publisher of any newspaper or periodical publication sent through the mails under the provisions of this act, or news agent who distributes any of such newspapers or periodical publications under the provisions of this act, or employee of such publisher or news agent, stating that he will not send, or knowingly permit to be sent, through the mails any copy or copies of such newspaper or periodical publications except to regular subscribers thereto, or news agents, without prepayment of the postage thereon at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof; and if such publisher or news agent, or employee of such publisher or news agent, when required by the Postmaster-General or any special agent of the Post-Office Department to make such affidavit, shall refuse so to do, and shall thereafter, without having made such affidavit deposit any newspapers in the mail for transmission, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars for each refusal; and if any such person shall knowingly and willfully mail any such matter without the payment of postage as provided by this act, or procure the same to be done with the intent to avoid the prepayment of postage due thereon; or if any postmaster or post-office official shall knowingly permit any such matter to be mailed without the prepayment of postage as provided in this act, and in violation of the provisions of the same, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding one year, one or both, in the discretion of the court.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 12 (only that part of section 12 which amends sections 245, 246, 251, and 253 of the act of June 8, 1872, ch. 335, 17 Stat. 313 and 314), 18 Stat. 235-237

T. 39, §§ 6407, 6414, 6415, 6418, 6419, 6422, 6424

That section two hundred and forty-five, section two hundred and forty-six * * * section two hundred and fifty-one, and section two hundred and fifty-three of the act entitled "An act to revise, consolidate and amend the statutes relating to the Post-Office Department," approved June eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, be amended to read as follows:

That every proposal for carrying the mail shall be accompanied by the bond of the bidder, with sureties approved by a postmaster, and in cases where the amount of the bond exceeds five thousand dollars, by a postmaster of the first, second, or third class, in a sum to be designated by the Postmaster-General in the advertisement of each route; to which bond a condition shall be annexed, that if the said bidder shall, within such time after his bid is accepted as the Postmaster-General shall prescribe, enter into a contract with the United States of America, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster-General, to perform the service proposed in his said bid, and, further, that he shall perform the said service according to his contract, then the said obligation to be void, otherwise to be in full force and obligation in law; and in case of failure of any bidder to enter into such contract to perform the service, or, having executed a contract, in case of failure to perform the service, according to his contract, he and his sureties shall be liable for the amount of said bond as liquidated damages, to be recovered in an action of debt on the said bond. No proposal shall be considered unless it shall be accompanied by such bond, and there shall have been affixed to said proposal the oath of the bidder, taken before an officer qualified to administer oaths, that he has the ability, pecuniarily, to fulfill his obligations, and that the bid is made in good faith, and with the intention to enter into contract and perform the service in case his bid is accepted.

That before the bond of a bidder provided for in the aforesaid section is approved, there shall be indorsed thereon the oaths of the sureties therein, taken before an officer qualified to administer oaths, that they are owners of real estate, worth, in the aggregate, a sum double the amount of the said bond, over and above all debts due and owing by them, and all judgments, mortgages, and executions against them, after allowing all exemptions of every character whatever.

That after any regular bidder whose bid has been accepted shall fail to enter into contract for the transportation of the mails according to his proposal, or, having entered into contract, shall fail to commence the performance of the service stipulated in his or their contract, as therein provided, the Postmaster-General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder for the same service, who will enter into a contract for the performance thereof, unless the Postmaster-General shall consider such bid too high, in which case he shall re-advertise such service. And if any bidder whose bid has been accepted, and who has entered into a contract to perform the service according to his proposal, and in pursuance of his contract has entered upon the performance of the service, to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, shall subsequently fail or refuse to perform the service according to his contract, the Postmaster-General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder for such service, under the advertisement thereof, (unless the Postmaster-General shall consider such bid too high,) who will enter into contract and give bond, with sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster-General, for the faithful performance thereof, in the same penalty and with the same terms and conditions thereto annexed as were stated and contained in the bond which accompanied his bid; but in case each and every of the next lowest bidders for such service whose respective bids are not considered too high by the Postmaster-General shall refuse to enter into contract and give bond as herein required for the faithful performance of his contract, the Postmaster-General shall immediately advertise for proposals to perform the service on said route. Whenever an accepted bidder shall fail to enter into contract, or a contractor on any mail-route shall fail or refuse to perform the service on said route according to his contract, or when a new route shall be established, or new service required, or when from any other cause there shall not be a contractor legally bound or required to perform such service, the Postmaster-General may make a temporary contract for carrying the mail on such route, without advertisement, for such period as may be necessary, not in any case exceeding six months, until the service shall have commenced under a contract made according to law: Provided, however, That the Postmaster-General shall not employ temporary service on any route at a higher price than that paid to the contractor who shall have performed the service during the last preceding regular contract-term. And in all cases of regular contracts hereafter made, the contract may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, be continued in force beyond its express terms for a period not exceeding six months, until a new contract with the same, or other contractors, shall be made by the Postmaster-General.

That hereafter all bidders upon every mail-route for the transportation of the mails upon the same, where the annual compensation for the service on such route at the time exceeds the sum of five thousand dollars, shall accompany their bids with a certified check or draft, payable to the order of the Postmaster-General, upon some solvent national bank, which check or draft shall not be less than five per centum on the amount of the annual pay on said route at the time such bid is made, and, in case of new or modified service, not less than five per centum of the amount of the bond of the bidder required to accompany his bid, if the amount of the said bond exceeds five thousand dollars. In case any bidder, on being awarded any such contract, shall fail to execute the same, with good and sufficient sureties, according to the terms on which such bid was made and accepted, and enter upon the performance of the service to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, such bidder shall, in addition to his liability on his bond accompanying his bid, forfeit the amount so deposited to the United States, and the same shall forthwith be paid into the Treasury for the use of the Post-Office Department; but if such contract shall be duly executed and the service entered upon as aforesaid, such draft or check so deposited, and the checks or drafts deposited by all other bidders, on the same route, shall be returned to the respective bidders making such deposits. No proposals for the transportation of the mails where the amount of the bond required to accompany the same shall exceed five thousand dollars shall be considered, unless accompanied with the check or draft herein required, together with the bond required by a preceding section: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed or intended to affect any penalties or forfeitures which have heretofore accrued under the provisions of the sections hereby amended.

June 23, 1874, ch. 456, § 13, 18 Stat. 237----- T. 39, § 4652

That hereafter the postage on public documents mailed by any member of Congress, the President, or head of any Executive Department shall be ten cents for each bound volume, and on unbound documents the same rate as that on newspapers mailed from a known office of publication to regular subscribers; and the words "Public Document" written or printed thereon, or on the wrapper thereof, and certified by the signature of any member of Congress, or by that of the President, or head of any Executive Department shall be deemed a sufficient certificate that the same is a public document; and the term "public document" is hereby defined to be all publications printed by order of Congress, or either House thereof: Provided, That the postage on each copy of the daily Congressional Record mailed from the city of Washington as transient matter shall be one cent.

Mar. 24, 1874, No. 6, 18 Stat. 286----- T. 39, § 2004

That the resolution approved January thirty-first, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "A resolution limiting contracts for stationery and other supplies in the Executive Departments to one year," shall not be held, or construed, to apply to, or include, mail-bags, mail locks, and keys, postal cards, postage stamps, newspaper wrappers, or stamped envelopes.

Section four thousand and thirty-seven is amended by inserting, in the second line, before the word "paid", the word "be".

Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 128, § 1 (that part of last paragraph on said page following semicolon), 18 Stat. 340 Omitted (Table 3A) and the salary of the postmaster of the city of New York is hereby fixed at eight thousand dollars per annum.

Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 128, § 4, 18 Stat. 343----- Omitted (Table 3)

That hereafter the Sixth Auditor shall keep the accounts in his office so as to show the expenditures of the Post-Office Department under each item of appropriation provided by law.

Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 128, § 5, 18 Stat. 343----- T. 39, § 4163

That from and after the passage of this act, the Congressional Record, or any part thereof, or speeches or reports therein contained, shall, under the frank of a member of Congress, or delegate, to be written by himself, be carried in the mail free of postage, under such regulations as the Postmaster-General may prescribe; and that public documents already printed, or ordered to be printed, for the use of either House of Congress may pass free through the mails upon the frank of any member or delegate of the present Congress, written by himself, until the first day of December anno Domini eighteen hundred and seventy-five.

Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 128, § 7, 18 Stat. 343----- T. 39, § 4164

That seeds transmitted by the Commissioner of Agriculture, or by any member of Congress or delegate receiving seeds for distribution from said Department, together with agricultural reports emanating from that Department and so transmitted, shall, under such regulations as the Postmaster-General shall prescribe, pass through the mails free of charge. And the provisions of this section shall apply to ex-members of Congress and ex-delegates for the period of nine months after the expiration of their terms as members and delegates.

Mar. 3, 1875, ch. 130, § 1 (only the fourth paragraph on said page), 18 Stat. 377 Omitted (Table 3A)

That section eight of the act approved June twenty-third, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, "making appropriations for the service of the Post-Office Department for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, and for other purposes," be, and the same is hereby, amended as follows: Insert the word "ounce" in lieu of the words "two ounces."

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 4, 19 Stat. 80----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the annual reports of the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department to the Postmaster General shall show the financial condition of the Post-Office Department at the close of each fiscal year, and be made a part of the Postmaster General's annual report to Congress for that fiscal year.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 5, 19 Stat. 80----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the postmasters shall be divided into four classes, as follows: The first class shall embrace all those whose annual salaries are three thousand dollars or more than three thousand dollars; the second class shall embrace all those whose annual salaries are less than three thousand dollars, but not less than two thousand dollars; the third class shall embrace all those whose annual salaries are less than two thousand dollars, but not less than one thousand dollars; the fourth class shall embrace all postmasters whose annual compensation, exclusive of their commissions on the money-order business of their offices, amounts to less than one thousand dollars.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 6, 19 Stat. 80-81----- T. 39, § 3311

Postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be appointed and may be removed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their offices for four years unless sooner removed or suspended according to law; and postmasters of the fourth class shall be appointed and may be removed by the Postmaster-General, by whom all appointments and removals shall be notified to the Auditor for the Post-Office Department.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 7, 19 Stat. 81----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the respective compensations of postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be annual salaries, assigned in even hundreds of dollars, and payable in quarterly payments, to be ascertained and fixed by the Postmaster-General from their respective quarterly returns to the Auditor for the Post-Office Department, or copies or duplicates thereof, for four quarters immediately preceding the adjustment or re-adjustment, by adding to an amount of the box-rents of the office received or estimated not exceeding thirteen hundred and fifty dollars when the boxes are supplied and owned by the postmaster, and two thirds of the box-rents, and not to exceed one thousand dollars when the boxes are not supplied and owned by the postmaster, commissions on all other postal revenues of the office to an amount not exceeding thirteen hundred and fifty dollars, at the following rates, namely: on the first one hundred dollars per quarter, sixty per centum; on all over one hundred dollars and not over three hundred dollars per quarter, fifty per centum; on all over three hundred dollars and not over seven hundred dollars per quarter, forty per centum; and thirty per centum on all revenues exceeding seven hundred dollars per quarter, but the aggregate of the said commissions not to exceed thirteen hundred and fifty dollars; and at all offices where the total revenues exceed, respectively, four thousand dollars per annum, there shall be added to the compensation hereinbefore provided from box-rents and commissions a percentage of the gross revenues at the following rates, namely: one per centum on all sums over four thousand dollars and not exceeding ten thousand dollars; nine-tenths of one per centum on all sums over ten thousand dollars and not exceeding twenty thousand dollars; eight-tenths of one per centum on all sums over twenty thousand dollars and not exceeding forty thousand dollars; six tenths of one per centum on all sums over forty thousand dollars and not exceeding eighty thousand dollars; five-tenths of one per centum on all sums over eighty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred and sixty thousand dollars; four-tenths of one per centum on all sums over one hundred and sixty thousand dollars and not exceeding three hundred and twenty thousand dollars; three-tenths of one per centum on all sums over three hundred and twenty thousand dollars and not exceeding six hundred and forty thousand dollars; two-tenths of one per centum on all sums not over six hundred and forty thousand dollars and not exceeding one million two hundred and eighty thousand dollars; and one-tenth of one per centum on all sums exceeding one million two hundred and eighty thousand dollars; and in order to ascertain the amount of the postal receipts of each office, the Postmaster-General may require postmasters to furnish duplicates of their quarterly returns to the Auditor at such times and for such periods as he may deem necessary in each case: Provided, That at offices where the letter-carrier system is now, or may hereafter be, established, the box-rents, in fixing the compensation of the respective postmasters at such offices, shall be estimated at not less than one thousand dollars per annum; but at all such offices where the compensation is now four thousand dollars, they shall be estimated at an amount which, with the commissions and percentages hereby allowed, will make the salaries of the postmasters thereat not less than three thousand dollars.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 8, 19 Stat. 81----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the compensation of postmasters of the fourth class shall be the box-rents collected at their offices, and commissions on other postal revenues of their offices at the following rate, namely: On the first one hundred dollars or less per quarter, sixty per centum; on all over one hundred dollars and not over three hundred dollars per quarter, fifty per centum; and all over three hundred dollars per quarter, forty per centum; the same to be ascertained and allowed by the Auditor in the settlement of the quarterly accounts of such postmasters: Provided, That when the aggregate annual compensation, exclusive of commissions on money-order business, of any postmaster of this class shall amount to one thousand dollars, the Auditor shall report such fact to the Postmaster-General, in order that such postmaster may be assigned to his proper class, and his salary fixed as heretofore provided.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 9, 19 Stat. 82----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the salaries of postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be re-adjusted by the Postmaster-General once in two years, and in special cases, on the application of the postmaster, as much oftener as the Postmaster-General may deem expedient.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 10, 19 Stat. 82----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General shall make all orders assigning or changing the salaries of postmasters in writing, and record them in his journal, and notify the change to the Auditor; and any change made in such salaries shall not take effect until the first day of the quarter next following such order: Provided, That in cases of not less than fifty per centum increase or decrease in the business of any post-office, the Postmaster-General may adjust the salary of the postmaster at such office to take effect from the first day of the quarter or period the returns for which form the basis of readjustment.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 11, 19 Stat. 82----- T. 39, § 703

That the Postmaster-General may designate offices at the intersection of mail-routes as distributing or separating offices; and where any such office is of the third or fourth class, he may make a reasonable allowance to the postmaster for the necessary cost of clerical services arising from such duties, and the provisions of this act relating to and fixing the compensation or salaries of postmasters shall take effect on the first day of October next.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 12, 19 Stat. 82----- Omitted (Table 3A)

No salary of any postmaster under this act shall exceed the sum of four thousand dollars per annum, except in the city of New York, which salary shall remain as now fixed by law; and no salary of any postmaster where the appointment is now presidential shall be reduced by the compensation herein established until the next readjustment below the sum of the one thousand dollars per annum.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 14, 19 Stat. 82----- T. 39, § 2503

No stamped envelopes or newspaper-wrappers shall be sold by the Post-Office Department at less (in addition to the legal postage) than the cost, including all salaries, clerk-hire, and other expenses connected therewith.

July 12, 1876, ch. 179, § 15, 19 Stat. 82----- T. 39, § 4059

That transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal rates, and all printed matter of the third class, except unsealed circulars, shall be admitted to and be transmitted in the mails at the rate of one cent for every two ounces or fractional part thereof, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof, and the sender of any article of the third class of mail-matter may write his or her name or address therein, or on the outside thereof, with the word "from" above or preceding the same, or may write briefly or print on any package the number and names of the articles enclosed. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may print on the wrappers of newspapers or magazines sent from the office of publication to regular subscribers the time to which subscription therefor has been paid. And addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender.

Aug. 11, 1876, ch. 260, § 1 (only that part of which amends subsections 246 and 251 of section 12 of the Act of June 23, 1874 (ch. 456, 18 Stat. 235), through the period in line 48, page 130), 19 Stat. 129-130

T. 39, §§ 6407, 6414, 6415, 6416, 6419

That sub-sections two hundred and forty-six and two hundred and fifty-one of section twelve, of an act entitled "An act making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, and for other purposes," approved June the twenty-third, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and for other purposes, * * *

be amended as follows:

"SEC. 246. That before the bond of a bidder, provided for in the aforesaid section, is approved, there shall be indorsed thereon the oaths of the sureties therein, taken before an officer qualified to administer oaths, that they are owners of real estate worth in the aggregate a sum double the amount of said bond, over and above all debts due and owing by them, and all judgments, mortgages, and executions against them, after allowing all exemptions of every character whatever. Accompanying said bond and as a part thereof, there shall be a series of interrogatories, in print or writing, to be prescribed by the Postmaster-General, and answered by the sureties under oath showing the amount of real estate owned by them, a brief description thereof, and its probable value, where it is situated, in what county and State the record evidence of their title exists. And if any surety shall knowingly and willfully swear falsely to any statement made under the provisions of this section he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, on conviction thereof, be punished as is provided by law for commission of the crime of perjury.

"SEC. 251. That after any regular bidder whose bid has been accepted shall fail to enter into contract for the transportation of the mails according to his proposals, or having entered into contract, shall fail to commence the performance of the service stipulated in his or their contract as therein provided, the Postmaster-General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder or bidders in the order of their bids, for the same service, who will enter into a contract for the performance thereof, unless the Postmaster-General shall consider such bid or bids too high, and in case each of said bids shall be considered too high, then the Postmaster-General shall be authorized to enter into contract, at a price less than that named in said bids, with any person, whether a bidder or not, who will enter into contract to perform the service in accordance with the terms and provisions prescribed for the execution of other contracts for similar service; and in case no satisfactory contract can be thus obtained, he shall re-advertise such route. And if any bidder whose bid has been accepted, and who has entered into a contract to perform the service according to his proposal, and in pursuance of his contract has entered upon the performance of the service, to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, shall subsequently fail or refuse to perform the service according to his contract, the Postmaster-General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder for such service, under the advertisement thereof, (unless the Postmaster-General shall consider such bid too high) who will enter into contract and give bond, with sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster-General, for the faithful performance thereof, in the same penalty and with the same terms and conditions thereto annexed as were stated and contained in the bond which accompanied his bid; and in case said next lowest bidder shall decline to enter into contract for the performance of such service, then the Postmaster-General may award the service to, and enter into contract with, any person, whether a bidder on said route or not, who will enter into contract to perform the service and execute a bond of like tenor and effect as that required of bidders, in a penalty to be prescribed, and with sureties to be approved by the Postmaster-General, for the performance of the service contracted to be performed at a price not exceeding that named in the bid of the said next lowest bidder; and if no contract can be secured at the price named in said next lowest bid, then the Postmaster-General shall proceed to secure a contract, at a price not considered too high, with any person who will execute such contract in accordance with the law applicable thereto, giving in all cases, the preference to the regular bidders on the list whose bids do not exceed the price at which others will contract therefor; and if no satisfactory contract can be thus secured, the route shall be re-advertised. Whenever an accepted bidder shall fail to enter into contract, or a contractor on any mail-route shall fail or refuse to perform the service on said route according to his contract, or when a new route shall be established or new service required, or when, from any other cause, there shall not be a contractor legally bound or required to perform such service, the Postmaster-General may make a temporary contract for carrying the mail on such route, without advertisement, for such period as may be necessary, not in any case exceeding six months, until the service shall have commenced under a contract made according to law: Provided however, That the Postmaster-General shall not employ temporary service on any route at a higher price than that paid to the contractor who shall have performed the service during the last preceding contract term. And in all cases of regular contracts hereafter made, the contract may, in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, be continued in force beyond its express terms for a period not exceeding six months, until a new contract with the same or other contractors shall be made by the Postmaster-General."

Feb. 27, 1877, ch. 69 (only that part contained in the second complete paragraph on cited page), 19 Stat. 250

Omitted (Table 3A)

Section thirty-nine hundred and fifteen is amended by adding at the end of the section the following: "The Postmaster-General shall cause to be prepared a special stamp or stamped envelope, to be used only for official-mail-matter, for each of the Executive Departments; and said stamps and stamped envelopes shall be supplied by the proper officer of said Departments to all persons under its direction requiring the same for official use; and all appropriations for postage made prior to March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-three, shall no longer be available for such purpose; and all stamps and stamped envelopes shall be sold or furnished to said several Departments or clerks only at the price for which stamps and stamped envelopes of like value are sold at the several post-offices."

Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, § 2, 19 Stat. 335----- Omitted (Table 3)

That from and after the passage of this act the bonds of all postmasters may by the direction of the Postmaster-General be approved and accepted, and the approval and acceptance signed by the First Assistant Postmaster General in the name of the Postmaster General; and all contracts for stationery, wrapping-paper, letter-balances, scales, and street letter-boxes, for the use of the postal service may be signed in like manner by the First Assistant Postmaster General in the place and stead of the Postmaster General, and his signature shall be attested by the seal of the Post-Office Department.

Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, § 3, 19 Stat. 335----- T. 39, § 6402

That the Second Assistant Postmaster General on the order of the Postmaster General may sign with his name, in the place and stead of the Postmaster General and attest his signature by the seal of the Post-Office Department, all contracts made in the said Department for mail transportation and for supplies of mail-bags, mail-catchers, mail-locks, and keys and all other articles necessary and incidental to mail-transportation.

Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, § 4, 19 Stat. 335----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Third Assistant Postmaster General, when directed by the Postmaster General, may also sign, in his name, in the place and stead of the Postmaster General, and attest his signature by the seal of the Post Office Department, all contracts for supplies of postage-stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper-wrappers, postal-cards, registered-package envelopes, locks, seals, and official envelopes for the use of postmasters, and return of dead letters, that may be required for the postal service.

Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, § 5, 19 Stat. 335-
336

T. 39, §§ 4110, 4152, 4153

That it shall be lawful to transmit through the mail, free of postage, any letters, packages, or other matters relating exclusively to the business of the Government of the United States: Provided, That every such letter or package to entitle it to pass free shall bear over the words "Official business" an endorsement showing also the name of the Department, and, if from a bureau or office, the names of the Department and bureau or office, as the case may be, whence transmitted. And if any person shall make use of any such official envelope to avoid the payment of postage on his private letter, package, or other matter in the mail, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to a fine of three hundred dollars, to be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, § 6, 19 Stat. 336----- T. 39, §§ 4110, 4152, 4153

That for the purpose of carrying this act into effect, it shall be the duty of each of the Executive Departments of the United States to provide for itself and its subordinate offices the necessary envelopes; and in addition to the endorsement designating the Department in which they are to be used, the penalty for the unlawful use of these envelopes shall be stated thereon.

Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 103, § 7, 19 Stat. 336----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House of Representatives, may send and receive through the mail, all public documents printed by order of Congress: and the name of each Senator, Representative, Delegate, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House shall be written thereon, with the proper designation of the office he holds; and the provisions of this section shall apply to each of the persons named therein until the first day of December following the expiration of their respective terms of office.

Mar. 3, 1877, ch. 110, § 1 (only the proviso in the third paragraph under the heading "Office of the Postmaster-General"), 19 Stat. 383 Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General shall cause advertisements of all general mail-lettings of each State and Territory to be conspicuously posted up in each post-office in the State and Territory embraced in said advertisements for at least sixty days before the time of such general letting; and no other advertisement of such lettings shall be required; but this provision shall not apply to any other than general mail-lettings.

May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 1, 20 Stat. 61-62----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That before making any contract for inland mail transportation, other than by railroads and steamboats, except for temporary service, as provided for in an act approved August eleventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, amendatory of sub-sections two hundred and forty-six and two hundred and fifty-one of section twelve of an act approved June twenty-third, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, the Postmaster-General shall cause to be published, in not exceeding ten newspapers published in the State or Territory in which such service is to be let, one of which shall be published at the seat of government of such State or Territory, once a week, for six consecutive weeks, preceding the time of letting, a notice in displayed type, not to exceed six inches of space in one column of a newspaper of the following purport:

MAIL LETTINGS.

Washington, D. C., -----, 18--.

Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until --, A. M. of -----, 18--., for carrying the mails of the United States, upon the routes, and according to the schedule of arrival and departure specified by the Department, in the State (or Territory) of -----, from -----, 18--., to -----, 18--.. Lists of routes, with schedules of arrivals and departures, instructions to bidders, with forms for contracts and bonds and all other necessary information will be furnished upon application to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

-----,
Postmaster-General.

and no other advertisement of miscellaneous lettings shall be required: Provided, That said contracts for mail letting shall not take place in less than sixty days after the first publication.

May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 2, 20 Stat. 62----- T. 39, § 6429

Hereafter no sub-letting or transfer of any mail contracts shall be permitted without the consent in writing of the Postmaster-General; and whenever it shall come to the knowledge of the Postmaster-General that any contractor has sub-let or transferred his contract, except with the consent of the Postmaster-

General as aforesaid, the same shall be considered as violated and the service may be again advertised as herein provided for; and the contractor and his securities shall be liable on their bond to the United States for any damage resulting to the United States in the premises.

May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 3, 20 Stat. 62----- T. 39, § 6430

Hereafter, when any person or persons being under contract with the Government of the United States for carrying the mails, shall lawfully sub-let any such contract, or lawfully employ any other person or persons to perform the service by such contractor agreed to be performed, or any part thereof, he or they shall file in the office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General a copy of his or their contract; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General to notify the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department of the fact of the filing in his office of such contract. Said notice shall embrace the name or names of the original contractor or contractors, the number of the route or routes, the name or names of the sub-contractor or sub-contractors, and the amount agreed to be paid to the sub-contractor or sub-contractors. And upon the receipt of said notice by the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department, it shall be his duty to retain, out of the amount due the original contractor or contractors, the amount stated in said notice as agreed to be paid to the sub-contractor or sub-contractors, and shall pay said amount, upon the certificate of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, to the sub-contractor or sub-contractors, under the same rules and regulations now governing the payments made to original contractors: Provided, That upon satisfactory evidence that the original contractor or contractors have paid off and discharged the amount due under his or their contract to the sub-contractor or sub-contractors, it shall be the duty of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General to certify such fact to the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department; and thereupon said Auditor shall settle with the original contractor or contractors, under the same rules as are now provided by law for such settlements.

May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 4, 20 Stat. 62----- Omitted (Table 3A)

Hereafter all advertisements, notices, proposals for contracts, and all other forms of advertising required by law for the Post Office Department may be paid for at a price not to exceed the commercial rates charged to private individuals with the usual discounts, such rates to be ascertained from sworn statements to be furnished to the Postmaster-General by the proprietors of the newspapers proposing to so advertise: Provided, That all advertising in newspapers since the tenth day of April, eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, shall be audited and paid at like rates. But the Postmaster-General may secure lower terms at special rates, whenever the public interest requires it.

May 17, 1878, ch. 107, § 5, 20 Stat. 62----- T. 39, §§ 6405, 6408

When from any cause it may become necessary to make a new contract for carrying the mails upon any water route between ports of the United States, upon which mail service has previously been performed, the Postmaster-General may contract with the owner or master of any steamship, steamboat or other vessel plying upon the waters or between ports of the United States, for carrying the mail upon said route for any length of time not exceeding four years and without advertising for proposals therefor whenever the public interest and convenience will thereby be promoted; but the price paid for such service shall in no case be greater than the average price paid under the last preceding or then existing regular contract upon the same route. And the Postmaster-General may contract with the owners or masters of steamships, steamboats or other vessels plying upon the waters or between ports of the United States for carrying the mails upon such routes where no mail service has previously been performed, without advertising for proposals therefor; but no contract for such new service shall be for a longer time than one year. No contract for carrying the mails between the United States and any foreign port shall be for a longer time than two years, unless otherwise directed by Congress. So much of sections thirty-nine hundred and forty-three, thirty-nine hundred and fifty-six, and thirty-nine hundred and seventy of the Revised Statutes as is in conflict with the preceding sections is hereby repealed.

June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 1 (the first proviso under the heading "Office of the Postmaster-General"), 20 Stat. 140

Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter the per diem pay of all special agents appointed under section forty hundred and seventeen, Revised Statutes, shall only be allowed for their actual and necessary expenses not exceeding five dollars per diem when they are actually engaged in traveling on the business of the department except such, not exceeding ten in number, as are appointed by the Postmaster-General to duty at such important points as he may designate, and nine assistant superintendents of railway mail service, who may be detailed to act as superintendents of division of railway mail service who shall each receive a salary of two thousand five hundred dollars, per annum and no more.

June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 1 (the third proviso under the heading "Office of the Postmaster-General"), 20 Stat. 141

Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General shall cause advertisements of all general mail-lettings of each State and Territory to be conspicuously posted up in each post-office in the State and Territory embraced in said advertisements for at least sixty days before the time of such general letting; and no other advertisement of such lettings shall be required; but this provision shall not apply to any other than general mail-lettings.

June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 1 (the second paragraph under the heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster General"), 20 Stat. 141

Omitted (Table 3A)

That the compensation of postmasters of the fourth class shall be the whole of the box-rents collected at their offices and commissions on unpaid letter-postage collected, on amounts received from waste-paper, dead newspapers, printed matter, and twine sold, and on postage-stamps, stamped envelopes, postal cards, and newspaper and periodical stamps canceled as postages on matter actually mailed at their offices, at the following rate, namely: On the first one hundred dollars or less per quarter, sixty per centum; on all over one hundred dollars and not over three hundred dollars per quarter, fifty per centum; and on all over three hundred dollars per quarter, forty per centum; the same to be ascertained and allowed by the Auditor in the settlement of the accounts of such postmasters, upon their sworn quarterly returns: Provided, That when the compensation of any postmaster of this class shall reach one thousand dollars per annum, exclusive of commissions on money-order business, and when the returns to the Auditor for four quarters shall show him to be entitled to a compensation in excess of that amount under section seven of the act of July twelfth, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, the Auditor shall report such fact to the Postmaster-General, who shall assign him to his proper class, and fix his salary as provided by said section: Provided further, That in no case shall there be allowed to any postmaster of this class a compensation greater than two hundred and fifty dollars in any one quarter, exclusive of money-order commissions.

June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 1 (that part of the third paragraph under the heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster General" which precedes the first semicolon), 20 Stat. 141

T. 39, §§ 2208, 2210

That in any case where the Postmaster-General shall be satisfied that a postmaster has made a false return of business, it shall be within his discretion to withhold commissions on such returns, and to allow any compensation that under the circumstances he may deem reasonable: Provided, That the form of affidavit to be made by postmasters upon their returns shall be such as may be prescribed by the Postmaster-General.

June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 1 (the first proviso under the heading "Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster General"), 20 Stat. 142

Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter the Postmaster-General may appoint one agent only to superintend the postal railway service, who shall be paid, out of the appropriation for the transportation of the mail on railways, a salary at the rate of three thousand five hundred dollars a year, and no allowances for traveling or incidental expenses:

June 17, 1878, ch. 259, § 2 (only the first, second, and third provisos), 20 Stat. 143

Omitted (Table 3)

Provided, That the disbursements of the moneys appropriated for the preparation and publication of post-route maps be made by a regular bonded disbursing-officer of the Post-Office Department, according to the laws, rules, and customs as recognized by the accounting-officers of the Treasury Department: And provided also, That the pay-rolls of the draughtsmen, clerks, messengers, and other employees of the topographer's office, shall be regularly made out by the chief of the topographer's office, examined and checked by the appointment-clerk of the Post-Office Department, and the payments thereof made by a bonded disbursing-officer of the Post-Office Department: And also provided further, That all expenditures made by the chief of the topographer's office for the preparation and publication of post-route maps shall be accounted for by vouchers, accompanied by affidavit, and the moneys therefor shall be disbursed by a disbursing-officer of the Post-Office Department; and all of the above disbursements shall be paid out of the appropriation for the preparation and publication of post-route maps.

June 20, 1878, ch. 359, § 1 (only fourth paragraph of said page), 20 Stat. 240

T. 39, § 2507

That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby, authorized to adopt a uniform canceling ink or other appliance for canceling stamps which experiments and tests have proved or may prove to be the most practicable and the best calculated to protect the revenues of the department from the frauds practiced upon it, to be used in all the post-offices where stamps are canceled, and he is hereby authorized to distribute said canceling ink or other appliance in the same manner as other supplies are now distributed to the different post-offices in the United States; and to this end the Postmaster-General is hereby authorized to use any funds of said department heretofore applicable: Provided, The same shall not increase the expenditures of said department for the purposes named in this section.

Feb. 4, 1879, ch. 45, 20 Stat. 281

T. 39, § 2405

That section thirty-eight hundred and thirty-five of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding the following:

Hereafter, when a deficiency shall be discovered in the accounts of any postmaster, who after the adjustment of his accounts fails, to make good such deficiency, it shall be the duty of the Sixth Auditor of the Treasury Department to notify the Postmaster-General of such failure, and upon receiving such notice the Postmaster-General shall forthwith deposit a notice in the post-office at Washington, District of Columbia, addressed to the sureties respectively upon the bond of said postmaster, at the office where he or they may reside, if known; but a failure to give or mail such notice shall not discharge such surety or sureties upon such bond.

Feb. 21, 1879, ch. 95, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 20 Stat. 317

Omitted (Table 3A)

That for the more equitable compensation of letter-carriers there shall be in all cities which contain a population of seventy-five thousand or more two classes of letter-carriers, to be fixed by the Postmaster-General.

The salaries of carriers of the first-class, who shall have been in service at least one year, shall be one thousand dollars per annum, and the salaries of the carriers of the second class shall be eight hundred dollars per annum. In all cities containing a population of less than seventy-five thousand there shall be one class of letter-carriers, who shall receive a salary of eight hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

Upon the recommendation of the postmaster of any city, the Postmaster-General may establish a third grade of letter carriers, known as auxiliaries, who shall be paid at the rate of four hundred dollars per annum.

Appointments of letter-carriers in cities having two or more classes shall be made to the class having the minimum rate of pay, and promotions from the lower grades in said cities shall be made to the higher grades to fill vacancies, after one or more years' service, on certificate of the postmaster to the efficiency and faithfulness of the candidate during the preceding year: Provided, however, That at no time shall the number of carriers in the first class, receiving the maximum salary of one thousand dollars, be more than two-thirds or less than one-half the whole number of carriers actually in service in the city in which they are employed: Provided, further, That no boxes for the collection of mail-matter by carriers shall be placed inside of any building except a public building or railroad-station.

Letter-carriers shall be employed for the free delivery, of mail-matter, as frequently as the public convenience may require, at every place containing a population of fifty thousand within the delivery of its post-office, and may be so employed at every place containing a population of not less than twenty thousand within its corporate limits, and at post-offices which produced a gross revenue for the preceding fiscal year of not less than twenty thousand dollars: Provided, This act shall not affect the free delivery in towns and cities where it is now established.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 1 (the first proviso under the heading "Office of the Postmaster-General"), 20 Stat. 356

Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General shall cause advertisements of all general mail-lettings of each State and Territory to be conspicuously posted up in each post-office in the State and Territory embraced in said advertisements for at least sixty days before the time of such general letting; and no other advertisement of such lettings shall be required; but this provision shall not apply to any other than general mail-lettings.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 1 (the second proviso under the heading "Office of the first Assistant Postmaster General"), 20 Stat. 356

Omitted (Table 3A)

That from and after the passage of this act Senators, Representatives and Delegates in Congress, the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives, may send and receive through the mail free, all public documents printed by order of Congress; and the name of each Senator, Representative, Delegate, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House shall be written thereon with the proper designation of the office he holds, and the provisions of this section shall apply to each of the persons named herein until the first Monday of December, following the expiration of their respective terms of office.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 1 (the proviso in the fifth paragraph under the heading "Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster General"), 20 Stat. 357

T. 39, § 3116

That postal clerks, route agents, and mail route messengers shall not be required to wear uniform other than a cap or badge.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 3, 20 Stat. 358

Omitted (Table 3A)

The Postmaster General shall, in all cases, decide upon what trains and in what manner the mails shall be conveyed.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 4, 20 Stat. 358

Omitted (Table 3)

That all cars or parts of cars used for the railway mail service shall be of such style, length, and character, and furnished in such manner, as shall be required by the Postmaster General, and shall be constructed, fitted up, maintained, heated, and lighted by and at the expense of the railroad companies.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 7, 20 Stat. 358

T. 39, §§ 4251, 4451, 4551

That mailable matter shall be divided in to four classes:

- First, written matter;
- Second, periodical publications;
- Third, miscellaneous printed matter;
- Fourth, merchandise.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 8, 20 Stat. 358

T. 39, § 4251

Mailable matter of the first class shall embrace letters, postal cards, and all matters wholly or partly in writing, except as hereinafter provided.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 9, 20 Stat. 358

T. 39, §§ 4054, 4251, 4253

That on mailable matter of the first class, except postal cards and drop letters, postage shall be prepaid at the rate of three cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof; postal cards shall be transmitted through the mails at a postage charge of one cent each, including the cost of manufacture; and drop letters shall be mailed at the rate of two cents per half ounce or fraction thereof, including delivery at letter carrier offices, and one cent for each half ounce or fraction thereof where free delivery by carrier is not established. The Postmaster General may, however, provide, by regulation, for transmitting unpaid and duly certified letters of soldiers, sailors, and marines in the service of the United States to their destination, to be paid on delivery.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 10, 20 Stat. 359----- T. 39, § 4351

That mailable matter of the second class shall embrace all newspapers and other periodical publications which are issued at stated intervals, and as frequently as four times a year and are within the conditions named in section twelve and fourteen.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 11 20 Stat. 359----- Omitted (Table 3A)

Publications of the second class except as provided in section twenty-five, when sent by the publisher thereof, and from the office of publication, including sample copies, or when sent from a news agency to actual subscribers thereto, or to other news agents, shall be entitled to transmission through the mails at two cents a pound or fraction thereof, such postage to be prepaid, as now provided by law.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 12, 20 Stat. 359----- T. 39, §§ 4058, 4365

That matter of the second class may be examined at the office of mailing, and if found to contain matter which is subject to a higher rate of postage, such matter shall be charged with postage at the rate to which the inclosed matter is subject: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prohibit the insertion in periodicals of advertisements attached permanently to the same.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 14, 20 Stat. 359----- T. 39, § 4354

That the conditions upon which a publication shall be admitted to the second class are as follows:

First. It must regularly be issued at stated intervals, as frequently as four times a year, and bear a date of issue, and be numbered consecutively.

Second. It must be issued from a known office of publication.

Third. It must be formed of printed paper sheets, without board, cloth, leather, or other substantial binding, such as distinguish printed books for preservation from periodical publications.

Fourth. It must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, arts, or some special industry, and having a legitimate list of subscribers; Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to admit to the second class rate regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal rates.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 15, 20 Stat. 359----- T. 39, § 4353

That foreign newspapers and other periodicals of the same general character as those admitted to the second class in the United States may, under the direction of the Postmaster General, on application of the publishers thereof or their agents, be transmitted through the mails at the same rates as if published in the United States. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to allow the transmission through the mails of any publication which violates any copyright granted by the United States.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 16, 20 Stat. 359----- T. 39, § 4366

That publishers of matter of the second class may without subjecting it to extra postage, fold within their regular issues a supplement; but in all cases the added matter must be germane to the publication which it supplements, that is to say, matter supplied in order to complete that to which it is added or supplemented, but omitted from the regular issue for want of space, time, or greater convenience, which supplement must in every case be issued with the publication.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 17, 20 Stat. 359----- T. 39, § 4060
360

That mail matter of the third class shall embrace books, transient newspapers, and periodicals, circulars, and other matter wholly in print (not included in section twelve), proof sheets, corrected proof sheets, and manuscript copy accompanying the same, and postage shall be paid at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof, and shall fully be prepaid by postage stamps affixed to said matter. Printed matter other than books received in the mails from foreign countries under the provisions of postal treaties or conventions shall be free of customs duty, and books which are admitted to the international mails exchanged under the provisions of the Universal Postal Union Convention may, when subject to customs duty, be delivered to addresses in the United States under such regulations for the collection of duties as may be agreed upon by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 18, 20 Stat. 360----- T. 39, § 4451

That the term "circular" is defined to be a printed letter, which, according to internal evidence, is being sent in identical terms to several persons. A circular shall not lose its character as such, when the date and the name of the addressed and of the sender shall be written therein, nor by the correction of mere typographical errors in writing.

Mar. 3, 1789, ch. 180, § 19, 20 Stat. 360----- T. 39, § 4451

That "printed matter" within the intendment of this act is defined to be the reproduction upon paper, by any process except that of handwriting, of any words, letters, characters, figures, or images, or of any combination thereof, not having the character of an actual and personal correspondence.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 20, 20 Stat. 360----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That mailable matter of the fourth class shall embrace all matter not embraced in the first, second, or third class, which is not in its form or nature liable to destroy, deface, or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bag, or harm the person of any one engaged in the postal service, and is not above the weight provided by law, which is hereby declared to be not exceeding four pounds for each package thereof, except in case of single books weighing in excess of that amount, and except for books and documents published or circulated by order of Congress, or official matter emanating from any of the departments of the government or from the Smithsonian Institution, or which is not declared non mailable under the provision of section thirty eight hundred and ninety three of the Revised Statutes as amended by the act of July twelfth, eighteen hundred and seventy six, or matter appertaining to lotteries, gift concerts, or fraudulent schemes or devices.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 21, 20 Stat. 360----- T. 39, §§ 4002, 4058

That all matter of the fourth class shall be subject to examination and to a postage charge at the rate of one cent an ounce or fraction thereof, to be prepaid by stamps affixed. If any matter excluded from the mails by the preceding section of this act, except that declared non mailable by section thirty eight hundred and ninety three of the Revised Statutes as amended, shall, by inadvertence, reach the office of destination, the same shall be delivered in accordance with its address: Provided, That the party addressed shall furnish the name and address of the sender to the postmaster at the office of delivery, who shall immediately report the facts to the Postmaster General. If the person addressed refuse to give the required information, the postmaster shall hold the package subject to the order of the Postmaster General. All matter declared non mailable by section thirty eight hundred and ninety three of the Revised Statutes as amended, which shall reach the office of delivery, shall be held by the postmaster at the said office subject to the order of the Postmaster General.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 22, 20 Stat. 360----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That mailable matter of the second class shall contain no writing, print, mark, or sign thereon or therein in addition to the original print, except as herein provided, to wit, the name and address of the person to whom the matter shall be sent, and index figures of subscription book, either written or printed, the printed title of the publication, the printed name and address of the publisher or sender of the same, and written or printed words or figures or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to such matter will end. Upon matter of the third class, or upon the wrapper inclosing the same, the sender may write his own name or address thereon, with the word "from" above and preceding the same, and in either case may make single marks intended to designate a word or passage of the text to which it is desired to call attention. There may be placed upon the cover or blank leaves of any book or of any printed matter of the third class a simple manuscript dedication or inscription that does not partake of the nature of a personal correspondence. Upon any package of matter of the fourth class the sender may write or print his own name and address, preceded by the word "from", and there may also be written or printed the number and names of the articles inclosed; and the sender thereof may write or print upon or attach to any such articles by tag or label a mark, number, name, or letter for purpose of identification.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 24, 20 Stat. 361----- T. 39, § 4058, 4251

That the Postmaster General may prescribe, by regulation, the manner of wrapping and securing for the mails all packages of matter not charged with first class postage, so that the contents of such packages may be easily examined; and no package the contents of which cannot be easily examined shall pass in the mails, or be delivered at a less rate than for matter of the first class.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 25, 20 Stat. 361----- T. 39, § 4358

That publications of the second class, one copy to each actual subscriber residing in the county where the same are printed, in whole or in part, and published, shall go free through the mails; but the same shall not be delivered at letter carrier offices, or distributed by carriers, unless postage is paid thereon at the rate prescribed in section thirteen of this act: Provided, That the rate of postage on newspapers, excepting weeklies, and periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, when the same are deposited in a letter-carrier office for delivery by its carriers, shall be uniform at one cent each; periodicals weighing more than two ounces shall be subject, when delivered by such carriers, to a postage of two cents each, and these rates shall be prepaid by stamps affixed.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 26, 20 Stat. 361----- T. 39, §§ 2501, 2505, 4109, 4110

That all mail-matter of the first class upon which one full rate of postage has been prepaid shall be forwarded to its destination, charged with the unpaid rate, to be collected on delivery; but postmasters, before delivering the same, or any article of mail-matter upon which prepayment in full has not been made, shall affix, or cause to be affixed, and canceled, as ordinary stamps are canceled, one or more stamps equivalent in value to the amount of postage due on such article of mail-matter, which stamps shall be of such special design and denomination as the Postmaster-General may prescribe, and which shall in no case be sold by any postmaster nor received by him in prepayment of postage. That in lieu of the commission now allowed to postmasters at offices of the fourth class upon the amount of unpaid letter-postage collected, such postmasters shall receive a commission upon the amount of such special stamps so canceled, the same as now allowed upon postage stamps, stamped envelopes, postal cards, and newspaper and periodical stamps canceled as postages on matter actually mailed at their offices: Provided, The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, prescribe instead such regulation therefor at the offices where free delivery is established as, in his judgment, the good of the service may require.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 29, 20 Stat. 362----- T. 39, §§ 4110, 4152, 4153

The provisions of the fifth and sixth sections of the act entitled "An act establishing post-routes, and for other purposes", approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, for the transmission of official mail-matter, be, and they are hereby, extended to all officers of the United States Government, and made applicable to all official mail-matter transmitted between any of the officers of the United States, or between any such officer and either of the executive departments or officers of the government, the envelopes of such matter in all cases to bear appropriate indorsements containing the proper designation of the office from which the same is transmitted, with a statement of the penalty for their misuse. And the provisions of said fifth and sixth sections are hereby likewise extended and made applicable to all official mail-matter sent from the Smithsonian Institution: Provided, That this act shall not extend or apply to pension-agents or other officers who receive a fixed allowance as compensation for their services, including expenses for postage.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 30, 20 Stat. 362----- T. 39, §§ 6402, 6426

That section thirty-nine hundred and fifty-five of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows: "The Postmaster-General, whenever, he may deem it consistent with the public interest, may accept or require new surety upon any contract existing or hereafter made for carrying the mails, in substitution for and release of any existing surety".

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 31, 20 Stat. 362----- Omitted (Table 3)

Any person performing the duties of postmaster, by authority of the President, at any post-office where there is a vacancy for any cause, shall receive for the term for which the duty is performed the same compensation to which he would have been entitled if regularly appointed and confirmed as such postmaster; and all services heretofore rendered in like cases shall be paid for under this provision.

Mar. 3, 1879, ch. 180, § 32, 20 Stat. 362----- T. 39, § 2502

That the Postmaster-General is hereby authorized to take the necessary steps to introduce and furnish for public use a letter-sheet envelope, on which postage stamps of the denominations now in use on ordinary envelopes shall be placed. And the Postmaster-General is also authorized to introduce and furnish for public use a double postal card, on which shall be placed two one-cent stamps, and said card to be so arranged for the address that it may be forwarded and returned, said cards to be sold for two cents apiece; and also to introduce and furnish for public use a double-letter envelope, on which stamps of the denominations now in use may be placed, and with the arrangement for the address similar to the double postal card; said letter-sheet and double postal card and double envelope to be issued under such regulations as the Postmaster-General may prescribe: Provided, That the appropriation for postal cards and letter-envelopes for the years ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine and eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be available for the purchase of said letter-sheet envelopes, double or return postal cards, and double-letter envelopes: And provided, That no money shall be paid for royalty or patent on any of the articles named.

June 12, 1879, ch. 20, 21 Stat. 11----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That in cases where special service has already been placed on new routes, the Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, extend such service until the time when service can be obtained by advertisement, not exceeding in any case one year. And whenever an accepted bidder shall fail to enter into contract, or a contractor on any mail-route shall fail or refuse to perform the service on said route according to his contract, or when a new route shall be established or new service required, or when, from any other cause, there shall not be a contractor legally bound or required to perform such service, the Postmaster-General may make a temporary contract for carrying the mail on such route, without advertisement, for such period as may be necessary, not in any case exceeding one year, until the service shall have commenced under a contract made according to law.

Apr. 7, 1880, ch. 48, § 2 (only the proviso), 21 Stat. 72----- Omitted (Table 3)

Provided, That the Postmaster General shall not hereafter have the power to expedite the service under any contract either now existing or hereafter given to a rate of pay exceeding fifty per centum upon the contract as originally let.

June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1 (that portion of the first paragraph under the heading "Office of the Postmaster-General" between the first and second semicolons), 21 Stat. 177----- Omitted (Table 3) and the superintendent of railway mail service and the chief of post-office inspectors shall be paid their actual expenses while traveling on the business of the department;

June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1 (in the first paragraph under the heading "Office of the Postmaster-General" all after the second semicolon), 21 Stat. 177----- T. 39, §§ 903 and section four thousand and seventeen of the Revised Statutes is hereby so amended as to insert in lieu of the words "special agents" and the word "agents", wherever they occur in said section, the words "post-office inspectors".

June 11, 1880, ch. 206, § 1 (second sentence of first paragraph on said page), 21 Stat. 179----- T. 39, § 2503

And the Postmaster-General is hereafter authorized to furnish and issue to the public, postal cards with postage-stamps impressed upon them, for circulation in the mails exchanged with foreign countries under the provisions of the Universal Postal Union Convention of June first, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, at a postage charge of two cents each, including the cost of their manufacture.

Mar. 1, 1881, ch. 96, § 1 (only the last clause in first paragraph under heading "Office of the Postmaster-General"), 21 Stat. 374 Omitted (Table 3) and hereafter the superintendent of railway mail-service and the chief of post-office inspectors shall be paid their actual expenses while travelling on the business of the department.

Feb. 25, 1882, ch. 16, 22 Stat. 4----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General may, by appointment under his hand and official seal, delegate to the Third Assistant Postmaster-General authority to sign in his stead all warrants, registered and countersigned by the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department, for the payment of money from the public Treasury on account of the postal service.

SEC. 2. That warrants signed by the said Third Assistant Postmaster-General shall be in all cases of the same validity as if they had been signed by the Postmaster-General himself.

Mar. 17, 1882, ch. 41, § 1, 22 Stat. 29-30----- T. 39, § 2403

That the Postmaster-General be, and he is hereby, authorized to investigate all claims of Postmasters for the loss of money-order funds, postage-stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, and postal cards belonging to the United States in the hands of such Postmasters, resulting from burglary, fire, or other unavoidable casualty, and if he shall determine that such loss resulted from no fault or negligence on the part of such Postmasters, to pay to such Postmasters or credit them with the amount so ascertained to have been lost or destroyed, and also to credit Postmasters with the amount of any remittance of money-order funds made by them, in compliance with the instructions of the Postmaster-General, which shall have been lost or stolen while in transit by mail from the office of the remitting Postmaster to the office designated as his depository: Provided, That no claim exceeding the sum of two thousand dollars shall be paid or credited until after the facts shall have been ascertained by the Postmaster General and reported to Congress, together with his recommendation thereon, and an appropriation made therefor: And provided further, That this act shall not embrace any claim for losses as aforesaid which accrued more than fifteen years prior to its passage; and all such claims must be presented to the Postmaster-General within six months after the taking effect of this act; and no claim for losses which may hereafter accrue shall be allowed unless presented within three months from the time the loss accrued.

Mar. 17, 1882, ch. 41, § 2, 22 Stat. 30----- T. 39, § 2403

That it is hereby made the duty of the Postmaster-General to report his action herein to Congress annually, with his reasons therefor in each particular case.

May 4, 1882, ch. 116, § 1 (the provisos under the heading "Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster General"), 22 Stat. 53-54 T. 39, §§ 6431, 6436

That whenever any contractor or subcontractor shall sublet his contract for the transportation of the mail on any route for a less sum than that for which he contracted to perform the service, the Postmaster-General may, whenever he shall deem it for the good of the service, declare the original contract at an end, and enter into a contract with the last subcontractor, without advertising, to perform the service on the terms at which the last subcontractor agreed with the original contractor or former subcontractor to perform the same: Provided, That such last subcontractor shall enter into a good and sufficient bond, and that the original contractor shall not be released from his contract until a good and sufficient bond has been made by such last subcontractor and accepted by the Post-Office Department: Provided further, That when a contract hereafter made is declared void on account of its having been sublet, the contractor shall not be entitled to one month's extra pay as provided for by law: And provided further, That if any person shall hereafter perform any service for any contractor or subcontractor in carrying the mail, he shall, upon filing in the department his contract for such service, and satisfactory evidence of its performance, thereafter have a lien on any money due such contractor or subcontractor for such service to the amount of the same; and if such contractor or subcontractor shall fail to pay the party or parties who have performed service as aforesaid the amount due for such service within two months after the expiration of the quarter in which such service shall have been performed, the Postmaster-General may cause the amount due to be paid said party or parties and charged to the contractor, provided that such payment shall not in any case exceed the rate of pay per annum of the contractor or subcontractor: And provided further, That where any person, corporation, or partnership shall have contracts for the performance of mail service upon more than one route, and any failure to perform the service according to contract on any one or more of such routes shall occur, no payment shall be made for service on any of the routes under contract with such person, corporation, or partnership until such failure has been removed and all penalties therefor fully satisfied.

May 4, 1882, ch. 116, § 1 (all after the semicolon in the fourth complete paragraph on said page), 22 Stat. 54 Omitted (Table 3) and the Postmaster-General is authorized to designate postmasters at Presidential post-offices as disbursing officers for the payment of the salaries of the officers and employees of the postal service concerned in the transportation of mails or in their distribution in transit, and for such other payments as they are now authorized to make from postal revenues.

May 4, 1882, ch. 116, § 3, 22 Stat. 55----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the amount of all money-orders which shall have remained unpaid for a period of five years or more after the date of the issue thereof, which amount is to be ascertained and reported annually by the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department, shall be covered into the Treasury. But nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the payment, out of current money-order funds, by duplicate issued under the authority of the Postmaster-General, of any money-order which has remained unpaid more than five years.

July 31, 1882, ch. 361, § 1, 22 Stat. 180----- T. 39, §§ 3116, 4056, 4370

That persons in the railway mail service, known as railway post-office clerks, route-agents, local agents, and mail-route messengers, shall, on and after the passage of this act, be designated as railway postal clerks, and divided into five classes, whose salaries shall not exceed the following rates per annum: First class not exceeding eight hundred dollars; second class, not exceeding nine hundred dollars; third class, not exceeding one thousand dollars; fourth class, not exceeding one thousand two hundred dollars; and fifth class, not exceeding one thousand four hundred dollars: Provided, That the Postmaster-General, in fixing the salaries of clerks in the different classes, may fix different salaries for clerks of the same class, according to the amount of work done and the responsibility incurred by each, but shall not, in any case, allow a higher salary to any clerk of any class than the maximum fixed by this act for the class to which such clerk belongs.

Aug. 2, 1882, ch. 373, § 1, 22 Stat. 185----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That section three of an act entitled "An act to fix the pay of letter-carriers," approved February twenty-first, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, be amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 3.—Upon the recommendation of the postmaster of any city, the Postmaster General may establish a third grade of letter-carriers, known as auxiliaries, who shall be paid at the rate of six hundred dollars per annum, and who may be employed at any letter carrier office."

Aug. 2, 1882, ch. 373, § 2, 22 Stat. 185----- Omitted (Table 3)

That section four of the act aforesaid be, and the same is hereby, amended so that it will read as follows:

"SEC. 4.—Appointments of letter carriers in cities having two or more classes shall be made to the class having the minimum rate of pay, and promotions from the lower grades in said cities shall be made to the next higher grade at the expiration of one year's service, on certificate of the postmaster to the efficiency and faithfulness of the candidate during the preceding year: Provided, however, That the Postmaster General be, and he hereby is, authorized to appoint one or more substitute letter carriers, whose compensation shall be one dollar per annum and the pro-rata compensation of the carriers whose routes they may be required to serve: And provided further, That no boxes for the collection of mail matter by carriers shall be placed inside of any building except a public building or railroad station."

Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 1, 22 Stat. 216----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster General is hereby authorized, in cases where the mail service would be thereby improved, to extend service on a mail route under contract, at not exceeding pro rata additional pay, for any distance not exceeding twenty-five miles beyond either terminal point named in said contract: Provided, That no service shall be extended beyond the original terminal points more than once during the term for which the contract shall have been made.

Aug. 3, 1882, ch. 379, § 2, 22 Stat. 216----- T. 39, § 6414

Whenever a contractor for postal service fails to commence proper service, under the contract, or, having commenced service, fails to continue in the proper performance thereof, the Postmaster-General may employ temporary service on the route, at a rate of pay per annum not to exceed the amount of the bond required to accompany proposals for service on such route, as specified in the advertisement of the route, or at not exceeding pro rata of such bond, in cases where service shall have been ordered to be increased, reduced, curtailed, or changed, subsequent to the execution of contract: The cost of such temporary service to be charged to the contractor, and to continue until the contractor commences or resumes the proper performance of service, or until the route can be relet, as now provided by law, and service commenced under the new award of contract. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act being hereby repealed.

Aug. 5, 1882, ch. 389, § 1 (only the last clause of the first complete paragraph on said page), 22 Stat. 253 Omitted (Table 3) and hereafter the annual report of the Postmaster-General shall not be published in said Official Postal Guide.

Mar. 3, 1883, ch. 92, § 1 (all after the first semicolon in the first paragraph under the heading "Office of the Third Assistant Postmaster-General"), 22 Stat. 455 Omitted (Table 3A) and upon all matter of the first class, as defined by chapter one hundred and eighty of the laws of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, entitled an act making appropriations for the service of the Post-Office Department for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty, and for other purposes, and by that act declared subject to postage at the rate of three cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof, postage shall be charged, on and after the first day of October A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-three at the rate of two cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof; and all acts, so far as they fix a different rate of postage than herein provided upon such first-class matter, are, to that extent, hereby repealed.

Mar. 3, 1883, ch. 123, § 2 (only the second complete sentence of said section), 22 Stat. 527 T. 39, § 2005

And all blanks, blank-books, and printed or engraved matter supplied to postmasters by the Postmaster-General or used in his department for the transaction of the money-order business shall be obtained from the lowest responsible bidders for furnishing printed and engraved matter, respectively, under separate advertisements calling for proposals to furnish the same for a period of four years, upon such conditions as the Postmaster-General may prescribe: Provided, That the Public Printer and the Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing of the Treasury Department shall submit, respectively, estimates of the cost of furnishing such printed and engraved matter as may be required for use in the money-order business, and they shall furnish such printed and engraved matter whenever upon their estimates of cost the expenditure therefor will be less than upon proposals made as above provided for.

Mar. 3, 1883, ch. 123, § 3, 22 Stat. 527-528

Omitted (Table 3A)

That a money-order shall not be issued for more than one hundred dollars, and that the fees for money-orders shall be as follows, to wit:

For orders not exceeding ten dollars, eight cents.

For orders exceeding ten dollars and not exceeding fifteen dollars, ten cents.

For orders exceeding fifteen dollars and not exceeding thirty dollars, fifteen cents.

For orders exceeding thirty dollars and not exceeding forty dollars, twenty cents.

For orders exceeding forty dollars and not exceeding fifty dollars, twenty-five cents.

For orders exceeding fifty dollars and not exceeding sixty dollars, thirty cents.

For orders exceeding sixty dollars and not exceeding seventy dollars, thirty-five cents.

For orders exceeding seventy dollars and not exceeding eighty dollars, forty cents.

For orders exceeding eighty dollars and not exceeding one hundred dollars, forty-five cents.

Mar. 3, 1883, ch. 123, § 4, 22 Stat. 528----- Omitted (Table 3)

That postmasters at money-order post-offices whose annual salary is not less than three thousand dollars may be allowed by the Postmaster-General to employ such number of clerks in the transaction of their money-order business, and at such rates of compensation, respectively, as he may deem expedient; and at all other money-order post-offices the compensation for the clerical labor employed in the money-order business, including the issue and payment of postal notes, shall be three and one-half cents for each domestic or international money-order issued, paid, or repaid, and one cent for each postal note issued, and three-quarters of one cent for each postal note paid thereat, and in case any office is designated to receive on deposit surplus money-order funds from other post-offices, three and one-half cents for each certificate issued in acknowledgement of the receipt of such funds; but the total allowance made by the Postmaster-General for money-order clerks at any first-class office shall be based, as nearly as possible, upon the number of transactions, at the same rate for each transaction as is above fixed for the compensation of clerical labor at other post-offices, and the compensation of the postmasters and the clerks provided for in this section shall be paid out of the fees received for the issue of money-orders and postal notes: Provided, That in addition to an allowance for clerical service at the rates above mentioned, the Postmaster-General may allow to the postmaster at New York, New York, to the postmaster at San Francisco, California, to the postmaster at Portland, Oregon, and to the postmaster at each international exchange office, such amount in each case, out of the proceeds of the money-order business, as he may deem expedient to enable these postmasters to obtain the clerical labor necessary for the performance of such special duties as are imposed upon them by the operations of the money-order system, and are not required of other postmasters: And provided further, That credit shall not be allowed to a postmaster at a first-class office on account of any expenditure in payment of clerical service in the money-order business of his office except upon a voucher duly receipted by the person by whom such service shall have been performed: And provided further, That the salaries of postmasters, as fixed by law, shall be deemed and taken to be full compensation for the responsibility and risk incurred and for the personal services rendered by them as custodians of the money-order and other funds of the Post-Office Department.

Mar. 3, 1883, ch. 128, § 2, 22 Stat. 563----- Omitted (Table 3)

That the Secretaries, respectively, of the Departments of State, of the Treasury, War, Navy, and of the Interior, and the Attorney-General, are authorized to make requisitions upon the Postmaster-General for the necessary amount of official postage-stamps for the use of their departments, not exceeding the amount stated in the estimates submitted to Congress; and upon presentation of proper vouchers therefor at the Treasury, the amount thereof shall be credited to the appropriation for the service of the Post-Office Department for the same fiscal year. And it shall be the duty of the respective departments to inclose to Senators, Representatives and Delegates in Congress, in all official communications requiring answers, or to be forwarded to others, penalty envelopes addressed as far as practicable, for forwarding or answering such official correspondence.

That all letter-carriers at free-delivery offices shall be entitled to leave of absence, not to exceed fifteen days in each year, without loss of pay; and the Postmaster-General is hereby authorized to employ, when necessary, during the time such leave of absence is granted, such number of substitute letter-carriers as may be deemed advisable, who shall be paid for services rendered at the rate of six hundred dollars per annum.

July 5, 1884, ch. 234, § 1 (all the language after the semicolon in the last paragraph under the heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster General"), 23 Stat. 156 T. 39, §§ 4110, 4152, 4153, 5003 and the Postmaster-General is authorized to designate postmasters at money-order post-offices as disbursing officers for the payment of the salaries of officers and employees of the postal service, and for such other payments as postmasters are now authorized to make from postal revenues.

July 5, 1884, ch. 234, § 3 (all but the last sentence of said section), 23 Stat. 158 Omitted (Table 3)

That section twenty-nine of the act of March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine (United States Statutes at Large, page three hundred and sixty-two), be, and it is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"The provisions of the fifth and sixth section of the act entitled 'An act establishing post-routes, and for other purposes' approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, for the transmission of official mail-matter, be, and they are hereby, extended to all officers of the United States Government, not including members of Congress, the envelopes of such matter in all cases to bear appropriate indorsements containing the proper designation of the office from which or officer from whom the same is transmitted, with a statement of the penalty for their misuse. And the provisions of said fifth and sixth sections are hereby likewise extended and made applicable to all official mail-matter of the Smithsonian Institution: Provided, That any Department or officer authorized to use the penalty envelopes may inclose them with return address to any person or persons from or through whom official information is desired, the same to be used only to cover such official information, and indorsements relating thereto: Provided further, That this act shall not extend or apply to pension agents or other officers who receive a fixed allowance as compensation for their services, including expenses of postages.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1 (the second sentence in the second paragraph under the heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General"), 23 Stat. 385 T. 39, § 3332

And postmasters are authorized, with the approval of the Postmaster-General, to assign at any time any clerk or employe of their respective post-offices to duty in any branch thereof: Provided always, That any employe shall be paid from money-order funds for such time as he is engaged in money-order work.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1 (all of the second sentence of the eighth complete paragraph under the heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General"), 23 Stat. 386 T. 39, § 2102

That the Postmaster-General may in the disbursement of this appropriation, apply part thereof to the purpose of leasing premises for use for post-offices of the first, second, and third classes at a reasonable annual rental, to be paid quarterly for a term not exceeding five years; and whenever any building or part of a building under lease becomes unfit for use as a post-office, no rent shall be paid until the same shall be put in a satisfactory condition by the owner thereof for occupation as a post-office, or the lease may be canceled, at the option of the Postmaster-General; and a lease shall cease and terminate whenever a post office can be moved into a Government building.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1 (the second sentence of the fourth complete paragraph under the heading "Office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General"), 23 Stat. 386

T. 39, § 6405

The Postmaster-General is authorized to contract for inland and foreign steamboat mail service, when it can be combined in one route, where the foreign office or offices are not more than two hundred miles distant from the domestic office, on the same terms and conditions as inland steamboat service, and pay for the same out of the appropriation for inland steamboat service.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1 (the second and third sentences of the first paragraph under the heading "Office of the Third Assistant Postmaster-General"), 23 Stat. 386-387

T. 39, §§ 4253, 4359

That upon all matter of the first class, as defined by chapter one hundred and eighty of the laws of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, entitled "An act making appropriations for the service of the Post-Office Department for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty, and for other purposes," and by that act declared subject to postage at the rate of three cents for each half-ounce or fraction thereof and reduced by the act of March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, to two cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof, postage shall be charged, on and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, at the rate of two cents for each ounce or fraction thereof; and drop letters shall be mailed at the rate of two cents per ounce or fraction thereof, including delivery at letter-carrier offices, and one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof where free delivery by carrier is not established. That all publications of the second class, except as provided in section twenty-five of said act, when sent by the publisher thereof, and from the office of publication, including sample copies, or when sent from a news agency to actual subscribers thereto, or to other news agents, shall, on and after July first, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, be entitled to transmission through the mails at one cent a pound or a fraction thereof, such postage to be prepaid as now provided by law.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 1 (the second complete paragraph under the heading "Office of the Third Assistant Postmaster-General"), 23 Stat. 387

Omitted (Table 3A)

And any article or item in any newspaper or other publication may be marked for observation, except by written or printed words, without increase of postage.

T. 39, §§ 2501, 6006

That a special stamp of the face valuation of ten cents may be provided and issued, whenever deemed advisable or expedient, in such form and bearing such device as may meet the approval of the Postmaster-General, which, when attached to a letter, in addition to the lawful postage thereon, the delivery of which is to be at a free delivery office, or at any city, town, or village containing a population of four thousand or over, according to the Federal census, shall be regarded as entitling such letter to immediate delivery within the carrier limit of any free delivery office which may be designated by the Postmaster-General as a special delivery office, or within one mile of the post office at any other office coming within the provisions of this section which may in like manner be designated as a special delivery office.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 4, 23 Stat. 388----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That such specially stamped letters shall be delivered from seven o'clock ante meridian up to twelve o'clock midnight at offices designated by the Postmaster-General under section three of this act.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 5, 23 Stat. 388----- T. 39, § 6007

That to provide for the immediate delivery of letters bearing the special stamp, the postmaster at any office which may come within the provisions of this act may, with the approval of the Postmaster-General, employ such person or persons as may actually be required for such service, who, upon the delivery of such letter, will procure a receipt from the party addressed, or some one authorized to receive it, in a book to be furnished for the purpose, which shall, when not in use, be kept in the post-office, and at all times subject to examination by an inspector of the Department.

Mar. 3, 1885, ch. 342, § 6, 23 Stat. 388----- Omitted (Table 3)

That to provide for the payment of such persons as may be employed for this service, the postmaster at any office designated by section three of this act shall keep a record of the number of letters received at such office bearing such special stamp, which number shall correspond with the number entered in the receipt books heretofore specified; and at the end of each month he may pay to such person or persons employed a sum not exceeding eighty per centum of the face value of all such stamps received and recorded during that month: Provided, That in no case shall the compensation so paid to any one person exceed thirty dollars per month: And provided further, That nothing in this act shall in any way interfere with the prompt delivery of letters as now provided by law or regulation of the Post Office Department.

June 29, 1886, ch. 568, § 1, 24 Stat. 86----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the fee for each domestic money-order not exceeding in amount five dollars shall be reduced from eight cents to five cents.

June 29, 1886, ch. 569, § 1, 24 Stat. 87----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That from and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, the allowances for clerk-hire made to postmasters of first and second class post-offices, by the Postmaster-General, out of the annual appropriation for clerks in post-offices, shall cover the cost of clerical service of all kinds in such post-offices, including the cost of clerical labor in the money-order business; and that all laws or parts of laws inconsistent or in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

June 29, 1886, ch. 569, § 2, 24 Stat. 87----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That from and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, the allowances for clerk-hire in money-order business shall not be separately made, but shall be included in the general allowances for clerk-hire, and shall be based upon, but not to exceed, the rates specified in the fourth section of the act of March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-three; and at all money-order exchange-offices which are now or may hereafter be established, additional allowances for clerk-hire may be made as provided in said section for international exchange-offices; and postmasters at offices of the first and second classes shall not receive any compensation in addition to their salaries for the transaction of the money-order and postal-note business.

Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 1, 24 Stat. 220----- T. 39, §§ 2009, 2501, 6006, 6007

That every article ofailable matter upon which the special stamp provided for by section three of the act of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, entitled "An act making appropriations for the service of the Post-Office Department for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, and for other purposes," shall be duly affixed, shall be entitled to immediate delivery, according to said act, within the carrier-delivery limit of any free-delivery office, and within one mile of any other post-office which the Postmaster-General shall at any time designate as a special-delivery post-office. The postmaster shall be responsible for such immediate delivery of every such article, and shall cause delivery to be made of all such articles received at his office bearing such stamp and entitled to delivery thereat, and may employ any persons, including clerks and assistants, at third and fourth class offices, as messengers, on such terms as he shall fix as compensation for such delivery; and to defray the expense thereof, such postmaster shall be entitled, upon the adjustment of his quarterly account, to eighty per centum of the face value of all such special-delivery stamps received at his office and recorded, according to said act and regulations of the Post-Office Department during the quarter; and such allowance shall be in full of all the expenses of such delivery: Provided, That the Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, direct any free-delivery office to be excepted from the foregoing provision, and require the delivery to be made entirely by special messengers, according to the provisions of the act to which this is amendatory: And provided further, That he may contract for the immediate delivery of all articles from any post-office at any price less than eight cents per piece, when he shall deem it expedient.

Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 2, 24 Stat. 221----- Omitted (Table 3)

That the Postmaster-General shall prescribe suitable regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the performance of the immediate-delivery service, the keeping of the records and rendering of accounts thereof, and all matters connected therewith, and may prescribe the hours within which such immediate delivery shall be made at any post-office.

Aug. 4, 1886, ch. 901, § 4, 24 Stat. 221----- T. 39, § 3115

That any person employed to make immediate delivery of letters or other mail-matter under the provisions of this act, or the act of which the same is amendatory, shall be deemed an employee of the postal service, whether he may have been sworn or not, or temporarily or permanently employed, and as such employee shall be liable to any penalties or punishment provided by law for the improper detention, delay, secretion, rifling, embezzlement, purloining, or destruction of any letter or other article of mail-matter, or the contents thereof, intrusted to him for delivery or placed in his custody.

Jan. 3, 1887, ch. 14, § 1, 24 Stat. 355----- T. 39, § 6001

That letter-carriers shall be employed for the free delivery of mail-matter, as frequently as the public business may require, at every incorporated city, village, or borough containing a population of fifty thousand within its corporate limits, and may be so employed at every place containing a population of not less than ten thousand, within its corporate limits, according to the last general census, taken by authority of State or United States law, or at any post-office which produced a gross revenue, for the preceding fiscal year, of not less than ten thousand dollars: Provided, This act shall not affect the existence of the free delivery in places where it is now established: And provided further, That in offices where the free delivery shall be established under the provisions of this act, such free delivery shall not be abolished by reason of decrease below ten thousand in population or ten thousand dollars in gross postal revenue, except in the discretion of the Postmaster-General.

Jan. 3, 1887, ch. 14, § 2, 24 Stat. 355-356----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That there may be in all cities which contain a population of seventy-five thousand or more three classes of letter-carriers, as follows: Carriers of the first class, whose salaries shall be one thousand dollars per annum; of the second class, whose salaries shall be eight hundred dollars per annum; and of the third class, whose salaries shall be six hundred dollars per annum.

Jan. 3, 1887, ch. 14, § 3, 24 Stat. 356----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That in places containing a population of less than seventy-five thousand there may be two classes of letter carriers, as follows: Carriers of the second class, whose salaries shall be eight hundred and fifty dollars per annum, and of the third class, whose salaries shall be six hundred dollars per annum.

Mar. 3, 1887, ch. 346, 24 Stat. 492----- T. 39, § 6403

That the Postmaster-General be, and he is hereby, authorized to employ such mail-messenger service as may be necessary for the carriage of the mails in connection with railroad and steamboat service, transfer service between depots, over bridges or ferries, between post-offices, and branch offices or stations, in cases where by the laws and regulations of the Post-Office Department, railroad companies, steamboat companies, and the masters of vessels are not required to deliver into and take from the post-offices the mails carried on their lines or vessels.

Mar. 3, 1887, ch. 388, § 1 (only the proviso in the eighth paragraph under heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General"), 24 Stat. 569----- T. 39, § 6003

That no boxes for the collection of mail-matter by carriers shall be placed inside of any building except a public building, or a building which is freely open to the public during business hours, or a railroad station.

Jan. 20, 1888, ch. 2, § 1, 25 Stat. 1----- T. 39, §§ 4365, 4454, 4556

That mailable matter of the second-class shall contain no writing, print, or sign thereon or therein in addition to the original print, except as herein provided, to wit: the name and address of the person to whom the matter shall be sent, index figures of subscription book either printed or written, the printed title of the publication and the place of its publication, the printed or written name and address without addition of advertisement of the publisher or sender, or both, and written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to such matter will end, the correction of any typographical error, a mark except by written or printed words, to designate a work or passage to which it is desired to call attention; the words "sample copy" when the matter is sent as such, the words "marked copy" when the matter contains a marked item or article, and publishers or news agents may inclose in their publications, bills, receipts, and orders for subscriptions thereto, but the same shall be in such form as to convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price of the publication to which they refer and the subscription due thereon. Upon matter of the third class or upon the wrapper or envelope inclosing the same or the tag or label attached thereto the sender may write his own name, occupation, and residence or business address, preceded by the word "from," and may make marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to any word or passage in the text, and may correct any typographical errors. There may be placed upon the blank leaves or cover of any book or printed matter of the third-class a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not of the nature of a personal correspondence. Upon the wrapper or envelope of third-class matter or the tag or label attached thereto may be printed any matter mailable as third-class, but there must be left on the address side a space sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps. With a package of fourth-class matter prepaid at the proper rate for that class, the sender may inclose any mailable third-class matter and may write upon the wrapper or cover thereof, or tag or label accompanying the same, his name, occupation, residence or business address, preceded by the word "from," and any marks, numbers, names, or letters for purpose of description, or may print thereon the same, and any printed matter not in the nature of a personal correspondence, but there must be left on the address side or face of the package a space sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps. In all cases directions for transmit, delivery, forwarding, or return shall be deemed part of the address; and the Postmaster-General shall prescribe suitable regulations for carrying this section into effect.

Mar. 26, 1888, ch. 43, 25 Stat. 46----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General be empowered to lease suitable premises in the city of Washington for the purposes of the Washington City post-office.

May 9, 1888, ch. 231, § 1, 25 Stat. 135----- T. 39, § 2403

That the act entitled "An act authorizing the Postmaster-General to adjust certain claims of postmasters for loss by burglary, fire, or other unavoidable casualty," approved March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, be and the same is hereby, amended so as to read, as follows:

That the Postmaster-General be, and he is hereby, authorized to investigate all claims of postmasters for the loss of money-order funds, postal-funds, postage-stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, and postal cards, belonging to the United States in the hands of such postmasters, resulting from burglary, fire, or other unavoidable casualty, and if he shall determine that such loss resulted from no fault or negligence on the part of such postmasters, to pay to such postmasters, or credit them with the amount so ascertained to have been lost or destroyed, and also to credit postmasters with the amount of any remittance of money-order funds or postal funds made by them in compliance with the instructions of the Postmaster-General, which shall have been lost or stolen while in transit by mail from the office of the remitting postmaster to the office designated as his depository, or after arrival at such depository office and before the postmaster at such depository office has become responsible therefor: Provided, That no claim exceeding the sum of two thousand dollars shall be paid or credited until after the facts shall have been ascertained by the Postmaster-General and reported to Congress, together with his recommendation thereon, and an appropriation made therefor: And provided further, That this act shall not embrace any claim for losses as aforesaid which accrued more than fifteen years prior to March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two; and all such claims must be presented to the Postmaster-General within six months from such latter date, except claims for postal funds which may be received, considered and allowed, if presented within six months after the passage of this act, in cases where the postmaster had, at or about the time of the loss, made report thereof to the Post-Office Department or to an inspector or special agent of the Department; and no claim for losses which may hereafter accrue shall be allowed unless presented within six months from the time the loss occurred.

May 24, 1888, ch. 308, 25 Stat 157----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter eight hours shall constitute a day's work for letter-carriers in cities or postal districts connected therewith, for which they shall receive the same pay as is now paid for a day's work of a greater number of hours. If any letter-carrier is employed a greater number of hours per day than eight he shall be paid extra for the same in proportion to the salary now fixed by law.

July 24, 1888, ch. 702, § 1 (the sixth complete paragraph under the heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster-General"), 25 Stat. 346 Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster-General may hereafter allow rent, light, and fuel at offices of the third class in the same manner as he is now authorized by law to do in the case of offices of the first and second class: Provided, That no contract for rent for a third-class post-office shall be made for a longer period than one year, nor shall the aggregate allowance for rent made in any year exceed the amount appropriated for such purpose.

July 24, 1888, ch. 702, § 1 (the last paragraph under the heading "Office of the Third Assistant Postmaster-General"), 25 Stat. 347 Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter the postage on seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and plants shall be charged at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, subject in all other respects to the existing law.

Oct. 1, 1888, ch. 1065 (that portion of said chapter which precedes the last semicolon thereof, and the proviso thereto), 25 Stat. 504 Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General be and he is hereby authorized to advertise for and receive proposals for such registering mail locks and keys for such locks, for the use of the Post-Office Department as he may deem suitable for the safety and security of registered mail matter; and he is further authorized to make contracts for such locks and keys for the supply of the Post-Office Department, if he deem the same suitable, and for such a number of years, not to exceed four years, as he may deem best for the interest of the mail service; with power, however, to the Postmaster-General to renew such contract or contracts, should he make any contracts under the provisions of this act for said articles of mail equipment, for another and an additional period of four years should he deem it proper and advisable so to do * * * That no part of said appropriation shall be expended unless new registering locks and keys therefor are adopted by the Postmaster-General for the use of the mail service under the authority given by this act.

Jan. 30, 1889, ch. 100, § 1, 25 Stat. 654----- T. 39, § 506

That section four thousand and twenty-eight of the Revised Statutes of the United States (second edition, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight), be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 4028. The Postmaster-General may conclude arrangements with the post departments of foreign governments with which postal conventions have been or may be concluded for the exchange, by means of postal orders, of small sums of money, not exceeding one hundred dollars in amount, at such rates of exchange and compensation to postmasters and under such rules and regulations as he may deem expedient; and the expenses of establishing and conducting such systems of exchange may be paid out of the proceeds of the money-order business."

T. 39, § 2004

That the Postmaster General may, when if in his judgment the good of the service so requires make contract for necessary supplies for the free-delivery service for a period not exceeding four years.

Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 374, § 1 (the last paragraph of said section), 25 Stat. 845

Omitted (Table 3A)

The Postmaster-General shall furnish any person who may apply in writing, copies of any sheets of the Post Office Maps at the cost of printing and ten per centum thereon.

Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 393, § 3, 25 Stat. 873----- T. 39, § 4003

That the Postmaster-General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him, that any person is using any fictitious, false, or assumed name, title, or address in conducting, promoting or carrying on, or assisting therein, by means of the Post-Office Establishment of the United States, any business scheme or device in violation of the provisions of this act, instruct any postmaster at any post-office at which such letters, cards, or packets, addressed to such fictitious, false, or assumed name or address arrive to notify the party claiming or receiving such letters, cards, or packets to appear at the post-office and be identified; and if the party so notified fail to appear and be identified, or if it shall satisfactorily appear that such letters, cards, or packets are addressed to a fictitious, false, or assumed name or address, such letters, postal-cards, or packages shall be forwarded to the dead-letter office as fictitious matter.

Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 393, § 4, 25 Stat. 874----- T. 39, §§ 4001, 4057

That all matters the deposit of which in the mails is by this act made punishable is hereby declared non-mailable; but nothing in this act shall be so construed as to authorize any person other than an employee of the dead-letter office, duly authorized thereto, to open any letter not addressed to himself.

Mar. 2, 1889, ch. 393, § 5, 25 Stat. 874----- T. 39, § 4004

That whenever the Postmaster-General is satisfied that letters or packets sent in the mails are addressed to places not the residence or business address of the persons for whom they are intended, to enable such persons to escape identification, he may direct postmasters to deliver such letters only from the post-office upon identification of persons addressed.

Apr. 16, 1890, ch. 85, 26 Stat. 56----- Omitted (Table 3)

That the Postmaster-General may appoint, and assign to duty, one assistant general superintendent, Railway Mail Service, who shall be paid a salary of three thousand dollars per year; and one chief clerk of Railway Mail Service, to be employed in the Post-Office Department, who shall be paid two thousand dollars per year; said assistant general superintendent and chief clerk to be also paid their necessary and actual expenses while traveling on the business of the Department. The salaries and expenses of these officers shall be paid out of the appropriation for the transportation of mail on railways.

May 21, 1890, ch. 234, 26 Stat. 116----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That all mail-matter, of whatever class, relative to the census and addressed to the Census Office, to the Superintendent of Census, his chief clerk, supervisors, or enumerators, and indorsed "Official business, Department of the Interior, Census Office, Registered," shall be transported free by registered mail; and if any person shall make use of any such mark of registration to avoid the payment of any registry fee on his private letter, package, or other matter in the mail, the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of three hundred dollars, to be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sept. 19, 1890, ch. 908, § 2, 26 Stat. 406----- T. 39, §§ 4005, 4057

That section thirty-nine hundred and twenty-nine of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 3929. The Postmaster-General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him that any person or company is engaged in conducting any lottery, gift enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money, or of any real or personal property by lot, chance, or drawing of any kind, or that any person or company is conducting any other scheme or device for obtaining money or property of any kind through the mails by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, instruct postmasters at any postoffice at which registered letters arrive directed to any such person or company, or to the agent or representative of any such person or company, whether such agent or representative is acting as an individual or as a firm, bank, corporation, or association of any kind, to return all such registered letters to the postmaster at the office at which they were originally mailed, with the word 'Fraudulent' plainly written or stamped upon the outside thereof; and all such letters so returned to such postmasters shall be by them returned to the writers thereof, under such regulations as the Postmaster-General may prescribe. But nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to authorize any postmaster or other person to open any letter not addressed to himself. The public advertisement by such person or company so conducting such lottery, gift enterprise, scheme, or device, that remittances for the same may be made by registered letters to any other person, firm, bank, corporation, or association named therein shall be held to be prima facie evidence of the existence of said agency by all the parties named therein; but the Postmaster-General shall not be precluded from ascertaining the existence of such agency in any other legal way satisfactory to himself."

Sept. 19, 1890, ch. 908, § 3, 26 Stat. 406----- T. 39, §§ 4005, 4057

That section four thousand an forty-one of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 4041. The Postmaster-General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him that any person or company is engaged in conducting any lottery, gift enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money, or of any real or personal property by lot, chance, or drawing of any kind, or that any person or company is conducting any other scheme for obtaining money or property of any kind through the mails by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, forbid the payment by any postmaster to said person or company of any postal money-orders drawn to his or its order, or in his or its favor, or to the agent of any such person or company, whether such agent is acting as an individual or as a firm, bank, corporation, or association of any kind, and may provide by regulation for the return to the remitters of the sums named in such money-orders. But this shall not authorize any person to open any letter not addressed to himself. The public advertisement by such person or company so conducting any such lottery, gift enterprise, scheme, or device, that remittances for the same may be made by means of postal money-orders to any other person, firm, bank, corporation, or association named therein shall be held to be prima facie evidence of the existence of said agency by all the parties named therein; but the Postmaster-General shall not be precluded from ascertaining the existence of such agency in any other legal way."

T. 39, § 6203

And the Postmaster-General shall require, when in freightable lots and whenever practicable, the withdrawal from the mails of all postal cards, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, empty mail bags, furniture, equipment, and other supplies for the postal service, except postage stamps, in the respective weighing divisions of the country, immediately preceding the weighing period in said divisions, and thereafter such postal cards, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, empty mail bags, furniture, equipment, and other supplies for the postal service, except postage stamps, shall be transmitted by either freight or express.

May 12, 1910, ch. 230 (the proviso in the second complete paragraph on page 365), 36 Stat. 365

Omitted (Table 3A)

That no contract for the manufacture of postal cards shall be made by the Government with any department or bureau of the Government at any higher rate than offered for the same work by any responsible contractor, nor shall the bid of such department or bureau be below the cost of such work to the Government.

May 12, 1910, ch. 230 (the first sentence of the 14th paragraph on page 366), 36 Stat. 366.

Omitted (Table 3)

That hereafter when copies of any publication of the second class, mailed by a publisher at the pound rate or free in the county of publication, are undeliverable at the address thereon, the postmaster at the office of destination shall promptly notify the publisher of the fact, giving the reason therefor, and copies received five weeks after the mailing of the notice to the publisher, and in no instance until two successive issues thereof have been published, shall, under such regulations as the Postmaster-General may prescribe, be separately returned to the publisher thereof charged with postage at the third-class rate.

May 23, 1910, ch. 255, 36 Stat. 416----- Omitted (Table 3)

That section thirty-nine hundred and twenty-eight of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 3928. Whenever the sender shall so request, a receipt shall be taken on the delivery of any registered mail matter, showing to whom and when the same was delivered, which receipt shall be returned to the sender, and be received in the courts as prima facie evidence of such delivery."

June 24, 1910, ch. 380, 36 Stat. 630----- T. 39, § 4103

That section thirty-nine hundred and thirty-nine of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 3939. When the writer of any letter on which the postage is prepaid shall indorse on the outside thereof his name and address, such letter shall not be advertised, but, after remaining uncalled for at the office to which it is directed the time the writer may direct or the Postmaster-General prescribe, shall be returned to the writer without additional charge for postage, and if not then delivered, shall be treated as a dead letter."

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 1, 36 Stat. 814----- T. 39, §§ 5203, 5204, 5205

That there be, and is hereby, created a board of trustees for the control, supervision, and administration of the postal savings depository offices designated and established under the provisions of this Act, and of the funds received as deposits at such postal savings depository offices by virtue thereof. Said board shall consist of the Postmaster-General, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Attorney-General, severally, acting ex officio, and shall have power to make all necessary and proper regulations for the receipt, transmittal, custody, deposit, investment, and repayment of the funds deposited at postal savings depository offices.

The board of trustees shall submit a report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session showing by States and Territories (for the preceding fiscal year) the number of names of post-offices receiving deposits, the aggregate amount of deposits made therein, the aggregate amount of withdrawals therefrom, the number of depositors in each, the total amount standing to the credit of all depositors at the conclusion of the year, the amount of such deposits at interest, the amount of interest received thereon, the amount of interest paid thereon, the amount of deposits surrendered by depositors for bonds issued by authority of this Act, and the number and amount of unclaimed deposits. Also the amount invested in government securities by the trustees, the amount of extra expense of the Post-Office Department and the postal service incident to the operation of the postal savings depository system, the amount of work done for the savings depository system by the Post-Office Department and postal service in the transportation of free mail, and all other facts which it may deem pertinent and proper to present.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 2, 36 Stat. 815----- Omitted (Table 3)

That the Postmaster-General is hereby directed to prepare and issue special stamps of the necessary denominations for use, in lieu of penalty or franked envelopes, in the transmittal of free mail resulting from the administration of this Act.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 3, 36 Stat. 815----- T. 39, § 5206

That said board of trustees is hereby authorized and empowered to designate such post-offices as it may select to be postal savings depository offices, and each and every post-office so designated by order of said board is hereby declared to be a postal savings depository office within the meaning of this Act and to be authorized and required to receive deposits of funds from the public and to account for and dispose of the same, according to the provisions of this Act and the regulations made in pursuance thereof. Each postal savings depository office shall be kept open for the transaction of business during such hours as the Postmaster-General, with the approval of the board of trustees, shall direct.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 4, 36 Stat. 815----- T. 39, § 5210

That accounts may be opened and deposits made in any postal savings depository established under this Act by any person of the age of ten years or over, in his or her own name, and by a married woman in her own name and free from any control or interference by her husband; but no person shall at the same time have more than one postal savings account in his or her own right.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 5, 36 Stat. 815----- T. 39, §§ 5207, 5208

That the postmaster at a postal savings depository office shall, upon the making of an application to open an account under this Act and the submission of an initial deposit, deliver to the depositor a pass book free of cost, upon which shall be written the name and signature or mark of the depositor and such other memoranda as may be necessary for purposes of identification, in which pass book entries of all deposits and withdrawals shall be made in both figures and writing: Provided, That the Postmaster-General may, with the approval of the board of trustees, adopt some other device or devices in lieu of a pass book as a means of making and preserving evidence of deposits and withdrawals.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 6, 36 Stat. 815----- T. 39, §§ 5211, 5213

That at least one dollar, or a larger amount in multiples thereof, must be deposited before an account is opened with the person depositing the same, and one dollar, or multiples thereof, may be deposited after such account has been opened, but no one shall be permitted to deposit more than one hundred dollars in any one calendar month: Provided, That in order that smaller amounts may be accumulated for deposit any person may purchase for ten cents from any depository office a postal savings card to which may be attached specially prepared adhesive stamps, to be known as "postal savings stamps," and when the stamps so attached amount to one dollar, or a larger sum in multiples thereof, including the ten-cent postal savings card, the same may be presented as a deposit for opening an account, and additions may be made to any account by means of such card and stamps in amounts of one dollar, or multiples thereof, and when a card and stamps thereto attached are accepted as a deposit the postmaster shall immediately cancel the same. It is hereby made the duty of the Postmaster-General to prepare such postal savings cards and postal savings stamps of denominations of ten cents, and to keep them on sale at every postal savings depository office, and to prescribe all necessary rules and regulations for the issue, sale, and cancellation thereof.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 7, 36 Stat. 816----- T. 39, § 5213

That interest at the rate of two per centum per annum shall be allowed and entered to the credit of each depositor once in each year, the same to be computed on such basis and under such rules and regulations as the board of trustees may prescribe; but interest shall not be computed or allowed on fractions of a dollar: Provided, That the balance to the credit of any one person shall never be allowed to exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of accumulated interest.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 8, 36 Stat. 816----- T. 39, §§ 5213, 5217, 5219, 5220

That any depositor may withdraw the whole or any part of the funds deposited to his or her credit, with the accrued interest, upon demand and under such regulations as the board of trustees may prescribe. Withdrawals shall be paid from the deposits in the State or Territory, so far as the postal funds on deposit in such State or Territory may be sufficient for the purpose, and, so far as practicable, from the deposits in the community in which the deposit was made. No bank in which the postal savings funds shall be deposited shall receive any exchange or other fees or compensation on account of the cashing or collection of any checks or the performance of any other service in connection with the postal savings depository system.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 9, 36 Stat. 816----- T. 39, §§ 5203,
5214, 5215, 5216, 5217, 5218, 5219, 5221

That postal savings funds received under the provisions of this Act shall be deposited in solvent banks, whether organized under national or state laws, being subject to national or state supervision and examination, and the sums deposited shall bear interest at the rate of not less than two and one-fourth per centum per annum, which rate shall be uniform throughout the United States and Territories thereof; but five per centum of such funds shall be withdrawn by the board of trustees and kept with the Treasurer of the United States, who shall be treasurer of the board of trustees, in lawful money as a reserve. The board of trustees shall take from such banks such security in public bonds or other securities, supported by the taxing power, as the board may prescribe, approve, and deem sufficient and necessary to insure the safety and prompt payment of such deposits on demand. The funds received at the postal savings depository offices in each city, town, village, and other locality shall be deposited in banks located therein (substantially in proportion to the capital and surplus of each such bank) willing to receive such deposits under the terms of this Act and the regulations made by authority thereof, but the amount deposited in any one bank shall at no time exceed the amount of the paid-in capital and one-half the surplus of such bank. If no such bank exist in any city, town, village, or locality, or if none where such deposits are made will receive such deposits on the terms prescribed, then such funds shall be deposited under the terms of this Act in the bank most convenient to such locality. If no such bank in any State or Territory is willing to receive such deposits on the terms prescribed, then the same shall be deposited with the treasurer of the board of trustees, and shall be counted in making up the reserve of five per centum. Such funds may be withdrawn from the treasurer of said board of trustees and all other postal savings funds, or any part of such funds, may be at any time withdrawn from banks and savings depository offices for the repayment of postal savings depositors when required for that purpose. Not exceeding thirty per centum of the amount of such funds may at any time be withdrawn by the trustees for investment in bonds or other securities of the United States, it being the intent of this Act that the residue of such funds, amounting to sixty-five per centum thereof, shall remain on deposit in the banks in each State and Territory willing to receive the same under the terms of this Act, and shall be a working balance and also a fund which may be withdrawn for investment in bonds or other securities of the United States, but only by direction of the President, and only when, in his judgment, the general welfare and the interests of the United States so require. Interest and profit accruing from the deposits or investment of postal savings funds shall be applied to the payment of interest due to postal savings depositors as hereinbefore provided, and the excess thereof, if any, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as a part of the postal revenue: Provided, That postal savings funds in the treasury of said board shall be subject to disposition as provided in this Act, and not otherwise: And provided further, That the board of trustees may at any time dispose of bonds held as postal savings investments and use the proceeds to meet withdrawals of deposits by depositors. For the purposes of this Act the word "Territory," as used herein, shall be held to include the District of Columbia, the District of Alaska, and Porto Rico, and the word "bank" shall be held to include savings banks and trust companies doing a banking business.

That any depositor in a postal savings depository may surrender his deposit, or any part thereof, in sums of twenty dollars, forty dollars, sixty dollars, eighty dollars, one hundred dollars, and multiples of one hundred dollars and five hundred dollars, and receive in lieu of such surrendered deposits, under such regulations as may be established by the board of trustees, the amount of the surrendered deposits in United States coupon or registered bonds of the denominations of twenty dollars, forty dollars, sixty dollars, eighty dollars, one hundred dollars, and five hundred dollars, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of two and one-half per centum per annum, payable semiannually, and be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of their issue and payable twenty years from such date, and both principal and interest shall be payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of value: Provided, That the bonds herein authorized shall be issued only (first) when there are outstanding bonds of the United States subject to call, in which case the proceeds of the bonds shall be applied to the redemption at par of outstanding bonds of the United States subject to call, and (second) at times when under authority of law other than that contained in this Act, the Government desires to issue bonds for the purpose of replenishing the Treasury, in which case the issue of bonds under authority of this Act shall be in lieu of the issue of a like amount of bonds issuable under authority of law other than that contained in this Act: Provided further, That the bonds authorized by this Act shall be issued by the Secretary of the Treasury under such regulations as he may prescribe: And provided further, That the authority contained in section nine of this Act for the investment of postal savings funds in United States bonds shall include the authority to invest in the bonds herein authorized whenever such bonds may be lawfully issued: And provided further, That the bonds herein authorized shall be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States as well as from taxation in any form by or under state, municipal, or local authority: And provided further, That no bonds authorized by this Act shall be receivable by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the issue of circulating notes by national banking associations.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 11, 36 Stat. 818----- Omitted (Table 3)

That whenever the trustees of the postal savings fund have in their possession funds available for investment in United States bonds they may notify the Secretary of the Treasury of the amount of such funds in their hands which they desire to invest in bonds of the United States subject to call, whereupon, if they are United States bonds subject to call, the Secretary of the Treasury shall call for redemption an amount of such bonds equal to the amount of the funds in the hands of the trustees which the trustees desire to thus invest, and the bonds so called shall be redeemed at par with accrued interest at the Treasury of the United States on and after three months from the date of such call, and interest on the said bonds shall thereupon cease: Provided, That the said bonds when redeemed shall be reissued at par to the trustees without change in their terms as to rate of interest and date of maturity: And provided further, That the bonds so reissued may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be called for redemption from the trustees in like manner as they were originally called for redemption from their former owners whenever there are funds in the Treasury of the United States available for such redemption.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 12, 36 Stat. 818----- T. 39, § 5212

That postal savings depository funds shall be kept separate from other funds by postmasters and other officers and employees of the postal service, who shall be held to the same accountability under their bonds for such funds as for public moneys; and no person connected with the Post-Office Department shall disclose to any person other than the depositor the amount of any deposits, unless directed so to do by the Postmaster-General. All statutes relating to the safe-keeping of and proper accounting for postal receipts are made applicable to postal savings funds, and the Postmaster-General may require postmasters, assistant postmasters, and clerks at postal saving depositories to give any additional bond he may deem necessary.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 13, 36 Stat. 818----- Omitted (Table 3)

That additional compensation shall be allowed postmasters at post-offices of the fourth class for the transaction of postal savings depository business. Such compensation shall not exceed one-fourth of one per centum on the average sum upon which interest is paid each calendar year on receipts at such post-office, and shall be paid from the postal revenues; but postmasters, assistant postmasters, clerks, or other employees at post-offices of the presidential grade shall not receive any additional compensation for such service.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 14 (that portion of section 14 following the first semicolon), 36 Stat. 818----- Omitted (Table 3) and the Postmaster-General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with their other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or revoke, subject to the approval of said board, such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of this Act into effect.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 16, 36 Stat. 819----- T. 39, § 5201

That the faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of the deposits made in postal savings depository offices, with accrued interest thereon as herein provided.

June 25, 1910, ch. 386, § 17, 36 Stat. 819----- T. 39, § 5222

That the final judgment, order, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating any right or interest in the credit of any sums deposited by any person with a postal savings depository if the same shall not have been appealed from and the time for appeal has expired shall, upon submission to the Postmaster-General of a copy of the same, duly authenticated in the manner provided by the laws of the United States for the authentication of the records and judicial proceedings of the courts of any State or Territory or of any possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, when the same are proved or admitted within any other court within the United States, be accepted and pursued by the board of trustees as conclusive of the title, right, interest, or possession so adjudicated, and any payment of said sum in accordance with such order, judgment, or decree shall operate as a full and complete discharge of the United States from the claim or demand of any person or persons to the same.

Feb. 16, 1911, ch. 87, 36 Stat. 911----- T. 39, § 6001

That hereafter when two or more post-offices situated within the corporate limits of any city, village, or borough are consolidated by authority of the Postmaster-General, and the said offices together produced a gross revenue for the preceding fiscal year of not less than ten thousand dollars, letter carriers may be employed for the free delivery of mail matter in like manner as if any one of such post-offices had produced such revenue in said fiscal year.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241 (the provisos in the second complete paragraph under the subheading "For salaries of Post-Office Inspectors"), 36 Stat. 1328----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, allow inspectors per diem while temporarily located at any place on business away from their home, or their designated domicile, for a period not exceeding twenty consecutive days at any one place, and make rules and regulations governing the foregoing provisions relating to per diem: And provided further, That no per diem shall be paid to inspectors receiving annual salaries of two thousand dollars or more, except the twenty-six inspectors receiving two thousand one hundred dollars each.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the second sentence in the first paragraph under the heading "Office of the First Assistant Postmaster General" on said page), 36 Stat. 1329----- Omitted (Table 3)

That hereafter the compensation paid to postmaster at Saint Louis, Missouri, shall be eight thousand dollars per annum.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the third paragraph on page 1332), 36 Stat. 1332

Omitted (Table 3A)

Whenever a postmaster in any locality with a population of not more than twenty thousand inhabitants certifies to the department that, owing to unusual conditions in his community, he is unable to secure the services of efficient employees otherwise, the Postmaster General having ascertained the truth of the certification may authorize, in his discretion, the appointment of clerks and letter carriers for that office at such higher rates of compensation, within the present recognized grades, and in the District of Alaska, at higher salaries than one thousand two hundred dollars, as may be necessary in order to insure a proper conduct of the postal business, but not to exceed in the aggregate the sum annually appropriated for said purposes, and in all such cases their salaries shall be paid from the appropriation for unusual conditions, and the Postmaster General shall make report to Congress annually of the places where and the amounts so expended.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241 (the proviso in the fourth paragraph on page 1332), 36 Stat. 1332

Omitted (Table 3A)

That no allowance in excess of two hundred dollars shall be made where the salary of the postmaster is one thousand dollars, one thousand one hundred dollars, or one thousand two hundred dollars; nor in excess of three hundred dollars where the salary of the postmaster is one thousand three hundred dollars, one thousand four hundred dollars, or one thousand five hundred dollars.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241 (only that part of the proviso in the sixth paragraph on page 1332 preceding the semicolon), 36 Stat. 1332

Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster General may, in the disbursement of the appropriation for such purposes, apply a part thereof to the purpose of leasing premises for the use of post offices of the first, second, and third classes at a reasonable annual rental, to be paid quarterly, for a term not exceeding ten years.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the proviso in the paragraph which begins on page 1332 and ends on page 1333), 36 Stat. 1333

T. 39, § 2006

That the rental paid for any canceling machine shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum, including repairs on said machines, and that all contracts entered into shall be let after having advertised for bids and shall be awarded on the basis of cheapness and efficiency.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the ninth complete paragraph on page 1333), 36 Stat. 1333

T. 39, § 2006

That hereafter the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, enter into contracts for a period of not exceeding four years for the rental of canceling machines, for the hire of the equipages for the City Delivery Service, for the collection service by means of boxes attached to street cars, and for the steamboat and other equipment necessary for the Detroit River postal service.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the first proviso in the seventh full paragraph on page 1334), 36 Stat. 1334

Omitted (Table 3)

That out of the appropriation for inland mail transportation the Postmaster General is authorized hereafter to pay rental if necessary in Washington, District of Columbia, and compensation to tabulators and clerks employed in connection with the weighings for assistance in completing computations, in connection with the expenses of taking the weights of mails on railroad routes, as provided by law:

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the penultimate paragraph on page 1337), 36 Stat. 1337

Omitted (Table 3)

That the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to indemnify the senders or owners of third and fourth class domestic registered matter lost in the mails, the indemnity, which shall be paid out of the postal revenues, not to exceed twenty-five dollars for a single piece of registered matter or the actual value thereof if less than twenty-five dollars: Provided, That no indemnity shall be paid if the loser has been otherwise reimbursed.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the last proviso in the fifth complete paragraph on page 1339), 36 Stat. 1339 Omitted (Table 3A)

That in the discretion of the Postmaster General the pay of the carrier on the water route on Lake Winnepesaukee who furnishes his own power boat for mail service during the summer months may be fixed at an amount not exceeding nine hundred dollars in any one calendar year.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 1 (the seventh paragraph on page 1339), 36 Stat. 1339 T. 39, § 6424

The Postmaster General is hereby authorized, in cases where the mail service would be thereby improved, to extend service on a mail route under contract, at not exceeding pro rata additional pay: Provided, That the extensions beyond either terminus ordered during a contract term shall not, in the aggregate, exceed twenty-five miles.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 3, 36 Stat. 1339 Omitted (Table 3)

That hereafter for services required on Sundays of supervisory officers, clerks in first and second class post offices, and city letter carriers, compensatory time off during working days in amount equal to that of the Sunday employment may be allowed, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe; but this provision shall not apply to auxiliary or substitute employees.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 4, 36 Stat. 1339 Omitted (Table 3)

That after June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eleven, where the salary or compensation of any employee in the postal service is at an annual or monthly rate, the following rules shall be followed in computing the amount due: An annual salary or compensation shall be divided into twelve equal installments, one of which shall be the pay for each calendar month; and in making payment for a fractional part of any calendar month there shall be paid such proportion of one of such installments, or of the amount of the monthly salary or compensation, as the number of days in the fractional part of that month bears to the actual number of days in that month.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 5 (only the third proviso and the last sentence of section 5), 36 Stat. 1340 Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster General shall select and designate the post offices which are to be postal savings depository offices, and shall appoint and fix the compensation of such superintendents, inspectors, and other employees as may be necessary in conducting, supervising, and directing the business of such offices, including the employees of a central office at Washington, District of Columbia, and shall prescribe the hours during which postal savings depository offices shall remain open. He shall also from time to time make rules and regulations with respect to the deposits in and withdrawal of moneys from postal savings depositories and the issue of pass books or such other devices as he may adopt as evidence of such deposits or withdrawals, and the provisions of the Act approved June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and ten, are hereby modified accordingly.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 6, 36 Stat. 1340 T. 39, § 4556

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 241, § 8, 36 Stat. 1340----- Omitted (Table 3)

That the Postmaster General may authorize postmasters at such offices as he shall designate, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, to issue and pay money orders of fixed denominations, not exceeding ten dollars, to be known as postal notes.

That postal notes shall be valid for six calendar months from the last day of the month of their issue, but thereafter may be paid under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe.

That postal notes shall not be negotiable or transferable through indorsement.

That if a postal note has been once paid, to whomsoever paid, the United States shall not be liable for any further claim for the amount thereof.

Mar. 4, 1911, ch. 271, 36 Stat. 1356----- Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster-General is hereby authorized to advertise for the construction of double lines of pneumatic tubes, thirty inches in diameter and not exceeding one mile in length, in the city of Cincinnati, Ohio and to enter into contract for the operation of the same for the transmission of the mails, at a rate not exceeding seventeen thousand dollars per mile per annum, until June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirteen: Provided, That no contract shall be entered into until the proposed lines shall have been operated for mail purposes in a satisfactory manner for six months, without cost to the Government.

Aug. 23, 1912, ch. 350, § 1 (all of the third paragraph under the subheading "Office of the Treasurer" after the first colon except those portions reading "not exceeding $18,000 for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen" and "for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and fourteen and"), 37 Stat. 377

T. 39, § 5203

The Secretary of the Treasury may employ such number of clerks and employees of the several classes and at the several rates of compensation recognized by law, and expend such sums for contingent and miscellaneous items, as may be necessary, in his judgment, to transact the business of the Postal Savings System in the office of the Treasurer of the United States: Provided, That the money required to pay such clerks and employees, and contingent and miscellaneous items, * * * shall be advanced to the Secretary of the Treasury at regular intervals out of any available appropriation for the establishment, maintenance, and extension of postal savings depositories: Provided further, That estimates hereunder shall be submitted in detail * * * annually thereafter.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 355, § 8, 37 Stat. 487----- Omitted (Table 3)

After June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twelve, postmasters, assistant postmasters, collectors of customs, collectors of internal revenue, chief clerks of the various executive departments and bureaus, or clerks designated by them for the purpose, the superintendent, the acting superintendent, custodian, and principal clerks of the various national parks and other Government reservations, superintendent, acting superintendents, and principal clerks of the different Indian superintendencies or Indian agencies, and chiefs of field parties, are required, empowered, and authorized, when requested, to administer oaths, required by law or otherwise, to account for travel or other expenses against the United States, with like force and effect as officers having a seal; for such services when so rendered, or when rendered on demand after said date by notaries public, who at the time are also salaried officers or employees of the United States, no charge shall be made; and on and after July first, nineteen hundred and twelve, no fee or money paid for the services herein described shall be paid or reimbursed by the United States.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1 (the first three provisos on said page), 37 Stat. 540

Omitted (Table 3A)

That, for the purpose of inspecting and investigating rural delivery routes and proposed rural delivery routes, a number of inspectors not exceeding thirty shall be placed subject to the orders of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General whenever and for such periods as in his judgment they may be needed for that purpose.

That the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, allow inspectors per diem while temporarily located at any place on business away from their home or their designated domicile, for a period not exceeding twenty consecutive days at any one place, and make rules and regulations governing the foregoing provisions relating to per diem:

That no per diem shall be paid to inspectors receiving annual salaries of two thousand dollars or more, except the twenty-six inspectors receiving two thousand one hundred dollars each.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1 (the proviso in the 11th paragraph on page 543), 37 Stat. 543

T. 39, § 707

That hereafter post offices of the first and second classes shall not be open on Sundays for the purpose of delivering mail to the general public, but this provision shall not prevent the prompt delivery of special delivery mail.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1 (only that part of the proviso in the eighth complete paragraph on page 544 preceding the semicolon), 37 Stat. 544

Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster General may, in the disbursement of the appropriation for such purposes, apply a part thereof to the purpose of leasing premises for the rental, to be paid quarterly, for a term not exceeding ten years.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1 (the proviso in the paragraph which begins on page 544 and ends on page 545), 37 Stat. 544

Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter no contract shall be made for any canceling machine for more than two hundred and seventy dollars per annum, including repairs on said machines, and that all contracts entered into shall be let after having advertised for bids, and shall be awarded on the basis of cheapness and efficiency.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1 (that portion which amends section 233 of the Postal Laws and Regulations), 37 Stat. 545

T. 39, § 701

That the proviso at the end of section two hundred and thirty-three of the Postal Laws and Regulations be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"Provided, however, That this provision shall not apply to the city of Cambridge, Massachusetts, or to Towson, Maryland, or to Clayton, Saint Louis County, Missouri."

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1 (the proviso in the last complete paragraph on page 546), 37 Stat. 546

Omitted (Table 3)

That hereafter the employees of the mail-bag repair shop in Washington, District of Columbia, and Chicago, Illinois, and the employees of the mail-lock repair shop in Washington, District of Columbia, may be allowed thirty days annual leave of absence.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 1 (the second paragraph under the subheading "Railway Mail Service"), 37 Stat. 548

Omitted (Table 3)

That hereafter in addition to the salaries by law provided the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to make travel allowances in lieu of actual expenses, at fixed rates per annum, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum annually appropriated, to railway postal clerks, acting railway postal clerks, and substitute railway postal clerks, including substitute railway postal clerks for railway postal clerks granted leave with pay on account of sickness, assigned to duty in railway post-office cars, while on duty, after ten hours from the time of beginning their initial run, under such regulations as he may prescribe, and in no case shall such an allowance exceed one dollar per day.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 380, § 1 (only the last two paragraphs under the heading "Office of the Third Assistant Postmaster General"), 37 Stat. 550-551

T. 39, §§ 4355, 4653, 4654

That from and after the passage of this Act all periodical publications issued from a known place of publication at stated intervals, and as frequently as four times a year, by or under the auspices of a benevolent or fraternal society or order organized under the lodge system and having a bona fide membership of not less than one thousand persons, or by a regularly incorporated institution of learning, or by a regularly established State institution of learning supported in whole or in part by public taxation, or by or under the auspices of a trades union, and all publications of strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, including the bulletins issued by State boards of health, and by State boards or departments of public charities and corrections, shall be admitted to the mails as second-class matter, and the postage thereon shall be the same as on other second-class matter; and such periodical publications, issued by or under the auspices of benevolent or fraternal societies or orders or trades unions, or by strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, shall have the right to carry advertising matter, whether such matter pertains to such benevolent or fraternal societies or orders, trades unions, strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, or to other persons, institutions, or concerns; but such periodical publications, hereby permitted to carry advertising matter, must not be designed or published primarily for advertising purposes, and shall be originated and published to further the objects and purposes of such benevolent or fraternal societies or orders, trades-unions, or other societies, respectively; and all such periodicals shall be formed of printed paper sheets, without board, cloth, leather or other substantial binding, such as distinguished printed books for preservation from periodical publications: Provided, That the circulation through the mails of periodical publications issued by, or under the auspices of, benevolent or fraternal societies or orders, or trades-unions, or by strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, as second-class mail matter, shall be limited to copies mailed to such members as pay therefor, either as a part of their dues or assessments, or otherwise, not less than fifty per centum of the regular subscription price; to other bona fide subscribers; to exchanges, and ten per centum of such circulation as sample copies: Provided further, That when such members pay therefor as a part of their dues or assessments, individual subscriptions or receipts shall not be required: Provided further, That the office of publication of any such periodical publication shall be fixed by the association or body by which it is published, or by its executive board, and such publication shall be printed at such place and entered at the nearest post office thereto.

That hereafter magazines, periodicals, and other regularly issued publications in raised characters for the use of the blind, whether prepared by hand or printed, which contain no advertisements and for which no subscription fee is charged, shall be transmitted in the United States mails free of postage and under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 2 (the second paragraph of said section), 37 Stat. 553

T. 39, § 4369

That it shall be the duty of the editor, publisher, business manager, or owner of every newspaper, magazine, periodical, or other publication to file with the Postmaster General and the postmaster at the office at which said publication is entered, not later than the first day of April and the first day of October of each year, on blanks furnished by the Post Office Department, a sworn statement setting forth the names and post-office addresses of the editor and managing editor, publisher, business managers, and owners, and, in addition, the stockholders, if the publication be owned by a corporation; and also the names of known bondholders, mortgagees, or other security holders; and also, in the case of daily newspapers, there shall be included in such statement the average of the number of copies of each issue of such publication sold or distributed to paid subscribers during the preceding six months: Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to religious, fraternal, temperance, and scientific, or other similar publications: Provided further, That it shall not be necessary to include in such statement the names of persons owning less than one per centum of the total amount of stock, bonds, mortgages, or other securities. A copy of such sworn statement shall be published in the second issue of such newspaper, magazine, or other publication printed next after the filing of such statement. Any such publication shall be denied the privileges of the mail if it shall fail to comply with the provisions of this paragraph within ten days after notice by registered letter of such failure.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 2 (the last paragraph of section 2), 37 Stat. 554

T. 39, § 4367

That all editorial or other reading matter published in any such newspaper, magazine, or periodical for the publication of which money or other valuable consideration is paid, accepted, or promised shall be plainly marked "advertisement." Any editor or publisher printing editorial or other reading matter for which compensation is paid, accepted, or promised without so marking the same, shall upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction, be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 4 (all matter before the first proviso in section 4), 37 Stat. 554

Omitted (Table 3)

When, after a weighing of the mails for the purpose of readjusting the compensation for their transportation on a railroad route, mails are diverted therefrom or thereto, the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, ascertain the effect of such diversion by a weighing of such mails for such number of successive working days as he may determine, and have the weights stated and verified to him as in other cases, and readjust the compensation on the routes affected accordingly:

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 380, § 5, 37 Stat. 554----- Omitted (Table 3)

That on and after March fourth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, letter carriers in the City Delivery Service and clerks in first and second class post offices shall be required to work not more than eight hours a day: Provided, That the eight hours of service shall not extend over a longer period than ten consecutive hours, and the schedules of duty of the employees shall be regulated accordingly.

That in cases of emergency, or if the needs of the service require, letter carriers in the City Delivery Service and clerks in first and second class post offices can be required to work in excess of eight hours a day, and for such additional services they shall be paid extra in proportion to their salaries as fixed by law.

That should the needs of the service require the employment on Sunday of letter carriers in the City Delivery Service and clerks in first and second class post offices, the employees who are required and ordered to perform Sunday work shall be allowed compensatory time on one of the six days following the Sunday on which they perform such service.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the first paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 555

Omitted (Table 3)

That after September thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twelve, the Postmaster General may appoint railway postal clerks in such manner and of such respective grades and salaries as may be provided for in the annual appropriation acts for the service of the Post Office Department, for the purpose of sorting and distributing the mail in railway post offices, railway post-office terminals and transfer offices, and for service in the offices of division superintendents and chief clerks, and as transfer clerks and such other services as may pertain to the Railway Mail Service. Such clerks shall be designated as railway postal clerks and shall be divided into the following grades, with corresponding salaries per annum not exceeding the following rates:

Grade one, at not exceeding nine hundred dollars.

Grade two, at not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Grade three, at not exceeding one thousand one hundred dollars.

Grade four, at not exceeding one thousand two hundred dollars.

Grade five, at not exceeding one thousand three hundred dollars.

Grade six, at not exceeding one thousand four hundred dollars.

Grade seven, at not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars.

Grade eight, at not exceeding one thousand six hundred dollars.

Grade nine, at not exceeding one thousand seven hundred dollars.

Grade ten, at not exceeding one thousand eight hundred dollars.

Chief clerks, at not exceeding two thousand dollars.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the second paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 555-556

Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster General shall classify and fix the salaries of railway postal clerks, under such regulations as he may prescribe, in the grades provided by law; and for the purpose of organization and of establishing maximum grades to which promotions may be made successively as hereinafter provided, he shall classify railway post offices, terminal railway post offices, and transfer offices with reference to their character and importance in three classes, with salary grades as follows: Class A, nine hundred dollars to one thousand two hundred dollars; class B, nine hundred dollars to one thousand three hundred dollars; and class C, nine hundred dollars to one thousand five hundred dollars. He may assign to the offices of division superintendents and chief clerks such railway postal clerks as may be necessary and fix their salaries within the grades provided by law without regard to the classification of railway post offices.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the first sentence of the third paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556

Omitted (Table 3)

After September thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twelve, clerks in class A shall be promoted successively to grade three, clerks in class B shall be promoted successively to grade four, and clerks in class C shall be promoted successively to grade five, at the beginning of the quarter following the expiration of a year's satisfactory service in the next lower grade.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the fourth paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556

T. 39, § 3333

A clerk of any grade of any classification of railway post offices, terminal railway post offices, transfer offices, or in the office of a division superintendent or chief clerk, may be transferred and assigned to any classification of railway post offices, terminal railway post offices, transfer offices, or to an office of a division superintendent or chief clerk under such regulations as the Postmaster General may deem proper.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the fifth paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556

Omitted (Table 3A)

Clerks assigned as clerks in charge of crews consisting of more than one clerk shall be clerks of grades five to ten, inclusive, and may be promoted one grade only after three years' continuous, satisfactory, and faithful service in such capacity.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the sixth paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556

T. 39, § 3556

A clerk who fails of promotion because of unsatisfactory service may be promoted at the beginning of the second quarter thereafter or any subsequent quarter for satisfactory and faithful service during the intervening period.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the seventh paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556

Omitted (Table 3)

Clerks in the highest grade in their respective lines or other assignments shall be eligible for promotion to positions of clerks in charge in said lines or corresponding positions in other assignments, and clerks assigned as assistant chief clerks and clerks in charge of crews consisting of more than one clerk, either assigned to the line, the transfer service, or to a terminal railway post office, and clerks in the highest grades in offices of division superintendents in their respective divisions, shall, after two years of continuous service in such capacity, be eligible for promotion to positions of chief clerks in said division for satisfactory, efficient, and faithful service during the preceding two-year period, under such regulations as the Postmaster General shall prescribe.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the eighth paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556

T. 39, § 3555

Whenever a clerk shall have been reduced in salary for any cause he may be restored to his former grade or advanced to an intermediate grade at the beginning of any quarter following the reduction, for satisfactory and faithful service during the intervening period.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the 9th paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556

Omitted (Table 3)

In filling positions below that of chief clerk no clerk shall be advanced more than one grade in a period of a year.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 7 (the 10th paragraph of section 7), 37 Stat. 556-557

T. 39, § 3111

All clerks appointed to the Railway Mail Service and to perform duty on railway post offices shall reside at some point on the route to which they are assigned; but railway postal clerks appointed prior to February twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, and now performing such duty shall not be required to change their residence, except when transferred to another line: Provided, however, That because of the reclassification herein provided, no clerk shall receive less salary than before the passage of this Act. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (the first paragraph of section 8), 37 Stat. 557

T. 39, § 4551

That hereafter fourth-class mail matter shall embrace all other matter, including farm and factory products, not now embraced by law in either the first, second, or third class, not exceeding eleven pounds in weight, nor greater in size than seventy-two inches in length and girth combined, nor in form or kind likely to injure the person of any postal employee or damage the mail equipment or other mail matter and not of a character perishable within a period reasonably required for transportation and delivery.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (paragraphs two to ten, inclusive, of section 8), 37 Stat. 557

T. 39, § 4553

That for the purposes of this section the United States and its several Territories and possessions, excepting the Philippine Islands, shall be divided into units of area thirty minutes square, identical with a quarter of the area formed by the intersecting parallels of latitude and meridians of longitude, represented on appropriate postal maps or plans, and such units of area shall be the basis of eight postal zones, as follows:

The first zone shall include all territory within such quadrangle, in conjunction with every contiguous quadrangle, representing an area having a mean radial distance of approximately fifty miles from the center of any given unit of area.

The second zone shall include all units of area outside the first zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one hundred and fifty miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The third zone shall include all units of area outside the second zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately three hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The fourth zone shall include all units of area outside the third zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately six hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The fifth zone shall include all units of area outside the fourth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The sixth zone shall include all units of area outside the fifth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand four hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The seventh zone shall include all units of area outside the sixth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand eight hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The eighth zone shall include all units of area outside the seventh zone.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (paragraph eleven of section 8), 37 Stat. 557

Omitted (Table 3)

That the rate of postage on fourth-class matter weighing not more than four ounces shall be one cent for each ounce or fraction of an ounce; and on such matter in excess of four ounces in weight the rate shall be by the pound, as hereinafter provided, the postage in all cases to be prepaid by distinctive postage stamps affixed.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (paragraphs twelve to twenty-one, inclusive, of section 8), 37 Stat. 557-558

Omitted (Table 3)

That except as provided in the next preceding paragraph postage on matter of the fourth class shall be prepaid at the following rates:

On all matter mailed at the post office from which a rural route starts, for delivery on such route, or mailed at any point on such route for delivery at any other point thereon, or at the office from which the route starts, or on any rural route starting therefrom, and on all matter mailed at a city carrier office, or at any point within its delivery limits, for delivery by carriers from that office, or at any office for local delivery, five cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and one cent for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the first zone, except as provided in the next preceding paragraph, five cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and three cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the second zone, six cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and four cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the third zone, seven cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and five cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the fourth zone, eight cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and six cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the fifth zone, nine cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and seven cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the sixth zone, ten cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and nine cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the seventh zone, eleven cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and ten cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the eighth zone and between the Philippine Islands and any portion of the United States, including the District of Columbia and the several Territories and possessions, twelve cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and twelve cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (only that part of paragraph twenty-two which precedes the semicolon), 37 Stat. 558

T. 39, §2001

That the Postmaster General shall provide such special equipment, maps, stamps, directories, and printed instructions as may be necessary for the administration of this section.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (the 23d paragraph of section 8), 37 Stat. 558

Omitted (Table 3A)

The classification of articles mailable as well as the weight limit, the rates of postage, zone or zones and other conditions of mailability under this Act, if the Postmaster General shall find on experience that they or any of them are such as to prevent the shipment of articles desirable, or to permanently render the cost of the service greater than the receipts of the revenue therefrom, he is hereby authorized, subject to the consent of the Interstate Commerce Commission after investigation, to reform from time to time such classification, weight limit, rates, zone or zones or conditions, or either, in order to promote the service to the public or to insure the receipt of revenue from such service adequate to pay the cost thereof.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (the 24th paragraph of section 8), 37 Stat. 558

T. 39, §§ 5006, 5007

The Postmaster General shall make provisions by regulation for the indemnification of shippers, for shipment injured or lost, by insurance or otherwise, and, when desired, for the collection on delivery of the postage and price of the article shipped, fixing such charges as may be necessary to pay the cost of such additional services.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (the 25th paragraph of section 8), 37 Stat. 558

Omitted (Table 3A)

The Postmaster General may readjust the compensation of star route and screen wagon contractors if it should appear that as a result of the parcel post system the weight of the mails handled by them has been materially increased. Before such readjustment, however, a detailed account must be kept as to the amount of business handled by such star route or screen wagon contractors before and after this section becomes effective for such a period as to clearly demonstrate the amount of the increase and that such increase in the weight of the mails was due to the adoption of the parcel post system.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 8 (the 27th paragraph of section 8), 37 Stat. 559 Omitted (Table 3A)

That this Act shall not in any way affect the postage rate on seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and plants, as fixed by section 482 of the Postal Laws and Regulations.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 9, 37 Stat. 559 T. 39, § 6002

That after June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twelve, experimental mail delivery may be established, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, in towns and villages having post offices of the second or third class that are not by law now entitled to free delivery service, and the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to enable postmasters to employ the necessary assistance to deliver the mail in such villages, and the amount to be expended at any office shall not exceed one thousand eight hundred dollars a year.

Aug. 24, 1912, ch. 389, § 10 (all except the last sentence of section 10), 37 Stat. 559 T. 39, §§ 5204, 5206, 5213, 5217, 5219, 5220

That the sum of four hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to enable the Postmaster General to continue the establishment, maintenance, and extension of postal savings depository, including the reimbursement of the Secretary of the Treasury for expenses incident to the preparation, issue, and registration of the bonds authorized by the Act of June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and ten: Provided, That out of such sum an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars may be expended for the rental, if necessary, of quarters for the central office of the Postal Savings System in the District of Columbia: And provided further, That all expenditures in the Postal Savings System shall be audited by the Auditor for the Post Office Department: And provided further, That the Postmaster General shall select and designate the post offices which are to be postal savings depository offices, and shall appoint and fix the compensation of such superintendents, inspectors, and other employees as may be necessary in conducting, supervising, and directing the business of such offices, including the employees of a central office at Washington, District of Columbia, and shall prescribe the hours during which postal savings depository offices shall remain open. He shall also from time to time make rules and regulations with respect to the deposits in and withdrawals of moneys from postal savings depositories and the issue of pass books or such other devices as he may adopt as evidence of such deposits or withdrawals. The provisions of the Act approved June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and ten, are hereby modified accordingly.

Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 142, § 1 (the fourth paragraph under subheading "Office of Auditor for Post Office Department"), 37 Stat. 754 Omitted (Table 3A)

Under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, piece-rate employees in the Office of the Auditor for the Post Office Department shall be entitled, from and after the approval of this Act, to the same leave of absence with pay as is provided for clerks and employees in the Executive Departments by section five of the Act approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-three; section seven of the Act approved March fifteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight; section one of the Act approved July seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and section four of the Act approved February twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine. The pay of any piece-rate employee during such leave shall be determined by the average quantity of work done by such employee and the pay therefor.

Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143 (the first proviso under heading "Office of the Postmaster General"), 37 Stat. 791 Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, allow inspectors per diem while temporarily located at any place on business away from their homes or their designated domiciles for a period not exceeding twenty consecutive days at any one place, and makes rules and regulations governing the foregoing provisions relating to per diem: And provided further, That no per diem shall be paid to inspectors receiving annual salaries of $2,000 or more, except the twenty-six inspectors receiving $2,100 each.

Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143 (the proviso in the sixth complete paragraph on page 794), 37 Stat. 794

Omitted (Table 3A)

That after June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, the first grade for clerks and carriers shall be abolished and that appointments shall be made to the second grade, salary $800; and that clerks and carriers at first-class offices shall be promoted successively to the fifth grade and clerks and carriers at second-class offices shall be promoted successively to the fourth grade.

Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143 (the proviso in the first complete paragraph on page 795), 37 Stat. 795

Omitted (Table 3A)

That the Postmaster General may, in the disbursement of the appropriation for such purposes, apply a part thereof to the purpose of leasing premises for the use of post offices of the first, second, and third classes at a reasonable annual rental, to be paid quarterly for a term not exceeding ten years; and that there shall not be allowed for the use of any third-class post office for rent a sum in excess of $500, nor more than $100 for fuel and light, in any one year.

Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143 (the proviso in the third complete paragraph on page 795), 37 Stat. 795

Omitted (Table 3A)

That hereafter no contract shall be made for any canceling machine for more than $270 per annum, including repairs on said machines, and that all contracts entered into shall be let after having advertised for bids, and shall be awarded on the basis of cheapness and efficiency.

Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143 (the proviso in the paragraph which begins on page 795 and ends on page 796), 37 Stat. 795-796

Omitted (Table 3A)

That after June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, substitute letter-carriers in the City Delivery Service and substitute post-office clerks employed in first and second class post offices shall be paid at the rate of forty cents an hour when working for a carrier or clerk absent without pay.

Mar. 4, 1913, ch. 143 (the first complete paragraph on page 796), 37 Stat. 796

Omitted (Table 3)

That substitute carriers and substitute clerks when assigned to perform the work of regular employees absent on vacations, or when performing auxiliary or temporary work, shall be paid at the rate of 30 cents an hour. Every substitute carrier and substitute post-office clerk who has served as such substitute for a period of one year or more shall, when appointed to a regular position, receive the salary of a second grade carrier or clerk, $800 per annum, as his initial salary, and all other promotions shall be regulated according to the classification Act approved March second, nineteen hundred and seven.

That whenever any original check or warrant of the Post Office Department has been lost, stolen, or destroyed the Postmaster General may authorize the issuance of a duplicate thereof, at any time within three years from the date of such original check or warrant, upon the execution by the owner thereof of such bond of indemnity as the Postmaster General may prescribe: Provided further, That when such original check or warrant does not exceed in amount the sum of $50 and the payee or owner is, at the date of the application, an officer or employee in the service of the Post Office Department, whether by contract, designation, or appointment, the Postmaster General may, in lieu of an indemnity bond, authorize the issuance of a duplicate check of warrant upon such an affidavit as he may prescribe, to be made before any postmaster by the payee or owner of an original check or warrant."

May 10, 1916, ch. 117, § 1 (only the 10th full paragraph on said page), 39 Stat. 108

Omitted (Table 3)

Hereafter contracts let for the publication of the Official Postal Guide shall provide for the supply of such copies as may be required for public use by the several executive departments and other Government establishments at a price not exceeding the cost of such guides to the Post Office Department.

May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 1, 39 Stat. 159----- T. 39, §§ 5211, 5213

That such part of section six of the Act approved June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and ten, authorizing a system of postal savings depositories, as reads

"but no one shall be permitted to deposit more than $100 in any one calendar month" is hereby amended to read as follows: "but the balance to the credit of any person, upon which interest is payable, shall not exceed $1,000, exclusive of accumulated interest"; and said Act is further amended so that the proviso in section seven thereof shall read as follows: "Provided, That the board of trustees may, in their discretion, and under such regulations as such board may promulgate, accept additional deposits not to exceed in the aggregate $1,000 for each depositor, but upon which no interest shall be paid."

May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159—
160

T. 39, §§ 5203, 5214, 5215, 5216, 5217,
5218, 5219, 5221

That postal savings funds received under the provisions of this Act shall be deposited in solvent banks, whether organized under National or State laws, and whether member banks or not of the Federal reserve system established by the Act approved December twenty-third, nineteen hundred and thirteen, being subject to National or State supervision and examination, and the sums deposited shall bear interest at the rate of not less than two and one-fourth per centum per annum, which rate shall be uniform throughout the United States and Territories thereof; but five per centum of such funds shall be withdrawn by the board of trustees and kept with the Treasurer of the United States, who shall be treasurer of the board of trustees, in lawful money as a reserve. The board of trustees shall take from such banks such security in public bonds or other securities, authorized by Act of Congress or supported by the taxing power, as the board may prescribe, approve, and deem sufficient and necessary to insure the safety and prompt payment of such deposits on demand. The funds received at the postal savings depository offices in each city, town, village, and other locality shall be deposited in banks located therein (substantially in proportion to the capital and surplus of each such bank) willing to receive such deposits under the terms of this Act and the regulations made by authority thereof: Provided, however, If one or more member banks of the Federal reserve system established by the Act approved December twenty-third, nineteen hundred and thirteen, exists in the city, town, village, or locality where the postal savings deposits are made, such deposits shall be placed in such qualified member banks substantially in proportion to the capital and surplus of each such bank, but if such member banks fail to qualify to receive such deposits, then any other bank located therein may, as hereinbefore provided, qualify and receive the same. If no such member bank and no other qualified bank exists in any city, town, village, or locality, or if none where such deposits are made will receive such deposits on the terms prescribed, then such funds shall be deposited under the terms of this Act in the bank most convenient to such locality. If no such bank in any State or Territory is willing to receive such deposits on the terms prescribed, then such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of the board of trustees and shall be counted in making up the reserve of five per centum. Such funds may be withdrawn from the treasurer of said board of trustees, and all other postal savings funds, or any part of such funds, may be at any time withdrawn from the banks and savings depository offices for the repayment of postal savings depositors when required for that purpose. If at any time the postal savings deposits in any State or Territory shall exceed the amount which the qualified banks therein are willing to receive under the terms of this Act, and such excess amount is not required to make up the reserve fund of five per centum hereinbefore provided for, the board of trustees may invest all or any part of such excess amount in bonds or other securities of the United States. When, in the judgment of the President, the general welfare and interests of the United States so require, the board of trustees may invest all or any part of the postal savings funds, except the reserve fund of five per centum herein provided for, in bonds or other securities of the United States. The board of trustees may in its discretion purchase from the holders thereof bonds which have been or may be issued under the provisions of section ten of the Act of June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and ten. Interest and profit accruing from the deposits or investment of postal savings funds shall be applied to the payment of interest due to postal savings depositors, as hereinbefore provided, and the excess thereof, if any, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as a part of the postal revenue: Provided further, That postal savings funds in the treasury of said board shall be subject to disposition as provided in this Act, and not otherwise: And provided further, That the board of trustees may at any time dispose of bonds held as postal savings investments and use the proceeds to meet withdrawals of deposits by depositors. For the purpose of this Act the word "Territory"; as used herein shall be held to include the District of Columbia, the District of Alaska, and Porto Rico, and the word "bank" shall be held to include savings banks and trust companies doing a banking business.

May 18, 1916, ch. 126, § 4 (that portion of section 4 which precedes the comma in the 16th line on page 161),
39 Stat. 161

Omitted (Table 3)

That when, during a weighing period, on account of floods or other causes, interruptions in service occur on railroad routes and the weights of mail are decreased below the normal, or where there is an omission to take weights, the Postmaster General, for the purpose of readjusting compensation on such railroad routes as are affected thereby, is hereafter authorized, in his discretion to add to the weights of mails ascertained on such routes during that part of the weighing period when conditions as shown to have been normal the estimated weights for that part of the weighing period when conditions are shown to have been not normal, or where there has been an omission to take weights, based upon the average of weights taken during that part of the weighing period during which conditions are shown to have been normal, the actual weights and the estimated weights to form the basis for the average weight per day upon which to readjust the compensation according to law on such railroad routes for the transportation of the mails.

T. 39, § 3113

The Postmaster General in his discretion may require all carriers to furnish sufficient equipment to properly handle postal business on their routes:

July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1 (only the fifth proviso in the fifth complete paragraph on page 423), 39 Stat. 423

Omitted (Table 3)

That the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, allow and pay additional compensation to rural letter carriers who are required to carry pouch mail to intermediate post offices, or for intersecting loop routes, in all cases where it appears that the carriage of such pouches increases the expense of the equipment required by the carrier or materially increases the amount of labor performed by him, such compensation not to exceed the sum of $12 per annum for each mile such carrier is required to carry such pouch or pouches.

July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1 (that portion of the paragraph which begins on page 423 and ends on page 424 through the first proviso), 39 Stat. 423-424

Omitted (Table 3)

The postmaster General is hereby authorized and directed to reorganize and readjust existing rural mail delivery service where necessary to conform to the standards herein prescribed: Provided further, That in making appointments of rural carriers for service on new routes, which may be created by the reorganization herein ordered, preference shall be given to carriers who were formerly employed in rural-delivery service and who were separated therefrom on or after June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and fifteen, by reason of any previous reorganization of the service and without charges against them:

July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 1 (the first sentence of the first complete paragraph on page 424), 39 Stat. 424

Omitted (Table 3)

The Postmaster General is hereby authorized to conduct experiments in three or more communities for the purpose of determining the most practical means of extending the operations of the parcel post in the direction of promoting the marketing of farm products and furthering direct transactions between producers and consumers. Such investigation will further include the consideration of the effects on the Rural Free Delivery Service such extension of the Parcel Post System will have, and report of conclusions reached shall be made to Congress.

July 28, 1916, ch. 261, § 2 (all material after the word "repealed" in the seventh line of section 2 to the end of the section), 39 Stat. 424-425

T. 39, § 6203

but no publication shall be sent by freight if such method of transportation results in unfair discrimination: Provided, That whenever the owner of any publication required by an order of the Post Office Department to be transmitted by freight believes that he is unfairly discriminated against, he may apply to the Post Office Department for an opportunity to be heard; that upon such application being duly filed in writing, the owner of such publication shall have opportunity for a full and fair hearing before said department, and pending final determination no change shall be made in the method of transportation of such publication as ordered by the department. The testimony in any such hearing or proceedings shall be reduced to writing and filed in the Post Office Department prior to entering an order upon such hearing. That upon such hearing if the Post Office Department decides adversely to the contention of the publisher, such publisher shall have the right, within the period of twenty days after the date of the order of the Post Office Department made upon such hearing, to appeal to the United States court of appeals of the District of Columbia, for a review of such order by said court of appeals, by filing in the court a written petition praying that the order of the Post Office Department be set aside. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith served upon the Post Office Department and thereupon the said department forthwith shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the record and testimony. Upon the filing of such transcript the court shall have jurisdiction to affirm, set aside or modify the order of the department.

The jurisdiction of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia to affirm, set aside or modify such orders of the Post Office Department shall be exclusive.

Such proceedings in the court of appeals of the District of Columbia shall be given precedence over other cases pending therein and shall be in every way expedited.
